STANDARDS OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT AND ETIQUETTE FOR MEMBERS OF THE FEDERATION

Preamble

A member shall, at all times, comport himself in a manner befitting his status as a privileged member of his profession and a gentleman, bearing in mind that what may be lawful and moral for a person who is not a member of the Bar, or for a member of the Bar in his non-professional capacity, may still be improper for a member. He shall at all times in his dealings with the Court, tax officers, Departmental Representatives and clients act honourably and never in a manner which shows lack of honesty or probity. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing obligation, a member shall fearlessly uphold the interests of his client and in his conduct, conform to the rules hereinafter mentioned both in letter and in spirit. The rules hereinafter mentioned contain canons of conduct and etiquette adopted as general guides, yet the specific mention thereof shall not be construed as a denial of the existence of others equally imperative though not specifically mentioned.

Section I – Duty to the Court

1. A member shall always conduct himself honourably and while pleading a case before a Court, act with dignity and self-respect. He shall not be servile and whenever there is proper ground for serious complaint against a judicial officer, it shall be his duty and right to submit his grievance to proper authorities.

2. A member shall maintain towards the Court a respectful attitude, bearing in mind that the dignity of the judicial office is essential for the survival of a free community and the rendering of justice fearlessly.
3. A member shall not influence the decision of a Court by any illegal or improper means. Private communications with the Court relating to heard/pending matters are forbidden.
4. A member shall use his best efforts to restrain and prevent his client from resorting to unfair practices or from doing anything in relation to the Court, opposing counsel or the Revenue, which the member himself ought not to do. A member shall refuse to represent the client who indulges in such improper conduct.
5. A member shall appear in Court only in the prescribed dress and his appearance shall always be presentable. The member shall ensure compliance with this requirement by the authorised person representing him when seeking adjournment.
6. A member shall not enter appearance, act, plead or practice in any way before a Court if any member thereof or the presiding authority is related to him as spouse, brother or sister or as lineal ascendant or descendant of such member or of the three specified relatives.

Section II – Duty to the client

7. A member is bound to accept any brief in the Courts or Tribunals or before any other authority in or before which he professes to practice at a fee consistent with his standing at the Bar and the nature of the case. Special circumstances may justify his refusal to accept a particular case.
8. A member shall not ordinarily withdraw from engagements once accepted, without sufficient cause and unless reasonable and sufficient notice is given to the client. Upon his withdrawal from a case, he shall, in the event fees have been accepted in advance, refund such part of the fees, if any, collected in advance, as have not been earned.
9. A member should not accept a brief or appear in a case in which he has reason to believe that he will be a witness, and if being engaged in a case, it becomes apparent that he is a witness on a material question of fact, he should not continue to appear as a member if he can withdraw from the case without jeopardising his client's interest.
10. It shall be the duty of a member fearlessly to uphold the interest of his client by all fair and honourable means without regard to any unpleasant consequences to himself or any other, regardless of his personal opinion, bearing in mind that his loyalty is to the law which requires that no man should be made liable to pay tax levied on him without the authority of law.

11. A member shall not at any time be a party to formenting of litigation.
12. A member shall not stipulate for a fee contingent on the result of litigation or agree to share the proceeds thereof.
13. A member shall not do any thing whereby he abuses or takes advantage of the confidence reposed in him by his client.
14. A member who has at any time advised in connection with a matter or transaction or appeared in a matter shall not advise or appear for any other person who has an interest adverse to that of the person he has advised or acted for.
15. A member shall not directly or indirectly, commit a breach of the obligations imposed on him under Section 126 of the Indian Evidence Act.
16. A member should keep accounts of the client's money entrusted to him, and the accounts should show the amounts received from the client or on his behalf, the expenses incurred for him and the debits made on accounts of fees with respective dates and all other necessary particulars and after the conclusion of the proceedings should promptly refund to the client the balance, if any, due to him.

Section III – Duty to opponent

17. A member shall be fair towards the Departmental Representatives.

Section IV

18. A member shall not knowingly enter appearance in any case in which there is already a vakalatnama or memo of appearance filed by a member engaged for a party except with his consent.
19. A member whose consent is so sought shall not unreasonably withhold the same, where the client desires a change of the representative. He should also hand over to the client, the client's papers in his possession.

Section V – General

20. A member shall not solicit work or advertise either directly or indirectly.
21. A member shall not offer private hospitality or favours of any kind to the Court except where they are his family members, close relatives and personal close friends of long standing. In such a case the member shall not appear before the Court. Inviting such persons to functions where a large number of guests are present is not prohibited. A gift may be made on the occasion of weddings or other similar functions to which a member is invited. The value of the gift should, however, be reasonable.

Note : For the purpose of these rules : 'Court' shall mean a Court, Tribunal or any other judicial authority. 'His' will include her.

ALL INDIA FEDERATION OF TAX PRACTITIONERS

GUIDELINES FOR ORGANISING THE SEMINARS

1. One of the objects, with which the Federation has been formed is to spread the movement of the Federation to new areas and expand the numbers of affiliated associations and individuals, make effective representations and update the knowledge of the members of the Federation at large by organising and arranging the seminars and the National Executive Committee meetings at different places. The endeavour of organising the seminars should be to work not as competing the local existing bar associations but as complementing their efforts for a better tax administration as also to establish a direct rapport with the individuals practising in the region concerned.
2. The seminar/conference should be organised with a view to create a better healthy and friendly atmosphere amongst the professionals practising on the direct and indirect taxes so as to inculcate a sense of belonging to one family.
3. The time table of inaugural session, technical sessions, brains trust and valedictory session with Budget, be finalised at least three months in advance.
4. Subjects and faculty members for the seminar/conference be finalised at least 2½ months in advance and written confirmation from each faculty member be obtained. Complete programme so finalised with the budget shall be forwarded to the President/Secretary General at least two months in advance.

5. The organisers will circulate the programme amongst the members of the zone as also the members of the National Executive Committee and zonal managing committee of the Federation. Due publicity about the programme will also be made through professional magazines and circulars.
6. The organisers will ensure the preparation of banners covering names of all the organising associations including that of the Federation.
7. In case the organisers desire to have a session of brains' trust meeting, the queries to be replied by each trustee shall be circulated in advance duly allotted amongst the trustees.
8. In case the organisers desire to host the National Executive Committee Meeting to coincide with the seminar, conference etc. the duration of the seminar should be of two days and they must ensure the attendance of at least 300 participants.
9. In order to attract better participation as well as better contribution from the faculty members of the Federation of repute it is also advisable to arrange seminar of a duration of more than one day.
10. The seminar should be planned in such a manner that it would lead to sizeable surplus for the better future of the organising bar associations as well as the zonal office concerned.

11. The Federation in no case will share the deficit but would share the surplus of the seminar equally; resulting out of holding of the seminar. In suitable cases share of the Federation can be varied by the Chairman of the zone concerned with active consultation and concurrence of the President.
12. The faculty members from the National Executive Committee of the Federation would endeavour to help the organisers. While agreeing to give their helping hand it is recommended that wherever viable the faculty members should be received and looked after by the organisers in the best possible manner.
13. The funds required for organising the seminar can be by way of delegate fees, sponsorship of lunch/dinner/ kits/study papers etc. to be managed and arranged from within the zone. Funds can also be raised by publication of any book on any topical subject of direct or indirect taxes under the banner of the Federation. In case any individual member desires to have his own publication to be released at any of the session of the seminar, prior permission in that regard will have to be obtained in writing from the President of the Federation.
14. The surplus received by the zonal office as a result of organising the seminar would form part of the funds of the zonal office and no remittance of any portion thereof is required to be made to the common general funds of the Federation maintained by the head office.

15. The aforesaid fund left by the Federation with the zonal office is required to be spent for the furtherance of the objects of the Federation and expanding the activities of the Federation.
16. It would be the duty of the organisers to finalise the accounts of the seminar at the quickest possible time but not later than one and a half months thereafter and forward a duly audited accounts to the zonal office along with the share of surplus.
17. In case new members are enrolled at the venue of the seminar/conference, the amount so collected should be separately remitted with the statement of the members enrolled without being mixed up or amalgamated with the accounts of the seminar.
18. In case the organisers desire a presence of large number of National Executive Committee members of the Federation and in case they so desire they can also sponsor National Executive Committee meeting coinciding with the dates for the seminar. Such a step would be always beneficial, welcomed and publicly recognised by the Federation.
