SHARDA MATA MANDIR MAIHAR

It is said that mother always sits on high places. The way devotees reach Vaishno Devi by crossing the mountains to have darshan of Maa Durga. Similarly, in Satna district of Madhya Pradesh, 1063 steps are taken to visit the mother. Situated on the Trikut mountain in Maihar tehsil of Satna district, this temple of Mata is called the temple of Maihar Devi.

Maihar means mother's necklace. Mata Sharada is the abode of Goddess Sarada Devi on the Trikut mountain, 5 kilometers from the city. Maa Sarada Devi temple in the middle of the mountain top. The only temple of Mata Sharda across the country is in Maihar of Satna. Along with Mata, Shri Kaal Bhairavi, Lord, Hanuman ji, Goddess Kali, Durga, Shri Gauri Shankar, Shesh Nag, Phoolmati Mata, Brahma Dev and Jalapa Devi are also worshiped on this mountain top.

WHITE TIGER SAFARI MUKUNDPUR

The Zoological park exists in Mukundpur, just 15 kms. from Rewa, known as "Mukundpur Zoo and Mohan White Tiger Safari" resides there names after by then Maharaja Martand Singh. The White Tiger was caught by Maharaja Matand Singh on May 27, 1951 from Sidhi district's Bargadi forest area and later the animal was brought to Govindgarh Palace in Rewa from where it escaped the very next day and then again found in Munkundpur area about 26-27 km away from Rewa.
