MAHAKAL
CORRIDOR AT UJJAIN

Ujjain is an ancient city beside the Kshipra River in the central Indian state of Madhya Pradesh. An important Hindu pilgrimage destination, it's known for the centuries-old Mahakaleshwar Temple, a towering structure with a distinctively ornate roof. Nearby, Bade Ganesh Temple houses a colorful statue of Ganesh, the elephant-headed Hindu deity. Harsiddhi Temple features a pair of tall dark pillars studded with lamps.

Mahakaleshwar Jyotirlinga is a Hindu temple dedicated to Shiva and is one of the twelve Jyotirlingas, shrines which are said to be the most sacred abodes of Shiva. It is located in the ancient city of Ujjain in the state of Madhya Pradesh, India. The temple is situated on the side of the holy river Shipra.

The Mahakal Lok Corridor measures over 900 metres in length. Entry is through two majestic gateways, the Nandi Dwar and the Pinaki Dwar. There are 108 ornate sandstone columns in a row, with the 'Trishul' design on top and various 'mudras' of Lord Shiva etched on the pillars. The corridor is being developed at an estimated cost of over Rs 850 crore and has been named 'Mahakal Lok'. The corridor measures over 900 metres in length and will house around 200 statues and murals of lord Shiva and goddess Shakti, among other religious figures.
