APPEAL FOR ADVERTISEMENT :

We have the pleasure to inform you that the National Tax Conference organized by the All India Federation of Tax Practitioners (Western Zone) is going to be held at Shirdi, Maharashtra on 21st and 22nd August, 2023. All India Federation of Tax Practitioners is the Apex Association of Tax Advocates, Chartered Accountants and Tax Practitioners from all over the Country with having more than 10,000 life members on its roll. The Federation was formed on 11th November, 1976 and has completed 42 years of its purposeful existence. The Federation is regularly organising National Conferences and Seminars throughout the Country every year as well as organising continuous educational programmes and study circle meetings. It has been making various representations to the various Central and State Government authorities as regard Direct and Indirect taxes as well as filing public interest litigations before the Supreme Court and High Courts in order to get tax laws simplified and rationalised. Apart from all the above, the Federation is also organising National Moot Court competitions and conducting research on various topics of tax laws.

200 or more delegates are expected to participate in the National Tax Conference wherein in the technical sessions, various intricate issues of Direct and Indirect taxes are going to be discussed. Eminent speakers from all over the country are going to speak in the technical sessions.

To commemorate the occasion, it has been decided to publish a Souvenir containing articles to be authored by experts from all over the Country on various intricate issues of Direct and Indirect taxes. We, therefore, request you to kindly provide us on advertisement to be published in the said Souvenir.
