Service of notice under section 158BC by affixture was not valid where the Inspector straightaway served the notice by affixture at the business premises in the absence of the assessee.

Sanjay Kumar Mishra v. ACIT (2006) 100 TTJ 862 (Jab.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Notice – Non-existent company

A search cannot be conducted on a non-existent company nor can a s. 158BC notice be issued to a non-existing company.

Slocum Investment (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 101 TTJ 558 / 106 ITD 1 / 7 SOT 761 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Notice – Interest under section 132B(4)(b) – Assessment within 6 months

Since the Assessing Officer completed the block assessment before the expiry of six months period from the date of issue of notice under section 158BC, the assessee was not entitled to any interest under section 132B(4)(b).

Dy. CIT v. M. Bansilal Jain (2006) 101 TTJ 440 / 99 ITD 8 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Notice – Third party – Satisfaction [S. 158BD]

- (a) It is necessary to record satisfaction before making of assessment under section 158BD otherwise such assessment cannot be legally justified.
- (b) Service of a valid and legal notice requiring to furnish return after fifteen days is a necessary condition and mandatory requirement for assuming jurisdiction for assessment under section 158BD and if such condition is not satisfied, assumption of jurisdiction for making assessment under section 158BD cannot be legally justified.

Navin Verma v. ACIT, (2006) 100 ITD 73 / 283 ITR 83 (AT) / 105 TTJ 952 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Third party statement – Bogus purchases – Material

No incriminating material found during the search – No addition can be made on the basis of the statement by the alleged bogus suppliers of goods to the assessee before the FERA authorities.

Dy. CIT v. Beautiful Diamonds Ltd., ITAT Mumbai Bench 'B', ITA No. 78/Mum/2000 dt.

8-12-2005 – BCAJ, May 2006 (39-B) P. 150 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Survey – Nature of Income declared

Once the income is admitted as undisclosed income during survey, it does not retain the character of undisclosed income in the search under section 132. Undisclosed income under section 158BC can be computed on basis of material found during search, and not on basis of survey conducted under section 133A.

Gauthanchand Bhandari v. Dy. CIT (2006) 152 Taxman 57 (Mag.)(Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Undisclosed income – Sale of shares – Evidence

Assessing Officer was not justified in assessing the profits as undisclosed income of the assessee-company when the sale of shares was duly reflected by the assessee in its returns and the documents filed therewith and the seized documents do not support the conclusions arrived at by the Assessing Officer.

Slocum Investment (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 101 TTJ 558 / 7 SOT 761 / 106 ITD 1 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Undisclosed income – FDR – Period

FDRs acquired by assessee prior to the commencement of the block period cannot be subject-matter of the block assessment.

Maj. Gen (Retd.) Kanwarjit Singh Gill L/H of Smt. Narinder Kaur Gill (Decd.) v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 538 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Undisclosed income – Income of predecessor – Successor in business

An assessment of undisclosed income for a block period under Chapter XIV-B in respect of a predecessor of a business cannot be made in the hands of the successor in such business.

Slocum Investment (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 101 TTJ 558 / (2006) 7 SOT 761 / 106 ITD 1 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Lease – Depreciation

Ownership of assets and their leasing having been shown in the return and balance sheet depreciation thereon could not be disallowed in block assessment.

Sigma Securities v. Jt. CIT (2006) 105 TTJ 428 / 102 ITD 342 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Statement during search – Method of accounting [S. 40A(3)]

- (i) Computation of undisclosed is made de hors books of account and on the basis of the seized material and therefore, the provisions of section 40A(3) are not applicable.
- (ii) Valid statement, recorded under section 132(4), can be used as evidence in the block assessment proceedings even if that statement is retracted later on.
- (iii) Accounting of undisclosed profits as a consequence of search & seizure action under section 132 has to be made on the basis of method of accounting followed.

Dhanvarsha Builders & Developers P. Ltd. 102 ITD 375 / 105 TTJ 376 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Dividend – Chit funds – Principle of mutuality

Assessee being one of the participants as well as a contributory to the chits conducted by him, dividend received by him is surplus arising by contributing to chits and hence it could not be taxed in view of principle of mutuality even though the assessee has admitted the same as taxable income

Arun Kumar Bhansali v. Dy. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 1308 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Sources – Investment – Marriage gifts

Assessee having explained the source of investments and a loan taken the additions were deleted. Assessee having filed the details of donors and the details of gifts received by her at the time of her marriage and the Department having not produced any evidence to show that the said gifts are not genuine, addition in respect of such gifts cannot be sustained.

Madhavi Finvest (P) Ltd. & Ors. v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 933 (Visakha)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Documentary evidence – Proof of refund

Assessee having failed to prove by any documentary evidence that the amount received as advance against property was refunded, addition was justified.

Narendra Kumar Nagpal v. Dy. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 1278 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Unrecorded sales – Recorded stock

Assessee having made unrecorded sales from the recorded stock and profit from such sales having been already taxed, no further addition for investment in working capital is justified.

Jai Kumar Jain v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 744 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Seizure – By police – Employee

Assessee company having explained that the cash seized by police from its employees belonged to the assessee which was being carried for depositing in the bank and produced its cash book to prove the availability of the cash no addition could be sustained irrespective of some discrepancies in the statements.

Anand Autoride Ltd. v. Jt.CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 1250 / 99 ITD 227 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Unexplained money advance for purchases – Cash balance sheet

Cash balance as per cash book which was found short together with the balance in the 'disawar' a/c in the regular books of account being adequate to explain the amount lying with employee as advance for purchase of material, same could not be treated as unexplained money.

Jai Kumar Jain v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 744 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Explanation of assessee – Adjustment

Having accepted the explanation of assessee regarding receipt of ₹ 1 lakh, Assessing Officer was not justified in rejecting the explanation regarding refund of ₹ 75,000 out of said amount and make addition of ₹ 1 lakh.

Narendra Kumar Nagpal v. Dy. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 1278 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Third party seizure & income – Assumption

In the absence of any definite material, addition could not be made on the assumption that the profit arising from a transaction entered into by a third party was shared by the assessee and the said party simply because assessee had advanced ₹ 10 lakhs to that party. No presumption can be drawn against the assessee under section 132(4A) in respect of papers recovered from a third party and no addition can be made on the basis thereof in the absence of corroborative evidence.

Jai Kumar Jain v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 744 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Return filed after search – Immunity

Income returned by assessee though belated for assessment years in the block period, filed after search cannot be included in block assessment.

Chandra Bhan v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 906 / 98 ITD 6 (Agra)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Shortage of stock – Failure to take inventory

Raiding party having not inventorised the stock said to have been stored in another shop even after it was apprised of said shop by the manager of assessee's factory, addition on account of shortage of stock could not be made by assuming sales outside the books of account

Dy. CIT v. Stylritc Optical Industries (2006) 99 TTJ 869 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – VDIS – Subsequent sale

Various members of the assessee's family having disclosed diamonds under VDIS, 1997, which were later sold, and the Department having accepted the declaration of the assessee no addition could be made

Jai Kumar Jain v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 744 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Investment / Expenditure – New income

While computing the undisclosed income of the assessee set off of investment/expenditure should be allowed against the income only to the extent the same is after the earning of income

Jai Kumar Jain v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 744 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Deceased Karta – HUF – Illegal and void ab initio

Block assessment framed in the name of deceased karta through Authorised Representative' in the status of HUF was illegal and void ab initio as the notice was not validly served on Karta or adult member in terms of s. 282(2).

Madhavi Finvest (P) Ltd. & Ors. v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 933 (Visakha)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Notice – Premature – Requisition

Notice issued before concluding the requisition of assets was premature and illegal as no block period was mentioned therein. Further assessment order for the block period which did not cover the period upto the date when the assets were really requisitioned by the Department and the documents were recovered by it was ab initio illegal, invalid and bad in law. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1996-97)

R. P. Dwivedi v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 794 (Agra)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Notice – S. 143(2) – Curable defect [S. 292B]

Omission by Assessing Officer to give notice under section 143(2) in block assessment is a curable defect under section 292B.

Chandra Bhan v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 906 / 98 ITD 6 (Agra)(Trib.)

Editorial : No more good law in view of Supreme Court's decision in the case of ACIT & Another v. Hotel Blue Moon (2010) 321 ITR 362 (SC)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Search warrant – Husband's income – Valid

Search warrant being in the name of husband of assessee, block assessment of assessee is void ab initio

Dhiraj Suri v. Addl. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 525 / 98 ITD 187 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Commencement of Search – Limitation

There being only one authorization for search which was executed on 18th September, 1998, and no fresh authorization in favour of the officer who visited the assessee's premises on 13th November, 1998 and lifted the prohibitory order, the limitation for completion of block assessment ended on 30th September, 2000, and therefore, the assessment order passed on 28th November, 2000, was barred by limitation.

Javed Mohd. Peshiman v. Dy. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 434 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Failure in issuing notice – Irregularity – Curable defect [S. 292B]

For the purpose of block assessment failure in issuing notice under section 143(2) is not a nullity but irregularity which is curable defect.

A.P. Shanmugaraj v. Dy. CIT (2006) 99 ITD 278 / 100 TTJ 259 (Chennai)(Trib.)

Editorial : No more good law in view of Supreme Court's decision in the case of ACIT & Another v. Hotel Blue Moon (2010) 321 ITR 362 (SC)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Recording of Satisfaction [S. 158BD]

No block assessment under section 158BD rws 158BC can be undertaken without pre-recording any satisfaction that income belongs to "such other person" and in absence of such satisfaction being on record.

Sakun International v. Jt. CIT (2006) 280 ITR (AT) 256 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Notice on legal heirs Set aside – Curable defect

Block assessment framed after the death of the assessee by brining on record only the wife of the deceased without bringing on record other legal heirs was irregular assessment. Assessment is set aside and restored to the Assessing Officer to cure the irregularity and to bring on record all the legal heirs.

A.P. Shanmugaraj v. Dy. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 259 / 99 ITD 278 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Notice – Procedural [S. 292B]

Provisions of section 158BC are not substantive but procedural and therefore, any error /defect in the notice under section 158BC would not render the block assessment proceedings to be null and void. Such mistake is easily taken care by section 292B.

Mahesh Kumari Batra (Smt.) v. Jt. CIT (2006) 280 ITR (AT) 34 (SB)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Limitation – Order of Tribunal [S. 150(1)]

Order passed by the Tribunal against the order under section 158BC to the effect that the undisclosed income on account of undervaluation of properties could be assessed in the regular assessment under section 143(3) and not in block assessment amounted to a 'finding' or 'direction' and therefore, the provisions of s. 150(1) were attracted and no limitation of time was applicable for reopening of assessment. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Hanemp Properties (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2006) 102 TTJ 1083 (Delhi)(Trib.)

158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Undisclosed income – Deposits and advance – Statement [S. 132(4)]

- (a) Addition in respect of deposits in bank account not being based on any seized material could not be made in block assessment.
- (b) Addition on account of payment of on-money on purchase of flat could not be made on the basis of the statement of assessee's father recorded under section 132(4).
- (c) Amount of credit in the foreign bank account which was not disclosed in the regular returns and had escaped assessment is to be treated as undisclosed income.
- (d) Amount of prize money and remuneration received by the assessee was not charged to tax after due application of mind by the Assessing Officer cannot be included as undisclosed income in the block assessment.
- (e) Amount on account of creditors written back by the assessee could not be included in undisclosed income in the block assessment.
- (f) Assessee having declared the entire credits in a bank account as undisclosed income, payments said to have been made by her by utilizing a part of money withdrawn from the said account cannot be treated as undisclosed income.
- (g) Assessee having explained the cash found at the time of search on the basis of cash book the explanation cannot be rejected and the cash cannot be treated as undisclosed income.
- (h) In view of existence of relevant material to support the assessee's claim of depreciation cannot be treated as false and therefore, Assessing Officer could not treat the amount of depreciation as undisclosed income of the block period.
- (i) Once the acquisition of jewellery is duly reflected in the regular books of account, mere appreciation in its value due to passage of time cannot be subject- matter of addition.

Aishwarya K. Rai (Ms.) v. Dy. CIT (2006) 105 TTJ 825 / 105 TTJ 825 (TM)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Notice – Service

Service of a valid notice under section 158BC is a pre requisite for Assessing Officer to proceed to make an Assessment of Block period.

Vinod Kumar v. ACIT 154 Taxman 146 (Mag.)(Agra)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Consultancy fees – Third party – Commission – Statement – Assumption

The assessee-doctor has received commission from diagnostic centers for referring cases, additions on account of estimated commission could not be made simply by relying upon the statement of a partner of a diagnostic center recorded at the back of the assessee.

In the absence of any information or material with the Assessing Officer, no addition could be made on account of suppression of consultancy fees for the period during which assessee-doctor was not carrying on consultancy.

P. R. Gupta (Dr.) v. Dy. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 845 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Value of perquisites – Material not found

Addition on account of value of perquisites, in the absence of any material found during the course of search, is part of regular assessment and is beyond the ken of block assessment.

Dy. CIT v. Raj Kumar Agarwal (2006) 102 TTJ 991 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Gifts – Gold ornaments – Construction cost

Gifts received disclosed in the books of account and shown in regular returns could not be subjected to addition in block assessment.

Gold ornaments disclosed in the books of account and shown in regular returns could not be subjected to addition in block assessment.

In the absence of any material found during search, no addition can be made in block assessment towards cost of construction on the basis of DVO's report.

Dy. CIT v. Raj Kumar Agarwal (2006) 102 TTJ 991 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Search of third party – Natural justice – Telescoping

No addition could be made on the basis of alleged material recovered from the search of a third party as the Assessing Officer has not established that such material was connected with the material recovered during the course of search against the assessee nor such material was confronted to the assessee.

No separate addition in respect of unrecorded repayment of loan is warranted as the amount already offered by the assessee as undisclosed income in the return for block period is available to the assessee to explain the said payments.

Eagle Seeds & Biotech Ltd. v. ACIT (2006) 102 TTJ 1065 / 100 ITD 301 (Indore)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Seizure by police – Contraband Forest Produce – Addition's

Contraband forest produce seized by police and the assessee having failed to account for the transportation of the goods / assets in the matter, same were rightly subjected to block assessment. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1996-97)

Jageshwar Rosin & Turpentine Factory v. ACIT (2006) 102 TTJ 670 / 100 ITD 399 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Notice under section [143(2)] – Irregularity – Curable

Notice under section 158BC was issued and in response of which Return was filed. Assessing Officer issued detailed questionnaire calling for details and documents. Block assessment order was completed without serving notice under section 143(2). On assessee's contending that order is void ab initio, it was held, that non issuance of notice under section 143(2) is only an irregularity which is curable and not a nullity, and further as assessee was given a proper opportunity of being heard there could not be any grievance.

Ruby Kashyap (Smt) v. Dy. CIT Central Circle 12 (1) (2006) 155 Taxman 81 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

Editorial : No more good law in view of Supreme Court's decision in the case of ACIT & Another v. Hotel Blue Moon (2010) 321 ITR 362 (SC)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Surcharge – Amendment in S. 113 – Prospective

Finance Acts did not provide for a separate and independent charge for levying surcharge on undisclosed income of a block period and, therefore, prior to insertion of proviso to s. 113 surcharge was not chargeable. Proviso to the section 113 which enables enhancement of tax determined under section 113, by the amount of surcharge is a substantive provision. It cannot be said to be a mere procedural one particularly in the absence of specific provision in the statute providing for retrospective operation and therefore, the same cannot have retrospective effect.

Merit Enterprises v. Dy. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 748 / 101 ITD 1 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Return – transaction record in the books of account

No disallowance can be made in block assessment in respect of transactions as per regular books of account though returns were filed after date of search.

Dy. CIT v. Raja Udayshankar (2006) 7 SOT 680 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Jewellery – Disclosure by wife

Ownership of the jewellery seized during search having been independently claimed by the wife of the assessee who was herself an income-tax assessee, addition in the hands of assessee in respect of such jewellery was invalid.

Dy. CIT v. Vinod Kamra (2006) 102 TTJ 152 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Third party seizure – Evidence

Addition on account of alleged unaccounted investment in land could not be sustained simply on the basis of certain papers seized from a third party.

Jagmohan Singh Arora & Ors. v. Dy. CIT & Anr. (2006) 101 TTJ 682 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Undisclosed income – Sale of plots – Validity – Minor mistake – Fresh assessment – Scope

Profit earned by assessee on sale of plots which were purchased and sold at short intervals was assessable as business income and such profits are to be determined by deducting the actual purchase price and development expenditure as directed in each case from the sale consideration. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1996-97)

Minor mistake in not computing some of the undisclosed income year-wise is not fatal to the block assessment particularly when it is not the case of the assessee that some of the undisclosed income computed falls outside the block period.

If the entire assessment order is set aside to the file of the Assessing Officer for fresh consideration, the fresh assessment order would be perfectly valid even if it results in enhancement of the total income determined in the original assessment.

Parshuram D. Patil v. ACIT (2006) 103 TTJ 765 / 102 ITD 241 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Dumb document – Addition

No addition can be made on the basis of a dumb document which does not speak anything and no interpretation relating to undisclosed income emerges out from the same. (A.Ys. 1989-90 and 1990-91)

ACIT v. Kalindee Rail Nirman Engg. Ltd. Bench "A", ITA Nos. 265 & 266/ JP/2003, dated 25th January, 2006 (Tax World – May 2006 – Vol XXXV – P. 135)(Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Estimate – Household expenditure

Addition for household expenditure can be made on estimate basis in a case wherein assessee has voluntarily offered such an amount on estimate basis in the block return.

ACIT v. Govind Ram Makhija Bench "A" (ITSSA No. 142/JP/2005) (C.O. No. 95/JP/2005) Block Period 1990–91 to 7-4-2000 dated 24th January, 2006 (Tax World – April 2006 – Vol XXXV – P 97)(Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Scope – Estimate of GP. [S. 144, 145]

GP rate can be estimated even in block assessment after amendment under section 158BC(b) by which the provisions of section 144/145 are made applicable retrospectively. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1996-97)

Subhash Chand Chopra v. ACIT (2005) 92 TTJ 1087 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Withdrawal – Exemption under section 10(22)

If in regular assessment, exemption under section 10(22) is allowed, same cannot be withdrawn in block period unless claim of assessee is found to be false.

Shan Trust v. ACIT (2005) 97 TTJ 678 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Estimate of income – Possible after amendment [S. 145]

Amendment of section 158BC(b) with effect from 1-7-1995 shows intention of Legislature to apply provisions of section 145 to block assessment right from beginning and negates ratio of various decisions where it was held that income could not be estimated for block period; thus estimation of income for those assessment years for which seized documents were found during search was justified.

ACIT v. Sharda Adhalkha (Dr Mrs.) (2005) 95 TTJ 643 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Material found – Survey [S. 133A]

If no material was found during search and seizure operation relating to a claim and certain material/information was found only during survey under section 133A, such material could not be used for computing undisclosed income under Chapter XIV-B.

GMS Technologies Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 93 TTJ 218 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Search warrant – Person present

All persons who are found at place of search are not automatically covered by action under section 132 and as such where search warrant was in name of assessee's husband, merely because she filed return in response to notice under section 158BC, Assessing Officer could not assume power to make any assessment of undisclosed income in her hands. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1999-2000)

Jt. CIT v. Latika V. Waman (2005) 1 SOT 535 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Partner – Firm

Where there was search at partner's place and survey at firm's place and as a result of survey Assessing Officer impounded books of account of assessee- firm and made assessment under section 158BC, assessment made by Assessing Officer in case of assessee-firm was not sustainable.

L. N. Exports v. ACIT (2005) 95 TTJ 186 / 149 Taxman 15 (Mag.)(Cuttack)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Service of notice – Advocate

Where admittedly notice had not been served on assessee but it had been received by one advocate on behalf of assessee-company and department had not produced any documentary evidence to prove that said advocate was having any written authority from assessee-company to receive notice on behalf of assessee, notice was not valid; it is fundamental requirement to get notice served on assessee before proceeding to complete assessment and as it was lacking, this jurisdictional defect could not be cured by conduct of persons on behalf of assessee and thus assessment was liable to be quashed on that point

Gorakhpur Petro Oils Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2005) 3 SOT 661 / 95 TTJ 489 (TM)(All.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Mistake in return – Fact

Assessee can not be taxed on incorrect income as per return filed under section 158BC, which is a result of mistake of fact or law on part of the assessee. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1996-97)

Dy. CIT v. Sanmukhdas Wadhwani (2003) 85 ITD 734 / 80 TTJ 648 (Nagpur)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Material found in search

Scope of computation under section 158BC is to be based on material found as a result of search.

Satyabhushan v. Dy. CIT (2003) 132 Taxman 143 (Mag.)(Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Search warrant – Family member – Scope

Mere mention of 'family members' in search warrant issued on assessee's husband, would not justify block assessment against assessee, on the ground that search was conducted on the assessee.

Daya Sharma (Dr.) (Mrs.) v. Dy. CIT (2003) SOT 53 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Estimation – Applicable of S. 145

Provisions of S. 145 cannot be applied while assessee in undisclosed Income under chapter XIVB.

Babros Machinery Mfrs. (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2003) 84 ITD 91 / 78 TTJ 857 (TM)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – TDS – Advance tax – Adjustment

There is no provision to adjust Advance Tax or TDS against tax due under chapter XIVB. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1997-98)

G. C. Associates v. Dy. CIT (2003) 80 TTJ 539 / 2 SOT 136 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Time limit – Return

Time-limit for filing Block Return. There is no outer time-limit given in s. 158BC(a)(i). In respect of searches carried out after the first day of January, 1997, the outer limit of 45 days is mentioned. Thus, there was no outer time-limit for filing the returns. Even in respect of cases covered after 1st Jan., 1997, returns filed beyond time are not regarded as non-est return but they are subjected to levy of interest and penalty wherever applicable. Therefore, if the law does not prescribe any outer limit for filing return and the return has in fact been filed before the assessment is completed and is admittedly available for taking cognizance by the Assessing Officer, such returns cannot be branded as invalid.

G.C. Associates v. Dy. CIT (2003) 80 TTJ 539 / (2004) 2 SOT 136 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Undisclosed income – below taxable limit

[S. 158B(b)]

No addition can be made if the Computation of undisclosed income below taxable limit.

Garima H. Jain (Miss) v. ACIT (2003) 87 ITD 242 / 80 TTJ 469 (TM)(Pune)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Validity – In absence of notice [S. 143(2)]

Proviso to s. 143(2) is not applicable to block assessment proceedings. Assessment proceedings can be said to be validly initiated when notice under section 158BC is issued. However, non-issuance of notice under section 143(2) can not render the block assessment a nullity but it can only be a case of deviation from a rule of law resulting in irregularity which is curable. (A.Ys. 1988-89 to 1998-99)

Nawal Kishore & Sons Jewellers v. Dy. CIT (2003) 87 ITD 407 / 81 TTJ 362 (SB)(Luck.)(Trib.)

Editorial : No more good law in view of Supreme Court's decision in the case of ACIT & Another v. Hotel Blue Moon (2010) 321 ITR 362 (SC)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Appealable – Validity of search

(i) Order under section 158BC(c) based on valid action under section 132 is appealable before the Tribunal and not propriety of action taken in the course of valid search under section 132.

(ii) Tribunal's power is restricted to satisfy that action under section 132 was taken against such person and not beyond that; similarly, it may also examine whether there was any valid panchanama in respect of the search.

C. Ramaiah Reddy v. ACIT (2003) 87 ITD 439 / 81 TTJ 1044 (SB)(Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 158BC : Block assessment – Procedure – Notice – Defect – Procedural

Any defect in the notice under section 158BC(a) is curable as it is a procedural irregularity. In such case the block assessment does not become null and void.

Krishna Verma (Smt.) v. ACIT 107 ITD 1 / 109 TTJ 173 / 13 SOT 96 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 158BD : Undisclosed income of any other person

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Recording of satisfaction

Before the provisions of section 158BD are invoked against the person other than the person whose premises have been searched under section 132 or documents and other assets requisitioned under section 132A, the conditions precedent have to be fulfilled. In the present case as the Assessing Officer has not recorded his satisfaction, nor had he transferred the case to the jurisdictional assessing officer, the appeal of the assessee was allowed. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1995-96)

Manish Maheshwari v. ACIT (2007) 208 CTR 97 / 159 Taxman 258 / (2008) 204 Taxation 205 (SC) / 3 SCC 794
Indore Construction P. Ltd v. CIT (2007) 289 ITR 341 / 159 Taxman 258 / 208 CTR 97 / 199 Taxation 284 (SC)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Statement recorded

Proceedings initiated against the assessee under section 158BD on the basis of statement recorded during search are not valid as statement is neither document nor asset; further, initiation of proceedings under section 158BD by the Assessing Officer against the assessee without recording the requisite satisfaction was illegal.

CIT v. Late Raj Pal Bhatia (2011) 49 DTR 9 / 237 CTR 1 / 333 ITR 315 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Recording of satisfaction

Assessing Officer of searched person, having nowhere recorded any satisfaction that the assessee's income of the relevant block period had escaped assessment nor forwarded the records of the case to the assessee's, Assessing Officer proceedings under section 158BD against the assessee were rightly set aside.

CIT v. Sunil Bhala (2011) 238 CTR 18 / 50 DTR 238 / 336 ITR 550 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Notice – Jurisdiction

Where the assessee had not raised the plea that the Assessing Officer had no jurisdiction over him within one month from the date on which he was served notice under section 158BD of the Act, the assessment proceedings cannot be held to be invalid for want of jurisdiction in view of section 124(3) of the Act. (A. Ys. 1997-98 to 2003-04).

CIT v. Kapil Jain (2011) 50 DTR 342 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Order void if referring Assessing Officer's "satisfaction" not recorded

Mere mention of the word 'satisfaction' in the order / note will not meet the requirement of the concept of satisfaction as used in section 158BD. The Assessing Officer must reach a clear conclusion that good ground exists for the Assessing Officer of the third person to initiate proceedings as material before him shows or would establish "undisclosed income" of third person. Manish Maheshwari v. ACIT (2007) 289 ITR 341 / 208 CTR 971 / 159 Taxman 258 (SC) followed.

CIT v. Radhey Shyam Bansal (2011) 337 ITR 217 / 243 CTR 375 / 57 DTR 313 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Recording of satisfaction – Prior to handing over of documents

As no satisfaction has been recorded by the Assessing Officer of the person with respect to whom the search was made, prior to handing over the documents to the Assessing Officer of petitioner, the impugned notice under section 158BD is liable to be quashed.

Chandrakantbhai Amratlal Thakkar v. Dy. CIT (2011) 55 DTR 249 / 337 ITR 258 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Office note – Presumption [S. 292C]

If any material is found during search and seizure indicating undisclosed income of third person, further investigation is not necessary. Presumption under section 292C is applicable. Office note of Assessing Officer regarding undisclosed income of third person is valid for proceedings under section 158BD of the Income Tax Act.

CIT v. Mukta Metal Works (2011) 336 ITR 555 / 244 CTR 544 / 62 DTR 167 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Cash flow statement – Balance sheet and other documents from partner [S. 158BC]

The Court held that the finding of the Tribunal that block assessment is solely on cash flow statement furnished by the assessee is factually incorrect, since the assessment is based on information collected in the form of balance sheet and other documents from partner of assessee, in the course of Search carried out in such person's premises, the block assessment order was held to be valid. Order of Tribunal was reversed.

CIT v. K. V. Sudhakaran (2011) 63 DTR 232 / 245 CTR 596 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Action under section 158BD must be taken before completion of search assessment of searched person [S. 158BC]

Action under section 158BD must be taken before completion of assessment of searched person. Block assessment under section 158BC was completed on 30-3-2005. Satisfaction under section 158BD recorded on 15-7-2005. The Court held proceedings held to be not valid. (Block Period 1998 to 2003).

CIT v. Mridula, Prop Dhruv Fabrics (2011) 335 ITR 266 (P&H)(High Court)

Editorial:- Refer Manoj Aggarwal v. Dy. CIT (2008) 113 ITD 377 / 117 TTJ 145 / 11 DTR 1 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S : 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Time for recording of satisfaction

The assessment of the person put to search was completed on 28-2-2005 and proceedings under section 158BD were initiated on 02-12-2006 by issue of notice. The satisfaction under section 158BD was recorded 31-03-2006. Since the satisfaction under section 158BD was recorded after the completion of proceedings under section 158BC, it was held that proceedings under section 158BD are time-barred.

CIT v. Parveen Fabrics P. Ltd. (2011) 198 Taxman 463 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Shares

Addition made by Assessing Officer was in respect of valuation of the stock of shares. The valuation had been done on the basis of stock exchange rate and there was no material before the Assessing Officer to add up the said amount. Therefore, it was held that the Tribunal was justified in deleting the additions. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1996-97)

CIT v. Digvijay Chemicals (2010) 322 ITR 95 (All.)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Satisfaction

[S. 158BC]

Assessing Officer having jurisdiction over the person searched had not recorded any satisfaction, as required under section 158BD, and consequently, the proceedings initiated under section 158BD were bad in law.

CIT v. Anupam Sweets (2010) 321 ITR 485 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Agent of Non-resident [S. 163]

Assessment under section 158BD framed on non-resident assessee after issuing a notice on his power of attorney holder without passing an order under section 163 treating the latter as an agent of the assessee and granting him an opportunity of hearing is a nullity, more so the said power of attorney holder does not answer the description of agent as envisaged under section 163(1).

CIT v. Mukesh B. Shah (2010) 40 DTR 297 / 195 Taxman 15 / 233 CTR 412 / (2011) 224 Taxation 203 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Service of notice – Civil Procedure Code, Rule 17 Order V

When there was no evidence of any local person having been associated with an identification of the place of business of the assessee and the report is not witnessed by any person at all, service of notice by affixture was not valid.

CIT v. Naveen Chander (2010) 323 ITR 49 / 42 DTR 156 / 233 CTR 518 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Satisfaction

Where the status of the assessee was incorrectly mentioned in the notice issued under section 158BD of the Act and also there was no subjective and independent satisfaction recorded by the Assessing Officer the notice issued under section 158BD of the Act cannot be sustained and is liable to be quashed.

Subhas Chandra Bhaniramka v. ACIT (2009) 25 DTR 226 / 226 CTR 84 / 320 ITR 349 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Satisfaction

For invoking section 158BD for the assessment of any person satisfaction must be recorded by the Assessing Officer and Books of accounts, documents or assets seized or requisitioned to be handed over to the assessing officer having jurisdiction over such person.

CIT v. Dawn View Farms (P) Ltd. (2009) 212 Taxation 199 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Definition of the words ‘other person’

Under section 153C of the Act, the Income Tax Dept. cannot demand unrestricted access to information on those persons who have no relation to the person who has been subjected to search u/s. 132. In this case, the Dept. seized the laptops of two employees of the petitioner (the petitioner is a renowned firm of auditors) and demanded password for getting access to files of all the clients of the petitioner- even of those persons who had no relation to the person (client of the petitioner) searched. The words ‘a person’ appearing in section 153C and ‘other person’ appearing in section 158BD, can only mean such person having dealings or transactions with the person searched.

S. R. Batliboi & Co. v. Department of Income-Tax (2009) 181 Taxman 9 / 224 CTR 369 / 315 ITR 137 / 24 DTR 74 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Agent of non resident [S. 163]

During the course of search and seizure action at the residential premises of the Assessee it was found that Assessee's non resident brother was maintaining some bank accounts. As the source of deposits in those banks was not explained assessment order under section 158BD was framed treating the Assessee as agent of his brother under section 163(1). Hon'ble Court held that neither assessee had any business connection with his non resident Indian brother, nor any income had come into existence as having been received by non-resident Indian so as to attract provisions of section 163(1)(c).

CIT v. Rakeshchander Goel (2009) 177 Taxman 15 / 216 CTR 136 / 309 ITR 163 / 6 DTR 81 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Satisfaction

Where no material showing that the undisclosed income of partner of a firm was found during the course of search, the High Court held that there could not be any basis for satisfaction for initiating proceedings under section 158BD of the Act against the partner which is mandatory requirement for initiating proceeding under section 158BD of the Act.

Nivedita M. Makwana v. P.M. Shukla (2008) 11 DTR 225 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Satisfaction

Assessing Officer must record his satisfaction about existence of undisclosed income before proceeding against a person other than one searched.

New Delhi Auto Finance (P) Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2008) 170 Taxman 276 / 217 CTR 628 / 300 ITR 83 / 4 DTR 318 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Permission to cross examine not allowed

The assessee requested the Assessing Officer time and again to permit him to cross-examine Mr. A on the basis of whose statement, proceedings under section 158BD had been launched. However, the said request was not acceded to by the learned Assessing Officer and later on in appeal before ITAT it was found that it was in complete violation of the principles of natural justice. Since Assessing Officer was functioning as a quasi-judicial authority and was under an obligation to adhere to the principles of natural justice. The Hon'ble High Court upheld the view of the Tribunal.

CIT v. SMC Share Brokers (2007) 288 ITR 345 / 210 CTR 353 / 159 Taxman 306 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Jurisdiction

The assessee was other person as contemplated under section 158BD. She was a person other than the person in respect to whom search was carried out under section 132. Thus, as per section 158BD, the relevant material ought to have been handed over to the Assessing Officer having jurisdiction over such other person and the Assessing Officer should proceed against such other person as provided under section 158BD. Thus, the block assessment order passed in the assessee's case under section 158BD, by the Assessing Officer having jurisdiction over the assessee's covered in search is bad-in-law as the Assessing Officer does not have jurisdiction to do so.

CIT v. Maya Chotrani (Smt.) (2006) 157 Taxman 107 / 210 CTR 413 / 288 ITR 175 (MP)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Communication of reasons recorded for issuing notice

Where the assessee sought a copy of reasons recorded for issuing notice under section 158BD, the revenue authorities are bound to issue the recorded reasons before proceeding further in the matter of block assessment.

Bishan Chand Mukesh Kumar v. UOI (2004) 135 Taxman 154 / 190 CTR 258 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – VDIS

Once valid certificate is granted by Commissioner under section 68(2) of Voluntary Disclosure of Income scheme, proceedings under section 158BD will be illegal.

Bhagwat Prasad Poddar v. CIT (2003) 263 ITR 119 / 183 CTR 626 / 130 Taxman 182 (All.)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Bank guarantee – Release of seized amount

Entire seized amount can be released on furnishing of bank guarantee and surety by solvent guarantors.

Union of India v. Ashok Kumar Nahar (2003) 179 CTR 347 / 223 CTR 46 / 179 Taxman 347 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Judicial satisfaction – Recorded in Block assessment of person searched [S. 158BC]

Satisfaction recorded under section 158BD before initiation of block assessment proceedings of the person searched does not satisfy the requirement of law; further, so called satisfaction recorded by the Assessing Officer in the order sheet without even stating that undisclosed income pertaining to the assessee has been detected from the seized record of the persons searched was not in accordance with the provisions of section 158BD, therefore the block assessments of the assessee under section 158BD are not valid.

ACIT v. Mukta Goenka (Smt.) (2011) 53 DTR 1 / 129 ITD 201 / 137 TTJ 249 (TM)(Jab.)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Recording of satisfaction – Before completion of assessment of person searched [S. 158BC]

Recording of satisfaction for taking action against any other person under section 158BD has to be between initiation proceedings under section 158BC and before completion of block assessment under section 158BC in case of person searched. Notice issued beyond period prescribed was bad in law.

CIT v. Praveen Fabrics (P) Ltd. (2011) 198 Taxman 463 (P&H)(High Court)

Editorial:- View of Delhi Special Bench in Manoj Aggrawal v. Dy. CIT (2008) 113 ITD 377 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.), affirmed.

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Computation – Post search enquiry – Materials not relating to evidence found – Protective assessment [S. 158BC]

Income-tax department had the information regarding the existence of the bank accounts of all the individual assesses and money deposited in these bank accounts along with relevant dates of such deposits, no incriminating material can be said to have been found as a result of search carried out in respect of their bank accounts and the money lying in the said bank accounts cannot be subject matter of addition in block assessments. Once it is accepted that no incriminating documents were found in the case of four MPs in their premises, which justified any addition under section 158BC, in their hands, protective addition in their party JMM invoking section 158BD also cannot be sustained.

Shibu Soren v. ACIT (2011) 62 DTR 273 / 12 ITR 540 / 142 TTJ 714 / 47 SOT 331 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Statement of Third Party [S. 132(4)]

Statements recorded of third parties which have been relied upon by the Assessing Officer for the purpose of assessment not having been provided to the assessee, order of Assessing Officer is bad in law to that extent. Impugned order is set aside and the Assessing Officer is directed to re do the assessment according to law by providing the said statement to the assessee as well as record satisfaction under section 158BD.

Hamish Engineering Industries (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2010) 34 DTR 490 / (2009) 120 ITD 166 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Satisfaction

Assessing Officer of searched person should record his satisfaction that undisclosed income found during search belonged to such person. If no satisfaction recorded block assessment was invalid.

Dy. CIT v. Flair Builders P. Ltd. (2010) 3 ITR 158 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Satisfaction – Notice period [S. 158BC]

- (i) For initiating action, first and foremost requirement as per the provisions of section 158BD, the Assessing Officer who has to make block assessment in case of person searched, has to be satisfied that undisclosed income detected belongs to some person other than person searched. However, in other words, the section itself contemplates satisfaction is mandatory and imperative on part of Assessing Officer making assessment in case of person searched to record satisfaction before assumption of jurisdiction under section 158BD.

- (ii) Note of satisfaction must contain a positive finding by the Assessing Officer who is making assessment under section 158BC which indicate therein undisclosed income found as a result of his examination of seized material and person to whom such income belongs.
- (iii) As envisaged in section 158BC(a)(i) a clear time of fifteen days is required to be given in the notice for furnishing return in the prescribed form otherwise the notice will be rendered invalid and, hence, assumption of jurisdiction under section 158BD by issue of such notice and all further proceedings of block assessment pursuant to such notice will be invalid and void. The time-limit as set out in the section 158BE automatically applies for invoking provisions of section 158BD. For this reason the Parliament did not find it necessary to specify a separate time-limit for same as enactment itself shows that both sections 158BC and 158BD are inter-linked, interlaced and intertwined and both form part and parcel of the same Chapter.

Manoj Aggarwal v. Dy. CIT (2010) 113 ITD 377 / 117 TTJ 145 / 11 DTR 1 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Satisfaction in writing

Statement recorded in search cannot form sole basis for initiation under section 158BD, addition made without recording the satisfaction is held to be bad in law.

CIT v. Late Raj Pal Bhatia (2011) 333 ITR 315 / 237 CTR 1 / 49 DTR 9 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Satisfaction

In view of the fact that there was a delay of more than 19 months in issuance of notice under section 158BD of the Act after the completion of the assessment order in the case of the person searched and also because the satisfaction required under section 158BD of the Act was not recorded by the Assessing Officer of the person searched, the proceedings are vitiated and need to be declared as null and void. (A.Ys. 1991-92 to 2001-02)

Bharat Bhushan Jain v. ACIT, IT(SS)A No.13/Del/2007, Bench – A, Dt. 7-11-2008 - BCAJ P. 794, Vol. 40-B, Part 6, March 2009. (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Satisfaction

Initiation of proceedings under section 158 BD without any positive material and without making necessary investigation in support of conclusion was held to be invalid. Further, held in the instant case that as material available with Assessing Officer upto the date of issuing of notice also does not justify an inference of existence of undisclosed income, it can not be held that satisfaction was based on positive material, so as to show existence of impugned undisclosed income.

Dy. CIT v. S. Hakam Singh (2008) 173 Taxman 23 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Mandatory

For assessing the undisclosed Income of any person other than the person who is searched under section 132(1), it is mandatory that the Assessing Officer should be satisfied, and such satisfaction is based upon material before him, and same should be clearly identified, as the same has to be handed over to Assessing Officer of person in whose case section 158BD is sought to be invoked.

ACIT v. Hari Singh (2008) 169 Taxman 31 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Notice under section 143(2)

Block assessment order passed under section 158BD, pursuant to Notice under section 143(2), which was not served within prescribed period, held to be null and void.

ACIT v. R. P. Singh (2007) 165 Taxman 147 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Entries in the diary – Protective assessment

Entries in the diary not clearly revealing that assessee has earned income and it being a dumb document, no addition could be made on the basis of nothings in the diary.

Documents having been received from the business premises of K and block assessment having been made in her hands substantively, protective assessment in the hands of assessee without recourse to section 158BD was invalid.

ACIT v. Ashok Kumar Vig (2007) 106 TTJ 422 (Ranchi)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person [S. 69]

Incriminating documents found in the course of search of a company having revealed that the transaction in shares and the resultant capital gain disclosed by the assessee in her regular return was bogus and was only a cover up to explain the investment made by her in a house property which would have otherwise remained unexplained and attracted section 69, Assessing Officer was justified in taking action under section 158BD.

ACIT v. Ranjit Kaur (Smt.) (2006) 99 TTJ 568 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Third person – Protective Addition

Proceedings under section 158BD – Assessment made under section 158BC in the case of Karta as individual having been struck down as time-barred, the substantive additions made therein do not exist at all and consequently protective additions could not be made in the hands of HUF in assessment under section 158BD. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1999-2000)

Ramesh Chand Prem Raj Soni (HUF) v. ACIT (2006) 105 TTJ 904 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Mandatory notice

There being no search in the case of the assessee, and no notice under section 158BD, the assessment was illegal, and the same could not be validated by the subsequent letter of the Assessing Officer clarifying that the order passed in the case of the assessee be read as passed under section 158BD.

Madhavi Finvest (P) Ltd. & Ors. v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 933 (Visakha)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Proceedings

Assessing Officer was justified in proceeding against the HUF (assessee) in accordance with section 158BD where the individual admitted in appeal before the Tribunal and also before the ACIT that the majority of shares which are subject matter of the agreement to sell found during the search were held by his HUF.

Vijay Sehgal (HUF) v. ACIT (2006) 102 TTJ 904 / 100 ITD 560 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Piecemeal declaration of income

Assessee having not disclosed entire income in response to notice under section 158BD but disclosing the same in piecemeal subsequently by separate letters, penalty under section 158BFA(2) was rightly imposed.

Dy. CIT v. Spark Electro Communication Systems (2006) 100 TTJ 847 / 98 ITD 237 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Material on record

Under section 158BD, requirement of 'satisfaction' of Assessing Officer is a pre-requisite condition for initiating assessment proceedings against person other than searched person; further it should be based upon material before Assessing Officer and should be brought on record.

Sakun International v. Jt. CIT (2005) 94 ITD 138/ 96 TTJ 496 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Time limit – Person searched

Though no time-limit has been prescribed under section 158BD, yet when proceedings are initiated after considerable delay, these could be said to be barred by limitation. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1997-98)

Where Assessing Officer had not initiated any assessment proceedings in case of persons who had been searched, to have enabled him to come to a conclusion that undisclosed income belonging to some other person (assessee) was found, issue of notice under section 158BD to assessee was not justified.

P. Mahender Reddy v. ACIT (2005) 2 SOT 696 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 158BD : Block assessment – Undisclosed income of any other person – Firm – Company

Where material was seized from premises of a firm which was separate assessee from assessee-company and no material was seized from possession of assessee-company during search, no addition on the basis of material seized from premises of firm without following procedure prescribed under section 158BD was permissible.

Gorakhpur Petro Oils Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2005) 3 SOT 661 / 95 TTJ 489 (TM)(All)(Trib.)

Section 158BE : Time limit for completion of block assessment

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Completion of search – Last Panchnama

Limitation starts from date of Last Panchnama and not from date till prohibitory order is in operation.

CIT v. Abolf Patric Pinto. SLP (C) No. 26625 of 2009, (2010) 322 ITR (St.) 3 (SC)

Editorial:– Tribunal order reported in 284 ITR (AT) 207 affirmed by Bombay H. C. Order ITA No. 856/2008 dated 5-9-2008

CIT v. Ranjana Katyal SLP (Civil) No. 683 of 2010, (2010) 322 ITR 4 (St.) (SC)

CIT v. White & White Minerals (P) Ltd. SLP (C) No. 4356/2010, (2010) 322 ITR 4 (St.)(SC) / CIT v. White & White Minerals (P) Ltd. (2011) 51 DTR 314 / 330 ITR 172 (Raj.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Panchnama – Completion of search

Last valid panchnama has been drawn on August 7, 1996, the date on which seizure was made and therefore, the assessment proceedings ought to have been completed before August 30, 1997. The Tribunal held that the last Panchnama dt. 10th October, 1996, drawn after conclusion of search was not valid as no seizure was made on that date. [ITA No 904 of 2007 dt. 1-7-2008 (Kar.)]

CIT v. Children's Education Society (2009) 319 ITR 2 (St)

Editorial:- See (a) S. K. Katyal (2008) 16 DTR 285 (Delhi) / (b) CIT v. Plastika Enterprises (2009) 23 DTR 333 (Bom.) / (c) Nandlal M. Gandhi v. ACIT (2008) 115 ITD 1 (TM)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Last panchanama – Prohibitory Order [S. 132(3)]

Panchanamas drawn on 27th and 28th March, 2003 in respect of residential and business premises of the petitioner being the last panchnams the date of the same is the date of conclusion of the search for reckoning the time limit of two years for completion of the search and not 17th and 14th June 2003, on which dates prohibitory orders under section 132(3) were lifted though time period of 60 days already expired on 27th May, 2003 and therefore, the impugned assessment order passed on 30th June 2005, was barred by limitation. (A. Ys. 1997-98 to 2003-04)

Rakesh Sarin v. Dy. CIT (2011) 333 ITR 451 / 240 CTR 56 / 203 Taxman 58 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Service of non-signed copy of assessment order [S. 292B]

On the facts it was established that draft assessment was approved by the CIT under section 158BG on 23rd May, 1997 and that the assessment was finalized by the Assessing Officer on 27th May, 1997 i.e. before expiry of limitation on 31st May, 1997. The copy of the assessment order first sent to the assessee on 30th May, 1997 along with signed notice of demand did not contain the signature of the Assessing Officer did not invalidate the assessment which was validly completed within the period of limitation. (Block period April 1986 - May 1996)

CIT v T. O. Abraham & Co. (2011) 333 ITR 182 / 54 DTR 105 / 241 CTR 561 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Stay order in another assessee of family – Notice under section 142(2A) [S. 142(2A)]

Another member MN of Assessee's family member has filed a writ petition challenging the order under section 142(2A) in his case, and stay was granted. The Court held that it cannot be accepted that the stay order passed by the court in writ petition filed by another family member in their assessment, amounted the staying the order under section 142(2A) passed against the assessee. On the facts of the assessee against the search and seizure action carried on 26th June, 1997 block assessment was passed on 28th July 2000. The order was time barred.

CIT v. Sandeep C. Dugad (2011) 63 DTR 201 / 245 CTR 324 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Last Panchnama – Completion of search

Where the search was concluded on 29th / 30th Aug., 1996 by drawing a panchnama, the time limit of one year for framing the block assessment start, when revenue has not done anything tangible after passing the restraint order which was revoked on 18th Nov., 1996. Panchnama drawn at the time of vacating the order cannot extend the period of limitation and therefore assessment order passed on 28th Nov., 1997, was barred by limitation.

CIT v. D. D. Axles (P) Ltd. (2010) 40 DTR 293 / 195 Taxman 277 / 323 ITR 558 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Power of Tribunal

The Appellate Tribunal has no power to extend the period of limitation by treating the assessment made beyond limitation.

K. M. Tiwari and Sons (HUF) v. ACIT (2010) 325 ITR 389 / 236 CTR 306 / 46 DTR 334 (Chhatitsgarh)(High Court)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Last Panchnama – Completion of search

In view of Expln. 2 to section 158BE, the period of limitation of two years is to be counted from the date when the last Panchnama was drawn in respect of any warrant of authorization, if there were more than one warrants of authorization. In view of deeming provision, even an authorization which may not be the last authorization would become last authorization if it is executed and if Panchnama in respect is drawn last.

CIT v. Anil Minda & Ors. (2010) 328 ITR 320 / 45 DTR 121 / 235 CTR 1 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Panchnama – Completion of search

Search action in case of the assessee was concluded on 5-8-2000 and panchnama seizing stock was also prepared on the same day. Thereafter, on 20-9-2000 the authorities had only inspected the seals and again prepared a panchnama. The Hon'ble High Court on these set of facts held that the second panchnama was prepared by the revenue authority to just overcome the limitation period and the block assessment order passed by the assessing officer was barred by limitation.

CIT v. Plastika Enterprises (2009) 23 DTR 333 / 180 Taxman 293 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Panchnama – Completion of search

Block Periods: 1-4-1990 to 17-11-2000

Panchnama on a later date i.e 3-1-2001, not showing that any search was conducted on that day but, only revoking the restrain order placed by the earlier Panchnama dated 17-11-2000. It was held by the High Court that only the panchnama dated 17-11-2000 which related to conclusion of search was relevant for computing the period of limitation under section 158BE of the Act. Accordingly the assessment order passed on 30-1-2003 was held to be beyond the period of limitation.

CIT v. S.K. Katyal (2008) 16 DTR 285 / 221 CTR 310 / 308 ITR 168 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Direction for special audit

Direction of Assessing Officer for special Audit under section 142(2A) one day before the expiry of limitation for completing the Block Assessment given merely to get extension of time Assessing Officer's action apparently beyond the scope of 142(2A). Finding by Appellate Tribunal that the direction for special audit was illegal and consequently assessment was barred by time are findings of fact therefore, no substantial question of law arises.

CIT v. Bajrang Textiles (2006) 205 CTR 287 / 294 ITR 561 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Last authorization – Completion of search

Period of limitation will be counted from the date of execution of last authorization of search and fact that such authorization was in respect of locker in name of family members of appellant assessee would not make any difference when authorization also contained name of appellant. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1997-98)

Oswald Anthony (Dr) v. CIT (2004) 270 ITR 204 / 141 Taxman 520 (Patna)(High Court)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Panchnama – Completion of search

Where search was conducted on 21-3-1996 the assessment order passed on 30-6-1997 was barred by limitation and alleged subsequent panchnama said to have been made on 27-2-1997, which was not part of record, could not be relied upon as the same was neither considered by the Assessing Officer nor by the Tribunal, the tribunal being final fact finding authority.

CIT v. Kuwer Industries Ltd. (2004) 191 CTR 413 / 144 Taxman 487 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Conclusion of search [S. 132]

- (i) Commencement of limitation as prescribed in Explanation 2 to section 158BE shall be only on conclusion of search.
- (ii) By law the date on which search gets concluded is taken according to recording made in last panchnama.
- (iii) It could be said that passing of a prohibitory order under sub-section (3) of section 132 is in all cases only to extend period of limitation for making assessments, without any facts and circumstances or evidence justifying said conclusion and in a bona fide case, where there is no such attempt and prohibitory order is passed in normal course and for bona fide reasons, search cannot be deemed to have been concluded on day on which said order was passed.

Krishna Verma (Smt.) v. ACIT (2011) 113 ITD 655 / 116 TTJ 565 / 8 DTR 446 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Search and seizure – Time Limit – Special audit [S. 158BC, 142(2A)]

Special Audit Report under section 142(2A) was directed to be obtained within 60 days because the financial statements were required to be prepared from two sets of accounts and other material involving huge unaccounted transactions. The Assessee despite of repeated requests of auditors neither produced books of account and vouchers nor afforded necessary facilities to get audit work completed within the extended stipulated time of 120 days. In the circumstances the Special Auditors submitted their report on the basis of limited information primarily on the basis of seized material.

On the facts and circumstances the assessing officer completed the block assessment within the extended period in view of the Clause (ii) of Explanation 1 to section 158BE read with the proviso to the said Explanation 1.

On the facts & circumstances it was held that the order passed by the Assessing Officer was not barred by limitation under the provisions of section 158BE.

Rajesh Kumar v. Dy. CIT (2010) 122 ITD 395 / 320 ITR 731 / (2009) 31 DTR 131 / 227 CTR 415 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Completion of search

On the day of the search (i) panchnama prepared with the remark that 'search temporarily concluded for the day to be commenced subsequently'; and (ii) prohibitory order under section 132(3) issued. After a period, prohibitory order revoked and panchnama prepared with the remark 'search is finally concluded'. Held that the period of limitation is to be computed from the date search was originally initiated and not from later date of panchnama.

Nandlal M. Gandhi v. ACIT, (2008) 118 TTJ 289 / 115 ITD 1 / 13 DTR 35 (TM)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Panchnama – Prohibition order

Panchnama need not be prepared every time for purpose of lifting prohibition or making inventory of stocks. Panchnama has to be prepared independently on dates of search. Merely preparing and issuing a panchnama for purpose of lifting prohibitory order does not extend limitation available for completing stock assessment.

Plastika Enterprises v. ACIT (2007) 161 Taxman 163 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Completion of block assessment

The Explanation 2 of section 158BC was inserted by the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1998, with retrospective effect from 1-7-1995, which makes it clear that the authorization referred to in sub-section (1) of section 158BE shall be deemed to have been executed on the conclusion of search as recorded in the last panchnama drawn in relation to any person, in whose case the warrant of authorization has been issued. The said Explanation is with regard to authorization referred to in sub-section (1), which refers to last of the authorizations, which means that the last of the panchnama has to be taken into account in respect of last of the authorizations for search, as there could be more than one panchnamas in respect of same authorization. So the limitation will start from the end of the month in which last of the authorizations is executed.

Shahrukh Khan v. ACIT (2007) 104 ITD 221 / 107 TTJ 252 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – For completion of assessment

Assessing Officer is bound by time-limit prescribed under section 158BE. In the case before the Hon'ble Tribunal was – search under section 132, covering the periods

1986-87 to 1996-97, was conducted on 22-1-1996 at registered office and the same was concluded on 22-4-1996. On these facts Notice under section 158BC was served on 22-4-1996. On the facts & circumstances the Block Assessment order under section 158BC was due to be completed on or before 30-4-1997 but the order was passed on 30-5-1997. Therefore, the order passed on 20-5-1997 was held to be barred by limitation. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1996-97)

Value Securities (India) Ltd. v. ACIT (2007) 108 ITD 639 / 112 TTJ 804 / 15 SOT 495 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Valid panchnama

Panchnama stated to have been drawn after an unexplained delay of nearly two years from the date of search when no valid prohibitory order was in existence was not a legal and valid Panchnama and the only valid Panchnama being the one that was drawn on the date of search itself, the assessment made for block period beyond one year from the end of the month in which the valid Panchnama was drawn, was clearly barred by limitation.

Sarb consulate Marine Products (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 732 / 97 ITD 333 / 5 SOT 447 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Search and seizure – Mandatory

Block assessment completed was beyond the period of limitation and hence invalid notwithstanding the statement made by the assessee in its block return.

ACIT v. Bhagwati Printers (P) Ltd. (2006) 102 TTJ 480 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Extraction

Assessing Officer having completed the block assessment within the extended period as per cl. (ii) of Explan. 1 to s. 158E same was not time-barred.

A.P. Shanmugaraj v. Dy. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 259 / 99 ITD 278 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Notice – Sufficient time

Order under section 158BC passed by the Assessing Officer was barred by limitation as the notice under section 158BC was issued just one day before the expiry of limitation.

Sanjay Kumar v. ACIT (2006) 100 TTJ 862 (Jab.)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Prohibitory order – Conclusion of search

There being only one authorization for search which was executed on 18th Sept., 1998, and no fresh authorization in favour of the officer who visited the assessee's premises on 13th Nov., 1998 and lifted the prohibitory order. The limitation for completion of block assessment ended on 30th Sept., 2000 and therefore the assessment order passed on 28th Nov., 2000, was barred by limitation.

Javed Mohd. Peshimam v. Dy. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 434 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Panchnama – Prohibitory order [S. 132]

Panchnama executed to lift prohibitory order passed under section 132(3) cannot be equated with 'last panchnama executed' for purposes of computing period of limitation under section 158BE; where search took place on 15/21-10-1998 and panchnama was drawn on that date, assessment completed on 27-12-2000 was beyond period of limitation of two years prescribed in section 158BE and was therefore barred by limitation, even though a subsequent panchnama was executed on 8-12-1998 to lift prohibitory order under section 132(3).

M. Sivaramakrishnaiah & Co. v. ACIT (2005) 93 TTJ 1035 (Visakha)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Panchnama – Prohibitory order [S. 132(3)]

A prohibitory order under section 132(3) without there being a seizure could not be a valid panchnama so as to extend the time-limit available for the completion of assessment under section 158BC, read with section 158BE.

Sarb Consulate Marine Products (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 97 ITD 333 / 99 TTJ 732 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Fresh assessment

Limitation specified in section 158BE is limitation for completing assessment to be made by Assessing Officer; and it is not a limitation for making a fresh assessment in pursuance of an order under section 250 or 254 or 263 or 264, setting aside or cancelling the assessment.

W. C. Shaw (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 93 ITD 535 / 94 TTJ 169 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 158BE : Block assessment – Time limit – Completion of Search

Time-limit under section 158BE starts on conclusion of search as recorded in the last panchnama drawn irrespective of operation of prohibitory order under section 132(3). (A.Y. 1985-86 to 5-12-1995)

C. Ramaiah Reddy v. ACIT (2003) 87 ITD 439 / 81 TTJ 1044 (SB)(Bang.)(Trib.)

Section 158BFA : Levy of interest and penalty in certain cases

S. 158BFA(1) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Tax paid after due date of filing of return – Credit

While calculating interest under section 158BFA(1), credit cannot be allowed for the tax paid by the assessee on various dates after the due date of filing of return.

Kirti Foods Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 60 DTR 96 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Undisclosed income – Returned income

Where the income finally assessed under section 158BC(c) is the only undisclosed income returned by the assessee and the assessee has complied with all the conditions of clauses (i) to (iv) of the first proviso, no penalty under section 158BFA(2) could be levied. Penalty may be leviable in cases where undisclosed income finally assessed under clause (c) of section 158BC is in excess of the undisclosed income returned by the assessee in the return filed under section clause (a) of section 158BC. If additions made when compared with undisclosed returned income of assessee is very small penalty may not be justified.

CIT v. Heera Construction Co. (P) Ltd. (2011) 63 DTR 99 / 337 ITR 359 / 245 CTR 208 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Cash seized

Assessee's contention that cash seized during the course of search lying with the department has to be adjusted towards tax payable and levy of interest would arise only after such assessment. Since fact was not considered the matter remanded back to the Assessing Officer for verification.

CIT v. N. Leela Kumar (2010) 37 DTR 70 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Delay in Filing return [S. 158BC]

While computing period for which interest under section 158BFA(1) is chargeable, the total time taken by the assessee from the date of service of notice under section 158BC till date of filing of the return is to be taken into consideration and from this period, the time taken by the department in supplying the documents has to be excluded.

CIT v. Mesco Airlines Ltd. (2010) 236 CTR 628 / 327 ITR 554 / 48 DTR 81 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Clause (iv) – Quantum converted in appeal

Assessee by filing an appeal against the order of block assessment disputing the rate of tax payable on long term capital gains fails to comply with cl. (iv) of the first proviso to section 158BFA(2), and hence is not entitled to the benefit of the proviso regarding non levy of penalty.

CIT v. Anju R. Innani (Smt.) (2010) 38 DTR 75 / 231 CTR 417 / 191 Taxman 350 / 323 ITR 626 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty

Levy of penalty is discretionary and not mandatory. As the undisclosed income represents the estimation of opening capital prior to the block period and the said capital cannot be treated as undisclosed income for the first assessment year in the block period, the Tribunal is right in deleting the penalty. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 2001-02)

CIT v. Satyendra Kumar Doshi (2009) 222 CTR 258 / 315 ITR 172 / 18 DTR 236 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Discretionary

Penalty under section 158 BFA(2) of the Act is discretionary and not mandatory. Where the block assessment framed only on the basis of the income surrendered by the assessee during the course of search, without any evidence of undisclosed income detected during the search, under section 132 there is no question of imposition of penalty under section 158BFA(2).

CIT v. Harkaran Das Ved Pal (2008) 16 DTR 348 / 222 CTR 438 / 336 ITR 8 / 177 Taxman 398 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Undisclosed income – Addition on estimate basis – Gross profit – Appeal admitted by High Court

The Tribunal confirmed the addition by the Assessing Officer on account of estimated gross profit merely on the basis that the entries found recorded in the ledger account found in the possession of a third party, and not on the basis of any material found in the possession of the assessee during the search, penalty under section 158BFA(2) is not leviable, more so when appeal against quantum has been admitted by the High Court.

Sadhu Ram Goyal v Dy. CIT (2011) 63 DTR 296 / 128 ITD 436 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Undisclosed income [S. 158BD]

The assessee did not file the return of income in response to notice under section 158BD read with section 158BC for the block assessment. The addition on account of money paid in cash was based on the seized material found during the course of search. The Tribunal held that levy of penalty was justified.

Madhuben R. Barot (Smt) v. ACIT (2011) 12 ITR 465 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Undisclosed income – Statement – Quantum confirmed by Tribunal

In quantum appeal the Income tax Appellate Tribunal has not accepted the retraction made by the assessee, in the absence of any contrary, material placed on record by the Assessee, the assessee was liable to penalty under section 158BFA(2).

Gunanath B. Thakoor v. ACIT (2011) 64 DTR 23 / 142 TTJ 770 / 132 ITD 319 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Initiation – Issue of Notice

When it is mentioned in the block assessment order that “penalty proceedings have already been initiated separately” there is a valid initiation of penalty proceedings under section 158BFA(2).

Sunil Dua v. Dy. CIT (2010) 130 TTJ 313 / 38 DTR 493 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Withdrawal of Quantum appeal – Reason for Levy of penalty

Merely because the assessee has withdrawn the appeal against addition in quantum, in the absence of any discussion whatsoever in the penalty order to suggest any independent appraisal of additions or documents has been done in the penalty proceedings levy of penalty is liable to be deleted. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1999-2000)
Nemchand Jain & Sons v. Dy. CIT (2010) 33 DTR 178 / 131 TTJ 478 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Concealment – No positive concealment found on assessee's part – No penalty leviable on addition made on estimate basis

In the present case, the assessee applied a different net profit rate and the Assessing Officer and the CIT (A) adopted different estimates and therefore, it could not be said that the assessee had concealed the particulars of his income so as to attract penalty under section 158 BFA(2).

Bitoli Devi (Smt.) v. ACIT (2009) 31 SOT 30 (URD)(Luck.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Estimate basis – Validity

Additions having been made on estimate basis, penalty cannot be levied.

Dr. Hakeem S.A. Syed Sathar v. ACIT (2009) 123 TTJ 573 / 120 ITD 1 / 24 DTR 379 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Concealment – Payment of tax

Amount of undisclosed income shown in the return of income in form NO 2B could not be taken into account for computation of penalty under section 158BFA(2). There is nothing in the language to incorporate the requirement of payment of tax on the "undisclosed income" as a condition for application of second proviso. (A.Y. 1992-93)
Dy. CIT v. Heera Constructions Co. (P.) Ltd. (2009) 29 DTR 398 / 121 ITD 407 / 125 TTJ 589 (TM)(Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Effective date

On the facts & circumstances the authorization of search under section 132(1) was given on 30-12-1996 and the same was executed on 3-1-1997 whereas the penal provision of section 158BFA(2) came in to effect/operation from 1-1-1997 and therefore, it was held that the provision of section 158BFA(2) could not be applied to the facts of the case. In principle, therefore, the penal provision would apply provided that the same is operational at the relevant time of authorization of search by the authorities. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1997-98)

Suraj Prakash Soni v. ACIT (2007) 106 ITD 321 / 105 TTJ 257 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Onus – Discretionary

Penalty under section 158BFA(2) is optional and onus lies on the Department to prove concealment.

Enfield Industries Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2007) 106 TTJ 89 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Penalty – Discretionary

Levy of penalty under section 158BFA(2) is at the discretion of the Assessing Officer.
Habibullah Kanyari v. Dy. CIT (2007) 108 ITD 321 / 109 TTJ 539 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – ‘May direct’ – ‘Small’

Expression employed in section 158BFA(2); i.e., ‘may direct that a person shall pay’ indicates the discretionary nature of the penalty. The expression ‘shall’ coming in the second proviso is to restrict the applicability of the penalty only to the difference in the income and not to the entire income.

Assessing Officer having made the additions solely on the basis of assessee’s letter offering certain undisclosed income, no mala fide intention can be attributed to the assessee, and penalty under section 158BFA(2) was not leviable.

Dy. CIT v. Koatex Infrastructures Ltd. (2006) 110 ITD 510 / 102 TTJ 737 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Burden of proof

Penalty proceedings under section 158BFA(2) are akin to s. 271(1)(c) proceedings and burden is on the Department to prove factum of concealment – Assessee having explained entries in the books and filed confirmation of creditors, burden on assessee stood discharged and penalty imposed under section 158BFA(2) could not be sustained.

Gandhi Service Station v. ACIT (2006) 100 TTJ 1143 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Jurisdiction

- (i) No penalty could be levied if the Block Assessment is found to be without jurisdiction.
- (ii) Penalty under section 158BFA(2) is discretionary as the words used in the section are ‘may direct’. In other words, the powers of the Assessing Officer or Commissioner (Appeals) may or may not impose penalty in a situation where the assessee has not complied with the conditions of the first proviso and even where the second proviso is attracted. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Dhiraj Suri v. ACIT (2006) 98 ITD 187 / 99 TTJ 525 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Application for grant of time

Assessee’s application for extension of time for filing of return was not rejected. In such a case return filed by the extended period cannot be considered late. And hence no interest chargeable for delay in filing of return. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 2000-01)

Sheila D’Souza v. Jt. CIT, Bench ‘C’, IT(SS)A No. 342/M/03, dated 10th July, 2006, BCAJ P. 154, Vol. 39-C, Part 2, November 2006 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Delay by income tax department

Delay in filing the return of the block period having occurred on account of the failure of the Department and not on account of any element of lack of bona fides on the part of assessee, levy of interest under section 158BFA(1) was not justified.

Bachubhai S. Antrolia v. ACIT (2006) 103 TTJ 73 / 103 ITD 66 (Rajkot)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Copy of seized material

Interest under section 158BFA(1) cannot be charged for the period of delay in the supply of photocopy of the seized material

Jai Kumar Jain v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 744 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Quantum accepted

Assessee having admitted ownership of jewellery and disclosed value thereof in her return and also paid the difference of tax; i.e., additional tax payable at higher rate on income assessed in block assessment, without agitating the matter, levy of penalty was not justified. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1997-98)

Dy. CIT v. Jayshree M. Pethani (Smt.) (2006) 99 TTJ 644 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Need for warrant – Compliance

Block assessment in the present case being void ab initio since there was no warrant of authorisation under section 132 in the name of the assessee, the penalty levied cannot be sustained. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Penalty under section 158BFA(2) is not mandatory. Bona fides of the assessee and the co-operative attitude with which she conducted herself in the course of the block assessment proceedings and the absence of any defiance or contumacious conduct took the case out from the net of penalty under section 158BFA(2).

Dhiraj Suri v. Addl. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 525 / 98 ITD 187 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Cogent reasons for failure

Penalty under section 158BFA(2) would be attracted in a case of failure to disclose or specify cogent reasons for his failure to include such income in block return. However, the assessee must be able to specify cogent reasons for his failure to include undisclosed income or to make true and full disclosure in block return.

Dy. CIT v. Spark Electro Communication Systems (2006) 98 ITD 237 / 280 ITR (AT) 13 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Not mandatory

Penalty under section 158BFA(2) is discretionary and not mandatory.

Dy. CIT v. Suresh Kumar (2005) 97 ITD 527 / 95 TTJ 926 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Penalty – Scope of exceptions

Proviso to section 158BFA(2) which deals with exceptions to imposition of penalty, cannot act as a proviso which enables Assessing Officer to impose penalty, and also exception clause cannot act as a main rule for imposition of penalty; where assessee filed return in response to notice under section 158BC with a delay of 15 days and filed no appeal against additions made, imposition of penalty under section 158BFA(2) by invoking proviso thereto was not justified. (A.Ys. 1988-89 to 1997-98)

Nemichand v. ACIT (Investigation) (2005) 93 TTJ 564 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Interest – Non supply of Photostat copy

No interest should be charged under section 158BFA(1) up to date of supply of photostat copies of seized documents by revenue.

ACIT v. M. M. Sales Agencies (2005) 97 TTJ 575 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 158BFA(2) : Block assessment – Levy of interest – Reasonable cause

Interest cannot be levied for delay in filing block return not attributable to assessee.

Jaswant Singh & Co. v. ACIT (2003) SOT 545 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

Narula Transport Co v. ACIT (2003) 127 Taxman 163 (Mag.)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

Section 158BG : Authority competent to make the block assessment

S. 158BG : Block assessment – Authority – Competent authority – Approval of Joint Commissioner – Hearing

There is no need for Joint Commissioner to give a hearing to assessee before granting “previous approval” under section 158BG. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1999-2000)

Rishabchand Bhansali v. Dy. CIT (2004) 136 Taxman 579 / 267 ITR 577 / 188 CTR 185 (Karn.)(High Court)

Section 158BH : Application of the provisions of this Act

S. 158BH : Block assessment – Disallowance – Rule 6DD [S. 40(A)(3)]

While computing the income of the Appellant under chapter XIV-B of the Act if the assessee fails to bring his case within the ambit of exceptional circumstance as provided in Rule 6DD of the Income tax Rules, 1962 expenditure can be disallowed invoking provisions of section 40A(3) of the Act. (A.Y. 1990 to 2000)

CIT v. Sai Metal Works (2011) 54 DTR 327 / 241 CTR 377 (P&H)(High Court)

CHAPTER XV LIABILITY IN SPECIAL CASES

A. Legal representatives

Section 159 : Legal representatives

S. 159 : Legal Representatives – Notice on legal heir – Assessment after death

Assessment order passed by Assessing Officer after death of assessee without notice to any of the legal representatives is null and void. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. Dalumal Shyamumal (2005) 276 ITR 62 / 144 Taxman 151 / 194 CTR 362 (MP)(High Court)

S. 159 : Legal representatives – Notice on dead person – Reassessment [S. 148 & S. 221]

Where notice under section 148 in pursuance of which assessment was framed was issued in the name of deceased – assessee and no notice was served on his legal representative, notice of demand and notice of penalty under section 221 (1) in the name of legal heir was to be quashed.

Braham Prakash v. ITO (2004) 192 CTR 190 / 275 ITR 242 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 159 : Legal Representatives – Block Assessment – Search and seizure – Legal heirs

Where premises of deceased B' were searched during his lifetime but proceedings had not been initiated by a notice while 'B' was alive, Department could have completed proceedings only after issuing notice to legal representatives of deceased.

Sudha Prasad (Smt) v. CCIT (2003) 133 Taxman 864 / 186 CTR 475 / 275 ITR 135 (Jharkhand)(High Court)

S. 159 : Legal Representatives – Income prior to death – Status

Income of deceased prior to his death is taxable in hands of legal heir of the deceased as legal representative and not in his in dividend capacity. (A.Y. 1967-68)

CIT v. Maharaja Rana Inderjeet (2003) 185 CTR 65 / 134 Taxman 718 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 159 : Legal representatives – Notice on dead person – Assessee – Reassessment [S. 2(7), 148]

Assessing Officer issued the notice under section 148 in the name of assessee who already expired. The Tribunal held that notice was not valid hence proceedings initiated under section 147 was quashed. (A. Y. 1998-99).

ITO v. Sikandar Lal Jain (2011) 45 SOT 113 (TM)(Agra)(Trib.)

S. 159 : Legal representatives – Assessment – Dead person – Search and seizure

Assessment cannot be framed on a dead person, where the assessee had already died on 2nd Feb., 1990 and the search was conducted thereafter on 13th Sept., 1990, section 159(2) was not attracted and no assessment could be framed on a dead person. Therefore addition made under section 69B was liable to be deleted. (A. Ys. 1989-90 & 1990-91)

Late Smt. Laxmibai Karanpuria Through L/H Rajendra Karanapuria v. ACIT (2011) 135 TTJ 123 / 49 DTR 59 / 130 ITD 40 (Indore)(Trib.)

B. Representative assesseees - General provisions

Section 160 : Representative assessee

S. 160 : Representative assessee – Liability – Trust [S. 161]

Assessee-trust was created in favour of two minor girls as beneficiaries, trust could not be said to be invalid merely because settlor had not taken care of eventuality of both beneficiaries dying before attaining majority. (A.Y. 1983-84)

CIT v. Mehra Trust (2006) 284 ITR 149 / (2005) 147 Taxman 49 / 199 CTR 603 (All.)(High Court)

S. 160 : Representative assessee – Liability – Discretionary Trust – Shares specified by trustee [S. 164]

Though initially assessee-trust was a discretionary trust, board of trustees of assessee-trust, in exercise of their powers, adopted a resolution and demarcated shares in favour of beneficiaries of trust in ratio of 50:50, it could be said that shares of beneficiaries were definite and ascertainable and as such it was not assessable as a discretionary trust. (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. Devshi Trust (2005) 279 ITR 519 / 148 Taxman 444 / 199 CTR 600 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 160 : Representative assessee – Liability – Trust – AOP – Beneficiaries [S. 161]

Trust income could be assessed only in hands of beneficiaries individually and not in the hands of trustees as an AOP. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CIT v. T.S.K. Enterprises (2005) 274 ITR 41 / 156 Taxman 253 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 160 : Representative assessee – Liability – Trust – Benefit of children

Capital gain arising to assessee from sale of property, bequeathed to her by her father for benefit of her children (marriage and education), was assessable under section 160(1)(iv). (A.Y. 1983-84)

CIT v. Marry Joseph (Mrs) (2004) 268 ITR 217 / 140 Taxman 398 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 160 : Representative assessee – Liability – Agent [S. 161]

There is no pre-condition for treating a person as representative assessee under section 160, read with section 163, and assessing him for principal in capacity of representative under section 161. Assessment made at the hands of the representative assessee is in the capacity of the representative of the principal; therefore, the mischief of double assessment has no manner of application. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CESC Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (No. 2) (2003) 131 Taxman 751 / 263 ITR 402 / 183 CTR 124 (Cal.)(High Court)

Section 161 : Liability of representative assessee

S. 161 : Liability of representative assessee – Gift of shares – Manufacture company – No liability for unconnected income [S. 163]

The whole of the share capital of Genpact India, an Indian company, was held by a Mauritius company. The whole of the share capital of the Mauritius company was in turn held by General Electric Co, USA. The Mauritius company “gifted” the shares of Genpact India to another Mauritius company, whose shares were then ultimately sold to a Luxembourg company. The Assessing Officer claimed that the transaction of transfer of shares of Genpact India had resulted in capital gains to General Electric, USA, and so he issued a notice under section 163 proposing to treat Genpact India as an “agent” of General Electric and to assess it as a “representative assessee”. This was challenged by a Writ Petition. Upholding the challenge the court held that, the mere fact that a person is an agent or is to be treated as an agent under section 163 and is assessable as “representative assessee” does not automatically mean that he is liable to pay taxes on behalf of the non-resident. Under section 161, a representative assessee is liable only “as regards the income in respect of which he is a representative assessee”. This means that there must be some connection or concern between the representative assessee and the income. On facts, even assuming that Genpact India was the “agent” and so “representative assessee” of General Electric, there was no connection between Genpact India and the capital gains alleged to have arisen to General Electric (from the sale of shares of Genpact India). Consequently, the s. 163 proceedings seeking to assess Genpact India for the capital gains of General Electric were without jurisdiction.

General Electric Co. v. Dy. DIT (2011) 243 CTR 417 / 60 DTR 297 / 201 Taxman 341 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 161 : Liability of representative assessee – Trust – AOP – Allocation of income

In view of the unreported decision of High Court in T.C. nos 210 and 211 of 1998 dated

29-10-2002, status of assessee trust could not be adopted as that of an AOP and income had to be allowed to beneficiaries only. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CIT v. Seva Trust (2003) 130 Taxman 399 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 161 : Liability of representative assessee – Trust – Beneficiary – Income deemed to have received in India [S. 4, 5]

What can be taxed in the hands of a representative assessee is only the income which the beneficiary can be said to have received, or which can be deemed to have received in India. (A.Y. 1983-84)

CIT v. Muthukrishnan (2003) 260 ITR 526 / 133 Taxman 470 / 181 CTR 129 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 161 : Liability of representative assessee – Liability – Trust – Benefit of Ashram [S. 11]

Where business was being carried on by assessee for benefit of an Ashram, assessee was assessable as representative assessee. (A.Ys. 1973-74, 1974-75)

Honesty Engineers & Contractors Trust v. CIT (2003) 262 ITR 266 / 181 CTR 321 / 138 Taxman 136 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 161 : Liability of representative assessee – Trust – Assessment year

Sub-section (1A), introduced in section 161, with effect from 1-4-1985, was applicable during assessment year 1985-86.

CIT v. Kumar Publications Trust (2003) 262 ITR 173 / 134 Taxman 661 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 161 : Liability of representative assessee – Trust carrying on business – AOP

There is no merit in the view that income of trust carrying on business should be assessed only in the hands of the beneficiaries and not in the status of an AOP as per the provisions of section 161(1A). The Assessing Officer has the discretion to assess the income of a trust in either hands and not in both the hands, however income where taxed in the hands of trustees, it should be taxed in the like manner and to the same extent as that of the beneficiaries. (A.Ys. 1985-86, 1986-87)

CIT v. Manoranjitham Thanga Maligai Trust (2003) 260 ITR 143 / 183 CTR 673 / 134 Taxman 750 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 161 : Liability of representative assessee – Trust – Overriding provision of section 26 [S. 22, to 26]

Though sub-section (1A) overrides the provision of sub-section (1) of section 161, it does not have the effect of overriding the provisions of section 26, hence computation of the income from house property has to be made under sections 22 to 25. Even if trust is having income from business, income from house property received by trust has to be taxed in hands of trustee as representative assessee on behalf of beneficiary under section 161(1) and not at maximum marginal rate under section 161(1A). (A.Ys. 1988-89, 1989-90)

CIT v. T.A.V. Trust (2003) 132 Taxman 835 / 264 ITR 52 / 185 CTR 466 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 161 : Liability of representative assessee – Trust – Accepting deposits and advances

Where assessee, owned by a trust, contended that its activity of accepting deposits and advances had attributes of business but there was no intention to make profits, section 161(1A) was rightly invoked on ground that assessee earned income assessable as business income. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1991-92)

CIT v. J.K. Holdings (2003) 133 Taxman 443 / 182 CTR 243 / (2004) 270 ITR 594 (Bom.)(High Court)

C. Representative assesseees – Special cases

Section 163 : Who may be regarded as agent

S. 163 : Representative assessee – Agent – Power of Attorney Holder – Non-resident

Power of attorney holder does not answer the description of agent in relation to a non resident, as envisaged under section 163(3)(1), hence, the assessment order framed in the case of Non-Resident in the name of power of attorney holder treating him as an agent is held to be illegal and void.

CIT v. Mukesh B. Shah (2010) 40 DTR 297 / 233 CTR 412 / 195 Taxman 15 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 163 : Representative assessee – Agent – Non-resident

The foreign company was in receipt of some income from the assessee, on account of sale of shares. The Act uses the words "from or through", instead of the word 'through' in section 163(1)(c). Any person in India from or through whom the non-resident is in receipt of any income directly or indirectly can be treated as agent of the non-resident. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Utkal Investments Ltd. v. ADIT (2009) 120 ITD 67 / 123 TTJ 286 / 28 DTR 287 / 5 ITR 481 (Mum.)(High Court)

S. 163 : Representative assessee – Agent of Non-resident – Principal assessee

Section 163(l)(b) includes a person from whom non-resident receives any income, directly or indirectly. There cannot be any escapement of the assessment in the hands of the representative assessee when principal assessee is being assessed and is available before the Assessing Officer.

In connection with proceedings against non-resident, the Dy. Commissioner, Mumbai, had an authority to summon or ask for information from any person throughout India. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CESC Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (No. 2) (2003) 131 Taxman 751 / 263 ITR 402 / 183 CTR 124 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 163 : Representative assessee – Agent – Non-resident [S. 160, 195]

When a non-resident does not remain in India, the proceedings under section 160 to 163 are taken to fasten on its agent of liability to tax in respect of income which non-resident is entitled to. The assessee carried on business of asset management. It had made payments to non-residents upon redemption of units of a debt scheme of Birla

Mutual fund without any deduction at source. Since payments were made through assessee to non-residents, in terms of section 163(1)(c), assessee was to be treated as agent of said non-residents so that assessment proceedings could be taken against assessee in regard to tax liability of non-resident investors. (A.Y. 2006-07)

Birla Sunlife Asset Management Co. Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 38 SOT 523 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 163 : Representative assessee – Agent – Non-resident – Deduction at Source [S. 195]

Single transaction of purchase of shares by assessee from non-resident. Consideration remitted by assessee after deduction of tax at source. Assessee can be treated as an agent of non-resident, that assessee has deducted tax at source will not preclude liability to be treated as agent. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Utkal Investments Ltd. v. ADIT (2010) 5 ITR 481 / 123 TTJ 286 / 120 ITD 67 / 23 DTR 287 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 163 : Representative assessee – Agent – Non-resident – Notices – Opportunity of hearing

Though provisions of section 163(1) do not make a formal notice mandatory, a reasonable opportunity of being heard must be afforded before any person is treated as an agent of a non-resident within meaning of section 163(1). (A.Ys. 1998-99 and 1999-2000)

Kinetic Technology (India) Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 96 ITD 441 / 98 TTJ 90 (Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 164 : Charge of tax where share of beneficiaries unknown

S. 164 : Representative assessee – Charge of tax – Beneficiaries or their shares unknown – AOP – Liability of a Trust vis-a-vis its assessment

Validity of a Deed of Trust executed with a prior date to the date mentioned on the Stamp Paper which was purchased in the name of a third party — Held, no valid trust had come into existence based on the alleged Deed and the income had to be assessed to tax at the rates applicable to AOP.

Hemesh Family Trust v. CIT (2007) 207 CTR 99 / 295 ITR 514 / 165 Taxman 233 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 164 : Representative assessee – Charge of tax – Beneficiaries or their shares unknown – Discretionary Trust – Determinate shares

Trustee is not to be assessed for all the income which trustee receives where beneficiaries are known and their shares are determinate. (A.Y. 1983-84)

CIT v. Muthukrishnan (2003) 260 ITR 526 / 133 Taxman 470 / 181 CTR 129 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 164 : Representative assessee – Charge of tax – Beneficiaries or their shares unknown – Discretionary Trust – Applicability

Where it was a case of trust and shares of beneficiaries were specified and known, income of assessee-trust should not be assessed in status of an AOP. (A.Ys. 1985-86 to 1989-90)

CIT v. Viners Industries (2003) 130 Taxman 492 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 164 : Representative assessee – Charge of tax – Beneficiaries or their shares unknown – Beneficiary of trust – Sole beneficiary – Minor

Where assessee-trust had a sole beneficiary who was a minor, since as per trust deed, in case of death of beneficiary before attaining majority, payment of income to any person was at discretion of trustee and, thus, interest of beneficiary was contingent upon her attaining majority, it could be said that income was not specifically receivable on behalf of or for benefit of any person and, therefore, income of assessee-trust was taxable as per provision of section 164(1); there was no merit in assessee-trust's plea that since trust was liable to be taxed under section 161 in like manner and to same extent as was leviable upon beneficiary and since as per trust deed beneficiary was not entitled to any income during her minority, assessee-trust would also not be liable to pay any tax on income accruing to it. (A.Ys. 1984-85 to 1986-87)

ITO v. Sheetal Sunder Trust (2005) 96 ITD 128 / 97 TTJ 329 (TM)(Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 164 : Representative assessee – Charge of tax – Beneficiaries or their shares unknown – Beneficiary of trust – Welfare of employees

Where assessee-trusts had been created for welfare of employees of employer-companies which were within ambit of expression 'any other fund created bona fide by a person carrying on a business, exclusively for benefit of persons employed in such business', clause (iv) of the proviso to section 164(1) was clearly applicable and tax at normal rate was leviable on them and not at maximum rate. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1998-99)

Rockman Cycle Employees Welfare Trust v. ACIT (2005) 92 TTJ 927 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 164 : Representative assessee – Charge of tax – Beneficiaries or their shares unknown – Maximum marginal rate – Applicability

Where beneficiaries are assessed individually, the maximum marginal rate cannot be applied. It is applicable only where assessment is made on trustee.

R. Sreevidya (Smt.) v. ACIT (2003) 84 ITD 222 / 79 TTJ 303 (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 164 : Representative assessee – Charge of tax – Beneficiaries or their shares unknown – Maximum marginal rate

Held, on facts that Maximum marginal rate cannot be applied on assessee deity, assessed in the status of AOP. (A.Y. 1993-94)

ITO v. Shri Hanuman Mandir Trust (2003) 84 ITD 83 / 78 TTJ 469 (Pune)(Trib.)

DD. Firms, association of persons and body of individuals

Section 167A : Charge of tax in the case of a firm

S. 167A : Firm – Charge of tax – Association of persons – Shares of members unknown – Trust – Position prior to 1-4-1993

Clauses contained in the trust deed enabling the trustees to enrol more members would not convert the specific determinate shares of the existing members in to indeterminate shares. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CIT v. Mani Enterprises (2004) 136 Taxman 507 / 267 ITR 157 / 187 CTR 215 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 167A : Firm – Charge of tax – Surcharge on Firm

For Asst Year 1994-1995 surcharge was applicable to firm only if its total Income exceeded 1 lac.

ACIT v. Niranjan Narottam (2003) 128 Taxman 25 (Mag.)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

Section 167B : Charge of tax where shares of members in association of persons or body of individuals unknown, etc.

S. 167B : Charge of tax – Shares of members unknown – No overriding effect [S. 112]

Provision of sec 167B is not a non obstante clause, and it does not override provisions of Sec 112.

ACIT v. Niranjan Narottam (2003) 128 Taxman 25 (Ahd.)(Mag.)(Trib.)

E. Executors

Section 168 : Executors

S. 168 : Executors – Income – Administrator [S. 4]

Amount received by the administrator (Assessee) on distribution out of the accumulated funds of the estate of the deceased in his capacity as a transferee of the legatee's interest was not taxable in his hands, since the assessee had only acquired the rights to sale proceeds of the properties and the estate was continuing and was being administered by the assessee, he could not be treated as the residue legatee. (A. Y. 2004-05).

Dy. CIT v. Nusli Neville Wadia (2011) 61 DTR 218 / 141 TTJ 521 (Mum.)(Trib.)

F. Succession to business or profession

Section 170 : Succession to business otherwise than on death

S. 170 : Succession to business otherwise than on death – Company – Change in shareholders

The company is a juristic person having its distinct legal entity, separate from that of shareholders. The change in the shareholders of company does not change the legal identity of the company. Therefore, section 170 had no application to the facts of the case.

The term "succession" in section 170 has a somewhat artificial meaning. The tests of change of ownership, integrity, identity and continuity of a business have to be satisfied before it can be said that a person "succeeded" to the business of another;

Even if it is accepted that by a transfer of shares under section 2(47), there is a transfer in the right to use the capital assets of the company, still section 170 is not attracted because there is no "transfer of business". A company is a juristic person and owns the business. The share holders are not the owners of the company. By a transfer of the shares, there is no transfer so far as the company is concerned.

A limited liability company is thus different from a partnership firm because while a company is distinct from its shareholders and directors, a partnership firm is not different from its partners and it is not a distinct legal entity. Since the assessee is a limited liability company change in the ownership of its share will have no legal effect on the legal identity of the company. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. Panchratan Hotels (P) Ltd. (2011) 220 Taxation 244 / (2010) 188 Taxman 299 / (2009) 29 DTR 73 / 226 CTR 586 (HP)(High Court)

G. Partition

Section 171 : Assessment after partition of a Hindu undivided family

S. 171 : Partition – Assessment – HUF – Notice – Members

Order under section 171 passed by the Assessing Officer after issuing a call memo only to Karta of the HUF and not other members of the family did not comply with the mandatory requirement of section 171(2), and therefore, illegal and not valid. Matter remanded back to the Assessing Officer with the direction to pass an order under section 171 after notifying all the members of HUF and hearing them. (A.Y. 1987-88)

P. G. Srinivasetty & Sons (HUF) v. ITO (2010) 41 DTR 283 / 233 CTR 437 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 171 : Partition – Assessment – HUF – Status

Provisions of section 171 of the Act, deal with assessment after the division of the Hindu Undivided Family (HUF). Thus, before provisions of section 171 of the Act can be invoked, to assess the property even after partition, an a HUF, it should have been assessed as HUF before such partition also. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Tirlochan Singh v. CIT & Anr. (2009) 19 DTR 277 / 180 Taxman 640 / 228 CTR 390 / 316 ITR 39 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 171 : Partition – Assessment – HUF – Liability in special cases [S. 159]

Where assessee-HUF's assessment for assessment years 1978-79 and 1979-80 was completed in October 1982, while its partial partition took place on 20-10-1979, it was to be treated as hitherto assessed as HUF within meaning of section 171(9) and partial partition was to be ignored; Tribunal was not justified in holding that as no assessment was made in status of HUF, assessee was out of reach of section 171(9) and that word 'assessed' used in section 171(9) means passing of assessment order prior to date of partial partition. (A.Ys. 1981-82, 1982-83)

CIT v. Gyan Chand & Sons (2008) 303 ITR 267 / (2005) 146 Taxman 429 / 202 CTR 605 (All.)(High Court)

S. 171 : Partition – Assessment – HUF – Metes and bounds – Hindu Succession Act

The assessee was a HUF consisting of the Karta, his wife and his minor son. On the death of the Karta, the wife claimed that on account of the death of her husband her right in the HUF property was defined and as per the provisions of section 6 read with Explanation 1 of the Hindu Succession Act, 1956 it was not for her to claim any partition in the property of the HUF.

The claim was not accepted by assessing authority but was accepted by the Tribunal. On a reference, the Hon'ble Court observed that there is no ipso facto partition of a joint Hind family immediately after the death of a male coparcener of Mitakshara School having coparcenary interest in the coparcenary property.

The Hon'ble Court did not agree with the order of the Tribunal that there is deemed partition and disruption of the HUF as per Explanation 1 to section 6 of the Hindu Succession Act. The Hon'ble Court also observed that this view also finds support from the judgment of Gujarat High Court in CIT v. Balubhai Nanubhai (HUF) (1996) 220 ITR 334. (A.Ys. 1982-83, 1983-84)

CIT v. Meera Prem Sunder (Smt.) (HUF) (2006) 280 ITR 360 (All.)(High Court) / CIT v. Dharam Pal Singh (HUF) (2005) 146 Taxman 421 (All.)(High Court)

S. 171 : Partition – Assessment – HUF – Partial [S. 159]

Partial partition had, admittedly, been accepted by revenue, addition made by ITO holding that partition had not been accepted, was to be deleted

CIT v. Kesho Ram (2005) 145 Taxman 473 (All.)(High Court)

S. 171 : Partition – Assessment – HUF – Partial – Exemption

There is no merit in the submission that when the partial partition has been declared null and void under section 171(9) it should be limited only for the purpose of assessment of the joint family and it would not extend to other purposes like claiming deduction or grant of exemption which is available under other provisions of the Act. (A.Ys. 1988-89, 1990-91)

CIT v. B.S. Sundaravadivel Mudaliar & Sons (2003) 128 Taxman 74 / 260 ITR 662 / 181 CTR 544 (Mad.)(High Court).

S. 171 : Partition – Assessment – HUF – Partial

Interest income earned by assessee-smaller-HUF could not have been assessed in the hands of bigger HUF, where partition bringing into existence smaller-HUF had been recognized.

CIT v. Nathulal Gangaram Soni (2003) 133 Taxman 480 / 185 CTR 362 / 262 ITR 189 (MP)(High Court)

S. 171 : Partition – Assessment – HUF – Partial – Validity – Share of minors

In view of decision in Approva Shatilal Shah v. CIT (1983) 141 ITR 558 (SC), partial partition of the assessee – HUF on 7-2-1976, was rightly recognized by the Tribunal under section 171 holding that the partial partition was genuine and it had the consent of all members and it was fair to minor and it was neither unequal nor against the interest of the minor. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CIT v. Kr. Anand Singh (HUF) (2003) 130 Taxman 834 (All.)(High Court)

S. 171 : Partition – Assessment – HUF – Arbitration award

For a partition of HUF to be valid/acceptable under section 171, it is not always essential that each of properties of HUF should be broken into pieces/ portions, nor that each property should be broken into as many shares as are shares or members of HUF, so as to fall within division by metes and bounds.

If under partition agreement/scheme, members mutually so agree that they allot a particular property to one member only and other members agree to take cash compensation only, if that property is given to one member, then that will also be a valid partition acceptable/recognizable under section 171.

Arbitration award can be looked into in income-tax proceedings, for knowing factum of partition having taken place. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Mohanlal K. Shah, HUF v. ITO (2005) 96 ITD 9 / 92 TTJ 360 / 1 SOT 316 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 171 : Partition – Assessment – HUF – Total – Rejection

Where assessee's claim for total partition of HUF while filing return, was rejected by Assessing Officer on finding that in none of documents like application for issue of certificate under section 230A for sale of HUF property, affidavit filed, agreement for sale and sale deed made or executed subsequent to alleged execution of memorandum of partition, there was any mention of having partitioned said property, rejection of claim of partition was justified. (A.Ys. 1985-86 to 1990-91)

P. G. Srinivasasetty & Sons (HUF) v. ITO (2005) 2 SOT 1 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 171 : Partition – Assessment – HUF – Status – Not assessed in past

Assessee having not been assessed as an HUF ever before the assessment year in question, provision of section 171 could not be invoked to make assessment in the status of HUF. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Tirlochan Singh v. CIT & Anr. (2010) 228 CTR 390 / (2009) 316 ITR 39 / 180 Taxman 640 / 19 DTR 277 (P&H)(High Court)

H. Profits of non-residents from occasional shipping business

Section 172 : Shipping business of non-residents

S. 172 : Non-residents – Shipping business – Scope – Extend of liability [S. 44B]

There is an anomaly in terms of section 172 and section 44B, inasmuch as tax liability under section 172, which essentially is in nature of ad hoc liability in special cases, is lesser in scope vis-à-vis assessee's tax liability under section 44B. (A.Y. 1996-97)

James Mackintosh & Co. (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 93 ITD 466 / 92 TTJ 388 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 172 : Non-residents – Shipping business – Residents – India-Swiss DTAA [S. 90, Articles 7 & 22]

Non-resident applicant enters into contract with an independent charterer in Dubai for carrying cargo from Indian ports; it contended that since it carries the business in India through independent agents, it has no permanent establishment in India and it stands excluded by Article 7 but should be brought within the purview of Article 22 which is in the nature of residuary article, 'other income' and as it does not have PE in India, only the state of residence can levy tax in terms of Article 22(1) - AAR observed that Residuary Article 22 concerning 'other income' was introduced in 2001; until then there is no dispute that profits derived from the operation of ship in International traffic are left as the subject matter of domestic tax law as Article 7 has specially excluded it; both Article 7 and Article 22 provides for the similar pattern of right of taxation in favor of State of Residence unless there is a PE in the State of Source - hence held carriage of goods from Indian ports by non-residents will be governed by domestic law enforced in India as it is specifically excluded by Article 7

Gearbulk AG, (2009) 318 ITR 66 / 184 Taxman 383 / 226 CTR 209 / 29 DTR 98 (AAR)

L. Discontinuance of business, or dissolution

Section 176 : Discontinued business

S. 176 : Discontinued business – Firm – Dissolution – Prior to 1-4-1976 – Amendment prospective

The amendment in section 176 was with effect from 1-4-1976, and the provision being substantive in character, the question of its being given retrospective effect can not arise, hence prior to 1-4-1976 no assessment can be made in hands of a firm of income received after its dissolution.

CIT v. Bhagat & Co (2004) 141 Taxman 298 / 192 CTR 617 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 176 : Discontinued business – Business taken over by Company – Continuity

Where business is continued even after same is taken over by assessee-company from erstwhile proprietor, provisions of section 176(3A) are not applicable.

ACIT v. HYT Engg. Co. (P.) Ltd. (2005) 92 ITD 202/ 93 TTJ 16 (TM)(Pune)(Trib.)

S. 176(3A) : Discontinued business – Succession of Firm by Company [S. 189]

Business of the erstwhile firm having been taken over and continued by a company there was no discontinuation of business and therefore, the amount of arbitration award pertaining to the claim made by the firm can not be taxed in the hands of partners by invoking the provisions of section 176(3A). Section 189 also would not be invoked, said award cannot be taxed also in the hands of alleged AOP. (A.Y. 1990-91) ITO v. Jalamsingh B. Barad (2010) 130 TTJ 573 / 32 DTR 337 / 35 SOT 383 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 176(3A) : Discontinued business – Business income-expenditure – Liability in special cases [S. 37(1)]

Arbitration award received by assessee after discontinuation of business cannot be taxed on gross basis. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Van Oord Dredging & Marine Contractors BV v. Dy. Director of IT (2007) 105 ITD 97 / 106 TTJ 889 (Mum.)(Trib.)

M. Private companies

Section 179 : Liability of directors of private company in liquidation

S. 179 : Private company – Liability of directors – Tax contemplated under section 179 does not include interest and penalty

While deciding, if the nomenclature 'tax' would include other components such as penalty as well as interest, the High Court placed reliance on the judgement in the case of Soma Sundarams Ltd. v. CIT 116 ITR 620, which had held that the Court has decidedly stated that the component 'income tax' does not include payment of penalty as well as interest.

H. Ebrahim and Others v. Dy. CIT (2011) 332 ITR 122 / 227 CTR 646 / 185 Taxman 11 / 32 DTR 249 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 179 : Private company – Liability of directors – Penalty – Tax – Reasonable opportunity

"Tax" for the purposes of section 179 does not include penalty, therefore, directors of the company cannot be called upon to pay penalty of the company under section 179. Order passed by the Assessing Officer under section 179 without examining the question as to whether the non recovery of tax from the assessee company was or not as a result of gross neglect, misfeasance or breach of duty on the part of the assessee in relation to affairs of the company, Assessing Officer was directed to pass fresh order after giving a reasonable opportunity to the assessee. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Dinesh T. Tailor v. Tax Recovery Officer (2011) 238 CTR 165 / (2010) 326 ITR 85 / 41 DTR 6 / 192 Taxman 152 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 179 : Private company – Liability of directors – Recovery from company

For Recovery from directors of tax dues of assessee company under section 179. Revenue has to first of all show that the directors were responsible for the conduct of business during the concerned previous year. The Revenue has to establish that it has taken effective steps to recover the outstanding liabilities from the company. The words "cannot be recovered" requires the Revenue to establish that recovery could not be made from the company.

Order under section 179 against the director of the company for recovery of the tax dues of the company was quashed where the revenue failed to establish that the directors against whom the order was issued were responsible for the conduct of the company and further no steps were taken to effect recovery of outstanding tax dues from the company. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Amit Suresh Bhatnagar (2009) 183 Taxman 287 / 221 CTR 70 / 15 DTR 29 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 179 : Private company – Liability of directors – Liquidation

Liability of directors for arrears of tax of company. First and foremost it is necessary for tax department to prove that recovery cannot be made from company. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Indubhai T. Vasa (HUF) v. ITO. (2006) 282 ITR 120 / 196 CTR 15 / 146 Taxman 163 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 179 : Private company – Liability of directors – Liquidation – Deemed public company [S. 159]

Director is liable in respect of arrears of tax of company only for assessment year when he was functioning as director; further arrears of company for period prior to its becoming deemed public company could not be recovered from director.

Arvind Kumar Gupta v. TRO (2005) 276 ITR 373 / 146 Taxman 579 / 199 CTR 36 (All.)(High Court)

S. 179 : Private company – Liability of directors – Liquidation – Proceeding against company – Directors [S. 159]

Revenue has to establish that recovery of tax due cannot be made against company and then, and then alone would it be permissible for revenue to initiate action against director or directors responsible for conducting affairs of company during relevant accounting period. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Indubhai T. Vasa v. ITO (2005) 146 Taxman 163 / 196 CTR 15 / 282 ITR 120 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 179 : Private company – Liability of directors – Liquidation – Resignation [S. 159]

On a writ, petitioner contended that he had not received notice from TRO for attachment of his assets for recovery of tax from defaulter-company of which he was former director and that he had resigned as director much earlier, petitioner was directed to make those submissions before TRO who should examine same

Vakil Chand Jain v. TRO (2005) 145 Taxman 299 / 203 CTR 153 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 179 : Private company – Liability of directors – Recovery

A proceedings can be initiated against directors of a company provided that there is a finding that tax for relevant period can not be recovered from the company.

Dipak Dutta v. UOI (2004) 134 Taxman 533 / 268 ITR 302 / 187 CTR 14 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 179 : Private company – Liability of directors – Negligence – Proof

If the director proves that non-recovery can not be attributed to gross negligence, misfeasance or breach of duty on his part in relation to affairs of the company, the question may be different, hence the case put up by director of a private limited company should be taken in to consideration by Assessing Officer before making an order adverse to such person.

Jatinder Bhalla v. ITO (2004) 268 ITR 266 / 141 Taxman 553 / 187 CTR 478 (Delhi)(High Court)

CHAPTER XVI

SPECIAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO FIRMS

A. Assessment of firms

Section 182 : Assessment of registered firm [Omitted by the Finance Act, 1992, w.e.f. 1-4-1993]

S. 182 : Firm – Recovery from firm – Position prior to 1-4-1993

Procedure of assessment does not confer any substantive right. It merely provides the procedure and mechanism for the realization and recover of tax from the partners of a registered firm, who are non-residents. The tax is required to be paid by the registered firm. It is a mechanism provided to ensure speedier recovery of tax making the firm itself liable to pay the tax as provided in sub section (3), of section 182.

CIT v. B. Narasimha Rao (2003) 263 ITR 62 / 132 Taxman 821 / 185 CTR 219 (AP)(High Court)

Section 184 : Assessment as a firm

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Registration – Not specifying share of loss – (Position prior to 1-4-93)

Section 184(2) of the Income tax Act 1961, is in pari material with section 27(2) of the Kerala Agricultural Income Tax 1950. Shares in loss not specified, cannot be a ground for rejection of registration. (A.Ys. 1969-70 to 1975-76)

Commr. of Agrl. IT v. P. V. Balakrishnan Nair (2003) 264 ITR 563 / (2004) 186 CTR 101 / 134 Taxman 261 (SC)

Editorial:- Decision of Full Bench of the Kerala High Court in Kerala Publicity Bureau v. CIT (1993) 200 ITR 366 (FB)(Ker.) affirmed.

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Certified copy to be filed every year – Mandatory

Section 184 provides that the assessee firms should file copy of ruling partnership deed certified by all the partners along with return of income, the requirement is mandatory, otherwise the assessee can only be treated as AOP. The fact that assessee has been treated as firm in earlier years will not be sufficient. (A. Y. 1993-94 & 95).

Bhaskar and Co. v. CIT (2011) 331 ITR 90 / 230 CTR 99 / 187 Taxman 163 / 33 DTR 150 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Association of persons – Registration – Certified copy of partnership deed [S. 40(b), 185]

Assessee filed the return of income for the Asst. year 1993-94 on 30th August, 1993 which was assessed under section 143(1). In the course of reassessment proceedings the Assessing Officer found that the assessee had not furnished certified copy of the partnership deed along with the return of income, however, during the course of assessment proceedings the assessee filed the a photo copy of a partnership deed. The Assessing Officer assessed the firm as an AOP and disallowed the salary and interest paid to the partners under section 40(b) of the income-tax Act. On appeal the CIT(A) and Tribunal held that as the assess had filed the deed of copy partnership which was signed by all the partners the assessee was liable to be assessed as partnership as the procedure requirement of the Act had been complied with. On appeal the High court held that the order of Tribunal being proper and the status of firm has been correctly assessed as partnership. (A. Y. 1993-94).

CIT v. Nand Lal Labhu Ram (2011) 245 CTR 525 / 336 ITR 303 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – AOP – Books of Account

The Assessing Officer adopted the status of the assessee as that of an A.O.P. on the ground that the books of account have not been maintained by the assessee. On appeal, the High Court held that since the conditions laid down under section 184 of the Act were fulfilled by the assessee the firm is eligible to be assessed in the status of a firm.

CIT v. Zhilmil Vaishno Dhaba (2007) 196 Taxation 127 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Contribution

The assessee firm consisted of two partner being karta as representing their H.U.Fs. Subsequently, in the year 1978-79 son of one of the kartas was inducted as working partner without any capital contribution. Assessing officer rejected the registration of the new firm on the ground that there was diversion of income. The High Court setting aside the order of the assessing officer held that new partner of the firm contributed his skill and labour as a working partner and as such no separate capital contribution was required.

Ishwar Bhuvan Hindu Hotel v. CIT (2006) 192 Taxation 529 / 281 ITR 139 / (2005) 199 CTR 722 / 148 Taxman 340 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Form No. 12 – Registration

The Assessing Officer during the reassessment proceeding found that Form No. 12 was not available on record, as such, he did not allow continuation of registration to the firm. On appeal to the High Court the High Court observed that as the notice under section 139(9) was not issued by the Assessing Officer to the assessee regarding non-filing of Form No. 12 and continuation of registration was also allowed by the Assessing Officer while processing the return under section 143(1) (a), the Tribunal was not justified in upholding the order of the Assessing Officer.

Suraj Oil Mills v. ITO (2006) 195 Taxation 400 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Registration – Defects in the forms – Curable defects

Where the declaration in form no 12 filed by the assessee did not contain the signature of the two partners and the assessee filed the fresh form on 3-10-1980 and explained the reasons. The form filed on 3-10-1980 has been treated fresh declaration and registration was granted.

CIT v. Girish Chand Amar Nath (2005) 274 ITR 36 / (2004) 192 CTR 61 / 144 Taxman 378 (All.)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Partnership deed – Thumb impression

Thumb impression is one of modes of signature and it is not necessary that partnership deed must bear signature in letters and words. (A.Ys. 1970-71 to 1973-74)

CIT v. Kanhaiya Lal & Sons (2005) 273 ITR 425 (All.)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Ingredients of Partnership – Karta of HUF

A partnership can be entered into by karta of HUF representing his HUF, with another coparcener in his individual capacity, and it is also not necessary that a person in order to become a partner should bring capital. (A.Y. 1977-78)

CIT v. Th. Mahatam Rao Jagdish Narain (2005) 144 Taxman 905 (All.)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Partnership deed – Minor made liable to loss – Registration cannot be granted

Partnership deed provided that minor shall also be liable to share loss to extent of his share according to section 30 of Indian Partnership Act, registration was rightly refused to assessee-firm. (A.Y. 1977-78)

CIT v. Badri Nath Ganga Ram (2005) 273 ITR 485 / 194 CTR 347 (All.)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Validity – Banking business

If a partnership with more than ten persons carrying a banking business is not registered under the Indian Partnership Act, such firm cannot be treated as a legally constituted firm.

CIT v. Chakkiath Bankers (2003) 128 Taxman 617 / 261 ITR 292 / 182 CTR 424 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Registration – Carrying of business

As per the ratio laid down by supreme court in R.C. Mitter & Sons (1959) 36 ITR 194 (SC), unless the partnership firm had carried on business in accordance with the terms of an instrument of partnership which was operative during the accounting year, it could not claim benefit of registration as it could not be registered in respect of the following assessment year. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CIT v. J.P. Bhatia (2003) 133 Taxman 391 / 264 ITR 626 (All.)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Partner – Fees payable before formation of firm

Fees payable to the assessee prior to the formation of the firm and received subsequently should be assessed as income belonging to the individual and not as income belonging to the firm. (A.Y. 1977-78)

CIT v. M. Uttam Reddy (2003) 130 Taxman 398 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Partner – Dissolution – Capital gains

Where after dissolution of firm its business was continued by an AOP comprising all erstwhile partners and assets of firm were ultimately sold under order of Court in winding-up proceedings, capital gains were to be assessed in hands of firm and not assessee-partners. (A.Y. 1995-96)

B. Raghurama Prabhu Estate v. Jt. CIT (2003) 127 Taxman 605 / 264 ITR 124 / 180 CTR 87 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Registration – Position prior to 1-4-1993

Return signed by power of attorney holder on behalf of one of the partner. Assessee firm was entitled for continuation of registration. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Vivek Ispat Udyog v. ITO (2005) 2 SOT 65 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Genuineness – Position after 1-4-1993

After 1-4-1993, power to verify genuineness of firm is nowhere available to Assessing Officer. Though the fact that the assessee, who held license in his name, had not obtained approval for transfer of license for carrying on arrack business in the name of firm would amount to violation of the State Excise Act and rules framed there under, but where provisions of section 184 were complied with, on applicability of section 184, firm was to be assessed as such. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Dy. CIT v. H.E.D. Bros. Co. (2005) 1 SOT 881 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Registration – AOP – Position prior after 1-4-1993

Considering newly-inserted provisions of sections 184 and 185, and also CBDT Circular No. 636, dated 31-8-1992 explaining provisions of taxation of income of firm, there is very limited scope for Assessing Officer to make assessment of firm by treating same as an AOP; thus merely because license for sale and purchase of liquor was in name of partner of assessee-firm, Assessing Officer was not justified in assessing it as AOP instead of firm. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 1996-97)

Thodupuzha Wines v. Dy. CIT (2005) 97 ITD 253 / 99 TTJ 786 (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 184 : Firm – Assessment – Ex-parte [S. 144]

Provisions of sec 184(5) applies only when assessment is done under section 144.

Y M Light House v. ITO (2003) 128 Taxman 22 (Mag.)(Cochin)(Trib.)

Section 185 : Assessment when section 184 not complied with

S. 185 : Firm – Deduction of interest – Salary – Registration – Genuineness of firm

When the firm is held to be genuine, only because one of the partner failed to show the capital contribution, registration can not be refused. (A.Y. 1980-81)

CIT v. Oriental Trading Corpn (2004) 270 ITR 564 / 142 Taxman 94 / 190 CTR 544 (MP)(High Court)

S. 185 : Firm – Deduction of interest – Salary – Registration – Firm carrying on business

Expression “business” contemplates continuous activity from year to year, on the basis of evidence it was not possible to find whether the activity of construction of godowns and letting them out from year to year hence it was held that the firm was not entitled to continue the registration as per section 185(1)(a). (A.Ys. 1979-80 to 1981-82)

CIT v. Y. Narayana Murthy (2004) 270 ITR 275 / 141 Taxman 404 (AP)(High Court)

C. Changes in constitution, succession and dissolution

Section 187 : Change in constitution of a firm

S. 187 : Firm – Change in constitution – Death of partner – Dissolution – Succession

Where the partnership deed provided that even if a partner died, at least till end of financial year, business would continue and thereafter heirs would step in shoes of partners, partnership would not stand automatically dissolved on the death of partner and there would be single assessment and not two assessments. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CIT v. Naveen Silk Stores (2004) 140 Taxman 85 (All.)(High Court)

S. 187 : Firm – Change in constitution – Succession of one firm by another [S. 188]

As per section 187(2)(a), if even one of the partners continues to remain in the firm, then the firm will not be deemed to be dissolved. Hence, even if the partnership deed says that the firm will stand dissolved on the retirement of a partner, for the purposes of the Income tax Act, it will not be deemed to be dissolved in view of section 187(2)(a). (A.Y. 1979-80)

CIT v. Ratan Lai Garib Das (2003) 261 ITR 200 / 131 Taxman 227 (All.)(High Court)

S. 187 : Firm – Change in constitution – Dissolution – Death of one partner – Two assessments

As per the provisions of section 42 of the Partnership Act, and decision of CIT v. Empire Estate (1996) 218 ITR 355 (SC), on the death of one of the partner's of the firm, there being nothing to show that there was any mention in the partnership deed that the firm would continue on the death of any partner, the assessee firm stood dissolved and hence, there should be two separate assessments for the period before the dissolution and after the dissolution.

CIT v. K. Wadhwal & Sons (2003) 130 Taxman 611 (All.)(High Court)

S. 187 : Firm – Change in constitution – Dissolution – Death of one partner – Two assessments

In view of the provision of section 42 of Indian Partnership Act, 1932, the assessee firm stood automatically dissolved on the death of one of its partners in absence of any provision to contrary in the instrument of partnership and, hence, two separate assessments had to be made in respect of income derived before dissolution and after dissolution. (A.Y. 1978-79)

CIT v. Chandra Metal & Co (2003) 130 Taxman 604 (All.)(High Court)

S. 187 : Firm – Change in constitution – Dissolution – Death of partner – Discontinuation

In view of section 42(c), of the Indian partnership Act, 1932, the assessee firm automatically stands dissolved on the death of one of partner in absence of any provision in partnership deed that firm would continue despite death of any partner and this would be a case of dissolution and not of reconstitution with in the meaning of section 187 (2).

CIT v. Shyam Sunder & Sons (2003) 130 Taxman 596 (All.)(High Court)

S. 187 : Firm – Change in constitution – Dissolution – Death of partner – Two assessment

In view of decision of the Supreme court in CIT v Empire Estate (1996) 218 ITR 355 (SC), if there was no provision in partnership deed that even after death of any partner, partnership firm would continue, the assessee, firm would stand dissolved on the death of one of its partners justifying two assessments.

CIT v. Dharm Kirti Satish Chandra (2003) 131 Taxman 248 (All)(High Court) / CIT v. Ram Babu Kapoor Chand (2003) 131 Taxman 250 / CIT v. Amar Iron Stores (2003) 131 Taxman 249 (All) (High Court) / Shambu Nath Mangru Ram v. CIT (2003) 131 Taxman 251 (All)(High Court) / CIT v. Adarsh Industries (2003) 131 Taxman 255 (All)(High Court) / CIT v. Sardar Cloth House (2003) 131 Taxman 256 (All.)(High Court)

S. 187 : Firm – Change in constitution – Dissolution – Death of partner – Two assessment

Where one of the partners dies and there is no clause in partnership deed that if any of partners dies the partnership shall stand dissolved, two separate assessment assessments are to be made.

CIT v. K.M. Sinha & Bros (2003) 132 Taxman 90 (All.)(High Court) / CIT v. Jai Narain Binodi Lal (2003) 132 Taxman 91 (All.)(High Court)

S. 187 : Firm – Change in constitution – Dissolution – Death of partner – Two assessment

Where one partner of assessee firm died and there was nothing in the partnership deed to effect that partnership would continue even after death of any partner ,the assessee firm would stand dissolved and as such two assessments for two periods on the basis of two returns filed by the assessee were valid in the eyes of law.

CIT v. Mohan Lal Jagan Nath (2003) 130 Taxman 883 (All.)(High Court)

S. 187 : Firm – Change in constitution – Death of partner – Single assessment

Where one partners of firm died during the year under consideration and as per provisions of partnership deed, the firm was not dissolved on the death of one partner, there was only reconstitution of firm and a single assessment had to be made and not two assessments. (A.Y. 1979-80)

CIT v. Sri Sidh & Co. (2003) 131 Taxman 206 (All.)(High Court)

Section 188 : Succession of one firm by another firm

S. 188 : Firm – Succession of one firm by another form – Retirement – New partnership

When two out of the three partners of the firm retire, there is an automatic cessation of the partnership business which tantamount to dissolution of the firm and subsequent constitution of a new partnership firm by the remaining partner by induction two or more partners would result in a new partnership coming in to existence and to such a case, the provisions of section 187 (2) have no application and the assessment has to be completed under section 188 read with section 170. (A.Y. 1991-92)

CIT v. Palakunnathu Traders (2004) 134 Taxman 600 / 269 ITR 322 / 186 CTR 343 (Ker.)(High Court)

Section 189 : Firm dissolved or business discontinued

S. 189 : Firm – Dissolved – Discontinued – Tax liability of partner – Statutory override

If there is a statutory liability on someone to pay certain dues he can not enter into contract with someone else transferring his liability to that person. Such contract will be ignored by the tax department. A statute overrides a contract. A partner of dissolved firm would be liable to pay income tax dues of dissolved firm at least he was partner in firm even if assets and liabilities of the partner had taken over by another party, and taking over of the assets and liabilities of the firm would not affect the statutory liability of the partner. (A.Ys. 1981-82, 1982-83)

Dhanpat Rai Verma v. TRO (2004) 268 ITR 215 / 142 Taxman 58 (All.)(High Court)

CHAPTER XVII COLLECTION AND RECOVERY OF TAX

B. Deduction at source

Section 192 : Salary

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Assessee in default – Payment to non-residents vis-à-vis limitation [S. 201]

At the relevant time, there was a debate on the question as to whether TDS was deductible on foreign salary payment as a component of the total salary paid to an expatriate working in India. Even assuming that the department is right on the issue of limitation still the question would arise whether on such debatable points, the assessee could be declared as assessee in default under section 192 r/w section 201. Further, the assessee has paid the differential tax and also the interest and they further undertake not to claim refund for the amounts paid. Question on limitation has become academic. CIT v. Eli Lilly & Co (India) (P) Ltd. 312 ITR 225 (SC) referred. CIT v. British Airways (2010) 232 CTR 317 / 190 Taxman 304 / 41 DTR 121 (SC)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Overriding charge – Citizen tax – Japanese Law [S. 4]

The matter remitted to the Tribunal to decide whether the citizen tax as per Citizens Individual Inhabitant Tax Act in Japan was an overriding charge on the salary paid by the assessee to its employees. (A.Ys. 1988-89 to 1998-99)

CIT v. NHK Japan Broadcasting Corporation (2009) 28 DTR 106 / 225 CTR 258 / (2010) 322 ITR 628 / 184 Taxman 39 (SC)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Leave travel concession [S. 10(5)]

An employer is under no statutory obligation to collect evidence to show that its employee has actually utilized amount paid towards leave travel concession / conveyance allowance for purpose of TDS under section 192.

CIT v. I.T.I. Ltd. (2009) 183 Taxman 219 / 18 DTR 162 / 221 CTR 619 (SC)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Leave travel concession – Evidence Employer [S. 10(5)]

Employer is not under any statutory obligation to collect evidence to show that employees have actually utilised the amount paid towards leave concession or conveyance allowance under section 10(5).

There is no circular of the CBDT requiring the employer to collect and examine the evidence supporting the declaration of the employees for the purpose of deduction of tax under section 192.

CIT v. Larsen and Toubro Ltd. & Anr. / CIT v. Asea Brown Boveri Ltd. (2009) 313 ITR 1 / 181 Taxman 71 / 18 DTR 163 / 221 CTR 620 / 213 Taxation 512 (SC)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Foreign Company [S. 9(ii)]

The assessee was a joint venture between a foreign company and an Indian company. Four employees were deputed by the foreign company to work for the assessee. Salary was paid by the foreign company. Additional salary was also paid to the employees by the assessee, on which the assessee deducted tax at source under section 192(1).

The Supreme Court held that the provisions of section 192(1) would be applicable to the foreign salary received by the employees and that the assessee could be treated as an assessee in default for non deduction of tax at source on the foreign salary.

The deductions under provisions of chapter XVII are tentative deduction of income tax subject to regular assessments.

CIT v. Eli Lilly & Co. (India) Pvt. Ltd. (2009) 312 ITR 225 / 223 CTR 20 / 178 Taxman 505 / 21 DTR 74 / 211 Taxation 172 (SC)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Assessee in default – Honest estimate – Perquisites – Free education facilities to wards of teachers – Staff members [S. 17(2), 201]

While deducting TDS from employee's income employer is not expected to step into shoes of Assessing Officer and determine actual income. Where employer has deducted TDS on estimated income of employee and such estimate is found to be incorrect, this fact alone would not make employer an assessee in default under section 201(1), unless an inference can reasonably raised that employer has not acted honestly and fairly. Assessee school was providing free educational facilities to Wards of teachers / staff members and cost of education was less than ₹ 1000 per month per child, assessee was entitled to benefit of proviso to rule (3)(5) and consequently, could not be treated as assessee in default.

CIT v. Delhi Public School (2011) 203 Taxman 81 / 63 DTR 325 / (2012) 247 CTR 317 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Unequal deduction of tax – Interest [S. 201]

Sub section (3) of section 192 permits the person obliged to deduct tax to make adjustments in case of excess or deficiency and also authorizes adjustment even in case of total failure to deduct tax during the financial year and therefore, assessee is not liable to pay interest under section 201(IA) for not deducting tax at source from salary payments in several months, when it has deducted tax in the remaining months. (A.Y. 2000-01)

CIT v. Enron Expat Services Inc (2010) 45 DTR 154 / 194 Taxman 70 / 235 CTR 198 / 327 ITR 626 (Uttarakhand)(High Court)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Foreign Company [S. 271C]

Assessee is not required to deduct tax at source in regard to payments made by foreign company to its employees, as there was no record to show that amount paid by foreign company to its employees was made known to assessee or said amount was also disbursed to employees of foreign company through assessee. The assessee is not liable to pay penalty under section 271C, as there was no violation of section 192(1). (A.Ys. 1992-93 to 1998-99)

CIT v. Indo Nissin Foods Ltd. (2010) 194 Taxman 144 / 325 ITR 451 / 231 CTR 440 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Gratuity [S. 10(10)]

Assessee liable to deduct tax at source (TDS) from salaries paid to its employees, was not liable to deduct tax on the amount of gratuity which is exempt under section 10(10) of the Act, even if gratuity is not paid under the provisions of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 but under internal regulations.

North West Karnataka Road Transport Corporation v. Dy. Labour Commissioner & Ors. (2009) 22 DTR 237 / 224 CTR 106 / 310 ITR 290 / 180 Taxman 489 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Meal Coupon

Non transferable meal coupon given by the assessee company to its employees which were usable only at specified eating joints are not taxable as perquisites in the hands of the employees and as such there was no default on the part of the assessee company for not deducting tax at source on the amount of such coupons.

Similarly, the High Court held that the expenditure incurred by the employer for the journey by the employee from residence to office and back is not to be regarded as perquisite in the hands of employees and as such there was no default on the part of the assessee company in not deducting tax at source on such amount.

CIT v. Reliance Industries Ltd. (2008) 14 DTR 150 / 221 CTR 175 / 308 ITR 82 / 175 Taxman 367 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Accrual

No deduction at source is contemplated under section 192 in cases where salary has accrued but is not paid. Accrual of salary and actual act of making payment must exist in order to deduct tax at source.

CIT v. Tej Quebecor Printing Ltd. (2006) 151 Taxman 210 / 200 CTR 616 / 279 ITR 573 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 192: Deduction at source – Salary – LIC – Conveyance allowance [S. 10(14)]

Writ challenging order of TDS Officer asking Branch Managers of LIC to deduct tax at source from conveyance allowance and additional conveyance allowance paid to Development Officers could not be entertained and it would be a matter of establishing claim for exemption thereof under section 10(14) by individual assessee at time of completion of their assessments

National Federation of Insurance Field Workers of India v. Union of India (2005) 276 ITR 127 / 145 Taxman 116 / 196 CTR 489 / 276 ITR 127 (Jharkhand)(High Court)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Conveyance allowance – Development Officer – Circular issued by Executive Director (Marketing) LIC [S. 119]

Circulars issued by Executive Director (Marketing) of LIC providing guidelines for deduction of income – tax at source on additional conveyance allowance paid to LIC Development Officers has no force and, therefore, is not binding on Income-tax department and LIC Development Officers.

Franco Johan v. UOI (2004) 134 Taxman 435 / 269 ITR 441 / 186 CTR 760 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Foreign technicians – Fees for technical services [S. 195]

Remittances made by assessee to American company in respect of reimbursement of salaries paid by American company to foreign technicians /expatriates deputed in India with assessee were rightly liable for deduction of tax at source as salary. Explanation to section 9(1)(vii) makes it clear that salaries would not fall within the expression "fees for technical services".

DIT v. HCL Infosystems Ltd. (2004) 192 CTR 108 / 274 ITR 261 / 144 Taxman 492 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Assessee

Even if a person responsible for paying any income chargeable under the head 'salaries' is not an assessee, he is also statutorily obliged to deduct income-tax at the time of payment of such salaries and to pay the same to the revenue.

C.E.S.C. Ltd. v. ITO (TDS) 2003 Tax LR 401 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Leave travel concession

Leave travel concession/assistance can be treated as exempt under section 10(5) by employer and he can avoid his statutory obligation to deduct-tax at source there from only if he is satisfied as to three ingredients of said sub-section, and he also keeps and preserves evidence in support thereof.

C.E.S.C. Ltd. v. ITO (TDS) (2003) Tax LR 401 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Free boarding

Since free boarding provided to employees of oil rigs on oil rig does not amount to perquisite, no obligation arises on part of employer to deduct tax from perquisite value of same.

(A.Y. 1994-95)

CIT v. Hyundai Heavy Industries Co. Ltd. (2003) 264 ITR 328 / 189 CTR 91 / 137 Taxman 399 (Uttaranchal)(High Court)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Amounts not deductible – Income deemed to accrue or arise in India – Salary to staff at Netherland [S. 9, 40(a)(iii)]

Where salaries had been paid to non-residents for services rendered abroad, provisions of Explanation to section 9(1)(ii) were not applicable to assessee. Since salary paid to non resident's for services rendered in Netherlands was not chargeable to tax in India, provisions of section 192 cannot be applied hence disallowance made by applying the provisions of section 40(a)(iii) were liable to be deleted. (A. Y. 2003-04).

Dy. CIT v. Mother Dairy Fruits & Veg (P) Ltd. (2011) 45 SOT 186 / 141 TTJ 97 / 60 DTR 220 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Perquisite [Ss. 2(24), 17(1), 2, Expln. 201]

Facility of composite free bus pick up and drop provided by employer to employees, is not taxable as perquisites. Facility enjoyed by all employees; as it is impossible of to compute the value, computation machinery fails hence, the employer cannot be treated as assessee in default for failure to deduct tax at source. (A.Y. 2005-06)

Transwork Information Services Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 1 ITR 58 / (2009) 126 TTJ 900 / 29 SOT

543 / 32 DTR 367 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Editorial:– See WNS Global Services (P) Ltd. (2009) 33 SOT 445 (Mum.)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Tips

Tips paid by customers to regular employees of restaurant, which were being collected along with the bills and were later on dispersed to concerned employees, would not constitute as profit in lieu of salary and would not be liable for TDS, as only the payments received by employees from employer are considered as profit in lieu of salary.

Nehru Place Hotels Ltd. v. ITO (2008) 173 Taxman 88 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

Editorial : Hon'ble Delhi High Court has is the case of CIT v. ITC Ltd. (2011) 243 CTR 114 (Delhi) / 199 Taxman 412 / 59 DTR 312 held that would constitute "profit in addition to salary and wages" and would be liable to tax deduction at source.

S. 192 r.w. s. 201 : Deduction at source – Salary – Assessee in default

Obligations cast under section 192 is being said to be duly discharged when the belief entertained by the company was bonafide and the estimate of salary made for purpose of deduction of tax at source was fair and honest estimate. The issue of short deduction raised by Assessing Officer on basis of his opinion that particular sum were liable to tax in India and forms part of salary cannot make an assessee, as an assessee in default.

Dy. CIT v. Whirlpool India Holdings Ltd. 156 Taxman 233 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Reimbursement [S. 271C]

A Sweden company failed to deduct tax under section 192 from children's education expenses reimbursed to expatriate employee in foreign currency. On realizing the mistake the taxes along with interest was paid. The default was on account of inadvertence and under a bonafide belief that said payments were not taxable. It was held that Commissioner (Appeals) is justified in cancelling the penalty, as the conduct had not been contumacious or defiance.

Dy. CIT v. Ericsson Telephone Corporation India A. B. (2006) 155 Taxman 156 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Taxability of allowance in the hands of recipient

Taxability of an allowance in hands of recipient cannot lead to conclusion that payer is also liable to deduct tax at source in respect thereof. (A.Ys. 1997-98, 1998-99, 1999-2000)

Savani Financials Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 1 SOT 111 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Leave travel allowance – Assessee in default

[S. 201(1)]

Where assessee-company, while deducting tax at source from salary paid to its employees did not include leave travel allowance paid during year under consideration, treating same as exempt under section 10(5) on basis of declaration filed by said employees confirming having actually spent said allowance on travel merely because actual proof /evidence of having spent leave travel allowance on travel was not verified by it, assessee could not be treated as assessee in default under section 201(1). (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1996-97)

Dy. CIT v. HCL Infosystems Ltd. (2005) 4 SOT 428 / 95 TTJ 1093 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – Unpaid

Assessee is not required to deduct tax at source if salary is not actually paid to employee. (A.Ys. 1994-95 to 1998-99)

Tej Quebecor printing Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2003) 84 ITD 684 / 80 TTJ 783 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 192 : Deduction at source – Salary – honorary – Part time teachers

Where there is control of applicant over honorary part time teachers both in regard to work to be done and manner in which it should be done, it would establish employer – employee relation ship between applicant and honorary teachers so as to attract deduction of tax under section 192 from payments made to such teachers.

Max Mueller Bhavan, In re (2004) 268 ITR 31 / 138 Taxman 113 / 189 CTR 450 (AAR)

Section 194 : Dividends

S. 194 : Deduction at source – Dividend – Proportionate credit

1. The State Financial Corporation received dividend which was subject to TDS. The credit for the same was claimed by the assessee. The Assessing Officer was of the opinion that credit can be given in proportion to the dividend income assessable in the hands of the assessee as two-thirds of the dividend was assessable in the hands of the State Government. Rejecting the contention of the Assessing Officer it was held that the credit for the entire TDS should be given to the assessee – Financial Corporation.

CIT v. Punjab Financial Corporation (2006) 152 Taxman 120 (P&H)

2. The provisions of section 203 or section 206 are attracted only in a case where tax is deducted. Failure to deduct tax shall not attract these provisions. (A.Ys. 1994-95, 1995-96)

CIT v. Sri Ram Memorial Education Promotion Society (2006) 152 Taxman 257 / 287 ITR 155 (All.)(High Court)

S. 194 : Deduction at source – Dividend – Non-shareholder

When payment is made to a non shareholder, section 194 does not apply. (A.Ys. 2003-04 to 2005-06)

MTAR Technologies (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 39 SOT 465 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

Section 194A : Interest other than “Interest on securities”

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Loan in the name of company – Time of deduction

When the loan is taken by the director in the name of the company and the interest is paid by the directors through the company, the Supreme Court held that the company is required to deduct tax at source.

The Supreme Court held that the material expression in section 194A "at the time of credit of such income to the account of the payee"; therefore whenever interest is credited to the account of the payee, the payer has to deduct tax at source.

Assessing Officer under section 201(1) of the Act declared the Assessee-Company as Assessee-in-default and imposed interest for not deducting TDS at source. Assessee contended that the loan and interest were not reflected in the books of the Assessee-Company therefore it was not liable to deduct TDS at source under section 194A. Held, there was no resolution of the Assessee-Company placed before the Assessing Officer whereby the company agreed to act as a medium for routing the borrowings and repayments. In the circumstances it could not be said that the Assessee-Company was in charge of disbursing repayments made by directors in their individual capacities. Consequently, Department was right in invoking the provisions of sections 201 and 201(1A) of the Act. Appeal allowed

CIT v. Century Building Industries Pvt. Ltd. (2007) 293 ITR 194 / 163 Taxman 188 / 211 CTR 292 / 7 SCC 262 / (2008) 202 Taxation 190 (SC)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Compensation – Limit to be worked separately

Where the Motor Accident Claim Tribunal apportioned the compensation amount and interest payable to each claimants. The interest income of each of the claimant is to be taken into account separately for applying the limit prescribed under section 194A(3)(ix) for the purpose of deducting tax at source under section 194A of the Act.

National Insurance Co. Ltd. v. Smt. Draupadibai & Ors. (2011) 50 DTR 282 / 238 CTR 201 (MP)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Compensation by Motor Accident Claims Tribunal

If the amount of interest on compensation awarded by Motor Accident Claims Tribunal payable to the claimant in particular financial year does not exceed fifty thousand rupees then the person responsible for payment is not required to deduct tax at source under section 194A. Interest Awarded has to be spread over in number of years from the date of filing of claim petition till the due of payment.

United India Insurance Co. Ltd. v Ramanlal & Ors. (2011) 56 DTR 407 (MP)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Reimbursement – Commission [S. 2(28A)]

Assessee company utilized unspent credit limit of other company for importing goods for which bank charged interest, which was paid by said company on behalf of assessee. Assessee reimbursed such amount of interest to said company. It claimed that in reality it paid commission to that company for utilising its unspent credit limit and therefore, provisions of section 194A were not applicable. The Court held that amount paid by the assessee would clearly come within the definition of 'interest' under section 2(28A) and assessee was liable to deduct TDS from the said amount in terms of section 194A. (A. Y. 2002-03)

Bhura Exports Ltd. v. ITO (2011) 202 Taxman 88 / (2012) 66 DTR 87 / 246 CTR 482 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Decree

Once decree is passed, it is a judgment debtor of the Court, which culminates in to final decree being passed which has to be discharged only on payment of amount due under said decree and therefore judgment debtor is not liable to deduct tax at source on interest component of decree.

Madhusudan Shrikrishna v. Emkay Exports (2010) 188 Taxman 195 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Trust

Assessee trust whose beneficiaries and trustees were ex-employees of the company, is not liable to deduct TDS under section 194A in respect of sums credited to members account as the status being Individual, provisions of section 194A are not applicable.

NTPC Ltd. Employees Provident Fund Trust v. ITO (2010) 186 Taxman 13 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Agricultural land

There is no obligation upon the person to deduct tax at source while paying compensation for agricultural land at any place including in an urban agglomeration as the section itself excludes agricultural land from its preview.

Mysore Urban Development Authority & Ors. v. ITO & Anr. (2008) 11 DTR 331 / 218 CTR 678 / 175 Taxman 307 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Delayed compensation

Insurance company rightly deducted tax at source in case of interest on delayed payment of compensation awarded by Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Trial Court can not direct insurance company to make payment without deduction of tax at source.

New India Assurance Co Ltd. v. Mani (2004) 270 ITR 394 (Mad.) / United India Insurance Co. Ltd. (2004) 136 Taxman 565 / 269 ITR 63 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Contempt of Court

Respondent deducted the tax at source and paid the amount. Petitioner contended that the Court has not directed to deduct tax at source. Petitioner contended that respondents had by deducting tax at source, violated the Court order and were, thus guilty of contempt of Court. The court held that the Impossibility to act can not be equated with the non-compliance of the order and respondents were unknown to court, thus contempt application was dismissed.

Kedarnath Jute Mfg. Co. Ltd. v. Prasad Ranjan Ray (2004) 137 Taxman 538 / 266 ITR 677 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – AOP – Individual – Trust

Where assessee-trust was assessed as AOP, its correct status was to be taken as individual and it was not liable to deduct tax at source under section 194A. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CIT v. Sivasakthi Trust (2003) 128 Taxman 342 / 185 CTR 208 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Land acquisition – Enhanced Compensation

Deduction of tax at source is permissible in respect of interest accrued or payable on compensation on compulsory acquisition of land and also on enhanced compensation under sections 18 and 30 of Land Acquisition Act but Court is not a person responsible for paying any income by way of interest to assessee and real person responsible for paying such income is LAO who has money in his possession.

State of M.P. v. Parwatibai (2003) 128 Taxman 751 (MP)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Land acquisition – Compensation – Circular

Circular issued by Dy. Commissioner to Land Acquisition Collector directing him to deduct tax at source at time of making payment of interest to petitioner on account of enhancement of compensation is valid.

Raghubir v. UOI (2003) 179 CTR 603 (Delhi)(High Court) / Ved Prakash v. UOI (2003) 179 CTR 604 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Circular – Validity

The petitioner co-operative Bank contended that the CBDT cannot issue a circular which is contrary to the provisions of section 194A (3). The court held that CBDT Circular No. 9 of 2002, dated 11-9-2002 is directly in conflict with provisions of section 194A(3)(v) and therefore is to be quashed.

Jalgaon District Central Co-operative Bank Ltd. v. UOI (2003) 184 CTR 343 / 165 ITR 423 / 134 Taxman 01 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Co-operative Bank – Time deposit

Where it was not revenue's case that assessee-co-operative society was not covered by exemption provisions of section 194A(3)(vii)(a), it was not liable to deduct income-tax out of interest paid by it on any kind of deposits, Whether time deposit or any other type of deposit, As such society was exempt under sub section (3) it fell out side of the purview of section 194A(1).

ITO v. Thodupuzha Urban Co-operative Bank Ltd. (2003) 132 Taxman 284 / 264 ITR 36 / 185 CTR 272 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Dividend or Discount paid to subscribers of chit

Transaction between the subscribers and the chit companies (foreman) under a chit scheme cannot be treated as a loan transaction and hence, dividend payments cannot be treated as interest payments made by foreman and they are not liable to deduct tax under section 194A on such payments. (A.Y. 2006-07)

ITO v. Dasgupta Chits & Investments Ltd. & Ors. (2010) 41 DTR 141 / 131 TTJ 354 / 4 ITR 732 (Visakhapatnam)(Trib.)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Business Expenditure – Disallowance – Application in Form No. 13., 15G [S. 40(a)(ia)]

Disallowance under section 40(a)(ia) of interest payments on which no TDS was deducted was sustainable, as merely filing of Form No. 13 by payee to their respective Assessing Officers cannot be construed as an authorization to the assessee not to deduct tax for the interest due to them. No copies of Form No. 15G were forthcoming to justify the assessee's stand. (A.Y. 2006-07)

Rajendra Kumar v. Dy. CIT (2010) 46 DTR 363 / 39 SOT 373 / 134 TTJ 244 (Bangalore)(Trib.)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Notional Provision Cumulative deposit [S. 201]

Bank making notional provision for half yearly interest on account of cumulative deposit shown in general ledger reversed on next working day. Interest credited to provision account for macro-monitoring. Interest not due and payable on that day. Deduction of tax not obligatory. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Bank of Maharashtra v. ITO (2010) 6 ITR 824 / 38 SOT 406 (Ahmedabad)(Trib.)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Department of State

Assessee a department of State Government is liable to deduct TDS on interest paid, alongwith compensation to victims as per the order of courts / motor accident claims Tribunal. (A.Ys. 2000-01 to 2005-06)

G. M. Punjab Roadways v. ITO (2009) 178 Taxman 112 (Magistrate)(Chandigarh)(Trib.)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Discounting charges [S. 28A]

Discounting charges paid to financiers in relation to moneys borrowed through bills was interest within the meaning of section 2(28A) hence liable to TDS under section 194A. (A.Ys. 2000-01 and 2001-02)

ITO v. Kanha Vansapati Ltd. (2007) 108 TTJ 816 / 13 SOT 285 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Compensation

Assessee, an insurance company, was not liable to deduct tax at source and therefore it was not liable for payments under section 201(1) and 201(1A). (A.Y. 1999-2000)

ITO v. Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd. (2006) 100 TTJ 1140 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Insurance company – Compensation

Insurance company is not liable to deduct tax at source on amounts of interest on compensation paid by it to victims of accidents as result of award by Motor Accident Claims Tribunal. (A.Ys. 1999-2000 to 2001-02)

Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 143 Taxman 12 (Mag.) / 96 TTJ 589 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Special court – Loan against pledge

Where assessee had made a provision for interest payable on loan raised by it against pledge of shares from a party, which was declared subsequently as notified person under Special Court's Act, and Special Court had by an order in case of such notified party had held that no bank, etc., could pay to income tax department, tax deducted at source from payments to such notified persons and directed assessee to deposit tax deducted in a separate account under intimation to custodian and income-tax department, till the date of passing of such order of Special Court, assessee had to be treated to be assessee-in-default for not deducting tax at source from such person and depositing same but after passing of that order assessee, though guilty of non-deduction, could not be held to be guilty for non-payment of tax as liability was only to deduct tax and payment could not be made to credit of Central Government as it was required to be deposited in a separate account in view of specific order of Special Court. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 1999-2000)

Rakshak Chemicals (P.) Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 97 ITD 135 / 98 TTJ 357 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Cheque discounting charges

Provisions of Sec 201(1A) are not attracted on cheque discounting charges, as same are different from interest payments. (A.Ys. 1985-86 to 1987-88)

ITO v. Babu sah (2003) 86 ITD 283 / 89 TTJ 613 (Mad.)(Trib.)

S. 194A : Deduction at source – Interest – Co-operative Bank

For the purpose of Sec 194A(3)(v), the term Co-operative Society is to be interpreted as excluding Co-operative Bank. (A.Ys. 1997-98 and 1998-99)

Bhagani Nivedita Sah. Bank Ltd. v. ACIT (2003) 87 ITD 569 / (2004) 89 TTJ 373 (Pune)(Trib.)

Section 194B : Winnings from lottery or crosswords puzzle

S. 194B : Deduction at source – Winning from lotteries or crossword Puzzle – Kuries

Prize scheme introduced by person conducting kuries for limited purpose of ensuring due payment of kuri instalments, could not be treated as lottery so as to attract section 194B.

Canaan Kuries & Loans (P.) Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 272 ITR 534 / 142 Taxman 249 / 193 CTR 413 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 194B : Deduction at source – Winning from lottery – Essentials – Kuries

The essential elements that go to constitute a lottery are : (a), a prize or some advantages in the nature of a prize, (b) distribution thereof by chance, and (c) consideration paid or promised for purchasing the chance. Thus unless all the three elements are satisfied, the prize scheme can not be considered as a lottery. The issue of conducting kuri installment has to be considered by applying the principles referred above.

Sampanna Kuries (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2004) 141 Taxman 615 / 193 CTR 413 / 272 ITR 534 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 194B : Deduction at source – Winning from lottery – Prize by draw of lots – Prospective amendment [S. 2(24)(ix)]

Winning of prize by draw of lots or by chance was not included in ambit of word 'lottery' prior to amendment of section 2(24)(ix) brought with effect from 1-4-2002 and as such where assessee's case fell in period prior to amendment, assessee was not liable to deduct tax at source on distribution of prize under lucky-draw scheme. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Jhaveri Industries v. ITO (2005) 3 SOT 93 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 194B : Deduction at source – Winning from lottery – Knowledge and skill – World Cup Football Forecast – Lok sabha election forecast

Where assessee-company conducted 'World Cup Football Forecast' 'Lok Sabha Election Forecast' contests and no price was to be paid by participants and only skill or knowledge was criterion and prize winners were selected by lot, said contests could not be said to be lottery and, therefore, assessee was not liable to deduct tax at source before distribution of prize money of said contests. (A.Y. 1998-99)

ITO v. Malayala Manorama Co. Ltd. (2005) 94 ITD 195 / 95 TTJ 963 (Cochin)(Trib.)

Section 194C : Payments to contractors

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Substantial question of Law – Freight paid by AOP – To member of AOP – Liability to TDS

The question whether freight paid by the assessee (AOP) to truck owners who in turn are members of the said AOP is subject to TDS under section 194C(2) is a substantial question of law and the Supreme Court directed the High Court to decide the issue in accordance with law.

CIT v. Sirmour Truck Operators Union (2009) 313 ITR 26 / 27 / 170 Taxman 242 / 215 CTR 299 / 4 DTR 170 / 213 Taxation 514 (SC)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Substantial Question of Law

The High Court dismissed appeals summarily rejecting the question as to whether the assessee was liable to deduct tax at source under section 194C where the assessee, a society of truck owners made payments without deduction of tax to its members. As the question under consideration was a substantial question of law, the Supreme Court held that the High Court ought to have decided said question.

CIT v. Ambuja Darla Karsog Mangu Transport Co-operative Society Ltd. (2008) 168 Taxman 223 (SC)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Amounts not deductible – Payments by firm to partners – Sub-Contract [S. 40(a)(ia)]

Partners of the assessee firm having executed the transportation, contracts undertaken by the firm by using their own trucks and the assessee having acted as an agent in routing the payments to partners, it cannot be held that there was a separate contract between the firm and the partners and, therefore such payments could not be disallowed under section 40(a)(ia) on the ground that tax was not deducted at source under section 194C. (A. Y. 2006-07)

CIT v. Grewal Brothers (2011) 54 DTR 99 / 240 CTR 325 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Freight charges – Disallowance [40(a)(ia)]

In the absence of any oral or written agreement for payment of any freight charges to truck owners, it does not become a case under section 40(a)(ia) r.w.s. 194C. Therefore, the disallowance made is not sustainable. (A. Y. 2006-07).

CIT v. Bhagwati Steels (2011) 241 CTR 480 / 326 ITR 108 / 198 Taxman 275 / 47 DTR 75 (P&H)(High Court)

Editorial : SLP rejected : SLP (Civil) No 34791 of 2010 dated 3-12-2010 (2010) 204 Taxman 190 (Mag.)(SC)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Transportation of building material – Hiring of dumpers – Rent [S. 194-I]

Assessee engaged in transportation of building material, hiring Dumpers and making payments to contractor for hiring dumpers. The payment was not rent for machinery or equipment but the payment was for works contract of shifting of goods from one place to another, therefore section 194C and not section 194I. (A. Y. 2007-08)

CIT (TDS) v. Shree Mahalaxmi Transport Co. (2011) 339 ITR 484 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Transportation – Rent [S. 194-I]

Assessee entering in to works contracts for transport of goods belonging to assessee to clients through their vehicles. Payment was not rent for machinery or equipment but payment for works contract, tax deducted under section 194C and provision of section 194I cannot be applied. (A.Y. 2007-08).

CIT (TDS) v. Swayam Shipping Services P. Ltd. (2011) 339 ITR 647 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Union of truck operators

The assessee was a truck operators' union and procured contracts for its members. During the assessment of its income, the Assessing Officer made an addition after disallowance under section 40(a)(ia) of the income-tax Act, on the ground that it failed to deduct tax at source as required under section 194C(2) of the Act. The Court held that there being no sub contract the tax was not deductible at source under section 194C.

CIT v. Truck Operators Union (2011) 339 ITR 532 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-Contractors – Society of truck owners – Members

Assessee, a cooperative society was formed by the truck owners and it entered into contracts with companies for transportation. The company deducted TDS @ 2%. Thereafter the assessee-society paid the amount to the truck owners on the basis of work done after deducting a nominal amount for administrative expenses. The relationship between assessee and its members was NOT that of a contractor or a sub-contractor. The assessee was formed as a matter of convenience. The society was nothing more than a conglomeration of truck operators themselves. The truck owners were virtual owners of the society even though the society was a distinct legal entity. The society was formed only because the companies were not ready to deal with individual truck owners. The society did not even retain profits. There was no sub-contract hence, no liability to deduct tax at source.

Ambuja Darla Kashlog Mangu Transport Co-op. Society v. CIT (2010) 188 Taxman 134 / (2009) 227 CTR 299 / 31 DTR 49 / 188 Taxman 134 (HP)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Manufacturing – Amounting to sale

Tests laid down to determine when contract manufacturing will amount to a contract of sale for section 194C (A.Y. 2006-07)

CIT v. Glenmark Pharmaceuticals Ltd. (2010) 324 ITR 199 / 231 CTR 105 / 37 DTR 265 / 324 ITR 199 / 191 Taxman 455 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at Source – Contractors – Written contract – Hiring of vehicles

When the turnover of the assessee exceeded monetary limit specified under clause (a) or clause (b) of section 44AB, the assessee was liable to deduct tax at source from payments made to sub contractors from vehicles hired, if amount payable exceeded the ` 20,000/-, the contract may be in writing or oral, but liability to pay tax arises when recipient of said amount receives payment in excess of ` 20,000/-. (A.Y. 2005-06)

J. Rama (Smt.) v. CIT (2010) 194 Taxman 37 / 46 DTR 248 / 236 CTR 105 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Freight charges [S. 40(a)(ia)]

Where the Tribunal has recorded a categorical finding that there was no material on record to prove any written or oral agreement between the assessee and recipients of goods for transportation and that such payment of freight had not been shown to have been made in pursuance to a contract of transportation of goods for a specific period, quality or price and further, none of the individual payment exceeded ` 20,000, there was no liability to deduct tax under section 194 C and disallowance under section 40(a)(ia) was rightly deleted. (A.Y. 2006-07)

CIT v. Bhagwati Steels (2010) 326 ITR 108 / 47 DTR 75 / 241 CTR 480 / 198 Taxman 275 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Transporters society

Assessee–society having been created by transporters with a view to enter into contracts with companies for transportation of goods and to ensure allocation of work among all members on an equitable basis, there was no sub-contract between the society and the members and therefore, section 194C(2) was not attracted and the assessee society was not liable to deduct tax at source from the payments made to the truck owners who were its members.

CIT v. Sirmour Truck Operators Union (2010) 48 DTR 130 / 195 Taxman 62 / 236 CTR 550 (HP)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Hotel Service – Meaning of work

Service provided by a hotel to its customers does not amount to work within the meaning of 'work' for the purpose of section 194C. The word 'work' in section 194C can only mean such work which results into any product or results into some desired objective.

East India Hotels v. CBDT (2009) 212 Taxation 311 / (2010) 320 ITR 526 / 223 CTR 133 / 179 Taxman 17 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Packing material

Packing material carrying printed work, transaction essentially a sale. Purchaser not liable to deduct tax at source on price. (A.Y. 2006-07)

CIT v. Dy. Chief Accounts Officer, Marketed Khanna (2008) 304 ITR 17 / 217 CTR 555 / 173 Taxman 149 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Freight – Agent

Where the assessee who was in the business of freight forwarding had made payment to Indian agent of non-resident shipping companies covered under section 172 of the Act. These payments made to the agents was liable to T.D.S.

CIT (T.D.S.) v. Continental Carriers P. Ltd. (2007) 197 Taxation 137 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Works Contract

When the printing work was being carried out in the suppliers premises though as per the specifications of the assessee the supply was limited to the quantity specified in the purchase order. There was nothing on record to show that all other ancillary costs like the labels, ink papers, screen printing, screens, etc. were being supplied by assessee to the supplier.

The Hon'ble Court held that the supply of printed labels by supplier to the assessee was a "contract of sale" and it could not be termed a "works contract". Hence the provisions of section 194C were not applicable. (A.Y. 1996-97)

BDA Ltd. v. ITO (TDS) (2006) 281 ITR 99 / 201 CTR 413 / 153 Taxman 386 (Bom.)(High Court)

Editorial : Refer BDA Ltd. v. ITO (2007) 84 ITD 442 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Printed boxes

Supply of corrugated boxes to be made with labels printed on same, is a contract for sale of chattel and as such outside purview of section 194C

CIT v. Dabur India Ltd. (2005) 198 CTR 375 / 283 ITR 197 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractor – Sub-Contractor – Octroi collection

Municipal Committee awarded contracts for collection of octroi, tax was deductible from payments made to contractor and not on collections made by contractor on behalf of Municipal Committee.

S.S. and Co. Octroi Contractors v. State of Punjab (2004) 268 ITR 398 / 191 CTR 109 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractor – Sub-Contractor – Sister concern – Penalty

[S. 221]

Where Tribunal has given finding that there was no sub-contract between assessee and the sister concerns, assessee cannot be held liable for tax deduction at source under section 194 (2). Levy of penalty under section 221 of the Income tax Act was not justified.

CIT v. Ess Kay Construction Co (2004) 267 ITR 618 / 140 Taxman 442 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractor – Payments to professionals

Word 'contractor' in section 194C does not include professionals like lawyers, chartered accountants, doctors, engineers, etc.

Moradabad Chartered Accountants Association v. CBDT (2003) 264 ITR 374 / 186 CTR 671 / 137 Taxman 496 (All.)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Printing material – Payments to contractor

Payment made for purchase of printed packing material to suppliers, no work involving skill or secrecy, it being sale, section 194C is not attracted. (A. Ys. 2004-05 and 2005-06).

ITO v. Mother Dairy Food Processing Ltd. (2011) 7 ITR 16 / 40 SOT 9 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Shipping agent – Carriage of Goods – Technical services – Payments to contractors [S. 194J]

Payment made for carriage of goods from the customer's trailers to the vessel in the case of export and vice versa in the case of import of goods are covered by section 194C rather than section 194J which cannot be applied. (A. Y. 2004-05).

ACIT v. Merchant Shipping Services (P) Ltd. (2011) 49 DTR 97 / 129 ITD 109 / 8 ITR 1 / 135 TTJ 589 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Contractor and Sub-contractor [S. 40(a)(ia)]

Where the transporters are hired by the vendors of the goods, who directly made supplies to the factory of the assessee and charged the amount of transportation separately in their bill to the assessee, provisions of section 194C are not applicable, hence, amount paid cannot be disallowed by applying the provisions of section 40(a)(ia).

Chang Hing Tannery v. Dy. CIT (2011) 42-B-BCAJ March P. 32 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Society – Charitable activities [S. 40(a)(ia), 194J]

For non-deduction of tax at source from paying the payments made towards advertisement expenses, the Assessing Officer disallowed the sum of ₹ 5.10 lacs and taxed the same as business income. Before the Tribunal the assessee contended that since its income is not chargeable under section 26 to section 44AD under the head "Business income" the provisions of section 40(a)(ia) were not applicable. The Tribunal relying on the decision in the case of ITO v. Sangat Bhai Pheru Sikh Education Society. (ITA Nos. 201 to 203/ASR/2004 dt. 31-3-2006 and CIT v. India Magnum Fund (2002) 74 TTJ 620 (Mum.) accepted the contention and allowed the appeal of assessee. (A. Y. 2006-07).

Baba Farid Vidyak Society v. ACIT, ITA No. 180/ASR/2010 dt. 31-1-2011 (2011) 43 A BCAJ April P. 34 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Payment to truck operators – Second and third proviso – Not retrospective [S. 40(a)(ia)]

Assessee operating trailer lorries disbursing freight charges amounting to ₹ 46,70,365 to 16 parties without deducting tax as specified in section 194C. Assessee was liable to deduct tax at source. Amendment to sub-section (3) of section 194C made through Finance Act 2005, where by second and third provisions were added to it w.e.f 1st June, 2005 has no retrospective effect. The Tribunal held that the Assessing Officer was justified in making disallowance under section 40(a)(ia). (A. Y. 2005-06).

ITO v. M. Sankar (2011) 138 TTJ 690 / 127 ITD 316 / 55 DTR 289 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Franchisee – Sharing of profits [S. 40(a)(ia)]

Franchisee agreement did not stipulate payment to be made to the licence for any work done on behalf of the assessee and it was merely a case of running a study centre and to apportion profits thereof between the assessee and the licence and therefore provisions of section 194C were not applicable and no disallowance under section 40(a)(ia) can be made. (A. Ys. 2005-06, 2006-07).

Career Launcher (India) Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 139 TTJ 48 / 56 DTR 10 / 131 ITD 414 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Transportation – Hire contract – Rent – Tests to distinguish “transportation contract” from “hire contract”. [S. 194I]

The assessee entered into contracts with transporters for transporting petroleum products from the plant to various destinations. The assessee deducted tax under section 194C at 2% on the basis that the transportation contract was “work”. The Assessing Officer held that the contract was a “hiring” of vehicles on the basis that (i) the assessee had exclusive possession and usage, (ii) the use was for a fixed tenure, (iii) the tankers were customized to the assessee’s requirements and that TDS ought to have been under section 194-I at 10%. The assessee was held to be in default under section 201. On appeal, the CIT(A) reversed the Assessing Officer. On appeal by the department, HELD dismissing the appeal:

To decide whether a contract is one for “transportation” or for “hiring”, the crucial thing is to see who is doing the transportation work. If the assessee takes the trucks and does the work of transportation himself, it would amount to hiring. However, if the services of the carrier were used and the payment was for actual transportation work, the contract is for transportation of goods and not an arrangement for hiring of vehicles. On facts, the agreement was of the nature of transport agreement and not one for hiring of vehicles because the tank truck owners did not simply confine themselves to providing vehicles at the disposal of the assessee in lieu of rent but also engaged their drivers in driving such vehicles and thereby in transporting petroleum products from one place to the other. In effect, the truck remained in the possession of the staff of the carrier. Further, the assessee was required to pay for the transportation work on the basis of distance and no idle charges were payable. There was no transfer of the right to use the vehicle involved in the agreement. The agreement was merely for carriage of petroleum products and so section 194-I was not applicable. (A.Ys 2008-09 to 2010-11)

ITO v. Indian Oil Corporation (2012) 13 ITR 79 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Service of security personnel

Service rendered by security personnel under a contract with agency would fall within the meaning of section 194C, because security guards are skilled persons carrying out work of guarding premises from any untoward incidence therefore assessee was justified the deduction of tax at source at 2.26%. (A.Ys. 2006-07 to 2008-09).

Glaxo Smith Kline Pharmaceuticals Ltd. v. ITO (TDS) (2011) 48 SOT 643 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Amounts not deductible – Lease rent for cranes – Works contract [S. 40(a)(ia)]

Payment made by the assessee for hiring of cranes to crane owners was with reference to the period of lease and not at all related to the work / out derived from the cranes and therefore, such payment can not be said to be payment made for "works contract" covered by section 194C and therefore, was no requirement to deduct tax at source under section 194C and consequently the payments could not be disallowed under section 40(a)(ia). (A. Y. 2006-07).

ACIT v. Sanjay Kumar (2011) 48 SOT 615 / (2012) 143 TTJ 415 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Labour Charges [S. 40(a)(ia)]

Assessee paid labour charges to various labourers which included cash payments exceeding ` 50,000/- to some labourers throughout year. Assessing Officer disallowed such payments by invoking provisions of section 40(a)(ia) for non-deduction of tax at source under section 194C. According to assessee the number of persons from one family worked as casual labourers at site on daily wage basis and due to practical difficulties for preparing individual vouchers for each labour payment, only one voucher was prepared in name of head of family who received the money and if individual labourers were taken in to consideration, payment does not exceed ` 50,000/- in a year to each person. Assessee also filed the confirmation from persons who received the sums on behalf of a number of members and same had not been repudiated by revenue. Tribunal held that the disallowance was not justified. (A. Y. 2006-07)

Nalawade C. Maruti v. Jt. CIT (2011) 48 SOT 566 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Hiring of tractors and trolleys – Transport and octroi [S. 40(a)(ia)]

Assessee hired Tractors and trolleys from nearby villages for purpose of business and payments were made on a day basis under the head "transportation and Octroi charges". Assessing Officer disallowed the same on ground that said payments were transport charges and hence required deduction at source under section 194C. The Tribunal held that the nature of expenditure cannot be deduced merely on the basis treatment accorded in account books, but to be decided on basis of substantive character of transaction. As hiring of tractors /trolleys for purpose of using them in business could not be equated to a contract for transportation for carriage as contemplated under section 194C, therefore, disallowance of expenses by invoking provisions of section 40(a)(ia) was unjustified. Even if such an arrangement is considered to be falling within the purview of section 194I of the Act, however, for the period under consideration the requirement of deduction at source on machinery rentals are not applicable. (A. Y. 2006-07).

Nalawade C. Maruti v. Jt. CIT (2011) 48 SOT 566 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Labour charges

Assessee paid labour charges for loading, unloading, sorting, cleaning, transportation charges on daily basis to representative of labourers. Held, that as the individual payments did not exceed prescribed limit, assessee was not liable to deduct tax at source under section 194C. (A.Ys. 2005-06 to 2007-08)

Dy. CIT v. Laxmi Protein (Products) Pvt. Ltd. (2010) 195 Taxman 32 (Mag.) / 3 ITR 768 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractor – Hiring of Truck [S. 40(a)(ia)]

Hiring of trucks belonging to truck owners without man power i.e. drivers and conductors, cannot be said to be carrying on any work as used in section 194C, and as such, no tax was deductible from payments made to truck owners. (A.Y. 2005-06)

Dy. CIT v. Satish Aggarwal & Co. (2010) 122 ITD 35 / (2009) 124 TTJ 542 / 27 DTR 34 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Lorry Owners [S. 40(a)(ia)]

The payment made to lorry owners at par with payments made towards salaries, rents etc, therefore, payment made to hired vehicles would not be considered as towards sub-contract with lorry owners. As section 194C is not applicable, payment made cannot be disallowed by applying the provision of section 40(a)(ia). (A.Y. 2005-06)

Mythri Transport Corporation v. ACIT (2010) 124 ITD 40 / 1 ITR 290 / 124 TTJ 970 / 28 DTR 129 (Visakha)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Financing [S. 194J]

Financing agreement between assessee and producer / director of films is not a contract within the meaning of section 194C; neither section 194C nor section 194J is applicable for composite contracts for financing film project. (A.Ys. 2003-04 to 2006-07)

Entertainment One India Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 39 DTR 26 / 126 ITD 491 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Labourers through representative – Mukadams [S. 40A (3), 201(1A)]

When payment was made to labourer through their representative, single payment not exceeding ` 20000/-. Tax need not be deducted at source. (A.Ys. 2005-06 to 2007-08)

Dy. CIT v. Laxmi Protein (Products) Pvt. Ltd. (2010) 195 Taxman 32 (Mag.) / 3 ITR 768 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Transport Expenses – No obligation to get the accounts audited [S. 40(a)(ia), 44AB]

Since the assessee, a transporter, was not liable to get his accounts audited under section 44AB in the immediately preceding assessment year, he was not required to deduct tax at source under section 194C; payments could not be disallowed under section 40(a)(ia) on account of non-deduction of TDS. (A.Y. 2005-06)

ITO v. Dhirubhai Dajibhai Patel (2010) 133 TTJ 1 (UO)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Event Management – Contractual service – Professional Service – Photography [S. 194J]

Job awarded by the assessee to other parties in performance of duty as event manager has to be treated as a contract and not sub-contract and provisions of section 194(C)(1) is applicable. Art work and photography will also be covered under section 194C(1), same will not be treated as professional service. (A.Ys. 2000-01 to 2003-04)

EMC v. ITO (2010) 45 DTR 275 / 134 TTJ 198 / 37 SOT 31 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Hiring of vehicles [S. 194I]

The assessee entered into agreements with various transport service providers. Under the agreements entered into, the service provider was to provide transport service at particular locations for transportation of assessee's employees to different destinations and locations mentioned in the agreement. The transport service provider had to provide vehicles along with the requisite staff and relevant facilities, full maintenance and repairs of vehicles, etc. The assessee deducted the tax at source under section 194C, the Assessing Officer was of the view that the payments were covered under section 194I, The Tribunal held that the payment made by the assessee for hiring vehicles for transportation of its employees qualified for TDS under section 194C and not under section 194I.

ACIT v. Accenture Services P. Ltd. (2010) TIOL 618 ITAT–Mum. 295 / (2010) 42-B BCAJ (December 2010 P. 23) / (2012) 13 ITR 48 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Works Contract or mere sale of goods

Agreements entered with third parties for manufacturing goods as per specifications of the manufacturers and all other relevant decisions being taken by the manufacturers, in such circumstances the said agreements were construed as contract for sale of goods and not as works contract. The provisions of Section 194C were thus not applicable. (A.Y. 2006-07)

Glenmark Pharmaceuticals Ltd. v. ITO (2009) 30 SOT 19 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Editorial : Approved. CIT v. Glenmark Pharmaceuticals Ltd. (2010) 324 DTR 199 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Agreements – Works contract [S. 194C r.w.s. 201]

In the present case, the DVDs etc. were manufactured by entrepreneurs in their own establishment, in accordance with specifications of assessee, (ii) the raw material cost and other ancillary costs were also incurred by them, (iii) excise duty was paid by them and it was only when goods were sold to assessee that property in goods passed over to it, such agreements of the assessee with entrepreneurs could not be termed as works contract within the scope of section 194C and hence no TDS was required. (A.Ys. 2003-04 to 2006-07)

Shemaroo Video (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2009) 31 SOT 65 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction of sources – Contractors – Hire charges of trucks [Ss. 40(a)(ia)]

In the instant case, assessee hired trucks for a fixed period on payment of hire charges which were utilized in its business of civil construction. There was no agreement for carrying out any work or to transport any goods or passengers from one place to another. Hiring of trucks for the purpose of using them in assessee's business did not amount to contract for carrying out any work as contemplated in section 194C, the provisions of section 194C were not attracted and no disallowance under section 40(a)(ia) can be made. (A.Y. 2005-06)

Dy. CIT v. Satish Aggarwal & Co. (2009) 27 DTR 34 / 122 ITD 35 / 124 TTJ 542 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Composite Contracts – Allocation

TDS on Composite contracts which was divisible consisting payments for supply of materials as well as payments for execution of civil work, erection, designing and commissioning, though having common purchase order, has to be deducted only in respect of consideration attributable to civil work, including erection and payment towards supply of material, spare parts, freight and insurance has to be excluded.

Haryana Power Generation Corpn. Ltd. v. ITO (2007) 164 Taxman 64 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Ocean Freight and inland haulage charges

Ocean freight and inland haulage charges paid by assessee acting as C&F agent cannot be subjected to TDS by virtue of s. 172 and CBDT Circular No.723. dt. 19th Sept., 1995. (A.Ys. 2000-01 to 2003-04)

ITO v. Freight Systems (India) (P) Ltd. (2006) 103 TTJ 103 / 6 SOT 473 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Sub-contractors – Jobwork – Purchases

Outsourcing of manufacture of goods by the assessee to the manufacturer was a transaction of purchase and sale of goods and not a works contract within the meaning of s. 194C.

(A.Y. 2003-04)

Dy. CIT v. Reebok India Co. (2006) 100 TTJ 976 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Rent – Fees for technical services – Airport Authority – Airline [S. 194I, 194J]

Legal position relating to applicability of sections 194C, 194-I and 194J explained.

Amount paid by a foreign airlines to Airport Authority of India for landing and parking facilities for its aircrafts, was not 'rent' subject to TDS under section 194-I but payment under contract from which tax was to be deducted at source under section 194C at 2 per cent. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Dy. CIT v. Japan Airlines (2005) 93 ITD 163 / 92 TTJ 687 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194C : Deduction at source – Contractors – Printing of packing material

Where assessee had credited certain amount to various parties on account of printing of packing materials of company, which were got printed according to specification of assessee, it was a contract for sale and not works contract and as such assessee was not required to deduct tax at source from payment made for such work under section 194C. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Balsara Home Products Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 94 TTJ 970 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 194C(2) : Deduction at source – Sub-Contractors – Hiring of vehicles [S. 40(a)(ia)]

Assessee taking vehicles on hire for purpose of executing contract, not a case of sub-contract, tax need not be deducted at source. (A.Y. 2005-06)

Mythri Transport Corporation v. ACIT (2010) 124 ITD 40 / 1 ITR 290 / 124 TTJ 970 / 28 DTR 129 (Visakha)(Trib.)

Section 194D : Insurance commission

S. 194D : Deduction at source – Insurance Commission – Reinsurance – Sharing of profits

Assessee, a general insurance company, entered in to an arrangement with one B for facultative reinsurance. As per said arrangement, assessee was liable to pay certain percentage of premium as reinsurance inward commission to B. Assessee was receiving only net premium on reinsurance from B. Profit commission, if any, was shared between assessee and B in certain percentage. Assessing Officer held that assessee was liable to deduct tax on reinsurance commission paid to B under section 194D. The Tribunal held that provisions of section 194D were not applicable to payment of reinsurance commission made by assessee to B. (A. Ys. 2005-06 and 2008-09).

Tata AIG General Insurance Co. Ltd. v. ITO (2011) 43 SOT 215 / 55 DTR 254 / 140 TTJ 319 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Section 194E : Payments to non-resident sportsmen or sports associations

S. 194E : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Sport person-Sports association [S. 115BBA]

Once income accrues to a non resident sports man or sports association on fulfillment of the condition as mentioned in section 115BBA, then the statutory obligation of the payer under section 194E comes into play irrespective of taxability thereof, payments including guarantee money made by the assessee a committee formed by three host members of World Cup Cricket, 1996 for the purpose of conducting the tournament to ICC as well as to cricket control boards / associations of member countries of ICC in relation to matches played in India were liable to TDS under section 194E read with section 115BBA. (A. Y. 1995-96).

PILCOM v. CIT (2011) 51 DTR 147 / 238 CTR 387 / 335 ITR 147 / 243 CTR 511 / 335 ITR

147 / 198 Taxman 555 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 194E : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Sport person-Sports association – Umpires – Match referees [S. 115BBA]

Amounts paid to foreign team for participation in match in India in any shape, either as prize money or as administrative expenses, is income deemed to have accrued in India and is taxable under section 115BBA and thus, section 194E is attracted. However, payments made to umpires or match referees do not come within purview of section 115BBA because umpires and match referee are neither sportsmen (including an athletic) nor are they non-resident sports association or institution so as to attract provisions contained in section 115BBA and therefore, liability to deduct tax at source under section 194E does not arise. (A. Y. 1996-97).

Indcom v. CIT (2011) 200 Taxman 40 / 58 DTR 1 / 335 ITR 485 / 242 CTR 337 (Cal.)(High Court)

Section 194H : Commission or brokerage

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Airline tickets

Agents of Airline companies are permitted to sell tickets at any rate between fixed minimum commercial price and published price. Difference between commercial price and published price neither commission nor brokerage tax need not be deducted under section 194H.

CIT v. Qatar Airways (2011) 332 ITR 253 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Discount

Where agreement between assessee and distributor was on principal to principal basis payments made by the assessee to the distributor were incentives and discounts and not commission, there was no need to deduct tax under section 194H on such payments. (A. Y. 2004-05).

CIT v. Jai Drinks (P) Ltd. (2011) 57 DTR 261 / 242 CTR 505 / 336 ITR 383 / 198 Taxman 271 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Discount – Franchisee

Assessee company was engaged in business of providing cellular mobile telephone services under brand name 'Airtel', provided the services through its distributors/franchisees who kept sufficient stock of rechargeable coupons and starter packs with them. After selling the Sim cards and prepaid coupons to retailers, franchisees were to make payment of sale proceeds to assessee after deducting the discount. The Court held that receipt of discount by franchisee was in real sense, commission paid to franchisees and same would attract provisions of section 194H. (A. Y. 2003-04 & 2004-05)

Bharati Cellular Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 200 Taxman 254 / 244 CTR 185 / 61 DTR 225 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – SIM Cards

Discount offered by the assessee a cellular operator to the distributors on payments made by the distributors for the SIM cards / recharge coupons which are ultimately sold to the subscribers at list price is in the nature of commission and is subject to tax deduction at source under section 194H of the Act. (A.Ys. 2003-04, 2004-05)

CIT v. Idea Cellular Ltd. (2010) 325 ITR 148 / 35 DTR 219 / 189 Taxman 118 / 230 CTR 43 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Discount – SIM card

"Discount" for supply of Sim Cards is "Commission" Not a sale of goods. Tax deductible at source under section 194H. (A.Ys. 2004-05 to 2007-08)

Vodafone Essar Cellular Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 45 DTR 217 / 194 Taxman 518 / 235 CTR 393 / (2011) 332 ITR 255 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Air tickets

Deductibility of TDS on tickets issued by assessee-airlines to agents – Issue of tickets at concessional rates does not amount to commission within the meaning to section 194H and hence there is no liability to deduct TDS.

CIT v. Singapore Airlines Ltd. (2009) 213 Taxation 441 / 319 ITR 29 / 224 CTR 168 / 180 Taxman 128 / 22 DTR 129 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Air ticket

Air tickets sold by assessee, an airline company to its travel agent at a concessional rates was held to be a sale transaction on principal to principal basis, did not amount to payment of commission to the agent as such the assessee was not liable to deduct tax at source under section 194H (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Singapore Airlines Ltd. & Ors. (2009) 22 DTR 129 / 224 CTR 168 / 319 ITR 29 / 180 Taxman 128 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Stamp vendors – Discount

Discount allowed by the treasury to stamp vendors on sale of stamp paper cannot be termed as 'commission' or 'brokerage' so as to attract TDS under section 194H.

Kerla State Vendors Association & Ors. v. Office of the Accountant General & Ors (2006) 200 CTR 658 / 282 ITR 7 / 150 Taxman 30 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission or brokerage – “Principal-Agent” [S. 40(a)(i)]

The assessee entered into agreements with hospitals etc (“collection centres”) in accordance with which the centres collected samples from patients seeking laboratory tests and forwarded it to the assessee. The centres raised a bill on the patient, retained their “discount” and paid the balance to the assessee. The assessee claimed that it had rendered “professional services” & that the centres had rightly deducted TDS under section 194J. The Assessing Officer held that in collecting the sample and forwarding it to the assessee, the centres acted as an “agent” of the assessee and that the “discount” retained by it was “commission” and that the assessee ought to have deducted TDS under section 194H. He consequently disallowed the “discount” under section 40(a)(i) in the hands of the assessee. This was upheld by the CIT(A). On appeal by the assessee, HELD reversing the Assessing Officer & CIT(A):

(i) To fall within section 194-H, the payment must be by a “person acting on behalf of another person”. The element of “agency” has necessarily to be there. If the dealings between the parties is not on a “principal to agent” basis, section 194-H does not get attracted;

(ii) On facts, the relationship between the assessee and the Centres was not on a “principal & agent” basis because (a) under the agreement, the Centres availed the professional services of the assessee to test the samples and were under no obligation to always forward these samples to the assessee; (b) The Centres issued its own bill to the patient, collected the fees and issued the receipt, (c) the assessee raised its invoice on the Centres after giving a “discount” over the standard price list;

(d) the rates charged by the Centres from its customers were not decided by the assessee, (e) there was no privity of contract between the assessee & the patient, (f) the amounts collected by the Centres was not on behalf of the assessee. Consequently, the relationship between the assessee and the Centres was on principal to principal basis and section 194H did not apply.

(iii) Further, the obligation of TDS under section 194 H arises only at the time of "payment" or "credit". As the assessee had not paid or credited any amount to the account of the Centres, section 194H had no application. The assessee had only credited the net amount received from the Centres as its income.

SRL Ranbaxy Ltd. v. ACIT (2012) 65 DTR 185 / (2012) 143 TTJ 265 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Principal to principal

Transaction between assessee and concessionaries, principal to principal. Payments to concessionaries for sale of milk products being not commission, tax not deductible. (A. Ys. 2004-05 and 2005-06).

ITO v. Mother Dairy Food Processing Ltd. (2011) 7 ITR 16 / 40 SOT 9 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Booking of air tickets [S. 40(a)(ia)]

The transaction in question were not transactions between principal and agent but those transactions were between principal and principal. In order to bring services or transactions within expression "Commission" and "Brokerage" under section 194H, element of agency must be present. When the discount allowed / given by the assessee to the intermediaries was also allowed to passenger directly who booked the tickets with the assessee and the assessee was recording the transaction in its books of account on net amount of the invoice, then it was not a case of commission or brokerage paid or payable by the assessee to the intermediaries, hence, the provisions of section 194H were not applicable therefore no disallowance can be made under section 40(a)(ia). (A. Y. 2006-07).

ITL Tours and Travels (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2011) 44 SOT 277 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Discount

The assessee mobile phone service provider to the distributors in the course of selling SIM cards and recharge coupons under prepaid scheme against advance payment received from the distributors. Section 194H is applicable. (A. Ys. 2007-08 & 2008-09).

ITO v. Vodafone Essar Cellular Ltd. (2011) 59 DTR 75 / 141 TTJ 461 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Business expenditure – Disallowance under section 40(a)(ia) – payment to consolidator of land

Assessee having appointed a consolidator to acquire land who, as per the terms of MOU, agreed to assign its right to purchase the land in favour of the assessee, the transaction between the assessee and the consolidator was on principal to principal basis and, therefore, provisions of section 194H were not applicable to the payments made by the assessee to the consolidator and consequently, same cannot be disallowed under section 40(a)(ia); provisions of section 40(a)(ia) are not applicable also for the reason that the assessee has reflected the impugned payments in purchases and closing stock and has not claimed any deduction for expenses on account of such payments. (A. Y. 2007-08)

ITO v. Finian Estates Developers (P) Ltd. (2011) 63 DTR 314 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Discount – SIM Card [S. 201(1), 201(IA)]

Discount given by the assessee company on supply of prepaid SIM cards and recharge coupons, etc was in the nature of commission and therefore, the assessee service provider is liable to deduct tax at source under section 194H. (A.Ys. 2004-05 to 2007-08)

Vodafone Essar Cellular Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 32 SOT 280 / (2010) 129 TTJ 222 / 35 DTR 393 (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage

Expression "commission or brokerage" as contained in clause (i) of explanation to section 194H, is not so wide that it would include any payment receivable directly or indirectly for services in course of buying or selling of goods, hence, discount allowed on transactions relating to outright purchases cannot be treated as brokerage or commission. For application of provisions of section 194H there should be relationship of principal and agent in order to bring discount in ambit of commission or brokerage. (A.Y. 2003-04)

ACIT v. Idea Cellular Ltd. (2010) 125 ITD 222 / (2009) 125 TTJ 663 / 29 DTR 237 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Disallowance [S. 40(a)(ia)]

The assessee sold the products billing them at gross amount and trade discount was given at the rate of 50% or 30% or 17.20% as the case may be. The net amount was shown as price payable and sales tax was collected on the said amount. Held that trade discount debited by the assessee in its accounts is not covered under section 194H. Since there was no liability to deduct tax, the disallowance under section 40(a)(ia) was deleted. (A. Y. 2005-06)

S. D. Pharmacy Pvt. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT, ITA Nos. 948/Coch/2008, dt. 5-5-2009. BC&AJ P. 62, Vol. 41-A, Part 4, July 2009 (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Principal agent

If there is no principal-agent relationship between the parties then section 194H is not attracted. (A.Y. 2006-07)

Ajmer Zila Dugdh Utpadak Sangh Ltd. v. ITO (2009) 126 TTJ 197 / 34 SOT 216 / 30 DTR 418 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage [S. 201]

Assessee company was engaged in business of providing cellular mobile telephone services in a specific area through its distributors/franchisees by selling to them SIM and pre-paid cards at a fixed rate below market price for onward sale to its ultimate customers. Assessee claimed that discount allowed to franchisees was not 'commission' within the Explanation under section 194H and, therefore, not liable to TDS. As per the agreement between the parties commission agents were acting on margins and responsibilities as fixed by assessee from time to time. The distributors/franchisees were making payment for pre-paid cards supplied by assessee after deducting commission, at same time, all rights, title, ownership and property rights in such cards, at all time, would vest with assessee. However, on facts, it was held that price difference was nothing but a payment of commission by assessee to its franchisees and, therefore, assessee was liable for deduction of tax at source under section 194H on commission payment to its franchisees and the assessee on facts, was treated as a defaulter. (A.Ys. 2003-04 and 2004-05)

ACIT v. Bharti Cellular Ltd. (2009) 105 ITD 129 / 108 TTJ 38 / TLR (Nov.) 435 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Incentives

Distribution incentive, early payment discount and bond expenses do not constitute commission so as to attract TDS under section 194H. (A.Ys. 2002-03 to 2005-06)

Foster's India (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2008) 117 TTJ 346 / 10 DTR 402 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Distributors

Where in order to boost its sales, assessee had offered huge commission to its distributors and dealers in form of incentives and discounts by using different names, viz. (a.) trade discount, (b) regional sales promotion, (c) key dealer incentive, (d) fast track bonus, (e) trade scheme, (f) sales promotion, (g) sale promotion (price buffer), (h) special discount (institutional sales), and (i) market alternations, those were nothing more than incentives to drive dealers to achieve certain targets and could not be treated as commission for purposes of section 194H so as to require tax deduction at source by assessee while making such payments.

National Panasonic India (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 3 SOT 16 / 94 TTJ 899 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194H : Deduction at source – Commission – Brokerage – Distributors

Where assessee-company, engaged in manufacture and distribution of non-alcoholic beverages, through distributors sold its products by paying them commission and from various circumstances and documents on facts it emerged that relationship between assessee and its distributors was that of principal and agent, assessee was liable to deduct tax at source on commission paid to distributors. (A.Ys. 2002-03 and 2003-04)

Hindustan Coca-Cola Beverages (P.) Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 97 ITD 105 / 98 TTJ 1 (Jp.)(Trib.)

Section 194-I : Rent

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Hire of machinery [S. 194C]

Amendment of section 194I to include rent for hire of machinery w.e.f. 1-6-2007, assessee paying hire charges for Millers and Rollers for laying Roads, there is no liability to deduct tax at source in accounting year relevant to assessment year 2005-06. Operation of machinery by owner of Machinery not a case of composite contract for labour and hire of machinery. Section 194I of the Act came to provide for deduction of tax at source in respect of machinery /equipment with effect from June 1, 2007, and the relevant assessment year was 2005-06, there was no scope to disallow the expenditure applying the provisions of section 40(a)(ia). (A. Y. 2005-06).

CIT v. D.Rathinam (2011) 335 ITR 101 / 55 DTR 382 / 197 Taxman 486 / 241 CTR 476 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Jurisdiction – Assessing Officer in place of payment has no jurisdiction if assessee assessed at a different place

The assessee, based & assessed in Delhi, was allotted land by MMRDA at Bandra Kurla Complex, Mumbai, on lease for 80 years. The lease premium of ₹ 88.52 crores was paid without deduction of tax at source. The ITO (TDS) Mumbai passed an order under section 201 in which he held that the assessee had defaulted in not deducting TDS under section 194-I on the lease premium. The assessee filed a Writ Petition to challenge the jurisdiction of the ITO (TDS) Mumbai. HELD upholding the plea:

The assessee was assessed at New Delhi. Its PAN & TAN were allotted by the Assessing Officer at New Delhi. All returns including the TDS returns were filed at New Delhi. Accordingly, there was complete absence of jurisdiction on the part of the Assessing Officer at Mumbai to proceed against the assessee.

India Newspaper Society v. ITO (TDS) (2011) 339 ITR 365 / (2012) 247 CTR 193 / 66 DTR 242 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Upfront fees – Time for liability to deduct tax

A person who is responsible for paying to a resident any income by way of rent is required to deduct tax at source under section 194I at the time of credit of such income to the account of the payee even if it is not the income of the payee in the previous year in which it is paid; upfront fee paid by assessee to the lessor which is adjustable against 50% of the annual license fee payable to the lessor was rent and therefore, assessee was required to deduct tax at source under section 194I at the time of the credit of such amount. (A.Ys. 2002-03 to 2005-06)

Tax Recovery Officer v. Bharat Hotels Ltd. (2009) 28 DTR 337 / 125 TTJ 679 (Bang.)(High Court)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Franchisee

Payments made by the assessee to its franchisee would not bear the character of rent in the absence of any lessor-lessee relationship. (A.Ys. 1998-99 to 2001-02)

CIT v. NIIT Ltd. (2009) 184 Taxman 472 / 30 DTR 49 / 318 ITR 289 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194-I : Deduction at Source – Rent – Co-owner – Interest Limits

Interest on TDS / STDR paid to non-resident being exempt under section 10(15)(iv)(fa). tax is not required to be deducted tax at source under section 194A. Further, there is also no need for TDS under section 194I in a case where share of rental income from a co-owned property is chargeable in the hands of co-owners respectively and if the share of each co-owner is below ` 1,20,000/-

CIT v. Manager SBI (2009) 226 CTR 310 / (2008) 13 DTR 294 / 323 ITR 93 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Credit for tax deducted – Co-owners – Common tenancy – AOP [S. 201]

Assessee company paying rents to individual co-owners separately and not as Association of Persons is covered under section 194-I(a), hence, deduction of tax @ 15% and not 20% was proper, recovery under section 201 for short deduction is also invalid. (A.Ys 1999-2000 to 2004-05).

CIT v. Lally Motors Ltd. (2007) TLR 588 (2009) 311 ITR 29 / (2007) 164 Taxman 510 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Warehouse – Services

Charges paid to warehouse, where agreement between parties was only for use of land and warehouse and no services of any type were provided by a warehouse-keeper. The Tribunal rightly held that tax is deductible as per section 194-I. (A.Ys. 1999-2000 to 2000-01)

Hindustan Coca-Cola Bev (P) Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 141 Taxman 60 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Let out jointly – Limits

Tax is to be deducted at source where property is let out by undivided joint owners and rent is paid to them jointly. If upon such apportionment the petitioners were individually entitled to receive a sum not in excess of ` 1,20,000 per annum, the bank was not entitled to make any deduction of tax at source.

Amalendu Sahoo v. ITO (2003) 264 ITR 16 / 185 CTR 326 / 135 Taxman 379 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Fixed charges for hire of vehicles not "rent" S. 194C applicable

Where cars were owned and maintained by the contractor and all expenditure was borne by contractor, the contract was for "carriage of passengers" for which a fixed amount was paid. Pursuant to definition of "work" as per section 194C, it was observed that, the payment of vehicle hire charges fell within the scope of section 194C and was not "rent" for section 194I. (A. Y. 2009-10)

Ahmedabad Urban Development Authority v. ACIT (2012) 13 ITR 73 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Mobile service provider

Payment by assessee to other mobile telephone service providers for national roaming facility is not for use of equipment. The assessee was mere a facilitator between its subscriber and other service provider, facilitating a roaming call to be made by the subscriber. The payment of roaming charges by the assessee to other service providers could not be considered as rent within the meaning of Explanation (i) below section 194-I, therefore there was no liability on the part of the assessee to deduct tax at source. (A. Ys. 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-10)

Vodafone Essar Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 9 ITR 182 / 135 TTJ 385 / 49 DTR 450 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – License fee for enjoyment of entire property

License fee paid towards utilization of production facilities including use of all facilities, utilities, machines, factory, office premises, tools, equipments and residential quarters with right to sub-let or under-let whole or part of the premises would fall within the definition of 'rent' as prescribed in Explanation (i) to section 194-I.

J. C. Bansal, Chief Engineer, Kanoria Sugar & General Mfg. Co. Ltd. v. Tax Recovery Officer (2010) 123 ITD 245 / (2009) 23 DTR 34 / 122 TTJ 872 (Indore)(Trib.)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Upfront fees – Liability to deduct tax in year of credit

A person who is responsible for paying to a resident any income by way of rent is required to deduct tax at source under section 194I at the time of credit of such income to the account of the payee even if it is not the income of the payee of the previous year in which it is paid; upfront fee paid by assessee to the lessor which is adjustable against 50% of the annual license fee payable to the lessor was rent and therefore, assessee was required to deduct tax at source under section 194I at the time of the credit of such amount. (A.Ys. 2002-03 to 2005-06)

Tax Recovery Officer v. Bharat Hotels Ltd. (2009) 28 DTR 337 / 125 TTJ 679 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Co-owners – Threshold

Assessee was not liable to deduct tax under section 194-I from the rent paid by it for the building owned by two co-owners as the shares of the co-owners were ascertainable and definite and the amount paid to each co-owner was less than ` 1.20 lakhs

No TDS on rent paid below 1.20 lakhs to each co-owners whose respective shares are definite and ascertainable. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 2003-04)

Oriental Bank of Commerce v. TDS/TRO Kaithal (2006) 150 Taxman 1 / 99 TTJ 1235 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Premises with furniture

Amount paid by assessee for use and occupation of premises with furniture, fixtures, etc., was 'rent' and, therefore, section 194-I was applicable. (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 2000-01)

Wipro GE Medical Systems Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 3 SOT 627 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Interest free security deposit

Interest-free security deposit which is to be adjusted against rent only at end of lease, cannot be treated as 'rent' for purposes of section 194-I. (A.Y. 1995-96)

P. S. Cars (P.) Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 4 SOT 143 / 92 TTJ 71 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Right of displaying advertisement

Where assessee had taken and acquired only right of displaying advertisement at hoarding site belonging to others, payment made by assessee to hoarding site owners was for commercial exploitation of display rights and not for using hoarding sites under lease, sub-lease, tenancy, etc., and as such, assessee was not liable to deduct tax at source under section 194-I from such payments. (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 1999-2000)

ITO v. Roshan Publicity (P.) Ltd. (2005) 4 SOT 105 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Clearing and forwarding agents

Where assessee had appointed several clearing and forwarding agents and appointment was necessitated for a smooth and proper distribution of its goods over a particular area as said agents were a link between manufacturer and consumers, payments to them were covered by section 194C and not section 194-I; merely because they stored goods in intervening period, character of payment made by manufacturer to agent did not undergo any change so as to call it, rent, either under general law or for purposes of section 194-I. (A.Y. 2001-02)

National Panasonic India (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 3 SOT 16 / 94 TTJ 899 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194-I : Deduction at source – Rent – Cold storage

Payment made for the use of cold storage is not subjected to deduction under section 194I. (A.Ys. 1998-99 and 1999-2000)

Ganesh Alu Bhandar v. ITO (2003) 87 ITD 588 / 81 TTJ 756 (Rajkot)(Trib.)

Section 194J : Fees for professional or technical services

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – Human intervention [S. 201(1), 201(1A), 271C]

Department having not adduced any expert evidence to show that any human intervention is involved during the process when calls takes place so as to bring the payments of interconnect charges / access / port charges made by the assessee to BSNL / MTNL within the ambit of “fees for technical services” under section 194J, matter is remitted to Assessing Officer for examination by a technical expert and to decide a fresh. Department is not entitled to levy interest under section 201(1A), or impose penalty for non-deduction of TDS on the facts and circumstances of the case for the reasons that there is no loss of revenue as tax has been paid by the recipient and the moot question involved in the case is yet to be decided.

CIT v. Bharati Cellular Ltd. (2011) 330 ITR 239 / 221 Taxation 18 / (2010) 44 DTR 190 / 193 Taxman 971 / 234 CTR 146 (SC)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – “Transaction charges” paid to BSE [S. 9(1)(vii), 40(a)(ia)]

In the instant case, there is direct linkage between the managerial services rendered and the transaction charges levied by the stock exchange. The BOLT system provided by the BSE is a complete platform for trading in securities. A stock exchange manages the entire trading activity carried on by its members and accordingly renders “managerial services”. Consequently, the transaction charges constituted “fees for technical services” under section 194-J and the assessee ought to have deducted TDS. However, on facts, because from 1995 to 2005 no tax was deducted and no objection was raised by the Assessing Officer and because from A.Y. 2006-07 onwards the assessee had deducted TDS, there was a bonafide belief that no TDS had to be deducted, hence no disallowance under section 40(a)(i) can be made for A.Y. 2005-06.

CIT v. Kotak Securities Limited (2011) 62 DTR 339 / 203 Taxman 86 / 245 CTR 3 / (2012) 340 ITR 333 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – Medical profession – Incidental or ancillary services

Payment made for rendering services in course of carrying on medical profession or other services as stipulated in section 194J, deduction of tax at source has to be made and it is immaterial, whether recipient is an individual, firm or artificial person. Incidental or ancillary services which are connected with carrying on medical profession are also included in term “Profession”. Payment made by TPA, on behalf of insurance company to hospital for settlement of professional fee under various claims including cash less claim, it would be liable to deduct tax under section 194J on all such payments. Circular No. 8 of 2009 of 2009, considered.

Vipul Medcorp TPA (P) Ltd. v. CBDT (2011) 202 Taxman 463 / 63 DTR 65 / 245 CTR 125 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – Human element – Cheque processing centre

In the absence of anything on record to discern as to whether an intervention of human elements is involved in the services provided by the PNB MICR cheque processing centre to the assessee bank, orders of the authorities below were set aside and the matter is remitted to the Assessing Officer to examine afresh. (A. Y. 2004-05).

CIT v. Chief Manager, State Bank of India (2011) 245 CTR 107 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – Professional fees – Hospital – Medical – TPA – Circular

Though a hospital by itself, being an artificial entity, is not a “medical professional”, yet it provides medical services by engaging the services of doctors and qualified medical professionals. These are services rendered in the course of the carrying on of the medical profession. S. 194J applies to payments made to non-professionals by such hospitals. CBDT Circular on TPA liability is valid except for CBDT's view on penalty

Dedicated Health Care Services (India) Pvt. Ltd TPA v. ACIT (2010) 324 ITR 345 / 39 DTR 25 / 191 Taxman 1 / 232 CTR 41 / (2011) 222 Taxation 174 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – DD and Advertising Agency – Commission – Brokerage

Transaction between DD (Doordarshan and Advertising Agents) where Ad agent collects amounts from customers for advertisement on DD and retains 15% commission while remitting the balance amount to DD is a transaction between Principal and Agent and amount of 15% retained by the Ad agent is commission to which section 194H is attracted. Decision in Ahmedabad Stamp Vendors' Association (2002) 257 ITR 202 (Guj.); M.S. Hameed & Ors. v. Director of State Lotteries 249 ITR 186 (Ker.) distinguished.

CIT v. Prasar Bharati Doordarshan Kendra (2010) 189 Taxman 315 / 230 CTR 277 / 325 ITR 205 / 36 DTR 6 (Ker.)(High Court)

Editorial: Affirmed in Director, Prasar Bharti v. CIT ( 2018) 164 DTR 177(SC) ,

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – Interconnection charges to MTNL

The assessee paid interconnection and port charges to MTNL/BSNL for connecting the network of the assessee with that of the networks of other service providers, which was thru MTNL/BSNL. This was without deduction of tax. Held that the word 'technical' has to be read by applying the principle of 'noscitur a sociis', in company of the words 'managerial and 'consultancy'. Hence, technical services are covered under section 194J only if human element is involved. The principle of 'noscitur a sociis' means that if a word is used in company of other words having a specific meaning, then that word takes its colour from the other words in whose company the word is used. To apply this principle to this case, since the word 'technical' has been used along with the words 'managerial and 'consultancy' and there cannot be any 'managerial and/or 'consultancy' unless they are rendered by a human being 'technical' service would also mean a service which is provided by a human being. Technical services without the human element are outside the scope of section 194J. CIT v. Bharti Cellular Ltd. (2009) 210 Taxation 420 / (2008) 175 Taxman 573 / 220 CTR 258 / 319 ITR 139 / 15 DTR 73 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for professional or technical services – Hospitals – TPA

Third party Administrator (TPA), who is responsible for making payment to hospitals for rendering medical services to policy holders under various health insurance policies issued by several insurers, is obliged to deduct tax at source under section 194J from payments made to hospitals. (A.Ys. 2002-03 to 2008-09)

Medi. Assist India TPA (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (TDS) (2009) 184 Taxman 359 / 226 CTR 392 / 324 ITR 356 / 28 DTR 305 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – Mobile service provider

Considering the importance of issue whether payment made by mobile service provider for roaming facility is for technical service, the matter was remanded back to the assessing officer in the light of observation made by the Supreme Court in CIT v. Bharti Cellular Ltd. (2011) 330 ITR 239 / 234 CTR 146 / 193 Taxman 97/ 44 DTR 190 (SC). (A.Ys. 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-10).

Vodafone Essar Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 9 ITR 182 / 135 TTJ 385 / 49 DTR 450 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for professional or technical services – Service of security personnel [S. 9(1)(vii), 194C]

The Tribunal held that payment made for services of security guard provided by a contractor can not be kept in nature of managerial, technical or consultancy services to attract clause (vii) to section 9(1) reads with section 194J. For treating the payment for technical services to be covered under section 194J, should be a consideration for acquiring or using technical know how simplicitor provided or made available by human element and there should be direct and live link between payment and receipt / use of technical services information. The contention of assessee that payment is covered under section 194C is accepted. (A. Ys. 2006-07 to 2008-09)

Glaxo Smith Kline Pharmaceuticals Ltd. v. ITO (TDS) (2011) 48 SOT 643 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for professional or technical services – Hospital – Payment to Doctors [S. 192]

Assessee hospital having engaged the services of doctors on the basis of agreements whereby the doctors are free to treat the patients at the hospital at their own discretion and time, without any supervision and control of the assessee and they are not on the pay roll of PF payments, there is no element of employer and employee relationship and therefore, the doctors are to be treated as consultants and tax has to be deducted under section 194J from payments made to them and not under section 192. (A.Y. 2008-09)

Dy. CIT v. Yashoda Super Speciality Hospital (2010) 133 TTJ 17 (UO)(Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for professional or technical services – Hospital – Consulting Doctors [Ss. 192, 201]

Where a hospital engaged consulting doctors and provided them with chambers with secretarial assistance and fee was collected from outpatients and paid to consultants each day after deducting certain amount towards rent and secretarial assistance, it was not a case of payment of professional fees and neither section 192 nor section 194J was attracted and the hospital cannot be treated as assessee in default for not deducting tax from such payments.

ACIT v. Indraprastha Medical Corp. Ltd. (2010) 128 TTJ 500 / 35 DTR 535 / 33 SOT 261 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – Uplinking charges – Reimbursements [Ss. 9(1)(vii), 40(a)(1)(iii)]

Payment of uplinking charges by assessee to parent company not in the nature of fees for technical services hence, not liable to deduction of tax at source.

Reimbursement of expenditure incurred in respect of Global accounts manager cannot be treated as payment of salary. Similarly reimbursement of common expenses incurred by parent company for benefit of group concerns not liable for deduction of tax at source. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Expeditors International (India) P. Ltd (2010) 2 ITR 153 / (2008) 118 TTJ 652 / 2 DTR 435 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – VSAT

Payment made to Stock exchange for providing infrastructure to their members is not in the nature of technical services to attract provisions of section 194J. (A.Y. 2005-06)

Dy. CIT v. Angel Broking Ltd. (2010) 35 SOT 457 / 3 ITR 294 / 41 DTR 296 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Editorial:- Refer CIT v. Kotak Securities Ltd. (2011) 340 ITR 333 (Bom.)(High Court) for a contrary view in respect of payment for use of Trading System.

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – Bandwidth

Provision of bandwidth and network services cannot be said to be Technical services and payments liable to TDS under section 194J. (A.Y. 2003-04 to 2005-06)

Pacific Internet (India) Pvt. Ltd. v. ITO(TDS), (2009) 125 TTJ 966 / 27 SOT 523 / 24 DTR 543 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for technical services – Royalty – Advisory

Fees paid for obtaining advice and assistance on operational and financial aspects of business to Mauritius company, cannot be considered as Royalty as per section 9(i) (vi), and hence no requirement to deduct tax at source.

Spice Telecom v. ITO (2008) 170 Taxman 82 (Mag.)(Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 194-J : Deduction at source – Fees for professional or technical services – Interconnection charges

Interconnect charges paid by assessee, a telecommunication service provider, to BSNL in respect of calls which are routed through the latter's network cannot be treated as payment for technical services and, therefore, provisions of s. 194J are not applicable. (A.Ys. 2001-02 and 2002-03)

HFCL Infotel Limited v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 440 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for professional or technical services – Reimbursement of salary

Where assessee reimbursed salaries of employees of a group of hotels, who were deputed in assessee's hotel, and employees ranged from category of telephone operator to chief engineer, including account executive, housekeeper, chef, front office cashier, account assistant, etc., such services could not be treated as technical and professional services within meaning of section 194J for purposes of deduction of tax at source from such reimbursements. (A.Y. 1998-99)

United Hotels Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 2 SOT 267 / 93 TTJ 822 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 194J : Deduction at source – Fees for professional or technical services – Sharing of office – Support services

Where assessee was sharing office with W Ltd and utilizing services and facilities of W Ltd, payment made by the assessee to W Ltd for support services and shared services could not be treated as payment for 'professional and technical services' within meaning of section 194J. (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 2000-01)

Wipro GE Medical Systems Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 3 SOT 627 (Bang.)(Trib.)

Section 194L : Payment of compensation on acquisition of capital asset

S. 194L : Deduction at source – Compensation for acquisition of capital asset – Competent authority – Decree of Court [S. 194LA]

If there is a decree of a competent court to pay enhanced compensation on account of acquisition of any land, competent authority has an obligation to deduct tax at source from those amounts and no special or specific order of any court is necessary for that purpose

State of Kerala v. Mariyamma (2005) 144 Taxman 744 / 193 CTR 393 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 194L : Deduction at source – Compensation for acquisition of capital asset
– Writ

[S. 194LA]

Pursuant to an interim order, award amount deducting tax from said amount was paid to the assessee and assessee filed writ challenging said deduction, assessee was to be directed to file return and if any amount was due by way of refund, assessee would be entitled to get same

Pareekutty v. UOI (2005) 144 Taxman 495 (Ker.)(High Court)

Section 194LA : Payment of compensation on acquisition of certain immovable property

S. 194LA : Deduction at source – Compensation on acquisition of certain immovable property – Time of applicability – Notification

On mere issuance of notification under section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, provision of section 194LA was not attracted.

Infoparks Kerala v. ACIT (2010) 329 ITR 404 / 38 DTR 180 / 231 CTR 479 / 187 Taxman 1 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 194LA : Deduction at source – Compensation for acquisition of certain immovable property – Interest on delayed payment – Liability

Interest accrued on delayed payment of amount of enhanced compensation in respect of acquisition of agricultural land would not partake character of compensation for "agricultural land" which is excluded from operation of section 194LA.

Karnail Singh v. State of Haryana (2009) 184 Taxmann 257 / 227 CTR 260 / 326 ITR 501 / 184 Taxman 257 / 31 DTR 192 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 194LA : Deduction at source – Compensation on acquisition of certain immovable property – Agricultural land [S. 2(14)]

When land itself was agricultural land though it may not be used for agricultural purpose but unless and until same was used for non-agricultural purpose, it had to be treated as agricultural land for purpose of section 194LA, therefore Special Land Acquisition Officer was not required to deduct tax at source from amount of compensation paid for acquisition of land. Definition of "agricultural land" as given in section 2(14) cannot be imported for purpose of section 194LA. (A. Y. 2005-06).

ITO v. Special Land Acquisition Officer (2011) 46 SOT 458 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 194LA : Deduction at source – Compensation on acquisition of certain immovable property – Capital Gains – Capital Asset – Agricultural Land [S. 2(14)]

Definition of agricultural land contained in section 2(14)(iii)(a) & (b) cannot be borrowed to influence definition of agricultural land contained in Explanation to section 194LA. For the purpose of deducting tax at source under section 194LA, it is Land Acquisition Officer (LAO) who has to prima facie determine whether land acquired is agricultural land or not. Land Acquisition Officer took prima facie view that land acquired by him was an agricultural land on the basis of entries in land revenue record, hence, he was justified in not deducting tax on compensation paid on acquisition of said land, trees, and houses standing thereon. (A.Y. 2008-09)

Special Land Acquisition Officer v. ITO (2010) 42 SOT 9 (Ahd.) (Trib.)

Section 195 : Other sums

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Income – Accrual – Hire Charges [S. 5(2)]

Non-resident company having received the charter fee of fishing vessels from the assessee in the shape of 85 percent of the fish catch in India as per the terms and conditions of the agreement between them, income earned by the non-resident company was chargeable to tax under section 5(2) and therefore, assessee was liable to deduct tax under section 195 on the payment made to that company. (A.Ys. 1991-92 to 1994-95)

Kanchanaganga Sea Foods Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 220 Taxation 261 / (2010) 325 ITR 540 / 233 CTR 1 / 41 DTR 209 / 192 Taxman 187 (SC)

Editorial : The High Court decision in Kanchanaganga Sea Foods Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 136 Taxman 8 / 265 ITR 644 187 CTR 664 (AP) (High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Ad-interim – Stay

The Karnataka High Court in CIT v. Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd. (2009) 185 Taxman 313 (Kar.), held that liability cannot be avoided on ground of non taxability of recipient. In a SLP filed against the judgment, the Supreme Court, by an ad-interim order dated 18-12-2009 directed issue of notice to the Respondents and also directed "Stay of recovery till further orders".

GE India Technology v. CIT (2010) 187 Taxman 110 (SC)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Chargeable – Mere remittance – Duty only on taxable income

A person paying interest or any other sum to a non-resident is not liable to deduct tax if such sum is not chargeable to tax under the Act. Section 195 contemplate not merely amounts, the whole of which are pure income payments; it also covers composite payments which have an element of income embedded or incorporated in them. The obligation to deduct tax at source is, however, limited to appropriate proportion of income chargeable under the Act forming part of the gross sum of money payable to the non-resident.

As per the CBDT Circular No. 728 dated October 31, 1995, a tax deductor can take into consideration the effect of the DTAA in respect of payments of royalties and technical fees while deducting tax at source.

The expression "chargeable under the provisions of the Act" in section 195(1) shows that the remittance has got to be of a trading receipt, the whole or a part of which is liable to tax in India. If tax is not so assessable, there is no question of tax deduction at source.

GE Technology Centre P. Ltd. v. CIT and Anr. (2010) 327 ITR 456 / 193 Taxman 234 / 234 CTR 153 / 44 DTR 201 / 10 SCC 29 / (2011) 221 Taxman 28 (SC)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Jurisdiction – Assessee in Default – Constitution of India [S. 2(47), 9(1)(1), 195, 201]

The question of jurisdictional issue may be determined by the authorities concerned as a preliminary issue. The Supreme Court further held that the Petitioner would be entitled to question the decision of the authority on the preliminary issue before the High Court.

Vodafone International Holdings B. V. v. UOI (2009) 221 CTR 617 / 179 Taxman 129 / 18 DTR 234 (SC)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Discounting charges – Export sales bill – Interest [S.2(28A), 40(a)(i)]

Discounting charges paid by assessee to a foreign company for discounting export sale bills is not "interest" as defined in section 2(28A), since foreign company has no permanent establishment in India, it was not liable to tax in respect of discounting charges and therefore, assessee was under no obligation to deduct tax at source under section 195 and the discounting charges could not be disallowed under section 40(a)(i). (A. Ys. 2004-05 & 2005-06).

CIT v. Cargill Global Trading (P) Ltd. (2011) 241 CTR 443 / 56 DTR 188 / 199 Taxman 320 / 335 ITR 94 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Sale of shares of Foreign Co. by Non-resident to Non-resident attracts Indian tax – AO to record finding and decide "preliminary issue"

Where one non resident had sold shares of a foreign company to another and show cause notice was issued under section 195, in view of the judgement of the Supreme Court in Vodafone International v. UOI 221 CTR 617 it was held that the interest of the assessee is safeguarded by directing that the Assessing Officer shall record a finding on the preliminary issue relating to jurisdictional fact (as to whether the overseas transaction attracts Indian tax at all). If the assessee is aggrieved by the finding, it is entitled to challenge the same by a Writ Petition.

Richter Holding Ltd. v. ADIT (IT) (2011) 339 ITR 199 / 200 Taxman 263 / 243 CTR 142 (Karn.)(High Court)

Editorial:- See also Vodafone International Holdings B.V. v. UOI 329 ITR 126 / 235 CTR 15 / 193 Taxman 100 / 44 DTR 97 (Bom.) on the same point.

This decision has since been reversed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in Vodafone International Holdings BV v. UOI (2012) 341 ITR 1 / 204 Taxman 408 / 247 CTR 1 / 66 DTR 265 (SC)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Income deemed to accrue or arise in India – Business information [S. 201]

The assessee had imported business information reports from Dun and Brand street, USA and made remittances in respect thereof without deducting tax at source. The Assessing Officer held that the assessee was liable to deduct tax at source. Tribunal set aside the order of Assessing Officer. The Court held that the Authority for Advance Rulings had held that the sale of business information reports by the subsidiaries of Dun and Brand Street, USA in Spain, Europe and the U.K. to the assessee did not attract the provisions of section 195. Though the decision of the Authority was not binding in the present case, since the decision of Authority related to the same business information reports imported by the assessee and no fault in the decision of the Authority was pointed out, the decision of the Tribunal was affirmed.

DIT v. Dun and Brand Street Information Services India P. Ltd. (2011) 338 ITR 95 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Certificate not withdrawn, assessee not in Default [S. 201]

The assessee made payment of "daily allowance" to a Japanese company on account of the stay of Japanese engineers without deduction of tax at source. The Assessing Officer held that the payment was assessable to tax as "fees for technical services" and that the assessee was liable under section 201 for failure to deduct tax at source. It was held that the Assessing Officer had issued a certificate under section 195(2) authorizing the remittance without deduction of tax at source. As this certificate was not cancelled under section 195(4), the assessee was not required to deduct tax at source and could not be treated as assessee in default. The issue whether the payments were taxable or not need not be gone into. (A. Y. 1987-88)

CIT v. Swaraj Mazda Ltd. (2011) 62 DTR 205 / 198 Taxman 305 / 245 CTR 521 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Lower rate

Assessee cannot deduct tax at a lower rate without getting an authorization or certificate under section 195(2). (A. Y. 2002-03).

CIT v. Chennai Metropolitan Water Supply & Sewerage Board (2011) 202 Taxman 454 / 64 DTR 395 / (2012) 246 CTR 402 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Appeal [S. 195, 201, 246, 248]

Where the appeal against order under section 195(1) and 201 was filed, Appellate authorities cannot decide whether payment was assessable or not. (A.Ys. 1999-2000 to 2001-02)

CIT & Anr. v. Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd. (2010) 320 ITR 209 / (2009) 185 Taxman 313 / 31 DTR 257 (Karn.)(High Court)

Editorial: - SLP admitted by Supreme Court.

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Reimbursement of Costs

Obligation to deduct tax at source under section 195 is attracted only when the payment is chargeable to tax in India. When tax authority have accepted that the non-resident recipient is not liable to pay tax in India, the assessee payer not liable to deduct tax at source under section 195(1), in respect of mobilization and demobilization costs reimbursed by it the non-resident company. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Van Oord Acz India (P) Ltd. v CIT (2010) 36 DTR 425 / 189 Taxman 232 / 323 ITR 130 / 230 CTR 365 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Denial of Certificate – Pendency before dispute resolution panel – DTAA – India-USA – Writ [Art. 27, Rule 29B]

Certificate under section 195(3), could not be declined on the ground that when the matter is pending before the Dispute Resolution Panel, as no appeal is available against order under section 195(3). Writ is maintainable. (A.Y. 2011-12)

Mckinsey & Company Inc v. UOI (2010) 38 DTR 34 / 323 ITR 544 / 231 CTR 430 / 192 Taxman 421 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Purchase of software

Remittances made by the assessee to the non-resident for purchase of software were in the nature of trading receipt and price of goods purchased by it bear the character of income receipt in the hands of non-resident and therefore, assessee is liable to deduct tax at source under section 195(1). (A.Ys. 2005-06 to 2007-08)

CIT v. Sonata Information Technology Ltd. (2010) 38 DTR 350 / 192 Taxman 80 / 232 CTR 20 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Purchase of software

Resident paying to non-resident Company for purchase of software. There is an obligation to deduct tax while making payment to a non-resident if the impugned payment is in the character of income payment. (A.Ys. 1999-2000 to 2001-02)

CIT v. Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd. (2009) 227 CTR 335 / 185 Taxman 313 / 31 DTR 257 (2010) 320 ITR 209 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Purchase of plant [S. 9(1) (vi)]

The assessee had purchased plant from a foreign country which were, technical documents viz, designs, drawings, sketches, etc. The title to these documents was transferred to the assessee by the foreign company (vendor). The payment made by the assessee to foreign vendor was held to be for the purchase of plant and not royalty under the provisions of section 9(1)(vi) of the Act. As such, the assessee was not liable to deduct tax at source from the payment made to foreign party.

CIT v. Maggronic Devices (P) Ltd. (2009) 31 DTR 65 / 228 CTR 241 / 329 ITR 442 (HP)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Payment other than cash also covered

Assessee company entered in to agreement chartering two fishing vessels, with a non resident company. As per the terms of agreement, the assessee had to pay 85% of fish catch towards, the hire charges to the said non-resident company. The court held that Payments contemplated under section 195 not only includes cash payments or payment by cheque or draft, but also payment even by any other mode.

Kanchanganga Sea Foods Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 136 Taxman 8 / 265 ITR 644 (AP)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Pendency of regular assessment

Pending regular assessment, Department should move Court for stay of order under section 195; when payment has already been made to foreign company, appeal regarding non-deduction of tax under section 195 would be infructuous.

CIT v. Mahindra & Mahindra Ltd. (2003) 132 Taxman 30 / 263 ITR 481 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Order under section 195 (2) – Regular assessment – Not binding

Orders passed under section 195(2) are provisional and tentative and do not bind ITO in regular assessment proceedings. (A.Ys. 1977-78, 1978-79)

Dodsai (P.) Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 131 Taxman 565 / 260 ITR 507 / 179 CTR 80 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Royalty or fee for technical services – Bandwidth charges paid for data communication [S. 9, 40(a)(i)]

Assessing officer held that assessee was required to deduct tax at source in respect of payments made to AT&T and MCI Telecommunications were covered under section 195. Where payments are made to service providers such as AT&T or MCI Telecommunications for use of band width provided for down linking signals in United States and such payments are not in the nature of managerial, consultancy or technical services nor for use or right to use industrial, commercial or scientific, equipment. Then the said payment are not in the nature of royalty or fee for technical services assessee and thus not liable to deduct tax at source. (A. Y. 2004-05)

Infosys Technologies Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 45 SOT 157 / 139 TTJ 18 (UO)(Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Commission paid outside India – Fees for technical services – DTAA – India-Russia [S. 9(1)(i), 40(a)(ia), Art. 7, 13]

Commission was paid outside India for services rendered outside India, tax was not deductible at source. The definition of “fees for technical services” in article 13 of the Double taxation Avoidance Agreement does not include managerial service. Hence, the definition of the technical services as given in the Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement is to be applied and it was beneficial. Hence, the sales commission in respect of parties situated in the U.K. could not have been subjected to tax at source because it was business profits and not fees for technical services. Moreover the non-residents had not made available technical knowledge or experience. Hence clause 13 of the Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement between India and the U.K. was not applicable. (A. Ys. 2007-08 to 2010-11).

ACIT v. Modern Insulator Ltd. (2011) 10 ITR 147 / 140 TTJ 715 / 56 DTR 362 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Training its personnel – Fees for technical service [S. 9]

Assessee company during relevant assessment year made payment to non-resident party for training its personnel or customers to explain proposed buyers salient features of products imported by assessee in India and to impart training to customers to use equipment. The payment made could not be said to be fees for technical services and not liable for deduction of tax at source. (A. Y. 2007-08).

ACIT v. PCI Ltd. (2011) 46 SOT 183 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Remittances of sale proceeds of shares by bank – UAE resident – DTAA – India-UAE [S. 201, 201(1A), Article 13(3)]

Abu Dahbi Commercial Bank, (ADCB) was engaged in the business of banking and operated through branch in India. ADCB made remittances to individuals being UAE residents, in respect of sale proceeds of shares which resulted in short term capital gain in India. Remittance was made without deducting tax at source. Assessing Officer treated the ADCB as an assessee in default, under section 201 and also levied interest under section 201(IA). On appeal CIT(A) held that though ADCB could be regarded as payer under section 204, there was no withholding tax obligation due to availability of treaty benefit. The Tribunal held that Liability to deduct tax on remittance, does not arise as bank is only acting as an authorized dealer in transferring the funds on behalf of the share broker in absence of liability to deduct tax, the bank could not be treated as an assessee in default.

ITO v. Abu Dhabi Commercial Bank (2011) TII 103 ITAT–Mum–ITNL dt. 12-5-2011 (591 (2011) 43-A BCAJ–August P. 27) (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Foreign agent – Commission – Business connection – Permanent establishment [S. 4(1), 40(a)(ia), 195]

A foreign agent of an Indian exporter operates in his own country and his commission is directly remitted to him. Such commission is not received by him or in his behalf in India, and such agent is not liable to income tax in India on commission received by him. As there was no right to receive income earned in India nor there was any business connection between assessee and ETUK, therefore when income was not chargeable to tax in India under section 4(1), there was no question of invoking provisions of section 195 hence no disallowance can be made under section 40(a)(ia). (A. Y. 2007-08).

Dy. CIT v. Eon Technology (P) Ltd. (2011) 46 SOT 323 (Delhi)(Trib.)

Editorial : Affirmed by CIT v. Eon Technology P. Ltd. (2012) 343 ITR 366 / (2011) 203 Taxman 266 / 64 DTR 257 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Off the Shelf Software – Fee for user of software taxable as “Royalty” – DTAA – India-Switzerland [S. 9(1)(vi), 201]

While the license to use the “shrink wrapped” or “off the shelf” software does not involve transfer of intellectual property, it constitutes “royalty” under section 9(1)(vi) and Article 12(3) of the DTAA because it is for “the use of and the right to use of intellectual property such as copyright of a literary, artistic or scientific work or any patent, trade mark, design or model, plan etc”. Thus, the consideration received by Oracle for use of its software constitutes “royalty” and the assessee ought to have deducted tax at source. (A. Y. 2008-09)

ING Vysya Bank Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 61 DTR 401 / (2012) 143 TTJ 249 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Foreign Artists – Reimbursement of Expenses – Agents of Foreign Artistes – DTAA – India-UK

As Colin Davie was not a performer, his income was not covered under Article 18 of the DTAA but was covered by Article 7 and as the services were rendered outside India and there was no PE, the same was not assessable to tax in India. Even under the Act, by virtue of Carborandum Co. v. CIT (1977) 108 ITR 335 (SC), Circular No. 17 of 1953 dated 17.7.1953 & Circular No.786 dated 7.2.2000, commission paid to agents for services rendered outside India is not chargeable to tax in India and there is no obligation to deduct tax under section 195;

As regards payment made towards reimbursement of expenses, the law is well settled by virtue of DIT v. Krupp UDHE GmbH (2010) 38 DTR 251 (Bom.) and CIT v. Siemens AG (2008) 220 CTR 425 (Bom.) that the same is not chargeable to tax and there was no obligation to deduct tax at source. (A.Y. 2002-03)

ADIT v. Wizcraft International Entertainment (2011) 50 DTR 1 / 43 SOT 470 / 135 TTJ 647 / 8 ITR 334 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Royalty – DTAA – INDIA-USA-UK [S. 5(2), 9(1)(vi), 40(a)(i), 195, Articles 26(3), 26(4)]

Payments to non-resident for hire of transponders being royalty, tax has to be deducted at source. (A.Ys. 2000-01 to 2006-07)

Asianet Communications Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2010) 1 ITR 683 / 38 SOT 158 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Reimbursement of Expenses – Permanent establishment – India-German – DTAA (Articles 5(2)(1), 12)

Reimbursement of expenses incurred on travel not involving element of income not taxable. Various sites cannot be considered together when contracts are not interconnected. Period to be computed separately in respect of each activity. Activity once commenced continues till completion of contract. Intervening period cannot be excluded. Period of six months to be counted irrespective of years involved. (A.Ys. 1998-99 to 1999-2000)

Jt. DIT v. Krupp Uhde GmbH (2010) 1 ITR 614 / 124 TTJ 219 / 28 SOT 254 / 26 DTR 289 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Reimbursement of expenses

provisions of section 195 would be applicable to reimbursement of expenses related to fee for technical services, however, in view of fact that all services had been provided by "L", off shore, assessee would not incur any liability to deduct tax towards payment in respect of services. (A.Ys. 2003-04 to 2005-06)

Bovis Lend Lease (India) (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 36 SOT 166 / (2010) 127 TTJ 25 (UO)(Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Fees for included services

[S. 9(1)(vii), 90, 201(1)]

Assessee company having entered into a contract with a US company ACSC only for procuring software personnel for the projects of another foreign company in USA, the primary services rendered by ACSC to the assessee under the contract is akin to recruitment and placement service rather than making available any technology, plan, design, etc. and, therefore, the payments made to ACSC cannot come within the purview of 'fee for included services' within the meaning of Article 12(4)(b) of Indo-US DTAA and the same are not chargeable to tax in India and no tax was deductible at source under section 195. (A.Ys. 2005-06, 2006-07)

ACIT v. IIC Systems (P) Ltd. (2010) 33 DTR 422 / 127 TTJ 435 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Permanent establishment – India-Malaysia – DTAA [S. 40(a)(ia), S. 90]

Personnel supplied by Malaysian company were supposed to function under direction, control and supervision of assessee, therefore it could be said that there was no PE of Malaysian company in terms of Article 5 of DTAA. Payment received by said company was not taxable in India, consequently provisions of section 195, and 40(a)(i) could not be invoked. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Dy. CIT v. Stook Engineer & Contractors B. V. (2010) 122 ITD 49 / (2009) 121 TTJ 320 / 27 SOT 452 / 32 SOT 249 / 19 DTR 482 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Technical services – Activity of conducting impact tests by UTAC – India-France – DTAA [S. 9(1)(vii), 90, Art. 13(4)]

Activity of conducting impact tests by UTAC a French company, on the cars manufactured by the assessee company in the presence of the assessee's representative and submission of test reports which were utilized for product development in India was in the nature of technical services and therefore, payment made to UTAC for such tests was for technical services within the meaning of Art. 13(4) of India-France DTAA, as well as section 9(1)(vii) and fees payable were chargeable to tax in India hence, the assessee is liable to deduct tax at source under section 195. (A.Y. 2005-06)

Maruti Udyog Ltd. v. ADIT (2010) 37 DTR 85 / 130 TTJ 66 / 34 SOT 480 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Purchase of Air Craft – Fees for Technical Services [S. 90, 9, 201(1), 201(IA), DTAA, India and Russia – Art. 12]

Payment made to foreign company for purchase of air craft engines, could not be regarded as "fees for technical services" hence, provisions of section 195 cannot be applied. (A.Ys. 2006-07, 2007-08)

Hindustan Aeronautics Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 123 ITD 575 / (2009) 121 TTJ 242 / 19 DTR 164 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Agent

Despite TDS under section 195, payer is liable as "agent" under section 163. However, if payee is assessed, payer cannot be assessed as "representative assessee". (A.Y. 2001-02)

Hindalco Industries Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2010) 40 DTR 372 / 132 TTJ 40 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Fees for technical services

Logistic services rendered off-shore though utilized in India. Indian company not liable to deduct tax at source. (A.Ys. 2005-06, 2006-07)

Sun Microsystems India Pvt. Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 3 ITR 808 / 130 TTJ 597 / 39 DTR 69 / 125 ITD 196 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Software – Royalty

Fee for software is not royalty & TDS under section 195 not required.

Kansai Nerolac Paints Ltd. v. Addl. Director of IT (2010) 134 TTJ 342 (URO) / 41 SOT 3 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Reimbursement of Expenses

[S. 40(a)(i)]

As the reimbursement of expenses is not taxable in the hands of non-resident payee, assessee not liable to deduct tax at source and he cannot be held assessee in default, consequently no disallowance under section 40(a)(i) is called for. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Nathapa Jhakri Joint Venture v. ACIT (2010) 41 DTR 233 / 37 SOT 160 / 131 TTJ 702 / 41 DTR 233 / 5 ITR 75 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Legal expenses – GDR issue

Payment of legal charges to the firm of solicitors in connection with the assessee's GDR issue is covered within the ambit of "fees for technical services" as per provisions of section 9(1)(vi) and is liable to TDS under section 195. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Dy. DIT v. Tata Iron & Steel Co. Ltd. (2010) 42 DTR 204 / 132 TTJ 566 / 6 ITR 463 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Technical services – India-Austria – DTAA [S. 40(a)(i), Art. 7]

Payment made by the assessee to an Austrian company by way of fees for technical services was not taxable in India as per Art. 7 of the old DTAA of 1065 as applicable to the relevant assessment year 2002-03, in view of the fact that no portion of the activities were performed by the Austrian enterprise in India, provisions of section 195 were not applicable to the payment made by the assessee to the said enterprise and as such fees for technical services is not hit by the provisions of section 40(a)(ia). (A.Y. 2001-02)

VA Tech Wabag Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 133 TTJ 121 / 44 DTR 1 / 234 CTR 139 / 327 ITR 305 / 194 Taxman 358 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Purchase of software DTAA – India-Singapore [Art. 12]

A computer software when put in to a media and sold becomes goods and, therefore, amount paid by the assessee to a Singapore company towards purchase of software cannot be treated as royalty taxable in India under Art. 12 of DTAA between India and Singapore and assessee is not liable to deduct tax at source under section 195.

Kansai Nerolac Paints Ltd. v. Addl. DIT (2010) 134 TTJ 342 / 43 DTR 385 (Mum.)(URO)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Not chargeable – Samsung (Kar) not followed

Section 195(1) - TDS obligation does not arise if the payment is not chargeable to tax. Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd. (2010) 320 ITR 209 (Kar) not followed. (A.Y. 2002-03)

ITO v Prasad Production Ltd. (2010) 3 ITR 58 / 125 ITD 263 / 129 TTJ 641 / 37 DTR 418 (SB)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Assessee in default – Limitation – Certificate [S. 201]

An order under section 201, ought to be passed within four years, hence on the basis of showcause notice issued in October, 2002, assessee could not be treated in default for the period prior to 31st March, 1998.

Assessee on the basis of a no objection certificate under section 195(2) obtained in respect of a particular payment could not contend that it entertained a bonafide belief that it was not obliged to obtain such certificate under section 195(2) once again in respect of similar payment under another contract and hence could not be treated to be in default.

Mangalore Refinery & Petro Chemicals Ltd. v. Dy. DIT (2008) 4 DTR 101 / 114 TTJ 632 / (2009) 113 ITD 85 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Fees for technical services

Payment made by assessee to US company for technical services and start-up/turnkey responsibility service for setting up a power plant in India was fee for technical services and, therefore, the same was chargeable to tax in India, and the assessee was required to deduct tax as per the provisions of section 195. (A.Y. 1996-97 to 1998-99)

Jindal Tractebel Power Co. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2007) 106 TTJ 1011 / 106 ITD 227 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Advance tax [S. 234B]

Assessee company being a non-resident, all payment made to it were subject to TDS under section 195 and assessee was not liable for paying advance tax and, therefore, interest under section 234B was not chargeable. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Van Oord Dredging & Marine Contractors BV v. Dy. DIT (2007) 106 TTJ 889 / 105 ITD 97 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Software – Royalty

Payment for import of software does not amount to payment of royalty chargeable under section 9(1)(vi) and hence section 195 was not applicable to such payments. (A.Ys. 2000-01 to 2002-03)

Sonata Software Ltd. v. ITO (2006) 6 SOT 700 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Royalty – Purchase of software [S. 40(a) (i)]

Payment made for purchase of software amounts to 'royalty' within ambit of section 9(1)(vi) – Held, no – therefore, in such case assessee has no liability to deduct tax at source under section 195 and as such provisions of section 40(a)(i) cannot be applied – Held, yes. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Assessee company imported some software packages from various overseas vendors under separate agreements for the purpose of distributing those software to its customers. Therefore, what the assessee company acquired under the agreement was copy-righted article which partook the character of purchase and sale of goods and therefore, in terms of the CBDT Circular No. 23, dated 23-7-69, no tax was needed to be deducted under section 195.

Sonata Information Technology Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2006) 103 ITD 324 / (2007) 106 TTJ 797 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Annual surveillance fee

Annual surveillance fee in respect of credit rating certificate falls within the category of ancillary services and accordingly, the assessee company was liable to deduct the tax under section 195. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Essar Oil Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 270 / (2005) 4 SOT 161 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Credit rating fee – DTAA – India-Australia [Art. 12(2)]

Credit rating fees paid to Australian company, who did not have permanent establishment in India, is not liable to be taxed as royalties under article 12(2)(b)(ii) of DTAA between India & Australia, and also since the payment of fees was not for any knowledge or information, but a payment for the professional services to decide credit rating of a company.

Hindalco Ind. Ltd. v. ITO (2006) 152 Taxman 17 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Income chargeable to tax

It cannot be said that assessee should first deduct tax at source without considering fact whether income in question is chargeable to tax in hands of recipient. (A.Ys. 1994-95 to 1997-98)

NQA Quality Systems Registrar Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 249 / (2005) 92 TTJ 946 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Reasoned order

While acting under section 195(2), Assessing Officer is duty bound to make requisite enquiries, evaluate facts in context of provisions of law and then pass a reasoned order.

Board of Control for Cricket in India v. DIT (Exemption) (2005) 96 ITD 263 / 97 TTJ 751 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Interest services agreement

Where assessee, engaged in the business of providing end-to-end communication facility to various companies, paid a sum to various foreign companies under an agreement called as 'interest services agreement' as per which such international service providers provided assessee with necessary bandwidth along with a package of services in return for a consideration, in view of order of Tribunal in case of Wipro Ltd. v. ITO (2003) 133 Taxman 149 (Bang.) (Mag.), assessee was not required to deduct tax under section 195 in respect of payments made to various US-based companies. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Software Technology Parks of India v. ITO (2005) 3 SOT 529 / 84 TTJ 31 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Data base – Royalty

Payment made by assessee-Indian company to U.S. company for providing access to information available in database maintained by it was not 'royalty' for purpose of deduction of tax at source under section 195. (A.Y. 2001-02 to 2003-04)

Wipro Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 94 ITD 9 / 92 TTJ 716 / 1 SOT 663 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Lead managers – Technical service – GDR issue [S. 9 (1) (vii)]

Services rendered by lead managers in connection with GDR issue fell within definition of 'technical services' under section 9(1)(vii), read with Explanation 2 and, therefore, management commission and selling commission were income of Lead Managers deemed to accrue or arise in India and as such, assessee was liable to deduct tax under section 195(1); however underwriting commission would not fall under section 9(1)(vii) and, therefore, no tax was deductible therefrom under section 195. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Gujarat Ambuja Cements Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 784 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Membership fee

Where assessee was engaged in business of publishing newspapers, periodicals, etc., and was a member of International Press Institute (IPI) situated in Austria, section 195 was not applicable to remittance by assessee of foreign currency as its membership fees, donation and advertisement charges to IPI as those payments could not be regarded as income chargeable to tax under the Act. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

ACIT v. Malayala Manorama Co. Ltd. (2005) 94 ITD 121/ 96 TTJ 442 / 1 SOT 739 (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Technical information

Where assessee deducted tax from fee paid to foreign companies for supply by these of technical information and also for sending technical skilled personnel to put into commercial use, information supplied, but did not deduct tax on expenses incurred by it on airfare, hotel expenses and local travelling for foreign technicians visiting India on ground that as none of them had permanent establishment in India, income was not taxable in India, and, therefore, section 195 was not applicable, expenses in question could not be separated from fees because same were incurred during earning of that fees only and, therefore, assessee's contention that section 195 was not applicable to these expenses had no merit. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Mahindra & Mahindra Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 1 SOT 896 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Technical designs – DTAA – India-USA

Where assessee-company entered into an agreement with a US company for development of water features at premises owned by it and under the agreement US company was not only to provide schematic ideas but also to provide technical designs, drawings and information, on basis of which assessee was to execute and install water features, since US company was required to deliver technical designs or plan for sole use by assessee-company in India, payments effected under agreement squarely fell within definition of 'fees for technical services' mentioned in article 12(4)(b) of DTAA, and consequently, assessee was liable to deduct tax under section 195.

Gentex Merchants (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. DIT (International Taxation) (2005) 94 ITD 211 / 95 TTJ 956 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Fees paid non-resident under the agreement for services rendered abroad [S. 9 (1)(vi)(vii)]

Payment by assessee-company to non-resident telecom companies for down linking and transmitting of data to the assessee's customers who were located outside India cannot be considered as fees for technical services under section 9(1)(vii). Similarly, services offered by VSNL is not regarded as technical services. Hence, there is no question of applicability of s. 9(1)(vi). So long as the amount paid is not taxable under the Act, the clause in the DTAA cannot bring the charge. Hence, there was no liability to deduct tax under section 195. (A.Y. 1999-2000 to 2001-02).

WIPRO LTD. v. ITO (2003) 80 TTJ 191 / (2004) 1 SOT 758 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Insurance premium to COFACE for guaranteeing the credit facility-exemption under Article 12.3 of India-France DTAA read with MFN clause in Protocol – DTAA with Hungary, Canada, Ireland [Article 12(3)(b)]

The applicant, Indian Company entered into an agreement for purchase of aircraft from Dassault Aviation SA, French company. On 17.3.2009, COFACE agreed to partially guarantee the credit facility to be extended by the seller. The credit facility which was to be repaid in six-monthly installments, was paid by way of promissory notes. All the promissory notes were irrevocably and unconditionally assigned by Dassault to BNP Paribas, France. The questions before the authority are as under

- a) Whether the payment of interest to Dassault and/or to BNP is taxable in view of provision of Article 12(3)(b) of the India-France DTAA?
- b) In light of the facts and declaration by Dassault that it does not have PE in India, whether the applicant would require to deduct tax at source under section 195(2) of the Act on the payment of interest to Dassault, if yes at what rate?
- c) Based on the facts and also that the interest payment by applicant is not in connection with debt that is effectively connected to a PE of BNP in India, whether the applicant would be required to deduct tax at source under section 195(2) of the Act on the payment of interest to BNP, if yes at what rate?

Article 12.3(b) of India-France DTAA covers loan or credit extended or endorsed. COFACE has neither extended the loan or credit nor guaranteed the repayment of the loan by the applicant. It has only engaged itself to pay an agreed sum to Dassault in the event Dassault incurring a loss on not being able to recover the loan or credit.

A protocol was signed by India and France on 29.9.1992 by which the benefit of the Most Favoured Nation clause has been extended to this Convention and based on it, exemption is extended to insurance of the credit, in view of such exemption being granted by India in treaties with Hungary, Canada and Ireland. Thus the interest payable to Dassault is not taxable in India under Article 12.3(b) of India-France DTAA.

There is nothing in contrary to state that interest payable to BNP PARIBAS, France is not beneficially owned by it. Thus India-France treaty would continue to be applicable and interest payable to BNP PARIBAS would not be taxable in India in view of Article 12.3(b). Accordingly there is no obligation on the applicant to withhold tax on the interest paid to Dassault or to BNP PARIBAS on the transaction.

Poonawalla Aviation (P) Ltd., In Re (2011) 64 DTR 385 / (2012) 246 CTR 22 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Data processing services

Services involving routine data entry, application sorting, document handling and data capturing service not involving use of sophisticated technology. Services rendered non-managerial, technical or consultancy service. Fees based on invoice from non-resident. Not Fees for technical services. Not taxable in India.

R. R. Donnelley India Outsource P. Ltd. (2011) 335 ITR 122 / 241 CTR 305 / 199 Taxman 255 / 56 DTR 1 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Capital gains – Transfer of shares – Wholly owned subsidiary – Without consideration [S. 45, 48, 92, 92C, 195]

Transfer of shares to subsidiary company without consideration would not attract liability to tax under section 45 read with section 48. As the consideration is inapplicable on the date of transfer, as no income is chargeable to tax, provisions of section 195 or provisions of sections 92 to 92F would not apply.

Good Year Tire & Rubber Co., In Re. (2011) 240 CTR 209 / 54 DTR 281 / 334 ITR 69 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Basic design service – DTAA – India-USA [Art. 12]

Basic design services provided by US entity which includes preparation of plan, concept design, design development and other related consultancy services during construction phase are part of architectural services provided by the US entity. Payment received for such services are fees for included services as it involved development and transfer of technical plan and design. The agreement needs to be read having regard to the predominant features of the contract and by taking into account crux and substance of the contract.

Remittance made to the US entity for making payment to consultants directly to the taxpayer represents reimbursement of actual expenses and does not represent income chargeable to tax.

HMS Real Estate (2010) 325 ITR 71 / 230 CTR 340 / 36 DTR 281 / 190 Taxman 22 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Withholding Tax – Business connection – Permanent Establishment – DTAA – India-USA [S. 9, Art 7]

Consideration paid by Indian company to American company under assignment agreement was not capital gains but business profits; since American company did not have PE in India, consideration not chargeable to tax in India; payer not required to withhold tax.

Laired Technologies India Pvt. Ltd. (2010) 323 ITR 598 / 188 Taxman 304 / 229 CTR 322 / 35 DTR 110 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Withholding tax – Reimbursement of costs – Royalties – Fees for technical services – DTAA – India-Swiss [S. 9, Art. 5 & 7]

Payments made towards the share of the cost incurred in respect of research and development activities pursuant to cost contribution arrangement is payment towards fees for technical services or royalty. Such contribution is not liable to tax in the hands of the co-coordinating agencies.

ABB Limited (2010) 322 ITR 564 / 230 CTR 327 / 189 Taxman 422 / 36 DTR 262 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Referral fee – Permanent establishment – Technical services – DTAA – India-UK [Art. 5, 7, 13]

Referral fee received by the applicant, a UK company from India-based recruitment agency for referring potential Indian clients and candidates to the latter even if it is in the nature of consultancy services, cannot be considered to be ancillary and subsidiary to the enjoyment / application of the right or information referred in para.3(a) of Article 13 of the Indo-UK DTAA, nor would the activity of providing information would fall within the ambit of making available technical knowledge and experience of the service provider, in the absence of PE, the receipts in the nature of referral fee are not taxable even as business profits - Held referral fee not taxable in India.

Real Resourcing Ltd. (2010) 322 ITR 558 / 230 CTR 120 / 36 DTR 132 / 190 Taxman 151 / (2010) 36 DTR 132 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Commission – Agent

No tax is required to be deducted from commission paid to agent outside India if no services performed in India or no fixed place of business in India

Spahi Projects Pvt. Ltd., (2009) 225 CTR 133 / 315 ITR 374 / 183 Taxman 92 / 26 DTR 303 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Revenue receipts are “any other sum” chargeable under the Act – Packed business software solutions

Applicant is purchaser of packaged business software solutions from non-resident for supply to domestic clients - issue is whether there is obligation on applicant to withhold tax when making payment for software purchased from non-resident - AAR observed that determination of royalty or PE in India of non-resident is beyond scope of consideration; only issue is with regard to “liability to withhold taxes” - Held that revenue receipts of non-resident are “any other sum chargeable under the provisions of this Act” and hence there exists a legal obligation on the part of applicant to withhold taxes.

Headstart Business Solutions Pvt. Ltd. (2006) 204 CTR 519 / 285 ITR 530 / 155 Taxman 639 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Indian subsidiary

Amount paid by Indian subsidiary of US company to latter for services rendered in US to Indian subsidiary under an agreement, though not including any profit element as per agreement, will be subject to withholding tax under section 195.

Timken India Ltd., In re (2005) 273 ITR 67 / 143 Taxman 257 / 193 CTR 610 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Liability of foreign Lender – DTAA – India-Singapore [Art. 11]

Assessee has undertaken to pay tax liability of foreign lender to whom it is liable to pay interest and who has no permanent establishment in India, interest payable to such non-resident would constitute its income as per article 11 of DTAA with Singapore and assessee would be liable to deduct tax at source under section 195 from such interest.

Jay Shree Tea & Industries Ltd., In re (2005) 274 ITR 97 / 145 Taxman 516 / 194 CTR 401 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Reimbursement of cost incurred by payee [S. 2(24)]

To apply section 195, amount in question should be income of payee and not mere reimbursement of cost incurred by payee.

Danfoss Industries (P) Ltd In re. (2004) 138 Taxman 280 / 268 ITR 1 / (2004) 189 CTR 489 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Fees for technical services – DTAA – India-Sweden [Art. 12]

Section 195 (1) comes into play at the stage where a payer who is required to deduct the tax, either credits such income to the amount of the payee or makes payment thereof whether in cash or by way of cheque or draft or any other mode. The taxability of such amounts in the hands of the payee or occasioning of the taxable events, is alien for the purpose of section 195 (1). The deduction of tax need not necessarily be at the time of making actual remittance of the said sums but it has to be at the time of making mere provision thereof in the books of account of the applicant, since the requirement of actual payment of "royalties" is not a pre-requisite or pre condition for triggering the incidence of income tax, under the Indo – Sweden Tax treaty.

Flakt (India) Ltd., In re (2004) 139 Taxman 238 / 267 ITR 727 / 189 CTR 359 (AAR)

S. 195 : Deduction at source – Non-resident – Other sums – Commission – Retainer fee

For Commission/retainer fee payable to non-resident having no office or business operation in India, no tax is required to be deducted at source.

Ind Telesoft P. Ltd., In re (2004) 267 ITR 725 / 140 Taxman 463 / 189 CTR 287 (AAR)

Section 195A : Income payable "net of tax"

S. 195A : Deduction at source – Income payable "Net of tax" – Foreign companies – Royalty – Fees for technical services – Grossing up – Agreement approved by Government [S. 10(6A)]

Where technical collaboration agreement between assessee and foreign company was approved by Government of India under section 10(6A), tax paid by assessee on remittance to foreign collaborator was exempt from further tax and grossing up under section 195A to cover tax component of remittance does not arise. Section 195A, authorizes assessment of gross income only when collaboration agreement is not approved by Government of India under section 10(6A).

CIT v. Tata Ceramics Ltd. (2011) 203 Taxman 43 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 195A : Deduction at source – Net of tax – Grossing-up – Tax borne by employee

Grossing up was done by Assessing Officer presumably on the basis that advance tax was paid by employer, where as it was paid by assessee himself and therefore, grossing up of tax liability was not valid.

CIT v. Tadashi Murakami (2010) 40 DTR 191 (2009) 319 ITR 347 / (2010) 187 Taxman 158 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 195A : Deduction at source – Income payable ‘Net of Tax’ – Grossing up

Provisions of section 195A are applicable to all cases where person has undertaken to bear tax payable on income of another person under an agreement; section 195A provides for grossing up of income wholly if it forms part of total income.

B. J. Services Co. Middle East Ltd. v. ACIT (OSD) (2005) 4 SOT 633 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 195A : Deduction at source – Net of tax – Agreement – Onus on department

In order to invoke Sec 195A, onus is on the department to prove that there was an agreement or arrangement between the employer and employee that employee agreed to bear the tax payable by its employee. (A.Ys. 1988-89 to 1997-98)

Mitsubishi Corpn. v. Dy. CIT (2003) 85 ITD 414 / (2004) 86 TTJ 139 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 195A : Deduction at source – Net of tax – Rate of tax – Grossing up

Rate of tax for grossing up under section 195A will be the rate in force for financial year in which Income is payable. There is no provision for grossing up at the maximum marginal rate.

Mitsubishi Corpn v. Dy. CIT (2003) 85 ITD 414 (Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 197 : Certificate for deduction at lower rate

S. 197 : Deduction at source – Certificate for lower rate – Writ – Alternative remedy [S. 264]

Assessee made application under section 197 for lower deduction of tax at 0.27%. The Assessing Officer refused to grant the certificate. The Assessee has filed writ petition against the said order. The Court held that Revision under section 264 is efficacious statutory remedy against such order and Writ is not maintainable.

Sime Darby Engineering SDN BHD Malaysia v. UOI (2011) TAX. L. R. 784 (Uttarakhand)(High Court)

S. 197 : Deduction at source – Certificate for lower rate – AO's power

If conditions for grant of certificate under section 197 are duly fulfilled, it would be impermissible for Assessing Officer to reject application merely on a whim and caprice.

Larsen & Toubro Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 190 Taxman 373 / 38 DTR 361 / 235 CTR 108 / 326 ITR 514 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 197 : Deduction at source – Certificate for lower rate – Revision by Commissioner [S. 264]

Assessee applying for nil tax withholding certificate in respect of payments received for by firm services rendered to Indian branches. Orders passed under section 264 by Commissioner and Assessing Officer under section 197, specifying the rate of tax for other years. Assessing Officer without any valid reasons deviating from position adopted by Commissioner for earlier years. Court directed the assessing officer to issue the certificate. (A.Y. 2010-11)

Mckinsey and Company Inc. v. UOI (2010) 324 ITR 367 / 45 DTR 81 / 193 Taxman 47 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 197 : Deduction at source – Certificate for lower rate – Cogent reasons

Rejection of application under section 197 without assigning cogent reasons was not justified, especially when it had been accepted for earlier year. (A.Y. 2009-10)

Infrastructure Development Authority v. CIT (2010) 321 ITR 278 / 40 DTR 94 / 232 CTR 353 (Patna)(High Court)

S. 197 : Deduction at source – Certificate for lower rate – Remand

As the question as to whether assessee-company was carrying on its business in India through a permanent establishment and whether any income was attributable to any such permanent establishment, had not been determined, matter was to be remitted back to Assessing Officer to pass a fresh order under section 197 on application filed by petitioner, depending on determination of aforesaid question. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Schindler Aufzuge Und Fahrtrep v. DIT (2005) 149 Taxman 562 / (2006) 200 CTR 262 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 197 : Deduction at source – Certificate for lower rate – Financial year

Where certificate issued to assessee was cancelled, since liability of assessee was not being finally determined at the time of withdrawal of certificate, assessee's challenge to withdrawal of certificate must fail. If ultimately it was found that the petitioner was liable to pay tax at a rate lower than the deduction to be made, the amount paid was to be refunded. Petition was dismissed. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Ansaldo Engergia S.P.A. v. ITO (2003) 261 ITR 476 / 184 CTR 88 / 133 Taxman 795 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 197 : Deduction at source – Certificate for lower rate – DTAA – India-Singapore

[S. 9(1)(vii), 195, 197, 201(1), 201 (1A), Art. 12]

Assessing Officer having issued certificate under section 197 for no deduction of tax at source, Assessing Officer could not subsequently treat the assessee as an assessee in default under section 201.

Bovis Lend Lease (India) (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 127 TTJ 25 (UO) / 36 SOT 166 / (2009) 32 DTR 145 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 197 : Deduction at source – Certificate for lower rate – Period of validity

Certificate for non-deduction or deduction of tax at lower rate would hold good and remain in force till close of financial year in which it is issued; there is no need to apply for a fresh certificate during currency of period up to close of financial year which is stipulated in certificate; amount specified in certificate in column 'sums expected to be credited paid in pursuance of contract...' is only a tentative figure and actual amount may be more or less than that. (A.Y. 1997-98)

ITO (TDS) v. Dy. General Manager (Finance), Aditya Cement (2005) 96 ITD 398 / 98 TTJ 632 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

Section 199 : Credit for tax deducted

S. 199 : Deduction at source – Credit for tax deducted – Dividend – Partner

Dividend income was taxed in the hands of partner, once dividend income is assessed in the hands of assessee partner, proviso to section 199 has no application and credit for TDS cannot be denied to the assessee partner. (A.Ys. 1972-73, 1976-77)

Yezdi Hirji Malegam & Ors. v. CIT (2007) 213 CTR 161 / (2008) 299 ITR 329 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 199 : Deduction at source – Credit for tax deducted – Dividend

Where assessee-corporation had to divest part of dividend received by it on shares to State Government, which was not assessable, credit for TDS in respect of entire dividend was to be given to assessee, and not proportionately. (A.Y. 1978-79)

CIT v. Punjab Financial Corpn. (2005) 277 ITR 469 / 198 CTR 691 / (2006) 152 Taxman 120 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 199 : Deduction at source – Credit for tax deducted – Refund [S. 203]

Assessee, from whose payments taxes have been deducted at source and who is also in receipt of the appropriate certificates in accordance with the scheme of the Act, must get credit admissible under section 199 uninfluenced by any refund of TDS subsequently granted to the tax deductor. (A. Y. 2002-03).

Lucent Technologies GRL LLC v. Dy. DIT (2011) 136 TTJ 291 / 45 SOT 311 / 51 DTR 8 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 199 : Deduction at source – Credit for tax deducted – Year of assessment

Credit for TDS, under section 199 is to be allowed in year in which corresponding income is assessable to tax. (A. Y. 2006-07).

ITO v. Shri Anupallavi Finance & Investments (2011) 131 ITD 205 / 138 TTJ 200 / 54 DTR 198 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 199 : Deduction at source – Credit for tax deducted – Certificate

When a particular income is received by assessee after deduction of tax at source and TDS has been duly deposited with Government and assessee received requisite certificate to this effect, on production of certificate assessee becomes entitled to credit of TDS, even if assessee has not directly offered said income for tax as assessee considers that same is not liable to tax. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Supreme Renewable Energy Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 124 ITD 394 / 128 TTJ 352 / 3 ITR 339 / (2009) 32 DTR 140 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 199 : Deduction at source – Credit for tax deducted – Income not assessable in relevant assessment year

Credit for tax deducted at source, if income is not assessable in relevant assessment year, shall be allowed on pro-rata basis; i.e., in proportion in which such income is offered for taxation in different assessment years.

Pradeep Kumar Dhir v. ACIT (2008) 303 ITR 45 (AT)(TM)(Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 199 : Deduction at source – Credit for tax deducted – No TDS certificate is furnished by employer [S. 205]

When no TDS certificate is furnished by employer, tax could not be recovered from assessee in view of section 205 of the Income-tax Act.

Capt. J. G. Joseph v. Jt. CIT (2008) 303 ITR 395 (AT) / (2005) 92 ITD 358 / 92 TTJ 1067 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 199 : Deduction at source – Credit for tax deducted – Project completion method

Credit of TDS has to be given in the relevant previous year even though assessee follows project completion method of accounting. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Toyo Engg. India Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 373 (2006) 5 SOT 616 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 199 : Deduction at source – Credit for tax deducted – Shares registered – Original owner

Assessee having taken no steps for getting shares registered in its name, credit for TDS in the name of original owner cannot be allowed to assessee. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Kameshwari Finance & Leasing (P) Ltd. v Dy. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 461 / (2007) 109 ITD 173 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 199 : Deduction at source – Credit for tax deducted – Offering of income

Only when an assessee offers his income for assessment, he will be entitled to claim tax credit for tax deducted at source. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Tej Ram v. ITO (2005) 93 ITD 1 / 92 TTJ 1185 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 199 : Deduction at Source – Credit for tax deducted – Respective assessment year

Tax deducted at source in a particular assessment year should be given respective assessment year itself, as there is no provision in Act to divide TDS into different proportionate pieces and to give credit on basis whether entire income has been offered for assessment or not; tax deducted at source must be attributed to concerned assessment year and not to particular item or source of income. (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 1999-2000)

Pushpa Vijoy (Smt) v. ACIT (2005) 4 SOT 589 (Cochin)(Trib.)

Section 201 : Consequences of failure to deducted at source

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Fees for technical services – Matter Set-aside [S. 194J, 201(1A), 271C]

As the matter is remitted to Assessing Officer for examination by a technical expert and to decide a fresh. Department is not entitled to levy interest under section 201(1A), or impose penalty for non-deduction of TDS on the facts and circumstances of the case for the reasons that there is no loss of revenue as tax has been paid by the recipient and the moot question involved in the case is yet to be decided.

CIT v. Bharati Cellular Ltd. (2011) 330 ITR 239 / (2010) 44 DTR 190 / 193 Taxman 971 / 234 CTR 146 (SC)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Survey – Reasonable Cause

Though tax was deducted at source, assessee deposited it only after a survey took place. It was to be considered whether assessee was entitled to plead reasonable cause for not depositing tax. The matter was remitted back to High Court to consider whether there was a reasonable cause.

CIT v. Air Liquide India Golding (P) Ltd. (2008) 167 Taxman 221 (SC)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Limitation

When there was no period of limitation fixed for exercising power under section 201 at relevant point of time, there is no question of invoking a reasonable period of limitation for applying the provision of section 201. (A. Y. 2002-03).

Bhura Exports Ltd. v. ITO (2011) 202 Taxman 88 / (2012) 66 DTR 87 / 246 CTR 482 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Limitation

No limitation period can be read into the scheme of section 201, prior to April 2010 i.e. prior to insertion of sub-section (3) to section 201. (A. Y. 2002-03)

Bhura Exports v. ITO (2011) 202 Taxman 88 / (2012) 66 DTR 87 / 246 CTR 482 (Cal.)(High Court)

Editorial: This view is contrary to the Special Bench decision in Mahindra & Mahindra Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2009) 122 TTJ 577 / 30 SOT 374 / 22 DTR 361 (SB)(Mum.)(Trib.) where the Tribunal applied the time-limit under section 147 to take action under section 201.

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Interest – Salary – Unequal Deduction of tax [S. 192(1)]

Sub section (3) of section 192 permits the person obliged to deduct tax to make adjustments in case of excess or deficiency and also authorizes adjustment even in case of total failure to deduct tax during the financial year and therefore, assessee is not liable to pay interest under section 201(IA) for not deducting tax at source from salary payments in several months, when it has deducted tax in the remaining months. (A.Y. 2000-01)

CIT v. Enron Expat Services Inc (2010) 45 DTR 154 / 194 Taxman 70 / 235 CTR 198 / 327 ITR 626 (Uttarakhand)(High Court)

S. 201 : Deducting at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Tax paid by deductee

A person liable to deduct tax at source (Deductor) cannot be asked to pay tax where the deductee has already paid tax on the income received by him. Further, interest under section 201 (1A) of the Act could be charged to the deductor only upto the date on which the return of income declaring such income is filed by the deductee.

CIT v. Trans Bharat Aviation (P) Ltd. (2009) 27 DTR 151 / 225 CTR 415 / 184 Taxman 118 / (2010) 320 ITR 671 / (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 201 : Deducting at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Short deduction of tax

Short-deduction of tax from salary income, assessee company having received intimation from the expatriate employees as regards the payments received by them from the other employer only in the month of March, 2000, assessee company was not an assessee in default on account of short-deduction of TDS for the financial year 1998-99. Further, performance incentive being dependent on the performance of the employer company in a given financial year and the payment of such incentive being uncertain, assessee company is not an assessee in default on account of short-deduction of tax relatable to the payment of performance incentive and thus, interest under section 201(1A) is not chargeable. (A.Ys. 1999-2000 and 2001-02)

CIT v. Marubeni India (P) Ltd. (2007) 212 CTR 415 / 294 ITR 157 / 165 Taxman 467 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 201 : Deducting at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Interest

Period for which interest can be charged under section 201(1A) is 'from date on which such tax was deductible to the date on which such tax is actually paid' and, consequently, no interest beyond date of actual payment of tax can be charged. Section 201 does not state that tax should have been paid by assessee (deductor) alone, and tax may actually be paid by assessee or deductee. (A.Ys. 2000-01, 2001-02)

CIT v. Adidas India Marketing P. Ltd. (2006) 157 Taxman 519 / 206 CTR 499 / 288 ITR 379 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default

Where petitioner-company, having regional office at Kolkata had at its Kolkata office deducted tax at source from salary paid to employees at Balasore where also it had undertaken projects and also tax at source from payments made to sub-contractors at Balasore and deposited same with Department at Kolkata, no action could be taken by officer at Balasore under section 201 for non-deduction of tax at source.

Larsen & Toubro Ltd. v. ITO-cum-TRO (TDS) (2005) 278 ITR 369 / 149 Taxman 485 / 199 CTR 680 (Orissa)(High Court)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Interest – Mandatory

In sub section (1A) of section 201 it is provided that an 'assessee in default'. if he fails to pay after deduction, is liable to pay simple interest at 15% per annum on the amount of tax deductible from the date on which it was deductible till the date it is actually paid. Sub section (1A) is without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1). Therefore in order to interpret sub-section (1A), aid of section 221 is not material. The use of the expression 'shall' in sub-section (1A) makes liability to pay interest in circumstances mentioned therein mandatory.

Kanoi Industries (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2003) 261 ITR 488 / 182 CTR 427 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Non resident assessee

Where assessee-bank had claimed that interest income had been taxed in hands of assessee non-residents and for over 20 years, Department had made no effort to verify assessee's claim, Department could not treat assessee as assessee-in-default. (A.Ys. 1975-76, 1976-77)

CitiBank, N.A. v. CIT (2003) 132 Taxman 902 / 259 ITR 377 / 179 CTR 121 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Non-resident [S. 163, 195(2), 201(IA)]

The Assessing Officer asked the assessee to deduct the tax and remit the amount. The assessee approached the Court of Appeal in London for permission to deduct the tax at source from the award amount. Pending the stay the Court directed the assessee to remit the amount to escrow account maintained in names of both the parties. The entire amount was remitted as by court order. Indian tax authorities sought to proceed holding assessee in default under section 201(1)(IA). The Tribunal held that assessee could not be held to be assessee in default in terms of section 201(1) and 201(IA), as it was a case of impossibility of performance, and hence assessee would be released from obligation to deduct tax at source. (A. Y. 2001-02) National Aviation Co. of India v. Dy. CIT (2011) 43 SOT 362 / 137 TTJ 662 / 53 DTR 379 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Limitation – Tax duly paid by payee

Maximum time limit for initiating and completing the proceedings under section 201(1) has to be at par with the time limit available for initiating and completing the assessment / reassessment of the payee; impugned order under section 201(1) passed by the Assessing Officer within the period of six years from the end of the relevant assessment year is not time barred.

Person responsible for deduction tax cannot be treated as an assessee in default in respect of tax under section 201(1) if the payee has paid the tax directly. (A. Y. 2004-05)

ACIT v. Merchant Shipping Services (P) Ltd. (2011) 49 DTR 97 / 135 TTJ 589 / 129 ITD 109 / 8 ITR 1 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Burden of proof [S. 194I]

When assessee provided permanent account numbers of payees and confirmation from some of them. It is the duty of the assessing officer to verify payment of tax by payees. Treating the assessee as in default placing burden of proof wholly on it was not reasonable. (A. Ys. 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-10).

Vodafone Essar Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 9 ITR 182 / 135 TTJ 385 / 49 DTR 450 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Limitation – Four years from the end of financial year – Interest

The period of limitation for initiating proceedings is four years from the end of financial year in which notice issued. (A.Ys. 1998-99 to 2004-05)

Block Development Officer v. ITO (TDS) (2010) 5 ITR 426 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Limitation – Time limit – Four years or six years from the relevant assessment years

Maximum time limit for passing the order under section 201(1) or (1A), is the same as prescribed under section 149 i.e. Four years or six years from the end of the relevant assessment year, as the case may be, depending upon the amount of income in respect of which the person responsible is sought to be treated as assessee in default. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Dy. DIT v. Tata Iron & Steel Co. Ltd. (2010) 42 DTR 204 / 132 TTJ 566 / 6 ITR 463 / 42 DTR 204 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Tax paid by payee on income – Interest leviable

Payer not an assessee in default under section 201 if payee has paid tax on income but payer liable to interest under section 201(1A). (A.Y. 2004-05)

ITO v. Intel Tech India Pvt. Ltd., ITA No. 71/Bang/2009, dt. 9-4-2009 BCAJ P. 48, Vol. 41A, Part 6, September 2009 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Time limit for passing order

- (i) Where no time limit is prescribed then in that case order must be passed within a reasonable time.
- (ii) Sub-section (1) of sec. 201(1) or (1A) do not prescribe any time limit for initiation of proceedings or passing of order under section 201(1) or (1A). Under the statute time limit is provided for issuing notice for completion of assessment under section 143(2) and similarly time for issuing notice of reassessment has been set in section 149. As such, time limit for completion of assessment and reassessment has been provided under section 153 and similarly time limit has been provided for rectification order and for revision order under section 154 and under section 263 respectively.

But, it was held that order passed under section 195 r.w.s. 201(1) or 201(A) of the Act cannot be held as barred by limitation "in law", if it not passed within four years from end of the relevant financial year.

- (iii) Adverting to the facts of the assessee, that –
  - (a) no assessment had been made in the hands of payee in respect of the sum received from the assessee in respect of the Euro issues,
  - (b) similarly, no proceedings had been taken against it till date for assessing such income, and
  - (c) finding that time limit for issuing notice under section 148 had come to an end for the A.Y. 1998-99 held that no lawful order can be passed against the assessee either under section 201(1) or 201(1A) of the Act. Hence, it was held that that the order passed in the case of the assessee was invalid.

Mahindra and Mahindra Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2009) 313 ITR (AT) 263 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deducting tax at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Interest – Waiver

Interest under section 201(1A) not being penal in nature, the question of waiver of Interest on grounds such as reasonable cause, bonafide belief, unintentional, are irrelevant. (A. Y. 2000-01 to 2005-06)

G. M. Punjab Roadways v. ITO (2009) 178 Taxman 112 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deducting tax at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Interest – Short payment

Interest can be charged only up to the date of payment of tax by the payee. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Meena S. Patil (Mrs) v. ACIT (2008) 113 TTJ 863 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deducting tax at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Interest

Tax having been paid by payee, CIT (A) was justified in directing charging of interest from the date of deductibility of tax till payment by the payee. (A.Y. 2000-01, 2001-02)

ITO v. Kanha Vanaspati Ltd. (2007) 108 TTJ 816 / 13 SOT 286 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Contractor – Certificate for Lower rate of tax [S. 194C, 197(1)]

Assessee having not deducted tax under section 194C from the payments made to a company which related to the period before the certificate under section 197(1) issued to that company came into effect, Assessing Officer rightly treated the assessee as assessee-in-default under section 201(1) and charged interest under section 201(1A). (A.Y. 2001-02)

Sri Santhalakshmi Mills (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 1134 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Limitation – Beyond four years

Orders under sections 201(1) and 201(1A) passed beyond four years are held invalid on the ground of limitation. (A.Ys. 1988-89 to 1998-99)

NHK – Japan Broadcasting Corporation v. Dy. CIT (2006) 101 TTJ 292 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Contractor [S. 194C]

Assessee having deducted tax in accordance with the provisions of s. 194C, it could not be treated to be an assessee-in-default. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Eli Lilly & Co., (India) (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 461 (Delhi')(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Consequence – Time limit

The statute does not prescribe any time for passing any order under section 201. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Gujarat Ambuja Cements Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 784 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Time limit – Four years from the end of financial year

There is no infallible time-limit of four years from end of financial year in question in respect of every order under section 201(1) and 201(1A) made or to be made by Assessing Officer; no time-limit has been laid down for passing orders under section 201(1)/(1A). (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1993-94)

Thai Airways International Public Co. Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 2 SOT 389 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Speaking order

Assessing Officer is required to pass a speaking order for charging interest under section 201(1A). (A.Y. 1995-96)

Mittal Bhai Investment (P.) Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 92 TTJ 286 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Tax paid by recipient

If tax has already been paid by recipient of income, Revenue would not be justified in again demanding tax from person who was responsible to deduct tax at source but failed to do so. (A.Ys. 1985-86 to 1998-99)

Secretary, Municipal Committee, Sirsa v. ITO (2005) 97 TTJ 959 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Before close of financial year Interest – Salary [S. 192]

Where deficiency in deduction of tax at source under section 192 had been made good before close of financial year by person responsible for deducting tax at source, no interest was leviable for short deduction of tax at source. (A.Ys. 1998-99, 1999-2000)

Secretary, Board of Secondary Education, Rajasthan v. ITO (2005) 93 TTJ 256 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – No loss to exchequer – Penal interest

Merely because in preceding month, tax was deducted on higher side as increments were given to employees and there was no uniformity for deducting tax in each month, penal interest could not be levied when there was no loss to exchequer. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Grasim Industries Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 92 TTJ 944 / (2006) 153 Taxman 32 (Mag.)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – ESOP [S. 192]

Assessee can be said to have acted bonafide in not deducting TDS on benefit in the form of shares issued under ESOP as none of the CBDT circular prior to the insertion of clause (iiia) to sub-section (2) of section 17 had cast any liability to deduct tax on perquisite of such nature. (A.Y. 1997-98 to 1999-2000).

Wipro Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2003) 80 TTJ 106 (2004) 2 SOT 611 / 80 TTJ 106 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Non filing of form 15H – Penalty

ITO has no authority and jurisdiction to pass order under section 201(1) & (1A) levying penalty for failure to file declaration of payees in Form 15H.

ITO v. Sri Krishna Trading Co. (2003) SOT 436 (Cuttack)(Trib.)

S. 201 : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Non-resident – Recovery of TDS without service of notice of demand [S. 195]

Recovery of tax deductible under section 195(1) can be made even without the service of a notice of demand. An order under section 201(1) is for the purpose of declaring an assessee as an “assessee in default”. Legally, in the case of sec. 201 read with section 195, it is the failure to deduct the tax which invites an assessee with the liability of an “assessee in default”. The liability under section 195 or under section 201 is at no time ambulatory, but is attracted immediately upon the happening of an event, viz., the failure to deduct tax. There is no further requirement of computation or assessment. Once the liability is incurred, no further demand is necessary to recover the tax. Under the circumstances, the tax can be recovered from the assessee. (A.Y. 1998-99).

Raymond Ltd v. Dy. CIT (2003) 86 ITD 791 / 80 TTJ 120 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 201(1) : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Payee showing the sale consideration [S. 195, 201-IA]

Once the payee acknowledges the receipt of the sale consideration, filed the return assessing the said amounts in his hands and paid tax, which is accepted by the department, the payer ceases to be assessee in default. (A. Y. 2004-05).

CIT v. Intel Tech India (P) Ltd. (2011) 55 DTR 173 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 201(1) : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Demand notice [S. 156, 195, 200, 201(IA)]

Where section 201(1) is attracted there is no need of giving any demand notice under section 156, and if any such notice is given the same should be held to be redundant. Provisions of section 195, 200 and 201, when conjointly read, deal with a liability which at no point of time, depends on passing any order under the Act but is attracted immediately upon the happening of the default mentioned therein, i.e., failure to deduct tax or failure to credit the sum as required by section 200. As soon as such failure occurs liability arises automatically and there is no further requirement of computation or reassessment or service of notice of demand under section 156. (A. Y. 1995-96).

Pilcom v. CIT (2011) 55 DTR 209 / 243 CTR 511 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 201(1) : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Consequences – Assessee in default – Time limit

Time limit for treating deductor as in default, is maximum time limit available for initiating and completing reassessment. On the facts as the order passed by the Assessing Officer was within six years from the end of the relevant assessment year, the order passed by the Assessing Officer was not time barred. (A. Y. 2004-05).

ACIT v. Merchant Shipping Services (2011) 8 ITR 1 / 135 TTJ 589 / 129 ITD 109 / 49 DTR 97 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 201(1A) : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Interest – Assessee in default – Profits in lieu of salary – Tips collected and paid to employees [S. 2(24), 15, 17(1)(iv), 17(3), 192, 201, 273B]

Payment of banquet and restaurant tips to the employees of assessee in its capacity as employer constitutes salary within the meaning of section 15 read with section 17(3). Assessee is considered as assessee in default for non-deduction of tax at source on account of banquet and restaurant tips collected by its employees and was liable to interest under section 201(1A). In the given circumstances no under section 201 could be charged, however levy of interest under section 201(1A), is neither treated as penalty nor has the said provision been included in section 273B to make reasonableness of the cause for the failure to deduct a relevant consideration, hence, there is no question of waiver of such interest on the basis that default was not intentional or any other basis. (A. Ys. 1999-2000 to 2005-06).

CIT v. ITC Ltd. (2011) 59 DTR 312 / 243 CTR 114 / 199 Taxman 412 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 201(1A) : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Interest – Assessee in default

Interest under section 201(1A), is leviable where recipient is a loss making company. In such case interest under section 201(1A) has to be calculated from date on which tax should have been deducted to date on which payee should have filed its return under provisions of Act. Circular No. 275/201/95-IT(B) dated 29-1-1997. (A. Y. 2002-03).

CIT v. Chennai Metropolitan Water Supply & Sewerage Board (2011) 202 Taxman 454 / 64 DTR 395 / (2012) 246 CTR 402 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 201(1A) : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Interest – Retrospective amendment [S. 194A]

In view of the retrospective amendment of section 201 w.e.f. 1st June, 2002, by Finance Act, 2008, all persons who were liable to deduct tax at source under section 194A are liable to pay interest under section 201(1A) if they have not deducted the amount; assessee's liability ceases from the day the creditor pays the tax. (A. Ys. 2004-05 to 2006-07).

Solar Automobiles India (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 64 DTR 34 / (2012) 204 Taxman 667 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 201(1A) : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Interest payment by cheque – Delay by collecting bank

Assessee having deposited the TDS for June 2008, vide pay order dated 4th July 2008, in the authorized bank and the latter having collected the same on 7th July, 2008, which was the due date for payment of said TDS, it cannot be said that there was a default on the part of the assessee simply because the amount was credited to the Central Government by the bank on 8th July 2008, and therefore, interest under section 201(1A) was not chargeable. (A. Y. 2009-10).

ICIC I Bank Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 58 DTR 284 / 141 TTJ 380 (Luck.)(Trib.)

S. 201(1A) : Deduction at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Unequal deduction – Salary [S. 192]

If there were bonafide reasons in deducting a lesser tax during the earlier months of financial year and is made good immediately after noticing such short fall, then section 192(3), would save the employer from liability of making payment of interest under section 201(1A); however, if the Assessing Officer finds that employer has taken the deduction casually during the earlier months of the financial year, by not deducting the tax at the end of the financial year, then interest can be charged. (A. Y. 2004-05).

Madhya Gujarat Vij Co. Ltd. v. ITO (2011) 64 DTR 127 / 133 ITD 89 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 201(1A) : Deducting tax at source – Failure to deduct or pay – Assessee in default – Interest

Interest under section 201(1A) is chargeable from the date of deduction of tax at source to the date of completion of assessment of the payees or upto the actual date of payment of TDS, whichever is earlier, and where no assessment has been made, upto the date of processing of return under section 143(1)(a). (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 1999-2000)

ITO v. Labh Construction & Industries Ltd. (2006) 103 TTJ 269 / 8 SOT 475 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

Section 205 : Bar against direct demand on assessee

S. 205 : Deduction at source – Bar against direct demand – Rent – Tenant [S. 194-I]

Tenant has deducted tax from rent payable as per section 194-I, but has not paid it to Government, revenue is to be definitely restrained in terms of section 205 from enforcing any demand on landlord insofar as demand with reference to amount of tax which has been deducted by tenant to assessee is concerned; only course open to revenue is to recover amount from very person (tenant) who has deducted and not from landlord

Anusuya Alva (Smt) v. Dy. CIT (2005) 278 ITR 206 / 147 Taxman 152 / 197 CTR 37 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 205 : Deduction at source – Bar against direct demand – Rent – Certificate without date [S. 194-I]

Credit for tax deducted at source must be given to the assessee, though the certificate furnished by the deductor has not shown the date of payment to Central Government.

(A.Y. 2004-05)

Ahlwallia and Associates v. ITO (2010) 2 ITR 582 / (2009) 123 TTJ 972 / 26 DTR 109 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 205 : Deduction at source – Bar against direct demand – Non issue of TDS certificate

Tax at source had been deducted from assessee's salary but no TDS certificate was issued to assessee by employer despite repeated requests by assessee. In view of section 205, income-tax authorities, under no circumstances, could make assessee liable to make payment of any tax to extent to which such tax had been deducted at source by person paying salary to assessee.

Capt. J.G. Joseph v. Jt. CIT (2005) 92 ITD 358 / 92 TTJ 1067 / (2008) 303 ITR 395 (AT)(Mum.)(Trib.)

BB. Collection at source

Section 206C : Profits and gains from the business of trading in alcoholic liquor, forest produce, scrap, etc.

S. 206C : Collection at source – Trading – Alcoholic liquor – Forest produce – Scrap – Tax paid by buyer – Remand

If in a given case assessee had not collected tax under section 206C from buyer, before proceeding against assessee, it is necessary to find out whether buyer has paid tax in accordance provisions of Act and only in event buyer has not paid tax then the authorities can proceed against assessee, who was under obligation to collect tax and remit to Government. Matter remanded. (A. Ys. 2004-05 and 2005-06).

Sree Manjunatha Wines v. CIT (2011) 202 Taxman 620 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 206C : Collection at source – Trading – Alcoholic liquor – Wholesaler – Subsequence – Sale

The assessee a wholesaler in liquor purchased liquor from the distilleries and sold the liquor. The assessee being first buyer, on subsequent sale was not liable to collect tax at source under section 206C(6) of the Act.

CIT v. Vira Singh & Co. (2007) 199 Taxation 112 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 206C : Collection at source – Trading – Forest produce – Meaning of

In order to attract provisions of section 206C, one has to examine whether items sold are forest produce or not. (A.Ys. 1988-89 to 1993-94)

A.P. Forest Dev. Corpn. Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 272 ITR 245 / 144 Taxman 51 / 195 CTR 81 (AP)(High Court)

S. 206C : Collection at source – Trading – Alcoholic liquor – Excise duty

Since purchase price of liquor is inclusive of excise duty, tax will be recoverable under section 206C on actual price paid by buyer inclusive of tax and excise duty.

Vinod Rathore v. Union of India (2005) 278 ITR 122 / 146 Taxman 32 / 195 CTR 210 (MP)(High Court)

S. 206C : Collection at source – Trading – Forest produce – Timber – Teak poles, teak billets – Jungle wood

Teak poles, teak billets, jungle wood etc., in question were timber, and respondent deducted the tax at 5 %.

P.S. Sajan v. Range Officer (2004) 135 Taxman 452 / 186 CTR 309 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 206C : Collection at source – Trading – Alcoholic liquor – Excise duty – Sale price

For purpose of section 206C, sale price of liquor excludes excise duty.

Harvansh & Sons v. UOI (2003) Tax LR 716 (MP)(High Court)

S. 206C : Collection at source – Trading – Alcoholic liquor – Retailer – Distilleries – Country liquor

Where distilleries supplied country liquor to retailers holding a valid licence at a price fixed by State, and retailer had to sell at a price fixed by the Government, section 206C had no application.

Sir Shadi Lai Enterprises Ltd. v. Union of India (2003) 262 ITR 166 / 130 Taxman 563 / 185 CTR 626 (All.)(High Court)

S. 206C : Collection at source – Trading – Forest produce – Tax paid by purchaser

As per the provision of section 206C(6), the liability in respect of Tax collection at source is fastened upon the person engaged in collection of forest produce and selling them whether or not he collects the Tax collection at source as per provision of section 206C(1) and therefore, the contention that the assessee should not be made liable to pay the Tax collection at source on the impugned sales, since the purchasers have already paid the tax thereon was not sustainable. Accordingly the assessee was made liable to pay the demand. (A. Y. 2005-06).

Girijan Co-op. Corporation Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 64 DTR 433 / 47 SOT 323 / (2012) 143 TTJ 256 (Visakha)(Trib.)

C. Advance payment of tax

Section 209 : Computation of Advance tax

S. 209 : Advance tax – Computation – Deduction at source – Interest Salary [S. 234B]

Once the entire income received was by way of salary and same being liable to TDS, assessee is not required to pay Advance Tax as per provisions of section 209 (1) (d), and therefore levy of Interest under section 234B is not justified on account of shortfall or due to non-deduction.

Dy. CIT v. Western Geco International Ltd. (2008) 172 Taxman 41 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 210 : Payment of advance tax by the assessee of his own accord or in pursuance of order of Assessing officer

S. 210 : Advance tax – Payment order of Assessing Officer – Interest – Estimate – Form No. 28A

The assessee was liable to pay advance tax only on the basis of the income estimated by it in Form No. 28A filed under sub section (5) of section 210. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Punjab Tractors Ltd. v. ACIT (2004) 137 Taxman 211 / 267 ITR 229 / 188 CTR 275 (P&H)(High Court)

Section 214 : Interest payable by Government (upto Assessment year 1988-89)

S. 214 : Advance tax – Interest payable by Government – Refund – Wrongly withheld by the Government

The Supreme Court recognized the principle that a person should be taxed in accordance with law. Any amount wrongly withheld by the Government is required to be compensated. The assessee was granted interest on refund after substantial lapse of time; the Supreme Court held that the assessee is entitled to claim interest on such delayed payment of interest. (A.Ys. 1977-78 to 1982-83)

Sandvik Asia Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 280 ITR 643 / 150 Taxman 591 / 200 CTR 505 / 193 Taxation 163 (SC) / 2 SCC 508

S. 214 : Advance tax – Interest payable by Government – Actual date on which refund of advance tax was ordered

The High Court following the decision of Apex Court in the case of Modi Industries Ltd. v. CIT [(1995) 216 ITR 759 (SC)] held that assessee was entitled to interest under section 214 of the Act from the prescribed date to the actual date on which refund of advance tax was ordered. (A.Y. 1977-78)

CIT v. P. K. Industries (2008) 6 DTR 37 / 316 ITR 155 / 172 Taxman 79 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 214 : Advance tax – Interest payable by Government – Refund – Order u/s. 250

The assessee was entitled to receive interest under section 214 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 on the amount of refund due as per order under section 250 of the Act also.

Ultramarine and Pigments Ltd. v. O.P. Srivastava, CIT (2006) 192 Taxation 719 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 214 : Advance tax – Interest payable by Government – Refund – Regular assessment

[S. 244(1A)]

Under section 214 the assessee would be entitled to interest on advance tax from 1st April of the relevant assessment year to the date of regular assessment under section 143 or 144 and not on the revised assessment order pursuant to appellate order. If any further amount was found refundable as a result of any appellate or other order, then interest under section 244(1A) is payable on amount of refund. But interest is not payable under both the sections 214 and 244(1A) simultaneously. (A.Ys. 1972-73 to 1976-77)

CIT v. Udhoji Shri Krishandas (2004) 136 Taxman 465 / 268 ITR 244 / 189 CTR 26 (FB)(MP)(High Court)

S. 214 : Advance tax – Interest payable by Government – Refund – Regular assessment

[S. 243]

Where no refund was made out after first regular assessment framed under section 143/144 and it was only in consequences of the decisions of the AAC and subsequent order giving effect assessment order that refund became due and the same was paid in very next month after the month in which final assessment order was made, no interest on refund was payable. (A.Y. 1973-74)

Punjab State Warehousing Corporation v. CIT (2003) 264 ITR 597 / (2004) 138 Taxman 48 / 186 CTR 247 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 214 : Advance tax – Interest payable by Government – Refund – Deduction at source

Interest under section 214 is not payable to assessee on the amount of excess "tax deducted at source" by the assessee and paid to the Department.

CIT v. Aravali Construction Co. (P.) Ltd. (2003) 133 Taxman 53 / 185 CTR 464 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 214 : Advance tax – Interest payable by Government – Refund [S. 143(3), 251]

Assessee entitled to receive interest under section 214(1A), on difference between advance tax and assessed income under section 251 from the first day of assessment year till date of passing regular assessment under section 143(3). (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1988-89)

Dy. CIT v. Simbholi Sugar Mills Ltd. (2010) 6 ITR 247 (Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 215 : Interest payable by assessee (upto Assessment year 1988-89)

S. 215 : Advance tax – Interest payable by assessee – Rule 40 – Waiver of interest

The mere fact that the delay in completion of the assessment was occasioned because of Search conducted by the Revenue at the premises of the assessee would not per se show that the assessee was responsible for delaying the proceedings which must be indicated in the order refusing to reduce or waive the interest charged. (A.Y. 1972-73)

Brig. Anant Singh v. CIT (2003) 261 ITR 335 / 182 CTR 377 / 133 Taxman 799 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 215 : Advance tax – Interest payable by assessee – Regular assessment

Interest under section 215 can be levied on finally determined reassessed Income, but only up to the date of regular assessment. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1988-89)

ACIT v. Jayendra Kr. Doshi (2003) 79 TTJ 482 / 132 Taxman 222 (Mag.)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 215 : Advance tax – Interest payable by assessee – Reassessment

No Interest under section 215/217 can be levied in re-assessment, when in original assessment under section 143(1) no Interest was charged.

ITO v. Mukesh Kumar (2003) SOT 499 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

Section 216 : Interest payable by assessee in case of under-estimate, etc. (upto Assessment year 1988-89)

S. 216 : Advance tax – Interest payable by assessee in case of under estimate – Not deliberate

Since there was no finding given by the Assessing Officer that the assessee deliberately under estimated its income as also the advance tax payable thereon in the first two instalments, no finding about any default committed by the assessee in this regard had been given by Assessing Officer and hence, no interest under section 216 was leviable. (A.Y. 1977-78)

CIT v. Mahindra & Mahindra Ltd. (2006) 284 ITR 679 / 200 CTR 28 / 150 Taxman 451 (Bom.) (High Court)

S. 216 : Advance tax – Interest payable by assessee in case of under estimate – Explanation

Since the assessee had underestimated advance tax payable by it and had not given any satisfactory explanation for the same, the Tribunal was right in holding that interest under section 216 was rightly charged. (A.Y. 1982-83)

Baroda Electric Meters Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 128 Taxman 72 / 184 CTR 134 (Guj.)(High Court)

Section 217 : Interest payable by assessee when no estimate made (upto Assessment year 1988-89)

S. 217 : Advance tax – Interest payable by assessee when no estimate made – Failure to file

The requirement of submitting a statement under the provisions of section 209 of the Act is for the purpose of paying advance tax and furnishing the basis to the assessing authority on which the advance tax is paid. Thus where there is a failure on the part of assessee to file estimate of advance tax, the assessee was liable to pay interest under section 217 of the Act.

CIT v. Aesthetic Builders (2006) Tax L. R. 50 / 283 ITR 283 / 203 CTR 434 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 217 : Advance tax – Interest payable by assessee when no estimate made – Original assessment

Interest under section 216 and 217 has to be charged only up to the date of original assessment and not up to the date of reassessment since regular assessment is the first order of assessment passed under section 143 or 144. (A.Ys. 1986-87 & 87-88)

Jaipur Bottling Co. v. ACIT, I.T.A. Nos. 473 & 472/JP/2000, dated 25th January, 2006 - (Tax World – June 2006 – Vol XXXV – P. 157) (Jp.)(Trib.)

D. Collection and recovery

Section 220 : When tax payable and when assessee deemed in default

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Waiver Interest – Genuine hardship

The provision for levy of interest for non-payment of tax within time has to be interpreted by the principle of purposive construction and the same principle has to be applied for the purpose of determining whether any hardship has been caused or not. The ingredients of genuine hardship must be determined by the dictionary meaning thereof and the legal conspectus attending thereto. The Supreme Court then send the matter back to the Commissioner for fresh consideration in view of the findings of the Supreme Court.

As the department had failed to consider genuine hardship and the circumstances which were beyond the control of the Assessee which CIT having failed the consider, the matter was remitted to CIT to reconsider relating wavier of interest as per provision of section 220(2A) afresh. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1995-96)

B. M. Malani v. CIT (2008) 306 ITR 196 / 219 CTR 313 / 174 Taxman 363 / 13 DTR 186 (SC)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Recovery of tax – Settlement Commission [S. 245D]

Recovery of tax is not automatically barred by law on filing an application for settlement of a case. Recovery proceedings will continue until Commission allows application for settlement.

CIT v. Damani Brothers (2003) 259 ITR 475 / 173 Taxation 40 / 179 CTR 362 (SC)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – When tax payable – Interest

For the assessment year 1994-95, the assessment was completed under section 143(3) on 28-2-1997. The original assessment order was set aside by Tribunal and fresh assessment order was passed on 24-12-2006. Assessing Officer held that the Interest under section 220(2) to commence after thirty days from the date of service of the original demand notice dated 28-2-1997. Tribunal held that interest would be applicable on the demand notice pursuant to fresh assessment order i.e. 24-12-2006 and question of demanding interest for the period prior to 24-2-2006 does not arise. Order of Tribunal was confirmed by High Court.

CIT v. Chika Oversea Pvt. Ltd. (2012) 247 CTR 134 / 66 DTR 398 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest – Notice of demand – If original demand not fully paid, interest payable even for period when demand was not in existence [S. 156]

The Assessing Officer passed an assessment order and raised a demand of ` 21.24 lakhs of which ` 10.50 lakhs was paid by the assessee and the balance of ` 10.94 was stayed. On 20.5.1998, the CIT(A) allowed the appeal of the assessee and no demand remained payable by the assessee. The Assessing Officer refunded the taxes paid by the assessee. Subsequently, the Tribunal reversed the order of the CIT(A). The Assessing Officer gave effect to the Tribunal's order on 30.7.2004 and charged interest under section 220(2) for the entire period. The assessee filed a Writ Petition claiming that it was not liable to pay interest for the period from 20.5.1998 to 30.7.2004 (6y 3M) when the CIT(A)'s order was operative and no sum was due from it. HELD by the High Court:

Section 220(2) provides for levy of interest if the demand is not paid within 30 days of the service of notice under section 156. A distinction has to be drawn between a case where the assessee pays up the entire demand raised pursuant to the assessment order within the period specified in section 156, wins in appeal and the amount is refunded and subsequently loses in further appeal and has to repay the taxes. In such a case, as the assessee is not in default in the first instance, no interest under section 220(2) is payable for the period when the favourable verdict of the appellate authority was operative. However, if the assessee has not paid up the entire tax within the specified period, it is liable to pay interest under section 220(2) from that date on the unpaid amount and any variation in the amount of the demand favourable to the assessee which was directed by any of the appellate authorities in the interregnum has no effect on the liability of the assessee to pay the interest. On facts, as the assessee had paid only a part of the demand at the first stage, it was held liable to pay interest for the entire period including the period when the favourable CIT(A)'s order was operative though no interest was payable on the section 244A interest. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Girnar Investment Ltd. v. CIT (2012) 340 ITR 529 / 204 Taxman 569 / 67 DTR 329 / 247 CTR 509 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – When tax payable – Waiver of interest

Petition for waiver of interest under section 220(2) can be filed even after interest has been paid by the assessee. (A.Y. 1993-94).

Jewellers Om prakash v. CCIT (2011) 202 Taxman 71 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – When tax payable – Stay – Appeal pending before Commissioner (Appeals) – Writ [Art. 226, 227, Constitution of India]

Writ petition filed by the assessee seeking stay of recovery of demand during the pendency of appeal before the Commissioner (Appeal) is not maintainable, however, Commissioner (Appeal) is directed to decide the appeal expeditiously, preferably within a period of three months. (A. Y. 2007-08).

Countrywide Buildrstate (P) Ltd. v. UOI (2011) 63 DTR 343 / (2012) 247 CTR 623 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – When tax payable – Stay – Money stashed abroad – Russia-England – Certificate recovery officer [S. 222]

Assessee declared money received from a Russian company, kept abroad in a bank account in London in a clandestine manner, only in the revised returns and not in their original returns and there being no bar or restriction on transfer of that money or remittance thereof from Russia to India, assessee is not entitled to protection or benefit of section 220(7) and stay of recovery. (A. Ys. 2004-05, 2005-06 and 2006-07).

Ravina & Associates (P) Ltd. & Anr. v. CIT (2011) 245 CTR 45 (Delhi)(High Court)

Ravina Khurana v. CIT (2011) 245 CTR 45 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Demand notice

For invoking the provisions section 220 of the Act and recovering tax from the assessee the assessing officer is required to serve upon the assessee the demand notice under section 156 of the Act, specifying the amount of tax to be recovered, as well as mentioning the place and name of the person from whom the tax is to be recovered. In absence of service of demand notice on the assessee the very foundation of the recovery proceedings is vitiated and recovery proceedings initiated against the assessee were quashed.

Saraswati Moulding Works v. CIT & Ors. (2010) 46 DTR 25 / 236 CTR 121 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest – Set aside

Where the assessment order is set aside in appeal and the same is subsequently affirmed in appeal, interest under section 220(2) of the Act cannot be levied till the demand is raised afresh.

CIT v. Samurai Software (P) Ltd. (2010) 48 DTR 167 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Stay – Garnishee Notices

Garnishee notice even after stay of demand by CIT was not valid, further CIT was not justified in rejecting stay for one year without giving proper reasons and ignoring the principle laid by the Court. (A.Ys. 2008-09 to 2010-11)

Paramount Heath Services (TPA) (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 37 DTR 377 / 237 CTR 153 / 202 CTR 288 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed to be in default – Stay

Where the Assessing Officer passed the assessment order completely ignoring the registration garneted by the DIT (E) under section 12 AA of the Income-tax Act, 1961, granted the order so passed by the Assessing Officer was held to be without jurisdiction and the High Court also directed the Assessing Officer to stay recovery proceedings in pursuance of the said assessment order till the disposal of the appeal by the appellate authority before whom the assessee's appeal was pending. (A.Y. 2007-08)

Ahmedabad Urban Development Authority v. Dy. DIT (E) (2010) 40 DTR 76 / 233 CTR 407 / 335 ITR 575 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Penal Interest – Waiver

Discretion to waive interest should be exercised judicially. The order should give reasons and rejection of application for waiver, without giving reasons, is held to be not valid.

Mani v. CIT (2010) 320 ITR 472 / 231 CTR 453 / 190 Taxman 417 / 38 DTR 233 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest – Waiver

Where the CIT has not addressed to the conditions contemplated in section 220(2A) of the Act, while refusing the assessee's request for waiver of interest under section 220 of the Act, matter was remanded back to the CIT for considering the request of the assessee afresh.

Polyfex (India) P. Ltd. v. DGIT (Inv.) & Anr. (2009) 30 DTR 54 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Attachment by TRO

The powers of Tax Recovery Officer under rule 11 of Second Schedule relate only to properties ostensibly and apparently owned by assessee. If the property is ostensibly and apparently in name of third party, then if income tax authorities claim that said property is actually possessed or owned by assessee in default, they shall have to establish their claim in civil court.

Darshana Aggarwal (Smt) v. TRO (2008) 173 Taxman 90 / 215 CTR 419 / 302 ITR 82 / 1 DTR 454 (HP)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Stay

The stay application filed under section 220(6) should be disposed of by passing a speaking order giving consideration to relevant factors, as required by law and as mentioned in Instruction No. 1914 issued by CBDT. (A.Y. 2005-06)

Subhash Chander Sehgal v. Dy. CIT (2008) 173 Taxman 412 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Stay – Attachment of bank account

Where assessee files an application for stay when the appeal is pending before the CIT(A), unless the Assessing Officer rejects the application, he cannot direct for attaching the assessee's bank account. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Dr. T. K. Shanmugasundaram v. CIT and others (2008) 303 ITR 387 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest

Where fresh assessment order is passed in pursuance of the order of the Tribunal, interest under section 220(2) of the Act should be charged / computed only from the due date of demand notice issued for the fresh assessment order and not from the original assessment order.

CIT v. Rajesh Kumar Dinesh Kumar (2008) 15 DTR 182 / 221 CTR 78 / 325 ITR 346 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Waiver of interest

For the purpose of granting waiver of interest chargeable under section 220 of the Act, all the three conditions prescribed in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of section 220(2A) may not be cumulatively satisfied by the assessee. (A.Ys. 1992-1993 to 1995-96)

M.V. Amar Shetty v. CCIT (2008) 12 DTR 98 / 219 CTR 141 / 309 ITR 93 / 177 Taxman 186 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Waiver – Interest

Continued losses with genuine hardship and unavoidable circumstances and the assessee burdened with PF, ESI liabilities leading to default. CIT misdirected to a wrong conclusion. Matter set aside.

Common Wealth Trust (India) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT & Ors (2006) 200 CTR 45 / 280 ITR 70 / 149 Taxman 648 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Waiver – Penalty

Waiver or reduction of interest and/or Penalty – When assurance is given by the Department to consider waiver of interest and penalty to the assessee, the order denying the said relief is bad-in-fact which deserve to be set aside for reconsideration. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Sangram Singh Mehta & Ors. v. ITO & Ors. (2006) 200 CTR 93 / 196 ITR 483 / 150 Taxman 641 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Stay – Prima facie

Stay – Non consideration of prima facie case of the Appellant resulted in passing the order without application of mind and must be set aside. Interim stay granted against recovery of penalty till the disposal of appeal pending before the Tribunal. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Fountainhead Communications Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2006) 205 CTR 415 / 285 CTR 36 / 164 Taxman 426 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Transfer of property – Schedule II, Rule 11

Dispute as to whether the defaulter had transferred the property prior to issuance of notice under rule 2 of Second Schedule of the Act or thereafter can be conveniently adjudicated in a suit under rule 11(6) of the Second Schedule. Such disputed facts cannot be decided in a writ proceeding under Article 226 of the Constitution.

Siby Jose v. T.R.O., J.C. Augustine & Ors. (2006) 195 Taxation 46 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Notice of demand

For reducing period of 30 days for payment of demand specified in notice of demand, as per proviso to section 220(1), grounds as to previous history of petitioner in disputing its liability and delay in payment of tax and assessee's financial position are wholly irrelevant. Where from facts, action of Assessing Officer in reducing period of 30 days to one day for payment of amount specified in notice of demand appeared to have been taken in haste and most arbitrary manner just to pre-empt and foreclose option available to petitioner to approach higher authority for grant of interim relief, such action was unsustainable. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Farrukhabad Gramin Bank v. Addl. CIT (2005) 277 ITR 320 / 197 CTR 366 / 148 Taxman 38 (All.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Notice of demand

Where reasons which persuaded Assessing Officer to reduce period of 30 days to 7 days for payment of demand under section 156 as per proviso to section 220(1), were that it had been gathered that petitioner-company was winding up its manufacturing activity in country and, secondly, that it had not paid any advance tax on due dates, and it was clear that those reasons were factually incorrect, in facts and circumstances of case, reasons to believe that grant of full period of 30 days for payment of tax to assessee would be detrimental to revenue, were mere assumptions rather than a reality as reflected from records produced before Court and thus, order-cum-direction issued by Assessing Officer reducing period for payment of tax demand raised upon assessee under section 156, was to be quashed. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Sony India Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 276 ITR 278 / 146 Taxman 98 / 196 CTR 81 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Waiver of Interest

Under section 220(2A), discretion conferred upon Commissioner to waive or reduce interest is circumscribed by three conditions and where material on record showed that assessee had not fulfilled two of those conditions, rejection of prayer for waiver of interest payable was justified. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Raasi Cement Ltd. v. CIT (No. 3) (2005) 275 ITR 585 / 156 Taxman 74 (AP)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Waiver of Interest – Speaking order

Whenever an application is filed under section 220(2A) seeking waiver of interest, same should be decided by authority by speaking order. (A.Y. 1980-81)

Auro Food Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 276 ITR 658 / 198 CTR 585 / 153 Taxman 216 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Stay of Recovery – Appeal pending

Stay of recovery of proceedings where assessee's application for interim relief under section 220(6) was pending before Assessing Officer and appellate authority, was to be granted. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Satish Chand Jain v. ITO (2005) 142 Taxman 500 (All.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Certificate proceedings – Official liquidator [S. 222]

Where funds lying with Official Liquidator were meant for purpose of repayment to innocent depositors, same could not be made available to Income-tax Authorities towards any liability of appellants in question by exercising powers conferred under section 530 of Companies Act.

S. Rajalakshmi v. Official Liquidator (2005) 272 ITR 257 / 145 Taxman 89 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Certificate proceedings

[S. 222]

It is not obligatory to apply Second and Third Schedules of the Income-tax Act and the Rules while investigating a claim or objection to attachment and sale during course of execution of recovery certificate under the Recovery of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993.

Keshrimal Jivji Shah v. Bank of Maharashtra (2005) 273 ITR 451 / 193 CTR 229 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – SICA [S. 226]

Where assessee has been declared a sick company and an appeal under SICA is pending before appellate authority, it is obligatory for Assistant Commissioner to apply for necessary consent from appellate authority before taking any execution proceedings against sick company for realizing amount due to department

Punalur Paper Mills Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 274 ITR 475 / 145 Taxman 35 / 194 CTR 204 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Appellate order

When a fresh demand notice is issued in pursuance of a fresh assessment order as a result of the appellate order, interest is payable only when amount is not paid as per the fresh demand in view of the clear language used in section 220(2). (A.Y. 1984-85)

B. Indra Rani (Smt) v. CIT (2004) 134 Taxman 428 / 271 ITR 570 / 186 CTR 220 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest waiver

Co-operation in proceedings

If the assessee co-operates, shows the genuine hardship, circumstances beyond control then only the petition for waiver of interest will be satisfied and entertained. (A.Y. 1985-86)

New United Construction Co v. CIT (2004) 140 Taxman 478 / 270 ITR 224 / 189 CTR 411 (Jharkhand)(High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest – Company Court – Overriding effect

Power of the Company Court under section 446(2)(h) of Companies Act, 1956 overrides any other law, more particularly section 220(2). (A.Ys. 1972-73 to 1997-98)

Catholic Centre v. Pilot Pen Co. (India) (P.) Ltd. (2003) 259 ITR 252 / 131 Taxman 437 / 186 CTR 562 (Mad.) (High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest – Order giving effect

Where as a result of consequential order giving effect to appellate order, amount of tax payable became nil and thus notice of demand issued earlier became a dead letter, no interest under section 220(2) was leviable. (A.Y. 1976-77)

Seshasayee Paper & Boards Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 128 Taxman 539 / 260 ITR 419 / 181 CTR 457 (Mad.) (High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Stay of Recovery – Discretion

Discretion under section 220(6) has to be exercised judicially.

Shivangi Steels (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2003) 133 Taxman 403 / 192 CTR 573 / 266 ITR 62 / 192 CTR 573 (All.) (High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Stay of Recovery – Appeal

Mere filing of appeal does not constitute stay of demand.

Gulam Momen v. ACIT (2003) 263 ITR 69 / 132 Taxman 826 / 185 CTR 78 (Cal.) (High Court)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – When tax payable – Stay – Appellate Tribunal [S. 254(1)]

Assessing Officer and CIT(A) has disallowed the expenses under section 40(a)(ia), mainly relying on the decision of Karnataka High Court which now stands overruled by the Supreme Court and liquidity being not favourable, the entire demand is stayed till the disposal of assessee's appeal by the Tribunal or for a period of six months which ever is earlier.

(A. Y. 2007-08).

Softcell Technologies Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2011) 49 DTR 129 / 135 TTJ 249 (Mum.) (Trib.)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Pendency of Appeal before Tribunal – Stay [S. 222]

Quantum appeal was pending before the Tribunal. Dy. CIT refused stay further without giving any reason. Department was directed to refrain from coercive proceedings for recovery till the disposal of the application made before Additional CIT. (A.Y. 2004-05)

ONGC Videsh Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2010) 37 DTR 158 / 123 ITD 179 / 12 DTR 187 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest – Intervening Period

The Assessing Officer is not justified in charging interest for the intervening period when the CIT(A) allowed the appeal in favour of the assessee till the Tribunal allowed the appeal in favour of the revenue. (A. Y. 1995-96 & 1996-97)

ACIT v. The Southern Paradise and Stud Developers Pvt. Ltd., ITA Nos. 2135 & 2136/Mum/2008, dt. 27-5-2009. BCAJ P. 30, Vol. 41-A, Part 5, August 2009. (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest – Undisclosed income [158BC, 158BD, 140A(3)]

Assessment having been made of the first time under section 143(3) r/w s. 158BC/158BD, even though the assessee did not pay tax on returned undisclosed income under section 140A(3), there being no notice of demand issued under section 156, no interest could be charged under section 220(2).

Pedda Sankara Rao & Ors. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 424 (Visakha)(Trib.)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest

For charging interest under section 220(2), notice under section 156 is pre-condition and second condition is that there must be default of this notice.

ACIT v. Mohan Lal Swarnkar (Dr) (2005) 95 TTJ 969 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest

For charging interest under section 220(2), assessee must be found to be in default; further, an assessee will not be an assessee-in-default if assessment has been set aside by the appellate authority for being made de novo; hence, no interest under section 220(2) can be charged till the period when fresh assessment is made, fresh demand notice is issued, and statutory time-period for making the payment has expired. (A.Ys. 1978-79 to 1980-81)

Addl. CIT v. Hindalco Industries Ltd. (2005) 4 SOT 757 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest

Where assessee has not paid interest under sections 217 and 234B which is included in demand notice issued under section 156, assessee is liable to pay interest under section 220(2) even on interest levied under sections 217 and 234B.

Shriram Chits & Investments (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 2 SOT 838 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Stay

Where assessee sought stay of demand alleging that it had been created by department to take revenge, keeping in view overall situation an early hearing was to be granted in appeals in relation to which those stay applications had been filed and till such time, it was ordered that department shall not take any coercive steps for recovery in question. (A.Ys. 1994-95 to 1999-2000)

S. R. Giri (Dr) v. ITO (2005) 94 TTJ 764 / 149 Taxman 33 (Mag.)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Interest

Where order of Commissioner (Appeals) in favour of assessee is reversed by Tribunal, in terms of Circular No. 334, dated 3-4-1982, interest payable under section 220(2) would be computed only with reference to due date reckoned from original demand notice as well as with reference to tax finally determined in view of order of Tribunal; and intervening period when order of Commissioner (Appeals) in favour of assessee creating no demand against assessee was under operation, was not liable to be excluded. (A.Y. 1990-91 to 1993-94)

Agya Ram v. ITO (2005) 4 SOT 398 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 220 : Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Recording of reasons – Reduce the period of 30 days

To avail benefit of proviso to sec 220(1), to reduce the full period of 30 days to pay the taxes, Assessing Officer has to record the reason, and in absence of any finding benefit of proviso is not available.

Western Agencies (Madras Ltd.) v. Jt. CIT (2003) 86 ITD 462 / 81 TTJ 284 (Mad.)(Trib.)

Section 221 : Penalty payable when tax in default

S. 221 : Collection and recovery – Penalty – Tax in default – Assessee in default

No penalty can be imposed before disposing of stay applications of assessee in default.

CIT v. DLF Universal Ltd. (2008) 297 ITR 342 / 199 CTR 432 / 148 Taxman 617 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 221 : Collection and recovery – Penalty – Tax in default – Assessee in default

Non-payment of tax in time. Time for payment extended in assessment year 1996-97. No sufficient cause for non-payment in A. Y. 1997-98. Penalty could be levied for 1997-98 but not for 1996-97.

CIT v. Hydro Flex Equipment Ltd. and Anr. (2006) 282 ITR 418 / 200 CTR 551 / 150 Taxman 264 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 221 : Collection and recovery – Penalty – Tax in default – Appeal pending before Tribunal – Assessee deemed to be in default [S. 156]

Assessing Officer levied the penalty after considering the explanation of assessee. The CIT(A) held that the no proper opportunity was given before levying the penalty. In cross objection assessee contended that the Assessing Officer should have waited to levy the penalty till the order of Tribunal. The tribunal rejected the contention holding that there was no provision in the Act that penalty under section 221(1) can be imposed only after order is passed by the Tribunal. (A. Ys. 2008-09 & 2009-10)

ACIT v. Catmoss Retail Ltd. (2011) 63 DTR 1 / 133 ITD 397 / 142 TTJ 273 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 221 : Collection and recovery – Penalty – Tax in default – Assessee in default

Held, that penalty under section 221 is not attracted in respect of delay in payment of Interest, when assessee had made payment of entire taxes raised as per demand created under section 143 (1).

ACIT v. Avdesh Kumar Parvinder S. Kochar (2008) 173 Taxman 91 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 221 : Collection and recovery – Penalty – Tax in default – Assessee in default

As there was no authority of law as on 13-11-1996 to compel assessee to pay self-assessment tax under section 140A(1) before filing of return under section 158BC, no penalty could be imposed on assessee for failure to pay self-assessment tax where return was filed on 13-11-1996. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1996-97)

ACIT v. S. Dharamchand Jain (2005) 96 ITD 47 / 96 TTJ 1033 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 221 : Collection and recovery – Penalty – Tax in default – Payment of tax and interest

Assessee cannot be treated as assessee-in-default, when assessee has already paid much more than the finally assessed tax plus interest. Also there is no justification to levy penalty under section 221(1). (A.Y. 1992-93)

Barmer Travels v. ITO (2003) 79 TTJ 989 / 132 Taxman 176 (Mag.)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 221 : Collection and recovery – Penalty – Tax in default – Non-payment of Interest

Penalty under section 221(1) can be imposed only for failure to pay tax and not for failure to pay interest under sections 234B & 234C. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Great Value Foods v. ACIT (2009) 122 TTJ 682 / 178 Taxman 114 / 16 DTR 88 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

Section 222 : Collection and recovery - Assessee in default - Certificate to tax Recovery Officer

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Writ – Sale of immoveable property – Beneficiaries of Trust – Rule 11, Schedule II [Art. 226]

Petition filed by two beneficiaries of a trust challenging the attachment and proclamation of sale of properties belonging to the trust for recovery of tax dues of their deceased father without arraying the third beneficiary either as petitioner or as a party respondent cannot be entertained since the impugned order has become final and conclusive as regards 1/3rd undivided interest of the third beneficiary and no inconsistent order can be passed by the Court in the same lis. Petitioners have an alternative remedy of appeal against the impugned order passed by the respondent authorities rejecting their objections under Rule 11 of Schedule II and therefore, petition filed by two petitioners (beneficiaries of a trust) challenging the attachment and proclamation of sale of properties belonging to the trust for recovery of tax due is dismissed in limine. (A. Y. 1992-93).

Sagar Sharma & Anr. v. Addl. CIT (2011) 336 ITR 611 / 52 DTR 89 / 239 CTR 169 / 198 Taxman 209 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – TRO did not mention that unearned increase, the said amount should be paid by the revenue- Rule 11 – Recovery

Where the sale effected by TRO did not mention that unearned increase on the property was to be paid by the buyer of the property, then such unearned increase should be paid by the Department and not by the buyer of the property.

CIT v. Monoflex India Pvt. Ltd. (2011) 202 Taxman 163 / 244 CTR 251 / 61 DTR 377 (Delhi)(High Court)

Editorial: SLP of revenue is dismissed ; CIT v Monoflex India (P.) Ltd. (2017) 245 Taxman 339 (SC)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Civil Court Jurisdiction – Certificate

The property of the assessee in default was attached by the revenue authorities for recovery of its tax dues. During the pendency of attachment, a civil suit was instituted by a third party in a Civil Court claiming the ownership of the attached property. In these facts, the Court held that the attachment of the assessee's property for recovery of tax dues was valid and should be continued so that the interest of the revenue is protected. However, the court directed the revenue authorities not to take further steps to sell / dispose of the property until the rights of the assessee and third party with respect to the ownership of the property is decided by the Civil Court.

Maxworth Home Ltd. v. U. Yamunakumari & Anr. (2010) 36 DTR 72 / 234 CTR 233 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Attachment – Sch. 11 Rule 53

Assessee purchasing land in the name of his minor son in the year 1974 and the land and house thereon standing in the name of assessee's son at least from Asst. Year 1979-80, such land and house could not be attached and sold for recovery of tax arrears of assessee for block periods 1986-87 to 1995-96 by recourse to explanation to section 222(1).

Samson Johan v. Tax Recovery Officer & Ors (2008) 3 DTR 124 / 215 CTR 131 / 300 ITR 188 / 169 Taxman 227 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Certificate proceedings – Sale of attached property – Power of CBDT [S. 119]

There is no power under section 119 to issue notification no 9995 dated 1-3-1996 by which the period of three years mentioned in rule 69B of Schedule 11 has been extended to four years. The rule 6B Schedule 11 lays down the period of three years alone for sale of attached immoveable property.

S.V. Gopla Rao v. CIT (2004) 270 ITR 433 / 192 CTR 530 / 144 Taxman 395 (MP)(High Court)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Time limit for sale of attached property – Rule 68B of Second Schedule – Prospective

Rule 68B which has been added with effect from 1-6-1992 is prospective. It can not apply to those cases where the order under section 245-1 or Chapter XX became conclusive before 1-6-1992 which is the date on which rule 6B came into effect. Rule 68B applies only in cases where a conclusive order was passed under section 245-1 or Chapter XX after 1-6-1992.

(A.Y. 1942-43 to 1977-78)

Sanjay Khetan v. CIT (2004) 139 Taxman 190 / 266 ITR 453 / 188 CTR 361 (All.)(High Court)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Protective attachment

When certain property belonging jointly to the assessee and his sister, was protectively attached for recovery of tax arrears of assessee. The Court held that the protective attachment of property cannot be questioned. However, the rent can not be recovered unless the source of investment is established.

R. Rajbabu v. TRO (2004) 141 Taxman 252 / 270 ITR 256 / 188 CTR 182 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Second Schedule – Garnishee [S. 226(3)]

TRO can not attach the debt due to the garnishee from its debtor without following the provisions contemplated in section 222 read with Second Schedule.

Shaw Wallace and Co. Ltd. v. UOI (2004) 267 ITR 248 / 189 CTR 1 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Insolvent – Official assignee – Recovery of penalty

Where defaulters were adjudicated as insolvents prior to date of imposition of penalty, claim for recovery of penalty was rightly rejected by official assignees.

UOI v. Shantilal Jewellers (2004) 136 Taxman 147 / 271 ITR 140 / 192 CTR 655 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Notice of attachment – Second schedule-rule 48 – Writ Jurisdiction

Points regarding the issue of notice under Rule 48 of Second Schedule must be raised before concerned authority by filing appropriate representation and not in writ petition.

M.M.N.D. Kanakasabai v. TRO (2004) 136 Taxman 157 / 186 CTR 627 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Occupation after attachment

Defaulter's property was attached on 3-2-1995, and it was occupied by the petitioner society on 25-3-1999, that is after the date of attachment, hence the petitioner can not challenge the attachment and sale of shop. Under Rule 11(6) to the Second Schedule, the remedy is by way of a suit.

Dadar Manish Market Co-operative Society Ltd. v. UOI (2004) 265 ITR 97 / 136 Taxman 332 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Recovery of tax – Certificate Proceedings

Tax Recovery Officer is entitled to go into the questions of title as a part of enquiry but is not entitled to decide questions of law as to the title to the property, which is sought to be attached by him.

Videocon International Ltd. v. Indus Ind. Bank Ltd. (2003) 131 Taxman 460 / 185 CTR 575 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 222 : Collection and recovery – Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer – Assessee in default – Recovery of tax – Certificate Proceedings – Liability of purchaser

Where auction purchaser is not put on notice by Department in respect of any obligation/liability in respect of property purchased, purchaser cannot be asked to pay such liability.

Monoflex India (P.) Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 133 Taxman 1 / 185 CTR 513 / 264 ITR 731 (Delhi)(High Court)

Section 226 : Other modes of recovery

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Sale by auction of property of defaulter – Protection for bona fide purchaser [Sch. II, Rule 60, 61]

The land belongs to partners was sold in the auction towards recovery of tax, interest and penalty. The firm and partners challenged the auction on hyper technical grounds. The writ petition was dismissed by the High Court. On appeal to the Supreme Court, the Court held that a bona fide purchaser of the property of the appellants in the valid auction could not be disturbed as according to an established principle of law, a third party auction purchaser continues to be protected, notwithstanding that the underlying decree might be set aside. The appellants ought to have availed the statutory remedy for ventilating their grievances under Rules 60 and 61 of Schedule II. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Janatha Textiles & Others v. TRO (2008) 301 ITR 337 / 206 Taxation 150 / 216 CTR 371 / 170 Taxman 221 / 7 DTR 133 (SC)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Provisions of Special Court (Trial of Offences relating to Transactions in Securities) Act, 1992 shall prevail over Income Tax Act

The language of section 13 of the Special Courts Act is similar to section 32 of the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985. The Apex Court, following the ratio laid down in Solidaire India Ltd. v. Fair Growth Financial Services Ltd. (2001) 3 SCC 71 held that the provisions of the Special Court Act, wherever they are applicable, shall prevail over the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961.

Tax Recovery Officer (TRO) v. Custodian Appointed under Special Court Act, 1992 (2007) 163 Taxman 441 / 293 ITR 369 / 211 CTR 369 (SC)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Garnishee proceedings – From third person whom amount is due to Assessee – Scope of Provisions

Sub section 226(3) of the Income Tax Act, 1961 is applicable only when money is due to the assessee-in-default from any person. Clause (vi) of sub-section (3) of section 226 in categorical terms creates a legal fiction to the effect that when an amount is not payable, such person is not required to pay any such amount or part thereof. When assessee is in default, the units held by the defaulter assessee, UTI cannot sell units at redemption value without consent of assessee. If UTI sells, it is also liable to assessee for dividend.

Administrator Unit Trust of India v. B. M. Malani & Ors. (2007) 212 CTR 425 / 164 Taxman

463 / (2008) 296 ITR 31 / 202 Taxation 160 (SC)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Attachment of property – HUF – Liability of sons tax arrears of father

Father having joined as a partner of a firm in his individual capacity and not representing the joint family, only his 1/5th share in the joint family property alone was liable to be proceeded against for realization of tax arrears and not the four-fifth share of the sons, members undivided family, for recovery of the income tax arrears of father. (A. Ys. 1971-72 & 1972-73).

ITO v. Tippala China Appa Rao & Ors. (2011) 331 ITR 248 / 240 CTR 298 / 54 DTR 260 (AP)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Mode of recovery – Attachment – Garnishee Proceedings – Fixed Deposits – Fixed deposit is not the property of the assessee [S. 222, 281B]

Order of attachment of the fixed deposits of the petitioners passed under section 281B and encashment of the fixed deposits after the expiry of the period of bank guarantee, was illegal and unjustified.

Gopal Das Khandelwal & Ors. v. Union of India & Ors. (2010) 45 DTR 47 / 235 CTR 253 / 192 Taxman 54 / (2011) 222 Taxation 139 (All.)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Mode of recovery – Notice of Demand [S. 156, 220, 222]

Before invoking the provisions of section 220 a demand notice under section 156 is required to be served upon the assessee specifying the amount as well as the place and the person to whom such amount is to be paid and therefore, in the absence of service of a demand notice under section 156 on the assessee, the very foundation of the recovery proceedings stands vitiated and the same cannot be sustained. Impugned notice under section 226(3) served upon the assessee's bankers and recovery proceedings initiated against the assessee are quashed and set aside. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Saraswati Moulding Works v. CIT & Ors. (2010) 46 DTR 25 / 236 CTR 121 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – High pitched assessment – Seventy four times

The income of the assessee assessed at seventy four times the income returned by the assessee was held to be unreasonably high pitched. Accordingly, the garnishee proceedings initiated by the revenue authorities for recovery of taxes on the basis of the said assessment order was liable to be stayed.

Soul v. CIT (2008) 14 DTR 267 / 220 CTR 211 / 323 ITR 305 / 173 Taxman 468 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Stay in earlier years – ITAT and High Court

Demand was raised on account of certain disallowances. The same was disputed before the Appellate Authority. Similar issues for the earlier years were pending before the Appellate Tribunal. The Appellate Tribunal granted stay for the earlier years. However, for the impugned year the CIT rejected the stay application. The assessee filed writ petition and Hon'ble Court held that looking to stay orders passed in earlier years and in view of facts that appeals of earlier years were fixed for hearing before Tribunal, till disposal of appeal pending with the Commissioner (Appeals), demand of tax and interest should be stayed. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Coca Cola India Pvt. Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2006) 150 Taxman 359 / 199 CTR 138 / 285 CTR 419 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Garnishee proceedings – UTI monthly income plan

Attachment of units held by assessee in a UTI Monthly Income Plan could not be said to be justified. (A.Ys. 1988-89 to 1990-91 to 1995-96)

B.M. Malani v. Income Tax Department (2005) 270 ITR 515 / 142 Taxman 330 (AP)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Objection – TRO

Once objection under clause (vi) of section 226(3) is raised, TRO is not supposed to recover tax until the claim is found to be false.

Shaw Wallace & Co. Ltd. v. Union of India (2003) 262 ITR 528 / 181 CTR 290 / 129 Taxman 639 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Garnishee order – Denial by Debater

When the garnishee does not admit or denies that he owes debt to assessee, TRO cannot sit in judgment over denial and come to his own conclusion.

Shaw Wallace & Co. Ltd. v. Union of India (2003) 262 ITR 528 / 181 CTR 290 / 129 Taxman 639 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Employees of defaulting company – Garnishee proceedings

Employees of defaulter-company cannot challenge garnishee proceedings for recovery of amount due to company, unless they establish their claim for priority over income-tax dues.

Shibu S. Nair v. CIT (2003) 260 ITR 586 / 182 CTR 120 / 134 Taxman 547 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Statement on oath – Garnishee

Person objecting to garnishee notice under section 226(3) must furnish statement on oath under section 226(3)(vi) and in absence of such statement, garnishee order would continue to operate.

Relay Shipping Agency Ltd. v. TRO (2003) 260 ITR 631 / 189 CTR 128 / 135 Taxman 389 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Hearing is not mandatory

It is not mandatory to issue notice upon the assessee and hear him before passing an order under section 226(3).

Golam Momen v. ACIT (2003) 263 ITR 69 / 132 Taxman 826 / 185 CTR 78 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Nomination rights of defaulter of stock exchange – Deposits

Sale proceeds of the nomination rights of defaulter-member of Stock Exchange cannot be attached but TRO is entitled to attach balance surplus amount lying with BSE out of sale proceeds of nomination rights of the defaulter-member; further deposits made by the defaulting member under various heads such as security deposit, margin money, securities deposited by members and others are attachable.

Stock Exchange, Mumbai v. V.S. Kandalgaonkar (2003) 261 ITR 577 / 129 Taxman 237 / 181 CTR 30 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Sick company – BIFR

Where assessee-sick-company had given an undertaking which adequately protected interest of revenue, revenues grievance that BIFR had held demand created by Department as contingent liability without affording an opportunity of being heard, was merely academic.

DGIT v. A.A.I.F.R. (2003) 130 Taxman 251 / 185 CTR 663 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Mode of Recovery – No-coercive recovery pending appeal ready

The assessee filed appeals before the Commissioner of Income-tax (Appeals) against the assessment orders for Asst. Years 2004-05 to 2008-09. Though the appeals were ripe for hearing and the appellate authority had already posted for hearing on different dates, the Assessing Officer without considering the pendency of the appeals issued demand notice and took steps for attachment of the assessee's bank account. The assessee filed a Writ petition to challenge the recovery action which was opposed by the department on the ground that the assessee had repeatedly sought adjournment of the hearing of appeals, the Court allowed the petition and directed to dispose the appeals at the earliest possible after affording an opportunity of hearing to the assessee, at any date within a period of one month from the date of receipt of a copy of the Court's judgment and till such time orders are passed by the appellate authority, recovery steps shall be kept in abeyance. If there is no co-operation by assessee the appellate authority is at liberty to finalise the appeals without according any further opportunity of hearing.

Hotel Leela Venture v. Ag. ITO WPNo. 32732 of 2010 dated 1-11-2010 (Ker.)(High Court)

Source : www.itatonline.org.

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Mode of Recovery – Ability is no bar for grant of stay

The assessee filed a stay application before the Tribunal. The department opposed the stay by relying on the Supreme Court in ACCE v. Dunlop India (1985) 154 ITR 172 (SC), and contended that as paucity of funds had not been sufficiently demonstrated, for this reason alone stay should not be granted. The Tribunal rejected the contention of Departmental representative following B. N. Co. v. Jt. CIT (2001) 71 TTJ 153 (Kol.) and further held that Supreme Court's observation in Dunlop cannot be interpreted to mean that the Tribunal is denuded of the powers to grant stay until case for financial stringency is successfully made out by the applicant. Accordingly stay was granted till the disposal of appeal.

KEC International Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2010) 41 SOT 43 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 226 : Collection and recovery – Mode of recovery – Stay application

Once application for stay of demand was made and listed for hearing, Assessing Officer was not justified in recovering amount under section 226(3).

KLM Royal Dutch Airlines v. Dy. CIT (2005) 1 SOT 659 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 226(3) : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Stay – Garnishee proceedings – Application pending – Reasoned order

Though application has been filed by petitioner under section 220(6), no order was passed and therefore notice under section 226(3) can not be acted upon. Revenue was directed to decide the application under section 220(6) without taking any steps under section 226(3). As the Commissioner has not passed a reasoned order the order passed by the Commissioner was set aside and Court directed to pass a speaking order. (A. Y. 2004-05).

Dagny De souza (Smt) v. ITO (2011) 56 DTR 263 / 198 Taxman 205 / 242 CTR 176 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 226(3) : Collection and recovery – Modes of recovery – Assessing Officer is directed to pay costs for "recovery harassment"

The Assessing Officer's order of attaching the bank account of the assessee even before the service of the CIT(A)'s order was wrong in view of: -

- (a) the CBDT's letter dated 25.3.2004 advising that penalties under section 271D & 271E for violation of section 269SS & 269T should not be indiscriminately imposed without considering section 273B,
- (b) the CCIT's direction that demand arising out of penalties imposed under section 271D & 271E should be stayed in cases of co-operative credit societies,
- (c) UOI v. Raja Mohammed Amir Mohammed AIR 2005 SC 4383 where concern was expressed over dangerous attitude developing amongst Executive resulting in institutional damage &
- (d) KEC International Ltd. 251 ITR 158 / 170 CTR 415 / 119 Taxman 974 (Bom.) where it was held that generally coercive measures may not be adopted during the period provided by the Statute to go in appeal.

Accordingly, the assessee was unnecessarily subjected to harassment by the actions of the lower authorities. It is thus a fit case for imposing costs under section 254(2B) on the Revenue to compensate the harassment caused by the officers of the Revenue at fault. (A. Y. 2006-07)

Shramjivi Nagari Sahakari Pat Sanstha v. ACIT ITA No. 477/PN/2010 dated 8-6-2011 (Pune)(Trib.) Source : www.itatonline.org

Section 231 : Period for commencing recover proceedings [Omitted by The Direct Tax Laws (Amendment) Act, 1987 w.e.f. 1-4-1989]

S. 231 : Recovery – Limitation – Period for commencing proceedings – Prior to 1-4-1989

Assessee during the previous year, relevant to assessment years, 1986-87 to 1988-89, did not deduct tax due from employees in respect of payment of bonus. The Assessing Officer passed an order under 201 declaring the assessee in default. On appeal, the first Appellate Authority and Tribunal held that the order of recovery of tax and interest was barred by limitation. The court held that for assessment year 1986-87, since the period of limitation expired as per section 231, nothing could be recovered from the assessee for the assessment year. However, in view of the 1987 Amendment, which resulted in the omission of section 231 with effect from 1-4-1989, there was no period of Limitation for the assessment years 1987-88 and 1988-89, and hence the assessee was liable to pay interest on defaulted tax amount under sections 201 and 201(IA) in respect of the said assessment years. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1988-89)

CIT v. Trichur Co-op. Bank Ltd. (2003) 132 Taxman 249 / 184 CTR 400 / 266 ITR 574 (Ker.)(High Court)

F. Interest chargeable in certain cases

Section 234A : Interest for defaults in furnishing return of income

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Settlement Commission [S. 234A, 234B, 234C, 245C, 245D(1)]

Interest under section 234B, can be levied only up to the date of order under section 245D(1) and not up to date of order of settlement under section 245D(4).

Brij Lal and Others v. CIT (2010) 46 DTR 153 / 328 ITR 477 / (2011) 1 SCC 1 / 235 CTR 417 (SC)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Return late – Tax paid before due date of filing of return

The Supreme Court held even though the return of income is filed late, if the assessee has paid the taxes before the due date of the filing of the return, which is not less than the tax payable on the returned income which has been accepted, no interest can be levied under section 234A. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. Pranoy Roy & Anr. / CIT v. India Meters Ltd. (2009) 309 ITR 231 / 222 CTR 6 / 179 Taxman 53 / 19 DTR 102 / 211 Taxation 155 (SC)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Settlement Commission – Power of Rectification

The petitioner submitted that in the case of CIT v. Anjuman M. H. Ghaswala (2001) 252 ITR 1 (SC), the question whether sections 234A, 234B and 234C, are at all applicable to proceedings of the settlement commission under Chapter XIX-A did not arise for consideration and the judgment of the constitution Bench proceeded sub silentio on the point by assuming that these sections are so applicable. The Apex court held that the above plea was one which should be considered by the Constitution Bench.

Brij Lal v. CIT (2005) 279 ITR 432 / 199 CTR 716 / (2006) 192 Taxation 213 / 150 Taxman 106 (SC)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Power of Settlement Commission – Waiver [S. 234B, 234C, 245D]

Interest charged under section 234A, 234B, and 234C becomes payable on the income already disclosed and the income disclosed before the Settlement Commission and such interest is chargeable till the Commission acts in terms of section 245D. After the Commission allows the application for settlement to be proceeded with there will be no further charge in terms of sections 234A, 234B, and 234C. Interest charged in terms of section 245D is a separate levy and not in terms of interest chargeable under sections 234A, 234B and 234C. There is no scope for charging interest on interest.

CIT v. Damani Brothers (2003) 259 ITR 475 / 173 Taxation 40 / 179 CTR 362 (SC)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Waiver – Power of Settlement Commission [S. 234B, 234C, 245D(4)]

Settlement Commission has no power to waive mandatory interest as contemplated under sections 234A, 234B and 234C. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. Sant Ram Mangat Ram Jewellers (2003) 264 ITR 564 / (2004) 186 CTR 115 / 134 Taxman 262 / 181 Taxation 1 (SC) / 9 SCC 285

Editorial:- CIT v. Anjum M. H. Ghaswala (2001) 252 ITR 1 / 171 CTR 1 / 119 Taxman 352 (SC), followed.

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Advance tax – Retrospective amendment

No interest can be charged for default on advance tax where there is amendment with retrospective effect. (A. Ys. 2001-02 & 2002-03)

CIT v. Jupiter Bio-Science Ltd. (2011) 202 Taxman 80 / 67 DTR 91 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Assessee in default – Failure to deduct or pay – Advance tax – Interest [S. 201, 234B, 234C]

Where the deductor had already discharged tax liability payable under section 201(1A) of the act no further interest could be claimed by the revenue from the deductee-employee either under section 234A or section 234B or section 234C.

CIT v. Emilio Ruiz Berdejo (2010) 320 ITR 190 / 228 CTR 145 / 186 Taxman 390 / (2009) 32 DTR 27 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Waiver – Notification – CBDT [S. 234B, 234C]

Where the assessee filed his return voluntarily and paid the taxes due thereon, the Court held that as the assessee who was a singer by profession, working for sixteen hours a day the overbusy schedule of the assessee during the relevant assessment years constituted 'unavoidable circumstances' within the meaning of clause 2 (e) of the notification issued by the C.B.D.T. with respect to waiver of interest under sections 234A, 234B and 234C of the Act. (A.Y. 1993-94 to 1996-97)

S. Nagoor Babu Mano v. CCIT & Anr. (2009) 24 DTR 193 / 227 CTR 287 / 320 ITR 500 / 181 Taxman 33 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Advance Tax – Waiver – Instruction – CBDT [S. 234B, 234C]

On the Chief Commissioner of Income Tax rejecting the application for waiver of interest, the assessee challenged the said order before the High Court by way of a writ and High Court held that if the assessee has complied with the conditions laid down in Cl. 2(e) of section 273A, then the authority shall decide tax quantum while considering the question of waiver.

The High Court further held that the prayer for waiver has to be decided by a competent authority/officer other than the Chief Commissioner of Income Tax.

High Court allowed the writ petition of the assessee with costs. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1992-93)

Om Prakash Trivedi v. Union of India (2006) 287 ITR 11 / 153 Taxman 554 (All.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Company – Book profit [S. 115J]

Interest under section 234A, 234B and 234C is chargeable even when the assessment was made under section 115J. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Geetha Ramakrishna Mills (P) Ltd. (2006) 205 CTR 365 / 288 CTR 489 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Compensatory [S. 234B, 234C]

Assessee could not challenge levy of interest under section 234A/234B/234C as these provisions are compensatory in character

K. Venugopalan Nambiar v. Union of India (2005) 148 Taxman 616 / 199 CTR 387 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Bona fide dispute – Levy non-justified

Where a bona fide dispute is there as to taxability of a sum, imposition of interest would not be justified.

CIT v. Reading & Bates Exploration Co. (2005) 278 ITR 47 / 148 Taxman 457 / 198 CTR 670 (Uttaranchal)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Bona fide disputes – Opportunity of hearing

Where a bona fide dispute was pending regarding the taxability of certain amount received by assessee, imposition of interest under section 234B was not justified without hearing and without reasons

CIT v. Reading & Bates Exploration Co. (2005) 278 ITR 47 / 148 Taxman 457 / 198 CTR 670 (Uttaranchal)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – No direction in order – Mandatory

Where there was no direction in assessment order for charging of interest under sections 234A and 234B, interest charged under sections 234A and 234B was to be deleted

CIT v. Gold Tex Furnishing Industries (2005) 276 ITR 164 / 158 Taxman 53 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Cash seized – Search – Firm and Partners [S. 234B, 234C]

Where cash was seized from premises of firm and partners requested, before advance tax liability of firm became due, for adjustment of cash against advance tax, such cash was to be adjusted against advance tax liability of firm and, hence, no interest could be levied under sections 234B and 234C. (A.Y. 1994-95)

CIT v. K.K. Marketing (2005) 278 ITR 596 / 196 CTR 611 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Waiver – Conditions [S. 234B, 234C]

Chief Commissioner while considering question of waiver of interest under section 234A/234B/234C has to confine himself within four corners of conditions specified in CBDT Notification No. F. No. 400/234/95-IT and cannot travel beyond it; question of financial hardship and difficulty in paying amount of interest under sections 234A, 234B and 234C is misconceived as it does not find mention in CBDT's notification empowering Chief Commissioner to exercise such a power. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 2001-02)

Ashwani Dhingra v. Chief CIT (2005) 275 ITR 72 / 142 Taxman 241 / 194 CTR 233 (All.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Waiver – Claim based on High Court decision

Where assessee had been granted deductions under sections 80HHA and 80-I on basis of a High Court decision and assessee had not paid advance tax in respect of sums claimed as deductions but High Court decision was subsequently reversed by Supreme Court, and thereupon notice under section 148 was issued to assessee which filed return and deposited tax payable, entire interest levied on assessee under section 234B was to be waived as there is no provision in Act requiring the assessee to file a revised return of income in regard to relevant assessment years after Supreme Court reverses the judgment of High Court. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 1997-98)

Balakrishna Breeding Farms (P.) Ltd. v. CCIT (2005) 276 ITR 20 / 147 Taxman 148 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Waiver – Powers of board [S. 119(2), 234B, 234C]

In an extreme hardship, Board has the power to waive or reduce the interests levied under sections 234A, 234B and 234C of the income tax Act. (A.Y. 1997-98 to 1999-2000)

CIT v. Upper India Steel Mfg & Engg Co Ltd. (2005) 279 ITR 123 / (2004) 141 Taxman 692 / 192 CTR 385 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Compensatory – Non penal [234B, 234C]

The provisions of sections 234A, 234B, and 234C are not penal provisions but are compensatory in nature for breach of civil obligation.

CIT v. Upper India Steel Mfg & Engg Co Ltd. (2005) 279 ITR 123 / (2004) 141 Taxman 692 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Constitutional validity [Article 14]

Provisions of sections 234A, 234B and 234C, cannot be said to be violative of article 14 of the Constitution of India. Hardship cannot be the ground to hold unconstitutional. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 1996-97)

Umesh S. Bhargava v. UOI (2004) 137 Taxman 231 / 268 ITR 405 / 189 CTR 319 (Bom.)(High Court)

Prabha Lal v. CIT (2004) 137 Taxman 277 / 269 ITR 212 / 190 CTR 99 (Patna)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Cash seized – Search [S. 132(5), 234B, 234C]

Surplus cash is left after passing of an order under section 132 (5), has to be adjusted towards advance tax liability of assessee as on date of order under section 132(5) and interest liability to be reworked accordingly. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. Pandurang Dayaram Talmale (2004) 135 Taxman 193 / 187 CTR 625 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Waiver – Seizure of books after last date of filing of return [S. 234B, 234C]

Assessee can not be denied the benefit of reduction / waiver of interest under instruction no 400/234/95 – IT(B) dated 23-5-1996, only because books of account had been seized after last date for filing the returns. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Paras Bansilal Patel v. B.M. Jindal, CCIT (2004) 135 Taxman 125 / 267 ITR 108 / 187 CTR 613 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Waiver – Circular dt. 23-5-1996 [S. 234B, 234C]

Clause (e) of para 2 of Circular no 400/234/95–IT(B) dated 23-5-1996, which confers power of Commissioner to waive or reduce the interest is also applicable for waiver of interests under section 234B, and 234C of the Income tax Act. (A.Ys. 1992-93 to 1994-95)

Bhanuben Panchal and Chandrikaben Panchal v. CCIT (2004) 136 Taxman 237 / 269 ITR 27 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Waiver – CBDT – Commissioner [S. 119 (2) (a), 234B, 234C]

Application for waiver of interest under section 234A, 234B and 234C, cannot be rejected in laconic and mechanical manner.

Tushaar Mehta v. CCIT (2004) 189 CTR 550 / 143 Taxman 38 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Chargeable – Anjum Ghaswala's decision [S. 234B, 234C]

All aspects relating to charging of interest have not been finally decided by Supreme Court in CIT v. Anjum H. Ghaswala and Others (2001) 252 ITR1 / 170 CTR 311 / 118 Taxman 558. (A.Y. 1983-84)

ITSC v. Netai Chandra Rarhi & Co. (2004) 271 ITR 514 / 193 CTR 430 / 142 Taxman 446 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Company – Book Profit [S. 115J]

Interest under section 234A is levied for delayed or non filing of return and the invocation of section 115J at the time of regular assessment has no relevancy in considering the question of such failure. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Holiday Travels (P.) Ltd. (2003) 127 Taxman 250 / 263 ITR 307 / 181 CTR 442 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Capital gains – Accrual

Since advance tax in respect of capital gains becomes payable only after of advance tax on capital gains accrues, liability to pay interest on delayed payment of advance tax on capital gains which arise after 15 th March, can arise only with effect from date on which advance tax in respect of such capital gains becomes payable and not earlier there to. (A.Y. 2000-01)

CIT v. Premalata Jalani (Smt) (2003) 185 CTR 601 / 264 ITR 744 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Waiver – Voluntary filing of return

Waiver of interest can be considered only if return of income is filed voluntarily without detection by the Assessing Officer. (A.Y. 1997-98)

K.C. Prasad v. CCIT (2003) 185 CTR 588 / 265 ITR 415 / 134 Taxman 51 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Assessable as PE – TDS [S. 195 & 234B]

Income of the assessee who are non residents being assessable in the hands of PEs the same cannot be held liable to TDS under section 195 and therefore, assesseees are liable to pay interest under section 234A and 234B. (A.Ys. 2000-01 to 2005-06)

eFunds Corporation v. ADIT (2010) 45 DTR 345 / 42 SOT 165 / 134 TTJ 1 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Mandatory – No power to waive [S. 234B, 234C]

Interest under sections 234A, 234B and 234C is mandatory in nature and Assessing Officer has no power to waive or reduce it by implication or otherwise.

ITO v. Prabhu K. Chandnani (2005) 4 SOT 190 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Assessment – No levy

If there is no assessment or no assessed income, interest cannot be levied.

Anand Kumar Agarwal (HUF) v. ACIT (2005) 92 TTJ 81 (Agra)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Assessment – Company – Book profit [S. 115JA, 143(1)]

While processing return under section 143(1), Assessing Officer can charge interest under sections 234B and 234C on account of assessee's failure to pay advance tax in respect of income determined under section 115J A on basis of book profit. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Lumax Industries Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 97 ITD 217 / 99 TTJ 1125 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Delay in filing return – Tax paid in advance

It is not open to Assessing Officer to charge interest under section 234A in a situation where assessee has paid due taxes and merely filing of income-tax return is delayed. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Milan Enterprise v. ACIT (2005) 95 ITD 18 / 95 TTJ 635 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Chapter XII-B – NRI

Interest is chargeable when income is computed under Chapter XII-B. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Chetak Enterprises (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 95 ITD 1 / 92 TTJ 611 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – No specific direction – Invalid [S. 234B, 234C]

Levy of interest under sections 234A to 234C cannot be held to be invalid merely on account of there being no specific direction in assessment order or on ground that section under which interest is levied is not specified in body of assessment order, provided that assessment form in ITNS 150 contains a specific reference to section under which interest is charged, calculations are shown under relevant columns and said form is signed or initialled by same Assessing Officer who signed assessment order and is also dated. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Motorola Inc. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 95 ITD 269 / 96 TTJ 1 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – No direction to charge interest – Levy in ITNS-150 – Invalid

If in assessment order, there is no direction to charge interest but in ITNS-150 and in demand notice, amount of interest to be charged is mentioned, that will not amount to direction to charge interest and levy of interest in such cases will be invalid. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1997-98)

Shadi Ram & Sons v. Dy. CIT (2005) 92 ITD 22 / 92 TTJ 534 (Luck.)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Computation sheet – Valid

Where in computation sheet forming part of assessment order, section under which interest was charged was mentioned and interest was computed and quantified, it could not be said that there was no order charging interest. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Jindal Exports Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 2 SOT 7 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Regular assessment

Interest under section 234A shall be computed on basis of tax determined on regular assessment and not on basis of tax payable on basis of return.

Motorola Inc. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 95 ITD 269 / 96 TTJ 01 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Specific order

Where in assessment order, only words mentioned were 'charge interest', it could not be taken as specific order for charging interest.

Shikha Gupta (Smt) v. ITO (2005) 148 Taxman 31 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Regular assessment

In Section 234A the words 'regular assessment' are used in the context of computation.

Priti Pithawala (Ms) v. ITO (2003) 129 Taxman 79 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Chargeability – No specific direction [S. 234B, 234C]

Levy of interest under section 234A and 234B not permissible when there is nothing mentioned in the assessment order for charging the interest and no indication in the notice of demand about the figure of interest. (A.Y. 1990-91)

V.V. Industries v. ACIT (2003) 78 TTJ 758 (2004) 1 SOT 227 (Delhi)

Credit Rating Information Services Of India Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2003) 84 ITD 247 / 79 TTJ 219 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234A : Interest – Return of income – Cash with department – Adjustment [S. 234B, 234C]

Interest under section 234A/B/C cannot be charged if the cash available with the department is sufficient to meet such liability, and same has not been adjusted even on specific request.

ACIT v. Bharatbhai Chuni Shah (2003) SOT 382 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

Section 234B : Interest for defaults in payments of advance tax

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – MAT [S. 115JA, 115JB, 234C]

In view of specific provisions in section 115JA and 115JB, to the effect that all other provisions of the Act, shall apply to the MAT company, interest under sections 234A, 234B is payable on failure to pay advance tax in respect of tax payable under sections 115JA, 115JB.

Jt. CIT v. Rolta India Ltd. (2011) 237 CTR 329 / 49 DTR 346 / 330 ITR 470 / 196 Taxman 594 / 2 SCC 408 (SC)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit [S. 115J, 115JA]

The assessee was bound to pay advance tax under the scheme of the Act. Section 234B is clear that it applies to all companies. There is no exclusion of section 115J/115JA in the levy of interest under section 234B (Kwality Biscuits Ltd v. CIT 243 ITR 519 (Kar.) (SLP dismissed in 284 ITR 434) considered).

Jt. CIT v. Rolta India Ltd. (2011) 237 CTR 329 / 330 ITR 470 / 49 DTR 346 / 196 Taxman 594 (SC)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Rectification of mistake

The Supreme Court, while dismissing the petition of the assessee held that error in calculation of interest, if any, can be set right by moving application under section 154 of the Income-tax Act, 1961.

Arvind Sud v. UOI & Others (2006) 192 Taxation 1 (SC)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit [S. 115J, 234C]

The Supreme Court dismissed the appeal of the revenue against the order of the Karnataka High Court (2000) 243 ITR 519, which held that interest under sections 234B and 234C is not leviable in the case of assessment under section 115J, since the entire exercise of computing income under section 115J can only be done after the end of the financial year. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Kwaliti Biscuits Ltd. (2006) 284 ITR 434 / 155 Taxman 658 / 205 CTR 122 / 195 Taxation 229 (SC)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Specific section

Supreme Court in CIT v. Ranchi Club (2001) 247 ITR 209 did affirm requirement to charge interest under a specific section. Question as to whether law laid down in CIT v. Ranchi Club (2001) 274 ITR 209 (SC) has been changed by virtue of decision of Constitution Bench in CIT v. Anjum M. H. Ghaswala (2001) 252 ITR 1, is question of law. (A.Y. 1991-92)

CIT v. Insilco Ltd. (2005) 278 ITR 1 / 149 Taxman 112 / 198 CTR 114 (SC)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Order of Settlement Commission – Assessment – Reassessment – Amount disclosed [S. 234A, 234C, 245D]

For the purpose of charge of interest under section 234B in a case where settlement commission passes order under section 245D (4), the end point of the terminus has to be the date on which the commission passes an order under section 245D (4) and not of regular assessment or reassessment. Interest charged in terms of sections 234A, 234B, and 234C becomes payable on the income already disclosed in the returns filed together with the income disclosed before the commission, the concerned interest as aforesaid, shall be on the consolidated amount of income i.e., both disclosed and undisclosed.

CIT v. Hindustan Bulk Carrier (2003) 259 ITR 449 / 126 Taxman 321 / 179 CTR 362 / 173 Taxation 16 (SC)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Deduction at source – Salary [S. 191, 192, 195]

Advance tax is not payable on the salary of an employee in as much as the obligation to deduct tax at source is upon the employer under section 192, upon failure on the part of the employer to deduct at source, the assessee (employee) only becomes liable to pay the tax directly under section 191 and does not become liable to pay interest under section 234B.

DIT v. Maersk Co. Ltd., as Agent of Henning Skov (2011) 334 ITR 79 / 54 DTR 41 / 198 Taxman 518 / 240 CTR 218 (FB)(Uttarakhand)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Difficulty in computing interest – Enhanced compensation

The difficulties faced by the assessee while computing advance tax cannot defeat the liability to pay advance tax. As compensation was liable to be taxed as business income, the assessee is liable to pay interest. (A. Ys. 2000-01 to 2002-03).

Dy. CIT v. Gopal Ramnarayan Kasat (2011) 240 CTR 266 / 54 DTR 228 / 328 ITR 566 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Capital gains [S. 47(v), 139(9), 292B]

Assessee claiming exemption in respect of capital gains on sale of shares to holding company. Return found defective and assessee filed corrected return. By that time holding company was no longer holding company. The Court held that no default at time of payment of advance tax. Interest for default not chargeable. (A. Y. 1991-92). Prime Securities Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 333 ITR 464 / 59 DTR 251 / 243 CTR 229 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Minimum alternative tax – Set off [S. 115JAA, 234C]

Minimum alternative credit in terms of section 115JAA has to be set off against tax payable before calculating interest under section 234B, 234C. CIT v. Deccan Creations (P) Ltd. (2011) 55 DTR 206 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Search and seizure – Retention of seized asserts [S. 234C]

Assets seized were released on deposit of money. Assessing Officer failing to accede to request of assessee and adjust advance tax against deposits. Interest under section 234B and 234C for default in payment of advance tax cannot be levied. (A. Y. 1995-96).

Vishwanath Khanna v. UOI (2011) 335 ITR 548 / 244 CTR 208 / 61 DTR 318 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Waiver or reduction – CBDT circulars [S. 80HHC]

There being no decision of jurisdictional High Court favouring interpretation of section 80HHC, assessee was not entitled to waiver or reduction interest. On the facts the assessee was not entitled to reduction or waiver of interest under section 234B under any of the CBDT circulars dt. 23rd May 1996, 30th Jan., 1997 or 2 of 2006 dt. 17th January, 2006. (A. Y. 2002-03).

Raju Bhojwani v. CCIT (2011) 63 DTR 236 / 202 Taxman 226 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Book profit – Company – Retrospective amendment of law – Impossible of performance [S. 115JB, 234C]

Provisions relating to payment of advance tax are applicable in a case where book profit is deemed to be total income under section 115JB. On the facts of assessee, there was no liability to make payment of the advance tax on the last day of the financial year i.e. 31st March 2001 when its book profit was nil according to section 115JB. Provision of section 115JB having been amended by the Finance Act, 2002, with retrospective effect from 1st April 2001, the assessee cannot be held defaulter of payment of advance tax, where on the last date of the financial year preceding the relevant assessment year, the assessee had no liability to pay advance tax, he cannot be asked to pay interest under section 234B and 234C for no default in making payment of tax in advance which was physically impossible therefore interests under sections 234B and 234C cannot be charged. (A. Y. 2001-02).

Emami Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 63 DTR 301 / 337 ITR 410 / 245 CTR 651 / 200 Taxman 326 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit – MAT Credit [S. 115JAA]

MAT credit available under section 115JAA, represents tax paid by the assessee before determination of total income under section 143(1) or completion of regular assessment within the meaning of sub section (2) of section 234B and therefore credit for MAT under the provisions of section 115JAA has to be reckoned in computing interest payable under section 234B. Amendment made by Finance Act, 2006, by substituting Explan. 1 to section 234B was clarificatory or curative in nature and consequently, even prior to the amendment, the credit under section 115JAA could not be ignored in determining the liability to pay interest under section 234B. (A.Y. 2000-01)

CIT v. Apar Industries Ltd. (2011) 220 Taxation 72 / (2010) 38 DTR 128 / 323 ITR 411 / 231 CTR 313 / 190 Taxman 353 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Cash seized – Search and seizure [S. 132B(1)(i), 234C]

Cash was seized in the course of search and seizure action on 12th January, 2007. Prior to the last date for payment of installment of advance tax assessee filed a letter dated 14-3-2007 requesting to adjust the cash seized, towards the existing advance tax liability. The Tribunal directed to adjust the cash seized towards advance tax liability. High Court confirmed the view of Tribunal. (A. Y. 2007-08).

CIT v. Jyotindra B. Mody ITA No. 3741 of 2010 dt. 21-9-2011 181 (2011) 43B-BCAJ 53 (November-52) (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Bona fide mistake

Levy of interest under section 234B is compensatory and interest is chargeable notwithstanding the fact that default is bona fide. (A.Y. 1991-92)

CIT v. Insilco Ltd. (2010) 321 ITR 105 / 190 Taxman 306 / 231 CTR 247 / 37 DTR 342 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Deduction at source

Interest under section 234B is not chargeable where the income of the assessee is subject to Tax deduction at source. (A.Y. 1998-99)

DIT v. Krupp Udge GmbH (2010) 38 DTR 251 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Settlement Commission – Liability to Pay Interest

Even if no interest under section 234B was levied on the assessee in the original order of assessment, the assessee is liable to interest for that portion of the income forming part of the total income as determined by the Settlement Commission. Words, "the interest shall be increased", would contemplate both a situation where interest had been levied on the assessee in the first instance and a situation where no interest has been levied on the assessee in the original order of assessment. (A.Ys. 2002-03 to 2006-07)

Akbar Travels of India (P) Ltd. v. Income Tax Settlement Commission & Ors. (2010) 43 DTR 49 / 192 Taxman 457 / 236 CTR 37 / 332 ITR 572 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Deduction at source – Non-resident [S. 194, 234D, 209(1)(d)]

Non-resident recipient is not liable to pay advance tax, as under section 195 entire taxes have to be deducted at source by payee. Non-residents are not liable to pay interest under section 234B. (A.Ys. 2001-02 to 2003-04)

DIT v. Jacobs Civil Incorporated (2010) 45 DTR 163 / 235 CTR 123 / 235 CTR 123 / 194 Taxman 494 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit – MAT Credit [S. 115JAA, 234C]

Credit for MAT brought forward credit under section 115JAA should be given effect before charging interest under sections 234B, 234C. (A.Y. 2004-05)

CIT v. Roots Muliclean Limited (2010) 327 ITR 65 / 182 Taxman 13 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit – MAT [S. 115JB, 234C]

Interest cannot be levied under sections 234B and 234C, while computing the book profit under section 115JB.

CIT v. Natural Gems Ltd. (2010) 327 ITR 269 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit [S. 115J, 234C]

Assessment of company under section 115JA, interest under section 234B and 234C is not leviable. (A.Y. 1997-98)

CIT v. Cortalim Shipyard & Engineers (P) Ltd. (2010) 46 DTR 263 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit [S. 234C]

In view of the specific provision of sub section (5) of section 115JB, which makes all other provisions of the Act, applicable to companies mentioned in the said section, and the clarification issued by the CBDT vide Circular No. 14 of 2001 dt. 22-Nov 2001, companies covered by the provisions of section 115JB are liable to pay advance tax and consequently, interest under section 234B and 234C is chargeable. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Sankala Polymers (P) Ltd. (2010) 46 DTR 385 / 338 ITR 617 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Additional income disclosed

Where the assessee had offered a certain amount as its additional income only to buy peace of mind and the same was accepted by the assessing officer without any further inquiry the assessee cannot be said to have defaulted in payment of instalments of advance tax on the additional income declared by the assessee so as to make him liable to pay interest under section 234B of the Act. (A.Y. 1998-99)

T. P. Indrakumar v. ITO (2009) 29 DTR 311 / 238 CTR 213 / 322 ITR 454 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Deduction at source – Salary – Employers [S. 192, 234C]

Where the employer company had discharged the tax liability along with the interest under section 201(1A) of the Act due to default in deduction of tax at source under section 192 of the Act, no interest under section 234B and 234C of the Act could be charged from the employees. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Emilio Ruiz Berdejo & Ors. (2009) 32 DTR 27 / 228 CTR 145 / 320 ITR 190 / 186 Taxman 390 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Waiver or reduction [S. 234B, 234C]

Assessee filing returns voluntarily and paying taxes, due to his over busy schedule during the relevant assessment years constituted as 'unavoidable circumstances' within the meaning of clause 2(e) of CBDT Notification No.400/234/1995-IT(B) and entitle him for waiver of interest under section 234A, 234B, 234C levied upon by him for failure to file returns within the time allowed under section 139(1)/(4). (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 1996-97)

S. Nagoor Babu @ Mano v. CCIT & Anr. (2009) 227 CTR 287 / 320 ITR 500 / 181 Taxman 33 / 24 DTR 193 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Waiver [S. 234C]

Assessee having paid tax voluntarily and having pleaded a good and reasonable reason for not filing the return on time and therefore, interest under sections 234B and 234C was liable to be waived.

V. Akilandeswari v. CCIT (2009) 227 CTR 582 / 318 ITR 1 / 184 Taxman 22 / 30 DTR 213 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Deduction at source

Where the payer fails to deduct tax at source on the payments made by him to the payee, no interest under section 234 B of the Act can be imposed on the payee.

DIT (International Taxation) v. NCG Network Asia LLC (2009) 18 DTR 203 / 222 CTR 86 / 313 ITR 187 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Waiver – Amendment retrospectively

Export cash assistance was made taxable with retrospective effect by Finance Act 1990. The assessee for A.Y. 1989-90 was under a bonafide belief that it was not liable to pay advance tax. The Court held that waiver of only part of the interest levied under section 234B without assigning any reasons was not proper in facts of the present case. (A.Y. 1989-90)

Devarsons Pvt. Ltd. v. U. P. Singh (2006) Tax L. R. 40 / 284 ITR 36 / 203 CTR 48 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profits – Hearing [S. 115JA]

Provisions of section 234B and 234C would be attracted even in case where a company is assessed on income computed under section 115JA. Levy of interest being mandatory, no opportunity of hearing is required to be given to the assessee. (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 1999-2000)

CIT v. Upper India Steel Mfg & Engg Co. Ltd. (2005) 279 ITR 123 / (2004) 141 Taxman 692 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Waiver – Retrospective amendment

Tax liability on assessee after filing of return and after expiry of assessment year, on account of retrospective amendment of law, consequential levy of interest under section 234B was to be dealt with as a fit case for reduction or waiver of interest. (A.Y. 1989-90)

Deversons (P) Ltd. v. Chairman, CBDT (2005) 273 ITR 414 / (2004) 140 Taxman 628 / 192 CTR 400 (Guj.)(High Court)

Editorial : Waiver of interest Circular no 783 dt 18-11-1999 (2000) 240 ITR 183 (ST).

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Compensatory [S. 234C]

Since interest under sections 234B and 234C is compensatory, questions of equity, rules of natural justice and justification for not making payment do not arise for determination.

(A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Kotak Mahindra Finance Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 730 / 183 CTR 491 / 265 ITR 119 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Automatic

Levy of interest under section 234B is automatic. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Kuttukaran Machine Tools v. CIT (2003) 131 Taxman 690 / 264 ITR 305 / 185 CTR 104 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Bonafide dispute

In case of bona fide dispute as to taxability of a sum, interest for short payment of tax could not be levied under section 234B. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Sedco Forex International Drilling Co. Ltd. (2003) 264 ITR 320 / 186 CTR 144 / 134 Taxman 109 (Uttaranchal)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit [S. 115J]

Levy of interest under section 234B on basis of income computed under section 115J is not illegal but it is automatic. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Karimtharth Tea Estates Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 131 Taxman 149 / 182 CTR 307 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit [S. 115J]

Interest under sections 234B and 234C is chargeable even in a case where tax liability arises only by applicability of section 115J. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Kotak Mahindra Finance Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 730 / 183 CTR 491 / 265 ITR 119 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit [S. 115J]

An assessee-company is liable to pay interest under section 234B even when its income is determined by invoking provisions of section 115J. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Holiday Travels (P.) Ltd. (2003) 127 Taxman 250 / 263 ITR 307/ 181 CTR 442 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Waiver – Incorrect particulars form No 15H [S. 234A, 234C]

Filing of incorrect particulars in Form No. 15H cannot lead to an inference that assessee had deliberately tried to mislead the authorities so as to justify rejection of prayer of assessee for waiver of interest. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1997-98)

Baso Devi (Smt) v. CCIT (2003) 133 Taxman 36 / 184 CTR 356 / 266 ITR 404 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Book profit – Company [S. 234C]

Interest is chargeable under sections 234B, 234C on failure to pay advance tax in respect of tax payable under sections 115JA/115JB. (A. Ys. 1997-98 & 2000-01 to 2004-05).

Singareni Collieries Company Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 141 TTJ 593 / 133 ITD 213 / 57 DTR 28 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Deduction at source – Non-resident [S. 234C, 209]

There cannot be any interest liability under section 234B or 234C, for non-resident assessee where all payments received from Indian sources are subject to TDS. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Cable News Network LP LLLP v. ADIT (International Taxation) (2010) 129 TTJ 177 / 36 DTR 233 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Deduction at source [S. 195]

Income subject to tax deduction at source, interest cannot be charged under section 234B. (A.Ys. 1998-99, 1999-2000)

Jt. DIT v. Krupp Uhde GmbH (2010) 1 ITR 614 / 124 TTJ 219 / 28 SOT 254 / 26 DTR 289 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Deduction at source – Non-resident

In case of a non resident assessee when all payments received in terms of an agreement with Indian company for rendering of services were subjected to TDS, interest under section 234B cannot levied for non-payment of advance tax. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Dy. DIT v. Scientific Atlanta Inc. (2010) 37 DTR 98 / 4 ITR 422 / 130 TTJ 142/ (2009) 33 SOT 220 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Retrospective Amendment

Assessee is not liable to pay interest under section 234B when by retrospective amendment made later, the amount becomes taxable. Administrative relief can be obtained by the assessee cannot erode the powers of the Tribunal while dealing with the valid appeal laid before it.

Sun Petrochemicals Pvt. Ltd. v. ITO, 'D' Bench, ITA No. 1010/Ahd./2009, dated 5-6-2009 (BCAJ 42-A, May 2010 P. 168)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Constructive payment of Advance Tax – Attachment of bank account.

Once assessee's bank account was put under attachment, the amount therein is to be considered to be lying with the Department which would indicate constructive payment of advance tax and, therefore, interest under section 234B is not chargeable.

S. M. Wahi v. ADIT (Int. Taxation) (2010) 47 DTR 241 / 134 TTJ 457 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Appeal

When the chargeability of interest under section 234B itself is challenged the same is appealable. (A.Y. 1995-96)

ICICI Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2008) 119 TTJ 848 / 115 ITD 25 / 9 DTR 183 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Self assessment tax [S. 140A]

The controversy before the Tribunal was when the tax payable by the assessee was enhanced in the reassessment proceedings, then whether the self-assessment tax paid by the assessee under section 140A was to be ignored for the purpose of computing the interest payable by the assessee under section 234B(3) of Act. According to the Tribunal, the reference to section 234B(1) in section 234B(3) was to be read with reference to section 234B(2) of the Act, and applying the rule of harmonious construction on the facts of the present case, interest was to be charged up to the date on which the assessee had paid the tax under section 140A. In the present case, the income of the assessee was enhanced and due to the enhanced income, additional tax liability was also determined, but at the same time, it was seen that the assessee has paid the self-assessment tax under section 140A, which was more than even whatever tax was determined after reassessment. Hence self-assessment tax paid under section 140A cannot be ignored. (A.Y. 1996-97)

The Fertilizers and Chemicals Travancore Ltd. v. ACIT, ITA No. 1213/Coch./2004, dt. 24-4-2007, BCAJ P. 30, Vol. 39-E, Part 1, October, 2007. (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Excess of specified limit

Assessee's tax liability more than ` 1,500/ ` 5,000. Assessee was liable to pay advance tax and assessee having failed to do so, interest under section 234B was chargeable. (A.Y. 1997-98)

R. M. Chinniah v. ITO (2007) 106 TTJ 1001 / 107 ITD 479 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Book profit [S. 115JA]

Interest under ss. 234B and 234C can be charged where assessment is made under section 115JA. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Jindal Steel & Power Ltd. v. ACIT (2007) 106 TTJ 943 / 10 SOT 106 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Deduction at source

Where income of assessee is subject to TDS, interest under section 234B cannot be charged even though no tax is deducted. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 2000-01)

Sheraton International Inc. v. Dy. DIT (2007) 106 TTJ 620 / 107 ITD 120 / 10 SOT 542 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Mistake apparent on record

There being nothing on assessment record of AO to entertain the plea of assessee that he was not liable to pay advance tax and hence interest under section 234B and the matter also being debatable, AO was justified in rejecting assessee's application under section 154. (A.Y. 1997-98)

R. M. Chinniah v. ITO (2007) 106 TTJ 1001 / 107 ITD 479 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Cryptic mention – Assessment order – Validity [S. 234C]

Mention of charging Interest as per rules, in the Assessment Order is sufficient, and it is not necessary to mention section & quantum of Interest in ITNS 150 or demand notice under section 156. (A.Y. 1989-90)

Rambilas Mathoura Lab & Co v. ITO (2003) SOT 61 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

Lathia Rubber Mfg Co (P) Ltd v. ACIT (2003) 81 TTJ 779 / (2004) 3 SOT 714 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Assessment order – Direction

Interest cannot be charged, in absence of any direction under relevant section in the Asst Order. (A.Ys. 1991-92 to 1994-95)

Centex Publication (P) Ltd v. Dy. CIT (2003) 79 TTJ 265 / 133 Taxman 42 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

H G Malik v. ACIT (2003) 85 ITD 79 / 79 TTJ 844 (Delhi)(Trib)

Sarin Chemical Laboratory v. ACIT (2003) SOT 382 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Assessment order [S. 234C]

If Interest is calculated in the body of the order itself, then direction to charge Interest is immaterial. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Charbhai Biri Works v. ACIT (2003) 87 ITD 189 / 80 TTJ 483 (TM)(Pune)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Mandatory

Once the Assessee was liable to pay Advance Tax from initial stage, the charging of interest under section 234B on basis of assessed tax is also mandatory. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Flexfit Industries v. ACIT (2009) 176 Taxman 59 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Computation – Self assessment tax [S. 140A]

Adjustment towards interest payable under section 234B is to be considered only at the time of filing return of income, i.e., when payment of self assessment under section 140A is required to be made, before that interest under section 234B is independently required to be calculated only in accordance with the provisions provided in s. 234B(1). (A.Ys. 1992-93, 1993-94)

Patson Transformers Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 103 TTJ 735 / 6 SOT 673 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Excess payment

Assessed tax being less than advance tax paid by assessee and advance tax paid by assessee not being less than 90 per cent of assessed tax, assessee was not liable to any interest under section 234B(3).

Baby Marine Exports v. ACIT (2006) 103 TTJ 696 (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Mandatory – Speaking order [S. 234A, 234C]

In view of the judgments of the Supreme Court in CIT v. Ranchi Club Ltd. [2001] 164 CTR

200 / 247 ITR 209 /114 Taxman 414 and CIT v. Anjum M.H. Ghaswala (2001) 252 ITR 1 / 171 CTR 1 / 119 Taxman 352, in a case where interest under sections 234A, 234B and 234C is chargeable but not charged, that would be a mistake apparent from record which can be rectified by the Assessing Officer under the provisions of section 154. These two judgments have laid down the following propositions: –

- (i) Interest under sections 234A, 234B and 234C should be charged only when there is a speaking order in the body of assessment order;
- (ii) Interest under sections 234A, 234B and 234C must be charged in all cases where the levy is attracted.

In view of the above proposition and with reference to the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of CIT v. Jai Prakash Singh (1996) 219 ITR 737 / 132 CTR

262 / 85 Taxman 407 the matter was restored to the file of the Assessing Officer for taking a decision afresh after passing a speaking order. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 1996-97)
Dy. CIT v. Royal Jordanian Airlines (2006) 98 ITD 1 / (2005) 97 TTJ 434 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit [S. 115JA, 234C]

Interest under section 234B and 234C is leviable while computing deemed income under the provisions of s. 115JA. (A.Y. 1990-2000)

ACIT v. SMR Cotton Mills (P) Ltd. (2006) 100 TTJ 594 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Deduction at source – Bonafide belief [S. 234A, 234B]

Plea of the assessee that it committed defaults under a bona fide belief that deduction under section 80-O was allowable in respect of gross income and not net income being not sustainable in view of jurisdictional High Court decision and charge of interest being mandatory. Assessing Officer was justified in charging interest under section 234A, 234B & 234C. (A.Ys. 1994-95 to 1996-97 to 2001-02)

Cascade Enterprises v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 277 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Waiver – Rectification [S. 154, 234C]

Interest under section 234B and 234C being mandatory in nature, Assessing Officer has no power to waive interest overtly or by implication and therefore he can charge interest by invoking provisions of s. 154 if not charged originally in the assessment order. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Dy. CIT v. Oscar Investments Ltd. (2006) 99 TTJ 1202 / 98 ITD 339 / 7 SOT 330 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Mandatory [S. 234C]

Levy of interest under sections 234B and 234C is mandatory. (A.Ys. 1997-98, 1998-99)

Pathi Designs v. Dy. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 408 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Mandatory

No discretion can be exercised in matter of levy of interest under section 234B, i.e., merit of reasons resulting into shortfall leading to levy of interest under section 234B cannot be taken into consideration; where assessee calculated its advance tax liability after availing exemption under section 47(v) and subsequently, by virtue of section 47A, exemption was withdrawn and resultantly tax liability was increased, Assessing Officer was justified in levying interest under section 234B. (A.Y. 1991-92)

ACIT (Inv.) v. Prime Securities Ltd. (2005) 95 ITD 249 / 96 TTJ 553 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Reasonable cause

Consideration as to whether there was reasonable cause for non-payment of advance is not relevant for purposes of section 234B. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 1996-97)

Dy. CIT v. Haryana Warehousing Corpn. (2005) 1 SOT 257 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Company – Book profit [S. 115JA, 234C]

Interest under sections 234B and 234C can be charged in case income is computed under section 115JA. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Bullion Investments & Financial Services (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 4 SOT 622 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Non-mentioning the specific section

Where the Assessing Officer had specifically mentioned in the assessment order for charging of interest under section 234B, there was no merit in the assessee's submission that the interest under section 234B was not at all chargeable for non-mentioning of the specific section in demand notice. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Hindustan Sanitary Engineers v. ITO (2005) 95 ITD 226 / 96 TTJ 460 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Direction to charge interest

Having regard to fact that necessary computation of interest was contained in ITNS 150 which had been sent to assessee, it could not be said that there was no direction to charge interest; as such rule laid down in CIT v. Ranchi Club Ltd. (2001) 247 ITR 209 (SC) had not been violated. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Annamaria Travels & Tours (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 95 TTJ 71 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Regular assessment [S. 143(1)]

Interest under section 234B is to be charged on income determined on regular assessment under section 143(3) and not on income determined under section 143(1). (A.Y. 1998-99)

Hindustan Sanitary Engineers v. ITO (2005) 95 ITD 226 / 96 TTJ 460 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Regular assessment

As per section 234B, as amended with retrospective effect from 1-4-1989, where a regular assessment is made interest is leviable up to that date, but interest is to be calculated on assessed income and not on returned income. (A.Ys. 1996-97, 1997-98)

Shadi Ram & Sons v. Dy. CIT (2005) 92 ITD 22 (Luck.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Regular assessment [S. 143(1)(a)]

Interest is chargeable up to date of regular assessment and not merely up to date of processing of return under section 143(1)(a). (A.Y. 1991-92)

ACIT v. N. Sasikala (Smt) (2005) 92 TTJ 1196 (Mad.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Computation – Retrospective amendment – Assessed income

In view of the retrospective amendment brought about by the Finance Act, 2001, with retrospective effect from 1-4-1989, interest under section 234B is to be levied on assessed income and not on returned income.

Addl. CIT v. Hilton Roulunds Ltd. (2005) 97 TTJ 490 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Set off-MAT – Credit [S. 234C]

Set-off of MAT credit is to be given in working out tax payable by assessee for purpose of determination of payment of advance tax, and, consequently for purpose of levy of interest under sections 234B and 234C. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Phillips India Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 92 ITD 441 / 93 TTJ 767 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Deduction at source – Income subjected to TDS

Where all income received by assessee was such from which tax was deductible at source, assessee could not be held to be liable to pay interest under section 234B.

Motorola Inc. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 95 ITD 269 / 96 TTJ 0001 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Disallowance [S. 40A(3)]

Where assessee as per its returned income, was not under obligation to pay advance tax as required under section 208, interest under section 234B was not chargeable on account of disallowance under section 40A(3). (A.Y. 1998-99)

Sri Renukeswara Rice Mills v. ITO (2005) 93 ITD 263 / 93 TTJ 912 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Adjustment of cash seized – Search and seizure [S. 132B]

No question of adjusting cash seized towards advance tax liability where seizure carried out much after the date of payment of advance tax for the relevant assessment year. Seized amount can not be appropriated towards advance tax or any other liability until an order under section 132(5) is passed and it is determined that some amount has been still left out of adjustment. On the facts and circumstances interest under section 234B and 234C is chargeable for the default of payment of advance tax. (A.Ys. 1989-90 & 1990-91)

ACIT v. Rajesh Cotton Co. (2003) 79 TTJ 202 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234B : Interest – Advance tax – Direction [S. 234C]

Once the Assessing Officer calculated the interest chargeable under section 234B and 234C in the assessment order there was no need to give direction to charge the interest and therefore, the levy of interest under section 234B and 234C was valid. (A.Y. 1990-91).

Charbhai Bidi Works v. ACIT (2003) 87 ITD 189 / 80 TTJ 483 (TM)(Pune)(Trib.)

Section 234C : Interest for deferment of advance tax

S. 234C : Interest – Deferment of advance tax – Capital gain – Intimation [S. 143(1)(a)]

Even though the assessee had not paid advance tax on the capital gain on sale of property on 19-6-1995 by 15-9-1995 in accordance with the proviso to section 234C (1)(b)(ii) of the Act, levy of interest under section 234C of the Act in the intimation under section 143(1)(a) of the Act was not permissible. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Hindustan Hotels Ltd. & Anr. (2009) 27 DTR 127 / 226 CTR 454 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234C : Interest – Deferment of advance tax – Capital gains – Accrual – Amendment – Proviso

Amendment of proviso to section 234C by the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1996 w.e.f. 1st April 1997, is clarificatory in nature and the same is to be applied retrospectively. Where the assessee has paid taxes arising out of income from long term capital gain as part of installments due after the date of sale of capital asset, he could not be in default as stipulated under section 234C and therefore, levy of interest was not valid. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Torrential Investments (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 133 TTJ 787 / 46 DTR 172 / 127 ITD 257 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234C : Interest – Deferment of advance tax – Business commencement

Assessee company incorporated on 4-12-2002 and commenced business in January. Held that assessee company was not liable to pay advance tax in December. (A. Y. 2003-04)

BVQI (India) Pvt. Ltd. v. ACIT, ITA No. 1309/Mum/2005, Bench — K, dt. 7-11-2006 – BCAJ P. 401, Vol. 39-C, Part 4, January 2007. (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234C : Interest – Deferment of advance tax – Maximum period of 3 months

Interest under section 234C is chargeable for the period of default, subject to a maximum period of 3 months, and not compulsorily for a period of 3 months. Interest should not be charged if assessee has paid the money after the due date prescribed for payment of advance tax. Further a citizen who paid advance tax belatedly cannot be worse of than the person who has not paid at all.

Panther Investrade Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2007) 160 Taxman 203 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234C : Interest – Deferment of advance tax – Appeal – Maintainability

Appeal lies against the order charging interest under S.234C where the assessee limits itself to the ground that it is not liable to pay interest at all. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Express Newspapers Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2006) 103 TTJ 122 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 234C : Interest – Deferment of advance tax – Computation – Date of presentation of cheque

Where the taxes are paid by cheque and the same is honoured, it is the date of presentation of cheque which is date of payment of tax for purposes of interest under section 234C. (A.Ys. 1995-96, 1996-97)

P. L. Haulwel Trailers Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 103 TTJ 249 / 100 ITD 485 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 234C : Interest – Deferment of advance tax – Intimation

Assessee having received intimation regarding the adjustment of income-tax refund only after the last instalment of advance tax was paid which it could not anticipate, interest under section 234C was not chargeable for the shortfall in payment of advance tax.

Express Newspapers Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2006) 103 TTJ 122 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 234C : Interest – Deferment of advance tax – Computation

Tax paid after the due date, but before the due date for the next instalment, such payment of tax is to be adjusted from the amount computed as shortfall and interest to be computed on the net amount. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Panther Investrade Ltd. v. Dy. CIT, Bench J, ITA 1361/Mum/2003 dated 28-2-2006 - BCAJ P. 411 Vol 39-B, Part 4 July 2006 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234C : Interest – Deferment of advance tax – Non-payment of advance tax

Assessee earned income from speculation business in October – Advance tax instalment due in September not paid the Tribunal held that the assessee is not liable to pay interest.

(A.Y. 2001-02)

Mahendra U. Shah (Dr.) v. ACIT, Bench H, ITA 3048/Mum/2003 dated 8-3-2006 – BCAJ P. 658 Vol 39-B, Part 6 September 2006 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234C : Interest – Deferment of advance tax – Returned income – TDS

Interest under section 234C is leviable on shortfall of advance tax as compared to tax due on returned income and therefore, where tax on returned income of assessee was less as against TDS credit of assessee, no interest under section 234C would be leviable on assessee. (A.Ys. 1989-90, 1991-92 to 1993-94 and 1997-98 to 1999-2000)

Sterlite Industries (India) Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2006) 6 SOT 497 / 102 TTJ 53 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234C : Interest – Deferment of advance tax – Company – Book profit [S. 115JA]

Section 234C is applicable even where income has been computed under section 115JA; however, since provisions of section 115JA were brought on statute by Finance (No. 2) Act, 1996 on 1-4-1997 and came into operation with effect from 28-9-1996, assessee was not liable to pay advance tax installments due before 28-9-1996, i.e., on or before 15-6-1996 and 15-9-1996 and interest under section 234C was chargeable only for non-payment of advance tax installments due on 15-12-1996 and 15-3-1997. (A. Y. 1997-98)

Jt. CIT v. Arihant Industries Ltd. (2005) 96 ITD 464 / 98 TTJ 52 (Chd.)(Trib.)

Section 234D : Interest on excess refund

S. 234D : Interest on excess refund – Chargeability – 1-6-2003

Section 234D is applicable only from 1st June, 2003 and therefore, no interest under that section could be levied from earlier date. (A. Y. 1999-2000).

CIT v. Faunc India Ltd. (2011) 57 DTR 340 / 244 CTR 529 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 234D : Interest on excess refund – Appeal effect Order – Regular assessment [S. 143(1)]

Section 234D is attracted only when the refund is granted to the assessee under section 143(1) becomes refundable to the revenue on regular assessment and cannot be charged when the refund was granted to the assessee not in the assessment under section 143(1) but pursuant to order of CIT(A) on appeal. (A.Ys. 1992-93 to 1998-99).

DIT (International) v. Delta Air Lines Inc. (2011) 63 DTR 1 / 245 CTR 16 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 234D : Interest on excess refund – Date w.e.f. 1-6-2003

Interest under section 234D is payable from the date it was introduced i.e. 01.06.2003. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. South Indian Bank Ltd. (2010) 47 DTR 135 / 194 Taxman 73 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 234D : Interest on excess refund – Period before 1-6-2003 – Not retrospective

As section 234D was inserted w.e.f. 1.6.2003, it is not retrospective.

CIT v. Bajaj Hindustan ITA No. 198 of 2009 dated 15-4-2009 (Bom.)(High Court)

Source

:

www.itatonline.org

S. 234D : Interest on excess refund – A. Y. 2004-05 – Not retrospective

Section 234D applies from A. Y. 2004-05 and is not retrospective.

DIT v. Jacobs Civil incorporated (2010) 235 CTR 123 / 330 ITR 578 / 194 Taxman 995 / 45 DTR 163 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 234D : Interest on excess refund – Effective date – Levy only from A.Y. 2004-05

Section 234D was brought under statute book from the assessment year 2004-05 the Assessing Officer was not to levy the interest under section 234D. (A. Y. 2002-03 and 2003-04).

C.A. Computer Associates P. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 8 ITR 142 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234D : Interest on excess refund – Date – Levy from A.Y. 2004-05

Levy of interest under section 234D on excess refund was not justified for the Asst. Year 2003-04 as the provision was applicable only from Asst. Year 2004-05. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Komaf Financial Services Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 132 TTJ 359 / 42 DTR 402 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234D : Interest on excess refund – Levy – Period after 1-6-2003

Interest under section 234D cannot be charged for the period prior to 1st June, 2003 but chargeable w.e.f. 1st June, 2003. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Jindal Steel & Power Ltd. v. ACIT (2007) 106 TTJ 943 / (2006) 10 SOT 106 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234D : Interest on excess refund – Order passed prior to 1-6-2003

Interest under section 234D is not chargeable where the order granting refund was passed prior to insertion of section 234D. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Van Oord Dredging & Marine Contractors BV v. Dy. DIT (2007) 106 TTJ 889 / 105 ITD 97 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 234D : Interest on excess refund – Substantive law – Not retrospective

Provisions of section 234D, i.e. brought on statute from 1-6-2003, are substantive and they cannot be applied retrospectively and therefore, it can not be applied to the earlier years even though the regular assessments for those years were framed after 1-6-2003 or refund was granted for those years after said date. (A.Ys. 1998-99, 1999-2000, 2000-01)

ITO v. Ekta Promoters (P.) Ltd. (2008) 113 ITD 719 / 117 TTJ 289 / 10 DTR 563 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 234D : Interest on excess refund – Substantive law – Not procedural

Law dealing with imposition of interest is substantive and not procedural law, and, therefore, interest under section 234D cannot be charged in respect of assessment years prior to coming into force of the provision.

Glaxo Smithkline Asia (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 97 TTJ 108 (Delhi)(Trib.)

CHAPTER XIX

REFUNDS

Section 237 : Refunds

S. 237 : Refunds – Appeal – Proviso clarificatory [S. 240]

Failure or inability of the revenue to frame a fresh assessment should not place the assessee in a more disadvantageous position than in what he would have been if a fresh assessment had been made. If assessment nullified, the tax deposited by assessee by way of advance tax, or self assessment tax or tax deducted at source is liable to be refunded to the assessee, since its retention may offend article 265 of the Constitution. Proviso (b) to section 240 is declaratory and it must be held retrospective. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CIT v. Shelly Products & Anr. (2003) 261 ITR 367 / 129 Taxman 271 / 181 CTR 564 / 175 Taxation 434 (SC)

S. 237 : Refunds – Deduction at source – Amount recovered from employer [S. 240]

Where assessability of the perquisite value of stock option was held as not justified and not in accordance with the law by apex court, TDS recovered from assessee by employer company was refundable to the assessee.

Ramaa Sivaram (Smt) v. CCIT (2010) 42 DTR 215 / 322 ITR 586 / 235 CTR 411 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 237 : Refunds – Returns filed with in period of limitation – Deduction at source

When assessee files the return with in limitation period, assessing officer was duty bound to take action. If the refund is due, the Assessing Officer is bound to issue the refund. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Daljit Singh Pyare Lal & Co (2004) 269 ITR 19 / 141 Taxman 538 / 191 CTR 394 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 237 : Refunds – Advance tax – Assessment time barred

The assessee is not entitled to refund of advance tax paid by him for an assessment year for which no regular assessment was made and it was allowed to become time barred by the ITO. (A.Y. 1981-82)

Kamal Kishore Gupta v. ITO (2006) 280 ITR 588 / (2004) 141 Taxman 170 / 191 CTR 165 (P&H)(High Court)

Section 239 : Form of claim for refund and limitation

S. 239 : Refunds – Non filing of form no 30 – Limitation

The assessee's claim for refund can not be rejected merely on the ground that the assessee had not filed Form NO 30. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Daljit Singh Pyare Lal & Co (2004) 269 ITR 19 / 141 Taxman 538 / 191 CTR 394 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 239 : Refunds – Form – Claims beyond limitation period – Board's authority

Claim for refund can not be entertained unless it is made with in the period specified. It is not possible to accept that the statutory provision incorporated under section 239 as amenable to relaxation at the hands of the Board through instructions under section 119.

Niranjan Dass v. CBDT (2004) 135 Taxman 422 / 266 ITR 489 / 186 CTR 152 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 239 : Refunds – Form – Limitation – Order passed – Reassessment [S. 240]

For the years under appeal the assessee had not filed return of income under section 139(1) or under section 139(4). Return was filed in response to notice under section 148. While the Assessing Officer allowed the credit for prepaid taxes as per the law, he refused the refund of excess taxes paid, holding that same was not allowable under section 239. The CIT(A) upheld the order. The Tribunal referring to the provisions of section 240, held that a refund becomes due to an assessee as a result of any order passed in appeal or other proceedings under the Act. The phrase "other proceedings" used in section 240 was of wide amplitude to cover any order passed in proceedings other than appeals under the Act. Hence assessee was entitled to refund of excess taxes paid. (A. Ys. 1999-2000 to 2001-02)

Claridge Hotels Pvt. Ltd. v. ACIT, ITA Nos. 4250 to 4252/Del/2004, Bench - E, dt. 13-10-2006 - BCAJ P. 421, Vol. 39-D, Part 4, July 2007 (Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 240 : Refund on appeal, etc.

S. 240 : Refund – Appeal – Interest – Advance tax [S. 214, 237, 243, 244]

The assessee paid advance tax in excess of tax as assessed as pursuant of decision of appellate authorities. There was delay in refunding of amount. The court held that interest is payable to assessee such interest by way of compensation. The court held that the amount wrongfully detained by tax department. The assessee is entitled for interest.

Sandvik Asia Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 280 ITR 643 / 200 CTR 505 / 55 Taxman 591 (SC)

S. 240 : Refund – Appeal – Interest – Interest on interest [S. 214, 237, 243, 244(1)]

Considering the context in which the word 'refund' or the expression 'any amount' has been used in section 240, it would not include an amount of interest payable by the department to the assessee. Section 244(1) can not be read independently of section 240, but at same time it could not be accepted that section 240 can not be read independently of section 244 (1). Assessee can not get interest on interest. Obligation to pay interest in terms of section 244(1) or 244 (1A) is not applicable to cases relating to assessments for assessment year commencing from 1-4-1989 onwards. (A.Ys. 1977-78 to 1981-82)

Sandvik Asia Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 137 Taxman 167 / 267 ITR 78 / 189 CTR 226 (Bom.)(High Court)

Editorial : Refer Supreme Court in Sandvik Asia Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 280 ITR 643 (SC)

S. 240 : Refund – Appeal – Assessment time barred

Where an order of assessment is set aside and matter restored to ITO for passing a fresh order of assessment, who passes no order and assessments get time barred, assessee is entitled to get refund of amount deposited by him in pursuance of assessment order. (A.Y. 1984-85)

Harihar Nath Agarwal (P.) Family Trust v. ACIT (2003) 184 CTR 589 / 184 CTR 589 / 264 ITR 612 / 137 Taxman 394 (All.)(High Court)

Section 243 : Interest on delayed refunds

S. 243 : Refunds – Interest on delayed refunds – Period u/s. 214 and S. 243 [S. 214, 237]

Excess realization of advance tax, upon assessment and adjustment, becomes refundable under section 237 and no further interest is payable on it under section 214; Interest if any, on delayed refund is payable under section 243. (A.Ys. 1972-73 to 1976-77)

CIT v. Udhoji Shri Krishandas (2004) 136 Taxman 465 / 268 ITR 244 (FB)(MP)(High Court)

Section 244 : Interest on refund where no claim is needed

S. 244 : Interest on refund – No claim is needed [S. 244A]

Where it was held that computation of interest under section 244 and 244A, by revenue authorities was not in compliance of the order of the High Court passed in assessee's case. The decision of the High Court was clearly to grant the appellant the due amount hence, the interest was required to be granted as per order of the High Court.

Vijay Kumar Bhati v. CIT (2003) 264 ITR 657 / 128 Taxman 54 / 179 CTR 397 (SC)

S. 244 : Interest on refund – Accrual of income – No claim needed

Interest on refund accrues only when the refund is granted. (A.Y. 1994-95)

K. Devayani Amma (Smt.) v. Dy. CIT (2010) 328 ITR 10 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 244 : Interest on refund – No claim is needed [S. 214]

If the amount on which the interest is payable is varied subject to the first assessment, then the quantum of interest has also to be increased or decreased accordingly. But the period for which the interest has to be paid is not altered by the newly substituted sub section (1A) of section 214. Assessee can not get interest under section 214 and section 244(1A), simultaneously though the rate of interest is same under both the sections. (A.Ys. 1972-73 to 1976-77)

CIT v. Udhoji Shri Krishnadas (2004) 136 Taxman 465 / 268 ITR 244 (FB)(MP)(High Court)

S. 244 : Interest on refund – Interest paid u/s. 220(2) – Delay – AO personally responsible

The Court held that assessee deserves to be compensated for delay in issuing refunds. The Assessing Officer personally held liable to pay compensation to assessee.

Balwant Singh Bhangal v. ITO (2004) 137 Taxman 200 / 188 CTR 157 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 244 : Interest on refund – Appeal – Assessment – Non est – No claim needed

If on appeal, assessment is held to be as nonest, assessee would not be entitled to interest under section 244(1A) on amount deposited by it pursuant to such order of assessment. (A.Y. 1973-74)

Punjab State Warehousing Corp v. CIT (2004) 138 Taxman 48 / 186 CTR 247 / 264 ITR 597 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 244 : Interest on refund – No claim needed – Interest [S. 220(2)]

The assessee is entitled to interest under section 244(1A) in respect of the interest payments under section 220(2).

Modipon Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 270 ITR 257 / 142 Taxman 92 / 192 CTR 110 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 244 : Interest on refund – No claim needed – Date of order – Actual refund

Assessee is entitled to interest under section 244 from the date of order of Dy. CIT(A) till the date of actual refund.

Lalchand Bhangdia v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 1314 / (2005) 97 ITD 509 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 244 : Interest on refund – No claim needed – Waiver of interest [S. 234A, 234B, 234C]

Assessee is entitled to interest under section 244A on refund arising on waiver of interest under section 234A, 234B and 234C.

ITO v. A. J. Dhanapal (HUF) (2006) 99 TTJ 1009 / 97 ITD 317 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 244 : Interest on refund – No claim needed – Interest on interest

Assessee is entitled to simple interest on interest which is admittedly due to it under sections 214 and 244(1) from the date when the interest became due till date when such interest is granted at the rate specified in the Act. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Mohan Meakins Ltd. v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 359 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 244 : Interest on refund – No claim needed – Withdrawal of interest [S. 243]

Prior to the insertion of S. 244A w.e.f. 1st April, 1989, interest under section 243 and 244(1A) once granted to assessee, could not be withdrawn. (A.Y. 1980-81)

Jt. CIT v. Leader Valves (P) Ltd. (2006) 100 TTJ 913 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 244 : Interest on refund – No claim is needed – Appeal order [S. 214]

Where order in appeal was passed on 17-10-1995 and three months from end of month in which such order was passed expired by 31-1-1996, whereas refund as a consequence of order in appeal was granted by Assessing Officer on 24-5-2002, assessee was entitled to interest under section 244 even on amount of interest calculated under section 214.

Lalchand Bhangdia v. ITO (2005) 97 ITD 509 / 99 TTJ 1314 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

Section 244A : Interest on refunds

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Deduction at source – Delayed Refund

Interest, which accrued to the assessee for non-refund of TDS, partook the character of the "amount due" under section 244A and became an integral part of the principal amount which was not refunded after it became due and payable and therefore assessee was entitled to interest on delayed refund of TDS. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. H.E.G. Ltd. (2010) 324 ITR 331 / 33 DTR 304 / 228 CTR 495 / 189 Taxman 335 (SC)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Deduction at source – Delayed refund

Interest, which accrued to the assessee for non-refund of TDS, partook the character of the "amount due" under section 244A and became an integral part of the principal amount which was not refunded after it became due and payable and therefore assessee was entitled to interest on delayed refund of TDS.

The amount on which the interest for the period during which tax was not refunded will include the amount of tax deducted at source.

CIT v. H.E.G. Ltd. (2010) 33 DTR 304 / 228 CTR 495 / 189 Taxman 335 / 324 ITR 331 / 216 Taxation 39 (SC)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Refund of tax adjusted out of seized amount – Payable

In respect of refund of tax recovered by the authorities by way of adjustment out of the amount seized from the assessee-trust, sub-cl. (b) of section 244A is attracted and accordingly, interest under section 244A is payable to the assessee on such refund. (A. Y. 2004-05).

CIT v. Islamic Academy Education (2011) 52 DTR 69 / 239 CTR 209 / 202 Taxman 276 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – MAT Credit – First adjustment

From the tax payable by assessee under section 115JA, MAT credits is to be adjusted first, then what becomes refundable after adjustment of MAT credit is excess advance tax, paid by assessee and on such refundable advance tax interest under section 244A has to be calculated and paid. (A. Y. 1988-99).

CIT v. Bharat Aluminium Co Ltd. (2011) 200 Taxman 57 / 58 DTR 113 / 242 CTR 366 / (2011) Tax L.R. 931 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Adjustment of amount seized – Non payment of S.A tax

After a search conducted at assessee's premises, it filed its return of income. However, it failed to pay self-assessment tax due as per return and requested authorities to adjust amount of tax due out of amount seized from its office and its chairman. Subsequently, assessment order came to be passed making assessment at a lesser amount and, consequently, assessee became entitled to refund. Held that, clause (b) of section 244A was attracted and assessee was entitled to refund with interest. (A. Y. 2004-05)

CIT v. Islamic Academy Education (2011) 202 Taxman 276 / 239 CTR 209 / 52 DTR 69 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Self assessment tax – Regular assessment – Notice of demand [S. 156]

Where the assessee is entitled to refund of self assessment tax, interest under section 244A, is to be calculated from the date of payment of tax till the date of refund and not from the 1st April of the assessment year or from the regular assessment. (A. Y. 2002-03).

CIT v. Vijaya Bank (2011) 64 DTR 411 / 332 ITR 235 / (2012) 246 CTR 548 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Minimum Alternative Tax – MAT [S. 115JAA]

Interest under section 244A is allowable on the refundable taxes arrived after giving credit of brought forward MAT under section 115JAA. (A.Y. 2000-01)

CIT v. Apar Industries Ltd. (2011) 220 Taxation 72 / (2010) 38 DTR 128 / 323 ITR 411 / 231 CTR 313 / 190 Taxman 353 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Self Assessment Tax [S. 140A]

Assessee is entitled to interest under section 244A, on the refund of self assessment tax paid under section 140A. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CIT v. Sutej Industries Ltd. (2010) 37 DTR 25 / 325 ITR 331 / 231 CTR 80 / 190 Taxman 136 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Wrong deduction of source – Refunded – Not eligible

Assessee company erroneously deducted tax out of interest payment made to IDBI under section 194A(3)(iii)(b), though no tax was required to be deducted from such payments. On assessee's request department granted refund of amount so deducted. Assessee claimed interest on refund. The Court held that as the assessee has paid the tax on its own on an erroneous impression, it did not become deemed assessee and therefore section 244A did not get attracted.

Universal Cables Ltd. v. CIT (2010) 191 Taxman 370 (MP)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Belated Claim – Stock Option – Deduction at source

Tax deducted at source from the salary treating the stock option held to be not taxable as perquisites and refundable to the assessee, the department is directed to consider the claim for interest under section 244A on such refund. (A.Ys. 1998-99 and 1999-2000)

Malliga D. v. ACIT (2010) 45 DTR 146 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – TDS Certificates filed in Assessment Proceedings – Eligible

TDS certificates were filed in the course of assessment proceedings. As the tax was deducted at source at the right time, interest under section 244A could not be denied. Provisions of section 244A(2) are not attracted.

Larsen & Toubro Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 190 Taxman 373 / 38 DTR 361 / 235 CTR 108 / 326 ITR 514 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Interest on Interest – Eligible

When excess amount of tax is refunded but interest is not refunded therewith, interest on interest would also become payable. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Motor & General Finance Ltd. v. CIT (2009) 185 Taxman 167 / 31 DTR 170 / (2010) 228 CTR 109 / 320 ITR 88 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Interest on interest – Entitlement

Assessee is entitled to interest on the amount of interest allowable under section 244A of the Act.

CIT v. H.E.G. Ltd. (2009) 19 DTR 316 (MP)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Deduction at source – Wrongly deducted – Not entitled to interest

Where the assessee had wrongly deducted tax at source without any statutory liability to make such deduction, subsequently when such amount is refunded to it, the assessee is not entitled to interest under section 244A of the Act on such refund.

Universal Cables Ltd. v. CIT (2009) 26 DTR 98 / (2011) 237 CTR 157 (MP)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Excess amount seized – Compensation – Damages

Where there is refund of excess amounts seized as a result of appellate order, interest is payable from date of original assessment order. Assessee also entitled to compensation / damages in addition to interest.

Ajay Gupta v. CIT (2008) 297 ITR 125 / (2007) 210 CTR 116 / 162 Taxman 296 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Order under section 201 for refund of TDS [S. 201]

Interest under section 244A(1)(b) is allowable and should be granted on refund of tax paid in pursuance of an order under section 201 of the Act. (A. Y. 2006-07)

Reliance Infrastructure Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2011) 9 ITR 84 / 60 DTR 419 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Self assessment tax – Date of payment to refund

An assessee is entitled to interest on excess payment of self assessment tax in terms of section 244A(1)(b), from date of payment of such amount up to date on which refund is actually granted. (A. Y. 2007-08).

ADIT v. Royal Bank of Scotland N.V. (2011) 130 ITD 305 / 138 TTJ 698 / 55 DTR 307 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Refunds – Interest – Interest on refunds – Interest on interest – Self assessment tax

Held, that assessee is entitled to Interest on Interest under section 244(1A) on refund of tax paid by way of S.A. Tax.

MMTC Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2009) 185 Taxman 104 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Interest – Non-resident – Deduction at source – In any other case [S. 195]

The assessee paying tax in consequence of an order passed under section 195. On appeal, CIT(A) held that tax not payable and ordered refund thereof. The assessee claimed that it was also entitled to interest as provided under section 244A. However, Assessing Officer and CIT(A) refused the interest on refund. The Tribunal allowed the appeal and granted interest on refund. Clause (b) of section 244A(1) very categorically provided that interest shall be paid on any refund, arising because of payment of tax 'in any other case'. (A.Ys. 1997-98,)

Tata Chemical Ltd. v. Dy. CIT, (2007 16 SOT 481 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Excess self assessment tax – Mandatory

Assessee is entitled to the interest under section 244A on the excess self-assessment tax paid under section 140A. (A.Y. 1998-99)

ACIT v. Grindwell Norton Ltd. (2006) 102 TTJ 265 / 100 ITD 245 / 6 SOT 601 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Last day of accounting year – Date of issue and date of receipt

Interest on refund allowed on last day of accounting year cannot be added as income of the relevant year as there is always time gap between date of issue and date of receipt of refund order. (A. Y. 1998-99)

Om Prakash Nargotia v. ITO (2006) 100 TTJ 657 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Interest – Interest on refunds – Appealable order

An order under section 244A granting Refund of Interest at a lesser figure is an appealable order, as assessee is aggrieved by such order, order rejecting the claim of assessee on ground that no appeal lay against such order, was set aside.

Aich Aar Chemicals (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 154 Taxman 85 (Mag.)(Indore)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Borrowed money – Source of advance tax

For entitlement to interest under section 244A, it is immaterial as to from which source advance tax is paid or whether assessee is paying interest on funds received by it or whether it has returned funds received by it out of which advance tax is paid; grant of interest is mandatory as there is a use of word 'shall' while directing Assessing Officer to grant interest. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Executor of Estate of Late Dinshah J. Gazdar v. Jt. CIT (2005) 4 SOT 604 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Delayed payment – Entitled

Where payment of interest to assessee under section 244A was delayed by revenue, assessee was entitled to interest on interest.

MMTC Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 149 Taxman 7 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Late filing of TDS certificate – Eligible period

In terms of section 244A(2), while determining eligible period for calculation of interest, delay caused because of late filing of TDS certificates by assessee needs to be excluded and reasons which caused delay in filing TDS certificates should not come in way of determining issue. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Kotak Mahindra Finance Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 93 ITD 7 / 93 TTJ 500 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Cash seized – Search and seizure – Block assessment

Where out of cash seized from assessee, certain amount was adjusted against demand created as a result of block assessment, on refund of balance amount, interest was to be paid up to date of refund and further interest on interest on aforesaid amount was also to be paid.

ACIT v. Ramesh C. Sugandh (2005) 1 SOT 217 / 89 TTJ 807 (Nagpur)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Element of interest – Eligible

Interest is to be granted also on the Interest element comprised in the Refund amount.

Uni-sankyo Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2003) SOT 410 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

Nuchem Ltd. v. ACIT (2003) 128 Taxman 64 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 244A : Interest on refunds – Self assessment tax – Date of order to payment

Interest on Refund of S.A tax would be calculated from date of assessment order and not from the date of payment of S.A Tax. (A.Ys. 1994-95, 1995-96)

Sutlej Industries Ltd. v. ACIT (2003) 86 ITD 335 / (2004) 84 TTJ 80 (Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 245 : Set off of refunds against tax remaining payable

S. 245 : Refunds – Set off against tax remaining payable – Collection and recovery – Assessee deemed in default – Waiver of Interest – Powers of Settlement Commission [S. 220]

Power to waive or reduce interest subject to restriction in respective provisions. Commission has to examine whether assessee has made out a case.

CIT v. Damani Brothers (2003) 259 ITR 475 / 173 Taxation 40 / 179 CTR 362 (SC)

S. 245 : Refunds – Set off against tax remaining payable – Refund arising in earlier year on issue cannot be adjusted against demand on same issue in subsequent year

Against an order passed under section 144C / 143(3), the assessee filed a stay application before the Assessing Officer under section 220(6) and also filed a stay application before the Tribunal. The Tribunal passed an interim order directing "status quo". Despite the interim order, the Assessing Officer passed an order under section 245 (without giving prior notice) and adjusted refunds against the demand. Before the Tribunal, the department accepted that the 245 refund adjustment was not proper and said a proper order would be passed. The Assessing Officer then passed an order under section 220(6) in which he held that the adjustment of refunds was in order on the ground that (i) an adjustment of refunds was not a "recovery" and (ii) though some issues were covered in favour of the assessee, the decision had not become final as the department was in appeal. The Tribunal then passed a stay order in which it accepted the Assessing Officer's stand that an adjustment of refund was not a "recovery". It was also held that action under section 245 was not "mala fide". The assessee filed a writ petition to challenge the adjustment of refunds. HELD allowing the Petition:

- (i) Section 220(6) has no application to a case where an appeal is filed before the Tribunal though the Tribunal has inherent power to grant stay. The order passed under section 220(6) is null and void. The Tribunal should have decided the stay application instead of calling upon the Assessing Officer to dispose of the application under section 220(6);
- (ii) It is wrong to say that an adjustment of refund under section 245 is not a "recovery" only on the ground that section 245 is placed in the Chapter of "Refunds". The term "recovery" is comprehensive and includes adjustment thereby reducing the demand. In Circular No. 1914 dated 2.12.1993, even the CBDT did not regard 'recovery' as excluding 'adjustment' under section 245. However, different parameters may apply in considering a request for stay against coercive measures to recover the demand and a stay against refund adjustment. It is permissible for the authority to direct stay of recovery by coercive methods but not grant stay of adjustment of refund. However, when a simple & absolute order of stay of recovery is passed, it bars recover of the demand by way of adjustment of demand. The revenue must be obedient and respect the stay order and not over-reach or circumvent the stay order. No deviancy or breach should be made;

- (iii) It will be specious & illogical for the Revenue to contend that if an issue is decided in favour of the assessee giving rise to a refund in an earlier year, that refund can be adjusted under section 245, on account of the demand on the same issue in a subsequent year. While the Assessing Officer can made an addition on the ground that the appellate order for an earlier year has not been accepted, he cannot make an adjustment towards a demand on an issue decided in favour of the assessee.
- (iv) The argument that as the assessment order has been passed under section 144C after reference to the DRP, the orders passed by the CIT(A) and Tribunal in favour of the assessee have lost significance and do not justify stay of demand in covered matters is not acceptable. The decisions of the CIT(A) & Tribunal in favour of the assessee should not be ignored and have not become inconsequential. This is not a valid ground to ignore the decisions of the appellate authorities and is also not a good ground to not to stay demand or to allow adjustment under section 245;
- (v) The respondents are officers of the State and the Law requires that they perform their duties with utmost objectivity and fairness, while keeping in mind the sanctity of the role and function assigned to them which at times requires tough steps. On facts, the conduct and action of the Revenue in recovering the disputed tax in respect of additions on issues which are already covered against them by the earlier orders of the ITAT or CIT(A) is unjustified and contrary to law. Directions issued to refund the tax. ( A.Ys 2003-04, 2005-06 & 2006-07)

Maruti Suzuki India Limited v. Dy. CIT (2012) 204 Taxman 48 / 65 DTR 110 / 246 CTR 176 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 245 : Refunds – Set off against tax payable – Set off – Intimation – KVSS

Assessee having a valid certificate under the KVSS showing full and final settlement of tax payable for asst. yr. 1992-93, there was no occasion for the AO to adjust any tax arrears of that year against refund for asst. yr. 1997-98 that too without any intimation to assessee. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Radhe Investments (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 777 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

CHAPTER XIX-A SETTLEMENT OF CASES

Section 245A : Definitions

S. 245A : Settlement Commission – Definitions – Application for settlement [S. 245BC]

Where on application by assessee under section 245C, revenue had taken an objection to maintainability of application contending that applicant had not fulfilled qualifying criteria as contemplated under section 245C and had sought to agitate matter as a preliminary issue before Commission, but Commission rejected such preliminary objection, writ petition filed by revenue against rejection of their preliminary objection was to be dismissed as at stage of disposal of application; revenue could agitate or apprise Commission on all aspects of matter. (A.Ys. 1994-95 to 1997-98)

CIT v. Vysya Bank Ltd. (2006) 282 ITR 185 / (2005) 198 CTR 450 / 152 Taxman 297 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 245A : Settlement Commission – Definitions – Bench less than three members [S. 245BA]

Only in exceptional circumstances under sub-section (5) of section 245BA, a Bench of less than three members can be constituted; taking advantage of sub-section (5) Settlement Commission cannot constitute Bench of less than three members initially; formation of Bench consisting of two members to entertain application for rectification and to pass rectification order rectifying order of a three-member Bench is de hors provision of sub-section (2) of section 245BA. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1994-95)

Smriti Properties (P.) Ltd. v. Settlement Commission (IT & WT) (2005) 278 ITR 274 / 149 Taxman 386 / 199 CTR 261 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 245A : Settlement Commission – Definitions – Order conclusive – Order under section 245D(4) [S. 245-I]

Conclusiveness given by section 245-I is only as regards liability under Income-tax Act; section 245D does not clothe an order of Settlement Commission under section 245D(4) with such conclusiveness as to exclude any proceedings under Kerala General Sales Tax Act, 1963 (KGST Act) on basis of undisclosed business income found by Settlement Commission in its order. (A.Y. 1991-92)

P.T. Antony & Sons v. Union of India (2005) 279 ITR 363 / 148 Taxman 165 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 245A : Settlement Commission – Definitions – Power to reopen – Assessee's instance

Settlement Commission has no power to reopen the completed proceedings at the instance of the assessee. (A.Ys. 1972-73 to 1979-80)

IDCO Dyes & Chemicals (P.) Ltd. v. Settlement Commission (2003) 259 ITR 600 / 128 Taxman 687 / 180 CTR 212 (Delhi)(High Court)

Section 245C : Application for settlement of cases

S. 245C : Settlement Commission – Application for settlement of cases – Conditions – Revision – Undisclosed income – Full and true disclosure – Right to revise application [S. 245D(4)]

A "Full and True" disclosure of income which had not been previously disclosed by the assessee, being a pre condition for a valid application under section 245C(1), the scheme of Chapter XIX does not contemplate revision of the income as disclosed in the application against item no 11 of Form No 34B. More over, if an assessee is permitted to revise his disclosure, in essence he would be making a fresh application in relation to the same case by withdrawing the earlier application. The assessee can not revise the application. In the Scheme of Chapter XIX-A, there is no stipulation, for revision of an application filed under section 245C(1) and the determination of income by the Settlement Commission has necessarily to be with reference to the income disclosed in the application filed under that section. Revision of the annexure to the application is tantamount to revision of application, not contemplated in the scheme. Revision of undisclosed income in Settlement Application is not permissible.

Ajmera Housing Corporation v. CIT (2010) 326 ITR 642 / 193 Taxman 193 / 234 CTR 118 / 43 DTR 276 (SC) / 8 SCC 739 / (2011) 221 Taxation 1 (SC)

S. 245C : Settlement Commission – Application for settlement of cases – Conditions – True and complete disclosure [S. 132(5), 132(12)]

The Supreme Court set aside the order of High Court and remanded the matter back to the High Court to decide a fresh leaving the parties to raise the points, including the points (i) of the assessee, that the High Court ought not to have entertained the petitions in exercise of writ jurisdiction; (ii) of the Department, that the application filed by the assessee before the Settlement Commission could not be entertained because the assessee had not made a true and complete disclosure of its undisclosed income. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1993-94)

Chhota Lal S. Ajmera (HUF) Karta & Anr. v. CIT (2007) 289 ITR 1 / 199 Taxation 168 / 208 CTR 435 / 160 Taxman 142 (SC)

Editorial:- Decision of Bombay High Court in CIT v. Income tax Settlement Commission (2000) 246 ITR 63 / 163 CTR 440 / 112 Taxman 523 (Bom.), set aside and matter remanded.

S. 245C : Settlement Commission – Application for settlement of cases – Conditions – Income already disclosed – Interest – Order – Power [S. 234A, 234B, 234C, 245D, 245F]

An assessee cannot approach the commission for settlement of his case in respect of an income which has already been disclosed before the Assessing Officer. Mere filing of an application by assessee for settlement would have no adverse effect on proceedings of assessment or initiation against assessee. Commission is not bound to proceed with any application filed under section 245C as is clear from section 245D.

Section 245D refers to "order" not an assessment and "order" is not described as original assessment order or regular assessment.

Interest charged under section 245D (2C) and 245D (6), for different types of defaults and not really relatable to sections 234A, 234B, and 234C, therefore, the apprehension that there is scope for charging of interest on interest is without any basis.

Settlement Commission has no power to reduce / or waive the tax or interest because as laid down in sub section (4) of section 245D, it has to pass orders in the matter of determining quantum of income and tax in accordance with other relevant provisions of the Act, applicable to the relevant assessment years.

CIT v. Hindustan Bulk Carrier (2003) 259 ITR 475 / 126 Taxman 321 / 179 CTR 362 / 173 Taxation 16 (SC)

S. 245C : Settlement Commission – Application for settlement of cases – Conditions – Stage of application – Power to grant immunity from penalty and prosecution [S. 245D]

Assessee can go before the Settlement Commission at any stage, even after investigation / detection of concealed income by the assessing authority. The matter remanded back to the settlement commission to consider the immunity from penalty and prosecution. (A.Y. 1997-98)

CIT v. The Vyaya Bank Ltd. (2010) 42 DTR 97 / 240 CTR 68 / 194 Taxman 533 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 245C : Settlement Commission – Application for settlement of cases – Conditions – Full and true disclosure – Writ-High Court [Art 226. Constitution of India]

Once the income disclosed by the assessee under section 245C of the Act is not accepted as a full and true disclosure, the application under section 245C of the Act filed by the assessee is not maintainable at all and, therefore, Settlement Commission has no jurisdiction to enhance the income of the assessee. (A.Ys. 1991-92 to 1993-94)

The Settlement Commission Order was challenged before High Court by way of a Writ Petition. It was contended that the income shown was a full and true disclosure, then there was no occasion to fix some higher income.

Alternatively, it was contended that if the settlement commission did not want to accept the income disclosed by the assessee under section 245C of the I. T. Act, then in that case, the Petition under section 245C was not maintainable and, therefore, the Settlement Commission was not bound to pass any Orders thereon.

The Hon'ble High Court set aside the Order passed by the Settlement Commission.

Canara Jewellers & Ors. v. Settlement Commission & Anr. (2009) 28 DTR 270 / 226 CTR 79 / 315 ITR 328 / 184 Taxman 491 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 245C : Settlement Commission – Application for settlement of cases – Conditions – No power of court – Expediting proceeding

Court cannot interfere to direct Settlement Commission to proceed expeditiously with application.

Ashish Kumar Ahuja v. UOI (2004) 141 Taxman 349 / 278 ITR 394 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 245C : Settlement Commission – Application for settlement of cases – Conditions – Power – Income tax authorities – Rectification [S. 154, 245D, 245F, 245-1]

After the order is made under sub-section (4) of section 245D, the Commission will not have jurisdiction to exercise the power and perform the function of an Income Tax Authority.

The order made by the Settlement Commission is final and conclusive and can not be reopened under any provisions of the Act, or under any other law, save as otherwise provided in Chapter XIX–A, the same is not subject to section 154. An order made by Settlement Commission under section 245D is conclusive and it can not be reopened in any proceedings under the Act, or any other law for time being in force, even if in a different case, subsequently a view is taken indicating that views expressed in such order by Settlement Commission were wrong.

Capital Cables (India) Pvt Ltd. v. Income tax Settlement Commission (2004) 267 ITR 528 / 138 Taxman 332 / 189 CTR 103 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 245C : Settlement Commission – Application for settlement of cases – Conditions – Deduction at source

Failure on the part of the petitioner to deduct tax at source does not come within purview of section 245C(1).

Shaw Wallace & Co. Ltd. v. Settlement Commission (2003) 263 ITR 285 / 184 CTR 532 / 139 Taxman 59 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 245C : Settlement commission – Application for settlement of cases – Court's review

If Court concludes that Settlement Commission did not satisfy itself about the necessary ingredients which were to be established before penalty was imposed, Court could judicially review such order of commission. (A.Ys. 1972-73 to 1979-80)

INDCO Dyes & Chemicals (P.) Ltd. v. Settlement Commission (2003) 259 ITR 600 / 128 Taxman 687 / 180 CTR 212 (Delhi)(High Court)

Section 245D : Procedure on receipt of an application under section 245C

S. 245D : Settlement Commission – Procedure – Application – Interest – Period upto date of admission [S. 234B, 154, 245J]

Interest under sections 234B can be directed to be charged by the Settlement Commission only up to the order of admission of settlement application under section 245D(1) and not up to the final order of Settlement Commission under section 245D(4). The Commission cannot reopen the concluded proceedings by invoking the proceedings under section 154 of the Act, to levy interest under section 234B that is not charged earlier in the order of settlement particularly in view of section 245I.

Brij Lal and Others v. CIT (2010) 328 ITR 477 / 235 CTR 417 / 46 DTR 153 (SC) / (2011) 1 SCC 1. (SC)

Editorial: In the light of the divergent judgements of the Supreme Court in CIT v. Anjum Ghaswala (2001) 252 ITR 1 / 171 CTR 1 / 119 Taxman 352, CIT v. Hindustan Bulk Carrier (2003) 259 ITR 449 and CIT v. Damani Brothers (2003) 259 ITR 475, a reference was made to the Full Bench of the Supreme Court.

S. 245D : Settlement Commission – Procedure – Application – Fraud or misrepresentation – Revenue’s right [S. 245C, 245I]

Merely because section 245I provides that order of settlement is conclusive, it does not take away power of Commission to decide whether settlement order has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation of facts, but it is not a requirement that Commission must suo-moto initiate action; if revenue has material to show that order was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation of facts, it certainly can move Commission for decision on that issue.

CIT v. Om Prakash Mittal (2005) 273 ITR 326 / 143 Taxman 373 / 194 CTR 97 / 186 Taxation 177 (SC) / 2 SCC 751

S. 245D : Settlement Commission – Procedure – Application – Power – Interest – Separate levy – Waiver [S. 234A, 234B, 234C, 234D, 245D]

Interest charged under section 234A, 234B, and 234C becomes payable on the income already disclosed and the income disclosed before the Settlement Commission and such interest is chargeable till the Commission acts in terms of section 245D. After the Commission allows the application for settlement to be proceeded with, there will be no further charge in terms of sections 234A, 234B, and 234C. Interest charged in terms of section 234D is a separate levy and not in terms of interest chargeable under sections 234A, 234B and 234C. There is no scope for charging interest on interest.

CIT v. Damani Brothers (2003) 259 ITR 449 / 173 Taxation 40 / 179 CTR 362 (SC)

S. 245D : Settlement commission – Procedure – Finality of order – Power – Jurisdiction – Assessing Officer [S. 245C, 245F, 245-I]

Settlement Commission passed an order under section 245D(4) with observation that Commissioner of Income Tax / Assessing Officer may take such action as appropriate in respect of the matter not placed before the Commission by the applicant as per provision of section 245F(4). Assessing Officer issued notice thereafter and made additions over and above that sustained by Settlement Commission. The matter was taken up before the Tribunal, the Tribunal deleted the additions made by the Assessing Officer. In an Appeals filed by the revenue the Court held that, after passing the order by the Settlement Commission, no power vests in the Assessing Officer or any authority to issue the notice in respect of the period and income covered by the order of the Settlement Commission, except in the case of fraud or misrepresentation of facts. Assessing Officer therefore had no power to issue notice in respect of the period and income covered by the order of Settlement Commission. (A. Ys. 2001 to 2006-07).

CIT v. Diksha Singh (Smt.) (2011) 64 DTR 268 / (2012) 247 CTR 215 (All.)(High Court)

CIT v. Late Paramjeet Singh (2011) 64 DTR 268 / (2012) 247 CTR 215 (All.)(High Court)

S. 245D : Settlement Commission – Procedure – Application – Judicial review – Power of court

The Court's power of judicial review on the decision of the Settlement Commission is very restricted. The Court can only consider whether the order of the Settlement Commission is contrary to the provisions of the Income Tax Act.

Mahavir Rolling Mills Pvt. Ltd. v. Income Tax Settlement Commission & Anr. (2010) 40 TLR 18 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 245D : Settlement Commission – Procedure – Application

If Settlement Commission, while passing order, leaves calculation of tax and interest to Assessing Officer, period of thirty-five days for purpose of interest under section 245D(6A) has to be counted from date of actual calculation and service of demand notices on assessee and not from date of order of Settlement Commission. (A.Ys. 1991-92 to 1994-95)

Ranjan Kumar Akhauri (Dr) v. CCIT (2003) 128 Taxman 671 / 261 ITR 385 / 182 CTR 281 (Patna)(High Court)

Section 245F : Powers and procedure of Settlement Commission

S. 245F : Settlement Commission – Powers – Procedure – Rectification of mistakes – Charge interest

Settlement Commission committed an error apparent by not following the decision of the Special Bench of Settlement Commission which was confirmed by the Gujarat High Court and therefore Settlement Commission was justified in exercising the power under section 154 and in allowing the miscellaneous application of the department for charging interest under section 234B. (A.Ys. 2002-03 to 2006-07)

Akbar Travels of India (P) Ltd. v. Income Tax Settlement Commission & Ors. (2010) 43

DTR

49 / 192 Taxman 457 / 236 CTR 37 / 332 ITR 572 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 245F : Settlement Commission – Powers – Procedure – Rectification of mistakes – Decision of constitutional bench

Merely because a division bench of the Apex Court had expressed doubt on the decision rendered by the Constitutional Bench of the Apex Court, the issue cannot be said to be debatable and therefore was outside the scope of rectification. (A.Ys. 1991-92 to 1995-96)

CIT v. Settlement Commission & Anr. (2008) 14 DTR 237 / 176 Taxman 421 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 245F : Settlement Commission – Powers – Procedure – Rectification of mistakes – Supreme court judgment [S. 154]

Scope and ambit of section 245F is wide enough to enable Commission to rectify order. Settlement Commission is an income tax authority to give effect to judgment of Supreme Court within four years from date of original order passed under section 245D, same will be in accordance with provisions contained in section 154. Settlement Commission had passed an order under section 245D(4) waiving and/reducing interest levied on the assessee under sections 234A, 234B, AND 234C, in accordance with the law prevalent at that time. The Settlement Commission within four years following the ratio of judgment in case of CIT v. Anjum M.H. Ghaswala (2001) 252 ITR 1(SC) rectified the order after giving a reasonable opportunity to the assessee.

AOP of Sanjabhai R. Patel v. Assessing Officer / ACIT (2004) 135 Taxman 210 / 267 ITR 129 / 187 CTR 583 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 245F : Settlement Commission – Powers – Procedure – Rectification of mistakes [S. 154]

Settlement Commission has power to rectify a mistake under section 154 in order passed by it. (A.Ys. 1985-86 to 1994-95)

Andrew Nettikkadan v. ACIT (2004) 135 Taxman 132 / 266 ITR 708 / 187 CTR 602 (Ker.) / Queens Saree Collection v. Addl Bench Income Tax – Settlement Commission. (2004) 140 Taxman 235 / 270 ITR 401 / 190 CTR 193 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 245F : Settlement Commission – Powers – Procedure – Rectification of mistakes – No interest power [S. 154, 245I]

Settlement Commission has no inherent power to exercise jurisdiction under section 154 after a final order is passed and becomes conclusive by reason of section 245-1, unless it is necessary in extreme cases

ITSC v. Netai Chandra Rarhi & Co. (2004) 271 ITR 514 / 193 CTR 430 / 142 Taxman 446 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 245F : Settlement Commission – Powers – Procedure – Return of jewellery seized

When Settlement Commission was seized of the matter, it has the power to decide the application of the petitioner for return of jewellery seized. The Court directed the Settlement commission to decide the matter within three weeks.

AMS Jewellers v. CIT (2004) 139 Taxman 34 / 187 CTR 557 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 245F : Settlement Commission – Powers – Procedure – Reassessment – Income tax authority

During pendency of proceedings before the Settlement Commission, lower authorities cannot invoke provisions of section 147/148, as Settlement Commission has exclusive jurisdiction to exercise powers and perform functions of Income Tax Authority.

Vivek Nagpal v. Dy. CIT (2007) 165 Taxman 71 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 245H : Power of Settlement Commission to grant immunity from prosecution and penalty

S. 245H : Settlement Commission – Power – Grant immunity from prosecution and penalty

If application for settlement of income tax cases is filed before Settlement Commission prior to prosecution launched under Income Tax Act or under Indian Penal Code, 1860 and Settlement Commission grants immunity, prosecution proceedings are to be quashed. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Ashirvad Enterprises & Ors. v. State of Bihar & Anr. (2004) 137 Taxman 455 / 266 ITR 578 / 187 CTR 609 / 180 Taxation 319 (SC)

Section 245HA : Abatement of proceeding before Settlement Commission

S. 245HA : Settlement Commission – Abatement of proceedings – Constitutional Validity

High Court passing an interim order that proceedings will not abate, held Court's interim order is valid & it would decide the constitutional validity of section 245HA. Supreme Court upheld the interim order.

UOI v. Rajendra Construction Co. (2010) 217 Taxation 273 / 187 Taxman 135 / 31 DTR 186 / 227 CTR 241 (SC)

Section 245-I : Order of settlement to be conclusive

S. 245-I : Settlement Commission – Order – Conclusive – Prosecution – Immunity [S. 245D(4)]

Settlement Commission granting immunity from prosecution in respect of matters arising out of settlement and not confined to only to specific assessment year. It is not open to Criminal Court to go behind order passed by Settlement Commission. In view of the order passed by the Settlement Commission, the prosecution which was pending against the appellants would not survive. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Nirmal & Navin (P) Ltd. v. D. Ravindran (2002) 255 ITR 514 / 123 Taxman 540 / (2003) 172 Taxation 473 / 175 CTR 407 (SC)

CHAPTER XIX-B ADVANCE RULINGS

Section 245N : Definitions

S. 245N : Advance rulings – Definitions – Application – Maintainability – Amalgamation

Advance Ruling sought by the applicant regarding the tax implications of its proposed amalgamation with another company cannot be declined on the ground of pendency of proceedings under the Companies Act.

Star Television Entertainment Ltd. & Others (2010) 229 CTR 7 / 321 ITR 1 / 188 Taxman 206 / 34 DTR 98 (AAR)

S. 245N : Advance rulings – Definitions – Application – Maintainability – Capital gains

Non-resident buys entire share capital of Indian company which was earlier partnership firm within period of 5 years of conversion on basis of revalued assets; continuation of 50% of voting power thus violated - Non-resident applicant seeks advance ruling on taxability of Indian company for which a doubt was raised on admissibility of the application - AAR observed that there is no specific requirement in sub-clause (i) of S. 245N(a) that determination should relate to the tax liability of the non-resident; further, it is clear that the capital gain tax issue arising in the case of the acquired Indian company has a direct and substantial impact on the applicant's business in view of the stipulations in share purchase agreement - Hence held that application for advance ruling is maintainable

Umicore Finance (2009) 184 Taxman 99 / 318 ITR 78 / 225 CTR 353 / 28 DTR 177 (AAR)

S. 245N : Advance rulings – Definitions – Application – Maintainability

Proposed withdrawal from I.R.A. by Indian non-resident after returning to India whether exempt from tax - AAR observed that present case does not fall under any of the provisions of said Section. By withdrawing his own money from the IRA, the applicant is neither earning any income nor undertaking any transaction with any other person in India. The applicant does not either belong to a class of persons notified in the Official Gazette by the Central Government - Hence held that the questions raised by the applicant are beyond the scope of advance ruling

Shirishkumar Kulkarni (2007) 207 CTR 258 / 288 ITR 530 / 158 Taxman 255 (AAR)

S. 245N : Advance rulings – Definitions – Application – Maintainability – Deduction available if process results in a new product – Partnership with Husband – Himachal Pradesh [S. 81C]

Benefit available only if nature of business involves manufacturing or production as required under the provisions of said section - If the formulation/processing does not result in a new product and presents only a part of manufacturing process, it shall not be entitled to deduction in respect of direct business procured by the applicant - Held proposed partnership firm would be resident as day-to-day business of the firm would be under control of the resident partner in terms of the partnership deed. Since, in the instant case de facto control and management of affairs of firm would be with applicant's husband in India, firm can not be said to be non resident entity and in such circumstances, application would not be maintainable.

S. 245N : Advance rulings – Definitions – Tax liability – Resident – Non-resident – Amendment w.e.f. 1-6-2000.

Earlier an advance ruling could have been sought in relation to the tax liability of a resident as well as non-resident. But after 1-6-2000, that position no longer obtains. After the amendment, a resident can seek advance ruling in relation to the tax liability of only a non-resident. Advance ruling on tax liability of a resident can not be given.

Hindustan Powerplus Ltd., In re (2004) 139 Taxman 64 / 267 ITR 685 / 189 CTR 390 (AAR)

S: 245N : Advance Rulings – Definitions – Non-resident – Indian subsidiary

Application by a non-resident company seeking an advance ruling on tax liability of its Indian subsidiary, is not maintainable.

Connecteurs Cinch S.A. In re (2004) 138 Taxman 120 / 268 ITR 29 / 189 CTR 497 (AAR)

Section 245-O : Authority for Advance Rulings

S. 245-O : Authority for Advance Rulings – Questions not answered – Non availability of facts – Intellectual property – DTAA – India-USA

SREHT, a deemed university & hospital entered into an agreement with Harvard Medical International USA for transfer of knowledge and experience in the field of medical sciences. Both, the applicant and HMI are exempt from tax in their respective countries - AAR observed that if fee paid includes consideration for use of intellectual property, it will be taxable, but as applicant makes lump sum payment for all the services, it is not possible to say what amount is relatable to teaching in or by educational institution - hence on the basis of facts available, this question cannot be answered

Sri Ramachandra Educational and Health Trust (SREHT) (2009) 224 CTR 225 / 181 Taxman 74 / 24 DTR 1 (AAR)

S. 245-O : Authority for Advance Rulings – Lack of clear information – Dismissal of application – Business connection – DTAA – India-Singapore

Applicant is a sub-contractor of a contractor who gets major contract for modernization of Delhi Airport – contract involves supplies of goods fabricated abroad and payment for the same is made outside India and design & erection of structural steel work in India – Assessee seeks ruling whether its income is deemed to arise in India – AAR observed that the operations that took place in India have not been specified and from the main agreement it is not clear as to who is the exporter and what is the role played, point of time of transfer of ownership, payment, etc. and thus the authority dismissed the application for lack of information

Yongnam Engineering & Construction (Pte.) (2009) 224 CTR 356 / 181 Taxman 218 / 25 DTR 1 (AAR)

Section 245Q : Application for Advance Rulings

S. 245Q : Advance rulings – Application – Public sector undertaking – Permission from COD

Authority for advance ruling cannot pronounce a ruling in respect of public sector undertaking without permission from COD. (A.Y. 1986-87)

Mahanagar Telephone Nigam Ltd. In re (2005) 142 Taxman 53 / 191 CTR 518 / 269 ITR 552 (AAR)

S. 245Q : Advance Rulings – Application – Academic interest – Need for an order

The Authority will not pronounce a ruling on a question which is of academic interest.

Acer Computer International Ltd., In re (2004) 138 Taxman 272 (AAR)

S. 245Q : Advance Rulings – Application – Assessee can confine to few Questions raised in the application

After stating questions for seeking an advance ruling, if applicant confines a question to only some of items/ aspects mentioned therein and/or give up some parts of question, there can be no valid objection to such a course. The authority held that the scheme and the provisions of the Act, dealing with advance ruling are intended to provide facility to all those who fall within the sweep of the term "applicant" and by narrow interpretation, the object and the purpose of the Act cannot be thwarted.

Fidelity Advisor Services V111, In Re (2004) 271 ITR 1 / 142 Taxman 111 / 192 CTR 201 (AAR)

S. 245Q : Advance Rulings – Application – Government of India Undertaking – Permission from COD

Application by Government of India Undertaking without clearance from Cabinet Secretariat, permission should be granted to withdraw the application with liberty to approach Authority only after getting permission from COD.

Uranium Corporation of India Ltd., In Re (2004) 138 Taxman 274 / 189 CTR 500 (AAR)

Section 245R : Procedure on receipt of application

S. 245R : Advance rulings – Procedure – Application – Jurisdiction

Section 245R is an integrated section not only dealing with admission of an application but also its final disposal. AAR can independently consider nature of transaction put forward in context of proviso (iii) to section 245R(2) because said proviso gives jurisdiction to Authority to test transaction projected before it in order to find out whether it is designed prima facie for avoidance of Income-tax.

ABC International Inc. (2011) 199 Taxman 211 / 241 CTR 289 / 55 DTR 393 (AAR)

S. 245R : Advance rulings – Procedure – Application – Capital gains – Colourable device – Pendency of proceedings [S. 45, 195, 201]

Applicant MA, a French company, pursuant to an understanding with the other applicant GIMD, also a French company having floated a 100 percent subsidiary and acquired majority shares of an Indian Company in the name of said subsidiary and later both the applicants having sold their shares in the subsidiary to another French company, it was a preordained scheme to deal with the assets and control of the Indian Company without actually dealing with its shares thereby avoiding payment of tax on the capital gains in India and therefore, in view of clause (iii) of the proviso to section 245R(2) Ruling on the question relating to the taxability of the capital gains arising from the sale of said shares by the applicant was declined. The Authority also held that nature of proceedings under section 201 on the basis of section 195 are only preliminary and not conclusive and therefore, pendency of proceedings or order passed under section 201 against the purchaser of shares cannot in the way of the Authority in giving an Advance Ruling under section 245R(4).

Groupe Industrial Marcel Dassault, In. Re. (2011) 64 DTR 1 / (2012) 340 ITR 272 / 245 CTR 353 (AAR)

S. 245R : Advance rulings – Procedure – Application – Pendency of proceedings – Notice under sections [S. 143(2), 147]

Notices under section 143(2) and 147 having been issued to the applicant by the time it filed the application under section 245Q seeking ruling on the question as to whether the amounts received by the applicant are liable to tax in India under the provisions of the Income Tax Act, the question raised is the very question pending adjudication before the Assessing Officer so far as that particular income is concerned and therefore, application is liable to be rejected under proviso to section 245R(2).

Sepco III Electric Power Construction Corporation (2011) 243 CTR 529 / 61 DTR 49 / 202 Taxman 149 / (2012) 340 ITR 225 (AAR)

S. 245R : Advance rulings – Procedure – Application – Objection by department when posted for hearing – Maintainability

After hearing counsel for both the sides on the point of admissibility of an application, the authority posted for hearing, allowing the application under section 245R(2) for hearing on merits. The authority held that the department can not take objection as to maintainability of application when matter posted for hearing on merits. (refer (2009) 318 ITR 78).

Umicore Finance (2010) 323 ITR 25 / 230 CTR 218 / 189 Taxman 250 / 36 DTR 249 (AAR)

S. 245R : Advance rulings – Procedure – Application – Issue pending before Tribunal – Deduction at source – Payment to Non-Resident – Royalty income – DTAA – India & USA [S. 195]

Application seeking advance ruling, rejected on ground that similar issue is pending with Tribunal and any ruling at this stage may create anomalous situation for applicant to comply with; further, it would have been a different matter if the applicant had approached AAR at the earlier point of time in initial stages.

Microsoft Operations Pte. Ltd. (2009) 222 CTR 313 / 310 ITR 408 / 178 Taxman 328 / 20 DTR 1 (AAR)

S. 245R : Advance rulings – Procedure – Application – Application maintainability – Order of Tribunal favourable to assessee

Non-resident applicant sold shares in an Indian listed company which resulted in long-term capital gains and applied to the Authority for advance ruling on whether the applicable tax rate would be 10% as per the proviso to S.112.(1) of the IT Act; prior to this application, it had moved the assessing authority under section 197 for certificate for deduction at lower rate but that had been rejected and certificate was issued for deduction @ 20% with validity up to 31-3-2008. Within 3 days of expiry of validity, applicant moved the AAR which has been opposed by Department - AAR ruled that the applicant is eligible to apply for ruling as none of the embargos laid down in sub-section (2) of section 245R are attracted. The question raised in the application was not presently pending before any income-tax authority or Tribunal or Court - hence, ruled application cannot be rejected on the grounds that applicant has already moved the assessing authority under section 197 of the IT Act for deduction of tax at lower rate, that had been rejected by the assessing authority.

Burmah Castrol Plc. (2008) 174 Taxman 95 / 305 ITR 375 / 219 CTR 112 / 13 DTR 17 (AAR)

S. 245R : Advance rulings – Procedure – Application – Early ruling – Deduction of tax at source – Non resident-Soft ware maintenance [S. 195, Art. 7]

Applicant had obtained advance ruling about taxability of payments in respect of contract entered in 2003 where AAR had ruled that the transaction is not liable to tax in India in the hands of recipient but the Assessing Officer decided the income tax liability in India of Raytheon, under section 147 r.w. sec 143(3) discarding the ruling, appeal against which is now pending - Applicant has now renewed the contract on substantially similar terms and conditions and seeks advance ruling - AAR ruled that current application is not hit by the embargo laid down in the first part of clause (i) to the 2nd proviso to section 245R(2) as an eligible applicant should not be denied the remedy to have an early ruling in the matter on which it had earlier got a ruling

Airports Authority of India (2008) 299ITR 102 / 215 CTR 212 / 168 Taxman 158 / 4 DTR 107 (AAR)

Section 245S : Applicability of Advance Rulings

S. 245S : Advance rulings – Binding – Precedent

Ruling of Authority for Advance Rulings is binding on the assessee and the assessee cannot agitate on those aspects. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Mustaq Ahmed v. ADIT (2010) 124 ITD 312 / 2 ITR 315 / 29 DTR 410 / 126 TTJ 523 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 245S : Advance rulings – Binding – Precedent – Income tax Appellate Tribunal [S. 255]

Ruling given by the Advance Ruling Authority is not binding precedent on the Tribunal but, it was held that, it does not mean that the Tribunal cannot concur with the reasoning given by the said Authority.

Dy. CIT v. Pipeline Engineering GmbH (Mumbai) (2009) 318 ITR (AT) 210 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 245S : Advance rulings – Binding – Precedent – Income Tax Appellate Tribunal [S. 255]

Howsoever strong be persuasive value of ruling given by Authority, these rulings are certainly not binding precedents on Tribunal. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Dy. CIT v. Boston Consulting Group Pte. Ltd. (2005) 94 ITD 31 / 93 TTJ 293 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 245S : Advance rulings – Binding – Precedent

An advance ruling under the Act is confined to the facts and law projected in the application leading to the ruling and is binding only on the party and the revenue.

Cairn U.K. Holdings Ltd. In Re (2011) 59 DTR 121 / 242 CTR 449 / 337 ITR 131 / 201 Taxman 111 (AAR)

CHAPTER XX APPEALS AND REVISION

A. Appeals to the Deputy Commissioner (Appeals) and Commissioner (Appeals)

Section 246 : Appealable orders

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Intimation [143(1)(a)]

It was held that the appeal against intimation under section 143(1)(a) relating to the assessment for the A.Y. 1996-97 is maintainable. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Balmukund Acharya v. Dy. CIT (2009) 310 ITR 310 / 221 CTR 440 / 176 Taxman 316 / 17 DTR 34 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Order giving effect to appellate order

Appeal can be entertained which is filed against an order giving effect to appellate order which holds the same characteristic as the original order against which appeal was filed. (A.Y. 1983-94)

CIT v. Industrial Machinery Mfg. P. Ltd. (2006) 282 ITR 595 / 202 CTR 83 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Assessment – Registration – Single appeal

A single appeal is maintainable against order of assessment and refusal to grant registration. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CIT v. Brahm Swarup Tandon & Co. (2006) 283 ITR 320 / (2005) 142 Taxman 569 (All.)(High Court)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Order giving effect to Appeal is not maintainable against order of Assessing Officer giving effect to order of commissioner. (A.Y. 1982-83)

Tsai Tea Enterprises P. Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 273 ITR 119 / 196 CTR 148 / 151 Taxman 225 (Cal.) (High Court)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – AAC – Interest [S. 139, 217]

AAC is competent to entertain appeal of assessee filed against chargeability of interest under section 139/217. (A.Ys. 1974-75 to 1977-78)

CIT v. Aziz Ahmad (2005) 145 Taxman 542 (All.)(High Court)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Reassessment

Assessee is entitled to contest validity of reopening of assessment in appeals filed before Commissioner (Appeals) against reassessment. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 2001-02)

Toja Tyres & Treads (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 272 ITR 522 / 194 CTR 208 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Assessment order – Refusal registration – Single appeal

A single appeal is maintainable against order of assessment and refusal to grant registration. (A.Y. 1977-78)

CIT v. Electrical Enterprises (2004) 141 Taxman 388 / 192 CTR 596 (All.)(High Court)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Failure to grant interest

Appeal against failure to grant interest while giving effect to order passed by Commissioner (Appeals) would be maintainable. (A.Y. 1985-86)

British Bank of India of the Middle East v. CIT (2003) 131 Taxman 106 / 266 ITR 269 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Interest [S. 234B]

Where pursuant to direction in the assessment order for charging interest under section 234B and interest having been omitted to be charged in demand notice, Assessing Officer invoked provisions of section 154 and levied interest under section 234B, since assessee was challenging levy of interest in total and Assessing Officer's order had effect of reducing refund, appeal was maintainable; there was no merit in contention that appeal being only against charging of interest under section 234B was not maintainable. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Hindustan Sanitary Engineers v. ITO (2005) 95 ITD 226 / 96 TTJ 460 (SMC)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Interest – Maintainable

Where assessee disputes liability of interest as a whole, then he can file appeal before Commissioner (Appeals); but assessee cannot file appeal against liability of interest merely for quantification thereof. (A.Ys. 1978-79 to 1980-81)

Addl. CIT v. Hindalco Industries Ltd. (2005) 4 SOT 757 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Refund [S. 244A]

Grant of refund and interest under section 244A is a part and parcel of assessment and any grievance arising there from can be agitated by assessee by way of appeal, which is his statutory right.

MMTC Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 149 Taxman 7 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Direction of Commissioner [S. 263]

Where Assessing Officer frames assessment under section 143(3) pursuant to order passed by Commissioner under section 263 and assessee is aggrieved by any portion of such fresh assessment order, same is appealable before Commissioner (Appeals). (A.Y. 1998-99)

ITO v. Uma Kant Newatia (2005) 97 ITD 414 / 99 TTJ 376 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 246 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Tax deduction at source

Where State Government had paid TDS on prize won by assessee under its lucky coupon scheme, since no tax had been demanded from assessee, assessee was not aggrieved and appeal by him claiming refund of such tax was unnecessary and devoid of any merit.

Gopal Dass v. ITO (2005) 1 SOT 197 (Chd.)(Trib.)

Section 246A : Appealable orders before Commissioner (Appeals)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – TRO's order for – Sale – Limitation from the date of knowledge of order

Tax recovery officer confirming sale in recovery proceedings Schedule II, RR, 63, 65, 86 is not conclusive, appeal maintainable. For computing limitation the date of order to be construed to mean date of knowledge of order.

Vijay Kumar Ruia v. CIT (2011) 334 ITR 38 / 57 DTR 300 / 242 CTR 292 / Tax L.R. 553 / 203 Taxman 462 (All.)(High Court)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Maintainability – Order giving effect to order u/s. 263 – Revision

Appeal lies before the Commissioner of Income-tax (Appeals) under section 246A of the Act, against the order passed by the assessing officer in pursuant to the order passed/direction given by the Commissioner of Income-tax under section 263 of the Act. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Azhimala Beach Resorts (P) Ltd. v. CIT (2010) 35 DTR 238 / 325 ITR 419 / 195 Taxman 259 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Order giving effect to ITAT's order

Appeal against the order of the assessing officer simply giving effect to the order of the Tribunal would only lie before the Tribunal and not before the CIT (A) under section 246A(1) of the Act.

However, the High Court held that though the Tribunal was right in holding that the appeal was not maintainable before the CIT (A), it ought to have decided the assessee's case on merits and not simply dismiss the appeal.

Paras Rice Mills v. CIT & Anr. (2009) 18 DTR 149 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Person aggrieved – Creditor

Creditor of assessee-debtor whose bank accounts are seized following search by the revenue and following assessment whose assets are attached is not a 'person aggrieved', with in the meaning of section 246A so as to maintain writ against assessee-debtor's assessment.

Gem Granites v. CIT (2004) 267 ITR 640 / 140 Taxman 362 / 192 CTR 26 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Power – Interim relief

Appellate authority has implied and incidental power to grant relief even if statute does not provide it.

Bulk India Transport Co v. CIT (2004) 266 ITR 144 / 141 Taxman 262 / 191 CTR 161 (All.)(High Court)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Shipping – Non-resident [S. 172(4)]

Order determining amount of tax under section 172(4) is appellable.

ITO v. MSC Agency (India) P. Ltd. (2011) 9 ITR 425 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Withholding tax – Relief u/s. 90 & 91

Question of not allowing relief in respect of withholding tax under section 90 / 91 has direct effect of reducing refund or enhancing amount of tax payable, such an issue is squarely covered within the ambit of section 246A(1)(a). 'Amount of tax determined' as per section 246A(1)(a) encompasses not only determination of amount of tax on total income but also any other thing which has an effect of reducing or enhancing total amount of tax payable by assessee. Section 246A(1)(a) covers issue of not allowing relief in respect of withholding tax under section 90 or section 91. (A. Y. 2006-07).

Capgemini Business Services (India) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 131 ITD 396 / 9 ITR 391 / 139 TTJ 202 / 56 DTR 353 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Revision [S. 264]

Appeal against assessment made consequent to order passed under section 264 is maintainable under section 246A, but only to the extent of issues which have not attained finality in order passed under section 264. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 2003-04)

A. Naresh Babu (Dr.) v. ITO (2010) 124 ITD 28 / 5 ITR 485 / (2009) 24 DTR 41 / 123 TTJ 833 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeal) – Revision under section 264 – Fresh Amendment [S. 264]

Appeal against fresh assessment order passed in pursuance of an order under section 264 is maintainable under section 246A(1A). (A.Y. 2002-03)

ACIT v. Kalyan Mitra Trust (2007) 116 TTJ 362 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Revision – Direction [S. 264]

Assessment order framed afresh by Assessing Officer, as per direction under section 264 is an appealable order under section 246A(1)(a).

Teja Singh v. ITO (2007) 158 Taxman 108 (Mag.)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Interest on Refund of interest – Waiver by CCIT [S. 234A, 234B, 234C]

No appeal lies against the order of the Assessing Officer refusing to grant interest on refund in the consequential order passed on the order of Chief CIT waiving interest under sections 234A, 234B and 234C. (A.Y. 1993-94)

ITO v. A. J. Dhanapal (HUF) (2006) 99 TTJ 1009 / 99 ITD 317 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Withdrawal of appeal

CIT (A) having permitted the assessee to withdraw the appeal in the absence of objection by the Revenue, no cause of action arises to the assessee. (A.Ys. 1992-93 and 1996-97)

M. Loganathan v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 1224 / 99 ITD 246 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Rectification – Interest [S. 154, 244A]

Order under section 154 reducing Interest under section 244A is an appealable order. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Progressive Construction Seenayah & Co v. Dy. CIT (2003) 85 ITD 277 / 80 TTJ 1030 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Failure to deduct tax [S. 201(1)]

Order under section 201(1) is an appealable order.

Infosys Technologies Ltd v. Dy. CIT (2003) 86 ITD 342 / 130 Taxman 129 (Mag.)(Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Rectification application

Appeal against non disposal of Rectification Application is an appealable order.

ACIT v. Prakash Agricultural Industries (2003) 127 Taxman 51 (Mag.)(Agra)(Trib.)

S. 246A : Commissioner (Appeals) – Appealable orders – Non-resident – No order passed – Deduction at source [S. 195]

Appeal is maintainable where no order is passed under section 195, but an order under section 201 is passed. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Raymond Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2003) 86 ITD 791 / 80 TTJ 120 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Section 248 : Appeal by denying liability to deduct tax in certain cases

S. 248 : Appeal – Denying liability to deduct tax – Non-resident

Dispute relating to the chargeability of income of the non-resident recipient can alone be the subject matter of an appeal under section 248 and not the possibility of assessing of the income of the non resident in the hands of the resident payer as no procedure of assessment of the income of the non-resident in the hands of the resident payer is contemplated in sub section 1 of section 195. (A.Ys. 2005-06 to 2007-08)

CIT v. Sonata Information Technology Ltd. (2010) 38 DTR 350 / 192 Taxman 80 / 232 CTR 20 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 248 : Appeal – Denying liability to deduct tax – Non-resident [S. 195]

A person who denies liability to deduct tax under section 195 on amount payable to a non-resident is entitled to appeal under section 248.

Reliance Industries Ltd. v. Dy. DIT (International Taxation) (2005) 3 SOT 501 / 98 TTJ 856 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Section 249 : Form of appeal and limitation

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Admitted tax – Recovery from Hundi seized

Assessing Officer recovered amount out of Hundies Seized from the assessee in excess of the admitted tax, the defect in the appeal before CIT(A) due to non payment of admitted tax as required under section 249(4) can be treated to have been removed, the matter was remitted to CIT(A) to decide on merit. (Block period 1st April 1966 to 26th June 2002).

Mansukhlal v. CIT (2011) 62 DTR 356 / 245 CTR 111 (MP)(High Court)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Admitted tax – Block assessment

The CIT(A) did not admit the said appeals since taxes were not paid as per Block Returns. Income-tax Tribunal upheld the same view.

On appeal to High Court, it was held that looking into the facts and circumstances of the case if both the assessee made payments within four weeks of the order, then CIT(A) would look into the merits of the case and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law.

D. Komalakshi, D. Rajkumar v. Dy. CIT (2007) 292 ITR 99 / 209 CTR 70 / 162 Taxman 16 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 249 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Forms of Appeal and limitation – Signature by managing partner – Signed by authorized representative [S. 249]

Memorandum of appeal is to be signed by managing partner/partner, if memorandum of appeal is signed by authorized representative it would not be an illegality but an irregularity which is curable and capable of being rectified. (A.Y. 1978-79)

Remfry & Sons v. CIT (2005) 276 ITR 1 / 145 Taxman 22 / 195 CTR 66 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Admitted tax – Limitation – Refund of earlier years

Commissioner (Appeals), dismissed the appeal on the ground that the assessee has not paid the admitted tax. The assessee contended that in the earlier years the assessee had made excess payments of tax and it was entitled to refunds, and further the bank account was also attached. The assessee made payments afterwards. The Tribunal set aside the order of Commissioner of (Appeals) and directed him to decide on merit. (A. Y. 2007-08).

Endeavour Industries Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 43 SOT 322 / 55 DTR 128 / 138 TTJ 461 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Admitted tax – Paid subsequently

If the appeal is filed without the payment of tax on returned income but subsequently the required amount of tax is paid, the appeal shall be admitted on payment of tax and appeal has to be decided on merit. (A. Y. 2007-08).

Bhumiraj Constructions v. Addl. CIT (2011) 49 DTR 195 / 135 TTJ 357 / 131 ITD 406 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Condonation of delay – Payment of taxes

In the absence of supporting evidence it could not be accepted that the assessee was unable to make payment of tax due to tight financial condition and thus the same also did not constitute a valid explanation for the delay in filing the appeals. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1991-92)

Jagdish Raj Chauhan, Sohagwanti & Gurbachan Singh (AOP) v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 45 / 6 SOT 629 / 100 ITD 525 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Condonation of delay

Assessee-company having initially taken a conscious decision not to file appeals against the assessment orders acting on the advice of its senior manager, CIT (A) was justified in refusing to condone the inordinate delay of more than four years in filing the appeals. (A.Ys. 1995-96, 1996-97)

Sri Venkatesa Paper & Boards Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 450 / 98 ITD 200 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Condonation of delay

Assessee having made bona fide attempt to file the appeal before the Tribunal on the last day of the prescribed period failed to do so as it was a holiday (Saturday) filed on the next working day, there was a reasonable cause for the delay and, therefore, the delay is condoned. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Star Electroplaters v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 640 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Condonation of delay

Assessee's advocate having not filed any appeal against the penalty order and assessee being under bona fide impression that the appeal has been filed the delay in filing the appeal is condoned. (A.Y. 1986-87)

Ram Lal & Sons v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 63 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – AOP – Payment of taxes

Income of the AOP had been already taxed in the hands of its members and the Assessing Officer adjusted the tax due by the AOP against the tax paid by one member thus reducing the demand for two assessment years to nil, and the assessee having paid the demand for the other assessment year before the appeals were filed, the requirement of section 249(4)(a) stood complied with. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1991-92)

Jagdish Raj Chauhan, Sohagwanti & Gurbachan Singh (AOP) v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 45 / 6 SOT 624 / 100 ITD 525 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Payment of admitted taxes – Penalty

[S. 221]

Provisions of section 249(4) do not apply to an appeal directed against an order imposing penalty under section 221. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Satyam Enterprises v. Jt. CIT (2005) 93 ITD 606 / 93 TTJ 489 / (2005) 1 SOT 675 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Payment of admitted taxes – Attachment by department

Dismissal of appeal under section 249(4)(a) for non-payment of taxes was not justified where all properties of assessee had been attached by Department and assessee neither had other sources of income nor was holding any liquid assets and all admitted tax and interest had been paid by assessee by selling properties as soon as attachment was lifted.

Shamraj Moorjani v. Dy. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 321 / 93 TTJ 927 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Limitation – Condonation – Decision of Supreme Court

Where assessee filed belated appeal before Commissioner (Appeals) against order of Assessing Officer along with a condonation petition on ground that appeal was filed in light of decision of Supreme Court in case of CIT v. Shaan Finance (P.) Ltd./1998) 97 Taxman 435 and as said decision was not available at time of due date for filing appeal, delay was due to reasonable cause, Commissioner (Appeals) was not justified in refusing to condone delay holding that if delay was condoned, it would lead to proliferation of endless litigation. (A.Y. 1989-90)

Bajaj Hindustan Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2005) 92 ITD 411 / 92 TTJ 1064 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Condonation of delay – Negligence of consultant

Held, on facts and circumstances that delay attributable to negligence on part of consultant should be condoned.

Shakti Clearing Agency (P) Ltd v. ITO (2003) 127 Taxman 49 (Mag.)(Rajkot)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Payment of admitted tax – Date of intimation of assessment

For the purpose of application of proviso to section 249(4), the relevant date is the date of intimation of assessment proceedings, and not the date of filing appeal. (A.Y. 1987-88)

C. Subramanian v. Dy. CIT (2003) 84 ITD 23 / 79 TTJ 377 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Prepayment of tax – Block assessment

Condition of prepayment of tax apply to appeal filed before CIT(A) and it does not apply to appeals filed before Tribunal. In support, it was clarified from the fact that in Form No. 35, being the proforma of appeal before CIT(A), there is a column for furnishing date and amount of payment of admitted tax, while in Form 36, being proforma of appeal before Tribunal, there is no such column.

Pawan Kumar Ladha v. ACIT (2003) 84 ITD 178 / 78 TTJ 983 (Indore)(Trib.)

Editorial : Affirmed by Supreme Court (2010) 324 ITR 324 (SC) / Anil Sanghi v. ACIT (2003) 85 ITD 73 / 79 TTJ 517 (Delhi)(SB)

S. 249 : Appeal – Form of appeal and limitation – Admitted Tax – Interest payable [S. 140A, 234A, 234B, 234C]

The expression “tax due on the income returned” in s. 249(4)(a) does not include interest payable under section 234A, 234B and 234C. Sec. 140A read with the Explanation and Sec. 249(4) deal with different situations. The provisions sec. 140A cannot be imputed in the provisions of the Sec. 249(4). Therefore, the Assessing Officer has to first adjust the amount of tax paid on the returned income towards interest payable under the Act. As a result of such adjustment there may be a shortfall in the amount to be given credit under section 140A but if the tax due on the returned income is paid then there is sufficient compliance of s. 249(4). (A.Y. 1992-93).

Subbiah Nadar & Sons v. ACIT (2003) 84 ITD 55 / 78 TTJ 549 (Chennai)(Trib.)

Section 250 : Procedure in appeal

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional evidence [Rule 46A]

Admission of additional evidence is with in the discretion of the Commissioner(Appeals), on the facts the said discretion has not been exercised improperly or against the provisions of law. CIT(A) was justified in admitting the additional evidence. (A. Y. 2001-02).

CIT v. Better ways Fianance & Leasing (P) Ltd. (2011) 62 DTR 282 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Validity of warrant – Second round

Assessee having not chosen to challenge the validity of assessments on the allegation of defect or irregularity in the warrant issued either before the Assessing Officer or in the first round of appeals and raised the contention after remand before the CIT(A) for the first time, is not permissible.

Jose Cyriac v. CIT (2011) 238 CTR 207 / 50 DTR 292 / 336 ITR 241 (Ker.) (High Court)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional evidence [Rule 46A]

The Assessing Officer asked the assessee to furnish confirmation letters from customers who had paid advances by cash (& not cheque) which the assessee complied with. In the assessment order, the Assessing Officer treated the advances received by cheque as “unexplained cash credits” under section 68. Before the CIT(A), the assessee produced confirmation letters from customers who paid by cheque. The CIT(A) admitted the additional evidence under Rule 46A & without giving the Assessing Officer an opportunity, deleted the addition. In appeal by the department, the Tribunal upheld the CIT(A)’s action on the ground that as the Assessing Officer had not called for the confirmations before making the addition, the CIT(A) was justified in admitting the additional evidence and there was no reason to set-aside the matter to the Assessing Officer for a second innings. On further appeal to the High Court, HELD allowing the appeal:

Under section 250(4), the CIT(A) has the power to direct enquiry and call for evidence from the assessee. Under Rule 46A, the assessee has the right to ask for the admission of additional evidence. If the CIT(A) exercises his powers under section 250(4) to call for additional evidence, the Assessing Officer need not be given an opportunity to show-cause. However, if the CIT(A) acts on an application under Rule 46A, then the requirement of giving the Assessing Officer an opportunity as per Rule 46A(3) is mandatory. The argument that in all cases where additional evidence is admitted, the CIT(A) should be considered to have exercised his powers under section 250(4) is not acceptable as it will render Rule 46A redundant. On facts, as the assessee had produced the evidence, the CIT(A) ought to have followed Rule 46A(3) and remanded the evidence to the Assessing Officer for comments and verification (matter remanded to the CIT(A)). (A. Y. 2005-06).

CIT v. Manish Build Well Pvt. Ltd. (2011) 63 DTR 369 / 245 CTR 397 / (2012) 204 Taxman 106 (Delhi) (High Court)

Editorial: Dy. CIT v. Manish Build Well (P) Ltd. (2011) 142 TTJ 749 / 63 DTR 448 (Delhi)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional evidence [Rule 46A]

Assessing Officer should be given opportunity to examine documents produced by assessee. Rule embodies provision of natural justice and it is mandatory, when assessee produced additional evidence first time before the CIT(A). (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Shree Kangra Steel Pvt. Ltd. (2010) 320 ITR 691 / 188 Taxman 392 / 38 DTR 170 / 231 CTR 413 (HP) (High Court)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional ground

Additional Ground challenging the assessment on the ground of limitation can be raised first time before the CIT (A) in appeal against the fresh assessment order passed on remand, even though it was not raised either before the assessing authority or the CIT (A) in the first round of proceedings. (A.Y. 1987-88)

CIT v. Madhu Patani (Smt.) (2009) 18 DTR 110 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional ground

Where the assessee's claim for genuine expenditure in a subsequent year was rejected as the same pertained to an earlier year, additional ground with respect to the claim of the expenditure can be raised in the appeal for the earlier year, if the appeal for that year is pending for adjudication before the CIT(A). (A.Y. 1985-86)

CIT v. Vadilal Industries Ltd. (2008) 6 DTR 98 / 217 CTR 318 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional grounds

By virtue of section 250(5), the CIT(A) is empowered to entertain any new ground raised before him which is not specified in the memorandum of appeal. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Himachal Gramin Bank v. Dy. CIT (2008) 9 DTR 141 / 219 CTR 670 / 305 ITR 163 / 176 Taxman 433 (HP)(High Court)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional evidence – Opportunity – AO [Rule 46A]

Opportunity of being heard. The Assessing Officer who was present at the time of hearing before CIT(A) having raised no objection, the opportunity as envisaged u/r. 46A is said to have been satisfied. (A.Y. 1973-74)

CIT v. Kuldip Industrial Corporation (2007) 209 CTR 400 / 164 Taxman 285 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional evidence [Rule 46A]

Assessing Officer never directed the assessee company to produce any evidence to prove the genuineness of share holdings by the subscribing companies nor expressed any doubts regarding the genuineness of share holdings of these companies prior to treating the assessee's capital as unexplained CIT(A) correctly admitted the additional evidence produced before him and there is no question of giving an opportunity to the Assessing Officer to examine the additional evidence. (A. Y. 2005-06).

Dy. CIT v. Dolphine Marbles (P) ITD (2011) 57 DTR 58 / 139 TTJ 129 / 129 ITD 163 (TM)(Jab.)(Trib.)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Reasoned order – Point for determination

An order passed by CIT(A) without mentioning point of determination as also without giving any reason for decision while dismissing the appeal is violative of section 250(6) of the Act and cannot be sustained.

Rang Rasayan Agencies v. ITO, ITA No. 917/Ahd./2009, dt. 18-01-2011, 'C' Bench, BCAJ P. 25, Vol. 42-B, Part 5, February 2011 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Different provisions of law [S. 68 & S. 69]

CIT(A) is duty bound to consider the matter placed before him in its all respects and he could consider the addition under section 68 even though the Assessing Officer had only invoked section 69. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Ishrawati Devi (Smt.) v. ITO (2008) 114 TTJ 541 (All.)(Trib.)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional ground

Claim whether counter sales to foreign tourists against foreign exchange can be treated as export turnover for purposes of section 80 HHC being based on a pure question of law, it can be raised and entertained at any stage of appeal. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Dy. CIT v. Suprint Textiles (2006) 100 TTJ 352 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Undisputed items – Revision – Fresh assessment

Disallowance on account of unverifiable expenses made in the original assessment being neither disputed by the assessee in appeal or revision nor was subject-matter of revision under section 263, same had attained finality, and CIT (A) erred in allowing relief to the assessee in the appeal against the fresh assessment pursuant to revision under section 263. (A.Y. 1998-99)

ITO v. Uma Kant Newatia (2006) 99 TTJ 376 / 97 ITD 414 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Only what AO can do

Powers of Commissioner (Appeals) in course of his appellate jurisdiction are co-terminus with powers of Assessing Officer, and Commissioner (Appeals) can do what Assessing Officer could do but has not done; this applies in a reverse way as well and as such Commissioner (Appeals) cannot do what Assessing Officer could not have done. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Ellel Hotels & Investments Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 659 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Jurisdiction – Assessment year

Jurisdiction of Commissioner (Appeals) is confined only to assessment year which is subject-matter of appeal. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Abdul Wahid Gehlot v. ITO (2005) 93 TTJ 232 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Further enquiry

Expression 'may' appearing in section 250(4) is required to be interpreted as 'shall'; powers conferred upon Commissioner (Appeals) under section 250(4) are not merely decorative or cosmetic; they cast upon Commissioner (Appeals) an obligation and duty to carry out such further inquiry as is necessary to arrive at a decision on merits on facts of case; while deciding a ground of appeal taken by an assessee, it is incumbent upon Commissioner (Appeals) to give a positive finding of fact, he cannot rely upon a mistake committed by Assessing Officer. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Jt. CIT v. Swarup Vegetable Products Industries Ltd. (2005) 96 ITD 468 / 98 TTJ 283 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional evidence

Where assessee's claim for exemption under section 10(4) of interest on FDRs in NRE account was rejected on ground that status shown by him in return was 'resident', and assessee produced additional evidence in the form of certificate which indicated that money kept in NRE account was as per guidelines of RBI, Commissioner (Appeals) was not justified in declining to admit fresh evidence in form of certificate. (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 2000-01)

Rachhpal Singh v. ITO (2005) 94 ITD 79 / 93 TTJ 283 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional evidence

Where assessee raised additional grounds relating to claim for depreciation and exemption under section 10(19) but those were not admitted by Commissioner (Appeals) on ground that all facts required to decide said issues were not available on record even though assessee claimed that such facts were on record, action of Commissioner (Appeals) in refusing to admit additional grounds for that reason was not justified as Commissioner (Appeals) could have obtained any further information/clarification from books of account and other record maintained by assessee. (A.Y. 1993-94)

International Airports Authority of India Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 95 ITD 101 / 95 TTJ 1075 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 250 : Appeal – Procedure – Additional claim

Where revenue itself had allowed depreciation at 25 per cent on value of additions to various assets it could not be said that details were not available on record and therefore in such a case Commissioner (Appeals) was not justified in rejecting to entertain assessee's additional claim of depreciation at rate of 100 per cent on various additions in depreciable assets. (A.Ys. 2001-02, 2002-03)

Smartchem Technologies Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 97 TTJ 818 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

Section 251 : Powers of the Commissioner (Appeals)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Condonation of Delay – Avoid technicalities

Unless mala fides are writ large, delay should be condoned. Matters should be disposed of on merits and not technicalities.

Improvement Trust v. Ujagar Singh Civil Appeal No. 2395 of 2008 dated 9-6-2010 (SC) www.itatonline.org

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Direction

Proceedings for assessment of an assessee cannot be based on directions issued by another co-ordinate Tribunal or even a higher forum, if that was not the subject matter before it. That would be an exercise without jurisdiction. Power of Commissioner (Appeals), directing to tax certain amounts in hands of a third party, held to be not valid. (A. Y. 2006-07).

CIT v. Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti (2011) 336 ITR 77 / 200 Taxman 362 / 64 DTR 147 (All.)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Additional evidence [Rule 46A]

When the assessee files additional evidence before the CIT(A) it is not necessary that the CIT(A) must remand the matter to the Assessing Officer, it depends on the nature of the evidence. The CIT(A) in appropriate case without prejudice to either parties can look into the evidence itself. (A. Y. 2001-02).

CIT v. Jind Co-operative Sugar Mills Ltd. (2011) 51 DTR 121 / 335 ITR 43 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Omission to claim in the return

Mere omission of the assessee to claim exemption under section 10(35) in the return of income could not debar the assessee from making the claim before the first Appellate Authority during the appellate proceedings. (A. Y. 2004-05).

CIT v. Metalman Auto P. Ltd. (2011) 52 DTR 385 / 336 ITR 434 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – No Jurisdiction over third party

Powers of appellate authority is normally co-extensive with that of original authority. It would not be open to appellate authority to exercise a jurisdiction which Assessing Officer did not have. Assessee claimed to be charitable institution, in its assessment. Assessing Officer held that amount transferred by assessee to Mandi Parishad as development cess and administrative expenditure were for non charitable purpose and therefore, were added in assessee's income.

On appeal Commissioner (Appeals) held that both amounts could not be assessed in hands of assessee, but in hands of Parishad. He observed that amount transferred to Mandi Parishad was not credited to "Cess Fund". (Central Mandi Fund). Accordingly he directed Assessing Officer to make a reference to Assessing Officer of Mandi Parishad to make remedial measures, if necessary, in relevant assessment years to tax relevant receipts in hands of Mandi Parishad. The Court held that it is not open to another quasi judicial authority to give direction to determine tax liability of third party. Accordingly observations made by Commissioner(Appeals) were without jurisdiction.

CIT v. Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti (2011) 336 ITR 77 / 200 Taxman 362 (All.)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Recovery – Stay [S. 220]

CIT(A) has not passed any order whatsoever on the stay application filed along with the appeal even after lapse of two and half months. Inaction on the part of CIT(A), is deprecated. CIT(A), is directed to hear the stay application and dispose of the same within period of 15 days and meanwhile no coercive action is to be taken against the assessee. CBDT is directed to issue a circular if necessary for disposal of stay application.

Smita Agrawal (HUF) v. CIT (2010) 321 ITR 491 / 230 CTR 173 / 215 Taxation 657 / 26 DTR 333 (All.)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Grounds not raised [S. 23 Wealth Tax Act]

Commissioner (Appeals) in appeal can consider grounds not raised before Assessing Officer. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 2001-02)

Binny Ltd. v. ACWT (2010) 324 ITR 34 / 45 DTR 239 / 235 CTR 185 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – On remand

Where the Tribunal had remanded the matter back to the Appellate Commissioner with a specific direction to consider a particular plea of the assessee. Then before the Commissioner in the second round a new plea cannot be raised. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1995-96-97)

Ritz Theatre v. ITO (2010) 47 DTR 234 / 194 Taxman 544 / 236 CTR 246 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Jurisdiction – Order after transfer – Set aside

The appeal had been decided by J who had been transferred. J sought to discharge his duties as Commissioner (Appeals) and decided the appeal on October 3, 2006, though on the said date, A in fact, was holding the office of the Commissioner (Appeals), Allahabad. On October 3, 2006, when J passed the order in the appeal of the assessee, admittedly, he was already transferred by the order dated May 31, 2006, passed by the competent authority. On October 3, 2006, J had no jurisdiction to function as Commissioner (Appeals), Allahabad. It was held that the Tribunal was right in setting aside the order passed by him.

Vinod Kumar Rai (Dr) v. Income-tax Appellate Tribunal and Others (2008) 302 ITR 148 / 217 CTR 607 / 173 Taxman 289 / 4 DTR 309 (All.)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Direction to reopen another year

CIT (A) has no power to give direction to Assessing Officer to reopen the assessment of another year. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CIT v. T. A. Krishnaswamy (2008) 2 DTR 143 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Enhancement – Opportunity

While completing the assessment for the A.Y 1997-98, the Assessing Officer allowed the claim of the assessee with respect to ` 1,26,06,781/- being the interest on debenture and inter-corporate dividends. The Learned CIT(A) without giving any opportunity to the assessee enhanced the assessment. On appeal to the ITAT, the ITAT set aside the order of the CIT(A).

On appeal to the High Court, the High Court held that the CIT(A) committed an error in passing the order without giving opportunity to be heard. The Hon'ble High Court further held that it is a settled law in the case of India Cements Ltd., v. CIT reported in 60 ITR at page 52 (SC), that the loan obtained was not an asset or an advantage for the enduring benefit of the business of the assessee. Applying the same principle, the interest on debentures and corporate borrowings also cannot be treated as an asset or an advantage for the enduring benefit of the business of the assessee and accordingly confirmed the ITAT's Order. (A.Y. 1997-98)

CIT v. Lotte India Corporation Ltd. (2007) 290 ITR 248 / 212 CTR 543 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Additional evidence [Rule 46A(4)]

Rule 46A(4) provides that notwithstanding rule 46A(1), the appellate authority can permit production of documents which enables him to dispose of the appeal. In this case before CIT(A), the assessee produced confirmation letters from various creditors which request was turned down on the ground that under rule 46A(1) of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, no fresh evidence could be permitted for the first time in appeal. Later the Tribunal reversed the decision and the High Court upheld the same. (A.Y. 1997-98)

CIT v. Suretech Hospital and Research Centre Ltd. (2007) 164 Taxman 168 / 211 CTR 360 / 293 ITR 53 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Enhancement – Information from AO

The High Court held that the Assessing Officer had right to alert CIT (A) who has power to enhance the income not only suo moto but also on the basis of information received from the Assessing Officer.

Goel Die Cost Ltd. v. CIT (Appeals) (2007) 201 Taxation 330 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Additional evidence [Rule 46A]

CIT(A) is justified in allowing the application under section 46A where the Assessing Officer has not responded to the repeated reminders by the CIT(A) to submit his report. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CIT v. Imperial Cables (P.) Ltd. (2007) 159 Taxman 328 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Additional evidence [Rule 46A]

The assessee did not tender relevant and documentary evidence before Assessing Officer and tendered the same for the first time before CIT(A). He did not give any explanation for not filing the same before Assessing Officer. However, the learned CIT(A) admitted the said document/evidence without calling upon the revenue to rebut it. The Hon'ble ITAT upheld the action of the CIT(A). On appeal to High Court, it was held that since no opportunity of hearing was given to the revenue, ITAT was not justified in upholding the CIT(A)'s order. High Court remanded the matter to CIT(A). (A.Y. 1998-99)

CIT v. Ranjit Kumar Chaudhary (2007) 288 ITR 179 / 209 CTR 21 / 162 Taxman 257 (Gau.) (High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Natural justice [S. 251]

Commissioner (Appeals) has powers to go into question of violation of principles of natural justice complained of by assessee while prosecuting appeal before him

K. Nedunchezian (Dr) v. Dy. CIT (2005) 274 ITR 37 / 199 CTR 301 (Mad.) (High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Additional evidence – Oral – Documentary [S. 251]

An appellant is not entitled to produce fresh oral or documentary evidence, as a matter of right in appeal; duty is cast on authority concerned to record reasons in writing for admission of additional evidence; mere presence of assessing authority during course of hearing of appeal would not lead to presumption that he assented for taking additional evidence on record. (A.Y. 1974-75)

Haji Lal Mohd. Biri Works v. CIT (2005) 275 ITR 496 / 145 Taxman 578 / 199 CTR 170 (All.) (High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Condonation of delay

Impugned assessment order was based on a High Court's decision which had been reversed by Division Bench, condonation of delay in filing appeal against assessment order could be considered.

United India Insurance Co v. UOI (2004) 139 Taxman 325 / 187 CTR 400 / 274 ITR 255 (Raj.) (High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Direction

Commissioner (Appeals) remanded case to Assessing Officer and directed him to consider question of addition on account of expenses that remained unexplained, Tribunal was not justified in modifying directions of Commissioner (Appeals) and directing Assessing Officer to restrict additions to that originally made.

CIT v. M.C. Garg (Dr), Prop, Garg Eye and Maternity Hospital (2004) 271 ITR 264 / 193

CTR

275 / 193 Taxman 338 (P&H) (High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Additional evidence

In view of rule 46A(4) Commissioner cannot straightaway refuse to entertain confirmation letters from creditors produced before him by way of additional evidence; he should direct Assessing Officer to consider them.

CIT v. K. Ravindranathan Nair (2003) 131 Taxman 743 / 184 CTR 461 / 265 ITR 217 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Annulment of assessment

Where assessment is set aside without any direction for fresh assessment, it would amount to annulment of assessment in toto and reopening of assessment on basis of such appellate order was not justified.

FU Sheen Tannery v. ITO (2003) 262 ITR 456 / 185 CTR 70 / 134 Taxman 25 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – New claim – Non filing of revised return

When the assessee, during the course of assessment claimed the cost of acquisition of the capital asset as per the valuation report stating the fair market value as on 1st April 1981, the Assessing Officer should have entertained the said claim and CIT(A) also erred in not considering the claim, which is a legally permissible claim. (A. Y. 2005-06)

Gopi S. Shivnani (Mrs) v. ITO (2011) 57 DTR 18 / 139 TTJ 308 / 133 ITD 172 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Finding – Direction

An appellate authority cannot give direction or finding in respect of other years, direction or finding can be given only in respect of year or period which is before the authority.

Sun Metal Factory (I) (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 124 ITD 14 / (2008) 15 DTR 274 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Set aside

After 1st June, 2001, CIT(A) has no power to set aside the issue to the file of the Assessing Officer for reconsideration. (A.Y. 2005-06)

Suri Sons v. Addl. CIT (2009) 124 TTJ 800 / 27 DTR 306 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Additional evidence

There is no requirement for confronting Assessing Officer in a situation where the Additional evidences were filed before the Commissioner (Appeals) under his direction. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Dy. CIT v. Thoresen Chartering Singapore (Pte) Ltd. (2009) 118 ITD 416 / 199 TTJ 621 / 24 SOT 433 / 15 DTR 395 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Before settlement commission – Settlement commission

(i) Assessee appealed before the Appellate Tribunal against dismissal of appeal by the CIT(A) on the ground that the appeal had become infructuous and non est before him as the issues were placed before the Settlement Commission. In other words, the CIT(A) loses his jurisdiction to decide the appeals in such situation. So, order passed by the CIT(A), dismissing the appeal, is only a technical order for statistical purposes and such order is not appealable order before the Appellate Tribunal.

(ii) Where the matter is abated before the Settlement Commission then the erstwhile jurisdiction of the CIT (Appeals) gets revived.

J. C. Augustine v. ACIT (2009) 312 ITR (AT) 60 (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Enhancement – Opportunity of hearing – Notice

Section 251(2) only requires to offer a reasonable opportunity to call for an explanation from an assessee for proposed action of enhancement and it has not prescribed any statutory notice under the Act for issuing a show-cause notice for enhancement of income. (A.Y. 2001-02 & 2002-03)

Honda Siel Cars India Ltd. v. ACIT (2007) 109 ITD 1 / 111 TTJ 630 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Power – Condonation of delay – Illness of director

Illness of the director of the assessee company constituted sufficient cause for the delay and, therefore, the delay in filing the appeal is condoned. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Orbitel Communication (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2007) 107 TTJ 112 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Mistake of counsel

Counsel of the assessee having admitted his fault and shown reasonable cause for non-appearance, impugned order dismissing the appeal is set aside and the matter is restored to the first appellate authority for a fresh decision as per law. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Suprabhat Road Carrier (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2006) 103 TTJ 720 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Enhancement – Remand on specific issue

CIT(A) had no power of enhancement when the matter was remanded to him on a specific issue of addition. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Delhi Building Material Corpn. v. ACIT (2006) 103 TTJ 830 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Allowability of expenditure

Order of CIT(A) directing the Assessing Officer to examine the allowability of expenditure after verification of details amounted to setting aside the assessments. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1992-93)

J & K Cigarettes (P) Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 1028 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Brought forward loss [S. 72(1)]

It was held that, even though no appeal was preferred against Assessing Officer's declining the carry forward of loss in the assessment year in which the loss was incurred, the assessee is not denuded of his right to claim the set off of such loss in the year in which he has an income. The CIT(A) has jurisdiction to adjudicate such a claim on merits and it cannot be simply brushed aside on the ground that the assessee did not raise any grievance in the assessment year to which the loss pertains. Therefore, on the facts of the case, the Revenue's plea that CIT(A) was denuded of the powers while dealing with an appeal for the A.Y. in which the assessee sought such set-off of carried forward loss to adjudicate was rejected. (A.Y. 1990-91).

ACIT v. M.K. Chatterjee (2003) 86 ITD 90 / (2004) 86 TTJ 591 / 86 ITD 91 (Cal.)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Assessment

Commissioner (Appeals) has no power to decide the issue on merits by pre-empting the judgement of assessing officer that can be made under section 143(3). (A.Y. 1998-99)

Aquapharm Chemical Co Ltd v. Jt. CIT (2003) 85 ITD 188 / 80 TTJ 235 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Direction for other year

Commissioner (Appeals) can only give finding that the particular income does not belong to the year under appeal, and he has no power to give direction to assess the said income in any other year.

ACIT v. Munnalal Sons & Co. (2003) SOT 533 (Agra)(Trib.)

S. 251 : Commissioner (Appeals) – Powers – Not deciding the issue on merits – Set aside

Assessee cannot object the Commissioner (Appeals) action, of not deciding the issue on merits, and setting aside the order with the direction to pass fresh order giving proper opportunity.

Manish enterprises v. ACIT (2003) SOT 530 (Jab.)(Trib.)

B. Appeals to the Appellate Tribunal

Section 252 : Appellate Tribunal

S. 252 : Appellate Tribunal – Court – Ministry of law and justice – Judicial autonomy

The Tribunal exercises judicial functions and has trappings of Court. The Tribunal functions under the Ministry of Law and Justice and the Law secretary is the member of the selection Board. The Ministry of law and Justice exercises a disciplinary power over the members of the Tribunal. The functions of the Tribunal being judicious in nature, the public have a major stake in its functioning, for effective and orderly administration of justice. The Tribunal, as far as possible, should have judicial autonomy.

Ajay Gandhi & Anr. v. B. Singh & Ors. (2004) 265 ITR 451 / 134 Taxman 537 / 186 CTR 506 / 179 Taxation 433 (SC)

S. 252 : Appellate Tribunal – Appointment of Vice President of the ITAT is by Merit-based selection and not seniority – No reservation for OBC

Appointment to post of Vice-President has to be made on basis of merit from amongst members by method of selection and not on basis of seniority. No reservation to be applied in case of appointment not by way of direct recruitment.

Sunil Kumar Yadav v. UOI & B. R. Mittal v. UOI O.A. No. 2839/2009 dated 28-10-2010 (CAT). Source : www.itatonline.org

Section 253 : Appeals to the Appellate Tribunal

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Public Sector Undertakings – COD Approval

Supreme Court doubts law requiring PSUs to obtain COD approval and refers the matter to a larger bench for reconsideration.

CCE v. Bharat Petroleum Corporation Civil Appeal No. 1903 of 2008 dated 6-4-2010 (SC)

Source : www.itatonline.org

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Change of address – Amendment in Form No. 36 [S. 282]

In case of change of address of assessee, Tribunal to make it mandatory to amend their appeal memo or cross objections and form no 36 to facilitate proper service of notice and avoid passing of ex-parte order. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Jagjivandas Nandlal & Co. v. ITAT (2011) 333 ITR 274 / (2010) 195 Taxman 157 / 47 DTR

145 / 236 CTR 274 (Bom.)(High Court)

Editorial : Refer Income-tax Appellate Tribunal Rules, 1963 (R. 9A) Revised Form No. 36 (2012) 343 ITR 34 (St.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Condonation of delay – Reasonable Cause – Pendency of rectification application [S. 154]

Where the delay in filing the appeal before the Tribunal was caused due to the pendency of the application under section 154 before the CIT(A) and the assessee has shown just and sufficient cause for the delay in filling the appeal, Tribunal was not justified in refusing to condone the delay. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Subhash Malik v. CIT (2010) 325 ITR 243 / 39 DTR 245 / 187 Taxman 88 / 236 CTR 407 (All.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Passing of order – Time limit [S. 254(1)]

Appellate Tribunal passing order and making pronouncement of judgment – Tribunal passing the Order after more than four months from the date of hearing, therefore, the impugned order was set aside and Tribunal directed to decide the same afresh. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Shivsagar Veg Restaurant v. ACIT & Another (2009) 317 ITR 433 / 176 Taxman 260 / (2008) 220 CTR 563 / 16 DTR 30 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Maintainability – Order of CST – Refusing to grant the approval [S. 80G]

Appeal against the order of the Commissioner of Income tax refusing to grant the approval to the assessee trust under section 80G of the Act was not maintainable before the Tribunal. (A.Y. 2003-04)

CIT v. Shri Digamber Jain Mindir Chaksu (2009) 29 DTR 65 / (2010) 189 Taxman 106 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Right to Appeal – Board's instructions

Filing of an appeal is statutory right, but it can certainly be regulated by Board by issuance of order, instructions or circulars, this would not amount to taking away right of filing of appeal. When Supreme Court or territorial High Court has declared law on a question, it is not open to Tribunal to direct that circular issued by Board prescribing monetary limit for filing appeal should be given effect to such decision of Supreme Court or territorial High Court must be brought to Tribunal's notice by department and an objection to that effect must be raised by the department. (A.Ys. 1995-96, 1996-97)

CIT v. Concord Pharmaceuticals (2009) 317 ITR 395 / (2008) 220 CTR 117 / 14 DTR 186 / 174 Taxman 529 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Appeal – Fees – Income assessed is a loss

Where the income assessed by the Assessing Officer is a loss, Tribunal appeal fees payable would be ` 500 as per clause (d) of sub section (6) of section 253 of the Act. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Gilbs Computer Ltd. v. CIT (2009) 27 DTR 163 / 226 CTR 19 / 317 ITR 159 / 184 Taxman 342 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Fees – Rejection of appeal by Commissioner (Appeals) – Limitation – ` 500

The assessee has preferred an appeal against the CIT(A)'s Order rejecting the appeal on the ground of limitation has to pay the appeal fees at ` 500/- as per the provisions of section 253(6)(d) of the Act.

Rajkamal Polymer (P.) Ltd. v. CIT (2007) 158 Taxman 120 / 207 CTR 160 / 291 ITR 314 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Non representation – No power to hold appeal as not maintainable – Ex parte – Merits – Rules 19, 20, 24 – Income-tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules, 1963

Non representation of assessee on the date of hearing, Tribunal did not hear on merits, the court held that Tribunal holding appeal not maintainable was not proper. Held that the ITAT misread and misapplied Rules 19 and 20 of 1963 Rules in holding that the assessee's appeal was not maintainable. On the contrary, ITAT could have proceeded with the hearing of the appeal ex parte as per Rule 24 of ITAT Rules. The appeal was not heard on merits and erroneously held that appeal was not maintainable.

Tribhuvankumar & Others v. CIT (2007) 294 ITR 401 / 213 CTR 198 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Cross objection – Not fatal [Rule 27]

Order of CIT(A) beneficial to assessee, failure of assessee to file cross objection cannot be held against him. (A.Y. 1984-85)

Dahod Sahakari Kharid Veehan Sangh Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 282 ITR 321 / 200 CTR 265 / 149 Taxman 456 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Affidavit by counsel – Ethics of advocacy – Tantamount to committing contempt

The assessee, before the Hon'ble High Court on the basis of an affidavit of its Counsel, contended that the additions confirmed were not justified. The Hon'ble Court observed that it is not the job of a Counsel to file affidavit. The submission of the assessee in placing reliance on affidavit of the Counsel and pressing such submission, deserved to be deprecated and rejected at the outset. Indeed, it is highly objectionable and against the ethics of advocacy and judicial norms. It may tantamount to committing contempt entitling the court to initiate proceedings against the concerned lawyer who filed such an affidavit. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Keshav Pulses v. CIT (2006) 156 Taxman 234 / 204 CTR 482 (MP)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Approval of COD – State Governments and PSUs

State Governments and PSUs do not need COD approval for filing an appeals in the Income tax matters.

Shivshahi Punarvasan Prkalp v. UOI W.P. No. 2270 of 2009 dated 5-1-2010 (Bom.)(High Court) Source: www.itatonline.org

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Additional grounds – Any stage of proceedings – Rule 11 of ITAT Rules, 1963

Additional ground could be raised at any stage of the proceeding in order to decide the appeal which has a bearing on the correct determination of tax liability and the same can not be rejected on the ground of limitation. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 1995-96)

Zakir Hussain v. CIT (2006) 202 CTR 40 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Condonation of delay – Illness of male partner

Illness of only male partner constituted reasonable cause where other partner was aged about 68 years old. Delay was condoned. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Auto Centre v. St. of UP Ors. (2006) 204 CTR 142 / (2005) 278 ITR 291 / 148 Taxman 573 (All.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Condonation of delay – Advice of counsel – Affidavit of director

Assessee not preferring the appeal before the Tribunal within the specified time on the advice of its counsel and the Director of the Assessee Company filing affidavit to explain the reasons for the delay – Delay is due to reasonable cause and Tribunal must give a finding that there was no sufficient cause for the delay. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Areva T & D India Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2006) 203 CTR 325 / 287 ITR 555 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Period of limitation – Amendment of memo

In section 253(3) limitation is provided only for purpose of filing appeal and not for amendment of memo. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Shilpa Associates v. ITO (2003) 263 ITR 317 / 181 CTR 92 / 135 Taxman 277 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – ITAT – Tax effect less than ` 30000, or less

Circular issued by the CBDT regarding not pursuing matter where tax involved is less than ` 30,000 is not an unqualified embargo on the revenue proceeding with the matter where the amount of tax in issue is ` 30,000 or less. (A.Y. 1986-87)

CIT v. P.S.T.S. Thiruvirathnam & Sons (2003) 261 ITR 406 / 186 CTR 400 / 140 Taxman 48 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Stay Application in Tribunal maintainable despite non-filing of stay petition before lower authorities – Dispute Resolution Tribunal

There is no merit in the argument of the department that the stay application should be rejected outright since the assessee has not moved any petition before the Revenue Authorities seeking stay of the demand. Seeking stay before the lower authorities is directory and not mandatory.

DHL Express (India) P. Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 140 TTJ 38 / 49 DTR 432 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Fees – “pauper provisions” under 33 of CPC

Benefit of “pauper provisions” under section 33 of CPC is confined to the underprivileged class of public which does not have means to pay the costs of litigation. Assessee a lawyer, who is practicing before High Court, Debt recovery

Tribunal and lower Courts and does not fit in the criterion of an indigent person in Expl. 1 to Rule 1 of order 33 and therefore, she is not entitled to protection of order 33. Appeals are dismissed for want of payment of appeal fees. (A.Ys. 1999-2000 to 2004-05)

Yashshree Yogesh Naik v. Dy. CIT (2011) 44 SOT 1 / (2010) 45 DTR 249 / 133 TTJ 534 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Power – Penalty [S. 246A(1)(q), 271FA]

Income tax Appellate Tribunal has no power to entertain the appeal against the order passed under section 271FA i.e. delay in filing information. An appeal against the order passed under section 271FA can be preferred before the CIT(A). (A. Ys. 2005-06 to 2008-09).

Sub-Registrar, Nakoar v. DIT (2011) 57 DTR 497 / 139 TTJ 734 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Fees – Income determined – Order under section 154

Order passed under section 143(1), assessed income is ` 13,06,780/-. Appeal filed against order under section 154. Total income determined at more than ` 2 lakhs fee payable shall be one percent of assessed income subject to a maximum of ` 10,000/-. The Tribunal held that fee rate dependent on total income determined. (A. Y. 2002-03).

M. M. Bagwan and Brothers v. ACIT (2011) 7 ITR 298 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Special bench – Judicial discipline – Member who has decided the issue – Depreciation on Goodwill

If a member has already taken a view, it would be in the interest of judicial discipline to recuse him self from hearing of instant appeal. Issue of allowability of depreciation on good will is kept pending till the decision of High Court.

CLC & Sons (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 38 SOT 439 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Jurisdiction – Reassessment – Second round [S. 147]

Challenged the validity of reassessment proceedings in the second round before the Tribunal. The Tribunal held that, it is now well established that the issue of jurisdiction of the authorities is a fundamental and the root of the proceedings or matter. Any finality and the dispute or defect as regards the jurisdiction got inbuilt into the order and should, therefore, always subject matter for legal scrutiny, when questioned as long as such issue has not reached finality. After all the jurisdiction to authorities cannot be conferred by acceptance or negligence of the parties to the dispute. It can always be agitated or questioned when the assessee gets some opportunity over the issue. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Hemal Knitting Industries v. ACIT (2010) 127 ITD 160 / 48 DTR 393 / 135 TTJ 143 (TM) (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Special audit – Fees to Auditor – Not maintainable [S. 142(2A)]

In the absence of any specific provision empowering the Tribunal to hear appeal against fixation of audit fees payable to special auditors appointed under section 142(2A), appeal filed by the assessee against the order under section 142(2D), is not maintainable. (A.Y. 2005-06)

Sony Mony Electronics Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2010) 121 TTJ 660 / 45 DTR 431 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Cross objection – Assessee's appeal

Cross objection at assessee's instance in its own appeal is not maintainable.

Vidya Institute v. CIT (2010) 3 ITR 491 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Appeal – Fees – Non-maintainability by CIT(A) – ` 500

As the Commissioner (Appeals), dismissed the appeal on ground of non-maintainability only sum of ` 500/- payable as fee. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 2003-04)

A. Naresh Babu (Dr.) v. ITO (2010) 124 ITD 28 / 5 ITR 485 / (2009) 24 DTR 41 / 123 TTJ 836 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Appeal – Fees – Penalty – ` 500

An appeal against levy of penalty under section 271 is covered by cl. (d) of section 253(6), and the fee payable is ` 500 only. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Dabwali Transport Company v. ACIT (2010) 38 DTR 434 / 3 ITR 785 / 137 TTJ 49 (Chd.)(Trib.)

Editorial:- Refer Ajit Kumar Pandey (Dr.) (2009) 310 ITR 195 / 223 CTR 96 / 21 DTR 103 (Patna)(High Court)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Appeal fee – Revision Order [S. 263]

In an appeal against order under section 263 filing fee will be governed by cl. (d) of 253(6). Finding given in order under section 263 is not based on the computation of total income by the Assessing Officer. Hence, cls. (a) (b) and (c) of section 253(6) are not attracted. Only

` 500 is payable as filing fee. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Jet Electronics v. ACIT (2008) 2 DTR 337 / 116 TTJ 225 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

Editorial Note: Order of Special Bench of Tribunal at Kolkata in Bidyut Kumar Sett v. ITO (2004) 85 TTJ 896 / 92 ITD 148 (SB)(Kol.) distinguished.

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Delay in Filing – Mistake of counsel – Wrong opinion

Delay in filing of appeal caused due to mistake on part of counsel in giving wrong opinion, constituted a reasonable cause for delay.

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Cross objection – Raising new ground – No estoppel

There is no estoppel in raising a claim just because the same was not originally raised either before the Assessing Officer or before the CIT (A). (A.Ys. 1995-96, 1996-97)

Jt. CIT v. Steri Sheets Ltd. (2007) 106 TTJ 460 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Condonation of delay – Charitable Trust [S. 12A]

Applicant society working under Government supervision having applied for registration under section 12A as a result of amendment of law, there was reasonable cause for the delay in filing the application for registration under section 12A and, therefore, the delay is to be condoned.

Krishi Upaj Mandi Samiti, Hindaun City v. CIT (2007) 107 TTJ 381 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Condonation of delay – Charitable Trust [S. 11, 12A]

Applicant having filed belated application for registration under section 12A as it came to know only at a later stage from a decision of the Tribunal that it can claim exemption under section 11, there was reasonable cause for the delay in filing the application.

Rajasthan State Agricultural Marketing Board v. CIT (2007) 106 TTJ 1109 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Power – Right to contest – Tribunal Rules, 1963 R. 27)

Where the CIT(A) decided the ground of reopening against the assessee but decided the ground of merits in favour of the assessee, the assessee is entitled, in an appeal by the Revenue before the Tribunal, to urge, under Rule 27 of the Income Tax Rules, that the CIT(A) was wrong in deciding the ground of reopening against the assessee. (A.Y. 1995-96)

ACIT v. Triace, ITA No. 2827/Mum/04, Bench-H, dated 26-11-2007 Source: www.itatonline.org (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Appeal fee – Excess fee to be refunded [S. 263]

Filing fee required to be paid in respect of appeal against order under section 263 being ₹ 500 under section 253(6)(b) and assessee having paid ₹ 5021, excess directed to be refunded.

Kiranjit Singh v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 424 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Condonation of delay – “Sufficient cause”

Words “sufficient cause” appearing in section 253(5) should receive a liberal construction so as to advance substantial justice – Length of delay is immaterial and acceptability of explanation is only criteria for condoning delay. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1999-2000)

Sterlite Industries (India) Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2006) 6 SOT 497 / 102 TTJ 53 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Reference to third member – Additional evidence

Additional evidence cannot be admitted by the Third Member and the matter has to be decided by him on the basis of record available before the original Bench.

Aishwarya K. Rai (Ms.) v. Dy. CIT (2006) 105 TTJ 825 / (2007) 104 ITD 166 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Condonation of delay – Delay of 310 days – Negligence

Reasonable cause – Delay of 310 days in filing appeal before the Tribunal occurring solely due to misplacement of CIT(A)’s order is attributable to negligence and inaction and the same did not constitute sufficient and good reason for condonation of delay. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Jt. CIT v. Tractors & Farm Equipments Ltd. (2006) 105 TTJ 705 / 104 ITD 149 (TM)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Condonation of delay – Gross negligence

Department having sent the appeal to the Tribunal through a Chowkidar which was not in fact delivered and even after knowing that fact filed a fresh appeal after further delay of more than three months, the delay in filing the appeal was caused by gross negligence and not due to any sufficient cause and, therefore, delay cannot be condoned. (A.Y. 1991-92)

ITO v. Nauhria Rice Mills (2006) 103 TTJ 245 / 101 ITD 191 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Tax effect is nil – CBDT’s Instruction

If tax effect in an appeal filed by the revenue before it is nil then in that case the said appeal is not maintainable in view of the CBDT Instruction No. 1979, dated – 27-3-2000 even if it involves a question of law. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Jt. CIT v. Peerless Developers Ltd., (2006) 103 ITD 349 / 104 TTJ 741 (SB)(Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Appealable Orders – Block assessment – Rectification of mistake [S. 154, 158BC]

In absence of any provision under section 253(1), no appeal lies directly to Tribunal against order of Assessing Officer under section 154 rectifying original order under section 158BC.

Pradeep Singh v. Dy. CIT (2005) 93 ITD 514 / 93 TTJ 1055 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Appealable Orders – Dismissal by CIT(A) for non payment of admitted tax

An appeal lies against order of Commissioner (Appeals) whereby appeal was dismissed for non-payment of admitted tax on returned income.

Shamraj Moorjani v. Dy. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 321 / 93 TTJ 927 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Tax effect – Appealable orders

Where tax effect in case of an assessee does not exceed minimum limit stipulated, revenue will be prohibited from filing appeal before Tribunal in view of CBDT Instruction No. 1979, dated 27-3-2000. (A.Y. 2001-02)

ITO v. Chandra Kant S. Dharma (2005) 94 ITD 152 / 95 TTJ 151 (Indore)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Tax effect – Appealable orders

Appeal filed by revenue where tax effect involved is less than monetary limit prescribed by CBDT, is not maintainable. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Jt. CIT v. Dev Raj Agarwal (2005) 92 ITD 249 / 92 TTJ 889 (Luck.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Tax effect – Appealable orders

CBDT Instruction No. 1979, dated 27-3-2000, specifying monetary limits for departmental appeals does not apply in case of penalty. (A.Ys. 1996-97, 1997-98)

Dy. CIT v. Mangal Dayak Chit Fund (P.) Ltd. (2005) 92 ITD 258 / 97 TTJ 130 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Validity of assessment – Penalty appeal

It is open to assessee to set up/raise question of validity of assessment in appeal against levy of penalty. (A.Ys. 1996-97, 1997-98)

Tidewater Marine International Inc. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 96 ITD 406 / 97 TTJ 130 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Fees – As per AO's order – Income assessed – Relief granted by Commissioner (Appeals) cannot be considered

For filing an appeal before Tribunal, assessee is required to pay fee on the basis of income as computed by Assessing Officer under section 143(3) without taking into account relief granted by Commissioner (Appeals). (A.Y. 1998-99)

Kothari Departmental Stores (P.) Ltd. v. Assessing Officer (2005) 96 ITD 142 / 97 TTJ 278 / 97 TTJ 278 (TM)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Validity of appeal – Appeal by Assessing Officer without direction of CIT – Non est

Petition or appeal, etc., filed by Assessing Officer or by an Officer other than Assessing Officer without directions of Commissioner to do so, is non est and cannot be considered by Tribunal. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Rajeev Kumar Doneria v. ACIT (2005) 94 ITD 345 / 95 TTJ 732 (Agra)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Priority hearing – Stay granted matters

With the insertion of two provisions in sub section 254(2A) by the Finance Act, 2001, with effect from 1-6-2001, while fixing the time limit for disposal within the said time, it has become imperative for the Tribunal to fix the appeal of the assessee for hearing out of turn hearing when ever stay is granted. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Bechtel India (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 92 ITD 205 / 93 TTJ 794 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – ITAT Rules, 1963 – Rule 35 – Separate stay petition for each assessment year

Separate stay petition should be filed seeking stay of recovery of demand for different assessment years even though pertaining to same enactment. (A.Ys. 1999-2000 to 2001-02).

Wipro Ltd. v. ITO (2003) 86 ITD 407 (2004) 84 TTJ 685 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 253 : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Fees – Penalty order u/s. 271(1)(c) – ` 500. [S. 271(1)(c)]

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not based on total income assessed but it is on tax sought to be evaded. Therefore, appeal filing fee against the penalty order is governed by section 253(6)(d). Accordingly, filing fee of ` 500 for each assessment year deposited was proper. (A.Y. 1993-94 to 1996-97)

Amruta Enterprises v. Dy. CIT (2003) 84 ITD 172 / 79 TTJ 214 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 253(1)(b) : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Maintainability – Non-payment of Admitted tax [S. 249(4)(a)]

Each heading of Chapter XX being a stand-alone item, the provision of section 249(4)(a) cannot be read into section 253(1)(b) and, in the absence of dis-enabling provision in section 253(1)(b), assessee's appeal under section 253(1)(b) was maintainable despite non-payment of full amount of admitted tax.

CIT v. Pawan Kumar Laddha (2010) 324 ITR 324 / 38 DTR 3 / 190 Taxman 169 / 231 CTR 219 (SC) affirming (2003) Pawan Kumar Ladha v. ACIT 84 ITD 178 (Indore)(Trib.)

S. 253(5) : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Appeal – Condonation of delay – Reasonable cause – Prosecution notice

Prosecution notice alone was the provocation for filing the appeal after a long delay of 13 years which did not constitute a reasonable cause, therefore, the delay could not be condoned. (A.Y. 1986-87)

Jetha Drums & Containers (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2007) 106 TTJ 1047 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 253(6) : Appeals – Appellate Tribunal – Appeal Fee ` 500 – Interest [S. 220(2)]

In appeal challenging interest under section 220(2), appeal fee payable is ` 500 under cl. (d) of section 253(6).

Pedda Sankara Rao & Ors. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 424 (Visakha)(Trib.)

Section 254 : Orders of Appellate Tribunal

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Enhancement

Under section 254(1), the Tribunal has no power to take back the benefit conferred by assessing officer or enhance the assessment. In the present case since the assessing officer has granted depreciation the benefit could not be withdrawn by the Tribunal. (A.Y. 1991-92)

MCorp Global Pvt. Ltd. v. CIT (2009) 309 ITR 434 / 178 Taxman 347 / 19 DTR 153 / 222 CTR 110 / 211 Taxation 197 (SC) / 3 SCC 420

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Cross objection – Non adjudication by ITAT

Revenue filing appeal and the assessee filing cross objection before the Tribunal. Tribunal dismissed the revenue's appeal and not adjudicated the assessee's cross objection. The Court held that the cross objection to be decided.

Ram Ji Dass & Co. v. CIT (2011) 220 Taxation 90 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty – Reasoned order

A judicial order must be supported by sufficient reasons for coming to the conclusion. Failure to record reason would violate the principles of natural justice and is against the basic concept of fairness and transparency, therefore, orders passed by the CIT(A) and the Tribunal suffer from violation of principles of natural justice can not be sustained. (A. Y. 2001-02).

Iskraremeco Regent Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 237 CTR 239 / 49 DTR 185 / 331 ITR 317 / 196 Taxman 103 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional grounds – Factual Plea – ITAT Rule 11

Where the Revenue had not contested / urged before the lower appellate authority or as an additional ground before the Tribunal nor the Assessing Officer had taken such stand in his assessment order. The Tribunal was held to have committed an error in allowing the Revenue to raise such new factual plea for the first time before it at the stage of argument and adjudicating upon such plea. (A. Ys. 1966-67 to 1981-82)

Meghji Girdhar (HUF) v. CIT (2011) 52 DTR 397 / 239 CTR 411 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional ground – Issue of notice

Assessee cannot be allowed to raise the plea as to whether the notice under section 143(2) was validly served on it for the first time before the Tribunal. (A. Y. 1997-98).
Aravali Engineers P. Ltd. v. CIT & Anr. (2011) 49 DTR 68 / 237 CTR 312 / 335 ITR 508 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Natural justice – Administrative law – Opportunity for filing paper book

The Tribunal had decided the Departmental appeal against the assessee without waiting for the paper book containing the relevant documents promised to be filed by the Department. The Department appeal was allowed. The High court remitted the matter back to the Tribunal to decide the matter a fresh.

Krishan Kumar Sethi v. CIT (2011) 333 ITR 16 / 203 Taxman 216 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty – Jurisdiction – Reopening of assessment [S. 147]

The assessee had raised a specific ground challenging the jurisdiction of the assessing officer on framing the assessment order beyond limitation before the CIT(A) and succeeded before him in appeal. The Tribunal was held not justified in deciding the issue on merits and reversing the order of the CIT(A) without deciding the issue on jurisdiction under section 147 of the Act. (A. Y. 1990-91)

Kumudam Printers (P) Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 56 DTR 61 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order giving effect to order of Tribunal – Scope – Binding nature of order of Tribunal – Assessment [S. 143(3), 237]

While giving the effect to the appellate order Assessing Officer cannot travel beyond the order of Tribunal and assessee the prize money as income from other sources. Assessing Officer being a quasi judicial authority and subordinate to the Tribunal is bound by the decision of the Tribunal. The assessee is entitled to refund of advance tax collected with interest as per law. (A. Y. 2001-02).

Lopamudra Misra (Miss) v. ACIT (2011) 59 DTR 257 / 243 CTR 66 / 337 ITR 92 / 202 Taxman 437 (Orissa)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty – Additional evidence – Forensic – Report

The revenue has filed the report of the Forensic Science Laboratory was a relevant material and so was affidavit of the searched person. The additional evidence was necessary for just decision of the matter. The Tribunal was not justified in declining to consider the additional evidence comprising the opinion of the laboratory of the Government examiner and also the affidavit of the author of the diary, as the documents had a direct bearing on the issue.

CIT v. Mukta Metal Works (2011) 336 ITR 555 / 244 CTR 544 / 62 DTR 167 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty – Binding – Decision of jurisdictional High Court

It is the duty of the Tribunal to follow decision of jurisdictional High Court. Tribunal cannot hold High Court decision erroneous because it did not consider relevant provision. (A. Y. 1989-90)

National Textile Corporation Ltd. (M.P.) v. CIT (2011) 338 ITR 371 / (2008) 216 CTR 153 / 171 Taxman 339 / 5 DTR 159 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Power of enhancement

The arrears of rent & damages received by the assessee were claimed as 'not taxable' by the assessee, being capital receipts whereas the Department contended that the same were taxable, being on revenue account. The Tribunal remanded the matter back to consider whether the same could amount to 'Capital Gains', being received for surrender of tenancy. It was not even the case of the Department that these were 'capital gains'. It was held that the Tribunal cannot enhance the scope of the appeal by adjudicating on grounds not raised by the Appellant.

Jasmine Commercials Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 200 Taxman 338 / 56 DTR 159 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Additional ground – Remand of the matter

When the material called upon by Tribunal was produced and available on record, remand of the matter to the CIT(A) was not valid, once the materials are available on record, the Appellate Court should have disposed of the case on merit taking those materials into consideration and there is no need to remand the matter. (A. Ys. 2000-01 to 2006-07).

Siksha "O" Anusandhan v. CIT (2011) 244 CTR 515 / 62 DTR 191 / 336 ITR 112 (Orissa)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Search and seizure – Validity

A search took place in case of assessee and two sons. Assessee filed the return declaring 1/3 share of rent as his share. Assessing Officer completed the assessment treating the said property as HUF. Assessee challenged the validity of search. Tribunal declined to go into validity of search. On merits the Tribunal remitted the matter back to the assessing Officer. The Court held that refusal on part of Tribunal to go into validity of search which is sine qua non for initiating block assessment is illegal. The Court also held that it was not proper for the Tribunal to remand matter without attempting to settle at its stage. The order passed by the Tribunal was set aside and the matter was remanded to it for fresh consideration. (A. Ys. 2000-01, 2004-05 and 2005-06).

CIT v. Subbalakshmi (Smt.) (2011) 202 Taxman 448 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Search – Validity – Authorisation [S. 132(1)]

Validity of search and seizure operation could not be gone in to by the Tribunal in appeal proceedings.

Brij Mohan Bhatia v. ITAT (2011) 64 DTR 212 / 335 ITR 580 / (2012) 246 CTR 529 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Powers – Second remand

Where the CIT(A) failed to pass order in terms of remand made by the Tribunal, the Tribunal had power to make a second remand to the CIT(A). (A. Y. 2001-02)

Vipin Khanna v. CIT (2011) 202 Taxman 250 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Need not follow blindly earlier decision

The appellate Tribunal need not blindly follow earlier decision if it did not reflect the correct position of law.

CIT v. HI Tech Arai Ltd. (2010) 321 ITR 477 / 236 CTR 321 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Precedent – Binding nature of order of another Bench – Judicial Discipline – The Constitution of India [Article 226]

One bench cannot differ from the view of another co-ordinate Bench. Judicial discipline requires reference to larger bench in case of difference in views between benches on identical facts.

Mercedes Benz India Pvt. Ltd. v. UOI (2010) 252 E.L.T. 168 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power

The Tribunal has no power to put restriction on Assessing Officer to determine income, either at figure higher than that determined by Assessing Officer under section 144 or at figure lower than that declared by assessee in original return. (A.Ys. 1993-94, 1994-95)

CIT v. H. P. State Forest Corporation Ltd. (2010) 320 ITR 54 / 230 CTR 284 / 230 CTR 284 (HP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty

Order passed by the Tribunal by merely relying upon the decision without recording the finding and also the reasons as to how the decision was applicable to the facts of the assessee's case was liable to be set aside as the order of the Tribunal was passed without application of judicial mind.

DIT (E) v. Shia Dawoodi Bohra Jamat (2010) 40 DTR 31 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duties – Consider facts

Tribunal mechanically following decision of High Court which was not applicable to the facts, the court held that the order of Tribunal not valid and matter remanded to the Tribunal. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. Damodar Mangalji Mining Co. (2010) 326 ITR 437 / (2009) 26 DTR 211 / 228 CTR 160 / 185 Taxman 39 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty – Reasoned order

It is obligatory on the part of Tribunal to pass reasoned order and adjudicate the list on merits, by ascribing cogent and germane reasons after dealing with the factual issue in detail. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Rajesh Maheshwari v. ACIT (2010) 36 DTR 43 / 320 ITR 58 / 230 CTR 412 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Jurisdiction – Finding in respect of other year

Tribunal cannot give a finding in respect of assessment of an year which is not subject matter appeal. (A.Y. 1997-98, 1998-99)

Marubeni India P. Ltd. v. CIT (2010) 328 ITR 306 / 195 Taxman 76 / 47 DTR 181 / 236 CTR 234 / (2011) Tax. L.R. 417 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Ex-parte Order – ITAT Rules 1963, Rule 24

Where the Tribunal rejected the application of the petitioner under Rule 24 for recalling ex-parte order on irrelevant grounds and the petitioner had explained reason for non appearance on the date of hearing of appeal, the order passed by Tribunal rejecting the petitioner's application under Rule 24 was liable to be set aside. (A.Ys. 2000-01 to 2003-04-05-06)

Devendra G. Pasale v. ACIT (2010) 47 DTR 297 / 236 CTR 227 / 333 ITR 263 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Powers – Deduction under an alternative section

[S. 36(1), 37]

Assessee having claimed deduction under section 36(1)(vii), Tribunal was empowered to deal with the issue of allowability of the impugned amount as an expenditure under section 37(1). (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. Khaitan Chemicals & Fertilizers Ltd. (2010) 38 DTR 86 / 326 ITR 114 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty – Reasoned order

While deciding the appeal, Tribunal should deal with issues both on facts and law with reference to submissions urged and then return its own reasoning, quoting the finding of CIT(A) and simply upholding the same without its own reasoning is not proper.

K. D. Wires Pvt. Ltd. v. CIT (2010) 319 ITR 359 / 187 Taxman 257 / 38 DTR 210 (MP)(High Court)

Editorial:- Refer Jt. CIT v. Saheli leasing & Industries (2010) 324 ITR 170 (SC)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty – Reasoned Order

Tribunal was not justified in dismissing the revenue's appeal mechanically, merely to maintain consistency, disregarding several issues decided by the Assessing Officer, more so when the tax effect was substantial. It should have dealt with the issues adjudicated by the Assessing Officer by passing reasoned order instead of relying upon the outcome of the earlier assessment year. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Swapna Roy (Smt.) (2010) 40 DTR 193 / 192 Taxman 105 / 233 CTR 10 / 331 ITR 367 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Powers – Partial relief by Commissioner (Appeals) – Non filing of cross objection

Where the revenue authorities had challenged the action of the CIT (A) granting a partial relief to the assessee before the Tribunal and there was no appeal or cross objection filed by the assessee in absence of such appeal or cross objection, Tribunal could not grant 100 per cent relief to the assessee in appeal filed by the revenue. (A.Y. 1994-95)

CIT v. Sisodia Marble & Granite (P) Ltd. (2009) 18 DTR 147 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Adjournment – Absence of counsel

Where both the parties request for adjournment in the absence of their respective counsels, the Tribunal can consider their request or proceed to decide the case on the merits instead of dismissing the case. The technicalities should take a back seat as far as determination of rights of the parties are concerned. The parties should be afforded opportunity to address arguments on the merits instead of dismissing the case for default. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

CIT v. Avon Cycles Ltd. (2009) 309 ITR 247 / 177 Taxman 33 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty – Speaking order

Merely confirming CIT(A)'s Order without recording reasons, ITAT's Order to be set aside and has to be remanded back.

The Order of the Tribunal does not satisfy even the bare necessities of an Order of a quasi-judicial body, and hence, to be set aside. (A.Ys. 1999-2000)

CIT v. India Carbon Limited (2009) 315 ITR 315 / 30 DTR 99 (Gau.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional ground – Exempt income [S. 14A]

Where neither during the assessment proceedings, nor during the appellate proceedings before the CIT(A), the revenue had invoked the provisions of section 14A of the Act with respect to expenditure incurred for earning exempt dividend income and further, there was no material before the Tribunal, which would have permitted it to take up the additional ground pertaining to section 14A, the Hon'ble High Court on these facts held that the Tribunal was justified in rejecting the plea of the revenue to raise additional ground pertaining to section 14A of the Act for disallowing expenditure incurred for earning exempt dividend income. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Hindustan Tin Works Ltd. (2009) 24 DTR 88 / 226 CTR 42 / 330 ITR 350 / 187 Taxman 298 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Precedent – Decision of High Court of different jurisdiction – Not binding

Decision of High Court of different jurisdiction is not binding on Tribunal. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Visvas Promoters (P.) Ltd. v. ITO (2009) 30 DTR 65 / 226 CTR 638 / 185 Taxman 145 / 232 ITR 114 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional evidence – Hypertechnical – Rule 46A

Tribunal confirming the order of CIT(A) without considering the additional evidence which was crucial. The High Court held that the additional evidence goes very root of the matter and a reasonable approach is needed and not the hyper technical approach adopted by the Tribunal, hence, the matter remanded to the Tribunal. (A.Y. 1971-72)

Daljeet Kaur v. ITO (2009) 212 Taxation 46 (MP)(High Court)

Editorial Note:- See Prabhavati Shah (Smt.) v. CIT (1998) 231 ITR 1 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional ground – Interest – First time before Tribunal
[S. 234B]

Plea against charging of interest under section 234B, could be allowed to be raised by the assessee in appeal before the Tribunal notwithstanding the fact that it was not raised by it before lower authorities. (A.Y. 1992-93)

S. Kumars Tyre Manufacturing Company Ltd v. CIT (2009) 227 CTR 181 / 30 DTR 233 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Block assessment – Validity of search

While hearing an appeal against the block assessment order the Tribunal cannot go into the question of validity of the administrative decision for conducting search and seizure operation. (A.Ys. 1986-87, 1996-97)

CIT v. Paras Rice Mills (2008) 15 DTR 262 / 220 CTR 619 / 313 ITR 182 / 176 Taxman 181 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Remand – Fresh evidence

Where the High Court had directed the Tribunal to adjudicate the matter afresh on the basis of the material on record, in such a case it was not open for the Tribunal to take fresh evidence while readjudicating the matter afresh in pursuance of the direction of the High Court. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Harsingar Gutkha Pvt. Ltd. v. Income Tax Appellate Tribunal & Ors. (2008) 13 DTR 9 / (2009) 176 Taxman 137 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional ground – New source of income

Where the revenue sought to introduce a new source of income by raising an additional ground before the Tribunal, the High Court concurring with the view taken by the Tribunal, held that if the request of revenue is acceded to, it would amount to setting the process of assessment in action by the authorities below for the first time, as the issue sought to be raised in form of additional ground was not part of subject matter of the assessment order or the order of the first appellate authority. (A.Y. 1978-79)

CIT v. Dalmia Dairy Industries Ltd. (2008) 12 DTR 25 / 176 Taxman 169 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Speaking order – Relying upon order passed by subordinate authority without independent application of mind

The Tribunal is expected to apply its mind to facts of each case and thereafter arrive at a conclusion since it is final fact-finding authority and facts determined by it would be conclusive unless they are perverse. Therefore, while disposing of an appeal, Tribunal cannot entirely rely upon order passed by subordinate authority without independent application of mind.

CIT v. Jadeja Consultants (P) Ltd. (2008) 173 Taxman 286 / 10 DTR 205 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Third member – Power – No right to enlarge, restrict, modify and/or formulate any question of law on his own

Third Member must confine himself to order of reference, he has no right to go beyond scope of reference in a matter of difference of opinion between Member of Bench and has no right to enlarge, restrict, modify and/or formulate any question of law on his own on difference of opinion referred to by Members of Tribunal. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Dynavision Ltd v. ITAT (2008) 171 Taxman 486 / 217 CTR 153 / 304 ITR 350 / 7 DTR 123 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duties – Reasoned order

Tribunal is under a legal obligation to formulate in short the question involved and then quote its reasoning already arrived at in its main leading order in case the Tribunal does not wish to add any more reasoning to its earlier order. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. Madhya Pradesh Tyres Co. (2008) 171 Taxman 296 / (2009) 316 ITR 202 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Adjournment – Rejection not valid

Tribunal was not justified in refusing prayer of assessee's counsel for 10-12 days adjournment on the ground that he being busy before the High Court, without giving any valid reason and in proceeding ex parte and deciding the appeal. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Babulal Jain v. ITO (2008) 3 DTR 232 / 215 CTR 340 / 298 ITR 369 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – New claim – Not made in the original return

The Hon'ble High Court after considering the decision of Apex Court in the case of Goetze (India) Ltd. vs. CIT (2006) 284 ITR 323 (SC) held that Tribunal had power to allow deduction of expenditure to the assessee to which it was otherwise entitled even though no claim was made by the assessee in its return of income. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. Jai Parabolic Springs Ltd. (2008) 6 DTR 233 / 306 ITR 42 / 172 Taxman 258 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Search and seizure – Validity of search

Tribunal had jurisdiction to go into the question as to whether the search was conducted consequent upon valid authorisation.

CIT v. Chandra Devi Soni (2008) 1 DTR 98 / 214 CTR 118 / 313 ITR 174 / 170 Taxman 164 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional ground

Issuance of notice under section 143(2) is mandatory and its non-issuance would make Assessment Order illegal, and, thus, ground raised and sought to be added was a legal ground which goes to the root of matter. Therefore, Tribunal should permit assessee to add additional grounds and adjudicate the same.

Mohan Davey v. UOI (2007) 163 Taxman 274 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Judicial discipline – Order of Special Bench

The Department had filed an appeal to High Court against special Bench decision which was pending for final disposal. In spite the special Bench order in favour of assessee, the Assessing Officer has raised the demand.

Aggrieved by the said order of Assessing Officer assessee preferred an appeal to CIT(A). The High Court directed CIT(A) to hear the appeal in keeping with the high standard of judicial discipline for which the sub-ordinate authority such as the CIT(A) should not feel hesitant to follow the order of the Special Bench which was not suspended by a competent court. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Nokia Corporation v. D.I. (International Taxation) & Others (2007) 292 ITR 22 / 211 CTR 48 / 162 Taxman 369 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duties – Record reasons

It is well settled law that while disposing of an appeal, the appellate authority must record reasons for its decision. The appellate authority has examined the record of the case and has taken a view without giving any reason. This does not serve the cause of justice. The High Court remanded the matter to the Tribunal for a fresh consideration in accordance with law. The Tribunal should give its reasons for whatever conclusion it arrives at on the merits of the case. (A.Y. 1995-96)

D. I. (E) v. Uma Maheshwar Parmurth Trust (2007) 292 ITR 352 / 165 Taxman 81 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional evidence

Assessee for the first time filed affidavit in 1993, seeking to produce Trust Deed dt. 4-4-1977. The Assessing Officer had given ample opportunity to the assessee to file or produce relevant documents like trust deed which was not produced before him. It was not produced before CIT(A) also and hence Tribunal refused to admit the same.

On reference, High Court upheld the decision of ITAT. (A.Ys. 1978-79 to 1982-83)

N. B. Surti Family Trust v. CIT (2007) 288 ITR 523 / 200 CTR 145 / 153 Taxman 31 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Restoration of appeal – ITAT Rules 1963 [Rule 24]

On the day of hearing, assessee sought adjournment of hearing. ITAT without considering assessee's application for adjournment passed exparte order on merits and dismissed assessee's appeal. Thereafter assessee filed Miscellaneous application to ITAT by praying to set aside the exparte order passed by it and to restore the appeal for disposal afresh on merits, but the ITAT dismissed the same.

On Writ Petition filed before the Madras High Court, the Court held that sufficient cause had been shown by the assessee for non-appearance before ITAT on day of hearing, the order of the ITAT was liable to be set aside and appeal restored for the disposal afresh.

Ravi Prakash Khemka v. ITAT (2007) 288 ITR 362 / 209 CTR 342 / 164 Taxman 431 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Competency of appeal – Monetary limit

It was held by the Hon'ble High Court that CBDT's instructions came w.e.f. 1-4-2001. The assessment year involved in this appeal was earlier to the date from which notification was given effect. Hence, the application of notification for dismissing the appeal was not legally permitted. Over and above, Clause (ii) of Para 3 of the Instruction No. 1979 provided that where the Board's Order, Notification, Instructions or Circular is the subject matter of an adverse order irrespective of the monetary limit, the appeal has to be decided on merits.

The High Court held that the questions raised by the Revenue in its appeal are questions of law and are answered in favour of the Revenue. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. V. Sivakumar & Others (2007) 294 ITR 371 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional ground – Question of law

An additional ground can always be raised under section 254 before Tribunal if it involves a question of law, which emerges from facts on record in assessment proceedings, although same might not have been raised before Commissioner (Appeals).

Avery Cycle Industries Ltd. v. CIT (2007) 164 Taxman 429 / 292 ITR 493 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Remand – Partial disallowance of expenses by CIT(A) – No contest by revenue – Order of remand to reconsider entire claim – Not valid

The assessee filed second appeal to ITAT. The ITAT without considering the specific grounds raised in appeal relating to disallowance of service charges and marketing expenses confirmed by the CIT(A), restored the matter to the Assessing Officer for de novo consideration.

The court held that the order passed by the ITAT without considering the issues raised in the appeal and in remanding the case to the file of the Assessing Officer for reconsidering the entire claim could not be sustained and hence the said order is liable to be quashed. The matter was remitted to the ITAT for disposal of the appeal in accordance with law.

(A.Y. 1997-98)

Coca Cola India P. Ltd. v. ITAT (2007) 290 ITR 464 / 208 CTR 269 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Search – Validity of Authorization [S. 132, 158BC]

A search was conducted at the residential premises of the assessee under the provisions of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988. Later on, the books of account, documents and assets found and seized by the Lokayukt authorities were requisitioned by the Commissioner as per Section 132A of the I.T. Act, 1961. Subsequently, notice under section 158BC was issued to the assessee. Return for Block Period was filed. The assessment was completed. Before the ITAT, it was contended by the assessee that the authorization issued by the Commissioner under section 132A was invalid which vitiated the entire assessment under section 158BC making it void ab initio.

However, the ITAT held that the notice issued under section 158BC was valid though status of the assessee was not mentioned in the said notice and Tribunal had no jurisdiction to look into the legality and validity of the authorization issued under section 132A of the Act. H.C. dismissed the appeal.

Gaya Prasad Pathak v. ACIT (2007) 290 ITR 128 / 209 CTR 74 / 162 Taxman 307 (MP)(High Court)

S 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Dismissal for default – ITAT Rules 1963 [Rules 19, 20, 24]

Non-representation of appellant. Appeal filed by the assessee before the Tribunal could not be dismissed as non-maintainable simply for the reason that the assessee or his representative was not present on the date when the appeal came up for consideration before the Tribunal. Tribunal could have proceeded for hearing of the appeal ex-parte as provided in Rule 24 of ITAT Rules.

Tribhuwan Kumar & Ors. v. CIT & Anr. (2007) 213 CTR 198 / 294 ITR 401 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Condonation of delay – Appeal fees

The Tribunal's order denying to condone the delay of twelve (12) days in filing appeal before it was set aside as being perverse, where the appellant in its application for condonation of delay before the Tribunal, had stated that on account of strike of the bank the appeal fees could not be paid and this resulted in belated filing of appeal before the Tribunal.

Babu Lal Jain v. ITO (2007) 200 Taxation 183 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duties – Reasoned order

Quasi-judicial authorities like Commissioner (Appeals) and Tribunal must pass reasoned order which should reflect application of mind. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. Palwal Co-operative Sugar Mills Ltd. (2006) 284 ITR 153 / (2005) 147 Taxman 636 / 197 CTR 320 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Powers – Rule 25 – ITAT Rules, 1963

Rule 25 of ITAT Rules, 1963, empowers the Tribunal to dispose of an appeal on the merits after hearing the appellant. If on the day of hearing on which the matter is fixed the respondent does not remain present personally or through an authorized representative, then the proviso to the said Rule, however, makes it very clear that any such order of disposal of an appeal can be set aside upon an application made by the respondent on sufficient reasons shown for non-appearance.

In the aforesaid case, the respondent proved that it was not served with the notice of hearing on the day it was fixed. Tribunal was justified in recalling its exparte order. It has to freshly reconsider the merits of the case. (A.Y. 1994-95)

CIT v. Focus Estating P. Ltd. (2006) 286 ITR 410 / 203 CTR 152 / 152 Taxman 471 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty of Tribunal – Spacing order

Since, there was no appropriate discussion, appeal of the assessee was allowed and matter was sent back. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Novartis A. G. Basle v. ACIT (2006) 287 ITR 409 / 209 CTR 113 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Notice – Proper opportunity of being heard

Where the notice sent by the Tribunal was not received by the appellant as the office of the appellant was closed and the Tribunal did not send notice to the second address which was on record of the Tribunal, the Hon'ble High Court restored the matter back to the file of the Tribunal to meet the ends of justice, as the order of the Tribunal was passed without affording the assessee a proper opportunity of being heard.

Jasoka India Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 194 Taxation 155 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional grounds – Question of law

The Appellate Tribunal has power to entertain any question of law as additional grounds of Appeal though the same may not have been raised before any of the authorities below.

Dy. CIT v. Torquoise Investment & Finance Ltd. (2006) 154 Taxman 80 / 202 CTR 395 / (2008) 299 ITR 143 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power to stay

Once the appeal is pending before an Appellate Court, the Court has power to pass an order of stay to do justice otherwise there will be miscarriage of justice.

The Agricultural Produce Market Committee v. CIT (2006) 190 Taxation 168 (Patna)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Ex parte – ITAT Rules, 1963 – Rule 25

If no notice of hearing is served on the assessee, the same constitutes a 'sufficient cause' for the purpose of proviso to Rule 25. Hence, the ex parte order can be set aside. (A.Y. 1994-95)

CIT v. Focus Estates (P.) Ltd. (2006) 152 Taxman 471 / 203 CTR 152 / 286 ITR 410 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duties – Reasoned order

Appellate Tribunal is not justified in passing the Order relying only on the written submissions filed by the Department without assigning any dependent reasons. The Order of the Appellate Tribunal should reflect not only its conclusion, but the decision-making process also. (A.Y. 1993-94)

S. J. & S. P. Family Trust v. Dy. CIT (2006) 152 Taxman 234 / 198 CTR 255 / 277 ITR 557 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty – Examine evidence – Record facts – Assign reasons

The Tribunal must examine the evidence on record while rendering a decision on any issue raised by the assessee. The Tribunal being the final fact finding authority, a higher responsibility is cast by the legislature on it to decide the case by recording complete facts and assigning cogent reasons. It is the duty of the Tribunal to decide the case on the basis of the law laid down by the Supreme Court/High Court. Every effort must be made by the Tribunal to decide the issue by taking help from the decisions of the Supreme Court and if there is no direct decision of the Supreme Court on the point then of the jurisdictional High Court and lastly of any other High Court. Not taking note of the facts of the case, nor the legal position and not even referring to the facts of the case involved in those decisions on which reliance is placed for deciding the appeal amounts to non-exercise of the appellate powers by the Tribunal. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. Abhishek Industries Ltd. (2006) 286 ITR 1 / 205 CTR 304 / 156 Taxman 257 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Judicial propriety – Not to comment on decision of High Court

Assessee filed Reference Application under section 256(2) of the Income-tax Act, 1961 for the Hon'ble High Court's opinion by raising three questions.

In a given case, Tribunal declined to follow the law laid down by the Madhya Pradesh High Court essentially on the ground that it does not lay down the correct principles of law because it has not taken into consideration certain amendments brought on the statute book which had a bearing on the controversies involved therein. It was the Department's appeal. Tribunal declined to refer a question of law on a Reference Application filed under section 256(1) of the Income-tax Act by the assessee.

Held, that the manner in which the Tribunal dealt with the issue so far as precedents of judicial propriety in following High Court decisions was concerned, should have been referred to the Court for examination. It was an issue which the High Court alone had to decide and it was not for the Tribunal to decide. Tribunal cannot comment on the decision of the High Court. Tribunal cannot ignore such decision and take its own view.

High Court allowed the Reference Application filed by the assessee under section 256(2) and directed to draw statement of facts for High Court.

National Textile Corpn. Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 286 ITR 496 / 203 CTR 374 / 150 Taxman 39 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Pronouncement of Judgment – Pass an order [Rule 35]

There is no distinction between meaning of expression 'pass' or 'pronounce' and consequences thereof; Tribunal should pronounce its judgment and orders in open hearing and upon enlisting them for a given date; 'pronouncement of a judgment' is a concept which covers dating, signing and declaration of a judgment and order by Court; there is no merit in contention that section 254(1) requires Tribunal to pass an 'order' and communicate same to party as contemplated under section 254(3) read with rule 35 of the Rules and as such Tribunal is under no obligation to openly pronounce its orders in presence of parties or otherwise

CIT v. Sudhir Choudhrie (2005) 278 ITR 490 / 147 Taxman 306 / 196 CTR 538 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Appeal – Maintenance – Small tax effect

Where amount involved was a petty amount of ₹ 16,300/40,532, revenue should not have preferred appeal before Appellate Tribunal since it was a case covered by Instruction of Central Board of Direct Taxes.

CIT v. Ashim Kumar Agarwal (2005) 275 ITR 48 / 196 CTR 23 / 153 Taxman 226 (Jharkhand)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Validity of search – Block assessment [S. 132, 158BC]

Appeal before Tribunal against block assessment made under section 158BC does not take within its fold questions touching validity of search conducted under section 132.

M.B. Lal v. CIT (2005) 279 ITR 298 / 149 Taxman 490 / 199 CTR 571 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Condonation of delay

In matters of condonation of delay, a pragmatic view should be taken and there should be a liberal approach; law of limitation is enshrined in maxim interest reipublica ut sit finis litium (it is for the general welfare that a period be put to litigation); a pedantic approach should not be made. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Auto Centre v. State of Uttar Pradesh (2005) 278 ITR 291 / 148 Taxman 573 / 204 CTR 142 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Restoration of appeal [Rule 24, Appellate Tribunal rules]

Whether assessee had obtained adjournment earlier or Tribunal had shown latitude in granting successive adjournments would be immaterial for purpose of considering an application made under proviso to rule 24 of ITAT Rules for purpose of restoring an appeal

Sourav Jhunjhunwalla v. CIT (2005) 273 ITR 225 / 145 Taxman 243 / 196 CTR 145 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Restoration of appeal – Affidavit of assessee

Where miscellaneous application praying for restoration of appeal decided ex parte against assessee for non-appearance on date of hearing, was rejected by Tribunal without considering affidavit of assessee's counsel enclosed with application for restoration explaining cause for non-appearance on date of hearing, matter was to be restored to Tribunal for consideration afresh in accordance with law. (A.Ys. 1985-86, 1986-87)

Khaitan Paper & Industries Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 273 ITR 234 / 148 Taxman 326 / 195 CTR 447 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Revival of appeal [S. 254(2)]

Where assessee did not press appeal against Tribunal's order and had withdrawn it to pursue its application under section 254(2) and no liberty was sought nor granted to assessee to file a fresh appeal against same order, on rejection of its application under section 254(2) assessee could not be allowed to revive appeal earlier withdrawn by it.

Paras Cold Storage & Ice Factory v. CIT (2005) 272 ITR 301 / 145 Taxman 46 / 194 CTR 520 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Memorandum of appeal – Technical mistakes

Though Tribunal has discretion to reject memorandum of appeal if it is defective, where rejection of memorandum of appeal because of a technical mistake on part of revenue had resulted in manifest injustice to revenue, Tribunal's order of rejection of memorandum of appeal was to be set aside. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Protectron Electronics (P.) Ltd. (2005) 274 ITR 420 / 146 Taxman 90 / 193 CTR 672 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Paper book – Signature – Certificate

If in paper book, signature does not appear or a certificate in paper book is not incorporated to the effect that papers included in paper book were correct copies of papers of record, in that event, same may be an irregularity but not an illegality which is not capable of being corrected and dismissal of appeal on that ground would not be justified

Exoimp Resources (India) Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 276 ITR 87 / 144 Taxman 795 / 195 CTR 226 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Adjournment application – Dismissal of appeal – Different signature

Where file of Commissioner (Appeals) was not before Tribunal, it was not justified in rejecting assessee's adjournment application on ground that appeal was filed by different person and signature was forged on memo of appeal

Ram Vilas Mani v. CIT (2005) 142 Taxman 204 / (2006) 280 ITR 494 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Adjournment application

Where assessee did not appear before Tribunal when appeal was taken up for hearing and Tribunal suo motu posted appeals for hearing and disposal on next date, and on said date assessee filed an application for adjournment which was declined and appeals were disposed of by Tribunal, no error was committed by Tribunal in disposing of appeals. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Green Valley Builders v. CIT (2005) 149 Taxman 671 / (2008) 296 ITR 225 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional grounds – Question of law

A question of law arising out of facts found by authorities and which goes to root of jurisdiction, can be raised for first time before Tribunal. (A.Ys. 1983-84 to 1987-88)
West Bengal State Electricity Board v. Dy. CIT (2005) 278 ITR 218 / 147 Taxman 234 / 198 CTR 122 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional grounds – Service of notice

Tribunal should not allow assessee to raise plea of service of notice for first time in second appeal as one of the additional grounds for challenging order of assessment; it is much more so when there is no factual material available for recording a finding on merits. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Premium Capital Market & Investment Ltd. (2005) 275 ITR 260 / 198 CTR 680 / 151 Taxman 194 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional grounds – New ground

During pendency of appeal before Tribunal, assessment proceeding is pending and as such Tribunal can adjudicate a new ground by which assessee claims benefit under section 11(2). (A.Y. 1980-81)

CIT v. Mayur Foundation (2005) 274 ITR 562 / 194 CTR 197 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional grounds

Appellate Authority has power to permit party to raise additional ground which had not been raised in memorandum of appeal and further in penalty proceedings fresh material can be considered which was not available at time of the assessment or while passing the penalty order. (A.Y. 1981-82)

Bharat Rice Mill v. CIT (2005) 278 ITR 599 / 148 Taxman 145 / 200 CTR 481 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Second stay application

Where assessee filed a second stay application on expiry of interim relief granted earlier, Tribunal was directed to dispose of application expeditiously and no recovery was to be effected till then

Satish Chandra Jain v. ITAT (2005) 142 Taxman 499 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power to stay

Appellate authority, even in absence of a specific provision, has power vested in it by virtue of being an authority, to grant stay in appropriate cases

Agricultural Produce Market Committee v. CIT (2005) 279 ITR 371 / (2006) 156 Taxman 423 (Patna)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duties – Recording reasons

Every judicial and quasi-judicial authority/body must record reasons in support of its conclusion indicating application of mind by presiding officer to points raised by aggrieved party. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Ambica Oil & General Mills v. ITO (2005) 274 ITR 231 / (2007) 158 Taxman 167 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duties – Recording reasons

Every quasi-judicial authority/Tribunal must not only record reasons in support of order they make, but such reasons should also be communicated to affected party; thus Tribunal is duty-bound to record tangible and cogent reasons for upsetting well-reasoned orders passed by Assessing Officer and Commissioner (Appeals) (A.Y. 1991-92)

CIT v. Sunil Kumar Goel (2005) 274 ITR 53 / 144 Taxman 697 / 194 CTR 145 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duties – Decision making process

Tribunal's order must reflect not only its conclusion but decision-making process also; where Tribunal while deciding appeal simply stated in its order that it agreed with submission of departmental representative, such order was not sustainable as Tribunal could not have passed impugned order on basis of written submissions filed by the departmental representative without assigning independent reasons so as to reflect application of mind by Tribunal. (A.Y. 1993-94)

S.J. & S.P. Family Trust v. Dy. CIT (2005) 277 ITR 557 / 198 CTR 255 / (2006) 152 Taxman 234 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duties – Non speaking order – Rules of natural justice

Where Tribunal had neither considered points raised by appellant nor assigned any reason for approving order passed by Commissioner (Appeals), order of Tribunal was a non-speaking order and was, thus, vitiated due to violation of rules of natural justice. (A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. Vikas Chemi Gum India (2005) 276 ITR 32 / 146 Taxman 256 / 196 CTR 123 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Scope – Restricted to order of CIT(A) – Preliminary point – Not on merits

Where Commissioner (Appeals) did not deal with grounds of appeal on merits but allowed assessee's appeal on a preliminary point that assessment order had not been signed by Assessing Officer, Tribunal was not justified in deciding appeal on merits while overruling Commissioner (Appeals) on preliminary ground; while reversing order of Commissioner (Appeals) on preliminary point it was incumbent upon Tribunal to restore matter to file of Commissioner (Appeals). (A.Y. 1994-95)

Sheth Construction Co. v. ITO (2005) 274 ITR 304 / 148 Taxman 271 / 195 CTR 398 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding precedent – Own case in earlier year

Where Tribunal had taken a particular view in assessee's own case in an earlier year and subsequently a contrary view in another case, in assessee's case for assessment year in question, it was not justified in following its contrary view taken in another case, as there should be consistency in orders of Courts. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Arihant Builders, Developers & Investors (P.) Ltd. v. ITAT (2005) 277 ITR 239 / 144 Taxman

121 / 197 CTR 471 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Right to appeal – Small tax effect

In light of instructions which came into effect from 1/4/2000, appeal having small tax effect are also maintainable

CIT v. Kodananad Tea Estates Co. (2005) 275 ITR 244 / (2004) 192 CTR 159 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duties – Speaking order

Where Tribunal simply recorded ground of attack and recorded concession of departmental representative for dismissing appeal, manner of disposal of appeal by Tribunal was not proper. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. Sanghi Finance & Investment Ltd. (2005) 273 ITR 268 / (2004) 141 Taxman 466 / (2004) 191 CTR 150 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Mistake apparent [S. 254(2)]

If order of Tribunal contains a factual inaccuracy, Tribunal can recall its order. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. Mool Chand Shyam Lal (2005) 273 ITR 160 / (2004) 141 Taxman 322 / (2004) 190 CTR 332 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Mistake apparent from record [S. 254(2)]

Where appellant satisfies Tribunal that there was sufficient cause for assessee's non-appearance when appeal was called for hearing, Tribunal has power to recall its ex parte order. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. Ansal Housing & Construction Ltd. (2005) 274 ITR 131 / (2004) 140 Taxman 297 / 190 CTR 172 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Mistake apparent [S. 254(2)]

Section 254(2) does not extend to permit re-arguments on issues already decided. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 1996-97)

State Bank of Bikaner & Jaipur v. CIT (2005) 273 ITR 98 / (2004) 191 CTR 344 / 142 Taxman 382 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Mistake apparent [S. 254(2)]

Rectification done by Tribunal to direct authorities to follow law laid down by Apex court does not give rise to a substantial question of law. (A.Ys. 1992-93-94)

CIT v. Madhya Pradesh Financial Corporation (2005) 272 ITR 33 / (2004) 140 Taxman 614 / 190 CTR 212 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Memoranda of Appeal – Failure to mention grounds – Form no 36 – Rule 12 – Income tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules 1963

The Tribunal is not justified in dismissing in limine, appeal filed by Revenue only because the grounds are not mentioned in the memorandum of appeal in form no 36. In a matter like this the Tribunal, instead of dismissing the appeals, in limine ought to reject the appeal under Rule 12 of the Income tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules 1963 or ought to return the same for being annexed with in such time as it may be allowed. Accordingly the High Court (1) returned the appeals before the Appellate Tribunal to be disposed of on merits and (II)), directed the Commissioner to file the grounds of appeal with in period of four weeks.

CIT v. British Airways (2005) 274 ITR 418 / 274 ITR 418 / (2004) 141 Taxman 613 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Subject matter of appeal

While restoring additions in respect of various parties to the file of Assessing Officer, Tribunal was not justified in restoring addition in respect of a party which was not even subject matter of appeal.

Manchanda International v. CIT (2005) 272 ITR 577 / (2004) 141 Taxman 2 / 190 CTR 567 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional grounds

Tribunal can consider an additional issue which is a question of law.

CIT v. A.M. Moosa (2005) 272 ITR 29 / (2004) 141 Taxman 49 / 191 CTR 441 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Right to file appeal – Executive instructions

Right to file an appeal is a statutory right and cannot be taken away or prohibited by executive instructions. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1998-99)

Jugal Kishore Arora v. Dy. CIT (2004) 269 ITR 133 / 141 Taxman 187 / 192 CTR 174 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Appealable orders – Clarifying an earlier order

No appeal lies from the Tribunal's order clarifying an earlier order. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. Shreenbai (Smt) (2004) 271 ITR 400 / 134 Taxman 681 / 187 CTR 31 (MP)(High Court)

S. 25(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Duties – Facts – Not taking note of legal position

Not taking note of facts of case or legal position and not even referring to facts of case involved in those decisions on which reliance is placed for deciding appeal, amounts to non-exercise of appellate powers by Tribunal. (A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. G.M. Mittal Stainless Steel Ltd. (2004) 271 ITR 219 / 142 Taxman 349 / 192 CTR 18 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Duties – Mere reference of citation is not enough

It must appear from order passed by Tribunal that sincere efforts were made to decide issue that fell for examination, keeping in view law laid down by apex court in its right earnest; mere reference of a citation in orders for recording a finding is not enough. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Shreejee Chitra Mandir v. CIT (2004) 269 ITR 55 / 140 Taxman 249 / 190 CTR 139 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Duties – Respondent

Tribunal may pass such order or decree as case may require and this would include passing orders in favour of any of respondents although such a respondent may not have filed appeal. (A.Ys. 1979-80 to 1983-84)

CIT v. P.B. Corporation (2004) 266 ITR 548 / 138 Taxman 167 / 187 CTR 212 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Principle of law – Duty to apply to facts of case

When Tribunal follows certain principles, it cannot shirk its responsibility after laying down principle of law without applying same to facts and circumstances of case at hand, even though this might go in favour of assessee who had not preferred appeal. (A.Y. 1990-91)

C.C.A.P. Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 270 ITR 248 / 141 Taxman 471 / 193 CTR 74 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Adjournment – Technical approach

Where Tribunal decided appeal on merits despite counsel seeking an adjournment on ground of no notice of hearing of appeal, Tribunal's technical approach could not be countenanced. (A.Ys. 1999-2000 to 2004-05)

Vikaschand Mansingka v. CIT (2004) 142 Taxman 564 / 191 CTR 259 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding precedent – Lower authorities

Lower taxing authorities are bound to carry out Tribunal's orders and have no jurisdiction to again pass any order contrary to the order passed by Tribunal. (A.Ys. 1973-74 to 1976-77)

State Bank of Indore v. CIT (2004) 269 ITR 459 / 190 CTR 149 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Additional ground

Whether or not to allow additional grounds to be raised is a matter of sound discretion of Tribunal. (A.Y. 1972-73)

CIT v. Southern Roadways Ltd. (2004) 266 ITR 135 / 136 Taxman 550 / 188 CTR 53 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Appeal – Maintainability – Tax effect

The Board's Circular no. F. 279/126 /98 –TTJ dated 27-3-2000, is only an instruction issued to the Income Tax Authorities not to file appeals where the tax effect is less than 1,00,000. The Tribunal is not bound by any such instruction and once the Department files an appeal, the Tribunal is bound to decide the same on merits. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 95-96)

Rani Paliwal v. CIT (2003) 185 CTR 333 / 268 ITR 220 / 136 Taxman 135 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Duty – Reasons

Tribunal cannot merely say that it agrees with findings of Commissioner (Appeals). A total non consideration by the Appellate court would entail a substantial question of law. The matter was sent back for fresh decision of the concerned issue.

South India Surgical Co. (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2003) 263 ITR 5 / 186 CTR 685 / 138 Taxman 230 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Matter before Commissioner (Appeals) – Opportunity of hearing

Tribunal cannot ignore matter placed before Commissioner (Appeals) without giving an opportunity of hearing to the assessee.

Rishabh Textiles v. CIT (2003) 260 ITR 424 / 131 Taxman 213 / 186 CTR 758 / 266 ITR 424 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Unaware of date of hearing – Sufficient cause

If a party is unaware of date of hearing and unawareness is not due to any fault of its own, then unawareness would be sufficient cause for non-appearance.

Rainbow Agri Industries Ltd. v. ITAT (2003) 132 Taxman 752 / 185 CTR 482 / 266 ITR 38 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Additional grounds

It is open to appellant forum to consider fresh ground if sought to be raised by the parties, if no new facts are required to be ascertained. (A.Ys. 1978-79 to 1981-82)

Wilson Industries v. CIT (2003) 259 ITR 318 / 179 CTR 186 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Additional grounds – Relates back to date of filing of the appeal

Permission to add and urge additional grounds necessarily relates back to date of filing of the appeal.

K. B. Jewellers & Co. v. ACIT (2003) 130 Taxman 605 / 184 CTR 44 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Additional grounds – Limitation

Additional ground can be raised in memo of appeal after expiry of the period of limitation. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Shilpa Associates v. ITO (2003) 263 ITR 317 / 181 CTR 92 / 135 Taxman 277 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Additional grounds

Prayer to raise additional ground cannot be rejected on the ground that such additional ground was raised after expiry of prescribed limit for filing appeal before Tribunal. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Madad Lal Ansari v. Dy. CIT (2003) 184 CTR 76 / 272 ITR 560 / 139 Taxman 346 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Grounds vaguely taken – Additional grounds

When an issue is vaguely taken in grounds of appeal, but argued specifically at time of final hearing of appeal, Tribunal cannot refuse to adjudicate upon that issue on merits on ground that no such ground had been taken specifically in the grounds of appeal.

Baby Samuel v. ACIT (2003) 262 ITR 385 / 184 CTR 140 / 138 Taxman 192 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Remand – Limitation

Once Tribunal has refused to condone delay and dismissed appeal as barred by limitation, it has no jurisdiction or authority to go into the merits of the case and pass an order of remand.

Williamson Financial Services Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 262 ITR 595 / 140 Taxman 246 (Gau.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Remand – Confirming the finding

Once Tribunal remits matter back to Assessing Officer to decide issue afresh, there is no justification for confirming finding of Assessing Officer in respect of same issue.

Kundan Associate (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2003) 130 Taxman 838 / 183 CTR 353 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Remand – Merits of matter

While remitting matter for reconsideration Tribunal should not enter into merits of matter. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CIT v. Coromandal Indag Products (P.) Ltd. (2003) 260 ITR 289 / 129 Taxman 820 / 184 CTR 276 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Approval of Commissioner – Grounds of appeal – Memo – Accompanying document

Approval of Commissioner of the grounds of appeal to be filed before the Tribunal is not required. Tribunal has discretion to accept memorandum of appeal even though it may not be accompanied by any of documents referred to in sub-rule (1) of rule 9 of the ITAT Rules. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. V.K. Sood Engineers & Contractors (P.) Ltd. (2003) 264 ITR 313 / 186 CTR 162 / 135 Taxman 175 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Support of order

Order or judgment, if open to appeal, can be supported or objected to by either of parties in appeal. (A.Y. 1986-87)

CIT v. General Industrial Society Ltd. (2003) 129 Taxman 628 / 262 ITR 1 / 183 CTR 67 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Binding precedent of Orders – Decision of Tribunal rendered in earlier case

Decision of the Tribunal rendered in earlier case may be wrong, nonetheless a Bench of co-ordinate jurisdiction has to ordinarily follow it unless it doubts correctness of said decision and refers matter to the President of the Tribunal. (A.Ys. 1991-92 to 1995-96)

CIT v. Travancore Titanium Products Ltd. (2003) 131 Taxman 705 / 183 CTR 473 / (2004) 265 ITR 526 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Applicability of provision of section 14A for the first time before Tribunal [S. 14A]

Issue of disallowance under section 14A, cannot be raised for the first time before the Tribunal where the provision of section 14A, was not invoked against the assessee by the Assessing Officer while making disallowance of interest expenditure under section 36(1)(iii) and CIT(A) also at no stage considered the application of section 14A.

ACIT v. Delite Enterprises (P) Ltd. (2011) 135 TTJ 663 / 50 DTR 193 / 128 ITD 146 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Recovery – Stay [S. 220]

Besides considerations like existence of strong prima facie case, financial constraints of the applicant are important, even if not sole or qualifying consideration in entertaining a stay application, and therefore stay granted to the assessee subject to certain conditions. (A. Y. 2006-07).

KEC International Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2011) 136 TTJ 60 / 49 DTR 428 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Decision of co-ordinate bench

When the issue is already covered by an earlier order of Tribunal, that too in assessee's own case, a co-ordinate bench of Tribunal should not differ the earlier decision of the bench simply for the reason that a contrary view is possible. (A. Ys. 2001-02 to 2004-2005)

Patspin India Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 51 DTR 57 / 129 ITD 35 / 136 TTJ 377 (TM)(Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Appeal – Tax effect – Pending appeals

As per Instruction No. 3 of 2011 dated 09.02.2011(( 2011) 322 ITR 1(st)) appeal before Tribunal can be filed where the tax effect exceeds the monetary limit of ` 3 lakhs. However, considering the similar situation where tax limits were modified by the CBDT Instruction No. 5 of 2008 the jurisdictional High Court in Madhukar K. Inamdar (HUF) 318 ITR 149 held that the circular will be applicable to the cases pending before the court either for admission or for final disposal. In view of the order of the jurisdictional High Court we hold that Instruction No. 3 dated 09.02.2011 is applicable for the appeal preferred by the Revenue.

ITO v. Laxmi Jewel Pvt. (2011) BCAJ July – P. 33 – Vol. 43A Part 4 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Stay – Direct stay application to Tribunal maintainable – Not necessary that lower authorities must be approached first [S. 220]

It is settled law that a Direct Stay Application filed before the Tribunal is maintainable and it is not the requirement of the law that assessee should necessarily approach the CIT before approaching the Tribunal for grant of stay. In deciding a stay application, the following aspects have to be considered: (i) liquidity of the funds of the assessee to clear the tax arrears out of own funds at the relevant point of time based on the assessee's financial status at the time of the stay petition hearing; (ii) creditworthiness of the assessee to outsource the funds to clear the departmental dues; (iii) prima facie views on the likely decision of the Tribunal on the issues raised in the appeal; (iv) departmental urgencies in matters of collection and recovery; (v) guarantees provided by the assessee to safe guard the interest of the revenue etc. (A. Y. 2006-07).

Honeywell Automation India Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 54 DTR 265 / 138 TTJ 373 / (2012) 49 SOT 333 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Stay – Despite third proviso to S. 254(2A) – Power to extend stay beyond 365 days if delay not attributable to assessee [S. 220, 245]

The Third Proviso to section 254(2A), as amended w.e.f. 1.10.2008, provides that if the appeal filed by the assessee is not disposed off within the period of stay granted by the Tribunal (which cannot exceed 365 days), the order of stay shall stand vacated even if the delay in disposing of the appeal is not attributable to the assessee. The assessee filed a stay application requesting stay of demand for penalty of ` 369 crores. On the expiry of 365 days of stay, the assessee asked for extension of stay relying on the Tribunal's order in Ronak Industries where, stay had been granted beyond 365 days relying on the judgement of the Bombay High Court in Narang Overseas ( ) 295 ITR 22 (Bom.). As it was felt by the Tribunal that the reliance in Ronak Industries and Narang Overseas was misplaced in view of the amendment to the Third proviso to section 254(2A) w.e.f. 1.10.2008, the question whether the Tribunal had jurisdiction to extend stay beyond 365 days referred to the Special Bench. Held by the Special Bench:

- (i) In Ronak Industries, the Tribunal held, relying on Narang Industries, that the Tribunal has the power to extend stay beyond 365 days. This decision of the Tribunal was challenged by the department in the Bombay High Court by specifically raising a question as to the applicability of the Third Proviso to section 254(2A) as amended w.e.f 1.10.2008. The High Court, vide order dated 22.10.2010, dismissed the department's appeal. As such, the Tribunal's order holding that there was power to extend stay even after 365 days stood affirmed;
- (ii) The department's argument that the High Court's order in Ronak Industries should be treated as per incuriam on the ground that the amendment made by the FA 2008 was not considered by it is not acceptable because (a) In Narang Overseas (rendered prior to the amendment) a wider view was taken as regards the power to grant stay, (b) In the appeal filed by the department in Ronak Industries a specific question with regard to the effect of the Third Proviso was raised and so it cannot be said that the High Court had not taken cognizance of the amendment, (c) the Tribunal cannot ignore a High Court's decision on the ground that a provision of law was not considered by the High Court and (d) the fact that there is no discussion in the High Court's order in Ronak Industries does not mean that does not lay down any ratio decidendi;
- (iii) However, the recovery of the arrears by the Assessing Officer on the expiry of 365 days of stay cannot be ordered to be refunded because on the date of recovery the stay had expired and the application for extension was pending before the Special Bench. The Assessing Officer's act was bona fide and as the recovery was by adjustment of refunds, it was not a "coercive measure" (RPG Enterprises( ) 251 ITR (AT) 20 (Mum) & other cases holding that the Assessing Officer must refund taxes collected during the pendency of a stay application distinguished).(A. Y. 2000 to 2002-03)

Tata Communications Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 130 ITD 19 / 54 DTR 274 / 138 TTJ 257 / 9 ITR 1 (SB) (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Issues “sub-judice” before High Court – Power to hear

The objection to the Special Bench hearing the issue only on the ground that the High Court has admitted the appeal is not acceptable for two reasons. Firstly, the mere fact that a superior authority is seized of an issue identical to the one before the lower authority does not create any impediment on the powers of the lower authority in disposing off the matters involving such issue as per prevailing law. If the suggestion is accepted, there would be chaos and the entire working of the Tribunal will come to standstill. Secondly, the Special Bench was constituted at the assessee's request because it then wanted an "escape route" from a potential adverse view. The assessee cannot now argue that the Special Bench be deconstituted. Such "vacillating stand" cannot be approved. (A. Y. 2006-07)

Dy. CIT v. Summit Securities Limited (2011) 59 DTR 313 / 11 ITR 88 / 132 ITD 1 / 140 TTJ 393 (SB)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional evidence – Data of comparables – Annual reports

In view of the fact that annual reports / data base extracts of three companies which were selected as comparable cases were not available earlier in the public domain and having regard to the fact that these documents are essential for determining ALP, these additional evidences are admitted for consideration. (A. Y. 2005-06).

ACIT v. NIT Ltd. (2011) 57 DTR 334 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Assessment – New claim – Without revised return

Assessee has raised new claim before the Assessing Officer with regard to doctrine of mutuality without filing revised return under section 139. Assessing officer has not entertained the claim following the judgment of Apex Court in Goetze (India) Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 284 ITR 323 (SC), which was confirmed by CIT(A). On further appeal, the Tribunal held that as the issue required proper verification of facts and relevant facts are not available on record nor in the assessment proceedings it could not be admitted. If this ground was admitted, it had to go back to the Assessing Officer to verify the facts and adjudicate the claim of assessee would be against the spirit of the Supreme Court Judgment. Therefore, the claim of assessee with regard to doctrine of mutuality could not be entertained at this stage. (A. Y. 2004-05).

Jay Bharat Co-operative Society Ltd. v. ITO (2011) 10 ITR 717 / 125 TTJ 552 / 125 ITD 90 / 29 DTR 278 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Editorial:- Refer CIT v. Jai Parabolic Springs Ltd. (2008) 306 ITR 42 / 6 DTR 233 / 172 Taxman 258 (Delhi)(High Court) & CIT v. Ramco International (2009) 221 CTR 491 / 332 ITR 306 / 180 Taxman 584 / 17 DTR 214 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Contempt – Commissioner – DR's "false & frivolous" submissions constitute "criminal contempt" & justify recovery of costs from salary

In the department's appeal, the assessee raised a preliminary objection that the notice under section 143(2) was not issued within the prescribed period of 12 months. The Assessing Officer accepted that the section 143(2) notice had not been issued in time. Accordingly, the Tribunal, relying on Hotel Blue Moon 321 ITR 362 (SC), dismissed the department's appeal without going into the merits of the appeal. Thereafter, the CIT-DR addressed two letters to the Hon'ble Members in which it made certain allegation against the bench . It was also alleged that the letter was sent by post as the Bench clerk had refused to accept the letter. The letters were treated as a MA by the Tribunal and heard. Thereafter, the CIT-DR filed a letter of apology clarifying that it was not his intention to "hurt the sentiments" of the Members though he did not appear personally before the Bench. The Tribunal dealing meticulously with each assertion made by the CIT-DR and terming them as "frivolous and untrue" and held that :

"We are of the view that the conduct of the learned CIT(A) in addressing correspondence to the Hon'ble Members in respect of an appeal which has been heard and under consideration for passing orders is improper. It is an attempt to interfere with the due course of any judicial proceeding and tends to interfere with or obstructs or tends to obstruct the administration of justice and as such would be "Criminal contempt" within the meaning of the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971. The allegations made in the letters dated 23.3.2010 and 24.3.2010 are serious enough to warrant an action seeking protection of the Hon'ble High Court in exercise of its powers to punish for contempt of the sub-ordinate Courts and Tribunals. In our opinion, there cannot be a fitter case for imposition of exemplary costs on the learned Departmental Representative, who in our view, is responsible for such a M.A. and for wasting the time of the Tribunal by raising frivolous arguments and making blatantly false submissions. The cost should have to be recovered from the salary of the delinquent employee, who is responsible for such actions and entry made in his service record on the adverse comments made against the D.R. by the Tribunal. We however refrain from doing so in the hope that such indiscretion would not be repeated in future and also in view of the letter of apology filed by the D.R."

CIT (DR) v. Simoni Gems MA No. 240/Mum/2010 dated 26-8-2011 (Mum.)(Trib.)
www.itatonline.org

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Decision of co-ordinate bench

A co-ordinate Bench decision, which is admittedly contrary to earlier precedents on the issue from other Co-ordinate Benches, does not bind the subsequent co-ordinate Benches. (A. Y. 2006-07).

Addl. DIT (International Taxation) v. TII Team Telecom International (P) Ltd. (2011)
60 DTR
177 / 140 TTJ 649 / 12 ITR 688 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Stay – Prima facie case – Rejection

Assessee moved the stay application before the Tribunal to stay the demand of tax and interest. Demand has arisen mainly because of disallowance of interest commission etc due to failure to deduct tax at source. The Tribunal held that the assessee has failed to prove a prima facie case in his favour, hence the stay application was rejected. (A.Y. 2007-08).

Maharashtra State Electricity Distribution Co. Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 133 ITD 519 (SB)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional ground – Appeal against penalty

Tribunal can admit the additional ground while deciding the penalty appeal a pure question of law not involving investigation into the facts. (A. Y. 2005-06)

Dy. CIT v. B.J.D. Paper Products (2011) 141 TTJ 108 / 60 DTR 81 (Luck.) (Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional ground – Facts on record – Question of law

If relevant facts are available on record Tribunal can admit a question of law as additional ground. (A. Ys. 2000-01 to 2004-05)

ACIT v. Wolkman India Ltd. (2011) 142 TTJ 888 (Jodh.) (Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Subject matter of appeal – ITAT Rules 1963 (Rule 11)

Tribunal can examine on its own any aspect of the subject matter of appeal, whether the same has been examined by the authorities below or not. In the appeal, it is open to the Tribunal to consider the issue of admissibility of benefits of Indo-UK treaty to the assessee though not raised earlier. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Linklaters LLP v. ITO (2010) 132 TTJ 20 / 42 DTR 233 / 40 SOT 51 (Mum.) (Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Communication to assessee

Members of the Tribunal do not become functus officio till the order is communicated to the parties, and before that they can change it as many times as they want. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Star Drugs & Research Labs Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 42 DTR 343 / 132 TTJ 305 / 127 ITD 85 (TM) (Chennai) (Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Additional plea

In the appeal filed by the department against deletion of disallowance of unaccounted expenditure under proviso to section 69C, it is entitled to raise a fresh plea before the Tribunal to consider the allowability or otherwise of the expenditure under section 37(1) as the subject matter of the appeal remains the same. (A.Ys. 2002-03 to 2004-05)

ACIT v. Amarnath Reddy (2010) 42 DTR 449 / 132 TTJ 377 / 126 ITD 113 (TM) (Chennai) (Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Additional claim – Letter [Rule 29]

Additional claim for deduction of Bad Debt made by the Assessee at time of Assessment proceedings on ground of arithmetical error while filing the Return, was rejected, by observing that Assessee has to file a separate Revised Return of Income to make such a claim, relying on Supreme Court's decision in case of Goetze India Ltd. The Tribunal can consider the claim and grant relief.

The decision in case of Goetze (India) Ltd. did not in any way affect the powers of Tribunal to admit additional claim / ground. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Franco Indian Pharmaceuticals (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 195 Taxman 30 (Mag.) / 3 ITR 754 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Search and Seizure – Validity [S. 132(1)]

Tribunal has no power to examine validity of search in an appeal against block assessment i.e. validity of search warrant. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 2004-05)

CIT v. Chika Vyankatesh Sidram (2010) 1 ITR 369 / 122 ITD 293 / 124 TTJ 41 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Right of respondent – Any ground – No cross objection

[S. 253(4)][Rule 27 of ITAT, Rule 1963]

Respondent can support the order of CIT(A) by taking any ground, though no cross objection had been filed. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Cable News Network LP LLLP v. Asst Director (2010) 36 DTR 233 / 129 TTJ 177 (Delhi)(Trib.)

Editorial:– See ACIT v. Traice ITA No. 2827/M/2004 dated 26-11-2011 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Source: www.itatonline.org

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional grounds – Hypertechnical – ITAT Rules 1963 [Rule 11]

Assessee's prayer for admission, of additional ground cannot be rejected on the hypertechnical ground that the specific space provided to mention the actual additional ground on page 2 of the petition was left blank by oversight. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Everwin Export Corporation v. ITO (2010) 124 ITD 181 / 128 TTJ 19 / 34 DTR 256 / 6 ITR 287 (TM)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Powers – Direction to give Credit of Tax Paid in Subsequent Year – Such direction is necessary for disposal of the appeal

Capital Gains being assessable in Asst. Year 2002-03 direction is given to the Assessing Officer to give credit for the tax already paid by the assessee on this very income in the later years as such direction is necessary for disposal of the appeal. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Dy. CIT v. Standard Fire Works (P) Ltd. (2010) 34 DTR 270 / 128 TTJ 1 / 4 ITR 379 (TM) (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Binding – Precedent – Principle of Consistency

Principle of consistency qua judicial forums is not unexceptionable, if the subsequent Bench finds it difficult to follow the earlier view due to any convincing reasons, the earlier view cannot be thrust upon it, when a matter is referred to larger Bench, the appeal needs to be decided on merits rather than following the earlier view taken by the Tribunal in assessee's own case. (A.Y. 2002-03)

The Maharashtra State Co-operative Bank Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 129 TTJ 521 / 37 DTR 194 / 38 SOT 325 / 2 ITR 543 (SB)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional ground – Material on record

Any party can raise an additional ground before the Tribunal for the first time, provided the necessary material for the adjudication of the additional ground is available on record.

(A.Y. 1998-99)

Dy. DIT v. Scientific Atlanta Inc. (2010) 37 DTR 98 / 4 ITR 422 / 130 TTJ 142 / (2009) 33 SOT 220 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Orders – Resjudicata – Not applicable – If facts are different

Non applicability of rule of res judicata is to be followed on factual matters repeated from assessment year to assessment year. Chord of consistency can be cut off only if facts are substantially different from earlier asst. years, capable of leading to a different finding. The Tribunal can take different view. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Arvind Fashions Ltd v. ACIT (2010) 37 SOT 369 / 45 DTR 299 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Binding – Precedent – Order of co-ordinate bench

It is the duty of co-ordinate bench to examine earlier decision of the Tribunal and if a view has been expressed after taking in to consideration all facts and circumstances of case, to follow same unless its correctness is doubtful in the opinion of the subsequent Bench of Tribunal. (A.Ys. 2000-01 to 2003-04)

ITO v. Baker Technical Services (P) Ltd. (2010) 125 ITD 1 / 126 TTJ 455 / 31 DTR 1 (TM)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional grounds – New Plea

Grounds of appeal raised by the revenue before the Tribunal challenging the order of the CIT(A), holding that there was no PE of the assessee, a UK company, in India is wide enough to admit the plea that the assessee has PE in India under any clauses of Art. 5 of the Indo-UK DTAA and therefore, the plea of the Revenue regarding existence of PE within the meaning of Art. 5(2)(k), though not raised earlier, is well within the parameters of the grounds of appeal. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Jt. CIT v. Reuters Ltd. (2010) 133 TTJ 22 / 33 SOT 301 / 41 DTR 250 / 7 ITR 422 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional grounds – Departmental appeal – Contrary to finding of Assessing Officer – Income-tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules 1963 (Rule 11).

Department is not entitled to raise additional grounds contrary to finding of Assessing Officer. The duty of the learned Departmental representative is always confined to support the assessment order, he has widest power to argue on the matter involved in the appeal, but with the limitation that he cannot set up a new case contrary to the finding of the Assessing Officer. If such course is allowed, then it will amount to the learned departmental representative revising the assessment order under the garb of his arguments by usurping the power under section 263, which incidentally lies only in the domain of the commissioner, hence, additional oral ground was refused. (A.Ys. 2001-02, 2005-06)

ITO v. M. M. Textiles (2010) 122 ITD 435 / 125 TTJ 14 / 31 SOT 207 / 28 DTR 321 / 5 ITR 547 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional evidence – No need to make a formal application under Income-Tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules 1963 [Rule 29]

There is no need to make a formal application under rule 29 of the ITAT Rules for admission of the additional evidence. There is no error in the order of Accountant member admitting the additional evidence and sending it to the CIT for examination and decision. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Mascon Global Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 45 DTR 20 / 133 TTJ 257 / 37 SOT 202 (TM)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional ground – Alternative ground

Alternative contentions raised by the assessee in the additional grounds of appeal before the Tribunal claiming deduction of the impugned payment of non-compete fee as a deferred revenue expenditure over the period of agreement or depreciation thereon in case the said fee is to be considered as giving rise to acquisition of an intangible asset are pure questions of law not requiring investigation of fresh facts and therefore, the additional grounds are admitted for adjudication. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Orchid Chemicals & Pharmaceuticals Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 48 DTR 441 / 137 TTJ 373 / 7 ITR 601 / 131 ITD 385 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Stay – Vacated by High Court – Highly improper for the Tribunal to grant stay of recovery of demand and start parallel proceedings

Assessee challenged the order passed by CIT rejecting the application under section 273A by way of writ petition before the High Court and also sought stay of recovery of penalty imposed on him. Court granted stay of recovery of demand on certain conditions but the same was subsequently vacated on default of the assessee. Assessee was seeking stay of recovery of penalty and interest in the appeal filed before the Tribunal against levy of said penalty. It was held that though the jurisdiction of the High Court in the writ petition and that of the Tribunal in the appeal before it might be different, the question whether the recovery of demand should be stayed was identical and in the light of the said direction of the High Court, it would be highly improper for the Tribunal to grant stay of recovery of demand and start parallel proceedings. (A.Y. 1985-86).

G. Venkateshwaran v. Dy. CIT (2009) 23 DTR 290 / 123 TTJ 1 / 119 ITD 1 / (2011) 10 ITR 770 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional ground – Jurisdiction – Block assessment

Ground challenging the jurisdiction to make block assessment can be urged before any authority for the first time. Bar of estoppel or res judicata does not apply when the validity of assessment is questioned for want of jurisdiction. (A.Ys. 1992-93 to 2001-02)

ACIT v. Bijay Shankar Gupta (2009) 21 DTR 254 / 122 TTJ 430 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Additional ground – Question of law

Additional ground raised by the appellant can be admitted if it raises a question of law which arises from the undisputed facts as found by the Income Tax Authorities. (A.Y. 2001-02)

DCW v. Dy. CIT (2009) 126 TTJ 416 / 31 DTR 82 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Binding – Precedent – Jurisdictional High Court – Per incuriam or sub silentio

Tribunal has no power to hold decision of jurisdictional High Court as per incuriam or sub silentio.

ACIT v. Sreeja Hosieries (2009) 33 SOT 29 (URO)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – No power to take away the benefit given by AO

It is not open for the tribunal to take away the benefit given by the Assessing Officer.

ITO v. Anant Y. Chavan (2009) 32 DTR 377 / 126 TTJ 984 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Decision of non jurisdictional High Court – Special Bench decision

Decision of non-jurisdictional High Court prevails over an order of Jurisdictional Special Bench of the Tribunal. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Kanel Oil & Export Ind. Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2009) 126 TTJ 158 / 121 ITD 596 / 30 DTR 130 (TM) (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Judgment of co-ordinate Bench – Identical facts

Judicial propriety demand that a Bench of the Tribunal must follow the judgement of a co-ordinate Bench, Judicial Member was not justified in taking a different view than one taken in an earlier case by a Co-ordinate Bench on identical facts. (A.Y. 2003-04)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Oral pronouncement is not an order – Order must be in writing – Signed and dated – Income-tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules 1963 [Rule 34]

According to the Rule 34 of the IT (Appellate Tribunal) Rules, 1963 an order of the Tribunal can only be in writing as duly signed and dated by the members constituted it. Hence, oral pronouncement during the course of hearing is not an order at all. It is only an intimation of likely result or prima-facie conclusion expressed on the basis of contentions made by the parties. It was held to be a procedural aspect and it does not create any statutory embargo or limitation. Even entry in the order sheet to that effect signed by the members of the bench would not constitute an order because an order is a mandate precept or command but reasoning is its soul. Hence without any reasoning or conclusion based upon considered or authoritative opinion on a matter or context, oral pronouncement cannot be an order in the strict sense. (A.Y. 1996-97) Mafatlal Securities Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2009) 119 ITD 444 / 199 TTJ 501 / 21 SOT 245 / 15 DTR 187 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Solitary judgment of any High Court – Where different views by different benches – High Court order be followed

After considering the judgment of the Apex Court in case of CIT v. Vegetable Products Ltd. [88 ITR 192], where it was held that if two views are taken by different High Courts, view favourable to the assessee should be adopted, the Hon'ble Bench of the Tribunal held that a solitary judgment of any High Court, in the country on a particular point or issue, should be followed in its letter and spirit by all Benches of the Tribunal notwithstanding contrary views expressed by some Benches of the Tribunal, unless there are strong reasons to deviate from the view expressed by the High Court. Otherwise, the hierarchical judicial system would collapse. (A.Y. 2000-01) ITO v. Ranisati Fabric Mills (P.) Ltd. (2009) 118 ITD 293 / 116 TTJ 177 / 6 DTR 481 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Duties – Judgment of High Court must be followed if there is no contrary decision of High Court

Tribunal is duty bound to follow the decision of a High Court, if there is no contrary decision available from any other High Court. (A.Y. 2000-01) Maharashtra State Warehousing Corp. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2009) 122 TTJ 865 / 22 DTR 531 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Raising a contention for the first time before it

Tribunal can set aside a matter or remand it to file of Assessing Officer for further enquiry to make proper assessment by allowing parties including revenue authorities to raise a contention for first time before it. (A.Y. 1998-99)

ACIT v. Amar Mining Co. (2009) 121 ITD 273 / 123 TTJ 473 / 24 DTR 139 (TM)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Right of respondent – On the point rejected by the Commissioner (Appeals) [Rule 27]

The respondent can support his argument against the appeal filed by the Appellant on the points which has been rejected by the CIT (A). (A.Y. 2003-04)

Dy. CIT v. Hind Industries Ltd. (2009) 120 TTJ 505 / 120 ITD 89 / 26 SOT 196 / 14 DTR 561 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Non taxability of particular income

Tribunal can entertain the claim for exemption or non-taxability of particular income. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Kisan Discretionary Family Trust v. ACIT (2008) 113 TTJ 918 / 2 DTR 363 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding precedent – Binding on lower authorities

Orders of the Tribunal are binding on the lower authorities.

Finance Officer, MDV v. ITO (2008) 113 TTJ 914 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Right of respondent – New issue does not involve investigation of facts

Where the issue has been considered by CIT(A), the assessee can raise the issue before the Tribunal for the first time as respondent as the issue does not involve investigation into facts. (A.Y. 1992-93)

ACIT v. M. P. Exports Comp. Ltd. (2008) 117 TTJ 417 / 120 ITD 460 / 7 DTR 346 (Indore)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Validity of appointment of special auditor

[S. 142(2A)]

Tribunal has no jurisdiction to examine validity of the order for appointment of special auditor under section 142(2A) in the course of appeal before it.

ACIT v. Badri Ram Choudhary (2008) 118 TTJ 492 / 13 DTR 177 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional ground – Question of law

When all the relevant facts are on record and the issue being sought to be raised is a pure question of law on the basis of admitted facts of the case, the same can be admitted for decision. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Jehtalal K. Morbia v. ACIT (2007) 109 TTJ 1 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Time barred – Legal issue

Assessee can raise objection that the assessment framed by the Assessing Officer was time-barred for the first time before the Tribunal as it is purely a legal issue going to the very root of the assessment. (A.Y. 1991-92)

ACIT v. Chowdhary Motor Agency (2007) 108 TTJ 998 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Additional ground – Special bench – Entire appeal

Special Bench of Tribunal is seized of entire appeal, has power to admit additional ground. (A.Ys. 1991-92 to 1993-94)

ACIT v. DHL Operations BV (2007) 108 TTJ 152 / 13 SOT 581 (SB)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Duty – Reassessment

Tribunal has powers and, indeed, duty, to examine the nature of order passed by the Assessing Officer as 'reassessment order' and whether this order can be termed as a reassessment order at all. (A.Y. 1997-98)

R. K. Steel Syndicate v. ITO (2007) 108 TTJ 353 / 14 SOT 158 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Condonation of delay – Reasonable cause

There cannot be a sufficient cause for condonation of delay in filing appeals before Tribunal on the basis of a subsequent decision on appeal by CIT (A). (A.Y. 1989-90)

ITO v. Hemraj Onkarji Mali & Ors. (2007) 108 TTJ 100 / 106 ITD 513 (Indore)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional evidence – Rule 29 – ITAT Rules, 1963

In an appeal filed by assessee, additional evidence can be admitted at the instance of revenue on application under Rule 29 of ITAT Rules.

UOPLLC v. Addl. Dir. of IT. (2007) 110 TTJ 619 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional ground – Reassessment [S. 147]

It was held that though the ground challenging the Issue of Notice under section 148 was not challenged before Assessing Officer nor Commissioner (Appeals), the same can be raised before the Tribunal as it being purely a legal ground.

Otis Elevator Co. (India) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2007) 159 Taxman 128 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional ground – Legal issue

Admissibility – Additional grounds on legal issues going to the root of the matter and requiring no further factual investigation are admissible in appeal before Tribunal. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 1995-96)

Kanoi Industries (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 285 / 100 ITD 462 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding precedent – Third Member decision – Equal to Special Bench decision – Only in territorial jurisdiction

Third Member decision of Tribunal is as good as a Special Bench decision within its territorial jurisdiction. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Dy. CIT v. Oman International Bank SAOG (2006) 102 TTJ 207 / 100 ITD 285 (SB)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional ground – Question of law

Question whether the assessee is entitled to relief under section 80-I in respect of cash subsidy on exports being a pure question of law not requiring investigation of facts same is admitted by way of additional ground of appeal before the Tribunal. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Dy. CIT v. Maruti Udyog Ltd. (2006) 101 TTJ 760 / 99 ITD 666 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional Ground – New plea

New plea raised by the Revenue that the assessee is engaged in the business of holding investments cannot be admitted in the appeal as complete evidentiary facts are not available on record to adjudicate the said plea and in the past income from investment had been assessed as capital gains. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Escorts Ltd. v. ACIT (2006) 102 TTJ 522 / 104 ITD 427 / 8 SOT 167 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Maintainability – State Government undertaking COD

Appeals can be heard by the Tribunal without any clearance from the said Committee where litigation is between a State Government undertaking and the IT Department.

Dy. CIT v. Maharashtra State Road Transport Corporation (2006) 102 TTJ 22 / 100 ITD 187 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – No power of enhancement

Power of enhancement has not been conferred by legislature on the Tribunal under the IT Act and the order of the Tribunal cannot enhance the income originally assessed by the Assessing Officer.

Dy. CIT v. Maruti Udyog Ltd. (2006) 101 TTJ 760 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding Precedent – Latest provision of law

If a party is able to apprise the Tribunal of latest provisions of law or binding decision which was not brought to the notice of the Tribunal at the earlier occasion, and if it comes to the conclusion that there is necessity for deviating from the earlier findings, it must deviate and decide the issue judiciously. (A.Y. 1998-99)

ACIT v. New Nandi Seeds Corporation (2006) 101 TTJ 725 / 99 ITD 702 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order giving effect – Direction to Commissioner to take necessary administrative action

The Assessing Officer did not give effect to the order of the CIT(A) which was confirmed by the ITAT for 10 years – Further he started recovery proceedings – The Tribunal held that it was not an executing authority and was not a correct forum and hence assessee's application was not maintainable. But while doing so the Tribunal made certain observations. One amongst them is "Necessary action may be taken by the CCIT on the administrative side." (A.Y. 1983-84)

Noormohmad Umar Bapda v. ITO, M.A. No. 20(Rjt)/2002, ITA 1724/Ahd/1993 dated 29-11-2002 – BCAJ P. 410 Vol 39-B, Part 4 July 2006 (Rajkot)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Appeal – Maintainability – Tax effect

CBDT circular dt. 24th Oct., 2005, is binding on the Revenue even in cases of appeals filed before 31st Oct., 2005, and the Department would not be justified in proceedings with appeals in which the tax effect is less than the monetary limit prescribed in the circular. (A.Y. 2001-02)

ACIT v. Rajoo Engineers Ltd. (2006) 102 TTJ 733 / 100 ITD 555 (Rajkot)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Appeal – Commissioner – Revisional Jurisdiction

It is not open to the Revenue to challenge the order of the appellate authority on an issue on which relief has been given by CIT himself by exercising revisional jurisdiction in other cases. (A.Y. 1997-98)

ACIT v. Capt. K. P. Singh (2006) 103 TTJ 962 / 107 ITD 82 / 9 SOT 642 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional ground – Legal ground

Additional grounds taken being legal grounds and relevant facts being already on record, are admissible. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Buxa Dooars Tea Co. (I) Ltd. v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 898 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional ground – Reassessment [S. 147]

An additional ground regarding validity of assessment which involves a pure legal question not involving any investigation into facts can be admitted for decision in appeal against penalty. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Dhiraj Suri v. Addl. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 525 / 98 ITD 187 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional ground – Not raised in original and appellate proceedings – Justified in not admitting the ground

Assessee having refrained from raising certain grounds at the time of completion of set aside assessment and also at the time of appellate proceedings and not given any reasons, as to why these grounds were not raised in the regular course of appeal before the Tribunal, such grounds cannot be admitted in appeal.

A. P. Shanmugaraj v. Dy. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 259 / 99 ITD 278 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Jurisdiction – Enhancement – Retrospective amendments

Enhancement of income/tax vis-à-vis retrospective amendments of law. Tribunal is not always prevented from passing orders which may result in enhancement of the assessee's tax liability beyond the tax liability determined by the Assessing Officer. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Jt. CIT v. Sakura Bank Ltd. (2006) 99 TTJ 689 / 100 ITD 215 / 6 SOT 684 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Binding – Precedent – A subsequent Bench can draw different conclusion if there is adequate justification to depart from the earlier

Decision of a Bench of the Tribunal, even in the case of the same assessee in a particular assessment year does not constitute a binding precedent on subsequent co-ordinate Bench of the Tribunal in relation to another assessee or another assessment year of the same assessee. A subsequent Bench can draw different conclusion if there is adequate justification to depart from the earlier view, e.g. where subsequently new or more facts or material come to light.

Npar Drugs (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 38 / 98 ITD 285 (TM)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Binding – Precedent – Lower authorities

All the authorities below the Tribunal are bound to follow the decision of the Tribunal. Further, where there are conflicting decisions of co-ordinate jurisdiction, the later decision is to be preferred if reached after full consideration of the earlier decision. (A.Ys. 1998-99 to 2002-03)

Mahanagar Telephone Nigam Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 1 / 8 SOT 376 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Respondent – Support order of Commissioner (Appeals)

A respondent can support order appealed against on a ground which was decided, expressly or impliedly, against him; where though assessee had not paid tax before filing appeal as required by section 249(4), Commissioner (Appeals) entertained appeal and dismissed it on merit, in appeal by assessee before Tribunal, department could support Commissioner (Appeals) order of dismissal of appeal on grounds of non-compliance with section 249(4). (A.Y. 1998-99)

Durgeshwari Investments (P.) Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 93 TTJ 432 / 146 Taxman 56 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Orders – Cross objections – Any part of order

A cross objection can be filed against any part of the order of the Commissioner (Appeals). (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1996-97 to 1998-99)

ACIT v. Baldev Plaza (2005) 93 ITD 579 / 94 TTJ 135 (All.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Co-ordinate bench

It is not open to a Bench of Tribunal to differ from view taken by a co-ordinate Bench of equal strength. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Mehratex India Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 3 SOT 539 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Co-ordinate bench

It is not open to another co-ordinate Bench of Tribunal to differ from view taken by a co-ordinate Bench of equal strength; in case one doubts correctness of such a decision, one has to refer matter for constitution of a larger Bench. (A.Y. 1997-98)

J. K. T. Fabrics (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 4 SOT 84 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Co ordinate bench

Co-ordinate Bench should not reach a conclusion directly opposite to conclusion reached by another Bench of Tribunal on earlier occasion and if Division Bench differs from views of other Division Bench, matter should be posted before larger Bench for considering question; however a decision reached on particular facts and on consideration of law prevailing at that time can be deviated from if some new facts are brought on record or some more cases of higher Courts on subject have come to its notice. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1992-93)

V. G. Gajjar v. Dy. CWT (2005) 93 ITD 624 / 93 TTJ 70 / 1 SOT 702 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Co-ordinate bench

A decision of a co-ordinate Bench of same strength is required to be accepted by Bench of same strength. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Dy. CIT v. Mangalam Cement Ltd. (2005) 92 ITD 44 / 92 TTJ 01 (TM)(Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Later decision

It is only later decision which has a precedence over earlier decision even in a case where earlier decision was neither cited nor discussed in later decision. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

N. Sandeep Reddy v. ACIT (2005) 95 ITD 33 / 96 TTJ 315 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Per incuriam

A decision which is per incuriam is not a binding judicial precedent; a decision ignoring rule of precedence cannot but be viewed as per incuriam. (A.Y. 1997-98)

J. K. T. Fabrics (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 4 SOT 84 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Other than jurisdictional High Court – Favourable to assessee and not latter decision

Where there are conflicting decisions of different High Courts, none of which is of jurisdictional High Court, decision, which is favourable to assessee, should be followed and not later decision, which is against assessee. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 1995-96)
ACIT v. Hindustan Steel Industries (India) (2005) 94 TTJ 1094 (Agra)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Higher authority

Once an authority higher than Tribunal has laid down a proposition of law, all that is normally open to Tribunal is to respectfully follow same. (A.Y. 1994-95)
Milan Enterprise v. ACIT (2005) 95 ITD 18 / 95 TTJ 635 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254 : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding – Precedent – Per incuriam

It is not open to other Bench of Tribunal to express a contrary view unless earlier view of Bench is per incuriam. (A.Y. 1998-99)
Kothari Departmental Stores (P.) Ltd. v. Assessing Officer (2005) 96 ITD 142 / 97 TTJ 278 (TM) (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Powers – Duties – The Constitution of India – Article 142

Tribunal does not enjoy same powers as Supreme Court under article 142 of Constitution of India to pass such orders as deemed fit for doing complete justice in matter before it. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1993-94)
Thai Airways International Public Co. Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 2 SOT 389 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Interpretation – Doctrine of reading down

Once because of letter of notification provisions of statute have been negated or diminished by an executive order, Tribunal does have power to deal with validity of such rules or notifications and by applying doctrine of 'reading down' can strike down such rules if held to be in contradiction with provisions of statute itself.
Reliance Industries Ltd. v. Dy. DIT (International Taxation) (2005) 3 SOT 501 / 98 TTJ 856 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Additional grounds

Merely because proceedings before Tribunal are appellate proceedings, it cannot be said that it puts any restriction on Tribunal in giving direction for production of documents and for calling information from parties; Tribunal can, if required, direct any party to produce any document or any witness to be examined or to file affidavit, even if same as in the nature of additional evidence, for deciding appeal. (A.Y. 2000-01)
Chandrasekhar Balagopal v. ACIT (2005) 4 SOT 313 (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional grounds

Additional grounds can be admitted where facts giving rise to them have been discussed by lower authorities in their order and such facts are already on record.

Sun Pharma Exports v. Dy. CIT (2005) 96 TTJ 415 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional grounds

Where a claim was not made before authorities below and relevant material necessary for allowing such claim was not on record, such ground could not be entertained by Tribunal. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Budhewal Co-operative Sugar Mills Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 94 TTJ 307 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional grounds – Jurisdiction – Reassessment

Issuance of notice under section 148 goes to root of jurisdiction and such matter can be raised even for first time before Tribunal. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 1997-98)

Barmatics v. Dy. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 845 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional grounds – Special Bench

Where based on a decision of Special Bench of Tribunal, assessee sought to raise an additional ground, to treat sales tax incentive received from Government for setting-up industry in notified areas as a capital receipt not includible in total income, since basic facts with regard to setting-up of industry in notified area and receipt of incentive, if any, by assessee, were not available on record and said issue was not raised before lower authorities, additional ground raised by assessee could not be admitted. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Garden Silk Mills Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 2 SOT 856 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional grounds – Legal – Jurisdiction

Additional ground raised by assessee that assessment order in question had been framed under section 143(3), without assuming jurisdiction to frame such assessment inasmuch as notice under section 143(2) was not issued and served within statutorily allowable period of 12 months from end of month in which return under section 148 was filed, being a legal ground and being capable of being adjudicated on material on record, was to be allowed. (A.Ys. 1999-2000, 2000-01)

Sat Narain v. ITO (2005) 94 TTJ 499 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional grounds – Reassessment

Additional ground raised before Tribunal that assessment made under section 143(3), read with section 147, was bad in law and in violation of provisions of section 143 being a purely legal issue which goes to root of matter was liable to be admitted. (A.Y. 1993-94)

S. Kumar Enterprises (Synfabs) Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2005) 4 SOT 412 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional Grounds – Income-tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules 1963 [Rule 27]

Where assessee did not prefer appeal against order of Commissioner (Appeals) in respect of ground decided against it because on substantial ground, that it was not liable to pay additional tax, it had succeeded, on revenue's appeal against order of Commissioner (Appeals) assessee could under rule 27 of ITAT Rules support order of Commissioner (Appeals) by raising ground decided against it. (A.Ys. 1989-90, 1990-91)

Dy. CIT v. Bifora Watch Co. Ltd. (2005) 94 ITD 203 / 96 TTJ 393 (TM)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional grounds – Issue not subject of assessment [S.69]

Where at the time of completing assessment, Assessing Officer had not made addition by invoking provisions of section 69, additional ground of appeal raised by department pleading taxability of accrued interest on IVPs under section 69 could not be admitted by Tribunal.

Dy. CIT v. Roshan Singh (2005) 95 TTJ 485 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Additional grounds – Block assessment

Where appeal was against block assessment and was thus first appeal and documentary evidence was produced before Tribunal for first time, an opportunity should be given to Assessing Officer to examine documentary evidence and thereafter to reconsider issue; further additional grounds raised before Tribunal were also required to be reconsidered in light of material that might be produced before Assessing Officer by assessee.

V. Kumar v. ACIT (2005) 96 TTJ 483 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Stay – Direction under section 263

Tribunal has no inherent power to grant stay against demand raised by virtue of assessment order passed independently and after making due enquiries in pursuance of directions of Commissioner under section 263.

Technib Italy Spa v. ACIT (2005) 147 Taxman 114 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Stay – Clearance from committee

Tribunal has no power or authority to admit appeals filed by public sector undertakings/corporations seeking stay of demand arising from impugned assessment order, in absence of necessary clearance from Committee on Disputes. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Transmission Corpn. of AP Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 97 ITD 171 / 98 TTJ 161 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Stay – Recovered without allowing time to file appeal

Where pursuant to order of Commissioner (Appeals), revenue recovered assessed amount from assessee through attachment of bank accounts, without allowing time to file appeal and/or stay application before Tribunal, amount so recovered had to be refunded to assessee and also a stay on recovery of demand was to be granted for specified period.

Glaxo Smith Kline Asia (P.) Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 457 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Stay – Rental income [S. 80P(2)(e)]

Where assessee, a Government organization, had an arguable case that its claim for exemption of rental income under section 80P(2)(e) was justified, stay of demand was to be granted till disposal of appeal by Tribunal. (A.Ys. 1992-93 to 1999-2000)

Haryana State Co-op. Supply & Marketing Federation Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 92 TTJ 1269 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Stay – Enhancement by Commissioner (A)

Where the additions made by the Assessing Officer and further enhancement of assessed income by the Commissioner (Appeals) had resulted in high-pitched assessment of assessee's income as against that returned by assessee giving rise to a demand of more than ` 11.50 crores and as demonstrated by the assessee, there was a good prima facie arguable case for it to succeed on merits, its request for stay of demand was to be granted. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Bechtel India (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 92 ITD 205 / 93 TTJ 794 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Condonation of delay

In every case of delay (in filing appeal) there can be some lapse of litigant concerned; that alone is not enough to turn down plea of condonation of delay and to shut doors against him. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Earthmetal Electricals (P.) Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 4 SOT 484 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Grant Relief on Equitable Consideration

Tribunal has no power to grant relief on equitable jurisdiction as High Court and Supreme Court have been vested with such powers under writ jurisdiction. (A.Y. 1973-74)

Dy. CIT v. Maharaja Shree Umaid Mills Ltd. (2005) 94 ITD 291 / 95 TTJ 395 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Validity of search [S. 132]

Tribunal has no powers to adjudicate upon the issue relating to the validity of the search conducted under section 132 while disposing the appeal against block assessment.

Promain Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 95 ITD 489/ 95 TTJ 825 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Duty – Dissenting order

Duty cast on Member who writes a dissenting order is much heavier as he has not only to meet each & every point of his colleague, but also give a detailed reasoning for coming to a different conclusion.

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – opportunity of being heard – Notice of hearing

Absence of service of notice of hearing on respondent assessee. Particularly, when service of notice of hearing issued by Tribunal could not be effected by post at the address given in the memorandum of appeal, it was obligatory on the part of IT authority to effect service of notice. As per the established practice and accepted procedure that, in case notices of hearing cannot be served on the respondent- assessee in Revenue's appeals, such notices are got served through IT authorities. This practice and procedure has been long established and is fully in conformity with the judicial powers and jurisdiction of the Tribunal. On the facts and circumstances the Revenue showed scant regard for serving the notices and challenged the power of the Tribunal to direct the Revenue for service, the appeal of the Revenue was dismissed. (A.Y. 1989-90).

ITO v. Marco Roadways (2003) 81 TTJ 275 / (2004) 2 SOT 969 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Direction or finding for another assessment year

[S. 153(3)]

The Tribunal by virtue of the powers vested under the provisions of Section 254(1) for disposal of an appeal may pass such orders thereon as it thinks fit. The Tribunal would obviously pass the orders which have a bearing on the subject-matter of appeal and cannot possibly record finding or direction on incidental issues which are not connected with the subject-matter of appeal. The various provisions enacted by the legislature in Chapter XIV of the IT Act, 1961, viz., Sections 153(2A) and 153(3) and the two Explanations appended below sub-sections (3) of Section 153, which lift the bar of time limitation for giving effect to the finding or direction given by the Tribunal, amply bring out the legislative intention for enlarged ambit of appellate jurisdiction of the Tribunal conferred under section 254(1). If Section 254(1) is to be construed as prohibiting the Tribunal from giving any direction or finding in relation to any assessment year other than the assessment year under appeal, there was obviously no occasion for the legislature to include various sections in Chapter XIV for lifting the bar of time limitation to initiate proceedings for assessment in consequence of such directions or findings. The only limitation on the powers of the Tribunal to give directions or finding in relation to another assessment year would be that these are necessary for the disposal of appeal and are not merely incidental. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Perfect Equipments v. Dy. CIT. (2003) 85 ITD 50 / (2004) 86 TTJ 361 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Grant stay of recovery beyond six months

On the facts and circumstances the Tribunal has power to grant a further stay on expiry of six months of earlier stay. Object behind insertion of sub-section (2A) of section 254 is only to curtail the delays and to ensure the disposal of pending appeals within a reasonable time-frame. There is no bar imposed on the powers of the Tribunal to reconsider the grant of stay beyond 180 days if the appeal is not disposed of within that period. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Centre For Women's Development Studies v. Dy. DIT (Exemption) (2003) 78 TTJ 740 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Interpretation – Binding – Precedent – Order of Tribunal

The Tribunal cannot make a departure from the view taken in its earlier decision. It is permissible only if the facts are different or if there is a change in the law. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Venkateshwara Farms (P) LTD. v. Dy. CIT (2003) 84 ITD 212 / 79 TTJ 74 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Maintainability – Tax effect – Board Circular

Any Appeal by revenue where tax effect involved was less than monetary limit prescribed in board's circular is not maintainable.

ITO v. Mohd. Hanif & Sons (2003) SOT 609 (Jab.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Maintainability – Tax effect – Interest

For working out the monetary limit for filing of Appeals by revenue, only tax effect has to be considered and not the Interest. (A.Y. 1993-94)

ITO v. Roopchand Jain (2003) 79 TTJ 406 / 130 Taxman 223 (Mag.)(Nagpur)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Maintainability – Consent – Void appeal

Once the assessee gives his consent in respect of particular assessment, the right to appeal is lost, and appeals filed are not competent and void ab initio.

Malwa Texturising Pvt Ltd v. ACIT (2002) 77 TTJ 995 (Indore)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Res judicata – Different view

Tribunal can take different view in a later year for same assessee, based on decision of superior authority in subsequent proceedings. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Humphreys & Glasgow Consultants (P) Ltd v. Dy. CIT (2003) 87 ITD 344 / (2004) 86 TTJ 189 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Res judicata – Examine afresh

Merely because the matter has been decided against the assessee in preceding years, the Tribunal is not denuded of its power to examine the matter afresh and take an independent view of the matter.

Orissa State Civil supplies Corporation Ltd v. Dy. CIT (2003) 130 Taxman 218 (Cuttack)(Mag.) (Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional evidence – Power – Opportunity

Admission of additional evidence without giving opportunity to assessing officer to verify the same is not permissible. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Veena Kanoria v. Dy. ITO (2003) 85 ITD 95 / 79 TTJ 746 (TM)(Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional evidence – Power

Prayer for admission of additional evidence be allowed when assessee had not changed his stand, nor new ground has been taken, nor a new explanation different from one which was taken before the Assessing Officer & CIT(A) is being put up, and by admitting the same it proves assessee's case. (A.Ys. 1997-98, 1998-99)

Sikander Publishing (P) Ltd v. Dy. CIT (2003) 81 TTJ 249 / 133 Taxman 156 (Mag.) / (2004) 2 SOT 294 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Additional ground – Power – Legal issue – Interest [S. 139(8), 215]

Additional ground which is purely a legal issue, being charging of Interest under section 139(8)/215 has to be admitted. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Shankarlal Nebhumal (HUF) v. Dy. CIT (2003) 80 TTJ 69 / 2 SOT 671 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

Lathia Rubber Mfg. Co (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2003) 81 TTJ 779 / 3 SOT 714 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Civil court – Stay – Order Refund

Tribunal can exercise powers of civil court and pass order in nature of mandatory direction to department to refund the amounts recovered forcibly during pendency of stay petitions and income tax appeals.

Western Agencies (Madras Ltd) v. Jt. CIT (2003) 86 ITD 462 / 81 TTJ 284 (Mad.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Stay – Separate petition for each year

Separate stay petition is necessary for each year, even pertaining to same enactment.

Wipro (Ltd) v. ITO (2003) 87 ITD 407 / 81 TTJ 362 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Stay – Security – Satisfaction of AO

Assessing officer can not insist on any particular form of security, in connection with grant of stay granted by Tribunal, on condition of furnishing security to satisfaction of assessing officer.

Dhruv N Shah v. Dy. CIT (2003) SOT 528 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Direction – Assessment year not before it

Tribunal can give direction in relation to any assessment year which is not before it but which is necessary for disposal of appeal. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Perfect Equipment v. Dy. CIT (2003) 85 ITD 50 / 86 TTJ 361 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Power – Relief on different ground

Tribunal has powers to grant relief on ground other than given by Commissioner (Appeals), and also it is their duty to grant relief if contentions raised by the assessee are justified. (A.Y. 1992-93)

ITO v. Pradip Kumar Rathi (2003) 85 ITD 309 / 81 TTJ 152 (Gau.)(Trib.)

S. 254(1) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Binding precedent – Does not extend to whole country – Cotermious with that of the jurisdictional High Court

Impact of Tribunal's order does not extend to the whole country but to the area which is cotermious with that of the jurisdictional High Court. On other benches of the Tribunal it has only persuasive value. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Saipem S.P.A v. Dy. CIT (2003) SOT 661 / 86 ITD 572 / 87 TTJ 794 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Business loss [S. 28]

Loss was allowed for earlier and subsequent year. Appellate Tribunal refused to rectify the order. The Apex Court remanded the matter to Tribunal for consideration afresh in light of CIT v. Woodward Governor India P. Ltd. (2009) 312 ITR 254 (SC). (A. Y. 1998-99).

Perfetti Van Melle India (P) Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 334 ITR 259 / 63 DTR 189 / 245 CTR 235 (SC)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Merger – Order of High Court

The order of the Appellate Tribunal was dismissed in appeal by the High Court. Subsequently a Miscellaneous Application was filed as the Tribunal had not adjudicated the alternate ground of the assessee. The Tribunal recalled the matter for the limited purpose of disposal of the alternate ground. When the relief was granted by the Tribunal, the department went up in appeal. The High Court held that the Tribunal order has merged with the order of the High Court and had attained finality once it was dismissed by the High Court and therefore, the Tribunal could not have recalled the order. The Supreme Court reversed the order of the High Court and held that as the recall was not challenged by the department, it has become final and it could not have been interfered by the High Court.

Hindustan Coca Cola Beverage Pvt. Ltd. v. CIT (2008) 202 Taxation 210 / (2007) 293 ITR 226 / 163 Taxman 355 / 211 CTR 545 (SC) / 8 SCC 463 / AIR 2007 SC 930

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Jurisdictional High Court – Supreme Court

Non consideration of decision of Jurisdictional High court or Supreme Court is a mistake apparent from record rectifiable under section 254(2). (A.Y. 1996-97)

ACIT v. Saurashtra Kutch Stock Exchange Ltd. (2008) 305 ITR 227 / 12 DTR 346 / 173 Taxman 322 / (2009) 208 Taxation 90 (SC) / 14 SCC 171

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Limitation – Application within four years

If the application for rectification is made within 4 years, then the rectification order can be passed by the Tribunal after the expiry of 4 years. (A.Y. 1989-90)

Sree Ayyanar Spinning & Weaving Mills Ltd. v. CIT (2008) 301 ITR 434 / 171 Taxman 498 / 216 CTR 351 / 7 DTR 57 (SC)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Not considering the decision of a co-ordinate bench of the Tribunal

The Tribunal was right in rectifying the mistake on record as not considering the decision of a co-ordinate bench of the Tribunal cited before them would constitute a mistake rectifiable under section 254(2). The rule of precedent was an important aspect of certainty in the rule of law, and prejudice has resulted to the assessee since the precedent has not been considered by the Tribunal. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Honda Siel Power Products Ltd. v. CIT (2007) 295 ITR 466 / 165 Taxman 307 / 213 CTR 425 (SC)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Application under Rule 29 of the ITAT Rules, 1963, pending before Tribunal

Where application under Rule 29 of the ITAT Rules is pending, the Tribunal should first dispose of such application on merits and thereafter proceed to dispose of appeal on merits.

Jyotsna Suri v. ITAT (2003) 128 Taxman 33 / 179 CTR 265 (SC) / 9 SCC 211

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Power to Recall

It is fundamental principle that no party appearing before the Tribunal should suffer on account of any mistake committed by the Tribunal and no prejudice should be caused to either of the parties before the Tribunal which is attributable to the Tribunal's mistake, omission or commission. Thus, Tribunal entitled to recall order in entirety to rectify apparent mistake. Followed Supreme Court Judgement Honda Siel Power Products 295 ITR 466 and Saurashtra Kutch Stock Exchange 262 ITR 146. (A.Ys. 2000-01 to 2005-06)

Lachman Dass Bhatia Hingwala v. ACIT (2011) 330 ITR 243 / 49 DTR 98 / 237 CTR 117 / 196 Taxman 563 (FB)(Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Review

While exercising the power of rectification under section 254(2), Tribunal can recall its order in entirety if it is satisfied that prejudice has resulted to the party which is attributable to the Tribunal's mistake, error or omission and which error is a manifest error and it has nothing to do with the doctrine or concept of inherent power of review. (A. Ys. 2000-2001 to 2005-06).

Lachman Dass Bhatia Hingwala (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 237 CTR 117 / 330 ITR 243 / 196 Taxman 563 / 49 DTR 98 / (2011) Tax L. R. 101 (FB)(Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Orders – Rectification of mistake – Power to review – Additional evidence

Once the Tribunal has disposed the appeal on merits, it cannot review its order and therefore, miscellaneous application filed by the assessee seeking modification of the order of Tribunal so as to admit more additional evidence than that permitted by the order was rightly rejected by the Tribunal. (A. Y. 1998-99)

Indrakumar Patodia v. ITO (2011) 51 DTR 183 / 238 CTR 437 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Orders not cited – Tribunal entitled to do “own research” and rely on non-cited cases

Reliance and reference to reasons stated in another decision cannot be regarded as a mistake apparent from the record. It is not unusual or abnormal for Judges or adjudicators to refer and rely upon judgements / decisions after making their own research.

Geofin Investment (P) Ltd. v. CIT W.P. No. 3744/2011 dated 27-5-2011 (Delhi)(High Court) Source : www.itatonline.org

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Admission by counsel

Tribunal recording admission by counsel for assessee, assessee filing application denying admission, application should be considered on merits. (A. Y. 1997-98).

Bagoria Udyog v. CIT (2011) 334 ITR 380 / 60 DTR 386 / 244 CTR 339 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Reappreciating the correctness of the same decisions once again

Where the Tribunal after specifically dealing with the decisions cited by the assessee and distinguished the same dismissed the assessee appeal. Thereafter, the Tribunal while dealing with the rectification application was held to be not justified in reappreciating the correctness of the same decisions once again and allowing the assessee appeal. The High Court observed that section 254(2) is not a carte blanche for the Tribunal to change its own view by substituting a view which has been taken by it earlier.

CIT v. Earnest Exports Ltd. (2010) 36 DTR 274 / 323 ITR 577 / 230 CTR 527 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Second application for rectification is not maintainable

Second application for rectification is not maintainable.

S. Panneerselvam (Dr.) v. ACIT (2010) 217 Taxation 260 / Tax. L.R. 326 (Vol. 40 May 2010)(Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Variation in Order Pronounced in Open Court and Final Order

In view of alleged variation between the order pronounced by the Tribunal in the open Court on the conclusion of hearing on the stay application and the final order passed subsequently as regards the amount of deposit directed by the Tribunal. The Court directed the Tribunal to take up the hearing of the miscellaneous application filed by the assessee expeditiously to obviate any further complications. (A.Ys. 1999-2000 to 2005-06)

Asia Satellite Telecommunications Co. Ltd. v. ADIT (2010) 39 DTR 241 / 232 CTR 177 / 191 Taxman 177 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Order relied without giving an opportunity

Tribunal passing order relying on its own decision in another case. Assessee filing application contending that no opportunity given to deal with decision which had not been cited by either side when arguments were heard. The Tribunal dismissed the application. The Court held that assessee to be given an opportunity to deal with distinguishable features of case relied on. Matter remanded to decide on merit. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Inventure Growth and Securities Ltd. v. ITAT (2010) 324 ITR 319 / 41 DTR 117 / 195 Taxman 195 / 233 CTR 172 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Merger – Second application

Once, rectification filed by one of the parties is considered and decided by Tribunal, rightly or wrongly, another rectification application on same issue is not maintainable against order passed by Tribunal under section 254(1).

CIT v. Aiswarya Trading Co. (2010) 192 Taxman 385 / 46 DTR 126 / 134 TTJ 33 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Second Rectification Petition

Once the power for rectification of the earlier order is invoked / exercised and an order is passed, such order merges with the earlier order of the Tribunal and another application for rectification under section 254 (2) can not be entertained.

CIT v. Panchu Arunachalam (2010) 323 ITR 31 / 235 CTR 308 / 45 DTR 368 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Merger – Second application

Order under section 254(2) merges with original order. Second application for rectification not maintainable. (A.Ys. 1984-85 and 1987-88)

S. Panneerselvam (Dr) v. ACIT (2009) 319 ITR 135 / 228 CTR 423 / 32 DTR 357 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Tribunal relying on decision not cited

Where the Tribunal rejected the Appeal and also the rectification application relying upon the decisions which were neither cited by the departmental representative nor the assessee who had any notice of the same and also without taking into consideration the vital statements, the High Court on writ filed by the assessee remanded the matter to the Tribunal to decide it afresh after hearing both the parties in accordance with law. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Naresh K. Pahuja v. I.T.A.T. & Ors. (2009) 19 DTR 273 / 224 CTR 284 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Long drawn reasoning

Power conferred upon the Tribunal under section 254(2) of the Act is limited to correct the mistake apparent on the face of record and the power cannot be exercised to rectify an error by long drawn process of reasoning. (A.Y. 1966-67)

CIT v. Pearl Woollen Mills (2009) 31 DTR 349 / 227 CTR 614 / 330 ITR 164 / 191 Taxman 286 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Limitation

Time limit of four years to make rectification under section 254(2) applies to both suo motu action of Tribunal as well as action taken on request of parties. Section 254(2) does not provide for any condonation of delay and moreover, provisions of section 5 of Limitation Act, 1963 are not applicable. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Rahul Jee & Co (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2009) 120 ITD 481 / 123 TTJ 217 / 22 DTR 329 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Non-consideration of a Apex Court decision

Non – consideration of a Apex Court decision by the Tribunal, which was relevant for deciding the issue before it would amount to a mistake apparent from the record and can be rectified under the provisions of section 254(2) of the Act. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 1997-98)

CIT v. V.L.S. Finance Ltd. (2008) 15 DTR 180 / 310 ITR 224 / 178 Taxman 433 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Binding precedent –Jurisdictional High Court

Tribunal has to follow the decision of the jurisdictional High Court without making any comment upon the judgment that it did not take into consideration a particular provision of law. (A.Y. 1989-90)

National Textile Corporation Ltd. (MP) v. CIT (2008) 5 DTR 117 / 226 CTR 153 / 171 Taxman 339 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – No power to rehear the matter touching the merit

While exercising the power under section. 254(2) of the Act, the Tribunal can rectify any mistake apparent from the record and amend any order passed by it, if a mistake is brought to the Tribunal's notice by the Assessing Officer or by the assessee. However, the Tribunal has no power to rehear the matter touching the merit, which was finally decided, and as such the Tribunal should not make any observation relating to merits of the case while passing the order under section 254(2) of the Act.

Bharat Drug Stores v. CIT (2007) 197 Taxation 263 / 295 ITR 120 (Gau.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Cannot be allowed to reopen and reargue the whole matter

Assessee cannot be allowed to reopen and reargue the whole matter in the garb of rectification under section 254(2). (A.Y. 1998-99)

Perfetti Van Melle India v. CIT (2007) 212 CTR 173 / 296 CTR 595 / 164 Taxman 493 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Failure to consider one of ground – Block assessment – Search and seizure

On appeal to High Court, it was held that the ITAT at the stage of deciding the Misc. Application itself could not be regarded as a correct approach. The assessee should have been given an opportunity to present her case further in respect of the third issue which had been left out for consideration in the original order passed by the ITAT by giving due opportunity. Therefore, the order was not valid and matter was remanded back. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1996-97)

T. Jayabharathy v. ACIT (2007) 294 ITR 128 / 213 CTR 223 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Review

The Tribunal cannot overturn a well-reasoned order given by a regularly constituted bench by taking recourse to the provisions of section 254(2) like an appellate court. The Tribunal while hearing an application under section 254(2) cannot act as an appellate court. The Tribunal must keep in mind the subtle distinction between the appellate power and rectification powers while deciding the rectification application.

CIT v. Chhabra Ginning Udyog (2006) 195 Taxation 671 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Opportunity of hearing

Assessee filed Miscellaneous Application, opportunity to hear must be given. Rejection of application without giving opportunity held to be not valid. (A.Y. 1999-2000)
Jain Trading Co. v. UOI (2006) 282 ITR 640 / 195 CTR 324 (Bom.) (High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Merely, because a judgment given on the subject either by the Tribunal or any other court was not noticed

Merely, because a judgment given on the subject either by the Tribunal or any other court was not noticed while taking a particular view on the merits of the case decided by it, it may constitute an error, which could be corrected in appeal but, would fall short of constituting a mistake apparent from record within the meaning of section 254(2) of the Act.

CIT v. ITAT (2006) 195 Taxation 288 (Delhi) (High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Cannot recall entire order

Tribunal cannot recall entire order on an application under section 254(2). (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Mayur Recreational & Development Ltd. (2005) 196 CTR 97 (Delhi) (High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Failure to consider a ground raised in memorandum of appeal

Failure by Tribunal to consider a ground raised in memorandum of appeal is a mistake apparent from record in Tribunal's order. (A.Y. 1973-74)

CIT v. K.M. Sugar Mills (P.) Ltd. (2005) 275 ITR 247 / 198 CTR 72 (All.) (High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Assessee was not served with memo of appeal before it was heard

Tribunal was justified in recalling its order where it was found that assessee was not served with memo of appeal before it was heard finally. (A.Ys. 1991-92 to 1993-94)

CIT v. Alankar Tiles (2005) 272 ITR 447 / 196 CTR 647 (MP) (High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Contentions raised before Bench not taken note of it

If assessee thought that contentions raised by it before Bench had not been taken note of, it was incumbent upon it to file rectification application to bring it to attention of those very Members who had heard appeal, immediately on receipt of order when matter was still fresh in their minds; rectification application filed by assessee almost two years later when constitution of Bench had undergone change and when there was no material on record to see whether such contentions were raised, could not be allowed.

Paras Cold Storage & Ice Factory v. CIT (2005) 272 ITR 301 / 145 Taxman 46 / 194 CTR 520 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Decision one or other

Where Tribunal disallowed assessee's claim for deduction of interest paid on borrowed capital, after dealing with matter one way or the other, it could not be said that Tribunal's order suffered from a mistake apparent from record. (A.Y. 1977-78)

Biswanath Prasad & Sons v. CIT (2005) 277 ITR 265 / 150 Taxman 49 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Recalling of order was not justified

Where in its original order a specific finding had been given by Tribunal regarding addition representing value of jewellery source of which remained unexplained, Tribunal was not justified, on application by assessee under section 254(2), in recalling that order. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CIT v. Shashi Modi (Smt) (2005) 277 ITR 355 / 155 Taxman 144 (All.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Block assessment – Peak working

Where as per Tribunal's order, during block assessment addition made was on account of capital employed in liquor business and no separate addition had been made on account of peak credit in various bank accounts, there was no merit in assessee's application under section 254(2) for rectification of Tribunal's order on ground that while working out peak amount in bank accounts, amount on account of bank interest had also been taken into account and that constituted a mistake apparent from record in Tribunal's order. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1997-98)

Naresh Kohli v. CIT (2005) 277 ITR 496 / 150 Taxman 363 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Time limit – Four years from date of order

Tribunal has no jurisdiction to amend any order passed by it under sub- section (1), after expiry of four years from date of order, whether it is on its own volition or on an application being made by assessee or Assessing Officer; there is no merit in contention that this time-limit is applicable to suo motu order of Tribunal and not in a case where mistake is brought to its notice by assessee or revenue. (A.Ys. 1972-73 to 1984-85)

Raja Malwinder Singh v. Union of India (2005) 278 ITR 568 / 199 CTR 418 / 152 Taxman 377 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Recalling the entire order

The power to rectify mistake under section 254(2) cannot be used for recalling the entire order

DIT v. Dumez Sogea Borie SAE (2005) 142 Taxman 309 / 192 CTR 543 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Omission of Tribunal

Omission on part of Tribunal to note fact of finality of order of Commissioner (Appeals) against which no appeal had been preferred and assumption of jurisdiction by Tribunal to interfere with merits of such final order, would be a mistake apparent on face of record in Tribunal's order.

Kesoram Industries Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 270 ITR 501 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Mistake apparent from the record

There is no merit in the contention that power of Tribunal under section 254(2) is restricted to correction of errors apparent on record; it can decide matter over again on merit.

CIT v. Gangaprasad Bachulal (2004) 188 CTR 581 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Mistake apparent from the record

Power to rectify a mistake under section 254(2) cannot be used for recalling entire order.

CIT v. Vichitra Construction (P) Ltd. (2004) 269 ITR 371 / 191 CTR 423 / 144 Taxman 456 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Mistake apparent from the record

Where Tribunal in its appellate order had observed that commissioner had not correctly appreciated evidence while deleting additions, on miscellaneous application it could not held that its earlier observation was a mistake apparent from record. (A.Ys. 1985-86, 1986-87)

CIT v Roop Narain Sardar Mal (2004) 267 ITR 601 / 134 Taxman 350 / 186 CTR 713 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Jurisdiction – Mistake apparent from the record

Where the miscellaneous application which was filed before the Rajkot Bench stood transferred to the Ahmedabad Bench under an administrative order taking into consideration the fact that Rajkot Bench was not available, unless a fresh order retransferring the matter from the Ahmedabad Bench to Rajkot Bench was made, Ahmedabad Bench would be seized of the jurisdiction to hear and determine the miscellaneous application. (A.Y. 1996-97)

ACIT v. Saurashtra Kutch Stock Exchange Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 316 / 262 ITR 146 / 183 CTR 364 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Finality of Order

An appeal attains finality unless and until disturbed or modified as provided by statute. However, an order on appeal would take with in its sweep an order made under sub section (1) as well as order made under sub section (1) as rectified under sub section (2) of section 254. (A.Y. 1996-97)

ACIT v. Saurashtra Kutch Stock Exchange Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 316 / 262 ITR 146 / 183 CTR 364 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Ex-parte order

Where the Tribunal decided the case against the assessee ex-parte, setting aside such an ex parte order on the ground that the assessee for valid reasons could not attend the hearing of the case would not amount to review. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CIT v. Gheru Lai Bal Chand (2003) 185 CTR 97 / 269 ITR 386 / 135 Taxman 525 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Finality

Power of rectification is to be exercised to remove an error or correct a mistake and not for disturbing finality. (A.Y. 1996-97)

ACIT v. Saurashtra Kutch Stock Exchange Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 316 / 262 ITR 146 / 183 CTR 364 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – No power to deal with entire appeal afresh

Power to rectify can be exercised even if a mistake has occurred at instance of party to appeal. (A.Y. 1996-97)

ACIT v. Saurashtra Kutch Stock Exchange Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 316 / 262 ITR 146 / 183 CTR 364 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Debatable issue

Tribunal can only make changes in original order consequent on rectification and it cannot go further and deal with entire appeal afresh. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Prajantra Prachar Samity v. CIT (2003) 264 ITR 160 / 186 CTR 96 (Orissa)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Debatable issue

A debatable issue does not come within scope of section 254(2). (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1988-89)

CIT v. Bhagwati Developers (P.) Ltd. (2003) 261 ITR 658 / 182 CTR 619 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Amendment in law – Subsequent to Order of Tribunal

Where amending law received assent of President subsequent to date of Tribunal's order, on basis of such retrospective amendment, Tribunal's order cannot be said to suffer from mistake apparent from record.

CIT v. Sudhir S. Mehta (2003) 183 CTR 592 / 183 CTR 592 / 265 ITR 548 / 139 Taxman 54 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Jurisdictional High Court – Rendered subsequently

A decision of the jurisdictional High Court, even if rendered subsequently, would constitute a mistake apparent from the record investing an authority with jurisdiction to rectify the mistake. (A.Y. 1996-97)

ACIT v. Saurashtra Kutch Stock Exchange Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 316 / 262 ITR 146 / 183 CTR 364 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Ignorance of decision of Supreme Court

Order passed by Tribunal in total ignorance of decision of Supreme Court between same parties would be fit for rectification. (A.Y. 1991-92)

CIT v. Daluram Mangilal (2003) 132 Taxman 791 / 185 CTR 254 / 265 ITR 278 (MP)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Reliance on a wrong provision of law

Reliance on a wrong provision of law tantamounts to mistake apparent from the record.

Seth Madan Lai Modi v. CIT (2003) 126 Taxman 129 / 261 ITR 49 / 179 CTR 67 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Mathematical error

Tribunal is right in invoking jurisdiction under section 254(2) to rectify mathematical error in its order. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Devilal Soni (2003) 185 CTR 180 / 271 ITR 566 / 134 Taxman 08 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Point of contention

In case a party before Tribunal invites attention of the Tribunal that a point or contention which is material for determining amount of tax payable has not been considered by the Tribunal, it would certainly constitute a mistake apparent from record within the meaning of section 254(2). (A.Y. 1996-97)

ACIT v. Saurashtra Kutch Stock Exchange Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 316 / 262 ITR 146 / 183 CTR 364 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Two views

Petition under section 254(2) on an issue, on which two views were possible, to remand the matter back to assessing authority for giving assessee an opportunity to show cause against the assessment of amount as assessee's undisclosed income was not maintainable. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Visalakshi Gandhi v. CIT (2003) 127 Taxman 625 / 260 ITR 323 / 181 CTR 523 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Failure to record a finding in relation to a second proposition

Failure of Tribunal to record a finding in relation to second proposition in Sunil Siddharthbhai's case while applying first proposition, would constitute a mistake apparent from record. (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. Subodhchandra S. Patel (2003) 184 CTR 393 / 265 ITR 445 / 138 Taxman 185 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Findings

Tribunal's order of remand in respect of expenditure which was sought to be added under section 69C to find out its reasonableness could not be treated as a mistake apparent from record. (A.Ys. 1987-88, 1988-89)

CIT v. Bhagwati Developers (P.) Ltd. (2003) 261 ITR 658 / 182 CTR 619 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Two views

On the question whether for assessment year 1989-90, assessee was entitled to benefit of section 80HH even though place where assessee's industry was located had ceased to be a notified backward area in year 1986, more than one view was possible and Tribunal's order allowing deduction could not be said to suffer from mistake apparent from record. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Electro Alloy Special Steel Castings (P.) Ltd. (2003) 128 Taxman 666 / 264 ITR 97 / 181 CTR 521 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Merger

On the facts of the case, the High Court had reversed the order passed by the Tribunal holding that since the assessee had paid arm's length remuneration for services of its Indian agent, no further profits could be attributed to foreign enterprises in India under Article 7(1) of DTAA.

In such cases the application filed by the revenue under section 254 read with section 9 & 90 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 Article 7 of DTAA between India and Singapore was rendered infructuous as the impugned order of Tribunal had already merged with the order passed by High Court & Tribunal had no jurisdiction to modify its earlier order. The revenue's application was therefore dismissed. (A. Y. 1999-2000).

Dy. DIT v. SET Satellite (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. (2011) 43 SOT 1 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Mistake in order passed u/s. 254(2), cannot be rectified

The miscellaneous application filed by the assessee against earlier order passed under section 254(2) is not maintainable only course open to the assessee is to file an appeal against the said order. (A. Y. 1995-96).

Shri Padma Prakash (HUF) v. ITO (2011) 131 ITD 121 / 136 TTJ 257 / 51 DTR 2 / 87 ITR

135 / 8 ITR 135 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake apparent from the record – Powers – Stay

Power of Tribunal to pass an order of stay is not confined to a case where an appeal is pending before Tribunal, but also extends to any proceedings relating to an appeal pending before it.

Application under section 254(2) is maintainable against order passed by Tribunal granting stay. (A. Y. 2007-08 and 2009-2010).

ITO v. Vodafone Essar Ltd. (2011) 44 SOT 304 / 54 DTR 253 / 138 TTJ 284 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Income-tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules 1963 Rule 34 – Rectifiable Order – Pronouncement

Order pronounced at the conclusion of hearing, though not passed in writing, constitute an order of the Tribunal and the same could be rectified under section 254(2). (A. Y. 1999-2000 to 2004-05).

ITO v. Meenakshi (Smt.) (2011) 128 ITD 1 / (2010) 128 TTJ 619 / 36 DTR 42 (TM)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Powers – Jurisdiction –Additional ground on recall – Not maintainable

The Tribunal omitted to consider an issue. A Miscellaneous application was moved seeking to recall the order. The tribunal recalled the order and registry was directed to fix the appeal as far as ground regarding rent receipt was concerned. Assessee moved instant application seeking admission of additional ground that reopening was bad in law. Held that the statute permits bench, which originally heard the matter, to recall its order in its entirety or to recall in a limited way or to pass a corrigendum or correct certain mistakes apparent from record and bench has no jurisdiction to go into other issues other than one which was recalled. Hence, Assessee was not entitled to raise any additional ground. (A.Y. 1999-2000).

Tokhem Enterprises v. ITO (2011) 132 ITD 375 / 144 TTJ 265 / 66 DTR 407 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Review or Recall

Tribunal cannot recall its previous order unless there are manifest errors which are obvious, clear and self-evident. (A. Y. 2007-08)

Sudhakar M. Shetty v. ACIT (2011) 139 TTJ 663 / 58 DTR 289 / 130 ITD 197 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Reference in log book

In the log book of the author of the order of the Tribunal there is reference to CIT(A)'s order which contains the relevant findings on the issue of agency PE, there is also a reference to Departmental Representative's submission contesting the finding of the CIT(A) on this issue, therefore, assessee's plea that the question of agency PE was never raised before the Bench at the time of hearing of the appeal cannot be accepted. Tribunal having given its finding on the issue of agency PE which was actually raised before the Bench at the time of hearing of the appeal and arrived at its conclusions based on relevant reasoning, miscellaneous application filed by the assessee questioning the correctness of the view of the Tribunal without indicating any apparent error in the order of the Tribunal not maintainable. (A. Y. 1997-98).

Reuters Limited v. Jt. CIT (2011) 62 DTR 322 / 48 SOT 246 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Editorial: Refer Jt. CIT v. Reuters Limited (2009) 33 SOT 301 / (2010) 133 TTJ 22 / (2011) 7 ITR 422 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Order pronounced

Order pronounced by the Tribunal at the conclusion of hearing though not passed in writing, constituted an order of the Tribunal which could be rectified, however, order is not be recalled for the reasons that the judicial member has kept the matter pending with him after the order was pronounced and expressed his opinion to reopen the case after three months. (A.Ys. 1999-2000, 2004-05)

ITO v. V. Meenakshi (Smt.) (2010) 36 DTR 42 / 128 TTJ 619 / 128 ITD 1 (TM)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Second Application

Tribunal having taken a conscious decision in the order passed on the first Miscellaneous Application that its conclusion in the original order was not based on erroneous facts /and or misappreciation of facts on record that no legal contention going to the root of the matter remained to be considered, second Miscellaneous Application is not maintainable on the same set of facts.

Kailashnath Malhotra v. Jt. CIT (2010) 36 DTR 1 / 129 TTJ 393 / (2011) 8 ITR 457 (TM)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Second Application

When first Miscellaneous Application is rejected, second Miscellaneous Application is not maintainable. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Hexa Securities & Finance Co. Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 127 TTJ 510 / 33 DTR 557 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Specific and alternative ground

A request made at the time of hearing, which has not been dealt with in the order of the Tribunal, constitutes an error in the order. The action of the Tribunal in setting aside the order of CIT(A) and upholding the action of the Assessing Officer in a case where the CIT(A) has not adjudicated on the specific grounds raised by the assessee and also on the alternate grounds raised, constitutes a mistake apparent on record.

Puja Agencies Pvt. Ltd. v ACIT, BC&AJ P. 17, Vol.41-B, Part 6, March 2010.(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Book Profit – Retrospective Amendment [S. 115JB]

Retrospective amendment after passing order does not lead to "apparent mistake".

ACIT v. GTL Ltd., (2010) Tax World–July P. 46. Vol xiv Part 1 V / BC&AJ P. 27, Vol. 42-B, Part 2, November 2010 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Subsequent decision of Jurisdictional High Court or Supreme Court

Decision of the Supreme Court or the Jurisdictional High Court is binding on the Tribunal, and therefore, constitute an apparent error in the order, which is contrary to the principle laid down in the subsequent decision. Accordingly, the subsequent law laid down by the Supreme Court or the jurisdictional High Court has to be considered for rectifying the mistake under section 254(2) of the Income Tax Act 1961. (A.Y. 2004-05)

V. R. Chittanandam v. ACIT (2010) 5 ITR 258 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Direction is expunged – Cost of Trademark

Direction given to the Assessing Officer to assess the Capital Gain on transfer of trademark in question as short term capital gain if the same was registered within six months being an unworkable direction in as much as the cost thereof has nowhere been determined nor it is determinable, an error has crept in the order of the Tribunal and consequently the said direction is expunged. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Trent Brands v. ITO (2010) 133 TTJ 70 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Question pending before the High Court

When the question was pending before the High Court, it was not right for the assessee to agitate it before the Tribunal. It is for the bench to decide whether there should be joint consideration by members before draft order finalised. Merely because there was no specific mention of each argument, the order could not be said to be vitiated by mistake apparent from the record. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Tata Communications Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2009) 317 ITR 1 (AT) / 124 TTJ 721 / 225 CTR 248 / 183 Taxman 444 / 28 DTR 1 (SB)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Judgement of Supreme Court – Jurisdictional High Court

If an order passed by Tribunal is not in conformity with judgement of Supreme court or that of Jurisdictional High court rendered prior to or subsequent to impugned order, same constitute a mistake apparent from record.

Kailasnath Malhotra v. Jt. CIT (2009) 34 SOT 541 (TM)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Non-Consideration of argument

Non consideration of any argument advanced by either party for arriving at a conclusion is not an error apparent on record, although it may be an error of judgement and same can not be rectified under section 254(2). (A.Y. 1989-99)

Essel Propack Ltd. v. ACIT (2009) 34 SOT 359 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – No power to Condone delay – Application filed after four years

There is no provision to entertain the condonation of rectification application under section 254(2) of the Income-tax Act, therefore the Rectification Application filed after expiry of four years cannot be allowed.

Rahul Jee & Co. v. ACIT (P) Ltd. (2009) 123 TTJ 217 / 120 ITD 481 / 22 DTR 329 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Omission to consider order of co-ordinate bench which was cited

Omission to consider order of co-ordinate bench which was cited by the assessee, is mistake apparent rectifiable under section 2454(2).

Paliwal Overseas Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2008) 117 TTJ 427 / 8 DTR 638 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Pendency of departmental appeal

When the fact of pendency of Departmental appeal was not pointed out at the time of hearing of the appeal of the assessee, it cannot be said that the Tribunal has committed an error while hearing only the assessee's appeal. (A.Y. 2003-04)

ACIT v. Changepond Technologies Pvt. Ltd., M.P. No. 137/Mds/08, dt. 14-8-2008 – BCAJ P. 394, Vol. 40-B, Part 3, December 2008.(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Subsequent decision of Jurisdictional High Court and Supreme court overruling the decision

- (i) Where an order passed by Tribunal is based upon an interpretation or application of law which ultimately found to be wrong in light of subsequent judicial pronouncement which is rendered by jurisdictional High Court or Supreme Court would be always regarded as mistake apparent from record.
- (ii) Where an order passed by Tribunal is based upon a particular decision of High Court and if the same is reversed in further proceedings would justify a rectification within the provision of section 254(2).
- (iii) Where an order passed by Tribunal is based upon a particular decision of High Court which is overruled by a subsequent decision of Supreme Court then in that case the order of the Tribunal which was based on overruled decision could not be allowed to stand and therefore, the Tribunal is duty bound to pass an order in conformity with the law laid down by the Supreme Court. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Jt. CIT v. Milton's Ltd. (2007) 106 ITD 478 / 112 TTJ 167 / 11 SOT 557 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Additional ground

There being nothing on record to show that additional ground taken by the Revenue was ever sought to be argued for admission by the Departmental Representative, Tribunal committed no mistake rectifiable under S. 254 (2) in not considering the same in its appellate order.

ACIT v. J & K Bank Ltd. (2007) 107 TTJ 135 / 104 ITD 316 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Failure by Tribunal due to oversight or inadvertence to consider a ground raised in the memo of appeal

Failure by Tribunal due to oversight or inadvertence to consider a ground raised in the memo of appeal is a mistake apparent rectifiable under section 254(2).

NEPC India Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 103 TTJ 486 / 100 ITD 65 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Recall of ex parte order – Notice of hearing not received

Absence of service of notice of hearing. Assessee having not received any notice of hearing of appeal and there being nothing on record to show that the notices allegedly sent by registered / ordinary post were received by the assessee or delivered to him, ex parte order passed by the CIT(A) is set aside with the direction to give an opportunity of hearing to the assessee and pass a fresh order after considering assessee's submission.

Sanjeev Vats v. ACIT (2006) 103 TTJ 724 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Decision merged – Dismissal of appeal by High Court

Appeal against the order of the Tribunal having been dismissed by the High Court, the decision of the Tribunal merged with the decision of the High Court and therefore, only the High Court has the power to consider and rectify the mistake, if any, in the order of the Tribunal and not the Tribunal. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Bhawan Va Path Nirman (Bohra) & Co. v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 169 / 101 ITD 101 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Delay in pronouncing the order

Delay in pronouncing the order is no ground for rectification. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1998-99)

British Airways Plc. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 101 TTJ 886 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Wrongly recorded the date of notice under section 142(1)

Tribunal having wrongly recorded the date of notice under section 142(1) as 24th Aug., 1997, whereas the admitted correct date was 24th Aug., 1998, the mistake warranted rectification under section 254(2) as qua the correct date, the very issue of validity and jurisdiction of making assessment assumed importance. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Shaw Wallace & Co. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 101 TTJ 258 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Order passed by Special Bench

Order passed by Special Bench is one under section 254 and if it contains mistake apparent from the record, it is rectifiable under section 254(2). (A.Y. 1993-94)

ACIT v. Apollo Tyres Ltd. (2006) 102 TTJ 15 / 6 SOT 478 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Miscellaneous petition filed by Representative of the Department – Not maintainable – Only by AO

Miscellaneous petition of the Revenue is to be signed by the Assessing Officer and none else. Miscellaneous petition filed by the senior Authorised Representative of the Department is not maintainable. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Dy. CIT v. Hydraulics Ltd. (2006) 100 TTJ 857 / 99 ITD 310 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Misappreciation of facts [S. 44BB]

Tribunal having drawn presumption under section 44BB on misappreciation of facts that salary paid to expatriates had been deducted while computing profits of PE in India, order recalled under section 254(2) for decision afresh. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Pride Foramer S. A. v. ACIT (2006) 100 TTJ 936 / 98 ITD 249 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Submissions raised by the assessee have been duly recorded and considered – Interest [S. 234B]

If the submissions raised by the assessee have been duly recorded and considered by the Bench and a conscious decision has been taken it cannot be said that any mistake has been committed by the Tribunal. Tribunal having noted that the assessee had received payment and consciously held that the assessee committed default and is liable for interest under section 234B, it cannot be said that the Tribunal failed to consider the contention of the assessee and therefore, no rectification under section 254(2) was called for.

Novartis AG Basle v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 673 / 100 ITD 42 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Mere inordinate delay in pronouncing the order

Mere inordinate delay in pronouncing the order by the Tribunal cannot be a ground for recalling the order by invoking section 254(2) as the validity of the order of the Tribunal cannot be the subject matter of proceeding under section 254(2)

Novartis AG Basle v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 673 / 100 ITD 42 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Exceeded its jurisdiction

Whether the tribunal exceeded its jurisdiction in confirming disallowance on a ground other than the one taken by CIT(A) is not a matter which can be gone into in proceedings under section 254(2).

Budhewal Co-operative Sugar Mills Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 336 / 6 SOT 805 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Stay of recovery – Vacated by operation of law

Tribunal having earlier held that the stay granted stood vacated by operation of law, matter cannot be reconsidered and therefore, assessee is not entitled to any further relief of stay of recovery of demand. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1993-94)

Anuradha Timber Estates v. Dy. CIT (2006) 101 TTJ 316 / 99 ITD 53 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Order recalled

Assessee having been assessed under the jurisdiction of Hyderabad Benches of the Tribunal, and not Visakhapatnam Bench and therefore, order of the Visakhapatnam Bench passed in appeal is recalled and the registry is directed to transfer the appeal to Hyderabad Benches for adjudication. (A.Y. 2001-02)

ACIT v. Chandrasekhar Transport (2006) 101 TTJ 840 (Visakha)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Not restoring the matter to the file of CIT (A)

Where particular issue has been omitted to be considered or has not been adjudicated properly or where perverse findings have been recorded in total disregard of material on record by lower authority, Tribunal is under legal obligation to issue directions to Commissioner (Appeals) for deciding such issues although no specific ground is taken for that purpose by concerned party; mistake on part of Tribunal in not restoring matter to Commissioner (Appeals) can be rectified by amending its earlier order. (A.Ys. 1992-93 and 1993-94)

Shahid Atiq v. ITO (2005) 97 ITD 22 / 98 TTJ 971 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Jurisdictional High Court – Rendered prior or subsequent

Non-consideration of a judgment of jurisdictional High Court constitutes a mistake apparent from record regardless of judgment being rendered prior to or subsequent to order proposed to be rectified. (A.Ys. 1995-96 and 1996-97)

Datamatics Financial Services Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2005) 95 ITD 23 / 95 TTJ 944 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Not incorporating arguments – Submissions etc.

By not incorporating arguments, submissions, reference to paper books, etc., it could not be said that there was any mistake apparent from record in Tribunal's order.

Naveen Grah Nirman Sahakari Samiti v. Competent Authority (2005) 92 TTJ 151 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Applicability of article – Double taxation avoidance agreement

Where assessee filed a miscellaneous application before Tribunal pointing out that impugned order of Tribunal was vitiated by a mistake apparent from record inasmuch as it was held by Tribunal that provisions of article 7 of India-Mauritius DTAA were not applicable to instant case, whereas authorities below had held that article 7 would apply, since Assessing Officer as well as Commissioner (Appeals) had held that provisions of article 7 were applicable to instant case, Tribunal did commit an error by going behind an uncontested finding of authorities below and disturbing that finding without invitation of either of parties to do so. Integrated Feeder Container Services v. Jt. DIT (IT) (2005) 4 SOT 357 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Wrong conclusion

Merely because Tribunal considered and did not allow a claim, even if conclusion is wrong, that will be no ground for moving an application under section 254(2), unless it can be said that there is a mistake apparent from record. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Corrossion Roadlines v. Dy. CIT (2005) 92 ITD 181 / 92 TTJ 631 (TM)(Pune)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Jurisdictional High Court

If view taken by Tribunal is found to be contrary to jurisdictional High Court's decision given subsequently, Tribunal's order is liable to be rectified. (A.Ys. 1990-91 and 1991-92)

ACIT v. Hughes Services (FE) Pte. Ltd. (2005) 93 ITD 77 / 94 TTJ 815 (TM)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Non disposal of additional ground

Non-disposal of additional ground by the Tribunal is an error on face of record. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Alstom Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 95 TTJ 139 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Wrong Conclusion

Merely because Tribunal has considered and has not allowed a claim, even if conclusion is wrong, that will be no ground for moving an application under section 254(2), unless it can be said that there is a mistake apparent from face of record. (A.Ys. 1990-91, 1991-92)

Tivoli Investment & Trading Co. (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 1 SOT 150 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Merger – Dismissal of appeal by High Court

Doctrine of merger will not apply to cases where High Court dismisses appeal against order of Tribunal on ground that no substantial question of law is involved therein and in such a case, Tribunal may rectify a mistake in its order which is apparent from record. (A.Ys. 1991-92 and 1992-93)

Electropack v. Dy. CIT (2005) 94 ITD 227 / 95 TTJ 275 (TM)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Tax effect

Where Tribunal, following CBDT Instruction No. 1979, dated 27-3-2000 providing that Department should not file appeal where tax effect is below prescribed amount, dismissed appeal, it could not be said that Tribunal committed a mistake apparent from record which could be rectified under section 254(2). (A.Y. 1983-84 to 1985-86)

ITO v. Bir Engg. Works (2005) 94 ITD 164 / 93 TTJ 257 (SB)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Book profit – Amendment – Consequential order

Where Tribunal while holding that the amendment to section 115 A by Finance Act, 1994 was clarificatory in nature, had not passed any consequential order or given any direction regarding the rate of charging of tax, Tribunal's order was required to be rectified to apply rate prescribed in amended provision to earlier assessment years. (A.Ys. 19987-88 and 1989-90 to 1991-92)

Sikkim Janseva Pratisthan (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 1 SOT 650 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake apparent from the record – Power of review

Tribunal has no power to review its own order, and re-look into the matter and readjudicate even if vital points have not been properly appreciated. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Auto Piston Mfg. Co. (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2003) 78 TTJ 815 / 130 Taxman 84 (Mag.)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Failure to consider the arguments advanced by parties

Failure of Tribunal to consider the arguments advanced by either parties is not mistake apparent on record.

Paras Cold Storage & Ice Factory v. ACIT (2003) 84 ITD 108 / 79 TTJ 584 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Certain decision not being considered by Tribunal

Question of applicability of certain decision not being considered by Tribunal will justify rectification and not review. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Finquick finance (P) Ltd v. Dy. CIT (2003) 87 ITD 323 / 81 TTJ 319 (TM)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Subsequent decision of the Jurisdictional High court

Later decision of the jurisdictional High Court would not give rise to a mistake apparent on record for the purposes of rectification under section 254(2). (A.Y. 1991-92).

Trilok Ship Breakers (P) LTD. v. ACIT (2003) 84 ITD 48 / 78 TTJ 766 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2) : Appellate Tribunal – Order – Rectification of mistake – Inordinate delay in passing order

Order passed by the Tribunal though after a delay of about one year after the arguments was not violative of any express provisions of IT Act. There was no mistake apparent from the order of the Tribunal and therefore, the same cannot be recalled on ground of inordinate delay. (A.Y. 1986-87 to 1996-97).

Paras Cold Storage & Ice Factory v. ACIT (2003) 84 ITD 108 / 79 TTJ 584 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2A) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Stay – Extension of Period

The Tribunal has power to extend period of stay beyond three hundred and sixty five days under the provisions of section 254(2A) of the Income-tax Act, 1961. (A. Y. 2003-04).

CIT v. Ronuk Industries Ltd. (2011) 333 ITR 99 / 240 CTR 265 / 54 DTR 291 / 203 Taxman 90 (Mag.)(Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(2A) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Stay – Should dispose off stay granted appeals within time limit i.e. not beyond 365 days

Income Tax Appellate Tribunal should dispose off stay granted appeals within time limit prescribed under section 254(2A) i.e., not beyond 365 days from the stay order. Jethmal Faujimal Soni v. ITAT (2010) 38 DTR 174 / 231 CTR 332 / (2011) 333 ITR 96 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(2A) : Appellate Tribunal – Stay – Power to grant Extension – Interim stay

The power to grant stay or interim relief being inherent or incidental is not defeated by the provisos introduced under section 254(2A) by the Finance Act, 2007. The third proviso has to be read as a limitation on the power of the Tribunal to continue interim relief in case where the hearing of the appeal has been delayed for acts attributable to the assessee. The power of the Tribunal to continue interim relief is not overridden by the language of the third proviso to section 254(2A). There would be power in the Tribunal to extend the period of stay on good cause being shown and on the Tribunal being satisfied that matter could not be heard and disposed of for reasons not attributable to the assessee.

Narang Overseas (P) Ltd. v. ITAT (2007) 165 Taxman 557 / 211 CTR 524 / 295 ITR 22 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 254(2A) : Appellate Tribunal – Power – Stay – Proceedings Before Assessing Officer

Tribunal can stay the proceedings before the Assessing Officer in exercise of its inherent powers as well as in view of the proviso to section 254(2A). The Tribunal disposed the stay application by directing the Assessing Officer to pass the assessment order by 31-12-2009 in accordance with the law but not to serve on the assessee, and thus not to give effect to the same for a period of a six months from the date of passing of its order or till date of passing of the appellate order, whichever is earlier.

Pancard Clubs Ltd. v. Dy. CIT Stay No. 235/2009 dt. 18-12-2009 Bench C, BCAJ March, 2010 14. 642 (2010) 41-BCAJ (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2B) : Appellate Tribunal – Awarding cost – Failure to follow directions – Round of litigation

Assessment made without following the directions of the CIT(A) and without giving adequate opportunity to the assessee. The Tribunal imposed cost of ` 5,000/- upon the appellant for the casual and irresponsible approach of the Assessing Officer, which led the assessee into two rounds of litigation. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Dy. CIT v. Dalal Street Press Ltd., ITAT Bench 'B', - ITA No. 3756/Mum/2003, dated 20-6-2006 - BCAJ P. 403, Vol. 39-C, Part 4, January 2007 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 254(2B) : Appellate Tribunal – Binding – Precedent – Cost of appeal – Co-owner

Assessing Officer having not followed the order of the CIT(A) and the CIT(A) also having not followed the order of the Tribunal dealing with an identical issue, the Assessing Officer as well as the CIT(A) acted against the law and their action amounts to judicial indiscretion and impropriety. Assessee is entitled to costs of appeal.

Maj. Gen (Retd.) Kanwarjit Singh Gill L/H of Smt. Narinder Kaur Gill (Decd.) v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 538 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

Section 255 : Procedure of Appellate Tribunal

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Constitution of Tribunal – Transfer and Posting of Members

Central Government cannot confer upon itself statutory power of transfer and posting of members of Income Tax Appellate Tribunal. Long standing practice should be allowed to prevail over the stand of the respondents. The Court prescribed the guidelines regarding posting of members of the Tribunal.

Ajay Gandhi & Anr. v. B. Singh & Ors. (2004) 265 ITR 451 / 134 Taxman 537 / 186 CTR 506 / 179 Taxation 433 (SC)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Jurisdiction – Single Member

Single member of the Tribunal has jurisdiction to decide an appeal in case where income assessed by the Assessing Officer is below Rs. 5 lakhs even though the income is enhanced in appeal by CIT(A). (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Mahakuteshwar Oil Industries (2008) 3 DTR 131 / 215 CTR 262 / 298 ITR 390 / 169 Taxman 277 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Additional evidence – Income-tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules 1963 [Rule 29]

For the admission of the additional evidence, the assessee has to make an application to show cause why it should be admitted. The accounts of the assessee were rejected by Assessing Officer on the ground of non-production of stock register. The stock register constitutes additional evidence in that regard and hence stock register cannot be produced for the first time before ITAT without proper application. (A.Y. 1982-83)

Bimal Kumar Anant Kumar v. CIT (2007) 288 ITR 278 / 210 CTR 171 / 159 Taxman 402 (All.)(High Court)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Difference of opinion – Matter sent back

The Accountant Member by his order dismissed the appeals preferred by the revenue. After going through the order of the Accountant Member, the Judicial Member passed an order to the extent of allowing the appeals of the revenue partly for statistical purposes, thereby amounting to a disagreement between the two members. Instead of placing the matter before the President, as required under section 255(4), the Accountant Member subsequently changed his views and agreed with ultimate findings of the Judicial Member. The Hon'ble Court held there being an unresolved difference of opinion, the matter was sent back to the Tribunal, to pass an appropriate order in terms of section 255(4), for a resolution of the difference in the manner prescribed.

Delhi Press Samachar Patra (P) Ltd. (2006) 155 Taxman 236 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Abatement – Legal heirs on record – Income-tax Rules, 1963 – Rule 26 ITAT – CPC 1908, Order 22 [R. 4]

Though Rule 26 of the ITAT Rules 1963, provides for bringing legal heirs of deceased on record, no time limit has been prescribed under that rule, and provisions of order 22 rule 4 of the CPC, 1908 have to be applied. Revenue having failed to bring the legal heirs of deceased assessee on record, in spite of giving reasonable opportunity the appeal of revenue was dismissed. (A. Ys. 1999-2000 to 2002-03).

ITO v. Myeni Raghava Rao (2011) 139 TTJ 740 / 131 ITD 321 / 58 DTR 357 (Visakha)(Trib.)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Power – Vice President

Vice President of the Tribunal has powers to prepone cases in order to streamline their disposal. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1994-95)

K Raheja (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2009) 124 TTJ 933 / 26 SOT 39 / 28 DTR 201 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Action by members

A Bench of the Tribunal comprises of a Judicial Member and an Accountant Member. The powers and functions of the Tribunal are to be exercised by the Bench and not by the Members individually. It is imperative that two Members should act in unison and in harmony and the decision should be taken and arrived at after deliberations and discussions by the Bench. The litigant should have the feeling that the Bench is one and not two Members moving in opposite directions. For smooth functioning of the Benches and of the Institution as a whole individualistic approach and ego has to be suppressed by adopting fair, reasonable and objective approach aimed at advancing cause of justice. (A.Ys. 1995-96, 1996-97)

Navin Kumar v. Jt. CIT (2006) 98 ITD 242 / 99 TTJ 267 (TM)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Power – Third member – Jurisdiction

Third member is competent to decide only the point or points on which the Members of the Bench originally hearing the case differed. New point raised by a party at the time of hearing cannot be considered. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Dy. CIT v. Shripet Cybertech Systems Ltd. (2006) 103 TTJ 149 / 101 ITD 201 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Binding – Precedent – Third member – Special Bench

Decision of the Special Bench even of three Members is entitled to all the weight and must have precedence over the decision of a Third Member. Regular Benches are required to follow and act upon the decision of Special Bench and in case its views are contradictory to the views of the Third Member, preference is required to be given to Special Bench

Dy. CIT v. Padam Prakash (HUF) (2006) 104 ITD 1 / 288 ITR 1 (AT) / (2006) 104 TTJ 989 / 10 SOT 1 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Power – Additional evidence – Third Member

Third Member has the power to take into consideration the additional evidence, if it is very essential to dispose of the question referred to the Third Member on merit, provided the additional evidence was at least tendered before the original Bench. (A.Ys. 1991-92, 1992-93)

Ichalkaranji Co-operative Spinning Mills Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 103 TTJ 593 / 102 ITD 177 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Reference to third member – Additional ground

While acting under section 255(4), Tribunal does not have power to entertain an additional ground which was not subject-matter of point of difference between Members who originally heard appeal and was not even raised during course of original hearing before Division Bench.

Rameshwar Soni v. ACIT (2005) 97 ITD 127 / 98 TTJ 1039 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Opinion of third member – Formulation of new question

The Third Member is competent to decide only the point on which the Members of the Bench originally hearing the case differed. He cannot himself formulate a new point on which he could base his decision. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Jain Irrigation Systems Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2003) 86 ITD 243 / 79 TTJ 347 / (2004) 1 SOT 664 (TM)(Pune)(Trib.)

S. 255 : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Power – Exercise powers of Civil Court [S. 131, 254]

As per the Sec. 254, 255 and 131 the Tribunal can exercise powers of civil Court and could pass order in the nature of mandatory directions to the Department to refund/return the amounts recovered forcible during the pendency of the stay petitions and the income-tax appeals. Sec. 254 is very clear and gives wide power to this Tribunal to pass "such orders thereon as it thinks fit" according to facts and circumstances of each case and only requisite condition is that to give both the parties an opportunity of being heard. Therefore, the Tribunal has power to pass such appropriate orders in the facts and circumstances of each case to maintain judicial balance between the parties and therefore the powers under s. 254 would include power to grant stay which is incidental and ancillary to the appellate jurisdiction. While exercising the powers to grant stay, the Tribunal would be having all powers to grant stay in the nature of prohibitory, mandatory, or directory to order for return the amount already recovered by the Revenue in appropriate cases and to do justice between the parties. (A.Y. 1997-98).

Western Agencies (Madras) Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2003) 86 ITD 462 / 81 TTJ 284 (Mad.) (Trib.)

S. 255(4) : Appellate Tribunal – Procedure – Functions – Third member – Jurisdiction – Scope

Jurisdiction of the third member is limited to the issue in the question referred to him and he is not supposed to investigate new facts beyond the scope of the question referred to him. (A. Y. 2004-05).

Dy. CIT v. Akay Flavours & Aromatics (P) Ltd. (2011) 55 DTR 1 / 130 ITD 41 / 138 TTJ 513 (TM) (Cochin) (Trib.)

C. [Reference to High Court]

Section 256 : Reference to High Court [Omitted by the National Tax Tribunal Act, 2005, with effect from a date yet to be notified]

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Jurisdiction

The Tribunal is a final fact finding authority. In a reference to the High Court, fact can only be gone into only where a finding of fact recorded by the Tribunal has been challenged on the grounds of perversity. (A.Ys. 1984-85 to 1987-88)

Sudarshan Silks & Sarees v. CIT (2008) 216 CTR 12 / 300 ITR 205 / 169 Taxman 321 / 5 DTR 261 / 206 Taxation 195 (SC)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Question of Law – Agricultural Income Tax

Even after the reference is made by the Tribunal directly or on the basis of the direction of the High Court, it is open to the High Court not to answer reference if no question of law is involved. (A.Ys. 1982-83, 1983-84)

Comm. of Agricultural IT v. M. N. Moni (2007) 291 ITR 387 / 161 Taxman 207 / 210 CTR 82 (SC)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Question of Law

While dealing with question as to whether a question of law arises within meaning of section 256(2), instead of deciding to answer question, High Court should direct the Tribunal to refer question of law.

CIT v. Nabhinandan Digamber Jain & Anr. (2003) 263 ITR 516 / 185 CTR 197 / 133 Taxman 663 / (2004) 178 Taxation 393 (SC)

S 256 : High Court – Reference – Statement of case to the High Court

Profits from sale of agricultural land ,whether exempt is finding by Tribunal that land was agricultural land not assessable as Capital Gains is a question of Fact. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Minguel Chandra Pais (2006) 282 ITR 618 / 200 CTR 152 / 149 Taxman 131 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Statement of case to the High Court – Power

The issue before the Hon'ble High Court was whether it has the powers to recall an order passed ex parte in the absence of any such provision under the Act. The Hon'ble Court observed that in terms of section 256 a reference is made to the High Court. The High Court, therefore, is not a persona designate. While exercising its power, the High Court still acts as a constitutional authority and thus, can exercise its jurisdiction in a manner as it may think fit and proper. The High Court is not a creature of statute. It is now a well settled principle of law that a power of substantive review is required to be confirmed by statute. No such power is required to be expressly conferred upon a court in relation to exercise of its power of procedural review. Such a power inheres in every court, more so in the High Court.

International Airports Authority of India v. CIT (2006) 154 Taxman 1 / 287 ITR 8 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Statement of case – Questions not referred

It is out of several questions assessee seeks reference of question which is held to be question of fact, assessee cannot be permitted at time of hearing to address arguments on another question not referred. (A.Y. 1987-88)

P.O. Basheer v. CIT (2005) 142 Taxman 48 / 192 CTR 188 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Scope – Power

If it appears that based on established facts inference drawn is contrary to settled principles of law, in such cases High Court can interfere with conclusion arrived at by Tribunal on established facts

Jayshree Tea & Industries Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 272 ITR 193 / 143 Taxman 143 / 194 CTR 244 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Scope – Power

High Court cannot reappreciate evidence while dealing with petition under section 256(2). (A.Y. 1987-88)

CIT v. Oberoi Textile (P.) Ltd. (2005) 276 ITR 634 / 144 Taxman 648 / 195 CTR 431 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Scope – Power

High Court, in exercise of jurisdiction conferred under section 256(2), cannot probe questions of fact, nor can it examine correctness of explanation offered by assessee. (A.Ys. 1988-89, 1989-90)

Premier Proteins Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 142 Taxman 441 / 193 CTR 37 (MP)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Scope – Power

When Tribunal decides any question by placing reliance on its earlier decision, then either Tribunal in its order refers in detail to view taken in that case and/or sends a copy of order as a part of statement of case to High Court, and only then High Court in its advisory jurisdiction can examine in its right perspective whether Tribunal was right in deciding question; parties cannot be allowed to file any documents in reference proceedings for first time

CIT v. Abhishek Cineco (P.) Ltd. (2005) 275 ITR 280 / 144 Taxman 358 (MP)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Question arising out of order of Tribunal

For a question to arise out of Tribunal's order, it must first be decided on its merit by Tribunal. (A.Ys. 1978-79 to 1981-82)

CIT v. Thakur Das Aidasani (2005) 274 ITR 605 / 145 Taxman 96 / 193 CTR 315 (MP)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Question arising out of order of Tribunal

Where interest paid was allowed by Tribunal under section 37(1), question referred as to whether such interest was allowed under section 36(1)(iii) could not be said to arise from Tribunal's order.

CIT v. National Chemical Industries (2005) 142 Taxman 400 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Academic questions

Where issue in question had already been settled by Supreme Court's decision and regular assesment under section 143(3) was in progress, no useful purpose could be served by calling for reference under section 256(2).

CIT v. Vipry Solvex Products Ltd. (2005) 143 Taxman 363 (MP)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Infructuous Reference

Where reference is at assessee's instance and assessee does not appear before High Court, reference is not fit one to be answered

Banoo E. Cowasji (Mrs) v. CIT (2005) 276 ITR 594 (MP)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Infructuous Reference

Where another reference arising out of same impugned order of Tribunal, covering same question of law and same assessee had already been allowed in favour of revenue, in view of comprehensive question of law already framed and called by instant court by its order, instant reference application had become infructuous. (A.Y. 1987-88)

CIT v. Vijaykumar Rajendrakumar & Co. (2005) 142 Taxman 85 (MP)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Power Review

Review cannot be treated like an appeal in disguise and mere possibility of two views on subject cannot be a ground for review

Appropriate Authority v. Rasiklal M. Dhariwal (2005) 277 ITR 370 / 144 Taxman 704 / 193 CTR 377 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Binding – Precedence

Where revenue has not challenged correctness of law laid down by High Court and has accepted it in case of one assessee, then it is not open to revenue to challenge its correctness in case of other assessees, without just cause. (A.Y. 1986-87)

CIT v. Janakiram Mills Ltd. (2005) 275 ITR 403 / 146 Taxman 40 / 196 CTR 551 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Binding – Precedence

Where Tribunal declined to follow jurisdictional High Court's decision on ground that it did not lay down correct law, a question of law arose from Tribunal's order.

National Textile Corpn. Ltd. v. CIT (2005) Tax LR 684 / 150 Taxman 39 / 203 CTR 374 / 286 ITR 496 (MP)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Filing of appeal – Tax effect is small

CBDT Circular dated 27-3-2000 to effect that revenue should not file appeal where tax effect is less than that prescribed in that Circular (` 2 lakhs) is also applicable to old referred case. (A.Y. 1975-76)

CIT v. Pithwa Engg. Works (2005) 276 ITR 519 / 197 CTR 655 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Writ Jurisdiction – The constitution of India [Article 226]

Writ cannot be entertained where assessee is simply aggrieved by what he terms as excessive deduction of tax at source

P.K. Bhattacharya v. Steel Authority of India Ltd. (2005) 193 CTR 285 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Writ Jurisdiction – The constitution of India [Article 226]

Object of article 226 of the Constitution is enforcement and not establishment of right or title and, hence, a petition under article 226 cannot be converted into a suit and High Court cannot take up adjudication of disputed facts

M.S. Associates v. Union of India (2005) 275 ITR 502 / 147 Taxman 172 / 196 CTR 318 (Gau.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Writ Jurisdiction – The constitution of India [Article 226]

Where appeal has been filed against assessment order, simply because appeal has not been decided, it would not give a cause to assessee to file writ petition under article 226. (A.Y. 2001-02)

D.D. Shah & Bros. v. UOI (2005) 278 ITR 572 / 143 Taxman 292 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Writ Jurisdiction – The constitution of India [Article 226]

Revisional jurisdiction cannot be an efficacious and alternative remedy to discourage writ court to entertain writ petition. (A.Y. 1984-85)

Peico Electronics & Electricals Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 278 ITR 319 / 199 CTR 407 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Writ Jurisdiction – The constitution of India [Article 226]

Where though assessee's registered office was at Moradabad, its principal place of business was in Calcutta and assessee filed return in Calcutta and was assessed in Calcutta, Calcutta High Court had jurisdiction to entertain writ against notice issued to assessee by Assessing Officer, Moradabad, to file returns

India Glycols Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 274 ITR 137 / 145 Taxman 549 / 196 CTR 191 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Issue settled by Apex court

If question sought to be referred is covered by Supreme Court decision, it is not necessary to allow application under section 256 (2). (A.Y. 1989-90)

Sanmati Forest Industries (P.) Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 142 Taxman 75 / 191 CTR 490 (MP)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Precedent – Order of another Bench

It is a general policy in income-tax matters that whatever the view of the bench at the time of hearing may be, bench should follow the view taken by another High Court on interpretation of a section. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. SAE Head Office Monthly paid employees Welfare Trust (2004) 271 ITR 159 / 141 Taxman 364 / 192 CTR 70 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Reliance of decisions

Court should not place reliance on decisions without discussing as to how factual situation fits in with the fact-situation of decision on which reliance is placed. (A.Ys. 1982-83 to 1984-85)

Vinay Extraction (P.) Ltd. v. Vijay Khanna (2004) 271 ITR 450 / 140 Taxman 67 / 190 CTR 495 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Review – Omission to consider Circular

Omission to consider a circular by High Court would not be ground for review of its order.

CIT v. Ruby Traders & Exporters Ltd. (2004) 270 ITR 526 / 192 CTR 618 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Mistake – Review

In exercise of jurisdiction to review, High Court cannot correct any mistake which is not apparent on face of record but requires long drawn argument to establish same or in respect where of two opinions are possible

CIT v. Ruby Traders & Exporters Ltd. (2004) 270 ITR 526 / 192 CTR 618 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Tax effect

Effect of circular by which a decision has been communicated that appeal under section 260A/ reference under section 256 (2) before High Court should not be filed where amount of tax involved is less than ` 2 lakhs. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CIT v. Dhampur Sugar Mills Co. Ltd. (2004) 270 ITR 576 / 142 Taxman 468 (All.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Small tax effect

In a case where total amount involved is less than ` 30,000/- reference should be returned unanswered.

CIT v. Padampat Singhanian (2004) 136 Taxman 200 (All.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Finding contrary to law laid down by Apex court

If finding of Tribunal is clearly contrary to law laid down by Apex Court, a question of law would arise. (A.Y. 1985-86)

CIT v. Munak Engineering (P.) Ltd. (2004) 271 ITR 361 / 190 CTR 403 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Specific question – Perverse

In absence of a specific question challenging findings of fact of Tribunal as perverse, finding of Tribunal cannot be held as perverse. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CIT v. Jibie K. John (2004) 265 ITR 73 / 135 Taxman 409 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Issue settled by Supreme court

Reference will not lie on an issue settled by Supreme Court. (A.Y. 1989-90)
CIT v. P.M. Steels (P.) Ltd. (2004) 141 Taxman 311 / 191 CTR 45 (MP)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Writ – Alternative remedy – Constitution [Article 226]

If writ is entertained and a direction has already been given for filing affidavit, and at that time of final hearing, plea of existence of alternative remedy cannot be raised. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CESC Limited v. ITO (2004) 140 Taxman 646 / (2005) 272 ITR 513 / 192 CTR 557 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Writ – Alternative remedy – Constitution [Article 226]

Writ is not maintainable against order of commissioner (Appeal) as there is an alternative remedy of appeal to Tribunal against such order.

Omprakash Bagadia (HUF) v. CIT (2004) 267 ITR 604 / 139 Taxman 275 (MP)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Writ – Jurisdiction – The Constitution of India [Article 226]

Where plea of jurisdiction was not raised by revenue at time of admission of petition when court entertained petition and passed an interim order, such plea by necessary implication must be taken as waived by revenue. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Biswanath Tea Co. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2004) 267 ITR 687 / 140 Taxman 568 / 190 CTR 186 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Writ – Alternative remedy – Constitution [Article 226]

Writ petition against an order under section 273 or under section 154 (passed Commissioner) cannot be refused on ground of not availing alternative remedy. (A.Ys. 1984-85 to 1990-91)

Satish Kapur v. CIT (2004) 265 ITR 673 / 136 Taxman 288 / 187 CTR 109 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Writ Remedy – The Constitution of India [Article 226]

When show – cause notice is questioned on ground of bar of limitation, it is not a case of inherent lack of jurisdiction and as such writ against show cause notice will not be maintainable. (A.Y. 1970-71)

Soumyendra Chandra Gooptu (Dr). v ITO (2004) 270 ITR 170 / 192 CTR 472 / 148 Taxman 199 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Writ – Territorial jurisdiction – The Constitution of India [Article 226]

Territorial jurisdiction where writ is filed against notice and order under section 226(3). Revenue took the plea that Writ is not maintainable at Calcutta High court as the TRO did not have his place of business within the territorial limits of the Calcutta High Court as the impugned order was passed at Delhi.

The court held that as the notice under section 226 (3) was previously served within the territorial limit of the Calcutta High Court, and the petitioner was able to make out prima facie jurisdictional fact partly in order to get the relief in the matter. The Calcutta High Court had the jurisdiction based on cause of action, not in relation to the places of business of the respondents as it was permissible under article 226 (2) of the Constitution of India.

Shaw Wallace & Co. Ltd. v. Union of India (2004) 269 ITR 88 / 191 CTR 223 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Perverse

Findings of fact may also form a basis of a question of law if inference drawn from facts found is not in consonance with legal principles or findings are perverse and in such a case High Court may interfere.

Hindusthan Tea Trading Co. Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 129 Taxman 601 / 263 ITR 289 / 182 CTR 585 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Small tax effect – Circular

In spite of Circular directing department not to file appeal where tax effect is less than 25000, if the department wants to file reference application, the court should entertain that. (A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. Registhan (P.) Ltd. (2003) 131 Taxman 505 / 186 CTR 260 (Raj.)(High Court) / CIT v. Registhan (P.) Ltd. (2003) 132 Taxman 894 / 185 CTR 283 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference – Binding – Precedent – Per incuriam

A judgment can be said to be per incuriam only if it is rendered in ignorance of provisions of a statute or a rule having statutory force or a binding authority; but if relevant provisions of Act and binding judgments have been considered by Court in its judgment, then it cannot be said that judgment was delivered in ignorance of relevant provisions of Act or binding precedent. (A.Ys. 1992-93, 1997-98, 1999-2000)

Saroop Lai Adlakha v. Dy. CIT (2005) 97 ITD 6 / 99 TTJ 724 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 256 : High Court – Reference binding – Precedent – Other benches

Judgement of Bombay High Court would not be binding on Chandigarh bench of Tribunal, even if same is the only High Court judgement available on the issue involved. (A.Y. 1994-95)

ACIT v. Avon Cycles Ltd (2003) 86 ITD 156 / 82 TTJ 127 (Chd.)(Trib.)

Section 257 : Statement of case to Supreme Court in certain cases

S. 257 : Supreme Court – Statement – Appellate Tribunal – Speaking order – Judicial propriety

The revenue placed reliance upon the Bombay High Court decision but the Tribunal instead of dealing with the same referred to other co-ordinate Mumbai Bench decision which though contained reference to the Bombay High Court's decision. The Delhi High Court held that judicial propriety demands that when there was a judgment of a superior Court, that judgment should be considered by Tribunal and clear reasons should be given as to why that decision was distinguishable either in its own words or in words of co-ordinate Benches. The High Court held that merely mentioning decision without otherwise referring to the facts or the law laid down in that decision does not amount to considering the decision. The appeal stood remanded to the Tribunal for a fresh disposal on merits.

CIT v. Havell's (P) Ltd. (2007) 165 Taxman 510 (Delhi)(High Court)

Section 260 : Decision of High Court or Supreme Court on the case stated

S. 260 : Decision of court – High Court – Reference – Power

In second appeal, High Court is not entitled to set-aside concurrent findings of fact by giving its own findings contrary to evidence on record.

Mahalingappa (G.) v. G. M. Savitha (2005) 147 Taxman 583 (SC)

S. 260 : Decision of court – High Court – Binding – Precedent

Even if the High Courts have consistently taken an erroneous view, it would be worthwhile to let the matter rest, since large number of parties have modulated their legal relationship based on this settled position of law.

UOI v. Azadi Bachao Andolan (2003) 263 ITR 706 / 132 Taxman 373 / 184 CTR 450 (SC)

S. 260 : Decision of court – High Court – Academic interest

From the provisions of section 260, it does not follow that Court is bound to answer question of law referred to it by Tribunal for its opinion or to give its decision even where a question raised is only and purely of academic interest and does not resolve the real controversy.

CIT v. G.B.H. Exporters (2003) 133 Taxman 693 / 184 CTR 563 / 271 ITR 545 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 260 : Decision of court – High Court – On case stated – Opportunity of hearing [S. 254]

Though Tribunal is required to dispose of the appeal in conformity with the opinion expressed by High Court, that does not take away effect of section 254, which specifically provides for giving opportunity of hearing to parties in appeal.

T. Raghavan v. ITAT (2003) 262 ITR 257 / 191 CTR 179 / 138 Taxman 265 (Mad.)(High Court)

CC. Appeals to High Court

Section 260A : Appeal to High Court

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial question of law – Cash credit [S. 68]

It is manifest from a bare reading of section 260A of the Income Tax Act, 1961, that an appeal to High Court from a decision of the Tribunal lies only when a substantial question of law is involved, and where the High Court comes to the conclusion that a substantial question of law arises from the order of Tribunal, it is mandatory that such questions must be formulated. A finding of fact may give rise to a substantial question of law, inter alia, in the event the findings are based on no evidence and / or while arriving at the said finding, relevant evidence has been taken into consideration or legal principles have not been applied in appreciating the evidence, or when the evidence has been misread. On the facts the Tribunal has given a finding that the assessee has failed to prove the source of cash credit satisfactorily hence, no question of law arise from the order. (A. Y. 1983-84).

Vijay Kumar Talwar v. CIT (2011) 330 ITR 1 / 1 SCC 673 / 236 CTR 454 / 196 Taxman 136 / 48 DTR 179 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of delay – Long delay due to procedural reasons in filing Dept. appeals cannot be condoned

The SLP challenging the order of the Bombay High Court declining to condone delay of 656 days in filing the appeal was dismissed on the basis that several facts such as non traceability of case records, procedural formalities involved in the Department and the papers are to be processed through different officers in rank for their comments, approval etc. and then the preparation of the draft of appeal memo, paper book and the administrative difficulties such as shortage of staff does not make sufficient cause for condonation of delay.

CIT v. Indian Hotels Co. Ltd. SLP Appeal (Civil) No. 21087/2010 dated 9-5-2011 (SC)
Source : www.itatonline.org

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of delay – Appeal by department

The department delayed in filing appeal in the matter involving huge stakes. The High Court dismissed the appeal. Held, considering the amount of tax involved, the High Court ought to have decided the appeal before it on the merits. The matter was remanded to the High Court to decide de novo in accordance with law.

CIT v. West Bengal Infrastructure Development Finance Corp. Ltd. (2011) 334 ITR 269 / 56 DTR 351 / 241 CTR 504 / 196 Taxman 321 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Limit of 10 laks – CBDT's low tax effect circular not applicable to matters having "cascading effect"

The High Court, relying on CBDT's Instruction No. 3/2011 dated 9-2-2011, dismissed the department's appeal as not maintainable on the ground that the tax effect was less than ₹ 10 lakhs. The department filed a SLP in the Supreme Court. The Apex Court allowing the petition held that, Liberty is given to the Department to move the High Court pointing out that the Circular dated 9th February, 2011, should not be applied ipso facto, particularly, when the matter has a cascading effect. There are cases under the Income-tax Act, 1961, in which a common principle may be involved in subsequent group of matters or large number of matters. The High Court shall not apply the Circular ipso facto. For that purpose, liberty was granted to the Department to move the High Court in two weeks.

CIT v. Surya Herbal Ltd. (2011) 60 DTR 165 / 243 CTR 327 / 243 CTR 327 / 202 Taxman 462 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Assessment – Article 226 of the Constitution – Opportunity to cross-examine – Alternative remedy – Validity of order [S. 143]

Instead of setting aside the assessment order, the High Court should have directed the Assessing Officer to grant opportunity to the assessee to cross-examine the concerned witness; further, assessee having failed to avail the statutory remedy of appeal, High Court should not have quashed the assessment proceedings under section 226 of the Constitution, assessee given liberty to move CIT(A).

ITO v. M. Pirai Choodi (2011) 334 ITR 262 / 245 CTR 233 / 63 DTR 187 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of delay – Departmental Appeal

The High Court dismissed the department's appeal on the ground of delay. On appeal to Supreme Court, the Court held that looking to the amount of tax involved in this case, we are of the view that the High Court ought to have decided the matter on merits. The Court further observed that in all such cases where there is delay on the part of the department, we request the High Court to consider imposing costs but certainly it should examine the cases on merits and should not dispose of cases merely on the ground of delay, particularly when huge stake is involved.

CIT v. West Bengal Infrastructure Development Finance Corp. (2011) 241 CTR 504 / 334

ITR

269 / 196 Taxman 321 / 56 DTR 351 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Cash Credits [S. 68]

All the authorities below, in particular the Tribunal, having observed in unison that the assessee did not produce any evidence to rebut the presumption drawn against him under section 68 by producing the parties in whose names the impugned amounts were credited in assessee's books of account, the conclusion of the Tribunal to the effect that the assessee has failed to prove the source of the cash credits cannot be said to be perverse, giving rise to a substantial question of law and therefore, no interference is warranted. (A.Y. 1983-84)

Vijay Kumar Talwar v. CIT (2010) 236 CTR 454 / 48 DTR 174 / 330 ITR 1 / 196 Taxman 136 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of Delay – Amendment

In view of the amendment of the Act, giving power to the High Court to condone the delay in filing appeals, liberty is given to the department to move the High court by way of review of the impugned order dismissing department's belated appeal on the ground that it has no power to condone the delay. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. ICICI Bank Ltd. (2010) 38 DTR 319 / 231 CTR 439 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial question of law – Expenditure on know how [S. 35AB]

After insertion of section 35AB, of the Income Tax Act 1961, providing for allowance of expenditure on know-how, the question whether royalty paid as a percentage of the net sale price for transfer of technology and know how was revenue or capital would be a substantial question of law. The Supreme Court, accordingly, set aside the decision of the High Court and remitted the matter for a fresh consideration. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. Swaraj Engineers Ltd. (2009) 309 ITR 443 / 216 CTR 365 / 171 Taxman 495 / 7 DTR 65 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Delay of 481 days – Twenty years old appeal – SLP rejected – Direction to take an appropriate action to the officer concerned

SLP filed by the Income Tax Department with a delay of 481 days relating to the matters which were more than twenty years old where no action had been taken against officers for whose default delay had occurred SLP was dismissed with the direction to Commissioner to consider desirability of taking appropriate action(s) against officers for whose fault delay had occurred.

CIT v. Indian Express (Mum.) (P) Ltd. (2009) 180 Taxman 476 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Remand to High Court

Case was remanded to High Court for a fresh decision in accordance with law, after framing a substantial question of law, in the light of judgment of Supreme Court, in Mahesh Maheswari v. ACIT (2007) 289 ITR 341 / 159 Taxman 258 (SC).

Anwar Pasha v. CIT (2008) 167 Taxman 222 / 208 CTR 97 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of Delay – Amendment

In view of the amendment of the Act, giving power to the High Court to condone the delay in filing appeals, liberty is given to the department to move the High Court by way of review of the impugned order dismissing Department's belated appeal on the ground that it has no power to condone the delay.

CIT v. ICICI Bank Ltd. (2008) 220 CTR 12 / 175 Taxman 193 / (2009) 208 Taxation 671 / (2010) 38 DTR 319 / 231 CTR 439 / 14 DTR 246 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Depreciation – Used – Block of Assets [S. 32(1), 43(6)(c)]

The Appellate Tribunal had examined the statements of the witness and after analysing the material on record had come to the conclusion that there was nothing to show that the machinery of the assessee had remained idle for the entire block period April 1, 1998 to February 24, 1999 and the High Court had not admitted the appeal on the question of Law raised by the Department on this point. On appeal to the Supreme Court, the contention of the Department was that for allowance of depreciation to the assessee, particularly after the introduction of the concept "block of assets" in section 32 of the Income Tax Act 1961, the only requirement apart from the ownership was that the asset was put to actual use. The Supreme Court dismissed the appeal, agreeing with the view expressed by the Appellate Tribunal to the effect that the asset was actually used and held that it was not necessary for the Court to go into the larger question of law regarding the connotation of the word "used" in section 32 of the Income tax Act.

Dy. CIT v. N. K. Industries Ltd. (2008) 305 ITR 274 / 216 CTR 114 / 170 Taxman 22 / 6 DTR 131 / (2009) 208 Taxation 673 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Validity of notice u/s. 142(1), 143(2)

Assessee throughout had raised the question that reassessment made on him only after notice under section 142(1) was invalid as no notice was given within one year under section 143(2). The Supreme Court held that dismissal of appeal at preliminary stage was not proper. The High Court was directed to entertain and decide the substantial question of law. (A.Y. 1997-98)

L. N. Hota & Co. v. CIT (2008) 301 ITR 184 / 215 CTR 481 / 168 Taxman 313 / 5 DTR 34 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Capital Gains – Conversion of Firm into Company – Part IX – Revaluation of Assets [S. 45(1), 45(4)]

The questions (i) whether the revaluation of the assets of a firm on conversion to company would result in capital gains and (ii) whether there is no transfer involved when a firm itself registered as a company are substantial questions of law under section 260A of the Income Tax Act, 1961. Decision of High Court reversed and directed the High Court to fix the appeal for disposal at the earliest. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. Well Pack Packaging (2008) 220 CTR 538 / 174 Taxman 102 / (2009) 309 ITR 338 / 16 DTR 73 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Remitted to High Court

Where High Court had disposed of appeal without considering as to whether a substantial question of law was involved or without framing question(s) of law, case was remitted to High Court for fresh decision. (A.Y. 1989-90)

Consolidated Engg. Enterprises v. ACIT (2008) 167 Taxman 223 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Remitted back to High Court

Where High Court failed to frame substantial question of law as required under section 260A and interfered with concurrent findings given by the Commissioner (Appeals) and Tribunal without giving any reasons, matter was to be remitted to the High Court for reconsideration.

P. Iya Nadar Charitable Trust v. CIT (2008) 167 Taxman 224 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Clearance of COD – Delay not fatal

In Oil & Natural Gas Commission vs. Collector of Central Excise [1995] Supp. 4 SCC 541 / (2004) 6 SCC 437, while imposing the necessity for obtaining clearance from the Committee within one month did not indicate any rigid frame, mere existence of some delay in approaching the committee does not make the action illegal.

CIT v. Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd. (2008) 304 ITR 55 / 172 Taxman 92 / 217 CTR 593 / 10 DTR 113 / 206 Taxation 537 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Summary Dismissal by High Court – Speaking Order

Matter remanded back to the High Court for fresh consideration on merits as the High Court had merely dismissed the appeal of the assessee stating that no substantial question of law arose, without passing a speaking order.

Speed Lines (P) Ltd. v. CIT (2008) 214 CTR 13 / 170 Taxman 243 / (2009) 316 ITR 102 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Appeal by the Revenue – Rule of Consistency

When the revenue had not filed any appeal in other assessment year, it would be precluded from filing the appeal in the relevant assessment year on identical facts. (A.Ys. 1972-73, 1975-76 to 1982-83)

CIT v. J. K. Charitable Trust (2008) 220 CTR 105 / 175 Taxman 251 / (2009) 308 ITR 161 / 15 DTR 41 / 210 Taxation 64 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Legislature intention – Duty of judge – Code of Civil Procedure Code 1908 [S. 100]

Judges must administer law according to the provisions of law. It is the bounden duty of judges to discern legislative intention in the process of adjudication. Justice administered according to individual's whim, desire, inclination and notion of justice would lead to confusion, disorder and chaos. Indiscriminate and frequent interference under section 100 C.P.C. in cases which are totally devoid of any substantial question of law is not only against the legislative intention but is also the main cause of huge pendency of Second Appeals in the High Courts leading to colossal delay in the administration of justice in civil cases in our country.

Gurudev Kaur & Ors. v. Kaki & Ors. (2007) 1 SCC 546 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Question of law – Refund – Interest [S. 244(1A)]

When a question of law was admitted for the next assessment year, the appeals for the earlier years involving same issue also required to be admitted on the issue regarding the allowability of interest on refund when no claim is needed and the date from which to be reckoned. The matter remitted to the High Court for a fresh consideration.

R. R. Holding (P) Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 284 ITR 674 / 204 CTR 35 / 155 Taxman 1 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Charitable Trust – Question of Law – Donation – Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act, 1976 [S. 11, 12]

The assessee, a charitable trust, had received a sum of ` 30 lakhs, from Dubai in violation of the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act, 1976. The Tribunal held that the assessee entitled to exemption under section 11 and 12 of the Income Tax Act, 1961. The High Court dismissed the department's appeal under section 260A, observing that no substantial question of law arose. On appeal to Supreme Court, reversing the order of the High Court remitted the matter to the High Court for a fresh consideration as the matter required deeper consideration and the appeal could not have been dismissed on the ground that no substantial question of law arose.

DIT v. Jag Shanti Charitable Trust (2006) 285 ITR 227 / 205 CTR 124 / 156 Taxman 148 (SC) / (2005) 13 SCC 692

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Third Party – The Constitution of India [Article 226]

The petitioner, being a third party cannot seek any remedy by way of writ of mandamus directing the authorities to file appeals against the orders passed. An appeal is a statutory remedy available and it is not open to a third party to seek such remedies in collateral proceedings.

Rajiv Ranjan Singh 'Lalan' & Anr. v. Union of India & Anr. (2006) 205 CTR 53 / 156 Taxman 512 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Memorandum of Appeal

Without insisting on statement of substantial question of law in memorandum of appeal and formulating the same at time of admission, High Court is not empowered to generally decide appeal under section 260A. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Janardhan Rao (M.) v. Jt. CIT (2005) 273 ITR 50 / 142 Taxman 722 / 193 CTR 585 / 185 Taxation 433 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Practice and Procedure in Appeal – Cogent reason

In an order of affirmation by High Court, repetition of reasons may not be necessary; however, arguments advanced and points urged have to be dealt with and reasons for affirmation have to be indicated. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Mangalore Ganesh Beedi Works v. CIT (2005) 273 ITR 56 / 142 Taxman 720 / 193 CTR 590 / 185 Taxation 440 (SC) / 2 SCC 329.

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Committee on disputes – Clearance – Government and PSUs

Dispute between government departments and / or public sector undertakings cannot come before courts without clearance from high powered committee.

Mahanagar Telephone Nigam Ltd. v. Chairman, CBDT (2004) 267 ITR 647 / 137 Taxman 242 / 189 CTR 97 / 181 Taxation 394 (SC)

Editorial:- Please see decision of Supreme Court in the case of ECI v. UOI and CEE v. BPCL 54 DTR 193 and 238 CTR 353 (SC)(5 Member Bench), where the instruction for COD are withdrawn by the Court as found to be no more relevant, no approval of COD required from the date of order.

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Power of review – Civil Procedure Code

Section 35G(9) of the Central Excise Act (= section 260A(7) of the IT Act) provides that "the provisions of Civil Procedure Code, 1908 relating to appeals to the High Court shall as far as may be apply in the case of appeals under this Section". Given that only the provisions of the CPC relating to "appeals" are made applicable and not those relating to "review", the High Court had to consider whether the provisions of section 114 and Order XLVII of the Civil Procedure Code which confer power on the High Court to review its judgments apply to appeals filed under the Excise Act. The assessee and the department were agreed that the High Court had that power. HELD accepting the claim:

- (i) The High Court is a Court of record as envisaged in Article 215 of the Constitution and has inherent powers to correct the record. As the High Court has plenary jurisdiction, it has inherent power of review to prevent miscarriage of justice or to correct grave and palpable errors committed by it. CCE v Hongo India (236) ELT 417 (SC) & D. N. Singh v. CIT 325 ITR 349 (Patna)(FB) followed;
- (ii) In dealing with matters under a special enactment, the practice and procedure of the ordinary Court will apply if the special enactment refers to and adopts the practice and procedure to be followed by the ordinary Court. Accordingly, all provisions of the CPC apply to appeals under the Excise Act;
- (iii) Section 35G(9) does not restrict the jurisdiction of the High Court to only the provisions of the CPC relating to appeal. Section 35G(9) is enacted out of abundant caution to provide that in respect of matters not dealt with by the special enactment, the provisions of the CPC shall apply. Even if section 35G(9) were not there, the ordinary law of the and court have to be applied in the absence of anything contrary in the special law;

- (iv) One of the grounds of review is an error apparent on the face of the record. Where a statute is amended retrospectively, a judgment applying the unamended law constitutes an error apparent on the face of record and can be reviewed.

VIP Industries Ltd. v. CCE RPA No. 33/2010 dated 16-12-2010 (Bom.)(High Court)
Source : www.itatonline.org

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Monetary limit – Pending appeals

The Department filed an appeal in the year 2008 where the tax effect was less than ₹ 10 lakhs. The question arose whether in view of Instruction No. 3/2011 dated 9-2-2011 the appeal was maintainable. HELD dismissing the appeal:

In view of CIT v. P. S. Jain & Co. which followed Pithwa Engineering 276 ITR 519 (Bom.) & Ashok Patel 317 ITR 386 (MP) and where it was held that the CBDT Circular imposing limits on the filing of appeals by the department applied to pending appeals, Instruction No. 3/2011 dated 9-2-2011 also applied to pending appeals and as the tax effect was less than ₹ 10 lakhs, the appeal was not maintainable.

CIT v. Delhi Race Club Ltd. ITA No. 128/2008 dated 3-3-2011 (Delhi)(High Court)
Source : www.itatonline.org

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Monetary limit – CBDT circular – Pending appeal

Circular dated 15.5.2008 laying down monetary limit controls the filing of the appeals and not their hearing. Appeals filed as per applicable limit at the time of filing cannot be governed by circular applicable at the time of hearing. The object of the Circular under section 268A is only to govern monetary limit for filing of the appeals. There is no scope for reading the circular as being applicable to pending appeals. [Abhinav Gupta 41 DTR 129 (P&H) (FB) reversed]

CIT v. Varinder Construction Co. (2011) 51 DTR 290 / 239 CTR 1 / 198 Taxman 42 / 331 ITR 449 (FB)(P&H)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Notice – Paper publication – Proper mode

Income Tax Department having failed to serve notice on the assessee company (Respondent) other than by way of paper publication at the admission of the appeal, CIT is directed to set right the defect in the presentation of the appeal. Income Tax Department is deprecated for wasting public money by resorting to service of notice by paper publication as a matter of routine thereby incurring considerable unnecessary expenditure on cost of advertisement.

CIT v. Happy Farms & Resorts Ltd. (2011) 51 DTR 334 / 239 CTR 110 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Monetary limit – Instruction of Board No. 3/2001. F. No. 279/Misc.142/2007 – ITJ / Dt. 9th February, 2011. (2011) 332 ITR 1 (ST).

Appeal before Appellate Tribunal ₹ 3,00,000.

Appeal under section 260A before High Court ₹ 10,00,000.

Appeal before Supreme Court. ` 25,00,000.

Appeal filed on or after 9th February, 2011. (A. Y. 1990-91)

Reference to case laws Bombay High Court.

CWT v. Executors of late D. T. Udeshi (1991) 189 ITR 319 (Bom.)(High Court)

CIT v. Camco Colour Co. (2002) 254 ITR 565 / 173 CTR 255 / 122 Taxman 336 (Bom.)(High Court)

CIT v. Pithwa Engg Works (2005) 276 ITR 519 / 197 CTR 655 (Bom.)(High Court)

CIT v. Zeob Topiwalla (2006) 284 ITR 379 / 199 CTR 656 (Bom.)(High Court)

CIT v. Madhukar K. Inamdar (HUF) (2010) 229 CTR 77 / (2009) 318 ITR 149 / 185 Taxman 101 / 27 DTR 132 (Bom.)(High Court)

CIT v. Vitessee Trading Ltd. (2011) 331 ITR 433 / 202 Taxman 242 (Bom.)(High Court)

Editorial : Refer Virgo Marketing P Ltd. v. CIT (SC) Source : www.itatonline.org & CIT v. Varsha Dilip Koba (Bom.)(High Court) Editorial : www.itatonline.org

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Question of law – Reference to DVO – Finding

Where though the appeal was admitted on the question, as to whether the Dy. Director of Inspection has power to make reference to the Valuation Officer under section 131(1A) of the Act. The Hon'ble High Court dismissed the appeal of the revenue holding that the question did not arise for consideration of the High Court, as none of the lower authorities recorded the finding that the Dy. Director of Inspection was having no power to make reference to Valuation Officer. (A. Y. 1998-99).

ITO v. Hotel Shyama (2011) 56 DTR 174 / 244 CTR 229 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Abatement of appeal – Death – Condonation of delay

If the assessee dies, the question of abatement of appeal filed under section 260A of the Act would not arise. Further, the Hon'ble High Court condoned delay of 523 day in filing the application for bringing the legal heirs on record by the Revenue, rejecting the objection taken by the assessee under Order 22 of Civil Procedure Code, which provides that, if there is delay in bringing legal heirs on record the proceedings abates does not apply to an appeal filed under section 260 A of the Act.

CIT & Anr. v. V. Rukmini (Smt.) By LR's (2011) 53 DTR 30 / 240 CTR 134 / 331 ITR 102 / 202 Taxman 100 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Small tax effect – Appeal before Tribunal [S. 253(2)]

In cases where tax effect is below ` 2,00,000, Revenue cannot file appeal contrary to the terms of circular which is binding on the department. (A. Ys. 1997-98 & 1998-99).

CIT v. Mangilal Jain (2011) 58 DTR 20 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Plea not raised before Tribunal – First time before High Court

Plea not raised before Tribunal, cannot be raised for first time before High Court.

CIT v. Vijaya Enterprises (2011) 332 ITR 235 / Tax L.R .497 / 59 DTR 98 / 243 CTR 488 / 201 Taxman 324 (AP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Single appeal to High Court – Court fee is payable in respect of each appeal

One appeal in respect of common order is maintainable however Court fee will be payable in respect of each appeal. (A. Y. 2006-07).

DIT (International) v. Transocean Offshore International Ventures Ltd. and others (2011) 336 ITR 637 (Uttarakhand)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Tax effect less than 4 Lakhs – Reference returned unanswered

In view of Instruction No. 2/2005 dated 24-10-2005, issued by CBDT, it has to be directed that wherever tax effect is less than 4 lakhs, department should not file appeal under section 260A, unless question of law involved or raised in appeal is of recurring nature which is to be settled by High Court.

CIT v. Vitessee Trading Ltd. (2011) 331 ITR 433 / 202 Taxman 242 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – No power to consider issue not raised before Tribunal

The assessee filed an appeal before the Tribunal in which it argued that it had constructed a "temporary construction" which was eligible for 100% depreciation. This was rejected by the Tribunal on the basis that the construction was permanent. Before the High Court, the assessee argued for the first time that the expenditure was "revenue" in nature and admissible as business expenditure. HELD not permitting the assessee to raise the plea:

A contention/ issue, which is not raised, dealt with or answered by the Tribunal, cannot be raised before the High Court for the first time in an appeal under section 260A. Though section 260A(6) empowers the High Court to "determine any issue which has not been determined by the Appellate Tribunal", the word "determined" means that the issue is not dealt with, though it was raised before the Tribunal. The word "determined" presupposes an issue was raised or argued but there is failure of the Tribunal to decide or adjudicated the same. However, as the issue whether the expenditure is capital or revenue was not raised before the Tribunal, it does not arise from the order of the Tribunal and cannot be entertained (Mahalakshmi Textile Mills 66 ITR 710 (SC) distinguished).

C & C Construction Pvt. Ltd. v. CIT (2012) 204 Taxman 363 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Grounds not raised First time before court

Grounds not raised before Assessing Officer or Tribunal cannot be raised first time before High Court.

Alok Todi and another v. CIT (2011) 339 ITR 102 / 247 CTR 345 / 66 DTR 501 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Issue not raised before the lower authorities

Issue not raised before the lower authorities cannot be permitted to be raised for the first time in appeal under section 260A. (A.Y. 2002-03)

CIT v. Chand Ratan Bagri (2010) 36 DTR 244 / 230 CTR 258 / 329 ITR 356 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Power of Review [Civil Procedure, 1908 – S. 96, 100, 114 & Order 47]

Power of review has not been conferred on the High Court under the Income Tax Act, the review petition is not maintainable.

CIT v. West Coast Paper Mills Ltd. (2010) 229 CTR 239 / (2009) 319 ITR 390 / 35 DTR 22 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Maintainability – Tax effect

Where a substantial question of law is raised by the revenue in the appeal filed by it before the Tribunal, which would arise in several other assesses case repeatedly, the case would fall within the exception of clause 3 of instruction No. 2 of 2005 dated 24.10.2005 and therefore, the appeal filed by the revenue was maintainable even though the tax effect is below the threshold limit prescribed by the C.B.D.T.

CWT v. John L. Chackola (2010) 36 DTR 239 / 337 ITR 385 (Ker.)(High Court)

Editorial:- CIT v. Madhukar K. Inamdar (HUF) (2009) 318 ITR 149 / 229 CTR 77 / 185 Taxman 101 / 27 DTR 132 (Bom.) – Dissented from

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of delay – Power of High Court

In absence of specific provision for condonation of delay in filing appeal under section 260A of the Act, High Court has no power to condone the delay in filing appeal before it under section 260A of the Act. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Shergarh Co-op. L & C Society Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 324 ITR 408 / 189 Taxman 194 / 34 DTR

193 / 229 CTR 193 (P&H)(High Court)

Editorial:- The sub-section (2A) to section 260A is inserted by the Finance Act, 2010 w.e.f.

1-10-2998 vesting discussion to condone delay.

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Question of Law – Amendment in appeal memo

A pure question of law can be allowed to be raised by amendment to the appeal memo if the facts on which Tribunal has given its decision are not disputed. (A.Y. 2003-04)

CIT v. Jindal Equipments and Leasing & Consultancy Services Ltd. (2010) 37 DTR 172 / 325 ITR 87 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Maintainability – Rule of consistency – Acceptance of order in earlier years

If the revenue has not challenged the order of CIT(A) for assessment year 1990-91 and thus accepted the view of the CIT(A), then on principles of consistency it is not open to the revenue to challenge the similar findings in respect of earlier year. (A.Ys. 1988-89, 1989-90)

CIT v. Prakash Industries Ltd. (2010) 324 ITR 391 / 40 DTR 20 / 194 Taxman 508 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Failure to consider a Ground – Order under rectification

The non consideration of a ground by itself could not be a reason for filing an appeal. The revenue could have approached the Tribunal pointing out the mistake in not considering the specific ground raised by the Revenue and obtained an order by rectification. Appeal was dismissed. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

CIT v. Malladi Project Management P. Ltd. (2010) 324 ITR 87 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – New Ground – First time before High Court

Pure question of law can be raised before the High Court though not raised before the Tribunal. (A.Y. 2003-04)

CIT v. Jindal Equipments and Leasing & Consultancy Services Ltd. (2010) 37 DTR 172 / 325 ITR 87 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Jurisdiction – ITAT Rules, 1963 – Rule 4(1)]

Punjab and Haryana High court has no territorial jurisdiction to entertain an appeal arising out of an order passed by the assessing officer at Bangalore, though the registered office is shifted to Punjab. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Motorala India Ltd. (2010) 326 ITR 156 / (2008) 215 CTR 158 / 168 Taxman 1 / 2 DTR 227 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Jurisdiction – ITAT Rules, 1963, R. 4(1)

Order passed by Tribunal in Chennai, and subsequent shifting of assessee's office to Punjab. Punjab and Haryana High Court has no jurisdiction to consider appeal. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CIT v. H. F. C. L. Infotel Ltd. (2010) 326 ITR 167 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Issue pending before Supreme Court – Power of High Court

In view of the importance and recurring nature of issue and the reference being made by Division Bench doubting the correctness of judgment pending in appeal before the Supreme court, the court can proceed to hear the case instead of deferring the same. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

CIT v. South Indian Bank Ltd. (2010) 325 ITR 517 / 42 DTR 109 / 191 Taxman 272 / 233 CTR 214 (FB)(Ker.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Committee on disputes

Appellant being the Income tax Department, and the respondent being a State owned corporation, before filing an appeal against the department, the appellant ought to have obtained clearance from the Committee on Disputes, since this has not been done, the appeal was not maintainable. (A.Y. 1997-98)

CIT v. Tamil Nadu Industrial Investment Corporation Ltd. (2010) 327 ITR 68 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Power – Review

High Court has not only the power but a duty to correct any apparent error in respect of any order passed by it. High Court can entertain the application for review arising out of a judgment passed under section 260A.

D. N. Singh v. CIT (2010) 235 CTR 177 / 45 DTR 259 / 194 Taxman 273 / 325 ITR 349 (FB)(Patna)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Monetary Limit – Pending cases – Larger Bench

Whether Circular issued in the year 2008 will have retrospective effect for pending appeals and references matter referred to larger bench.

CIT v. Varindra Construction Co. (2010) 328 ITR 446 / 236 CTR 592 / 48 DTR 253 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of delay – Power of High Court

While preferring appeal to High Court, Section 260A does not confer any power on High Court to condone delay in case appeal is filed beyond prescribed period.

ACIT v. Shubhash Traders (2009) 226 CTR 372 / 318 ITR 402 / 29 DTR 217 (MP)(High Court)

Editorial:- The sub-section (2A) to section 260A is inserted by the Finance Act, 2010 w.e.f.

1-10-1998 vesting discussion to condone delay.

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of delay – Limitation

Period of limitation prescribed for filing an appeal under section 260A(2) of the Income Tax Act, 1961, is not subject to the provisions contained in section 4 to 24 of the Limitation Act, 1963 as provided under section 29(2) of the Limitation Act, therefore, High Court has no power to condone the delay in filing the appeal.

CIT v. Mohd. Farooq (2009) 29 DTR 241 / 226 CTR 360 / 184 Taxman 191 / 317 ITR 305 (FB)(All.)(High Court)

Editorial Note:- See Bombay High Court CIT v. Grasim Industries Ltd. (2009) 319 ITR 154 / 225 CTR 127 / 27 DTR 130 (Bom.)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of delay – Power of High Court

High Court has no power to extend the time-limit prescribed under section 260A which is absolute and even unextendable under section 5 of Limitation Act.

CIT v. Reliance Capital Ltd. & Ors (2009) 225 CTR 275 / 181 Taxman 242 / 27 DTR 95 / 322 ITR 252 (Bom.)(High Court)

ACIT v. Mahavir Prasad Verma & Ors. (2009) 225 CTR 305 / 317 ITR 36 / 26 DTR 105 (Chattisgarh)(High Court)

CIT v. Grasim Industries Ltd. (2009) 27 DTR 130 / 225 CTR 127 / 319 ITR 154 (Bom.)(High Court)

Editorial:- The sub-section (2A) to section 260A is inserted by the Finance Act, 2010 w.e.f. 1-10-2998 vesting discussion to condone delay.

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Monetary Limit

Circular No. 5 of 2008 dated 15-5-2008, which provides that in case of an assessee where the disputed issue arises in more than one assessment year, appeal by the Revenue shall be filed in respect of such assessment year or years in which the tax effect in respect of the disputed issue exceeds the monetary limits provided in the circular. This was held to be applicable to all the cases pending before the High Court either for admission or final hearing and it is binding on the Revenue authorities.

CIT v. Madhukar K. Inamdar (HUF) (2009) 318 ITR 149 / 27 DTR 132 / 229 CTR 77 / 185 Taxman 101 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Perverse finding of facts

Where the finding of facts recorded by the Tribunal is perverse or contrary to the material on record, the High Court while exercising powers under section 260 A of the Act is competent to interfere with such a perverse finding of facts.

Gauri Kanta Barkataky v. CIT (2009) 25 DTR 75 / 227 CTR 153 / 313 ITR 34 / 181 Taxman 316 (Gau.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Mistake Apparent from the record – Writ – Appeal not maintainable [S. 254(2)]

Appeal under section 260A is not maintainable against order of Tribunal under section 254(2) and therefore, writ petition against order under section 254(2) cannot be rejected on the ground of availability of alter native remedy. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Visvas Promoter's (P.) Ltd. v. ITAT (2009) 30 DTR 65 / 226 CTR 638 / 323 ITR 114 / 185 Taxman 145 (Mad.)(High Court)

Editorial Note:- See Bombay High Court Chem Amit v. ACIT (2005) 272 ITR 397 / 194 CTR 141 / 143 Taxman 348 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – State Owned corporation – C.O.D approval

In case where the assessee is a State-owned Corporation, the appeal filed by the Income Tax Department is not maintainable if the clearance from Committee on Dispute (C.O.D.) is not obtained. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Poompuhar Shipping Corporation (2008) 12 DTR 103 (Mad.)(High Court)

Editorial : It is no more a good law in the light of Apex court decision in the case of ECI v. UOI (2011) 54 DTR 353 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of delay – Less than a year

Delay in appeals filed by the Income Tax department before the High Court is liable to be condoned only where the delay is less than a year.

Ornate Traders P. Ltd. v. CIT (2008) 12 DTR 241 / 219 CTR 256 / 312 ITR 193 / 173 Taxman 192 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Claim before High Court for the First time

The Assessing Officer while completing the assessment disallowed the claim of the assessee in respect of replacement expenditure of auto coner and moulds as revenue expenditure and treated the same as capital expenditure.

Aggrieved by the said order, the assessee went in appeal to CIT(A) who reversed the Assessing Officer's order on this ground. The revenue took up the matter to ITAT. The ITAT also decided the issue in favour of the assessee. Hence, department was in appeal to High Court. Department in its appeal raised one more question about the concept of Block of asset for the purpose of depreciation which was not before the ITAT. The High Court held that no claim of depreciation was ever made before any authorities either by the assessee or by the revenue, the same cannot be considered by High Court. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Fenner (I) Ltd. (2007) 292 ITR 605 / 169 Taxman 62 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Questions not raised before the Tribunal – Power under section 260A

The questions, which are not raised by the Appellant before the Tribunal, cannot be permitted to be raised in appeal before High Court under section 260A of the Act.

CIT v. Jolly Engineer's Contractor's (2007) 200 Taxation 89 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Question of law – Must arise out of order Tribunal

The assessee claimed that the activity of producing mushroom amounted to business activity and claimed deduction under section 80-IA. The Tribunal rejected assessee's appeal and claim under section 80-IA. Before the High Court however a question was raised as to whether the activity of producing mushroom was agricultural income and hence exempt. The High Court held that the aforesaid question did not arise for consideration out of the Tribunal's order.

Himalaya International Ltd. v. CIT (2007) 199 Taxation 240 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Identical facts – Accepting one assessee – Cannot agitate the same in another assessee

In the absence of any reasons the Department cannot resort to policy of pick and choose for filing appeals under section 260A. It was further observed that it would not be proper or in the interest of justice to allow revenue to seek to recover tax from one assessee while declining to recover tax from another assessee on identical facts.

(A.Ys. 1991-92, 1997-98, 1998-99)

CIT v. Moonlight Builders & Developers (2007) 163 Taxman 134 / 307 ITR 197 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Maintainability – Tax effect

If tax effect is below certain limit, Appeal should not be maintained as per CBDT Notification which is binding.

The H.C. after referring to the judgments of the Bombay High Court and Supreme Court dismissed the said appeal since the tax effect is less than ` 5,000/- per year on the ground of non-maintainability. (A.Ys. 1979-80 to 1985-86)

CIT v. Digvijay Singh (2007) 292 ITR 314 / 213 CTR 490 / 174 Taxman 80 (MP)(High Court)

S 260A : Appeal – High Court – Maintainability – Single appeal for two orders – Second appeal against same order

Second appeal against same order, single appeal challenging two orders of the Tribunal is not maintainable. Further, once the High Court has disposed of the appeal filed by the appellant challenging the order of the Tribunal, appellant cannot reagitate the same issue again.

(A.Y. 1998-99)

Perfetti Van Melle India (P) Ltd. v. CIT (2007) 212 CTR 173 / 296 ITR 595 / 164 Taxman 493 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Consistency – Not preferring appeals for earlier years

Where the Tribunal had decided an appeal before it following its earlier decision in the case of same assessee on same issue and the revenue had not preferred appeal against the earlier order, in such case, following the rule of consistency the High Court held that no substantial question of law arose.

CIT v. DCM Sri Ram Industries Ltd. (2007) 201 Taxation 402 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of delay – Responsibility office

Revenue filing appeal with inordinate delay without any acceptable explanation except providing the dates of exchange of correspondences with the Ministry of Law. No responsible officer had taken any responsibility for the delay. Application for condonation of delay was dismissed.

CIT v. Texpore Tea Co. Ltd. (2006) 204 CTR 130 / 279 ITR 339 / 152 Taxman 387 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – No substantial question of law – Shares held as stock in trade – Dividend income – Loss – Set-off [S. 72]

Shares held as stock-in-trade. Income whether directly or incidentally from holding of such shares not income from other sources but business income. Assessee received Dividend Income and hence, entitled to set off brought forward business loss against dividend income. No substantial question of law arises. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Excellent Commercial Enterprises & Investments Ltd. (2006) 282 ITR 423 / 197 CTR 187 / 147 Taxman 558 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial question of law – Appellate Tribunal – Additional Ground [S. 254, 10(22A), 11, 13]

The court held that no question of law much less a substantial question of law arose when the Tribunal admitted the additional ground and remitted the matter back to the assessing officer to decide the matter by giving an opportunity to the assessee in respect of exemption under section 10(22A), read with sections 11 and 13, hence the appeal of department was dismissed. (A.Y. 1994-95)

DIT (Exemption) v. Arunodya (2006) 286 ITR 383 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Jurisdiction – Assessment proceedings

The assessee challenged the jurisdiction of the Hon'ble High Court to entertain the appeal filed by the Department. The Hon'ble High Court accepted the objection and observed that the test for determining the jurisdiction of the High Court would be whether the assessment proceedings were completed within its territorial limits. Viewed thus, not only were the assessment proceedings in the instant case completed in Bulandshahr, but even the appeals arising out of the said proceedings were heard and disposed of by the Commissioner (Appeals), Meerut. There was, in that view, no difficulty in holding that an appeal against the order passed by the Tribunal, even though located in Delhi, ought to be filed in the High Court at Allahabad. (A.Ys. 1993-94, 1994-95)

CIT v. Digvijay Chemicals Ltd. (2006) 156 Taxman 64 / 204 CTR 234 / 294 ITR 359 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Power – Sufficient opportunity – Question of fact

Question whether sufficient opportunity to be heard was afforded to assessee is a question of fact which cannot be raised before High Court under section 260A.

Question not raised before the Tribunal does not arise out of order of Tribunal. Question cannot be raised before High Court. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Bank of Punjab Ltd. (2006) 286 ITR 630 / 206 CTR 651 / 286 ITR 630 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – No substantial question of law – Settled by Supreme Court

No substantial question of law, if it is settled by Supreme Court.

CIT v. Saraswati Kunj Co-op. Hsg. Society (2006) 287 ITR 22 / 205 CTR 633 / 157 Taxman 166 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Maintainability of Appeal – Finding recorded

There has to be a first finding recorded by Tribunal on question framed against appellant; it is only then that appellant becomes entitled to assail finding in appeal under section 260A. (A.Ys. 1986-87, 1987-88)

CIT v. Kiran Devi Kailashchand (Smt) (2005) 147 Taxman 353 / 198 CTR 243 / 286 ITR 612 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Maintainability of Appeal – Factual finding

Appeal would not lie if one is aggrieved, as against factual finding rendered by appellate authorities. (A.Ys. 1990-91, 1992-93)

CIT v. Barmag AG, West Germany (2005) 272 ITR 603 / 147 Taxman 136 (Mad.) / CIT v. R. Ganesh (Minor) (2005) 272 ITR 610 / 144 Taxman 918 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Monetary Limit for filing Appeal [Rule 60A]

The Central Board of Direct Taxes Circular No. 2 of 2005, dated October 24, 2005, lays down a monetary limit for appeals to the High Court. It applicable only prospectively and it makes no reference to pending matters. However, it clearly provides that whenever there is substantial question of law, or a question of law which is likely to recur in future, the Department is not prohibited from filing and pursuing appeals.

CIT v. Pithwa Engg. Works (2005) 276 ITR 519 / 197 CTR 655 (Bom.)(High Court) dissented from.

CIT v. Chhajer Packaging and Plastics P. Ltd. (2008) 300 ITR 180 / 214 CTR 389 / (2007) 165 Taxman 109 (Bom.)(High Court)

Editorial : Circular has been printed in AIFTP Journal, July 2008 issue page No. 37.

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Maintainability of Appeal – Question of law

Even if no appeal is filed by revenue before Tribunal on question of law, it can raise it before High Court. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. United Marine Exports (2005) 278 ITR 155 / 149 Taxman 72 / 197 CTR 298 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of delay – Limitation

Statute by prescribing special period of limitation for preferring appeal under section 260A does not by necessary implication exclude application of sections 4 to 24 of Limitation Act, 1963 for condoning delay in filing appeal under section 260A and, therefore, provision of section 5 of 1963 Act would be applicable for condoning delay on part of revenue in filing appeal under section 260A. (A.Ys. 1991-92, 1995-96)

CIT v. Anandilal Poddar & Sons Ltd. (2005) 279 ITR 104 / 148 Taxman 513 / 199 CTR 539 (Cal.) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – No appeal lies [S. 254(2)]

An order passed by Tribunal on application for rectification under section 254(2) rejecting rectification application cannot be said to be an order passed in appeal by Appellate Tribunal within meaning of section 260A(1), and, hence, appeal will not lie from such order

Chem Amit v. ACIT (2005) 272 ITR 397 / 143 Taxman 348 (Bom.) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Condonation of delay

Where a delay of 458 days in filing appeal to High Court by Department was sought to be explained in a very slipshod manner and no responsible officer appeared to have taken responsibility as to why delay occurred in its own department, in these circumstances, there was no merit in application for condonation of delay

CIT v. Tezapore Tea Co. Ltd. (2005) 279 ITR 339 / 204 CTR 130 / 152 Taxman 387 (Cal.) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Power De novo – Finding by lower authorities – Finality

High Court in its appellate jurisdiction, which is defined under section 260A, cannot again de novo hold yet another inquiry with a view to find out whether explanation offered by assessee, and which found acceptance by two appellate authorities, namely, Commissioner (Appeals) and Tribunal, is good or bad, or whether it was rightly accepted or not.

CIT v. Ashok Jain (Dr.) (2005) 275 ITR 350 / 158 Taxman 69 (MP) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Power Factual finding by tribunal – Finality

Any factual finding once recorded and consistently upheld by Appellate Tribunal, is binding on High Court

Kantilal Prabhudas Patel v. Dy. CIT (2005) 277 ITR 504 / 148 Taxman 569 / 198 CTR 351 (MP) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Power – Reappraisal of evidence – Finality

Court cannot interfere with order only on ground that on reappraisal of evidence, as an appellate forum, different view can be taken

Harish Kumar Singal v. ACIT (2005) 276 ITR 355 / 144 Taxman 449 / 193 CTR 0265 (P&H) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Power – Finding of facts – Finality

If Tribunal accepts assessee's explanation and deletes additions, it does not involve any question of law as such

CIT v. V. Raghavan (2005) 274 ITR 64 / 156 Taxman 246 (MP) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Power – Only question framed

Section 260A only empowers court to hear appeal on question framed by court at time of admission of appeal; it cannot be heard and decided on any other question not framed.

(A.Y. 1991-92)

Steel Ingots Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 275 ITR 209 / 147 Taxman 686 / 197 CTR 278 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – After admission

Question as to whether appeal involves any substantial question of law can be examined even after admission of appeal. (A.Y. 1977-78)

Sardar Machhisingh v. CIT (2005) 278 ITR 247 / 144 Taxman 8 / 193 CTR 633 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Question of fact

Addition/deletion under various heads on account of seizure of some loose papers and documents, does not involve any substantial question of law.

ACIT v. Rajaram & Brothers (2005) 274 ITR 122 / 193 CTR 248 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Concurrent finding

Concurrent finding recorded by authorities against assessee on question of genuineness of firm cannot be assailed in further appeal under section 260A. (A.Y. 1977-78)

Sardarmachhi Singh v. CIT (2005) 278 ITR 247 / 144 Taxman 8 / 193 CTR 633 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Practice and procedure in appeal – One appeal – Court fee for each cause of action

There is no bar in joining several assessment years and several assessees in one appeal with leave of court or otherwise when question is identical within meaning of Order 1, rule 1 of Code of Civil Procedure (CPC), 1908, but court has no power to remit or reduce court fees payable thereon and court fee will become payable in respect of each cause of action concerning same assessee or different assessees involving one or different assessment years

CIT v. Tata Tea Ltd. (2005) 272 ITR 42 / 144 Taxman 228 / 195 CTR 26 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Practice and procedure in appeal – Additional question

High Court can frame any additional question of law though not framed but is noticed to have arisen or may hold that what is framed does not satisfy requirement of section 260A. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. S.V. Electricals (P.) Ltd. (2005) 274 ITR 334 / 155 Taxman 158 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Invalid null order – Appeal not filed – Validity

Non-filing of an appeal against an illegal order or an order which has become a nullity cannot, in any way, either validate such order or render it enforceable in law. (A.Y. 1986-87)

CIT v. Rane Brake Linings Ltd. (2005) 272 ITR 405 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Binding – Precedence – Same bunch of cases

Where an appeal arising out of same bunch of cases and same order, is dismissed by an earlier Division Bench of same High Court, it necessarily follows that all other appeals arising out of same order are to be disposed of on same lines and it is of no significance whether dismissal was based on reasons or no reasons

CIT v. Shyamlal M. Soni (2005) 276 ITR 156 / 144 Taxman 666 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Territorial jurisdiction – Cause of action – Search of brand

Where though petitioner had registered office in Delhi and branch office in Gauhati and DIT (Investigation), Gauhati, issued warrants of authorization based on information shared with DIT (Investigation) New Delhi/Calcutta, and search was carried out at Gauhati and Tinsukhia, part of cause of action arose under jurisdiction of Gauhati High Court and as such Gauhati High Court had jurisdiction to entertain writ against search

M.S. Associates v. Union of India (2005) 275 ITR 502 / 147 Taxman 172 / 196 CTR 318 (Gau.) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Territorial jurisdiction – Finality by another court

Where assessment had reached finality before Tribunal in another State, namely, Bombay, Calcutta Court could not assume jurisdiction in respect of such assessment.

CIT v. J.L. Morrison (India) Ltd. (2005) 272 ITR 321 / 196 CTR 201 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Court fees – Block assessment

Only one Court fee is payable for filing appeal against a block assessment because block assessment is one though it comprises several years

Gita Dutta (Smt) v. CIT (2005) 275 ITR 12 / 195 CTR 0037 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Concession by revenue before tribunal – Finality

There is no basis to file appeal where revenue has already conceded issue in question before Tribunal. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. Sanghi Finance & Investment Ltd. (2005) 273 ITR 268 / (2004) 141 Taxman 466 / 191 CTR 150 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Interlocutory orders – Order passed in appeal

The expression 'every order passed in appeal' cannot be construed to take in its fold all interlocutory orders that may be passed by the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, during pendency of appeal, particularly such orders which are procedural in nature
Zenith Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2004) 271 ITR 135 / 193 CTR 149 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Committee on disputes – Fresh approval for High Court

Permission of committee on disputes is also required by appellant- Government Corporation for prosecuting appeal before High Court even when appellant had approached Committee on Disputes earlier which permitted appellant to pursue appeals before ITAT. (A.Ys. 1979-80, 1980-81)

National Cooperative Development Corpn. v. ADIT (2004) 141 Taxman 551 / 199 CTR 60 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial question of law – Tests

The tests laid by the Constitutional Bench in Sir Chunilal V. Mehata & Sons Ltd v Century Spinning & Manufacturing Co. Ltd AIR 1962, SC 1314, to decide substantial questions of law.

Five Tests to decide whether a question is a substantial question of law.

- (i) It is of general public importance, or,
- (ii) it directly or substantially affects the rights of the parties, or,
- (iii) It is open question in the sense that it is not finally settled by the Supreme court, or,
- (iv) It is not free from difficulty and,
- (v) it calls for discussion of alternative views.

CIT v. S.R. Fragnances Ltd. (2004) 270 ITR 560 / 136 Taxman 575 / 187 CTR 4 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial question of law – Tests

- To be substantial, a question of law must be debatable and must have a material bearing on decision of case and rights of parties
- If question raised in the appeal is already settled by the Highest Court of the Country or the Jurisdictional High Court, then the same can not be regarded as a substantial question of law.
- If the conclusions recorded by the Tribunal in the particular facts of the case are plausible, then it would not be a case of substantial question of law.

- Finding recorded by the Assessing Officer, or the First appellate Authority or the Tribunal can not be disturbed by the High Court in exercise of powers under section 260A unless, such findings is perverse or is such which no person of reasonable prudence could arrive at in the given facts of the case.

CIT v. Monica Oswal (Ms) (2004) 267 ITR 308 / 138 Taxman 296 / 190 CTR 056 (FB)(P&H)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial question of law – Appreciation of facts

Mere appreciation of facts, documentary evidence or meaning of entries and contents of the documents cannot be held to give rise to a substantial question of law. (A.Y. 1991-92)

CIT v. Shehnaz Hussain (Ms) (2004) 267 ITR 572 / 136 Taxman 3 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial question of law – Words – Admit

Mere use of words 'admit' in appeal or issuance of notice to other side does not conform to requirement of section 260A. (A.Y. 1987-88)

CIT v. Sharad Kumar & Co. (2004) 142 Taxman 501 / 192 CTR 22 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Issue covered by Jurisdictional High Court – Question of law

Where matter is covered by jurisdictional High Court decision, no substantial question of law is involved.

CIT v. Indore Paraspar Sahakari Bank (2004) 189 CTR 486 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – New issue – First time before court

New issue cannot be raised for first time in appeal. (A.Ys. 1997-98, 1998-99)

CIT v. Indocount Finance Ltd. (2004) 271 ITR 215 / 136 Taxman 23 (Delhi) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Confusion – No substantial question of law

Because there is confusion with regard to interpretation of Tribunal's order, it cannot be said that a substantial question of law is involved. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. Maya Spinners Ltd. (2004) 189 CTR 485 / 144 Taxman 470 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Rejection of application – Ex-parte order

Appeal lies under section 260A against order of rejection of application for recall of ex-parte order passed by Tribunal

Jagdish Chand & Sons v. ITAT (2004) 266 ITR 165 / 141 Taxman 266 / 188 CTR 231 (All.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Acceptance of order of earlier year – No appeal

Where earlier orders of Tribunal in assessee's case on identical facts had been accepted by revenue, its appeal against Tribunal's order for assessment year in question was not maintainable. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. Net Work Ltd. (2004) 191 CTR 427 / 142 Taxman 410 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeals – High Court – Difference in valuation – Marginal – Question of law

Tribunal's order holding that though there was some variation between valuation made by assessee and others, 10 % difference in valuation made by two valuers usually occurs did not involve a substantial question of law.

CIT v. Abeeson Hotels (P.) Ltd. (2004) 191 CTR 263 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Cash Credits – Genuineness

No substantial question of law could be said to arise from Tribunal's finding that assessee was not able to explain genuineness of cash credit. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Krishan Kumar Aggarwal v. Assessing Officer (2004) 266 ITR 380 / 138 Taxman 1 (Delhi)(High Court)

Editorial: Appeal of assessee was dismissed by Supreme Court by observing that low tax effect and no substantial question of law. Krishan Kumar Aggarwal v. Assessing Officer (2015) 373 ITR 679 (SC)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Matter set a side – No substantial question of law

Where whole issue of assessability of amount received by assessee had been remitted back to Assessing Officer for fresh adjudication and no finding had been returned by Tribunal on merit of case. Hence is no substantial question of law. (A.Ys. 1997-98, 1998-99)

DIT v. Sheraton International Inc. (2004) 270 ITR 303 / 136 Taxman 159 / 186 CTR 666 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Cross objection – Appeal – Code of Civil Procedure

In an appeal under section 260A, code of Civil Procedure is applicable and in view of section 260A(6) High Court can pass appropriate order even if a party may not have filed a cross objections or preferred any appeal or preferred appeal against only a part of order. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CCAP Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 270 ITR 248 / 141 Taxman 471 / 193 CTR 74 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Court Fee – Kerala

In any appeal filed before High Court of Kerala either by revenue or by assessee under Income Tax Act, 1961 and under Wealth Tax Act, 1957 against orders of Tribunal w.e.f. 26/10/2002, court fee is payable and has to be paid under section 52A, read with schedule II, article 3, item (iii) sub- item (c) of Kerala Court Fees and Suits Valuation Act, 1959.

CIT v. A.N. Habeeb (2004) 268 ITR 344 / 137 Taxman 24 / 188 CTR 100 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Possible findings – No interference

Finding reached by Tribunal being are possible findings, merely because Tribunal has revised concurrent findings of Assessing Officer and Commissioner (Appeals) is no ground for interference under section 260A. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Zuari Finance Ltd. (2004) 271 ITR 538 / 193 CTR 625 / 144 Taxman 113 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – de hors – Factual findings – Finality

It is only when factual finding is entirely de hors subject or is against provision of law, that a case for substantial question of law is made out for admission of appeal.

ACIT v. Om Prakash Porwal (2004) 141 Taxman 281 (MP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Powers – Remand – No question of law

No question of law arises from order of remand

Bhagyadaya Builders v. CIT (2004) 136 Taxman 305 (All.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Scope – Code of Civil procedure, 1908

Scope of interference under section 260A by High Court is similar to the power to be exercised by the High Court under section 100 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Avasarala Automation Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2003) 133 Taxman 678 / 185 CTR 402 / 266 ITR 178 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Code of Civil Procedure – Applicability

Provisions of Code of Civil Procedure which are applicable to appeals filed under section 260A contain no provision for return of memo of appeal. (A.Ys. 1992-93, 1993-94)

Himachal Futuristic Communications Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 133 Taxman 708 / 186 CTR 374 / 264 ITR 629 (HP)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Miscellaneous Application – Identical plea [S. 254(2)]

Appeal under section 260A against dismissal of assessee's miscellaneous petition under section 254(2) was not maintainable where assessee had taken up identical plea in reference application before Tribunal. (A.Y. 1986-87)

J. N. Marshall & Co. v. ITO (2003) 183 CTR 603 / 164 ITR 690 / 134 Taxman 557 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Res Judicata – Admission of appeal

No res judicata is involved in a mere matter of admission of appeals. (A.Y. 1993-94)
CIT v. Window Glass Ltd. (2003) 179 CTR 602 / 134 Taxman 739 (Cal.) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Power to formulate without hearing the respondent

Substantial question of law can be formulated under sub-section (3) of section 260A without hearing respondent.

CIT v. Kuwer Fibres (P.) Ltd. (2003) 132 Taxman 347 / 183 CTR 256 / 264 ITR 499 (Delhi) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Appreciation of evidence

Appreciation of evidence does not fall within the realm of Courts jurisdiction under section 260A. No substantial question of law arise.

Vijay Kumar Talwar v. ITO (2003) 260 ITR 266 / 175 CTR 674 / 123 Taxman 181 (Delhi) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Erroneous view of law

If assessment is based on a completely erroneous view of law, such findings cannot be regarded as mere findings of fact, but must be treated as substantial question of law.

(A.Y. 1992-93)

Nemi Chand Kothari v. CIT (2003) 264 ITR 254 / 185 CTR 635 / 136 Taxman 213 (Gau.) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Levy of interest [S. 234B]

Where the Tribunal held that the levy of interest under section 234B was not justified as the assessee was under a bona fide belief that its income was not chargeable to tax, a substantial question of law arose. (A.Ys. 1990-91, 1991-92)

CIT v. Insilco Ltd. (2003) 261 ITR 220 / 179 CTR 214 (Delhi) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – Perverse

Where Tribunal recorded a finding contrary to documentary evidence available on record, finding was perverse giving rise to a question of law.

Dy. CIT v. H.V.S. Shantharam (2003) 128 Taxman 34 / 261 ITR 435 / 180 CTR 300 (Karn.) (High Court)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Appeal by Department – Revenue Secretary & Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) Chairman summoned for turning “deaf ear” to inefficiencies

The department filed an appeal in the High Court and claimed that as the Tribunal's order was received on a particular date, the appeal was on time. However, the assessee obtained information from the Tribunal under the Right to Information Act and pointed out that the order was served on an earlier date and that the appeal was belated. The Court taking a serious view of the matter summoned the Revenue Secretary and Chairman CBDT to be present before the court on 01-12-2010.

CIT v. Preeti N. Aggarwala ITA No. 456/2007 dated 11-11-2010 (Delhi)(High Court)
Source: www.itatonline.org

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Binding – Precedent – No substantial question of law

Appeal dismissed holding that no substantial question of law arises amounts to affirmation of tribunals decision on merits which becomes binding on Tribunal. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Medicare Investments Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2008) 114 ITD 34 / 112 TTJ 889 / 19 SOT 223 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 260A : Appeal – High Court – Substantial Question of Law – No decision on merit

When High Court dismisses an appeal stating that no substantial question of law arises, there is no decision on merits on issues raised by parties. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Nirma Industries Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 95 ITD 199 / 95 TTJ 867 (SB)(Ahd.)(Trib)

D. Appeals to the Supreme Court

Section 261 : Appeals to Supreme Court

S. 261 : Appeal – Supreme Court – Adjournments – Awarded Cost

For taking repeated adjournment the Department was directed to pay the cost of ` 10000/- and was directed to make an enquiry in that regard; if it was found that fault was with an officer, it would take necessary steps including recovery from him.

CIT v. Varanashi Wines (2010) 190 Taxman 167 (SC)

S. 261 : Appeal – Supreme Court – Attachment – Shares and Bank Accounts – Bank Guarantee – Certificate Proceedings [S. 222]

Pursuant to an attachment proceedings shares and bank accounts of assessee were attached. Subsequently, one G, undertook to furnish a bank guarantee of ` 3 crores in favour of the Registrar of Supreme Court. In view of undertaking of "G" regarding bank gurantee of ` 3 Crores, all attachment orders passed in respect of assessee's shares and bank accounts were released forth with.

Subhash Arora Investments (P) Ltd. v. UOI (2010) 190 Taxman 45 (SC)

S. 261 : Appeal – Supreme Court – Cost to Department – Negligence

Income Tax Department initiated proceedings against assessee, however, it could not file most relevant documents, namely enquiry, report, etc., for initiating said proceedings. The Court observed that virtual negligence of Department was required to be taken note of and permitted it to file additional documents only on deposit of ₹ 5000/-.

CIT v. M. Selvaraj (2010) 190 Taxman 300 / 227 CTR 439 / 32 DTR 88 (SC)

S. 261 : Appeal – Supreme Court – Advance Rulings – Writ Petition [S. 245R, Article 226]

Assessee petitioner filed Special leave petition against the ruling given by the Authority for Advance Rulings and the petitioner could not explain as to why the petitioner had not moved the High Court under Article 226 of the Constitution. The petitioner was permitted to withdraw the Special Leave Petition with liberty to move High Court.

Foster's Australia Ltd. v. CIT (2008) 174 Taxman 565 / 219 CTR 9 / 12 DTR 310 (SC)

S. 261 : Appeal – Supreme Court – Precedent – Appeal not filed in past by Department

The fact that the department has not preferred an appeal in one case would not operate as a bar for the Department to prefer an appeal in another case where there is a just cause for doing so or it is in public interest to do so or for a pronouncement by a higher court when divergent views are expressed by the Tribunals or the High Court.

C. K. Gangadharan & Anr. v. CIT (2008) 304 ITR 61 / 172 Taxman 87 / 10 DTR 161 / 218 CTR 1 / 206 Taxation 626 (SC)

Editorial:- Please see section 268A(3) introduced by the Finance Act, 2008 providing for the right of the Income Tax Department to file an appeal in such cases.

S. 261 : Appeal – Supreme Court – Ex-parte order – Restoration of matter

A matter dismissed earlier for non appearance, can be restored on the oral or written request of the party or advocate. And, if the bench so desired, it can hear the matter immediately after restoration and there is no obligation on the bench to adjourn the matter to be heard on a future date once it is restored. (A.Y. 1989-90)

Madhumilan Syntex Ltd. v. UOI (2007) 290 ITR 199 / 160 Taxman 71 / 208 CTR 417 / 199 Taxation 259 (SC) / 11 SCC 297

S. 261 : Appeal – Supreme Court – Law from inception – Precedent

It is for the Supreme Court to indicate as to whether its decision in question will operate prospectively. Normally a decision of the Supreme Court is assumed to be the law from inception.

Murthy M.A. v. State of Karnataka & Others (2004) 178 Taxation 397 / (2003) 264 ITR 1 / 185 CTR 194 (SC) / 7 SCC 517

S. 261 : Appeal – Supreme Court – Precedent

High Court relying on its own decision disposed off appeal filed by revenue. Decision relied upon by High Court had been overturned by the Supreme Court. Respondent sought to reopen issues determined by Supreme Court by seeking to contend that decision was incorrect. The Court held respondent was not justified. (A.Ys. 1989-90, 1990-91)

DIT v. Bharat Diamond Bourse (2004) 192 CTR 506 / (2005) 142 Taxman 409 (SC)

S. 261 : Appeal – Supreme Court – Decision of Supreme Court – Precedence

Once a point is finally decided by Supreme Court it becomes a binding precedent; binding effect of a decision does not depend upon whether a particular argument was considered therein or not, provided that point with reference to which an argument was subsequently advanced, was actually decided. (A.Y. 1980-81)

CIT v. Ratilal Bacharilal & Sons (2006) 282 ITR 457 / (2005) 198 CTR 324 / 153 Taxman 86 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 261 : Appeal – Supreme Court – Precedent – Obiter dicta

The obiter dicta of a High Court decision may not be binding on subordinate Courts and judicial and quasi-judicial bodies; however, obiter dicta of Supreme Court are binding.

(A.Y. 1999-2000)

B. Sorabji v. ITO (2005) 95 ITD 540 / 96 TTJ 524 (SB)(Mum.)(Trib.)

Section 262 : Hearing before Supreme Court

S. 262 : Appeal – Supreme Court – Hearing – Additional Ground – Pure question of law raised first time – Article 131 of the Constitution of India

A pure question of law was raised for the first time before the Supreme Court, which was not considered earlier, the Supreme Court set aside the orders of the High Court and the Appellate Tribunal and remanded the matter back to the Tribunal for a fresh consideration of the issue. (A.Ys. 1984-85, 1985-86)

CIT v. Varas International Pvt. Ltd. (2006) 284 ITR 80 / 155 Taxman 202 / 204 CTR 120 / 195 Taxation 441 (SC)

E. Revision by the Commissioner

Section 263 : Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Two views

The phrase “prejudicial to the interest of revenue” in section 263 has to be read in conjunction with the expression “erroneous”. When the Assessing Officer takes one of the two views permissible in law and which the Commissioner does not agree with and which results in a loss of revenue, it cannot be treated as erroneous order prejudicial to the interest of revenue, unless the view taken by the Assessing Officer is completely unsustainable in law.

CIT v. Max India Ltd. (2007) 295 ITR 282 / 213 CTR 266 / (2008) 166 Taxman 188 / 204 Taxation 1 (SC)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Merger – Reassessment

When the Commissioner sought to revise a part of the order of assessment which was not part of the re-assessment, after four years of original assessment, the Supreme Court held that the doctrine of merger did not apply in such cases and that the period of limitation commences from the date of the original order.

The Supreme Court further held that there may not be any doubt or dispute that once an order of reassessment is reopened, the previous under-assessments will be held to be set-aside and the whole proceedings would start afresh, but that would not mean that even when the subject matter of reassessment is distinct and different, the entire proceedings would be deemed to have been reopened. (A.Ys. 1994-95 to 1996-97)

CIT v. Alagendran Finance Ltd. (2007) 293 ITR 1 / 211 CTR 69 / 162 Taxman 465 / 201 Taxation 379 / 7 SCC 215 / 2007 AIR 3005 (SC)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Scope of power – Sub sequent order [S. 134]

Revision proceeding under section 263 cannot be held to become bad only because subsequently, an order of rectification was passed by the assessing officer under section 154. In such cases, the consenting party should bring the subsequent development to the notice of the Commissioner so as to enable him to take same into consideration.

The principle that when an authority having discretionary power exercises the same for unauthorized purpose or on consideration of irrelevant facts, the same must be held to be bad in law is to be applied only in administrative jurisdiction; it cannot be applied in cases where an authority exercises a judicial or a quasi judicial function.

Further, the lower authority is bound by the order passed by the higher authority keeping in view the principles of judicial discipline. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Ralson Industries Ltd. (2007) 288 ITR 322 / 158 Taxman 160 / 207 CTR 201 / 198 Taxation 97 (SC) / 2 SCC 326

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Jurisdiction – Order passed by ITO with approval of IAC

The Commissioner has jurisdiction under section 263 to revise an order passed by the ITO with approval of the IAC under section 144B. In any event, having regard to the subsequent amendments to the Act, from time to time, there was no scope for limiting the phrase "order passed by the Income Tax Officer" in section 263 to exclude orders passed by the ITO on the directions of a superior authority either under section 144A or 144B. (A.Y. 1977-78)

T. N. Civil Supplies Corpn. Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 260 ITR 82 / 129 Taxman 69 / 180 CTR 307 (SC)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Scope of powers – Satisfaction – Order based on the decision of jurisdictional High Court

Assessment orders passed based on the decision of the jurisdictional High Court. High Court decision not under appeal to the Supreme Court. Commissioner has no jurisdiction to revise on ground that order was prejudicial to revenue, even if the High Court decision relied upon is set aside by the Supreme Court, subsequently. Satisfaction must be one objective and based on material either legal or factual then available cannot be mere ipse dixit of the Commissioner. (A.Ys. 19985-86, 1986-87) CIT v. G. M. Mittal Stainless Steel (P.) Ltd. (2003) 263 ITR 255 / 173 Taxation 363 / 179 CTR 553 / 130 Taxman 67 (SC)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – CBDT – Jurisdiction – Binding – Assessing Officer's self – Determination of ALP without referring to TPO is "erroneous & prejudicial to interests of revenue" – International transaction – Transfer pricing [S. 92C, 199]

The assessee entered into international transactions with its AEs, the value of which exceeded ` 5 crores. The Assessing Officer passed an order under section 143(3) in which he recorded the finding that he had examined the transactions and found them to be at arms' length and no transfer pricing adjustment was required to be made. The CIT thereafter passed an order under section 263 on the ground that in view of Instruction No. 3 of 2003 dated 20.5.2003, the Assessing Officer ought to have referred the issue to the TPO instead of himself determining the arms' length price of the transactions and that the assessment order was consequently "erroneous and prejudicial to the interests of the revenue". On appeal, the Tribunal (114 TTJ (Delhi) 1) upheld the revision order. On further appeal by the assessee, HELD dismissing the appeal:

Though section 92CA enables the Assessing Officer to refer an international transaction to the TPO if he considers it "necessary or expedient" to do so, Instruction No. 3 dated 25.5.2003 makes it mandatory for the Assessing to make a reference to the TPO if the aggregate value of the international transaction exceeds ` 5 crores. This Circular, having been issued under section 119, is binding on the Assessing Officer. The Assessing Officer ought to have referred the matter to the TPO having regard to the fact that Specialized Cell was created to deal with complicated and complex issues arising out of the transfer mechanism. The Assessing Officer's omission to follow the binding Circular amounted to making assessment without conducting proper inquiry and investigation and resulted in the order becoming "erroneous and prejudicial to the interest of the Revenue". The observations in Sony India 288 ITR 52 (Delhi) (while upholding the constitutional validity of the aforesaid Circular) that the said Circular was a "Guideline" which did not take away the discretion of the Assessing Officer was made in a different context. (A.Y. 2004-05) Ranbaxy Laboratories Ltd. v. CIT (2012) 204 Taxman 294 / 70 DTR 293 / 250 CTR 33 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Commissioner is not permitted to change view & revise under section 263 without changed circumstances

It was held that as the department had examined the fundamental nature of the transaction in the earlier years and its nature remained unchanged, the department could not have changed its view as regards the nature of the transaction by dubbing it as erroneous. The department is not entitled to re-open an assessment based on a fresh inference of transactions accepted by the revenue for several preceding years on the pretext of dubbing them as erroneous.

Associated Food Products 280 ITR 377 (MP), Sirpur Paper Mills Ltd. (1978) 114 ITR 404 (AP) & CIT v. Gopal Purohit 228 CTR 582 / 336 ITR 287 / 188 Taxman 140 / 34 DTR 52 (Bom.) followed.

CIT v. Escorts Ltd. (2011) 51 DTR 321 / 338 ITR 435 / 198 Taxman 324 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Depreciation – Goodwill [S. 32]

Assessing Officer allowed depreciation on goodwill treating the same as intangible asset. Commissioner revised the order, the Tribunal quashed the order of revision. High Court confirmed the order of Tribunal. The Court held that where two views are possible and the assessing officer accepting one view which is plausible one, not appropriate to exercise power under section 263. (A. Ys. 2001-02 to 2003-04).

CIT v. Hindustan Coca Cola Beverages P. Ltd (2011) 331 ITR 192 / 238 CTR 1 / 198 Taxman

104 / 50 DTR 122 (Delhi)(High Court)

Editorial:- Refer Hindustan Coca Cola Beverages (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2010) 132 TTJ 602 / 34 SOT 171 / 43 DTR 416 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Exempted income – Proviso to section 14A – Law prevailing on the date of order u/s. 263 [S. 14A]

Partners of a firm, were assessed to tax in their individual capacity and the Assessing Officer gave deduction of interest paid on borrowings for investment in firm, the Court held that proviso to section 14A did not apply to the facts of the case as on date of orders of CIT under section 263 (29th December 1999), said proviso was not even existence, CIT was justified in revising the order of Assessing Officer and in directing him to compute the interest payable on such sum which has been invested in the partnership firm (Which was erroneously allowed by him earlier) and disallow those portions which can be attributable towards investment in partnership.. Favour of revenue(1995-96).

Mahesh G. Shetty & Ors. v. CIT (2011) 51 DTR 104 / 238 CTR 440 / 198 Taxman 22 (Karn.)(High Court)

Editorial: SLP rejected . SLP (Civil) (Nos 14660-14663 of 2011 date 5-7-2011 (2012) 204 Taxman 189 (Mag.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Export – Deduction

[S. 80HHC]

Where the Assessing Officer had allowed deduction under section 80HHC of the Act without excluding the certain receipts as mentioned in Explanation (baa) to section 80HHC of the Act. CIT was held to be justified in invoking jurisdiction under section 263 of the Act and setting aside the assessment order passed by the Assessing Officer under section 143(3) of the Act, as there was a prima facie error committed by the Assessing Officer while framing assessment under section 143(3) of the Act. (A. Ys. 1995-96-97)

CIT v. N. C. John & Sons P. Ltd. (2011) 51 DTR 142 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Effect order not passed within “reasonable time” – order becomes “infructuous”

Even if there is no period of limitation prescribed under section 153(3)(ii) to give effect to section 263 orders, the Assessing Officer is required to pass the order within a “reasonable period”. Non-specification of period of limitation does not mean that the Assessing Officer can wait for indefinite period before passing the consequential order.

CIT v. Goyal M. G. Gases Pvt. Ltd. ITA No. 335/2011 dated 23-2-2011 (Delhi)(High Court)

Source : www.itatonline.org

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Two views – One of the possible view

Where the Assessing Officer has taken one of the possible views which resulted in loss of revenue, the order cannot be treated as ‘erroneous’ and the Commissioner cannot invoke jurisdiction under section 263. (A. Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Kelvinator of India Ltd. (2011) 332 ITR 231 / 201 Taxman 88 (Mag.)(Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Exemption – Capital gains – Investment in house with in time specified under section 139(4) [S. 54F]

Commissioner passed the order under section 263 withdrawing exemption under section 54F, on the ground that new house was registered in favour of the assessee beyond the due date prescribed under sub section (1), of section 139 and that the assessee failed to deposit the sale proceeds as provided under section 54F(4). High Court held that Tribunal was justified in setting a side the order of the Commissioner by holding that the investment made by the assessee being within time specified under section 139(4), the assessee is eligible for exemption under section 54F in view of the binding decision of the Jurisdictional High Court. (A. Y. 2006-07).

CIT v. Vrinder P. Issac (Smt.) (2011) 64 DTR 376 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Erroneous Order – Merger

Where the Assessing Officer has applied his mind to the issue of applicability of section 40A(3), vis-à-vis block assessment and taken a possible view, the CIT is not justified in exercising powers of revision under section 263. Once the issue was considered and decided by the CIT(A) revision under section 263 cannot be done.

Ranka Jewellers v. Addl. CIT (2011) 238 CTR 153 / (2010) 328 ITR 148 / 38 DTR 293 / 190 Taxman 265 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Block assessment – Documents seized

In the block assessment order the assessing Officer made an addition of ₹ 90 Lakhs on the basis of the documents seized from the premises of Viswas R. Bhoir. The said addition was deleted by the Tribunal and the appeal is pending before the Bombay High Court. In the mean time the CIT passed a revision order under section 263 on 16-0- 2005, directing the Assessing Officer to consider the tax implication of Page Nos. 1 to 13 of bundle No. 12 seized from the residence of Viswas R. Bhoir. The Tribunal held that once taxability under both the documents has been considered by the Assessing Officer and the CIT(A), it is not open to CIT to invoke the jurisdiction under section 263. On appeal to the High Court, the High Court confirmed the order of Tribunal.

CIT v. Mukesh J. Upadhyaya (ITA No. 428 of 2010 dated 13-6-2011 594 (2011) 43A-BCAJ – August – P. 30) (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Two views – Erroneous

The condition precedent to the exercise of jurisdiction under section 263, was that the order sought to be revised must be erroneous in so far as it was prejudicial to the interest of revenue. When two views were possible, the assessment could not be revised. (A.Y. 1982-83)

Grasim Industries Ltd. v. CIT (2010) 321 ITR 92 / 229 CTR 347 / 35 DTR 142 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Two views – Book Profit

Assessing Officer taking plausible view vis-à-vis book profit under section 115JB. As by virtue of Explanation to section 115JB and in view of SC decision in 305 ITR 409 in CIT vs. HCL Comnet Systems & Services Ltd., provision for bad and doubtful debts are not to be considered in terms of cl. (c) to the Explanation, the Order of revision by CIT was not justified. (A.Y. 2002-03)

CIT v. DLF Power Ltd. (2010) 329 ITR 289 / 229 CTR 27 / 185 Taxman 356 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Time limit for revision of orders – Date of original order

Assessment order is not affected in respect of items that are not subject of reassessment. Time limit for section 263 begins from date of original order for such items.

Ashoka Buildcon Ltd v. ACIT (2010) 325 ITR 574 / 39 DTR 113 / 191 Taxman 29 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – AAR decision – Binding – Not amenable [S. 245S]

AAR rulings are binding despite contrary rulings of AAR. Assessment order following binding precedent is not amenable to section 263 revision. (A.Ys. 2004-05, 2005-06)

The Prudential Assurance Company v. DIT (2010) 324 ITR 381 / 38 DTR 337 / 232 CTR 12 / (2011) 222 Taxation 183 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Erroneous Order – Enquiry held by Assessee

Since an enquiry was specifically held with reference to which a disclosure of details was called for by the Assessing Officer and made by the assessee, the observation of the CIT that the Assessing Officer had arrived at his findings without conducting an enquiry was erroneous and therefore the CIT wrongly exercised the powers by recourse to section 263. (A.Y. 2002-03)

CIT v. Development Credit Bank Ltd. (2010) 323 ITR 206 / 40 DTR 61 / 196 Taxman 329 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Provision for non performing assets – Book Profits [S. 115JA]

The Assessing Officer while passing assessment order under section 143(3) of the Act had not added back provision for non performing asset and investment and lease equalisation charges to the book profits of the assessee company under section 115JA of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The CIT invoked the provisions of section 263 of the Act and directed the assessing officer to add back the provision for non performing asset and investment and lease equalisation charges while computing book profits under section 115JA of the Act. On these facts the Hon'ble High Court held that the assessing officer had taken a possible view in computing the book profit of the assessee company under section 115JA of the Act as such the CIT was not justified in invoking the provisions of section 263 of the Act and directing the assessing officer to modify the assessment.

CIT v. Shiva Texyarn Ltd (2010) 40 DTR 270 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of Enquiry by Assessing Officer – No revision

Mere lack of inquiry by Assessing Officer is not sufficient for revision under section 263. (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. Vikas Polymers (2010) 236 CTR 476 / 47 DTR 348 / 194 Taxman 57 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue - Reasons indicated by CIT – Remand

As the Tribunal has set aside the order of CIT, without dealing with the reasons indicated by CIT for exercising jurisdiction under section 263, therefore, matter remanded to the Tribunal for fresh decision. (A.Y. 2003-04)

CIT v. KNR Patel (JV) (2010) 322 ITR 97 / 45 DTR 150 / 236 CTR 50 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Erroneous Order – Lack of proper enquiry

Order under section 263 passed by the CIT setting aside the assessment order on the ground that the Assessing Officer has not made enquiries in respect of certain issues, without stating as to how the order of the Assessing Officer is erroneous and prejudicial to the interests of revenue cannot be sustained, more so when the issues pointed out by the CIT do not in fact, merit further investigation. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Leisure Wear Exports Ltd. (2010) 46 DTR 97 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of proper Inquiry – Not possible

Tribunal having found that the Assessing Officer had made reasonably detailed enquiries, collected relevant material including the seized documents, and discussed various facts of the case with the assessee's Chartered Accountants before making the assessments, there was no valid basis for the CIT to exercise jurisdiction under section 263 and to direct the Assessing Officer to make fresh assessments by going deeper in to the matter. (A.Ys. 1983-84, 1984-85)

CIT v. Hindustan Marketing & Advertising Co. Ltd. (2010) 46 DTR 109 (2011) 196 Taxman 368 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Inquiry – Suo moto – Requirements

Whether CIT has suo motu powers to pass the Order by merely stating that Assessing Officer has not properly enquired. Same materials were there before the Assessing Officer who had passed the impugned Order by applying his mind. Recourse to section 263(1) cannot be taken if the Order is erroneous but not prejudicial and vice versa. Held, provision 263 has not been rightly invoked. (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. Vikash Polymers (2010) 236 CTR 476 / 194 Taxman 57 / 47 DTR 348 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Inquiry by Assessing Officer – Recording in order Assessment

Where the assessing officer during the scrutiny assessment proceeding raised a query which was answered by the assessee to the satisfaction of the assessing officer but the same was not reflected in the assessment order by him, a conclusion cannot be drawn by the Commissioner that no proper enquiry with respect to the issue was made by the assessing officer, and enable him to assume jurisdiction under section 263 of the Act.

Further, the High Court also held that revision order passed by the Commissioner under section 263 of the Act on a ground in addition to the grounds mentioned in his show cause notice issued cannot be sustained. (A.Y. 2002-03)

CIT v. Ashish Rajpal (2009) 23 DTR 266 / 320 ITR 674 / 180 Taxman 623 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Scope – Ground not specified

Revision order passed by the Commissioner under section 263 of the Act on a ground not mentioned in his show cause notice issued cannot be sustained. (A.Y. 2003-04)

CIT v. Contimeters Electricals (P) Ltd. (2009) 22 DTR 158 / 317 ITR 249 / 224 CTR 366 / 178 Taxman 422 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Application of mind – Share application money

The assessee had given explanation with respect to the creditors and share application money received by it to the assessing officer during the assessment proceedings, to which the assessing officer applied his mind did not make any addition to the income of the assessee while passing order under section 143(3) of the Act. The Commissioner exercising jurisdiction under section 263 of the Act on the ground that the order of the Assessing Officer was prejudicial to the interest of revenue on the ground that the assessee failed to produce the share holders and the creditors before the Assessing Officer was held to be not justified. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Unique Autofelts P. Ltd. (2009) 30 DTR 231 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of Inquiry – Revenue expenditure

Assessing Officer having made enquiries, elicited replies and thereafter allowed the expenditure on tools and dyes as revenue expenditure, it cannot be said that it was "lack of enquiry" and therefore, the assessment order passed by the Assessing Officer cannot be revised under section 263. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Sunbeam Auto Ltd. (2009) 31 DTR 1 / (2009) 227 CTR 133 / 289 Taxman 436 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Two views – Erroneous order [S. 143(3)]

Where two views were possible on the issue, and one view is taken by the assessing officer while passing order under section 143(3) of the Act, which was also a plausible view, merely because the view benefited the assessee, the action of the assessing officer cannot be held to be erroneous by the Commissioner for assuming jurisdiction under section 263 of the Act. (A.Y. 2002-03)

CIT v. DLF Power Ltd. (2009) 31 DTR 93 / 229 CTR 27 / 329 ITR 289 / 185 Taxman 356 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Merger of Assessment order – Deduction under section 80-I

Assessing Officer allowing partial deduction under section 80-I. CIT(A) allowing deduction in full. Commissioner invoking powers under section 263 and contending that eligibility of deduction under section 80-I (2) was never subject-matter before the Appellate Authority and that deduction had been granted by considering provisions of section 80-I(1) only. Held that the entire eligibility of deduction under section 80-I was before the Appellate Authority and hence the Assessing Officer's order had merged with that of the CIT(A). The prohibition of Explanation (c) to 263 was applicable and thus the Commissioner was not justified in invoking section 263. Deduction under section 80-I(1) cannot be independent of section 80-I(2). (A.Y. 1985-86)

CIT v. Nirma Chemical Works Pvt. Ltd. (2009) 182 Taxman 183 / 309 ITR 67 / 222 CTR 593 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Order as per direction of commissioner – Erroneous

Assessment order was passed as per the direction of earlier CIT. In the absence of any error or anything unsustainable in law in the said Order, the Order could not be revised by the subsequent CIT. (A.Ys. 1980-81 to 1986-87)

Virendra Kumar Jhamb v. CIT (2009) 222 CTR 88 / 176 Taxman 011 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Examination of facts – Elaborate order [S. 80HHC]

Where the Assessing Officer after examining all the details with respect to assessee's claim of deduction under section 80 HHC allowed the claim, the High Court held that it cannot be said that the order of the Assessing Officer was erroneous or the same was passed without application of mind merely because the same was not elaborate order. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. Design & Automation Engineers (Bombay) (P) Ltd. (2008) 13 DTR 145 / 323 ITR 632 / 177 Taxman 009 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Levy of surcharge – Block Assessment [S. 113]

The issue regarding levy of surcharge under the proviso to section 113 of the Act with respect to search action conducted prior to 1-6-2006 was a debatable issue on the date, the CIT issued notice under section 263 as such the action of the CIT issuing notice was without jurisdiction.

CIT v. Ansal Properties & Industries (P) Ltd. (2008) 14 DTR 227 / 315 ITR 225 / 178 Taxman 201 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Payment to sub-contractor – Verification

Where the Assessing Officer allowed the payments to sub – contractors as genuine after verification of all the evidences placed on record by the assessee, the High Court held that under these circumstances the Commissioner was not justified in exercising his revisional jurisdiction under section 263 of the Act on the basis of material collected at the time of revisional proceedings. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. R. K. Construction Co. (2008) 12 DTR 210 / 313 ITR 65 / 221 CTR 415 / 175 Taxman 165 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Shares – Stock or Investment

Assessee not holding shares as stock-in-trade but holding it as investment. Profit on sale of shares subsequently be treated as capital gains and not as business income. Order of Assessing Officer to that effect is not prejudicial to revenue. Hence, exercise of revisional jurisdiction by Commissioner was unjustified.

CIT v. Rewshankar A. Kothari 2007 TLR 793 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Penalty – Initiation of Proceedings

Direction by Commissioner, in exercise of powers under section 263, to Assessing Officer to consider initiation of penalty proceedings under section 271(1)(a) of Act against assessee is not permissible, 1984 Tax LR 1133 (Delhi), dissented from

CIT v. Parmanand M. Patel 2007 TLR 726 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Second opinion possibility – Insurance Compensation

The Commissioner cannot use his powers on the mere pretext that a second opinion is possible on a certain issue. In this case the assessing officer treated the insurance compensation as a capital receipt under an order passed under section 143(3), whereas the Commissioner ordered the Assessing Officer to consider it as revenue receipt. (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. Vinod Kumar Gupta (2007) 165 Taxman 225 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Audit objection – Two views

On the basis of examination of records, the Assessing Officer had taken a possible view – Mere audit objection and merely because, a different view could be taken are not enough to hold that the original assessment order is erroneous or prejudicial to the interest of the Revenue. (A.Y. 1975-76)

CIT v. Sohana Woollen Mills (2007) 207 CTR 178 / 296 ITR 238 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Two views – Erroneous order

When two views are possible upon an issue, it is not the case of CIT to hold that the view taken by Assessing Officer is not possible to accept or incorrect — Held, the CIT cannot invoke the jurisdiction under section 263. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

CIT v. Mepco Industries Ltd. (2007) 207 CTR 642 / 294 ITR 121 / 163 Taxman 648 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Estimate of Income – Advance tax – Interest

Enhancement of assessment by Commissioner in revision no under estimate of advance tax by assessee since he could not have anticipated the addition of income and levy of interest under section 215 was deleted in earlier year. (A.Y. 1986-87)

CIT v. Jayendra H. Kharawala (2006) 282 ITR 205 / 200 CTR 420 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Summary assessment – No revision possible [S. 143(1)(a)]

Summary assessment is made under section 143(1)(a). In view of the Circular No. RA/86-87/DT dated 26-8-1987, the CIT cannot assume jurisdiction to exercise powers under section 263. (A.Y. 1986-87)

CIT v. Vikrant Crimpers (2006) 202 CTR 393 / 282 ITR 503 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Summary assessment – Writ

The assessing officer issued intimation under section 143(1) (a) Income-tax Act, 1961 for the A.Y. 1999-2000. Thereafter, the CIT initiated proceeding under section 263 Income-tax Act, 1961 exercising its revisionary powers against the order under section 143(1) (a) Income-tax Act, 1961. On writ petition before the High Court, the Hon'ble High Court after examining in detail decisions of various High Courts including the Supreme Court held that by no stretch of imagination an intimation under section 143(1) (a) Income-tax Act, 1961 can be considered as order for the CIT to assume jurisdiction under section 263 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. Consequently, the initiation of proceeding under section 263 Income-tax Act, 1961 was held to be without jurisdiction.

Hill Top Holdings India Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 192 Taxation 137 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Direction of superior officer – Prejudicial

Order passed on the dictates of superior officer directing the Assessing Officer to accept the return filed by the assessee without asking for further information. Held, order was erroneous and prejudicial to the interest of Revenue. Revision under section 263 is justified. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Green World Corporation v. ITO (2006) 205 CTR 524 / 285 ITR 118 / 159 Taxman 35 (HP)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – KVSS – Certificates

Where there was no concealment of facts by the assessee in declaration under K.V.S.S. and the CIT had not cancelled the certificate issued under the scheme, it is not permissible for CIT to pass revision order under section 263 of the Act, as there was full and final settlement of demand under the K.V.S.S.

Siddhartha Tubes Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 195 Taxation 89 (MP)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Scope – Restricted to grounds

Direction to assess only on two grounds – Assessing Officer is entitled to consider only those two grounds and not any other items to make fresh assessment. (A.Ys. 1979-80 to 1983-84)

CIT v. D. N. Dosani (2006) 200 CTR 76 / 280 ITR 275 / 153 Taxman 13 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Remedy – Appeal to Tribunal

Appropriate remedy against the order passed by the CIT in exercise of its revision jurisdiction under section 263 is to file appeal before the Tribunal. As such the Hon'ble High Court while disposing of the writ filed by the assessee directed the petitioner to file an appeal before Tribunal within two weeks and directed the Income Tax department to suspend all the proceedings on the basis of revision order for four weeks.

John George Vettath Mohan Vettath (2006) 193 Taxation 458 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Orders prejudicial to revenue – Proceedings are dropped

Section 263 is not limited to exercising revisional powers qua order of assessment only; it would take within its sweep even orders wherein either proceedings are dropped or proceedings are filed. (A.Y. 1983-84)

New Jagat Textile Mills (P.) Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 282 ITR 399 / (2005) 196 CTR 110 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Orders prejudicial to revenue – Amendment retrospective effect

The consequence of Explanation (c) was introduced with retrospective effect in section 263 is that the powers under section 263 of the Commissioner shall extend and shall be deemed always to have extended to such matters as had not been considered and decided in the order passed in appeal on or before or after 1st June 1998. By using the words 'on or before or after' itself denotes that intention of Legislature is to embrace all orders, whether passed on or after or before 1-6-1988. (A.Y. 1980-81)

CIT v. Ratilal Bacharilal & Sons (2006) 282 ITR 457 / (2005) 198 CTR 324 / 153 Taxman 86 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Doctrine of merger – Amendment

In view of amendment of section 263 with retrospective effect from 1-6-1988, in respect of items which have not been considered in appeal, power of Commissioner shall be extended to them. (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. Amrit Banaspati Co. Ltd. (2005) 277 ITR 559 (All.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Rectification order – Not prejudicial

Rectification order of Assessing Officer granting exemption under section 10(10C) to which assessee was entitled could not be treated as erroneous and prejudicial to interests of revenue. (A.Y. 2001-02)

S.R. Koshti v. CIT (2005) 276 ITR 165 / 146 Taxman 335 / 193 CTR 518 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Charge of interest at lower rate to sister concern – Erroneous

Where assessee-firm debited accounts of partners to whom interest on their credit balance was being paid at 6 per cent, and credited corresponding amount to accounts of a sister concern to which interest was to be paid at 18 per cent, assessment order passed by Assessing Officer allowing deduction of interest paid to sister concern at 18% was erroneous and prejudicial to interests of revenue. (A.Y. 1981-82)

Mannulal Matadeen v. CIT (2005) 277 ITR 346 / 152 Taxman 125 (All.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Not recording of evidence – Inquiry by Assessing Officer

Where during scrutiny assessment most of credits were considered by Assessing Officer and after due enquiries, were treated as genuine while some of them were treated as non-genuine, merely because as regards credits which he accepted Assessing Officer did not record that evidence was satisfactory and acceptable, would not make his order erroneous and prejudicial to interest of revenue in respect of credits accepted as genuine by him. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CIT v. Makal Suta Cotton Co. (P.) Ltd. (2005) 275 ITR 54 / 198 CTR 675 / 153 Taxman 590 (MP) (High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Intimation – Revision not possible [S. 143(1)]

Commissioner cannot revise an assessment completed under section 143(1). (A.Ys. 1983-84 to 1985-86)

CIT v. Brij Bala (Smt) (2005) 274 ITR 33 / 156 Taxman 244 (All.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Assessment rectified under section 154 – Original order can not be revised [S. 154]

Commissioner cannot exercise his power of revision under section 263 in respect of original assessment order which already stood rectified under section 154. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CIT v. Kalyan Solvent Extraction Ltd. (2005) 276 ITR 154 / 197 CTR 475 (MP)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Initiation of penalty proceedings – failure to initiate – Revenue possible

Omission by ITO to initiate penalty proceedings in course of assessment renders assessment order erroneous and prejudicial to interest of revenue. (A.Ys. 1980-81, 1986-87)

CIT v. Surendra Prasad Agrawal (2005) 142 Taxman 653 / 275 ITR 113 / 194 CTR 161 (All.) / CIT v. Ashok Construction Co. (2005) 147 Taxman 37 / 280 ITR 368 (All.) / CIT v. Associated Contractors Corpn. (2005) 275 ITR 123 / 145 Taxman 356 / 198 CTR 593 (All.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to the interest of revenue – Dropping of penalty – Revision

Commissioner can revise order of Assessing Officer dropping penalty proceedings. (A.Y. 1977-78)

CIT v. Braj Bhushan Cold Storage (2005) 275 ITR 360 / 145 Taxman 585 / 197 CTR 490 (All.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Non speaking order – Without any reason

A non speaking order passed without giving reason and without mentioning details which assessee was asked to furnish and details which assessee filed by submitting revised return, was erroneous and prejudicial to interests of revenue.

Lashkari Ram (Pt) v. CIT (2005) 272 ITR 309 / (2004) 191 CTR 534 (All.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Exemption – Without discussion

Where ITO had granted exemption to assessee in respect of income from agriculture and poultry-farming without any discussion and without any application of mind, assessment order was erroneous and prejudicial to interests of revenue. (A.Y. 1973-74)

CIT v. Bhagwan Das (2005) 272 ITR 367 / 142 Taxman 1 (All.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Intimation – Possible after 1-4-1989 [S. 143(1)]

Commissioner can exercise jurisdiction under section 263 in respect of assessment under section 143(1) as applicable after 1/4/1989. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

CIT v. Anderson Marine & Sons (P.) Ltd. (2004) 266 ITR 694 / 139 Taxman 16 / 189 CTR 118 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Possible view – Not prejudicial

Where view expressed by Assessing Officer is a possible view, commissioner cannot hold assessment order as prejudicial to interest of revenue. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Max India Ltd. (2004) 268 ITR 128 / 191 CTR 397 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Record – Wider scope

'Record' does not mean only 'record' available with ITO at time of passing of assessment order. It would include the records available with the Commissioner at the time of passing of the order by the Commissioner. (A.Y. 1986-87)

CIT v. K. Ramachandran (Dr.) (2004) 139 Taxman 320 / 187 CTR 654 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Doctrine of Merger – Subject matter of appeal

Matter not considered and decided in appeal can be subjected to revision

CIT v. Ram Kishore Raj Kishore (2004) 135 Taxman 511 (All.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Doctrine of Merger – Validity

In a case where issues in revision are different from those in appeal, proceedings under section 263 would not be invalid during the pendency of an appeal.

Aerens Infrastructure & technology Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 271 ITR 15 / 192 CTR 542 / 144 Taxman 472 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Merger – Amendment

In view of the amendment made in clause (a) and (c) of Explanation to section 263 that part of the order of the ITO which has not been challenged in appeal, does not merge in the order of the Commissioner (Appeals) and the Commissioner has jurisdiction to revise that order. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CIT v. Dhampur Sugar Mills Co. Ltd. (2004) 270 ITR 576 / 142 Taxman 468 (All.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Valuation of stock – Cession of business

Where though facts showed that there was complete cessation of business of assessee-firm on division of assets/liabilities among partners, yet Assessing Officer accepted valuation of stock at cost price rather than market price, his order was rightly held as erroneous and prejudicial to interest of revenue by Commissioner. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Naveen Harware & Electrical Stores v. CIT (2004) 266 ITR 308 / 140 Taxman 325 / 188 CTR 19 (Gau.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Explanation – Failure to apply [S. 36(1)]

Failure by Assessing Officer to apply Explanation to section 36(1)(vii) would make his order erroneous and prejudicial. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Jubilant Organosys v. CIT (2004) 265 ITR 420 / 137 Taxman 515 / 187 CTR 574 (All.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Failure to verify confirmation letters – Effect – Share capital

Effect of Assessing Officer's failure to verify genuineness of confirmation letters filed by contributors to assessee company's share capital. (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. Achal Investments Ltd. (2004) 268 ITR 211 / 136 Taxman 335 / 187 CTR 475 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Vague order by Commissioner – Cash credits

Where assessee had furnished requisite information and ITO had considered the record before him and completed assessment after considering evidence filed and after his satisfaction about genuineness of cash credits, order of revision under section 263 on vague ground that the Assessing Officer did not make proper enquiry was not valid

CIT v. Mehrotra Brothers (2004) 270 ITR 157 (MP)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Valuing stock at cost – Death of partner

Where on death of one of two partners business was continued by surviving partner, it being not a case of dissolution of firm Assessing Officer's order valuing stock on cost or market price, whichever was lower, could not be held to be erroneous and prejudicial to revenue. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Kwality Steels Suppliers v. CIT (2004) 271 ITR 40 / 141 Taxman 177 / 191 CTR 94 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Writ – Findings of commissioner

If prima-facie opinion is recorded by commissioner that order sought to be revised is erroneous and prejudicial to revenue, Court in its writ jurisdiction cannot pre-empt proceedings under section 263.

Pankaj Goyal v. CIT (2004) 270 ITR 201 (HP)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Summary order – Revision possible [S. 143(1)]

Section 263 will cover a summary order of assessment. (A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. R. G. Umaranee (Smt) (2003) 127 Taxman 265 / 262 ITR 507 / 181 CTR 104 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Intimation – Revision possible [S. 143(1)]

There is no restriction on power of Commissioner to revise summary assessment made under section 143(1). (A.Y. 1985-86)

CIT v. Chidambaram Construction Co. (2003) 261 ITR 754 / 181 CTR 542 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Summary order – Revision possible [S. 143(1)(a)]

Commissioner has jurisdiction under section 263 to revise order passed by ITO in summary assessment under section 143(1)(a).

CIT v. Sri Mahasastha Pictures (2003) 127 Taxman 162 / 263 ITR 304 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Direction issued by IAC – Revision possible [S.144B(4)]

Revisional powers under section 263 can be exercised in cases where order was made by Assessing Officer pursuant to directions issued by IAC under section 144B(4). (A.Y. 1979-80)

CIT v. Mehsana District Co-op. Milk Producers Union Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 235 / 263 ITR 645 / 184 CTR 608 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Doctrine of Merger [Explanation (c)]

In view of the amendment of section 263 (1), Explanation (c) as interpreted by the Supreme Court in CIT v. Arbuda Mills Ltd. (1998) 231 ITR 50 (SC), the Tribunal was legally not correct in holding that order of ITO had got merged in the order of the Commissioner (Appeals) and therefore the Commissioner had no jurisdiction to revise the order. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CIT v. Span International (2003) 132 Taxman 28 / 270 ITR 538 (All.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Doctrine of Merger – Scope

When the order taken in revision is already subjected to appeal and the appellate order has been made in respect thereof, revision of such order is not permissible. (A.Y. 1979-80)

CIT v. Mehsana District Co-op. Milk Producers Union Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 235 / 263 ITR 645 / 184 CTR 608 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Doctrine of Merger – Findings of Commissioner (Appeals) [Ss. 80HH, 35B and 80J]

Where the issues regarding the allowable deduction under sections 35B, 80J and 80HH had been thoroughly checked by Commissioner (Appeals) and findings had been given thereupon, such issues could not be considered in revision. (A.Y. 1980-81)

CIT v. Farida Prime Tannery (2003) 259 ITR 342 / 135 Taxman 70 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Period of Limitation – Intimation

Where the petitioner, without even service of the assessment orders, came to know of passing of the assessment orders and yet he applied for revision after period of limitation was over, dismissal of petition on ground of limitation was justified. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1989-90)

Priyanka Metals (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2003) 133 Taxman 423 / 183 CTR 102 / 270 ITR 586 (MP)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Two views possible – Erroneous order

When two views are possible and Assessing Officer has taken one view with which Commissioner does not agree, it cannot be treated as an erroneous order prejudicial to interest of revenue unless Assessing Officer's view is unsustainable in law. (A.Y. 1979-80)

CIT v. Mehsana District Co-op. Milk Producers Union Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 235 / 263 ITR 645 / 184 CTR 608 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – New Source of Income – Scope

Commissioner cannot discover a new source of income which was not considered by ITO in assessment order, nor any notice was given by Commissioner under section 263 to treat it as undisclosed income. (A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. R.G. Umaranee (Smt) (2003) 127 Taxman 265 / 262 ITR 507 / 181 CTR 104 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Deductions – Failure to inquire by Assessing Officer [S. 80HH and 80HHC]

Deductions under sections 80HH and 80HHC cannot be granted automatically but only after due enquiry and ascertaining that assessee has complied with requirements of said sections and where this was not done, Commissioner was justified in setting aside assessment. (A.Y. 1986-87)

Jai Bharath Tanners v. CIT (2003) 128 Taxman 880 / 181 CTR 431 / 264 ITR 673 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Declaration in the course of survey – Inquiry

Where assessment order was made following declaration of additional income during survey after due application of mind and not in a mechanical way, it could not be considered as erroneous and prejudicial to revenue. (A.Ys. 1998-99 to 2000-01)

Paul Mathews & Sons v. CIT (2003) 129 Taxman 416 / 263 ITR 101 / 181 CTR 207 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – View not unsustainable in law – Erroneous order

Where view taken by Assessing Officer was not unsustainable in law, simply because Commissioner did not agree with it, that would not make assessment erroneous and prejudicial.

CIT v. D.P. Karal (2003) 185 CTR 497 / 266 ITR 113 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – No finding of loss to revenue – Revision invalid

In absence of any finding that there is loss of revenue, interference under section 263 is not justified. (A.Y. 1987-88)

CIT v. G.R. Thangamaligai (2003) 185 CTR 560 / 259 ITR 129 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Penalty – Two views

The Assessing Officer dropped the penalty proposal holding that appeal against the quantum is pending before the High Court. The Commissioner of Income-tax revised the order. The Tribunal held that the view of Assessing Officer cannot be held to be erroneous in dropping penalty proceedings. The Assessing Officer can impose penalty even after appeal is determined by High Court. Two view possible hence revision was held to be not valid. (A. Y. 2004-05).

V. K. Natesan v. Dy. CIT (2011) 128 ITD 81 / 49 DTR 233 / 135 TTJ 257 (TM)(Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Show cause notice – Reasons not stated in showcause notice – Order invalid

If a ground of revision is not mentioned in the show-cause notice, it cannot be made the basis of the order for the reason that the assessee would have had no opportunity to meet the point (Maxpack Investments 13 SOT 67 (Delhi), G. K. Kabra 211 ITR 336 (AP) & Jagadhri Electric Supply 140 ITR 490 (P&H) followed);
Synergy Entrepreneur Solutions Pvt. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 46 SOT 111 / (2012) 13 ITR 377 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Block Assessment – Time limit [S. 158BC, 158BE]

Provisions of section 263 are applicable to the Block Assessment. In such cases question of restriction under section 158BE as regards time-limit for completion of fresh assessment does not arise. In such cases by virtue of section 156BH limitation as laid down in section 153(2A) would be applicable.

Bhartiben M. Kelawala (Smt.) v. CIT (2011) 128 ITD 468 / 135 TTJ 455 (Ahd.)(Trib.) / Amita Devi Sanganerla (Smt.) v. ACIT (2011) 129 ITD 72 / 53 DTR 214 / 137 TTJ 521 (TM)(Gau.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Jurisdiction – Power of commissioner – Absence of notice under section 143(2) vis-à-vis limitation for completion of assessment

When the assessment for Asst. year 1987-88 was completed under section 143(1)(a) and notice under section 143(2) had not been issued and time for completing asst. under section 143(3) expired on 31st March 1990, CIT could not direct Asst. under section 143(3) by his revision order under S. 263 dated 22nd March, 1991, the order was held to be contrary to provisions of section 143(2), 143(3) and 153(1)(a). (A. Ys. 1987-88 & 1990-91)

V. Narayanan v. Dy. CIT (2011) 53 DTR 188 / 137 TTJ 403 / 127 ITD 133 / 2 ITR 446 (TM)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Business income – Capital gains – Income from purchase and sale of shares [S. 28(i), 45]

Assessing Officer accepted the income declared by the assessee under the head long term capital gains without any application of mind or enquiry though the assessee was investment company, the assessment was erroneous and revision order under section 263 was justified. (A. Y. 2006-07).

Spectra Shares & Scrips (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 62 DTR 411 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Power – Sweeping manner – Cannot direct Assessing Officer to frame entire assessment

While exercising revisional jurisdiction under section 263 Commissioner can not ordinarily exercise this power in a sweeping manner directing Assessing Officer to frame entire assessment afresh, when assessment order indicates consideration of majority of relevant issues. (A. Y. 2004-05).

New India Assurance Co. Ltd. v. Addl. Commissioner (2011) 133 ITD 131 / 142 TTJ 312 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Penalty – Concealment – Cannot initiate penalty proceeding [S. 271(1)(c)]

The Tribunal held that once revision order is passed, it is for assessing authority to consider whether penalty is to be levied or not and if assessing authority has not levied penalty where it is imperative, then only, Commissioner can in his wisdom interfere in the matter. Therefore when there is no penalty order subsisting at time of passing of revision order it is not proper on part of Commissioner to initiate penalty proceedings under section 271(1)(c). (A. Y. 2008-09).

S. Sudaha (Smt) v. ACIT (2011) 48 SOT 335 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of proper enquiry – Details furnished

Where all the details of expenditure was duly furnished by the assessee to the Assessing Officer the CIT cannot revise the assessment on the basis of lack of enquiry. (A. Y. 2004-05)

Vodafone Essar South Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 141 TTJ 84 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Business income – Capital gains – Income from purchase and sale of shares – Revision [S. 28(1), 45]

Assessee carried on the activity of buying and selling shares and units of mutual funds in a systematic and regular manner with high frequency and volumes and repetitive purchases and sales of the same scrip throughout the year, the Tribunal held it has to be assessed as business income and the revision order under section 263 directing the Assessing Officer to be assess the same as business income was held to be justified. (A. Y. 2006-07)

Spectra Shares & Scrips (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 62 DTR 411 / 142 TTJ 483 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Non-examination of issue – ICAI merit of claim

Non-Examination of issue by Assessing Officer does not per se make assessment order prejudicial to interest of revenue for revision under section 263. On merits Tribunal held that discharge of statutory function by ICAI does not amount to commercial or business activity and eligible for exemption under section 10 (23C)(iv) as also section 11 as educational institute. (A.Y. 2005-06)

Institute of Chartered Accountants of India v. DIT (2011) 50 DTR 409 / 136 TTJ 548 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of Inquiries – Findings in order

Assessment Order was set aside by Commissioner on ground, that Assessing Officer had made Assessment without making proper enquiry.

Held, that when Assessing Officer has specifically mentioned in the order that books of accounts alongwith Purchase / Sales, Invoices, ledgers, Bank Accounts were examined, verified and test checked, setting aside by Commissioner, in absence of any finding that Assessing Officer's order is factually incorrect, and not justified.

Vijay Kumar Mehta v. CIT (2010) 195 Taxman 63 (Mag.)(Patna)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Merger with Appellate Order – Will

CIT(A) having deleted the addition made by the Assessing Officer on the basis of Assessee's mother's will, the order of the Assessing Officer on the issue of addition on the basis of will got merged with the order of the CIT(A), and therefore, CIT had no jurisdiction to invoke the provisions of section 263 on the issue of examination of veracity of bequeathal under the will. (A.Y. 2000-01)

S. K. Jain v. CIT (2010) 43 DTR 1 / 132 TTJ 544 / 127 ITD 217 (TM)(Agra)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Assessing Officer taking possible view – Housing Project – Commercial Construction [S. 80IB(10)]

The view that an element of commercial construction per se would not vitiate the claim of deduction under the pre-amended section 80IB(10), is not only a possible view of the matter, it is a view adopted by the Special Bench of the Tribunal and therefore, assessment order allowing assessee's claim for deduction under section 80-IB(10) on residential-cum-commercial project cannot be said to be erroneous and prejudicial order and cannot be revised under section 263. (A.Ys. 2004-05, 2005-06)

Anik Development Corporation v. ACIT (2010) 134 TTJ 17 / (2011) 44 SOT 100 (UO)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – New benefit in Reassessment Proceedings – Claim by assessee

Only in cases where assessment order is erroneous and prejudicial to interest of revenue, assessment can be reopened under section 263, and thus assessee is not eligible to claim any new benefit in assessment proceedings pursuant to section 263.

ACIT v. ITW India (P) Ltd. (2010) 40 SOT 348 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Goodwill – Depreciation

Revision by CIT on the ground that depreciation was not allowable on goodwill was not sustainable, even if an amount is termed as "goodwill" in the books of account but it is a business or commercial right in the nature of knowhow, patent, copy rights trademarks, licences, franchises, the claim of depreciation is indeed admissible thereon, it is not that "goodwill" is specifically excluded from the intangible assets eligible for depreciation.

(A.Y. 2001-02)

Hindustan Coca Cola Beverages (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2010) 132 TTJ 602 / 43 DTR 416 / (2009) 34 SOT 171 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Possible view – Erroneous

Once the view taken by the Assessing Officer is one of the possible views then the order of Assessing Officer cannot be termed as erroneous. (A.Ys. 1999-2000, 2000-01)

Hindustan Shipyard Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2010) 130 TTJ 76 / 6 ITR 407 (Visakha.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Subsequently – Judgment of Jurisdictional High Court – relating back

When a High Court declares the law on the subject, the declaration goes back to the date of enactment of that particular law so as to state that law from the date of its enactment itself, was in the manner decided by Court subsequently. Commissioner was justified in revising the order under section 263 on the basis of judgment of jurisdictional High Court. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Intellinet Technologies India P. Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 5 ITR 96 / 134 TTJ 744 / 48 DTR 129 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – ESI – PF – Lack of Proper enquiry

Assessing Officer having not made any enquiry in relation to late payment of employee's contribution towards ESI and PF, by assessee, CIT was justified in invoking the provisions of 263 and setting aside the order of the Assessing Officer for redoing the same. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Star Drugs & Research Labs Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 42 DTR 343 / 132 TTJ 305 / 127 ITD 85 (TM)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of Proper enquiry – Interest [S. 40(b)]

Assessing Officer having allowed deduction of "interest" under section 40(b), to the assessee firm without making any enquiry or applying his mind on the aspect as to whether the interest paid by the assessee firm on capital accounts is disallowable in view of the fact that the capital accounts of the partners and that the dividend income on shares is exempt and whether the dividend income received by the partners on such shares has been entered in the P&L account of the firm or not, order passed by the Assessing Officer was erroneous and prejudicial to the interests of the Revenue, and therefore, the CIT rightly invoked the provisions of section 263. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Shiv Automobiles v. ITO (2010) 43 DTR 345 / 133 TTJ 505 / 41 SOT 127 (TM)(Agra)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Non Application of Mind – Licences & Approvals – Intangible Assets – Depreciation [S. 32(1)(ii)]

Revision only on ground of non-application of mind by Assessing Officer not proper. Licenses & Approvals are “intangible asset” under section 32(1)(ii) & eligible for depreciation. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Piem Hotels Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2010) 45 DTR 313 / 135 TTJ 228 / 128 ITD 275 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Non-Compete Fee – Possible view

The view taken by the Assessing Officer on the date of passing of order being a possible view as per legal position, it cannot be said to be erroneous or prejudicial to the interest of revenue. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Double Dot Finance Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 38 DTR 220 / 137 TTJ 403 / 53 DTR 188 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Assessment barred by limitation – Revision not possible

Assessment barred by limitation, commissioner cannot direct Assessing Officer to pass fresh assessment order. (A.Ys. 1987-88, 1990-91)

V. Narayanan v. Dy. CIT (2010) 2 ITR 446 / 127 ITD 133 / 137 TTJ 403 / 53 DTR 188 (TM)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Erroneous and prejudicial order – Lower ALV

Assessing Officer having accepted the annual value of the property on the basis of the actual rent received by the assessee for the property from a group concern which was admittedly less than the annual value fixed by the Corporation, CIT was justified in setting aside the assessment order on this issue and giving appropriate direction to the Assessing Officer to examine the issue from all angles. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Sical Logistics Ltd. Addl. CIT (2010) 34 DTR 350 / 128 TTJ 361 / 127 ITD 187 / 2 ITR 786 (TM)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Direction by Jt. CIT – Revision possible [S. 144A]

As per Explanation to section 263(1), the power of revision extends to the assessment orders passed on basis of directions issued by Joint Commissioner under section 144A.

Viswams v. ACIT (2010) 186 Taxman 25 (Mag.)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Issue Debatable – One of the Possible views – Revision not possible

The issue whether the expenditure is capital or revenue in nature is always a debatable issue and the Assessing Officer follows one of the possible views then the CIT has no jurisdiction to revise the assessment under section 263. (A.Y. 2003-04)
Flextronic Software System Ltd. v. CIT (2010) 128 TTJ 107 / (2009) 28 SOT 371 / 24 DTR 551 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Judicial view – Not erroneous

Order passed by Assessing Officer in accordance with law, judicial pronouncements and after considering relevant replies duly supported by evidence can not be branded as erroneous, merely because Commissioner is of other view or in his opinion order passed is weak and not a detailed order. (A. Y. 2005-06)

Allied Engineers v. CIT (2009) 180 Taxman 70 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Prejudicial order – Inquiry by Assessing Officer

Assessing Officer having taken a plausible view after investigation and proper enquiry, CIT cannot invoke revisionary power just to substitute his own view; assessment order cannot become erroneous where queries raised during the assessment proceedings are not recorded in final assessment order. (A.Y. 2004-05)

V. B. Construction (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2009) 28 DTR 84 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of inquiry – Statement of Assessee

Commissioner can regard order as erroneous on the ground that in circumstances of case Assessing officer should have made further enquiries before accepting statement made by the assessee. (A.Y. 1981-82)

Rajalakshmi Mills Ltd. v. ITO (2009) 121 ITD 343 / 123 TTJ 721 / 31 SOT 353 / 25 DTR 258 (SB)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – On issue not mentioned in show cause notice – Scope

In revision proceedings, Commissioner can not travel beyond reasons given by him for revision in show cause notice. Revision is not like reopening of assessment, entire assessment is not opened before the Assessing Officer. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Geometric Software Solutions Co. Ltd. v. ACIT (2009) 32 SOT 428 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Editorial :- Also see CIT v. Contimeters Electricals Works P. Ltd. (2009) 22 DTR 158 / 224 366 / 317 ITR 249 / 178 Taxman 422 (Delhi)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Book profit – Possible view [S. 115JB]

Held, that when Assessing Officer has taken a view, which is in tune with other decisions, and a possible view, then merely because the Commissioner does not agree with the view of Assessing Officer, the action of Commissioner under section 263 is unjustified.

Saluja Fabrics v. Dy. CIT (2009) 181 Taxman 132 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Additional reasons – Scope

An order under section 263 cannot be passed for giving additional reasons or substituting reasons by a higher authority to support the same case. (A. Y. 2001-02) Manisha R. Chheda v. ITO, ITA No. 5961/Mum/2004, Bench – B, dt. 17-8-2007 - BCAJ P. 17, Vol. 40-A, Part 1, April 2008. (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Reasonable view – Twin Condition

It was held that if a reasonable view has been adopted by an Assessing Officer, then order passed by Commissioner under section 263, disturbing that view is liable to be set aside.

The Commissioner gets revisional power under section 263 where assessment order is erroneous and prejudicial to the interest of revenue. The twin conditions are required to be satisfied simultaneously.

J. K. Construction Co. v. ITO (2007) 162 Taxman 46 (Mag.)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Satisfaction of Assessing Officer – Deduction [S. 80HHC]

If Assessing Officer allows the claim, on being satisfied with the explanation of assessee, on an enquiry made during the course of Assessment Proceedings, the decision of Assessing Officer cannot be held to be erroneous, on ground that there is no elaborate discussion in that regard in the order. It is the practice that whenever any claim of the assessee is accepted, Assessing Officer may not discuss the same in his order.

Anil Shah v. ACIT (2007) 162 Taxman 39 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of proper inquiry – Purchases and sale of goods

Assessing Officer having fully verified the purchases / sales of goods, it could not be said that the Assessing Officer has not applied his mind to the relevant material and therefore, the order of Assessing Officer cannot be said to be erroneous and could not be revised by the CIT under section 263. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Pawan Kumar v. Assessing Officer (2007) 106 TTJ 494 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Merger – Appellate order

CIT was not justified in assuming jurisdiction under section 263 in respect of matters which were already considered and decided in appeal by CIT(A). (A.Y. 1998-99)

Sadhu Ram & Sons v. CIT & Anr. (2007) 108 TTJ 373 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision – Possible view – Scope

A possible view taken by Assessing Officer could not be unsettled by CIT in his revisional jurisdiction. (A.Ys. 1996-97, 1997-98)

Indian Shaving Products Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2007) 108 TTJ 1004 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Two view – Erroneous order

Where two views are possible the order of the Assessing Officer cannot be treated as an erroneous insofar as it is prejudicial to the interest of the Revenue. (A.Ys. 2001-02, 2002-03)

Ajit Gupta v. ITO (2007) 108 TTJ 301 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Loss of revenue – Prejudicial to revenue

Every loss of revenue as a consequence of order of Assessing Officer cannot be treated as prejudicial to the interest of revenue.

Hero Briggs & Stratton Auto Ltd. v. CIT (2007) 161 Taxman 127 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Disagreement with Assessing Officer's view – Not Possible

Order passed by Assessing Officer cannot be treated as erroneous, unless view taken by Assessing Officer is unsustainable in law. Merely when Commissioner does not agree with the view of Assessing Officer, revision under section 263 can not be made.

Indian Shaving Products Ltd. v. ACIT (2007) 161 Taxman 166 (Mag.)(Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Insurance claim – Year of accrual

Mere filing of claim with insurance company by itself without its acceptance does not result in accrual of income and, therefore, the CIT was not justified in exercising power under section 263. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Rama Associates Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2007) 106 TTJ 448 / 12 SOT 207 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Insurance claim – Year of accrual

Order of Commissioner under section 263 was held to be set aside, when the proceedings under section 148 were still pending.

Ritz (P) Ltd. v. Jt. CIT 158 Taxman 168 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Limited scrutiny – Scope restricted [S. 143(2)(i)]

CIT was not justified in invoking jurisdiction under section 263 on issues other than those decided in limited scrutiny assessment under section 143(2)(i).

Gift Land Handicrafts v. CIT (2007) 108 TTJ 312 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Jurisdiction of CIT – KVSS declaration – Undeclared items

Under the KVSS, finality is assigned only to the matters which are subject matter of declaration by the assessee in relation to the disputed income and, therefore, jurisdiction of CIT under section 263 is not ousted vis-à-vis the matters which are totally unconnected with the disputed income for which assessee opted for the Scheme.

Bhilwara Spinners Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 838 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Possible view – DGPB – Deduction [S. 80HHC]

Once the assessment Order passed under section 143(3) after taking all necessary details and after discussing the case with the representative, it was held that the Commissioner is not justified in invoking the jurisdiction under section 263 on the basis of different view on the issue involved, and it cannot be said that order of Assessing Officer was erroneous and prejudicial to the interest of the revenue.

Crown Frozen Foods v. Addl. CIT (2006) 155 Taxman 86 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Erroneous order – Findings by Assessing Officer – Invalid

Where two views are possible and ITO has taken one view which is permissible in law and with which Commissioner does not agree, said order cannot be treated as erroneous order prejudicial to interest of revenue, and order of Commissioner interfering with findings of Assessing Officer by exercising his powers under section 263 was held invalid.

Hari Singh & Associates (AOP) v. ITO (2006) 154 Taxman 109 (Mag.)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Guess work – Elaborate order

The error envisaged by section 263 is not one that depends on possibility or guess work, but it should actually be an error either of fact or of law. Merely on the ground that the order was not passed elaborately, it could not be said that order of Assessing Officer is erroneous and prejudicial to the interest of the revenue and needs to be set aside.

ACIT v. Technip Italy Spa (2006) 150 Taxman 13 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Reason for revision – Material evidence

CIT having passed the impugned order under section 263 without giving any reason or indicating any material evidence in his possession the precondition for invoking s. 263 was not satisfied and order of CIT was liable to be quashed. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Sayaji Salunkhe v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 1222 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Stock of gold – Survey

Stock of gold found with the assessee at the time of survey having been correctly valued at the rate prevailing on that day, CIT was not justified in initiating proceedings under s. 263 on the ground that there was under valuation of stock by relying on the rate taken by assessee for valuing the closing stock. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Royale Sunrise v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 1305 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Details and explanations – Examination

Assessing Officer having called for the details and explanations with regard to the claim for full deduction of expenses shown as deferred revenue expenses during the assessment proceedings and allowed the same after verifying the details, his assessment order cannot be said to be erroneous and prejudicial to the interest of the Revenue. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Charak Pharmaceuticals v. Jt. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 1217 / (2005) 4 SOT 393 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Invalid return – Twin condition

Order of Assessing Officer allowing legitimate claim of assessee though made on an invalid return cannot be termed as erroneous and prejudicial to the interests of the revenue, hence not amenable to revisional jurisdiction of Assessing Officer. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Shervani Industrial Syndicate Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 123 (All.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Inquiry under section 133A – Statement

In the absence of any material to prove that the income disclosed by the assessee in his statement under section 133A(3) which was later retracted by him was actually earned, the order passed by Assessing Officer under section 143(3), without adding such income cannot be said to be erroneous or prejudicial to the interest of revenue. (A.Ys. 1993-94, 1994-95)

Ashok Manilal Thakkar v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 1262 / 97 ITD 361 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Revenue expenditure – Findings of commissioner

CIT was not justified in passing order under section 263 on the ground that the Assessing Officer allowed deduction for the same as revenue expenditure, moreso when the CIT himself could not come to a definite finding that the said expenditure was a capital expenditure. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Sunbeam Auto Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 209 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Deferred revenue expenditure – Inquiry

Expenditure shown as deferred revenue expenditure in the accounts allowed in full after due inquiry. The Assessing Officer action was proper and revision held to be bad in law. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Charak Pharmaceuticals v. Jt. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 1217 (AT) / (2005) 4 SOT 393 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of inquiry by Assessing Officer – Erroneous order

Acceptance of explanation of the assessee without any enquiry renders the order erroneous as well as prejudicial to the interest of Revenue, and therefore revision under section 263 was justified. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Ambika Agro Suppliers v. ITO (2006) 100 TTJ 405 / 95 ITD 326 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Dies – Write off – Not a capital expenditure

Expenses on replacement of worn out dies which admittedly had a life-span of approximately one year cannot be treated as capital expenditure and therefore, CIT was not justified in passing order under S. 263. (A.Y. 20001-02)

Sunbeam Auto Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 209 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of proper inquiry – Failure

Acceptance of explanation of the assessee without any enquiry renders the order erroneous as well as prejudicial to the interest of Revenue, and therefore revision under section 263 was justified. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Ambika Agro Suppliers v. ITO (2006) 100 TTJ 405 / 95 ITD 326 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of proper Inquiry – Debtors

The Assessing Officer having accepted the case of the assessee without any further inquiry as to whether the debtors had any trading relationship with the assessee or not, the assessment order was erroneous and prejudicial to the interest of the Revenue. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Super Cloth v. ACIT (2006) 100 TTJ 944 / 99 ITD 300 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Defects in order of Assessing Officer – Specification

Proceedings initiated under section 263 by Commissioner holding that order passed was a non-speaking or erroneous, and therefore prejudicial to the interest of the revenue, without mentioning any specific defects or basis in such order, is not justified.

Modern Feed Industries v. ITO (2006) 152 Taxman 45 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Original order void – Scope of revision

As the order of the Assessing Officer passed under section 147 / 143(3) was itself void, the order of CIT passed under section 263 for quashing this order was without jurisdiction. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Inder Kumar Bachani (HUF) v. ITO (2006) 101 TTJ 450 / 99 ITD 621 (Luck.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Compensation – Termination of Agreement

Assessing Officer having accepted the claim of the assessee company that the amount received by it from a US company as compensation for the termination of project contracts was a capital receipt without examining the relevant agreement which were relevant and material to ascertain the exact nature of the amount received by the assessee, his order was erroneous as well as prejudicial to the interest of the Revenue. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Shyam Telelink Ltd. v. ITO (2006) 101 TTJ 387 / 99 ITD 576 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Capital gains – Dissolution

Assessing Officer having accepted long term capital gains returned by assessee in respect of depreciable asset without applying the provisions of s. 45(4) r. w. s. 50(1), order of Assessing Officer suffered from non-application of mind making the order erroneous and prejudicial to interests of Revenue. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Kiranjit Singh v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 424 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Erroneous and prejudicial order – Credit for tax paid

Assessing Officer having given credit for tax paid by assessee it cannot be said that the Assessing Officer had allowed the credit without verifying the claim and, therefore, the order of the Assessing Officer could not be revised under section 263. (A.Ys. 1994-95 to 1996-97)

Infosys Technologies Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2006) 105 TTJ 802 / 103 ITD 399 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Consistent view – Erroneous order

View taken by Assessing Officer being plausible and consistent with the view taken by CIT(A) and for another year in assessee's own case, the order was not amenable to revisional jurisdiction of CIT. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Oil & Natural Gas Corporation Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 104 TTJ 900 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Order of Assessing Officer as per law – Twin condition

Once the regular assessment accorded fully with the provisions of law on all issues on which the revision under section 263 was considered necessary, the order of Commissioner cannot be sustained, on ground that order of Assessing Officer is erroneous and prejudicial to revenue.

Amit Vegetable Oils Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 158 Taxman 36 (Mag.)(All.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Stock records – Detail to Bank

The Assessing Officer on verification of the assessee's stock record, found it to include the customer's goods accepted by it against order(s) received in the regular course of its business. The assessee, however, while submitting the figures of its stock to the bankers, from whom overdraft facility against stock stood enjoyed, reported a higher borrowing capacity to its bank. The Tribunal held that there was sufficient discharge of onus by the assessee and there was no incorrect appreciation of facts by the Assessing Officer and therefore, the revisionary jurisdiction of the CIT was not in accordance with the law. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Shree Mukta Jewellers v. ITO, ITA No. 948/Ahd/2003, dated 30th August, 2006 – Ahmedabad Chartered Accountants Journal, October 2006, P. 387 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision – Limitation – Date of original order – Appeal effect order

Limitation prescribed in section 263(2) has to be reckoned from the date of original order of assessment and not from the date of order giving effect to the appellate order of the CIT(A). (A.Ys. 1994-95, 1996-97)

Infosys Technologies Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2006) 105 TTJ 802 / 103 ITD 399 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Possible view – Twin condition

If view expressed by Assessing Officer in assessment order is a possible view because majority of Tribunal Benches have taken same view, Commissioner would not be justified in treating Assessing Officers order as erroneous and prejudicial to interest of revenue. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Nahar Exports Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 92 ITD 484 / 93 TTJ 186 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Non existing order – Waiver of interest

There cannot be revision of a non-existing order and where there is no order either for levy or waiver of interest under section 158BFA(I) or section 234A, 234B or 234C of Act in existence, Commissioner can have no jurisdiction to invoke provisions of section 263 for directing Assessing Officer to charge interest under section 158BFA(1).

Anand Kumar Agarwal (HUF) v. ACIT (2005) 92 TTJ 81 (Agra)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – View of Assessing officer is in conformity with decision of Jurisdictional High Court – Appeal to Supreme Court

Even though view of Assessing Officer is in conformity with decision of jurisdictional High Court or any other High Court, Commissioner is entitled to invoke jurisdiction under section 263 subject to condition that view of jurisdictional High Court is subject-matter of an appeal before Supreme Court. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Hindustan Tin Works Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 92 ITD 101 / 92 TTJ 828 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Reference pending in High Court – Power to give effect

Where order of Commissioner under section 263 cancelling original assessment was cancelled by Tribunal and department's reference application was pending before High Court, Assessing Officer had no jurisdiction to make second assessment in pursuance of a non-existing order under section 263.

ITO v. Garg Enterprises (2005) 142 Taxman 42 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Subject matter of original assessment – Scope of set aside assessment

Despite fact that Commissioner under section 263 has set aside whole assessment, it cannot be considered that Commissioner has also set aside that part of order which is not erroneous and prejudicial to interest of revenue or has also set aside those additions which have attained finality; therefore, in set aside assessment made by Assessing Officer under section 143(3)/263, neither assessee is allowed to challenge those additions which have attained finality nor revenue is permitted to make any other addition which was not subject matter of original assessment. (A.Y. 1998-99)

ITO v. Uma Kant Newatia (2005) 97 ITD 414 / 99 TTJ 376 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Proviso to section 14A – Power

Since Assessing Officer has no power to reopen or to change or to increase or decrease liability of assessee on basis of section 14A (in respect of assessment year beginning on or before 1-4-2001), in view of introduction of proviso to section 14A inserted by Finance Act, 2002 with effect from 11-5-2001, Commissioner under section 263 has also no such power. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Paul John, Delicious Cashew Co. v. ITO (2005) 94 ITD 131 / 98 TTJ 440 / 1 SOT 889 (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Order – Meaning – Communication under section 195(2)

An 'order' open to revision under section 263 can be an order in any proceedings under Act and not necessarily an order in assessment proceedings alone; any communication by Assessing Officer under section 195(2) that disposes of application made under section 195(1) and determines liability towards tax to be deducted at source in accordance with provisions of section 195(2), is an order not only for purposes of section 195(2) but also for purposes of section 263. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Board of Control for Cricket in India v. DIT (Exemption) (2005) 96 ITD 263 / 97 TTJ 751 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Opportunity of Hearing – Less than a day

Granting an opportunity to comply with query raised in a proceeding under section 263 within less than a day, cannot under any stretch of imagination, be held to be a reasonable opportunity of hearing. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Peerless General Finance & Investment Co. Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 96 TTJ 834 / 5 SOT 17 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Doctrine of Merger – Findings of Commissioner (Appeals) [S. 80HHC]

Where computation of deduction under section 80HHC was subject-matter of appeal before Commissioner (Appeals) who had given some findings on computation of deduction under section 80HHC, assessment order had merged with order of Commissioner (Appeals) and Commissioner could not exercise powers under section 263 to direct Assessing Officer to recompute assessee's income by disallowing deduction under section 80HHC. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Sonal Garments v. Jt. CIT (2005) 95 ITD 363 / 98 TTJ 1020 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Loss of tax to revenue – Condition

There should be an incorrect assumption of facts or an incorrect application of law by Assessing Officer to bring order of Assessing Officer within category of it being erroneous under section 263; similarly, to qualify an assessment order as an order being 'prejudicial to the interest of revenue', order should cause lawful loss of tax to revenue. (A.Ys. 1993-94, 1994-95)

Ashok Manilal Thakkar v. ACIT (2005) 97 ITD 361 / 99 TTJ 1262 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Inadequate inquiry – Validity of order

When Assessing Officer is expected to make an inquiry of a particular item of income and he does not make an inquiry as expected, that would be a ground for Commissioner to interfere with order passed by Assessing Officer since such an order passed by him is erroneous and prejudicial to interest of revenue

Anil Kumar v. ACIT (2005) 147 Taxman 5 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Inquiry – Adequacy

Merely because from a perfectionist point of view it is felt that some more enquiries and verifications could have been made by Assessing Officer while making assessment/assessment order cannot be declared to be erroneous and prejudicial to interest of revenue. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Salora International Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 705 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Cryptic – No presumption

Assessment order, which has been subject-matter of proceedings under section 263 may be a cryptic one, but that itself does not render assessment order to be erroneous and prejudicial to interest of revenue. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Brij Bhushan Agarwal v. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 811 (Agra)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Acceptance of explanation without Inquiry – Erroneous and prejudicial order

Acceptance of explanation of assessee without any enquiry renders order erroneous as well as prejudicial to interests of revenue. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Ambika Agro Suppliers v. ITO (2005) 95 ITD 326 / 100 TTJ 405 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Examination of material – Scope

Where assessee had filed return declaring a reasonable income and, after examining relevant material Assessing Officer had assessed assessee at a particular income which was income on which assessee was liable to tax lawfully, after considering all materials and applying his mind, Assessing Officer having considered all materials, her order could not be said to be erroneous and prejudicial to interests of revenue on ground that Assessing Officer had almost accepted book results by making petty additions. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Shaileshbhai Shah v. ACIT (2005) 98 TTJ 154 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Explanation – Mind applied by Assessing Officer

Where from a perusal of written submissions before Commissioner in respect of show-cause notice under section 263, it was seen that assessee had fully explained various issues which were raised by Commissioner in notice under section 263 and same had also been fully examined by Assessing Officer before completing assessment, Assessing Officer having taken possible view in matter, order passed by him could not be considered to be erroneous or prejudicial to interests of Revenue. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Indo Lahari Bio Power Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 96 TTJ 985 (Nagpur)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Order in the name of individuals – Partners – HUF

Orders passed under section 263 in names of partners of a firm as individuals while they represented their HUFs in firm, were bad in law.

Anand Kumar Agarwal (HUF) v. ACIT (2005) 92 TTJ 81 (Agra)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – NBFC – Deduction of interest – Bonus to Depositors.

Where assessee-NBFC running deposit schemes claimed deduction of a sum of ` 657 crores on account of interest and bonus payable to depositors which was allowed by Assessing Officer and Commissioner alleged that since assessee had not credited said sum against each individual certificate-holder, said sum did not qualify as deduction while computing taxable profits and set aside assessment order in which such liability had been allowed as deduction, Commissioner was not justified in treating assessment order as erroneous and prejudicial to interest of revenue. (A.Y. 2000-01) Peerless General Finance & Investment Co. Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 96 TTJ 834 / 5 SOT 17 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Mercantile system of accounting – Provision for warranty

If deduction of provision for warranty expenses, made on estimate basis by assessee following mercantile system of accounting, is allowed, that would not make assessment order erroneous merely because actual expenditure on maintenance was incurred in following year.

Hamilton Research & Technology (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 142 Taxman 79 (Mag.)(Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Long term capital gains – Exemption under section 54F

Where Assessing Officer after considering the document in detail and after making proper inquiries and verification came to conclusion that transactions in which assessee was involved were genuine transactions and he accepted long term capital gains shown by the assessee and also allowed exemption under section 54F and Commissioner set aside order, simply on the basis of assumption that the assessee adopted a colourful device to generate funds through dubious sale/purchase of shares without paying a single penny as income-tax, Commissioner was not justified in setting aside assessment order. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1999-2000)

Pargat Singh v. ITO (2005) 95 TTJ 295 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Deduction – Export [S. 80HHC]

Where a specific query was raised by Assessing Officer on question of deduction under section 80HHC and Assessing Officer being satisfied with said explanation of assessee, allowed claim, it could not be said that issue in question was not properly examined by Assessing Officer or there was no application of mind by him so as to treat assessment order as erroneous and prejudicial to interests of revenue. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Eureka Sales Corpn. v. ACIT (2005) 1 SOT 490 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Trading activity – Exclusion from benefit [S. 80IA]

Where while allowing deduction under section 80-IA Assessing Officer did not exclude profit earned by assessee from trading activity, fact that there was total non-application of mind on part of the Assessing Officer to said important issue rendered his order erroneous and prejudicial to interest of revenue and, therefore, Commissioner had rightly invoked his jurisdiction under section 263. (A.Y. 1995-96) Recon Oil Industries Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2005) 2 SOT 732 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Valuation of stock Consistent method – Acceptance in earlier year

Where Assessing Officer had duly accepted valuation of stock which was based on method regularly followed by assessee, method was one of well recognized methods of valuation of closing stock and said method was alone accepted in earlier years, even if such order of Assessing Officer could be held to be prejudicial to interests of revenue, it could not be said to be erroneous. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Metallizing Equipment v. Jt. CIT (2005) 96 TTJ 827 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Deduction at source – Jurisdiction

Where Commissioner had alleged in order passed under section 263 that Assessing Officer had failed to examine whether tax had been deducted at source by assessee on payments made to certificate-holders, who had made deposits under various deposit schemes with assessee, as examination of such matter did not fall within jurisdiction of the Assessing Officer and Commissioner, revision of assessment order on that ground was not justified. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Peerless General Finance & Investment Co. Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 96 TTJ 834 / 5 SOT 17 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Show-cause notice – Order contrary to notice

Show-cause issued must indicate the material and reasons and order under section 263 should not be contrary to the existing material and reasons for revision. No new case can be set out by the CIT or by the Department Representative. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1989-90)

Shyam Biri Works (P) LTD. v. ACIT (2003) 84 ITD 124 / 79 TTJ 634 (All.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Power to revision – KVSS

It is open to the CIT within his jurisdictional power to revise original order which was not covered by rectification or settlement under KVSS. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Siddhartha Tubes Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 85 ITD 316 / (2004) 86 TTJ 820 (Indore)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Meaning of error – Fact or law – Actual not possible

Error envisaged in Sec 263 is the actual error either of fact or of the law, and not one which depends on possibility.

Pratap Footwear v. ACIT (2003) SOT 638 (Jab.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Prejudice – Meaning explained

'Prejudice' contemplated under section 263 is prejudice to the income tax administration as a whole.

Pratap Footwear v. ACIT (2003) SOT 638 (Jab.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Speaking Order – Need for

Commissioner must pass a speaking Order. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Jewel of India v. ACIT (2003) 87 ITD 527 / 86 TTJ 201 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Erroneous Order – Material on record

Whether an Order is erroneous insofar as it is prejudicial to the interest of revenue must be based on material on record of the proceedings called for by him.

Pratap Footwear v. ACIT (2003) SOT 638 (Jab.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Finding of Commissioner – Error of Assessing officer

Revisional jurisdiction cannot be exercised when there is no finding that order of assessing officer is prejudicial, and for the reason that the assessing officer adopted a view different from commissioner's view.

Sunil Lamba v. Dy. CIT (2003) 131 Taxman 35 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of desired inquiry – Not erroneous [S. 143(3)]

Assessment framed under section 143(3) cannot be revised on ground that desired inquiry was not made.

Amrik Singh v. ITO (2003) 127 Taxman 87 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Lack of desired inquiry – Not erroneous [S. 143(3)]

Assessment framed under section 143(3) cannot be revised on ground that desired inquiry was not made.

Baljees v. ACIT (2003) 127 Taxman 150 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 263 : Commissioner – Revision of orders prejudicial to revenue – Failure to initiate penalty proceedings – Scope

Non initiation of penalty proceedings cannot be ground for invoking jurisdiction under section 263. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Master Vijay R oswal v. ITO (2003) 87 ITD 98 / 87 TTJ 575 (Rajkot)(Trib.)

Ambica Chemical Products (Regd.) v. ACIT (2003) 86 ITD 1 / 82 TTJ 93 (Visakha)(Trib.)

Section 264 : Revision of other orders

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other order – Deduction at source – Lower rate of tax [S. 197]

The expression "order" for the purpose of section 264 has a wide connotation and include a determination by the assessing officer an application under section 197.

Where the assessee filed revision application against order of Assessing Officer rejecting application under section 197, the Commissioner was not justified in rejecting the application on the ground that revision was not maintainable. Commissioner was directed to pass the order within four weeks. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Larsen & Toubro Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 190 Taxman 373 / 38 DTR 361 / 235 CTR 108 / 326 ITR 514 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other order – Appeal – Condonation of Delay – Retrospective Effect – Exemption – Sikkimese [S. 10, 26AAA]

In matters giving benefit to assessee, Department must avoid pedantic approach. Amendment made retrospectively exempting the interest and dividend income of sikkimese, the Court held Commissioner should have condoned the delay in filing the application under section 264 and ought to have granted the relief. (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 2005-06)

Danny Denzongpa v. CIT (2010) 46 DTR 129 / 235 CTR 449 / 194 Taxman 415 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other order – Set aside assessment – Power of AO

Where the Commissioner exercising its revisional authority under section 264 of the Act, directed the Assessing Officer to adjudicate and examine a specific issues. However, the assessment was framed by the Assessing Officer on a higher income by assuming more powers than that of revisional authority. The action of the Assessing Officer was held patently illegal and without jurisdiction. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1999-2000)

N. Seetharaman v. CIT (2008) 6 DTR 238 / 216 CTR 238 / 298 ITR 210 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other order – Prejudicial to the interest of assessee – Revision not possible

No order prejudicial to the interest of the assessee can be passed under section 264 of the Act and any order passed on revision application under section 264, cannot be sustained to the extent it is adverse to the interest of the assessee. (A.Y. 1993-94) S. J. Sanghvi v. CIT & Anr. (2008) 10 DTR 98 / 219 CTR 138 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other order – Business expenditure – Effect of subsequent decision of Supreme Court

The learned CIT allowed the said claim but he dismissed the said petition on the ground that the ratio laid down by the Supreme Court, subsequent to the assessment of the assessee's case cannot be applied retrospectively.

Assessee filed writ before High Court who ultimately applied Supreme Court's judgment and held that as on the date of delivery of the apex court decision, the assessee's case was pending before CIT and hence ratio of apex court can be applied. Jayshree Tea and Industries Ltd. v. CIT (2007) 288 ITR 386 / 211 CTR 338 / 169 Taxman 6 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other order – Income cannot be taxed merely because shown in the return – No authority of law – Writ [S. 10(133)]

The assessee filed return for the A.Y. 1990-91, 1991-92 and 1993-94 including the annuity received on superannuation as income. The assessee filed application under section 264 seeking exemption under section 10[13][ii] on the said annuities. The same was rejected as the assessee himself has offered the same for tax. The Hon'ble court, on a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution, observed that Article 265 of the Constitution mandates that no person shall be taxed without the authority of law. Since in the present case there is no authority to tax annuities received by the petitioner, we consider it appropriate to exercise out extraordinary power to correct the injustice. (A.Ys. 1990-91, 1993-94)

S.D.S. Mongia v. C.B.D.T. (2007) 160 Taxman 101 / 211 CTR 357 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other order – Genuineness of creditors – Additions by CIT

The Assessing Officer and the CIT while exercising his jurisdiction under section 264 of the Income Tax Act 1961 concluded in their orders that the creditors appearing in the balance sheet are non-genuine on the basis of a alleged surrender made by the assessee. However, the High Court remanded the matter back to the Assessing Officer for verifying the genuineness of the creditors, as the said letter was non-existent on record, which fact was not examined by the CIT.

Siya Nand Gola v. CIT (2006) 190 Taxation 449 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other order – Over assessed due to assessee's own mistake or otherwise – Scope

Regardless of whether revised return is filed or not, once an assessee is in a position to show that assessee has been over-assessed under provisions of Act, regardless of whether over-assessment is as a result of assessee's own mistake or otherwise, Commissioner has power to correct such an assessment under section 264(1). (A.Y. 2001-02)

S.R. Koshti v. CIT (2005) 276 ITR 165 / 146 Taxman 335 / 193 CTR 518 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other orders – Agreed assessment – Scope of revision under section 264

Assessee's revision petition was rightly dismissed where assessment originally completed was an agreed assessment. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Vasant Gordhandas v. CIT (2005) 273 ITR 87 / 142 Taxman 33 / 195 CTR 415 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other order – Non-appealable order – Scope of revision under section 264 [S. 179]

Even if an order under section 179 is not appealable, it is revisable under section 264. Afzal Ahmah v. UOI (2004) 136 Taxman 201 (All.)(High Court)

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other order – Application for revision – Commissioner – Condonation – Delay due to appeal proceedings

Time taken for prosecuting appeal or other proceedings, bona fide constitutes sufficient cause for condonation of delay in filing revision petition. The delay condoned and directed the commissioner to decide on merits.

U.B. Distillery Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 269 ITR 558 / 152 Taxman 239 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 264 : Commissioner – Revision of other order – Appeal – Maintainability [S. 246A(1)(a)]

Appeal against fresh assessment order passed in pursuance of an order under section 264 is maintainable under section 246A(1)(a). (A.Y. 2002-03)

ACIT v. Kalyan Mitra Trust (2007) 106 TTJ 241 (Delhi)(Trib.)

CHAPTER XX-A
ACQUISITION OF IMMOVABLE PROPERTIES IN CERTAIN CASES OF TRANSFER TO COUNTERACT EVASION OF TAX

Section 269C : Immovable property in respect of which proceedings for acquisition may be taken

S. 269C : Acquisition of immovable property – Proceedings – Fair market value – Comparable Sale Instances – Reason to believe without any material – Proceeding held illegal

Competent authority having arrived at the fair market value of semi-commercial property in question on the basis of the consideration stated in the sale deed of a residential property and applying the popular perception that the rates of semi-commercial properties are almost twice as much as that of residential properties, without referring to or relying upon any supporting material in this behalf and without looking in to valuation report of the approved valuer as submitted by the purchaser the “reasons to believe” as recorded by the competent authority were manifestly wrong and baseless and therefore, initiation of proceedings for acquisition of the property was illegal. There has to be some material on the basis of which the competent Authority can have a ‘Reason to believe.

CIT v. Green Valley Agro Mills Ltd. (2010) 45 DTR 10 / 335 ITR 347 (Delhi)(High Court)

Section 269D : Preliminary notice

S. 269D : Acquisition of immovable property – Preliminary notice – Service of notice – Publication – Official Gazette

The service of notice prior to the publication in the official gazette is merely an irregularity committed during the course of the proceedings and cannot have the effect of nullifying the entire proceedings which are validly commenced by publication in the official gazette.

CIT v. Pearl Mech. Engg. & Foundry Works (P.) Ltd. (2004) 267 ITR 1 / 136 Taxman 586 / 188 CTR 289 / 181 Taxation 35 (SC)

S. 269D : Acquisition of immovable property – Preliminary notice – Purchase by Central Government – Validity of Notice

The show cause notice for purchase of immovable property was quashed by high court holding that the notice was vague as it neither disclose the reasons, thereof nor material considered by Appropriate Authority, in reaching the conclusion. The High Court relied in the decision in Sheyas Builders v. M. D. Kodnani, Laxman Ganesh Tulshibaughwala v. M. D. Kodnani (2002) 242 ITR 320 (Bom.) As the SLP against the said matters were dismissed, the appeal of department against the High Courts judgement was dismissed.

Appropriate Authority of Income Tax v. Jagdish Electronic India (P) Ltd. (2003) 264 ITR 468 / (2004) 186 CTR 90 (SC)

S. 269D : Acquisition of immovable property – Preliminary notice – Where consideration is less than 5 lakhs

The Central Board of Direct Taxes has issued Circular No. 455 on May 16, 1986, reported at [1986] 159 ITR (St.) 105 wherein it has been stated that the Board has decided that where the acquisition proceedings had been initiated by issue of notice under section 269D, the proceedings would be dropped if the apparent consideration of the immovable property was below ` 5 lakhs. The instant Court in CIT v. Export India Corporation (P.) Ltd. [1996] 219 ITR 461 has held that on the basis of the said circular, the proceedings have to be dropped even in cases where appeals were pending in the High Court.

Hindustan General Trading Co. (P.) Ltd. v. UOI (2005) 278 ITR 559 (P&H)(High Court)

CHAPTER XX-B

REQUIREMENT AS TO MODE OF ACCEPTANCE, PAYMENT OR REPAYMENT IN CERTAIN CASES TO COUNTERACT EVASION TO TAX

Section 269SS : Mode of taking or accepting certain loans and deposits

S. 269SS : Acceptance of loans and deposits – Mode – Refund in cash [S. 271D]

Provisions of section 269SS and 271D, are not applicable in case where assessee received back money from borrower in cash and not advanced money or accepted loan in cash. (A.Ys. 2004-05 to 2006-07)

Dy. CIT v. Ankush Rao Ingle (2010) 39 SOT 263 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 269SS : Acceptance of loans and deposits – Mode – Penalty – Bona fide belief – Genuineness

Money received by assessee co-operative society from its member/director and their relatives by way of deposits and loans given to them as part of its banking activities cannot be considered as “loan” or “deposit” so as to attract section 269SS or 269T, as the assessee is working on the concept of mutuality and its directors or members are not covered by the expression “any other person” occurring in section 269SS, more so when the assessing officer has accepted the genuineness of such deposits and the assessee was under bonafide belief the provisions of section 269SS and 269T are not applicable. (A.Ys. 2006-07 and 2007-08)

Citizen Co-operative Society Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2010) 41 DTR 305 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 269SS : Acceptance of loans and deposits – Mode – Current account – Meaning

Proceedings under sections 269SS and 271D are mandatory and if a default is created. Penalty is leviable. The assessee cannot take recourse of the argument that the transaction is genuine or no black money was introduced and hence penalty under section 271D is not leviable. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Kans Raj & Sons v. ITO (2005) 92 TTJ 931 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 269SS : Acceptance of loans and deposits – Mode – Share capital [S. 271D]

Where initial character of money received was accepted as towards share capital, said transaction would not come within scope of section 269SS. Provisions of section 271 D were not applicable. (A.Ys. 1995-96, 1996-97)

Sharad Holding Leasing (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 95 TTJ 336 / 89 TTJ 1125 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 269SS : Acceptance of loans and deposits – Mode – Meaning

Wife of the assessee sold a plot of land. She received out of the total consideration of to 5,00,000 to 2,60,000 in cash which was deposited in the bank account of assessee and utilized for purchase of land in the name of the son. The tribunal held that cannot be said that the wife has given a loan to assessee and hence, section 269SS and 271D cannot be made applicable.

Narotam Singh Mann v. ITO (2003) 90 TTJ 683 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

Section 269T : Mode of repayment of certain loans or deposits

S. 269T : Repayment of loans and deposits – Penalty [S. 271E]

Since word 'loan' had been introduced in amended section 269T for first time in year 2002 with effect from 1-6-2002, penalty under section 271E could not be levied in respect of assessment year 1990-91 for contravention of section 269T where amount refunded was loan amount. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. Motilal Subhodh Kumar Jain (2005) 277 ITR 524 / 145 Taxman 110 / 197 CTR 58 (MP)(High Court)

S. 269T : Repayment of loans and deposits – Meaning – Loan

Section 269T covers only deposit, and scope of term 'deposit' therein cannot be enlarged to include transaction of loan. Thus, in case of a deposit payable on demand, section 269 T can not be invoked. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1999-2000 up to 24th Feb. 1999)

ACIT v. Jai Bharat Fruit Co. Ltd. (2005) 4 SOT 445 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 269T : Repayment of loans and deposits – Amendment – 1-6-2002

Re-payment of loan in cash is not covered by Sec 269T prior to 1.6.2002.

Addl. CIT v. Prahati Baruah (Smt.) (2003) 133 Taxman 74 (Mag.)(Gau.)(Trib.)

CHAPTER XX-C

Purchase by Central Government of immovable properties in certain cases of transfer

Section 269U : Commencement of Chapter

S. 269U : Purchase by Central Government of immovable properties – Commencement of chapter – Sale instance – Notice

Appropriate authority acquired property under Chapter XXC on the basis of evidence that the property was undervalued, in the form of comparable sales in adjacent area. Upon writ filed by the assessee before the High Court, the High Court held that sales instance of adjacent property compared with were not at all comparable with the assessee case at all, as there was vast variance. Further, the High Court observed that condition as prescribed under section 269UG(1) of tendering the consideration to the transfers within the period of one month was also not complied with and hence the of the appropriate authority is payable to be quashed for this reason also.

Ashok Leyland Finance v. UOI & Ors. (2007) 200 Taxation 374 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 269U : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Commencement of chapter – Conditions precedent – Comparable cases – Encumbrance

The provisions of Chapter XX-C were introduced to prevent evasion of taxes by undervaluing the properties. Therefore, these would be applied only in case where there are materials to show that property has been undervalued to evade tax which is a primary proposition. In the present case the valuation of the property was made by the appropriate authority on the basis of some dissimilar properties without taking into consideration the fact of encumbrance by reason of conceivable tenants could not be accept as correct. Further the property was sold by public auction there was no attempt to and hence, provision of Chapter XXC not attracted.

Appropriate Authority v. Lytton Hotel (P.) Ltd. (2003) 130 Taxman 524 / 263 ITR 498 / 183 CTR 212 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 269U : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Commencement of chapter – Opportunity of hearing – Validity of notice

Where the notice under section 269UD came to be issued virtually at the fag end of the period of limitation, leaving a short period at the disposal of the petitioner to defend them selves, it could not be said to be reasonable opportunity afforded to the petitioner to defend them selves. Principles of natural justice are not embodied in law. However, that by itself would not mean that the authorities would be justified at their own whims to refuse such opportunity to the petitioner. Further, The notice issued should disclose all relevant documents giving details of the property, sale transaction relied on by the appropriate authority and other relevant details so as to give an appropriate opportunity to the petitioner to defend its case.

Prabhakar Manoharrao Deshpande v. Appropriate Authority (2003) 133 Taxman 448 / 186 CTR 270 / 266 ITR 292 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 269U : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Commencement of chapter – No-objection Certificate

On a statement being filed under section 269UC, the appropriate authority has two options available to it, namely; either to purchase the property by exercising the right to preemptive purchase by making an order under section 269UD or (ii) if it is not inclined to purchase the property, to issue a "no objection certificate". It has no third option. It can not go into the question of validity of the agreement to transfer the property or the legality of the transaction or the title of the vendor.

K. L. Suneja v. UOI (2003) 133 Taxman 77 / 184 CTR 86 / 266 ITR 204 (Delhi)(High Court)

Section 269UA : Definitions

S. 269UA : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Definitions –Valuation of property – Apparent consideration – Principle of discounting

Principle of discounting under section 269UA cannot be applied where payment made by the appropriate authority is subsequent to the date of payment prescribed in the agreement for payment.

Mukund L. Vora v. UOI (2004) 136 Taxman 294 / 267 ITR 231 / 189 CTR 62 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 269UA(f)(i) : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Definitions –Lease for 9 years – Renewable at the option for a further period of 9 years

Lease for 9 years renewable at option of lessee for a further period of 9 years, amounts to lease for more than 12 years. Parties obliged to submit Form No. 37-I, within 15 days of draft agreement.

Govind Impex P. Ltd & Others v. Appropriate Authority (2011) 330 ITR 10 / 1 SSC 529 / 236 CTR 449 / 196 Taxman 425 / 48 DTR 169 / (2011) Tax L. R. 1 (SC)

Section 269UC : Restriction on transfer of immovable property

S. 269UC : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Restrictions on transfer – Undervaluation by more than 15% – Powers [S. 269UD]

It is no doubt true that provisions of Chapter XX-C of the Income-tax Act do not confer an unfettered discretion on the appropriate authorities. However, the appropriate authority can always exercise powers conferred on them under Chapter XX-C whenever there is a significant undervaluation of the concerned property by 15 per cent or more and order pre-emptive purchase of such property under section 269UD(1). Therefore there is no merit in the contention that power under section 269UD can be exercised only when authority records satisfaction that value of the property in question has been understated with a view to "evade tax".

Vidarbha Engineering Industries v. UOI (2004) 271 ITR 229 / 199 CTR 27 / 144 Taxman 270 (Bom.)(High Court)

Section 269UD : Order by appropriate authority for purchase by Central Government of immovable property

S. 269UD : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Order – Interest

The appropriate authority passed an order under section 269UD of the Income Tax Act 1961, for the compulsory purchase of certain property and took possession of the property and paid the purchase price to the owners. The owners filed the writ petition challenging the purchase order. Single judge of the High court set aside the purchase order and directed the owners to return the money paid by the appropriate authority with 15% interest. But the division Bench of High Court on appeal by the owners set aside the direction of the single judge for payment of interest (2000) 242 ITR 652 (Mad.). The appropriate authority preferred an appeal to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court set aside the decision of the Division Bench in so far as it did away with the grant of interest and directed payment of interest at a reduced rate of 7½ percent.

Appropriate Authority v. R. Shannuganathan (Decd. by LRS) & Others (2006) 287 ITR 558 / (2007) 198 Taxation 373 / 207 CTR 649 / 158 Taxman 370 (SC)

S. 269UD : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Order – Failure to tender amount of apparent consideration – Order Abrogated

Failure of Central Government to tender amount of apparent consideration within time fixed by statute, order of purchase by Central Government abrogated.

UOI v. A. K. Garg (Dr.) and Others (2002) 256 ITR 660 / (2003) 179 CTR 306 / 124 Taxman 315 (SC)

S. 269UD : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Order – Sales instances not considered – Margin of 15% – Order set aside [S. 269UL]

Since the sale instances cited by the Petitioners had not been taken into account in a proper perspective, it means that the authority failed to arrive at a fair market value. More so, considering the fair market value arrived at by the authority, the transactions fell within the prescribed limit of 15 per cent and, hence, the orders were not sustainable.

Harish Kanayalal Thawani & Others v. SCP & Others (2009) 318 ITR 137 (Bom.) (High Court)

S. 269UD : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Order – Fair market value not determined – Sales instances not comparable

The order under section 269UD was passed by the Appropriate Authority for acquiring an immovable property merely relying upon the sale instance which were neither comparable nor the assessee was given the documents of sales instance relied upon by the Appropriate Authority. Further, the Appropriate Authority had not even given any show cause notice to the assessee of its intention to purchase the immovable property. On these facts the High Court held that the order of acquisition of immovable property was in violation of the principle of natural justice and the same was not sustainable.

Geeta Navin Shah & Ors. v. Appropriate Authority & Ors. (2008) 13 DTR 53 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 269UD : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Order – Fair market value not determined

Failure to file relevant particulars of sale instances relied on by the revenue constituted a breach of the principles of natural justice. Moreover, the order had been passed without determining the fair market value of the property. Therefore the order passed under section 269UD(1) of the Act, had to be set aside.

Shrikishan Jindal & Others v. S.K. Laul and Others (2008) 305 ITR 353 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 269UD : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Order – Finding of receipt

When there is no finding that the consideration received is allegedly less than the fair market value and some of the sale instances relied upon were found to be not comparable, the impugned order was liable to be quashed and set aside.

Gobardhandas Odhavji Dhakan & Anr. v. Appropriate Authority (2008) 214 CTR 114 / 304 ITR 168 / 165 Taxman 482 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 269UD : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Order – Opportunity of hearing – Fair market value not determined

The Fair Market Value of the property in question was not determined by the Appropriate Authority and the sales instances relied upon by the revenue authorities were not supplied to the seller, despite specific request by the seller. The High Court held that the impugned order under section 269 UD of the Act was not sustainable.

Inter Equipments (India) P. Ltd. v. Appropriate Authority & Ors. (2008) 11 DTR 286 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 269UD : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Order – Principle of natural justice – Instance of comparable cases

Notice must give instances of comparable sales. No data regarding comparable sales in the said notice held the order of pre-emptive purchase not valid.

Jai Nadershah Karani v. CIT (2007) 290 ITR 594 / 208 CTR 287 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 269UD : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Order – Fair Market Value – Date of agreement – Objective standards

The valuation has to be made as on the date of the agreement and after taking into 'account all the advantages and disadvantages then existing. The measure with reference to which the value is to be tested is the market value. However, the Act 'does not define 'market value'. It does not lay down the guidelines as to how to arrive at the market value. Any such determination must be by adopting fair and objective standard, and that fairness and objectivity should be evident from the order that the authority makes. A very large plot of land may not always fetch a value per sq. ft. which a smaller plot may fetch. The disputed file of the vendor is a material consideration in the issue. Appropriate authority not considering these issues, the matter remanded back.

T. Amudha v. Appropriate Authority (2004) 269 ITR 501 / 141 Taxman 512 / 192 CTR 087 (Mad.)(High Court)

Section 269UE : Vesting of property in Central Government

S. 269UE : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Vesting of property – Opportunity of Hearing – Satisfaction of Authority – Period of Limitation

The requirement of hearing the parties as mandated by C. B. Gautam's case will not apply in cases where the property has already been sold by public auction before the decision of the Court. Further in the present case there was no challenge by the owner of property.

Krishnaswamy S. Pd. & Anr. v. UOI (2006) 6 RC 228 / 281 ITR 305 / 201 CTR 183 / 151 Taxman 286 / 193 Taxation 194 (SC)

S. 269UE : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Vesting of property – Opportunity of hearing

Where first statement filed in form no 37-I is found to be defective and a fresh statement is filed, it would give rise to a fresh period of limitation and it would be open for the appropriate authority to act upon fresh statement and pass an order under section 269UD(1), with in a period of 2 months of receipt of fresh statement.

Hans Raj Agarwal & Another v. CCIT (2003) 259 ITR 265 / 126 Taxman 603 / 179 CTR 89 / 174 Taxation 221 (SC)

Section 269UH : Re-vesting of property in the transferor on failure of payment or deposit of consideration

S. 269UH : Purchase by Central Government of immoveable properties – Re-vesting of property – Failure to pay

The right to purchase exercised by the Central Govt. stood abrogated with the failure on the part of the department to pay the amount of apparent consideration. The High Court quashed the impugned order and declared that the property in question should re-vest with the assessee in accordance with the provisions of S.269 UH of the Act.

Parasurampur Estate Dev. P. Ltd. v. S.C. Prasad (2006) 284 ITR 607 (Bom.)(High Court)

Section 271 : Failure to furnish returns, comply with notices, concealment of income, etc.

S. 271 : Penalty – Show cause notice – Revival of proceedings – Writ – Jurisdiction [S. 274]

In a writ petition assessee challenged show cause notice issued for reviving penalty proceedings which was dropped earlier. The High Court held that where the issue of jurisdiction of fact was involved, the High Court should not exercise its writ jurisdictional power because such jurisdictional fact can be raised at first instance before competent authority. High Court accordingly directed assessee to move Assessing Officer in penalty proceedings. Apex Court held that High Court was justified. Matter remanded to Assessing Officer in terms of Judgment in case of CIT v. Elli Lilly & Co. (India) (P) Ltd. (2009) 312 ITR 225 / 178 Taxman 505 / 223 CTR 20 (SC).

Mitsubishi Corporation v. Jt. CIT (2010) 190 Taxman 88 / 230 CTR 16 / 35 DTR 158 (SC)

S. 271(1) : Penalty – Recording of satisfaction – Nature of amendment – Substantive

Amendment of section 271(1) of Act by Finance Act w.e.f. 1-6-2002 which empower the CIT to record the satisfaction is not clarificatory.

CIT v. Parmanand M. Patel 2007 TLR 726 / (2005) 278 ITR 3 / 198 CTR 641 / 149 Taxman 403 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(a) : Penalty – Failure to furnish returns – Delay – Interest

Where a return is filed under section 139(4), both beyond the time allowed and beyond the extended period allowed to him, penalty under section 271(1)(a) is leviable notwithstanding that interest has been charged for the delay. (A.Ys. 1959-60 to 1965-66)

Amin Chand Pyare Lal v. IACIT (2006) 285 ITR 546 / 155 Taxman 633 / 204 CTR 585 / 7 SCC 483 / (2007) 196 Taxation 383 (SC)

S. 271(1)(a) : Penalty – Failure to furnish returns – Minimum penalty – Power of tribunal

The Tribunal is not competent to reduce quantum of penalty below minimum prescribed in section 271(1)(a). (A.Y. 1948-49)

CIT v. Raja Sharda Narain Singh (2005) 272 ITR 374 / 142 Taxman 574 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(a) : Penalty – Failure to furnish – Delay – Below taxable limit – Reasonable cause

Assessee's belief that his income is below the taxable limit constitutes a reasonable cause for non-furnishing of return and, therefore penalty under section 271(1)(a)

cannot be imposed in such case merely on the basis that the income estimated by the Assessing Officer was more than the exempt income. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Mansukh Dass Soni v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 894 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(b) : Penalty – Failure to comply with notices – Show cause for each defaulter

For each default of non-compliance of Notice under section 143(2) show cause notice has to be issued separately for levying penalty under section 271(1)(b).

Proper procedure for levy of penalty should be followed and penalty in general without pointing out non-compliance of any specific notice could not be sustained.

Show cause notice and penalty order without referring to specific notice regarding which default was committed cannot be sustained.

Babu Lal v. Deputy Comm. (Asstt.) Special Range (2006) 155 Taxman 37 (Mag.)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(b) : Penalty – Failure to comply with notices – Reasonable cause

When Assessing Officer chose not to pass best judgment assessment under section 144 on date on which non-compliance by assessee was alleged, and particularly when assessee had sought adjournment for reasons mentioned in application, it was not a case of non-compliance which would attract penalty. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Parmeshwari Textiles v. ITO (2005) 92 TTJ 764 / 146 Taxman 38 (Mag.)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Rejection of claims – Penalty not leviable

Mere making of a claim not maintainable in law, will not amount to furnishing of inaccurate particulars. Merely because the assessee claimed of deduction of interest expenditure has not been accepted by the Revenue, penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not attracted. If the contention of the revenue is accepted, the assessee would be liable to penalty under section 271(1)(c) in every case where the claim made by the assessee is not accepted by the Assessing Officer for any reason. The court held that this cannot be the intention of the legislature (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Reliance Petroproducts (P) Ltd. (2011) 220 Taxation 278 / (2010) 36 DTR 449 / 322 ITR 158 / 189 Taxman 322 / 230 CTR 320 (SC)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Satisfaction

High Court held that on a perusal of the assessment order, the Assessing Officer had not recorded the satisfaction that proceedings under section 271(1)(c), required to be initiated against the assessee consequently penalty deleted. S.L.P of Department rejected.

CIT v. Fibro Tech Chemicals, S.L.P No. 6703 of 2010 dt. 22-2-2010 (2010) 325 ITR 12 (St.)(SC)

CIT v. Frontline Solutions (Baroda) Ltd. S.L.P. No. 8187 of 2009 dt. 22-2-2010 (2010) 325 ITR 12 (St.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Expln. 4(a) : Interpretation of taxing statutes

The purpose behind section 271(1)(c) is to penalize the assessee for (a) concealing particulars of income, and/or (b) furnishing inaccurate particulars of such income. Whether the income returned was a profit or a loss was really of no consequence. Therefore, even if no tax was payable, penalty is still leviable. Further the amendment in Explanation 4(a) to section 271(1)(c) was held to be retrospective and clarificatory.

A word occurring in different sections of the same Act can have different meanings, if the objects of the two sections are different and they operate in different fields. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Jt. CIT v. Saheli Leasing and Industries Ltd. (2010) 324 ITR 170 / 232 CTR 1 / 39 DTR 1 / 191 Taxman 165 (SC) / 6 SCC 38

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Income from undisclosed sources – Receipt of on money – Addition in one year – Direction [S. 292C]

In the course of search of premises of partner of assessee, certain documents were recovered indicating on money received for sale of shops in addition to cheques. Amount taxed as income from undisclosed sources of one year. The High Court directed the Assessing Officer in appeal to determine whether additional amount was received on different dates and hence, amount chargeable in different year. In appeal to Supreme Court, the Supreme Court held that direction of High Court were proper. In addition also directed the Assessing Officer to consider whether the amount paid to the managing partner of the Firm can be brought to tax in the hands of the firm (A.Y. 1993-94)

Fifth Avenue v. CIT (2009) 319 ITR 132 / 224 CTR 440 / 183 Taxman 216 / 26 DTR 17 (SC)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction

The High Court had relied upon the decision of CIT v. Ram Commercial Enterprises 246 ITR 568 (Del.) which was approved by the Supreme Court in the case of Dilip N. Shroff v. Jt. CIT 291 ITR 519 (SC). The Supreme Court set-aside the matter for fresh consideration to the High Court since in the case of Union of India v. Dharmendra Textiles 306 ITR 277 (SC) the Supreme Court has held that Dilip N. Shroff is no longer a good law. (A.Y. 2002-03)

CIT v. Atul Mohan Bindal (2009) 317 ITR 1 / 183 Taxman 444 / 225 CTR 248 / 28 DTR 1 / 9 SCC 589 (SC)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Deduction at source – Good and Sufficient Reason

Penalty under section 271C can only be levied on a person who does not have a good and sufficient reason for not deduction tax at source. The burden will be on the person to prove such good and sufficient reason.

CIT v. Eli Lilly & Co. (India) Pvt. Ltd. (2009) 312 ITR 225 / 223 CTR 20 / 178 Taxman 505 / 21 DTR 74 / 211 Taxation 172 (SC)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Loss – Positive Income – Explanation 4 – Amendment of 2003 – Clarificatory – Retrospective Amendment in 2003, incorporating provision for imposing penalty even after addition of concealed income there was no positive income is clarificatory and retrospective in nature applies to assessment year 1996-97.

CIT v. Moser Baer India Ltd. (2009) 315 ITR 460 / 222 CTR 213 / 210 Taxation 294 / 184 Taxman 8 / 19 DTR 283 (SC)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 4

Decision of Supreme Court in Virtual Soft Systems Ltd. v. CIT (2007) 207 CTR 733 (SC) holding that amendment made by Finance Act, 2002 with effect 1-4-2003, in Explanation 4 to section 271(1)(c)(iii) is not retrospective needs reconsideration. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Raman Lal C. Hathi (2008) 171 Taxman 479 / 217 CTR 105 / 7 DTR 404 (SC)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Civil Liability – Mens rea

The Supreme Court overruled the part of the judgment in the case of Dilip N. Shroff 291 ITR 519 (SC) and held that the Explanations appended to section 271(1)(c) of the Act entirely indicate the element of strict liability. Section 271(1)(c) read with the Explanation indicate that the said section has been enacted to provide for a remedy for a loss of revenue. The penalty under that provision is a civil liability and willful concealment is not an essential ingredient for attracting civil liability.

CIT v. Dharamendra Textiles Processors (2008) 306 ITR 277 / 219 CTR 617 / 174 Taxman 571 / 14 DTR 114 / (2009) 208 Taxation 67 (SC)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Loss to loss – Explanation

The Supreme Court overruled its earlier judgment of (2007) Virtual Soft System Ltd. v. CIT (2007) 289 ITR 83 (SC). It held that Explanation 4 to section 271(1)(c)(iii) is clarificatory and not substantive and therefore, would apply even to assessment year prior to April 1, 2003. It further held that what the Finance Act, 2002, intended was to make the position explicit which otherwise was implicit.

CIT v. Gold Coin Health Food (P.) Ltd. (2008) 304 ITR 308 / 11 DTR 185 / 172 Taxman 386 / 206 Taxation 147 (SC)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Deliberate

Section 271(1)(c) remains a penal statute. Rule of strict construction shall apply thereto. Ingredients of imposing penalty remains the same. The purpose of the legislature that it is meant to be deterrent to tax evasion is evidenced by the increase in the quantum of penalty, from 20% under the 1922 Act to 300% in 1985.

‘Concealment of income’ and ‘furnishing of inaccurate particulars’ carry different connotations. Concealment refers to deliberate act on the part of the assessee. A mere omission or negligence would not constitute a deliberate act of suppressio veri or suggestio falsi. The court held that the burden is on the department to establish that the assessee has concluded the income. If the assessee gives an explanation which has been treated as bonafide the question of failing to discharge the burden does not arise (A.Y. 1985-86)

T. Ashok Pai (Sri) v. CIT (2007) 292 ITR 11 / 161 Taxman 340 / 7 SCC 162 / 210 CTR 259 / 201 Taxation 390 (SC)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure – Opinion of Expert

Clause (c) of section 271(1) categorically states that penalty would be leviable if the assessee conceals particulars of his income or furnishes inaccurate particulars thereof. But by reason of such concealment or furnishing of inaccurate particulars alone, the assessee does not ipso facto become liable to penalty. Imposing of penalty is not automatic. The Supreme Court held that not only is the levy of the penalty discretionary in nature, but the discretion is to be exercised keeping the relevant factors in mind and the approach of the Assessing Officer in this behalf must be fair and objective.

“Concealment of income” and “furnishing of accurate particulars of income” are different. However both concealment and furnishing of inaccurate particulars refer to a deliberate act on the part of the assessee. A mere omission or negligence would not constitute a deliberate act of suppressio veri or suggestio falsi.

In the present case where the disclosure is based on the opinion of the expert, who is otherwise also a registered valuer having been appointed in terms of the statutory scheme, merely because his opinion is not accepted or some other expert gives some other opinion, the same by itself may not be sufficient to arrive at a conclusion that the assessee has furnished inaccurate particulars of his income. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Dilip N. Shroff v. Jt. CIT (2007) 291 ITR 519 / 161 Taxman 218 / 210 CTR 228 / 201 Taxation 53 (SC)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Assessment at loss

The Supreme Court has held that prior to the amendment in the year 2002, in the explanation 4 to section 271, if the return is filed declaring a loss and the assessment made only reduces the loss, and there is no positive income, then penalty under section 271(1)(c)(iii) of the Act cannot be levied. It was further held that the amendment in Explanation 4 with effect from April 1, 2003, would apply prospectively and not retrospectively. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Virtual Soft Systems Ltd. v. CIT (2007) 289 ITR 83 / 159 Taxman 155 / 207 CTR 733 / 199 Taxation 423 (SC) / 9 SCC 665

Editorial:- Please see the decision in the case of Moser Baer India Ltd. 315 ITR 460 (SC) and also amendment of 2003 in Explanation 4 and the decision in the case of Gold Coin Health Food (P) Ltd., (2008) 304 ITR 308 / 218 CTR 359 / 172 Taxman 386 (SC).

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – After survey – Voluntary

Revised return filed disclosing additional income as a consequence of follow-up proceedings taken by Deputy Director of Income Tax in respect of purchasers hence revised return cannot be said to be voluntary, hence, levy of penalty was justified. (A. Ys. 1985-86 and 1987-88).

LMP Precision Engg. Co. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 330 ITR 93 / (2009) 223 CTR 301 / 183 Taxation 12 / 20 DTR 294 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure of all facts – No penalty for concealment

In penalty proceedings, it is incumbent on the Tribunal to examine independently, the evidence and material on record for the purpose of judging whether penalty proceedings are justified on account of concealment of income or furnishing of inaccurate particulars thereof. If the assessee has disclosed all the facts, then just because the department does not agree with the legal stand taken by the assessee, the same would not result into penalty. (A. Y. 1995-96).

Devsons P. Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 196 Taxman 21 / 241 CTR 344 / 329 ITR 483 / 48 DTR 137 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return

Where the revised return was filed by the assessee within the time limit prescribed under section 139(5) of the Act and there was nothing to suggest that the assessee had filed revised return with the knowledge that the department had detected such additional income. Penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act was not leviable as there was no willful and deliberate suppression of income. (A. Y. 2005-06).

CIT v. R. Gopalakrishnan (Dr.) (2011) 50 DTR 345 / 239 CTR 558 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Withdrawal of claim

Where the assessee withdraw its claim of deduction under section 80-IA of the Act by filing revised return under section 139(5) of the Act immediately, after it received notice under section 154 of the Act proposing to withdraw deduction under section 80-IA of the Act for earlier year. Penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act was held to be not leviable as the claim under section 80-IA was made under a bona fide believe which was rectified later on by the assessee by filing revised return. (A. Y. 2001-02).

CIT v. Backbone Enterprises (2011) 50 DTR 321 / 238 CTR 197 / 195 Taxman 200 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender of income – Voluntary or not

In the instant case the assessee has surrendered his income after the Assessing Officer had made substantial progress in the investigation and the assessee had also not co-operated with the enquiry. The High Court held that such surrender cannot held to be voluntary nor made bona fide, so as to avoid penalty. The High Court relied on the decision in the case of Bhairav Lal Verma v. Union of India 230 ITR 855, where the meaning of word 'voluntary' in the context of waiver provisions under section 273A was discussed. (A. Y. 2004-05).

CIT v. Rakesh Suri (2011) 331 ITR 458 / 233 CTR 184 / 41 DTR 175 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Detection in survey – Included in return [S.133A]

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) can be levied only if Assessing officer 'during the course of proceedings' is satisfied that there is 'concealment' or 'furnishing of inaccurate particulars'. Where assessee offers detected income in the return, there was neither concealment nor furnishing of inaccurate particulars. Thus penalty under section 271(1)(c) cannot be levied. (A. Y. 2002-03)

CIT v. SAS Pharmaceutical (2011) 60 DTR 258 / 335 ITR 259 / 244 CTR 51 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Valuation of closing stock – Explanation 1

Valuation of stock on account of deterioration of old stock and the same has not been accepted by the Revenue, penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not leviable, in the absence of any finding that the claim of the assessee was false or that it fudged the books of account. (A. Y. 1987-88).

CIT v. H. P. State Forest Corporation Ltd. (2001) 56 DTR 113 / 241 CTR 413 / 202 Taxman 422 / (2012) 340 ITR 204 (HP)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Failure to file return – Explanation 3

For the purpose of invoking the provisions of Explan. 3 to section 271(1), the conditions enumerated therein are required to be satisfied cumulatively. Assessing Officer having issued a notice under section 148 to the petitioner with in the period specified under section 153(1), the third condition, namely, the notice under section 142(1) or 148 should have been issued with in the period specified under sub-section (1) or of section 153 is clearly not satisfied and therefore, the failure on the part of the petitioner to furnish return with in the specified period cannot be deemed to be concealment with in the meaning of Explanation 3 to section 271(1)(c), and penalty under section 271(1)(c) could not be levied. (A. Y. 1994-95).

Chhaganlal S. Uteriya v. ITO (2011) 58 DTR 89 / 242 CTR 528 / 337 ITR 350 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 5 – Disclosure u/s. 132(4)

Unaccounted stock surrendered by assessee in the statement recorded under section 132(4), on the date of search is covered by 'other valuable articles or things' and therefore, the conditions enumerated under explanation 5 to section 271(1)(c), were fulfilled and penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not leviable. (A. Y. 1989-90).

CIT v. Bhandari Silk Store (2011) 242 CTR 443 / 337 ITR 153 / 47 DTR 259 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Search and seizure – Explanation 5

Income offered after detection consequent to search operations was rightly treated as concealed income, therefore, penalty under section 271(1)(c), was rightly levied; in the circumstances, Explanation 5 was not attracted. (A. Ys. 1982-83 & 1983-84).

D. K. B. & Co. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 58 DTR 299 / 243 CTR 198 / 198 Taxman 339 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Search and seizure – Disclosure – Due date of filing of return – Explanation 5 [S. 132(4)]

Assessee made disclosure under section 132(4), and paid the tax. Time for filing of return has not expired. Penalty cannot be imposed. (A. Y. 1989- 90).

CIT v. Bhandari Silk Store (2011) 337 ITR 153 / 242 CTR 443 / 47 DTR 259 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Finding by AO – “Inaccurate Particulars”

Where there is no finding by the Assessing Officer that the assessee furnished inaccurate particulars and that its explanation was not bonafide, the imposition of penalty under section 271(1)(c) was a “complete non-starter”. A mere erroneous claim made by an assessee, though under a bonafide belief that, it was a claim which was maintainable in law cannot lead to an imposition of penalty. The claim for deduction was made in a bona fide manner and the information with respect to the claims was provided in the return and documents appended thereto. Accordingly, there is no furnishing of “inaccurate particulars”. Making of an incorrect claim for expenditure does not constitute furnishing of inaccurate particulars of income. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CIT v. Mahanagar Telephone Nigam Ltd. (2011) 63 DTR 87 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Furnishing inaccurate particulars – LTCG

The assessee owned a plot of land which in the earlier years was treated as “stock-in-trade”. In the year of sale, the assessee converted the stock into “investment” and offered the gains as Long term capital gain. Penalty under section 271(1)(c) was levied. It was held that though the Assessing Officer accepted the conversion, the assessee’s claim that the gains was a LTCG amounted to furnishing inaccurate particulars of income. The issue was not debatable as held by the Tribunal. When the order of the Assessing Officer in quantum proceedings was sustained by all successive authorities and the High Court also dismissed the appeal at the admission stage, albeit after admitting the same, it cannot be said that the issue was debatable.

CIT v. Splender Construction ITA No. 1977 of 2010 dated 14-1-2011 (Delhi)(High Court)

Source : www.itatonline.org

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Capital gains – Development agreement – Year of taxability – Debatable

Assessee received only the initial payment of ₹ 6 crores and not the last installment as per the terms of the property development agreement with the developer in the relevant assessment year 2002-03, it was justified in not offering the capital gains to tax in the assessment year. Assessee has disclosed in the return as advance and the Assessing Officer himself was not sure till the date of passing of the assessment order so as to whether the assessee is liable to pay tax on the impugned amount and if so, in which assessment year and under which head of income. The Court held that penalty is not leviable. (A. Y. 2002-03).

Metal Rolling Works Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 62 DTR 328 / 339 ITR 373 / 245 CTR 113 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Business loss – Capital loss

Assessee treated certain sum as a business loss, where as the Revenue treated it as a capital loss, the penalty under section 271(1)(c) cannot be levied. (A. Y. 2004-05).

CIT v. Praveen B. Gada (HUF) (2011) 244 CTR 463 / 62 DTR 23 (MP)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalties – Concealment – Non disclosure of salary – Deduction at source

If an assessee does not disclose his salary for a part of the year notwithstanding the fact that he has worked as an employee for full 12 months and claims higher refund of TDS, such act amounts to concealment of income attracting penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 2001-02).

Pankaj Rathi v. CIT (2011) 62 DTR 185 / 245 CTR 218 / 202 Taxman 408 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Deemed dividend

Loan treated as deemed dividend and consequently penalty was levied. The Tribunal cancelled the penalty. The Court held that the Tribunal was not justified in cancelling the penalty, without considering facts relied on by Assessing Officer. The matter remanded to Tribunal to fresh decision. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. Alkesh K. Patel (2011) 220 Taxation 308 / (2010) 325 ITR 118 / 195 Taxman 338 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Estimation of profit

Assessee estimating the profit at 6.36% of gross profit. Assessing Officer estimating at 10% of gross profit. Penalty for concealment cannot be levied as the assessee cannot be said to have concealed any particulars of income or furnished any inaccurate particulates of income.

(A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Vijay Kumar Jain (2010) 325 ITR 378 / 232 CTR 288 (Chhattishgarh)(High Court)

Editorial:- Ratio of Apex Court in CIT v. Reliance Petroproducts (P) Ltd. (2010) 36 DTR 449 (SC) / (2010) 322 ITR 158 / 189 Taxman 322 / 230 CTR 320 (SC).

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Write off of Capital Expenditure

The assessee had claimed deduction on account of Income Tax paid and written off capital expenditure in the profit and loss account. The claim made by the assessee were not only incorrect in law but were also made with a mala fide intention as such, penalty was rightly levied by the assessing officer.

CIT v. Zoom Communication (P) Ltd. (2010) 327 ITR 510 / 40 DTR 249 / 191 Taxman 179 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Estimate

Penalty not leviable when income was estimated for addition. (A.Y. 1997-98)

CIT v. Aero Traders (P.) Ltd. (2010) 231 CTR 524 / 322 ITR 316 / 38 DTR 150 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Affidavit of Chartered Accountant

Assessee having offered an explanation as to why the impugned contract receipts was not included in the relevant assessment year but was offered in the subsequence . This was further supported by an affidavit of his chartered accountant as well auditor's report in Form No. 3CD. The CIT(A) and the Tribunal were justified in accepting the same and quashing the penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. N. Nagaraj Ballal (2010) 33 DTR 156 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Business loss as speculative loss – Change of Head

Mere fact that the Assessing Officer had treated the business loss as speculative loss did not automatically result in the inference of concealment of income justifying levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 2003-04)

CIT v. Aretic Investment (P) Ltd. (2010) 39 DTR 243 / 190 Taxman 157 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Malafide

Where the assessee had made full disclosure in his return of income that it had employed cash method for accounting for subsidies penalty cannot be levied under section 271(1)(c) of the Act unless the revenue authorities are able to demonstrate that the claim of the assessee is per se mala fide. (A.Y. 2005-06)

CIT v. Shyam Tex International Ltd. (2010) 48 DTR 19 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Claim for Deduction – No Concealment

Merely making a wrong claim for deduction is not at par with concealment of income or giving inaccurate information and hence no penalty under section 271(1)(c) is leviable.

(A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. The Shahabad Co-op. Sugar Mills Ltd. (2010) 322 ITR 73 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Capital loss set off against business income

Loss suffered on sale of machinery set off against profit of business – Assessee on realizing the mistake committed accepted the decision of Assessing Officer. Mistake in furnishing of inaccurate particulars due to negligence of counsel was not a deliberate attempt to evade tax. Therefore penalty under section 271(1)(c) detected. (A.Y. 2005-06)

CIT v. Sidhartha Enterprises (2010) 322 ITR 80 / 228 CTR 579 / (2009) 184 Taxman 460 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Assessment on estimate

Where the assessment of the assessee was completed on estimated basis penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act was not imposable with respect to the additions made on such estimate by the Assessing Officer. (A.Y. 2000-01)

CIT v. Modi Industrial Corporation (2010) 195 Taxman 68 / 34 DTR 158 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Deeming fiction – Not extended [S. 69]

Section 69 of the Act is a deeming provision for making the additions. The same cannot be extended to proceedings for levy of penalty unless the Assessing Officer gives independent finding justifying the levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c). In any case since the issue in quantum has been decided in penalty ought to be deleted. (A.Y. 1996-97)

S. V. Kalyanam v. ITO (2010) 327 ITR 477 / (2011) 237 CTR 491 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Book profit [S. 115JB]

When computation of income was made under section 115JB and there was loss under normal provisions, concealment, if any did not lead to tax evasion at all and therefore, penalty under section 271(1)(c) could not be imposed. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Nalwa Sons Investments Ltd. (2010) 235 CTR 209 / 45 DTR 345 / 194 Taxman 387 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Treating the business loss as speculative loss

Penalty under section 271(1)(c), cannot be leviable, where the addition was made on account of treatment of business loss as speculative loss as a mere change of treatment of the said loss would not amount to concealment under section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 1994-95)

CIT v. Bhartesh Jain (2010) 323 ITR 358 / 235 CTR 220 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Agricultural income

Where assessee had declared income by filing revised return after the Investigating authority found that the agricultural income declared by the assessee was bogus, penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act was held to be correctly leviable as there was a deliberate attempt on the part of the assessee to conceal its particulars of income by filing false return. (A.Y. 1994-95)

CIT v. Dass Trading & Holding P. Ltd. (2009) 29 DTR 77 / 226 CTR 533 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Deduction under section 37 – Bona fide claim

The Hon'ble High Court held that the action of the assessee claiming deduction under section 37 of the Act was a bona fide action, as two views were possible on allowability of the compensation paid to the worker. As such, there was no concealment or furnishing of inaccurate particulars so as to attract penal provisions under section 271(1)(c) of the Act. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Dalmia Agencies P. Ltd. (2009) 29 DTR 332 / 186 Taxman 155 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalties – Concealment – Deduction under section 80HHC – Bona fide claim

The Tribunal had held that penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act was not leviable because of a bona fide claim of deduction by the assessee under section 80 HHC of the Act supported by the certificate of a Chartered Accountant. The Tribunal also noted that when the claim was preferred by the assessee there was a conflicting judicial opinion on the issue. On these undisputed facts recorded by the Tribunal and also by the CIT (A), the High Court declined to interfere with the finding by the Tribunal that penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not leviable. (A.Y. 2000-01)

CIT v. Lakhani India Ltd. (2009) 17 DTR 304 / (2010) 324 ITR 73 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Non filing of return – Explanation 3

Penalty can not be imposed for concealment of income for the non-filing of return by an assessee who had been assessed for several A.Y. prior to the A.Y. 1984-85 as Explanation 3 to section 271(1)(c) is not applicable to person who has been assessed to tax in earlier years.

CIT v. U.P. State Handloom Corpn. (2009) 310 ITR 54 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Bona fide claim – Disallowance

Where the assessee had disclosed the entire facts and not concealed any particulars of his income a mere disallowance of a bona fide claim made by the assessee of deduction under section 10(29) of the Act does not amount to concealment so as to attract penalty under section 271(1)(c) the Act. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. Haryana Warehousing Corporation (2009) 25 DTR 194 / 226 CTR 124 / 314 ITR 215 / 182 Taxman 107 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure before Appropriate Authority

Disclosure in Form No. 34 A, to Appropriate Authority for obtaining clearance certificate with respect to the agreement to sell cannot be equated to the disclosure in return and therefore, assessee was liable for penalty under section 271 (1) (c) of the Act for not offering the capital gains to tax in the return of Income. (A.Y. 1977-78)

Smt. Ram Piari v. CIT (2009) 27 DTR 22 / 327 ITR 318 / 225 CTR 330 / 187 Taxman 247 (P&H) (High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure after Notice under section 148

Where the assessee declared a higher income after receiving a notice under section 148 of the Act, disclosure made by the assessee was held to be not a voluntary surrender of income by the assessee and the penalty was rightly imposed by the Assessing Officer.

Prempal Gandhi v. CIT (2009) 27 DTR 35 / 335 ITR 23 / 231 CTR 100 / 185 Taxman 64 (P&H) (High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender pursuant to notice under section 148

Whether penalty is leviable on surrender of additional income in return filed pursuant to notice under section 148. Held, no. The penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the act was not leviable as the Revenue has not placed any evidence on record to discharge the onus of proving concealment and also the Assessee has offered the additional income for tax in goodfaith to buy peace. Therefore, the penalty under section 271(1)(c) deserves to be deleted. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CIT v. Rajiv Garg & Ors. (2009) 224 CTR 321 / 313 ITR 256 / 175 Taxman 184 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Satisfaction

High Court held that;

- i. Section 271(1B) is not violative of Article 14 of the Constitution.
- ii. The position of law both, pre and post amendment is similar, as regards initiation of penalty proceedings.
- iii. Prima facie satisfaction of the Assessing Officer is a must.
- iv. Satisfaction need not be in respect of each and every disallowances.

- v. Due compliance would be required to be made in respect of the provisions of section 274 and 275 of the Act.
- vi. The proceedings for initiation of penalty cannot be set aside only on the ground that the assessment order states that 'penalty proceedings are initiated separately' if otherwise, it conforms to the parameters.

Madhushree Gupta (Ms.) v. UOI (2009) 183 Taxman 100 / 225 CTR 1 / 317 ITR 107 / 26 DTR 217 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Cash credits – Production of lenders

No penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act can be levied on the assessee on the ground that the assessee failed to produce the depositors after a lapse of 17 years from the date of loan received by the assessee. The High Court also held that the Tribunal was not justified in confirming the levy of penalty on the addition made under section 68 of the Act, merely on the statement given by the depositors in some other proceeding without allowing the assessee to cross-examine the depositors. (A.Ys. 1966-67, 19967-68)

Shree Nirmal Commercial Ltd. v. CIT (2008) 11 DTR 255 / 218 CTR 581 / 308 ITR 406 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Claim to deduction [S. 80-IB]

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not leviable where the assessee claimed deduction under section 80IB of the Act by making a mistake in calculation of number of years, as in such a case it cannot be said that the assessee deliberately concealed or furnished inaccurate particulars of his income. (A.Y. 2003-04)

CIT v. Himachal Agro Foods Ltd. (2008) 9 DTR 46 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – Surrender before detection – Family names

Assessee having filed revised returns surrendering the amounts reflected in various bank accounts in the names of family members as his own income before completion of process of detection of concealed income, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not leviable. (A.Ys. 1985-86 to 1987-88)

CIT v. Shankerlal Nebhumal Uttamchandni (2008) 4 DTR 238 / 311 ITR 327 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Interest on enhanced compensation

Where the penalty was levied by the Assessing Officer on the ground that the assessee did not disclose the interest received by it on enhanced compensation received by the assessee upon the acquisition of land by the Government, the High Court confirming the order deleting the penalty holding that the claim of the assessee was a bona fide claim based on one possible view and therefore, penalty under section 271(1)(c) could not be levied. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CIT v. Kartar Singh (2008) 14 DTR 68 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Capital gains – Expert advise

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act was not leviable, where the assessee furnished all the details of the capital gain earned by him in his return of income filed for the year. However, based on a legal advice, wrongly claimed the capital gain on sale of shares as exempt under section 10(36) of the Act. (A.Y. 2004-05)

CIT v. Amar Nath (2008) 16 DTR 326 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Finding of facts – Binding

Where concurrent findings are recorded by the Tribunal and the CIT (A) that the assessee was not liable for penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act such finding of facts unless found to be perverse cannot be interfered by the High Court in appeal under section 260A of the Act. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 1997-98)

CIT v. Unique Precured Retraders (2008) 13 DTR 215 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation of assessee not found to be false

The explanation of the assessee was not found to be false. The revenue could not show as to what relevant material was not disclosed by the assessee. Therefore, the case is not covered by Explanation (A) to section 271(1)(c) and penalty is not leviable. (A.Y. 1977-78)

CIT v. Ram Prakash (2008) 6 DTR 295 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Deduction under section 80P – Bona fide

Assessee a co-operative society engaged in manufacture of sugar claimed deduction under section 80P of the Act on the basis of various decision of High Courts, its claim was held to be a bonafide claim by the assessee and penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act was not leviable in such case. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. Budhewal Co-operative Sugar Mills Ltd. (2008) 6 DTR 31 / 312 ITR 92 / 171 Taxman 173 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure in return

Where assessee had furnished particulars of her income in Part IV of return, there was no concealment and penalty could not be levied under section 271(1)(c).

CIT v. Roshan D. Nariman (Mrs.) (2008) 169 Taxman 1 / 295 ITR 280 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction

Assessing Officer imposed penalty under section 271(1)(c) on assessee on ground that in its profit and loss account, assessee had not reflected excess stock though assessee had placed certain documents before Assessing Officer which explained discrepancy in value of closing stock to some extent. Mere mention of discrepancy in figures in assessment order, which had some bona fide explanation, did not meet requirement of recording by Assessing Officer of his satisfaction that penalty proceedings must be initiated. Therefore, in absence of express words to that effect, no such satisfaction was even discernible from assessment order and, hence, penalty proceedings initiated against assessee could not be sustained. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. National Marble & Sanitary (2008) 169 Taxman 32 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return to buy peace – Acceptance by AO

The declaration of income made by the assessee-company in the revised return and the explanation that it had done so to buy peace with the Department and to avoid protracted litigation was accepted by the Assessing Officer. The assessment was completed accepting the net income returned in the revised return of income. The assessment order did not reflect any satisfaction as required under section 271(1) of the Act. Even the show cause notice dated September 17, 2001, was silent with reference to the satisfaction arrived at by the Assessing Officer as to the concealment of income by the assessee-company. Nothing had been placed before the court by the Revenue to show that any other material was available with the Assessing Officer to the effect that the assessee had concealed its income. Hence, it was held that penalty could not be imposed. (A.Y. 1995-96)

V.V. Projects and Investments P. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2008) 300 ITR 40 / 216 CTR 196 / 171 Taxman 62 (AP)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure – Explanation 5 [S. 132(4)]

Immunity under Explanation 5 of section 271(1)(c), is not taken away for the reason that income disclosed by assessee in his statement under section 132(4) for a particular year was spread over in the returns of several years, more so, when Assessing Officer had also made assessment as per the returns filed by assessee, though after making some quantum reshuffling. (A.Ys. 1984-85 to 1988-89)

CIT v. Kanhaiyalal (2008) 2 DTR 10 / 214 CTR 611 / 299 ITR 19 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure – Explanation 5 [S. 132(4)]

Assessee having declared the value of diamonds in his statement, and paid tax thereon, entitled to immunity from penalty, even though the statement did not specify the manner in which the income representing value of diamonds was derived. (A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. Mahendra C. Shah (2008) 3 DTR 1 / 215 CTR 493 / 299 ITR 305 / 172 Taxman 581 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording satisfaction by Assessing Officer

With insertion of sub-section (1B) in section 271 by Finance Act, 2008, with retrospective effect from 1.4.1989, in absence of satisfaction as to concealment of income or deliberately furnishing inaccurate particulars filed by the assessee, recorded by the assessing officer in his order passed prior to 1.4.1989, initiation of such penalty proceedings under section 271 (1)(c) of the Act was held to be without jurisdiction. (A.Ys. 1996-97, 1997-98)

CIT v. Rampur Engineering Co. Ltd. & Ors. (2008) 16 DTR 281 / 309 ITR 143 / 221 CTR 32 (FB) (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Addition to income – Charge

A mere addition to the income of the assessee cannot give rise to any punishment for concealment of income. Thus, where there was only an omission on the part of the assessee in declaring his income it cannot be said that there was a concealment of income on the part of the assessee so as to attract penal proceedings. Further, the High Court held that for invoking explanation to section 271(1)(c) of the Act no separate charge is to be spelt out, as the explanation is part of the main section that is section 271(1)(c) of the Act.

CIT v. Punjab Kesari Hosiery Factory (2007) 198 Taxation 301 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Bona fide belief – Advance against sale

Where the assessee claimed that the money received on sale of plot was merely an advance on the sale of land and not a business receipt as held by the Assessing Officer. The High Court held that no penalty was livable in the present case as the assessee was under a bona fide belief that the receipt was not a business receipt, but an advance for sale of property.

CIT v. Rekha Lands Pvt. Ltd. (2007) 198 Taxation 322 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – Buy peace of mind

When an assessee files a revised returns showing higher income and gives an explanation that he offered higher income to buy peace of mind and avoid litigation, penalty cannot be imposed merely on account of higher income having been subsequently declared. (A.Ys. 1969-70, 1970-71)

CIT v. Suraj Bhan (2007) 159 Taxman 26 / 203 CTR 230 / 294 ITR 481 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – Excise search

Where during the search action conducted by the excise department it was noticed that the assessee had not recorded the processing charges received by it in its books of account. On enquiry being made with the assessee the assessee revised its return after two years of filing its return. The Assessing Officer imposed penalty under section 271(1) (c) of the Act. The High Court upheld the levy of penalty, taking into consideration the fact that, the revised return was filed only after the fact of concealment of processing charges received by the assessee had surfaced on record.

Kholwadwala Dyeing & Printing Mills v. CIT (2007) 197 Taxation 304 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – Amnesty Scheme

Concealment of income doubted by the Assessing Officer before the issue of show cause notice which was disclosed subsequently by the assessee as additional income by way of Revised return. The assessee is not entitled to the benefits of immunity under Amnesty Scheme in respect of additional income declared in the revised return. Levy of penalty under section 271(1) (c) is justified. (A.Y. 1983-84)

Deepak Construction Co. v. CIT (2007) 208 CTR 444 / 293 ITR 285 / 164 Taxman 334 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Unaccounted sales – Declaration in next year

The Assessing Officer made an addition of ` 20 lakhs on the ground that a certain sale was not brought into books for A.Y 1998-99. Assessing Officer thereafter levied penalty under section 271(1)(c).

The High Court held that the purchaser received the goods in June 1998 even though assessee issued invoice on 31st March 1998, the assessee paid sales tax for 1998-99 with regard to sale of goods based on the invoice dated 31.3.1998 and claimed deduction under the general Sales Tax and also paid Central Excise Duty for the goods would not mean that it had concealed the income or furnished inaccurate particulars. It was also to be appreciated that the assessee paid income-tax on sale receipt in 1999-2000 voluntarily even before the scrutiny of the assessment for the A.Y 1998-99. So, there was no penalty for concealment. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Rajarajan Electrical Equipments Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 284 ITR 448 / 203 CTR 299 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Mens rea – Method of accounting

The assessee had been consistently adopting the same method of accounting; i.e., of not including the work-in-progress for the purpose of arriving at the taxable income since the incorporation of the Company. The said method was accepted by the Department. When the Department sought to take a different view view on the fourth year, the assessee submitted a revised return offering the item for taxation and accepted the assessment made. Held that Penalty could not be levied in such cases. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. J.H. Parabia (I) P. Ltd. (2006) 284 ITR 361 / 201 CTR 98 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure – Search & seizure – Explanation 5 – Returns not filed in time – Immunity not available

If immunity from penalty is to be availed of by the assessee by invoking the provisions of Explanation 5 to section 271(1)(c), tax on the surrendered income along with interest, if any, is required to be paid immediately and in any case before the due date of return, in view of scheme of law which is clear from the language of the statute itself. Non-availability of funds for payment of tax due on the surrendered income, payment of tax along with interest before the date of assessment or payment of interest for delayed payment of tax cannot be the circumstances which could be pleaded by the assessee to claim immunity from levy of penalty in terms of Explanation 5. An assessee, who has surrendered his concealed income during the course of search and seizure but neither files the return in time nor deposits the tax on surrendered income immediately after the surrender, cannot be given benefit of Explanation 5 to section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 1993-94)

Ashok Kumar Gupta v. CIT (2006) 287 ITR 376 / 205 CTR 613 / 157 Taxman 339 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Capital gains – Subsequent claim for exemption – Agricultural land – Surrender

Where the assessee initially offered capital gain on sale of land. However, thereafter, on the advice of the Tahsildar and Municipal Corporation claimed the land to be agricultural land and therefore claimed the consideration received on transfer of the land as exempt from capital gain tax liability. Thereafter, the assessee surrendered the claim and admitted that the land was not agricultural land. The Assessing Officer imposed penalty under section 271(1)(c). The Hon'ble High Court, deleting the penalty held that the assessee acted bona fide on the basis of advice of the Tahsildar and Municipal Corporation, as such it cannot be said that the assessee concealed any fact or attempted to hide any material fact.

CIT v. Videon (Mrs.) (2006) 195 Taxation 292 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Withdrawal of claim for deduction

Withdrawal of claim for deduction resulting in difference of opinion between the assessee and the Assessing Officer did not amount to concealment of income or furnishing of inaccurate particulars by the assessee and therefore, no penalty under section 271(1)(c) was leviable. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Bacardi Martini India Ltd. (2006) 206 CTR 250 / 288 ITR 585 / 158 Taxman 348 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender [S. 132(4)]

Income surrendered during the course of statement under section 132(4). No penalty could be levied on the ground that tax on such income was not paid before filing of return.

(A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. Nem Kumar Jain (2006) 202 CTR 328 / 202 CTR 328 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalties – Concealment – Erroneous claim of deduction

As there was no concealment of primary facts, the Assessee is not liable for penalty under section 271(1)(c) for making a claim of deduction which was not accepted by the Assessing Officer. (A.Ys. 1989-90, 1996-97)

CIT v. International Audio Visual 208 CTR 328 / 288 ITR 570 (Delhi)(High Court)

CIT v. Nath Bros. Exim International 208 CTR 326 / 288 ITR 670 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Wrong claim – Oversight

The Tribunal had found that assessee had, by oversight, claimed extra shift allowance. The High Court held that it was justified in deleting penalty imposed for making such claim.

(A.Y. 1978-79)

CIT v. Glow Tech Steels (P.) Ltd. (2006) 280 ITR 133 / (2005) 148 Taxman 289 / 196 CTR 177 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 4

In view of Explanation 4, penalty imposed on assessee cannot be deleted merely on ground that total income of assessee has been assessed at a minus figure/loss. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Aditya Chemicals Ltd. (2006) 283 ITR 458 / (2005) 147 Taxman 688 / 197 CTR 241 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Mens rea – General

The word 'concealment', as appearing in section 271(1)(c), inherently carries with it element of mens rea. When the assessee has voluntarily disclosed the closing stock in the revised return, which was omitted in the original return no penalty can be levied on such income. (A.Y. 1981-82)

Bharat Rice Mill v. CIT (2005) 278 ITR 599 / 148 Taxman 145 / 200 CTR 481 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Assessment proceedings

Tribunal is well within its jurisdiction to record fresh finding in penalty proceedings and it will not amount to reviewing its earlier order in quantum appeal; thus even where Tribunal sustained an addition in quantum appeal, its order deleting penalty based on such addition could not be said to suffer from any legal infirmity. (A.Y. 1973-74)

CIT v. Mata Prasad (2005) 278 ITR 354 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Opportunity of hearing

Opportunity of hearing does not mean that even if a reply has been filed by assessee, ITO should give another opportunity and ask assessee as to whether he would submit any further reply or not. Assessee not being able to substantiate his explanation, penalty under section 271(1)(c) is leviable. (A.Y. 1975-76)

Madanlal Kishorilal v. CIT (2005) 277 ITR 209 / 145 Taxman 131 / 197 CTR 144 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction of ITO

Satisfaction under section 271(1) has to be of Assessing Officer and not of appellate authority; Commissioner cannot substitute his satisfaction in exercise of revisional powers under section 263. (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. Parmanand M. Patel (2005) 278 ITR 3 / 149 Taxman 403 / 198 CTR 641 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction of ITO

Where an amount claimed to be receipt of compensation for acquisition of agricultural land was added to assessee's income by treating it as non-agricultural income though question as to whether land in question was agricultural land was pending in High Court, imposition of penalty was not justified as Assessing Officer had not recorded requisite satisfaction under section 271(1)(c) and he was not justified in imposing penalty merely because he had added the aforesaid sum. (A.Y. 1994-95)

CIT v. B.R. Sharma (2005) 275 ITR 303 / 146 Taxman 1 / 196 CTR 454 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction of ITO

Where during scrutiny assessment Assessing Officer noticed that though assessee had not made payment of certain amounts shown as provision for PF, Pension Fund, EFIC and bonus, it had not added same back under section 43B and, therefore, he directed levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c), a bare reading of above order passed by Assessing Officer showed that there was no application of mind and no opinion had been formed and no satisfaction had been recorded by Assessing Officer before or at time of initiating penalty proceedings and no satisfaction having been recorded by Assessing Officer as per law, penalty was to be deleted. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Auto Lamps Ltd. (2005) 278 ITR 32 / 196 CTR 459 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Estimated additions

Where addition to assessee's income was made on an estimate on account of income from trucks and incorrect claim for depreciation on trucks which had been sold and the Tribunal deleted penalty holding that it was a case of estimate. The High Court held that in view of findings recorded by Tribunal that assessee had not deliberately concealed income, no penalty under section 271(1)(c) was imposable.

CIT v. Raj Bans Singh (2005) 276 ITR 351 / 141 Taxman 542 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender of income

In case of surrender of income to buy peace, assessee was not able to offer any satisfactory explanation as to source of such sum, in view of Explanation to section 271(1)(c), levy of penalty on assessee was justified. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Kamal Chand Jain v. ITO (2005) 277 ITR 429 / 196 CTR 541 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender of income

Where a search took place at residence of assessee's father in which a hand-written diary of assessee was seized wherein an entry in respect of some transaction was found and assessee surrendered said amount as its income in reassessment proceeding, imposition of penalty on assessee was justified. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Shanti Swarup Bhatnagar v. CIT (2005) 279 ITR 451 / 144 Taxman 583 / 196 CTR 168 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return

No penalty under section 271(1)(c) could be levied in case where income returned in revised returns was accepted and assessed in hands of assessee, even though revised returns were filed after search and subsequent to inquiries made by department during course of assessment proceedings.

CIT v. Shyamlal M. Soni (2005) 276 ITR 156 / 144 Taxman 666 (MP)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Amnesty scheme

Assessee raised a ground before Tribunal that no penalty could be levied on it in view of immunity given to it under Amnesty Scheme, Tribunal was not justified in confirming penalty without disposing of ground of appeal claiming immunity under amnesty scheme. (A.Y. 1984-85)

Harkatwat & Co. v. CIT (2005) 273 ITR 84 / 147 Taxman 552 / 197 CTR 686 (MP)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

Assessing Officer can invoke Explanation 1 to section 271(1)(c), without giving an indication of same in notice issued to assessee.

CIT v. Prabhu Dayal Lallu Ram (2005) 274 ITR 233 / 144 Taxman 634 / 195 CTR 351 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

Merely giving an explanation without any further proof would not amount to discharging onus under Explanation to section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 1975-76)

Madanlal Kishorilal v. CIT (2005) 277 ITR 209 / 145 Taxman 131 / 197 CTR 144 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

Explanation to section 271(1)(c) is attracted as and assessee failed to produce relevant vouchers to substantiate claim that he had disclosed all purchases and sales in his books, therefore, ITO was justified in imposing penalty for concealment of income as assessee had failed to discharge onus which lay upon him under Explanation 1 to section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 1975-76)

Vidya Shanker Dixit v. CIT (2005) 277 ITR 285 / 144 Taxman 909 / 200 CTR 196 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 4

Penalty cannot be imposed where income assessed is negative figure. (A.Y. 1991-92)

CIT v. Chirag Ingots (P.) Ltd. (2005) 275 ITR 310 / 142 Taxman 427 / 197 CTR 335 (MP)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 4 – Prospective

Clause (iii) and Explanation 4 as amended by Finance Act, 2002, with effect from 1-4-2003, is prospective in nature and does not apply to assessment year 1985-86; amendment does not speak that it is clarificatory in nature.

CIT v. Zam Zam Tanners (2005) 279 ITR 197 / 149 Taxman 55 / 197 CTR 221 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation (5)

Under section 132(4) unless authorized officer puts a specific question with regard to manner in which income has been derived, it is not expected from said person to make a statement in this regard and in such case if in statement under section 132(4) manner in which income has been derived has not been stated but has been stated subsequently, that amounts to compliance with Explanation 5(2) to section 271(1); therefore, mere non-statement of manner in which such income was derived would not make Explanation 5(2), inapplicable. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Radha Kishan Goel (2005) 278 ITR 454 / 200 CTR 300 / 152 Taxman 290 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return

When revised returns were filed after search and amounts which were subject matter of enquiry were included in revised returns, levy of penalty was justified. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Man Mohan Gupta v ACIT (2005) 274 ITR 179 / (2004) 189 CTR 331 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Totalling mistake

Totalling mistake in accounts which is not deliberate will not be ground for imposition of penalty. (A.Y. 1979-80)

CIT v. Pitambardas Dulichand (2005) 273 ITR 271 / (2004) 191 CTR 43 (MP) (High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

Even where assessment year involved was 1975-76, Explanation 1(A) as it stood on date of filing of return, i.e., 10/2/1978, was applicable. (A.Y. 1975-76)

Balwant Rai & Co. v. CIT (2005) 274 ITR 269 / (2004) 141 Taxman 411 / 190 CTR 337 (All.) (High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Income of Firm

Where Assessing Officer found that firm was not genuine and income earned in name of firm was assessee-partner's income, imposition of penalty was justified. (A.Y. 1969-70)

R.K. Bhargawa v. CIT (2005) 274 ITR 287 / (2004) 136 Taxman 18 / 188 CTR 130 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Discretionary

Power to levy penalty is discretionary. (A.Y. 1981-82)

CIT v. P. Natarajan (2004) 266 ITR 219 / 140 Taxman 50 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Bona fide explanation

If any explanation, which is bonafide within the totality of the case is offered and accepted, the assessee would be absolved of liabilities of penalty. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. A.D. Kohli (2004) 138 Taxman 183 / 273 ITR 223 / 187 CTR 178 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Independent of Assessment proceedings

Explanation given by assessee in assessment proceeding regarding alleged unexplained investment, could not be taken into consideration in penalty proceedings where assessee filed no explanation in penalty proceedings.

Rukmini Bai v. CIT (2004) 192 CTR 437 / 140 Taxman 289 / (2005) 276 ITR 650 (MP)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return

The assessee filed a revised return offering a higher amount after search and seizure under the amnesty scheme, but prior to issuance of notice under section 148, return must be treated as voluntary and one filed before detection in respect of the amount offered in said revised return and such income cannot be subjected to any penalty. (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. Central Stores (2004) 269 ITR 241 / 140 Taxman 636 / 191 CTR 287 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return

Where assessee, following search, filed return disclosing additional income but assessee offered no explanation at all except to assert that he disclosed income only to buy peace with Department and reason for not having disclosed income earlier was not stated, imposition of penalty was justified. (A.Y. 1986-87)

CIT v. C. Ananthan Chettiar (2004) 192 CTR 164 / (2005) 273 ITR 401 / 142 Taxman 556 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return

Revised return filed after a questionnaire had been issued to assessee asking for certain details, could not be said to be voluntary so as to justify non levy of penalty. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1991-92)

Ravi & Co. v. ACIT (2004) 271 ITR 286 / (2005) 143 Taxman 287 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Mistake in calculating of depreciation

In a case of bona fide mistake in calculating depreciation on asset by assessee, penalty cannot be levied under section 271(1)(c).

CIT v. Skyline Auto Projects P. Ltd. (2004) 271 ITR 335 / 193 CTR 72 / 142 Taxman 558 (MP)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Deduction [S. 80HHC]

No penalty can be imposed for erroneous claim of deduction under section 80 HHC by assessee due to inadvertent error on part of assessee's Chartered Accountant. (A.Y. 1994-95)

CIT v. Deep Tools (P.) Ltd. (2004) 191 CTR 257 / 274 ITR 603 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Deduction u/s. 80-I – Certificate of CA

Mere disallowance claim of assessee for deduction under section 80 I, duly supported by certificate of Chartered Accountant in prescribed format, being bona fide claim, would not justify levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) for concealment of income. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. S.D. Rice Mills (2004) 192 CTR 24 / (2005) 275 ITR 206 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Loss in trading shares

Penalty cannot be imposed where loss in trading in shares claimed by assessee is disallowed in view of explanation to section 73. (A.Y. 1994-95)

CIT v. SPK Steels (P.) Ltd. (2004) 270 ITR 156 / 189 CTR 255 / 144 Taxman 469 (MP)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Estimated additions

Tribunal's order holding that though there was a justification for rejecting account books and making assessment on estimate basis but that did not mean that concealment of income had been proved, could not be sustained because burden to prove in such a case that there was no concealment was on assessee and assessee had not discharged such burden. Therefore, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was leviable. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Hotel Classic (2004) 140 Taxman 524 / 191 CTR 19 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Non-compliance with section 64(1)

Non- inclusion of income of assessee's wife under section 64(1), would amount to concealment within the meaning of section 271(1)(c). (A.Ys. 1982-83, 1983-84)

CIT v. Gudivada Ramchandra Rao (2004) 265 ITR 668 / 139 Taxman 185 / 187 CTR 593 (AP) (High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Reassessment

Penalty proceedings during course of reassessment proceedings can only be initiated if Assessing Officer has discovered any undisclosed income over and above income which had already been assessed in original assessment. (A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. Ved Prakash (2004) 269 ITR 255 / 141 Taxman 377 / 193 CTR 95 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

Once Assessing Officer issued notice under section 271, it could not be said that he has not invoked the Explanation, to section 271 as explanation to section 271 is part of section 271.

CIT v. T.J. Mathal (2004) 269 ITR 492 / 140 Taxman 259 / 190 CTR 2011 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

There is no legal fiction introduced in Explanation 1 to section 271(1), that concealment ipso facto will attract penalty.

CIT v. Susai kalyanamandapam P. Ltd. (2004) 271 ITR 138 / 142 Taxman 555 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 5 – Disclosure under section 132(4)

Where assessee had not disclosed his income in returns filed for previous year which had ended prior to date of search and, in statement given under section 132(4), assessee admitted receipt of undisclosed income for those years and also specified manner in which such income had derived and thereafter paid tax on that undisclosed income with interest, such undisclosed income would get immunized from levy of penalty. (A.Ys. 1985-86, 1986-87)

CIT v. S.D.V. Chandru (2004) 266 ITR 175 / 136 Taxman 537 / 189 CTR 272 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 5

Where it is found that conditions laid down in clause (2) of Explanation 5 are satisfied, no penalty is leviable on assessee. (A.Ys. 1987-88, 1988-89)

Gebilal Kanhailal (HUF) v. ACIT (2004) 270 ITR 523 / 190 CTR 233 / 143 Taxman 42 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Method of accounting – Project completion

Where reasons given for non-disclosure of certain income by assessee that it was following project-completion method was found to be unacceptable by both Assessing Officer and Tribunal, imposition of penalty was justified. (A.Y. 1985-86)

New United Construction Co. v. CIT (2004) 270 ITR 214 / 137 Taxman 290 / 190 CTR 116 (Jharkhand)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Payment without sufficient bank balance

The assessee had made payments on dates when the assessee was not having sufficient balance in the books. The assessee's explanation that it had borrowed money without there being any entry in the books and interest giving any details of the parties from whom money's have been borrowed cannot be accepted. Hence penalty under section 271(1)(c) is leviable. (A.Y. 1975-76)

Usha Fertilizers v. CIT (2004) 269 ITR 591 / 178 CTR 153 / 142 Taxman 414 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure

Where the assessee had made disclosure without any specific detection of concealed income, it would not attract penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 1986-87)

CIT v. Kohinoor Impex (P.) Ltd. (2004) 270 ITR 381 / 141 Taxman 304 / 188 CTR 0077 (Delhi) (High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Substantiation of explanation

Unless the finding is given by the assessing Officer stating that assessee failed to substantiate the explanation offered, the officer can not proceed to hold that there has been concealment of income, attracting levy of penalty. (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. G.R. Rajendran (2003) 259 ITR 109 / 134 Taxman 729 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Two views

When two views are possible, penalty cannot be imposed. Unless the explanation is found to be false or mala fide, the mischief of section 271 (1) (C ) can not be attracted.

Durga Kamal Rice Mills v. CIT (2003) 130 Taxman 553 / 183 CTR 223 / 265 ITR 25 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Claim based on decision no longer good law

Where Tribunal deleted the penalty relying on decisions which were no longer good law, matter was remitted to the Tribunal. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. N.S. Babu (2003) 132 Taxman 773 / 184 CTR 231 / 266 ITR 616 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Cash Credit – Addition not challenged

Mere fact that addition sustained in one assessment year on account of loan was not challenged by assessee would not ipso facto show that assessee had furnished inaccurate particulars of income; and penalty could not be sustained on basis of Tribunal's order in the quantum appeal. (A.Y. 1985-86)

CIT v. Baljeet Jolly (Mrs.) (2003) 130 Taxman 273 / 263 ITR 239 / 183 CTR 419 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Agreed additions

Where assessee accepted additions as it was pursuing Amnesty Scheme and it was not revenue's case that assessee's explanation was false or had not been substantiated, levy of penalty on assessee on account of agreed addition was not justified. (A.Y. 1980-81)

CIT v. P. Govindasamy (2003) 127 Taxman 272 / 263 ITR 509 / 179 CTR 566 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Agreed additions

Tribunal's finding that respondent-assessee agreed for addition and then withdrew appeal to buy peace of mind and to avoid litigation on a clear understanding given by revenue, that no penalty would be levied, is a finding of fact and no question of law could arise there from. (A.Y. 1981-82)

CIT v. Badrilal Chaturbhuji (2003) 129 Taxman 965 / 177 CTR 165 / (2004) 265 ITR 329 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Admission of mistakes – Effect

Totalling mistakes which were corrected by assessee the moment assessee came to know about mistakes committed in books of account while preparing the accounts for the subsequent year, would not justify levy of penalty. (A.Ys. 1979-80, 1980-81)

CIT v. Milex Cable Industries (2003) 261 ITR 675 / 132 Taxman 525 / 182 CTR 442 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – After search

Revised return filed by assessee admitting additional income after a search of his premises and statement of his accountant regarding concealment of income by assessee, could not exonerate assessee and penalty under section 271(1)(c) is leviable in such a case. (A.Ys. 1972-73, 1973-74)

CIT v. A. Mohd. Abdul Khadir (Dr) (2003) 260 ITR 650 / 183 CTR 543 / 133 Taxman 942 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – After detection

Where revised return was filed after Assessing Officer pointed out deficiency in closing stock, imposition of penalty was justified.

CIT v. Ajay Dal Mill (2003) 263 ITR 66 / 132 Taxman 880 / (2004) 186 CTR 674 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – Amnesty scheme – Search

Where though there was a search, undisclosed income disclosed in revised return was not noticed during search operations and it was disclosed in revised return filed by assessee, assessee was entitled to benefit of Amnesty Scheme and, thus, no penalty under section

271(1)(c) could be levied. (A.Y. 1983-84)

CIT v. Attar Mohd. Dawood & Bros. (2003) 129 Taxman 700 / 183 CTR 301 / (2004) 267 ITR 436 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance of claim – Capital gains

No penalty was liable where assessee had disclosed capital gains and claimed exemption thereof which claim was disallowed by Assessing Officer. (A.Y. 1992-93)
Chandrapal Bagga v. ITAT (2003) 128 Taxman 632 / 261 ITR 67 / 182 CTR 185 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance of claim – Debatable issue

Where claim of deduction by assessee which is debatable, is disallowed, no penalty can be imposed on assessee. (A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. Harshvardhan Chemicals & Mineral Ltd. (2003) 259 ITR 212 / 133 Taxman 320 / (2004) 186 CTR 552 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance of claim – False claim

In case of false claim of deduction under section 35(1)(iv) penalty is justified. (A.Y. 1983-84)

CIT v. Coromandel Indag Products (P.) Ltd. (2003) 128 Taxman 675 / 183 CTR 90 / (2004) 265 ITR 611 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

Explanation to section 271(1)(c) is a part of section 271 and, therefore, it would apply notwithstanding that it may not have been separately mentioned.

CIT v. Lallubhai Jogibhai Patel (2003) 261 ITR 216 / 182 CTR 371 / (2004) 134 Taxman 381 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

Explanation is an integral part of section 271(1)(c) and therefore deletion of penalty on ground that Assessing Officer had not invoked Explanation could not be said to be justified. (A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. S.M.J. Builders (2003) 262 ITR 60 / 180 CTR 315 / (2004) 135 Taxman 385 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

If explanation of assessee was not considered by Assessing Officer while passing penalty order, right course for appellate authority would be to remit matter to Assessing Officer to consider matter keeping in view Explanation 1(B). (A.Y. 1985-86)

CIT v. Issac John & Co. (2003) 130 Taxman 760 / 263 ITR 579 / 180 CTR 315 / 183 CTR 160 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 4 – Reducing loss

Explanation 4 applies to cases where the amount of income in respect of which particulars have been concealed or inaccurate particulars have been furnished has the effect of reducing the loss declaring in the return or it has the effect of converting that loss in to income.
(A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. Chemiequip Ltd. (2003) 129 Taxman 581 / 182 CTR 144 / (2004) 265 ITR 265 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 5 – Surrender of income on date of search

No penalty is leviable where surrender of income was made on date of search and Tribunal found that surrender fell within immunity under Explanation 5. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Chhabra Emporium (2003) 130 Taxman 818 / 264 ITR 249 / (2004) 190 CTR 179 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Satisfaction

Where Tribunal held that satisfaction about concealment of income was not recorded by ITO who accepted assessee's revised return and reasons for filing thereof, deletion of penalty by Tribunal was justified. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Munish Iron Store (2003) 263 ITR 484 / 186 CTR 159 / (2004) 137 CTR 391 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Remitted matter to Assessing Officer

When the Appellate Tribunal had remitted the matter to the Assessing Officer to consider assessee's claim for certain deduction, penalty imposed on assessee could not be sustained. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CIT v. Coromandal Indag Products (P.) Ltd. (2003) 260 ITR 289 / 129 Taxman 820 / 184 CTR 278 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Addition in the assessment of firm – Partners

Where authority had added amount under section 69A to income of assessee-firm and then again assessed same in hands of partners for relevant previous year, it could not conclusively be said that assessee was owner of said income so as to impose penalty on assessee.

Durga Kamal Rice Mills v. CIT (2003) 130 Taxman 553 / 183 CTR 223 / (2004) 205 ITR 25 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Sales tax collected

Penalty is leviable in respect of amount of sales-tax collected by the assessee but not credited to the profit and loss account even though the assessee had maintained a separate account for sales-tax collected. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Bassein Metals (P.) Ltd. (2003) 263 ITR 518 / 182 CTR 393 / (2004) 139 Taxman 48 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Search and seizure

Where a search was conducted in assessee's residence and it was thereafter that assessee made a disclosure under section 273A in respect of a sum as unexplained investment, levy of penalty for concealment was justified. (A.Ys. 1979-80, 1980-81)
B. Indira Rani (Smt.) v. CIT (2003) 263 ITR 525 / 183 CTR 399 / 133 Taxman 635 (Ker.) (High Court)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Two sets of books of account

In the present case, the assessee was maintaining two sets of books; one was meant for showing to Income Tax Authorities and the other for himself. In the second set, he was recording sales and certain expenses on the basis of these documentary evidence, addition had been made which had been confirmed up to the Tribunal. Thus it was not the case of simplicitor estimation of the income by disbelieving the books of account or other details submitted by the assessee during the course of assessment proceedings. In the present case the department was able to lay its hands on the documentary evidence exhibiting the conduct of assessee for avoiding tax and carrying out the business activity out of the regular books. In the above circumstances penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act, which was confirmed by the Commissioner (A) was upheld. (A. Ys. 1985-86 and 1990-91).

Shyam Behari v. ACIT (2011) 43 SOT 129 (Delhi) (Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Return filed after survey

The assessee disclosed the income in the Return filed after survey. The Tribunal held that what is punishable under section 271(1)(c) is actual concealment of income in the Return of income and not merely an attempt to make concealment. If the assessee rectifies it itself and declares the correct income in valid return of income and does not file return by concealing the income then such act is not punishable under section 271(1)(c). Hence, penalty under section 271(1)(c) cannot be levied. (A. Y. 2002-03).

Sadhbav Builders v. ITO, ITA No. 1418/Ahd/2008, Bench 'D' dt. 21/1/2011, BCAJ Vol. 34 Part 10 January 2011, P. 480. (Adh.) (Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Admission by High Court – Mere admission is sufficient

In quantum proceedings, the Tribunal upheld the addition of three items of income. The assessee filed an appeal to the High Court which was admitted. The Assessing Officer levied penalty under section 271(1)(c) in respect of the said three items. The penalty was upheld by the CIT(A). On appeal to the Tribunal, HELD allowing the appeal:

When the High Court admits substantial question of law on an addition, it becomes apparent that the addition is certainly debatable. In such circumstances penalty cannot be levied under section 271(1)(c). The admission of substantial question of law by the High Court lends credence to the bona fides of the assessee in claiming deduction. Once it turns out that the claim of the assessee could have been considered for deduction as per a person properly instructed in law and is not completely debarred at all, the mere fact of confirmation of disallowance would not per se lead to the imposition of penalty. (A. Y. 1995-96)

Nayan Builders & Developers Pvt. Ltd. v. ITO (2011) 43A BCAJ, May Pg. 37 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Editorial:- Refer, Rupam Mercantile Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2004) 91 ITD 237 / 85 TTJ 609 (TM)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Book profit – Addition to regular income [S. 115JB]

Pursuant to a search under section 132 and the detection of incriminating documents, the assessee offered additional income. The Assessing Officer computed the income under the normal provisions and levied penalty under section 271(1)(c) for concealment of income. However, as the book profits computed under section 115JB was higher, the assessee was assessed under section 115JB. The assessee's appeal against the levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) was rejected by the CIT(A). However, on appeal to the Tribunal, HELD:

It was held by Hon'ble Mumbai Tribunal that, the concealment of income had its repercussions only when the assessment was done under the normal procedure. If the assessment as per the normal procedure was not acted upon and it was the deemed income assessed under section 115JB which became the basis of assessment, the concealment had no role to play and was totally irrelevant. The concealment did not lead to tax evasion at all. (A. Y. 2005-06)

Ruchi Strips & Alloys Ltd. v. Dy. CIT BCAJ P. 39, Vol. 42-B, Part 6, March 2011 (Mum.)(Trib.) Source : www.itatonline.org

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Failure to apply S. 50C

No penalty under section 271(1)(c) can be levied where assessee agreed to the addition made under section 50C as the fact that assessee agreed to addition is not conclusive proof that the sale consideration as per agreement is not correct or accurate. The addition made purely on the basis of deeming provisions of section 50C. (A. Y. 2006-07).

Renu Hingorani v. ACIT BCAJ P. 38, Vol. 42-B, Part 6, March 2011 (Mum.)(Trib.) Source : www.itatonline.org

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Claim not sustainable in law

Mere making of a claim which is not sustainable in law, by itself, will not amount to furnishing inaccurate particulars regarding the income of the assessee. Such a claim made in the return cannot amount to furnishing inaccurate particulars. The assessee in the present case had made a bona fide claim and hence following the Apex Court's decision in the case of Reliance Petro Products Pvt. Ltd., it was held that penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act was not leviable. (A. Y. 2006-07).

Walter Saldhana v. Dy. CIT (2011) 44 SOT 26 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Additional income after survey – Revised return

Assessee having declared additional income following survey under section 133A and further enhanced the same filing a revised return despite the fact that no incriminating material was found either during the survey action or during the post survey enquiries and the Assessing Officer having accepted the revised return without pointing out any inaccuracy therein or making any further addition, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not leviable, more so as the additional income is not free from dispute as far as its ownership and the year of incidence of tax is concerned. (A. Ys. 2002-03 & 2003-04).

Dillip Yeshwant OAK v. ACIT (2011) 55 DTR 113 / 138 TTJ 559 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance u/s. 14A – No Rule 8D

As there is no allegation by the Assessing Officer that there was collusion between the auditor and the assessee to ignore section 14A, it cannot be said that the explanation was not bona fide. Further, as Rule 8D was not enacted at the time, segregation of expenditure relatable to tax-free income would be disputable and lead to bona fide difference in opinion. So, penalty under section 271(1)(c) cannot be levied. (A Y. 2005-06).

Dy. CIT v. Nalwa Investment Ltd. ITA No. 3805/Del/2011 dated 21-4-2011 (Delhi)(Trib.)

Source : www.itatonline.org

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender during survey – No penalty [S. 133A]

Where Assessing Officer has not brought on record any material to show that the additional income surrendered by the assessee during survey under section 133A was concealed income or that explanation was false, penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not leviable. (A. Y. 2006-07).

Dy. CIT v. Bhanwar Lal Mahendra Kunar Soni (2011) 138 TTJ 381 / 54 DTR 271 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Capital gains – Difference in rate of taxation – Tax sought to be evaded

In the return of income the assessee declared of ₹ 17 lakhs as long term capital gains arising from transfer of tenancy right and paid tax @ 20% applicable to long term capital gains. Claim of assessee was that amount paid for receiving the gift was from the cash received on surrender of tenancy right. Assessing Officer held that as there was no supporting evidence the amount was assessed as income from undisclosed sources.

The Tribunal held that as tax sought to be evaded is very clear as the tax rate applicable on the impugned receipt of ₹ 17 lakhs is 30% being income from undisclosed sources, whereas the assessee has paid 20% claiming the same to be capital gain on transfer of tenancy right, provisions of Explanation 1 are not applicable to the instant case as tax sought to be evaded was because of the lower rate of tax paid and not because of any addition to the income and, therefore, penalty is imposable under the main provisions of section 271(1)(c). (A. Y. 1996-97)

Harish P. Mashruwala v. ACIT (2011) 139 TTJ 563 / 38 SOT 398 / 58 DTR 182 / 9 ITR 752 (SB)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Survey – Surrender of additional income

Assessee having surrendered additional income following detection of certain discrepancies in the documents found during the survey proceedings at its premises despite filing an explanation and Assessing Officer proceeded to assess the said income on the basis of the surrender made by the assessee Penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not leviable. (A. Y. 2005-06).

Ajay Sangari & Co. v. Addl. CIT (2011) 57 DTR 397 / 140 TTJ 388 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – AO reprimanded – Harassment

In the instant case, the assessment order supplied by Assessing Officer to assessee did not contain any direction for initiation of penalty though assessment order filed by department with memo of appeal had a reference to issue of notice under section 271(1)(c). The Tribunal considering the case fit for awarding cost under section 254(2B) of the Act, held that they were inclined to record over here that Assessing Officer should have confined himself in making just and proper assessment only, as per the provisions of the law and harassment of assessee, which is not permitted under the statute should have been avoided at all cost.

ITO v. Audyogik Tantra Shikshan ITA No. 106/PN/2010 dated 30-6-2011 (Pune)(Trib.)

Source : www.itatonline.org

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – Additional income – Explanation 2

Additional income offered by way of revised return and accepted by Assessing Officer cannot be said to be an addition so as to attract Explanation 2 to section 271(1)(c). (A. Y. 2004-05).

SVC Projects (P) Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2011) 58 DTR 433 / 140 TTJ 79 / 132 ITD 11 / 10 ITR 552 (Visakha)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – ROC fees – Increasing authorized – Capital

Assessee having claimed deduction of fees paid to the ROC for increasing authorized share capital contrary to the ruling of the Supreme Court, the claim is ex facie wrong and cannot be accepted as a bona fide claim as the circumstances in which the auditors committed the error of treating the same as revenue expenditure have not been explained and, therefore, levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) is justified. (A. Y. 2006-07).

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure – Legal opinion – Substantial question of law – Penalty confirmed by tribunal

The assessee, a firm of Chartered Accountants, was one of the “associate members” of Deloitte Haskins & Sells pursuant to which it was entitled to practice in that name. Deloitte desired to merge all the associate members into one firm. As this was not acceptable to the assessee, it withdrew from the membership and received consideration of ` 1.15 crores from Deloitte. The said amount was credited to the partners’ capital accounts & claimed to be a non-taxable capital receipt by the assessee. The Assessing Officer rejected the claim though the CIT (A) accepted it on the ground that it had “great force”. The Tribunal reversed the CIT (A). The Assessing Officer levied section 271(1)(c) penalty which the CIT(A) deleted. On appeal by the department to the Tribunal, the assessee argued that penalty was not leviable because (i) there was a disclosure of the facts in the computation & the balance sheet, (ii) the opinion of 3 tax experts had been taken, (iii) the issue was debatable & (iv) the assessee’s appeal on the merits had been admitted by the High Court. HELD allowing the appeal:

- (i) Section 271(1)(c) imposes “strict civil liability”.
- (ii) The fact that the legal opinions were not furnished during the assessment proceedings (but were furnished only during the CIT(A) penalty proceedings) indicates that the assessee realized the ineffectiveness of these opinions and still ventured into making the non-allowable claim;
- (iii) Though there was disclosure in the computation and balance sheet, in order to minimize disclosure, the assessee took the “smart route” of directly crediting the receipt in the capital accounts of partners to evade tax;
- (iv) The fact that a substantial question of law on the merits was admitted by High Court does not mean penalty is not leviable (Rupam Mercantiles 91 ITD 237 (Ahd.)(TM) not followed);

ACIT v. Khanna & Annadhanam (2011) 142 TTJ 1 / 48 SOT 120 (URO)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Transfer pricing – ALP – Explanation 7

The assessee adopted the TNMM to determine the ALP in respect of the broking transactions entered into with its affiliates. The Assessing Officer & TPO held that the assessee ought to have adopted the CUP method and made an adjustment of ` 1.10 crores. This was accepted by the assessee. The Assessing Officer levied penalty under Explanation 1 to section 271(1)(c) on the ground that the assessee had filed inaccurate particulars of income. This was deleted by the CIT(A). On appeal by the department to the Tribunal, the Tribunal dismissing the appeal held that, Explanation 1 to section 271(1)(c) does not apply to transfer pricing adjustments. Penalty for transfer pricing adjustments is governed by Explanation 7 to section 271(1)(c). Under Explanation 7 to section 271(1)(c), the onus on the assessee is only to show that the ALP was computed by the assessee in accordance with the scheme of section 92C in "good faith" and with "due diligence". The assessee adopted the TNMM and no fault was found with the computation of ALP as per that method. Instead, the method was rejected on the ground that CUP method was applicable. It is a contentious issue whether any priority in the methods of determining ALPs exists. So, when TNMM is rejected, without any specific reasons for inapplicability of the TNMM and simply on the ground that a direct method is more appropriate to the fact situation, it is not a fit case for imposition of penalty. (A.Y. 2004-05).

Dy. CIT v. RBS Equities India Ltd. (2011) 133 ITD 77 / 60 DTR 273 / 141 TTJ 58 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Carry forward loss – Mistake of consultant – Deduction u/s. 80G

Carry forward loss shown at a wrong figure due to mistake of tax consultant would not attract penalty under section 271(1)(c), as the correct figure was available with Assessing Officer from the assessment of earlier years and the mistake was rectified on being pointed out before finalization of assessment. Recognition to donee trust under section 80G being available earlier, there was bona fide belief to claim deduction under section 80G hence there was no case for levying penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A. Y. 2004-05).

ACIT v. A. H. Wheeler & Co. (P) Ltd. (2011) 60 DTR 25 / 142 TTJ 112 / 132 ITD 34 (All.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Search and seizure – Loss return

In the course of search it was found from records that some loose papers were found having jottings on them, no other valuable assets like money, bullion, jewellery etc., were found and losses declared by assessee for four assessment years were accepted by Assessing Officer hence, there was no tax liability on assessee. The Tribunal held that penalty cannot be levied by invoking Explanation 5 to section 5 to section 271(1)(c). (A. Ys. 2002-03 to 2005-06).

Lallubhai Amichand Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 133 ITD 205 / 64 DTR 442 / (2012) 143 TTJ 739 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Failure to deduct tax – Royalty – Advertisement – Publicity [S. 40(a)(ia)]

The assessee not deducted the tax at source in respect of payments of royalty, advertisement and publicity, audit fee and recruitment expenses. In the audit report accompanying the return it was mentioned that the amount was not admissible under section 40(a)(ia). The assessee contended that due to inadvertently this amount was not reduced in the computation of income. The Tribunal held that the as the assessee disclosed the amount in accounts, there was no concealment and hence levy of concealment penalty was not justified. (A. Y. 2005-06).

New Horizon India Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 12 ITR 332 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Survey – Additional income [S. 133A]

Assessing Officer has not give a clear finding in penalty order whether addition on account of concealment of income or furnishing in accurate particulars of income. The Tribunal held penalty was not justified. (A. Y. 2006-07).

ACIT v. Rmp Infotech P. Ltd. (2011) 12 ITR 581 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Search and seizure – Revised return [S. 153A]

A Search and seizure operation was conducted at assessee's premises. In response to notice under section 153A, the assessee filed return showing income of ₹ 2,11,297, without disclosing any unaccounted income. In response to further enquiry, assessee filed revised return disclosing additional income by way of declaring gross profit rate of 15% as against 6.93% which was declared in return filed under section 153A. Assessing Officer completed assessment by taking gross profit at 15%. The Tribunal held that since the assessee had failed to establish that disclosure of additional income in revised return under section 153A was made voluntarily and in good faith to buy peace with revenue and since, assessee filed the revised return only after concealment was detected by Assessing Officer, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was rightly imposed. (A. Y. 2005-06).

Dy. CIT v. Sushma Devi Agarwal (2011) 133 ITD 155 (TM)(Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Search and seizure – Statement – Retraction

There was a search in case of one of the trustees, during course of which several incriminating documents were found which among other showed unaccounted transaction by trust. The Trustees had clearly stated that unaccounted donations were received, though retracted after thought. The Tribunal held that assessee had concealed particulars of income with in meaning of provision of Explanation 1 to section 271(1)(c). (A. Ys. 1989 and 1990-91).

Dy. DIT v. St. Xavier's Education Trust (2011) 133 ITD 576 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Survey – Stock – Addition [S. 69]

On the date of survey, as per physical verification stock found was of value of ₹ 87,93,380, where as stock as per books of account maintained works out ₹ 78,93,380. Assessee had agreed pay tax on excess stock so worked amounting to ₹ 9 lakhs. In the trading account for period ending 31-3-2000 the assessee shown the said amount as other income, however the assessee increased the valuation of opening stock by ₹ 9 Lakhs and nullified the effect of declaration. The Assessing Officer made addition of ₹ 9 lakh as unexplained investment in stock under section 69 and also levied the penalty under section 271(1)(c). The Tribunal held that the assessee had deliberately prepared trading account in such away so as to nullify effect of excess stock found during survey, conduct clearly showed that assessee had concealed income hence justified the levy of penalty. (A. Y. 2000-01).

Tribhovandas Chelaram v. ACIT (2011) 133 ITD 587 / (2012) 146 TTJ 578 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Goodwill – Depreciation – Intangible asset

The assessee treated goodwill as 'certain other intangible assets' and claimed depreciation. The Tribunal held that such a false claim could not be considered as a debatable or possible claim and assessee was liable to penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 2000-01).

Mahindra Intertrade Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 133 ITD 597 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Commissioner – Revision – Cost [S. 263]

The Tribunal held that once revision order is passed, it is for assessing authority to consider whether penalty is to be levied or not and if assessing authority has not levied penalty where it is imperative, then only, Commissioner can in his wisdom interfere in the matter. Therefore, when there is no penalty order subsisting at time of passing of revision order it is not proper on part of Commissioner to initiate penalty proceedings under section 271(1)(c). On merit the Tribunal held that whether the expenses relating to tiles, white washing electrical rewiring and wood work incurred after purchasing of property as part of acquisition on a bonafide belief that law permits such a treatment, there was no question of furnishing any inaccurate particulars or any case concealment of income, therefore penalty under section 271(1)(c) cannot be levied. (A. Y. 2008-09).

S. Sudaha (Smt) v. ACIT (2011) 48 SOT 335 / 10 ITR 206 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Wrong claim of deduction

Mere making a claim which is not sustainable in law will not amount to furnishing of inaccurate particulars for involving penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A. Y. 2006-07)

Dy. CIT v. Pathankot Primary Co-op. Development Bank Ltd. (2011) 142 TTJ 401 / 59 DTR 67 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Bona fide belief that income not taxable

Assessee having not offered capital gains on the sale of agricultural land and the interest income earned thereon under the impression that the sale of agricultural land did not give rise to any capital gain, and later filed a revised return before any enquiry was initiated by the Assessing Officer, there was no deliberate attempt to conceal income on the part of the assessee, more so when only interest income was held taxable, and, therefore, levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not justified. (A. Y. 2006-07)

Manjoor Ahmed v. ITO (2011) 62 DTR 70 / 141 TTJ 646 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Search and seizure [S. 153A]

Sales made outside books and not disclosed in original return, no bona fide explanation. Documents related to undisclosed sales found during search, Explanation I to section 271(1)(c) is applicable.

For immunity from penalty specific requirement of declaration of additional income in return. Penalty is leviable on difference of income declared in return filed under section 153A, and original return. (A.Ys. 1999-2000 to 2004-05)

Dy. CIT v. K. Natarajan (2010) 2 ITR 273 / 128 TTJ 558 / 34 DTR 414 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender of income

Assessing Officer made addition on the basis surrender made by the assessee and did not issue summons to the lenders to prove that there was concealment of income he was not justified in imposing penalty on the surrendered income.

Raja Rani Mittal v. ITO (2010) 36 SOT 4 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance of deduction [S. 80HHC]

Assessee having admittedly disclosed complete details of its claim for deduction under section 80HHC in its return, and the Assessing Officer having disallowed the claim on the basis of a ruling of the Supreme Court which was pronounced much after the date of the filing of return by the assessee, the claim cannot be said to be false and, therefore, no penalty under section 271(1)(c) is leviable. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Dy. CIT v. Maharashtra Seamless Ltd. (2010) 36 DTR 36 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure of income – Estimate of income

An assessee can never be held to be guilty of non disclosure of income which is determined by applying the provisions of section 40A(2)(b), because form in which return of income is to be filed by corporate assessee does not contemplate any disclosure of income earned by assessee which could be subject to scrutiny under section 40A(2)(b). Provisions of section 271(1)(c), are not attracted to cases where income of an assessee is assessed on as estimated basis. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Jhavar Properties (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 123 ITD 429 / 28 DTR 26 / 124 TTJ 858 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Withdrawal of claim

When claim for deduction under section 80HHD was withdrawn prior to assessment, levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c), was not justified. (A.Y. 1977-78)

Banyan Tours & Travels (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2010) 129 TTJ 422 / (2009) 120 ITD 404 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – False claim of depreciation

Assessee having entered in to an artificial arrangement of purchase and lease back transaction to evade tax liability. The transaction having found to be bogus transaction penalty under section 271(1)(c) is leviable. (A.Ys. 1996-97)

Ultramarine & Pigments Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 38 DTR 42 / 130 TTJ 31 / 39 SOT 115 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Advice of the Tax Consultant

Where the claim of deduction was made on the basis of advice of the tax consultant supported by tax audit report, there was no concealment or furnishing of inaccurate particulars on the part of the assessee penalty can not be made merely because the claim of deduction was disallowed in assessment proceedings. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Yogesh R. Desai v. ACIT (2010) 38 DTR 101 / 2 ITR 267 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance on Estimate basis

Assessing Officer having disallowed assessee's claim for expenses on estimation basis and the Tribunal has sustained the addition partly, it cannot be said that there was conscious act of concealment of income or furnishing of inaccurate particulars of income and, therefore, levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not justified. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Dabwali Transport Company v. ACIT (2010) 38 DTR 434 / 3 ITR 785 / 137 TTJ 49 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Duty Draw Back – DEPB – Debatable claim

Assessee having included duty drawback / DEPB in the amount eligible for deduction under section 80IB at the time when the issue was debatable regarding allowability or otherwise of such claim, penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not justified. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Baldev Wollen International v. ITO (2010) 39 DTR 12 / 131 TTJ 338 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Set-off of LTCG against STCG

In the absence of any falsity in the details submitted by the assessee regarding computation of income, penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not leviable in respect of inadvertent wrong claim made by assessee for adjusting the long term capital loss against short term capital gains. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Mahinder Sidhu (Mrs.) v. ACIT (2010) 39 DTR 233 / 132 ITD 246 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Genuine payment proved in penalty proceedings

Addition made to income on ground that payment for transport services had not been proved by the assessee. The assessee produced evidence in penalty proceedings that the payment was genuine, penalty cannot be imposed. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Dhirajlal Manganlal Shah v. ITO (2010) 4 ITR 313 / 125 ITD 313 / 126 TTJ 644 / 32 DTR 69 (TM)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Change of head of income

- (i) Mere change of head of income in assessment cannot be construed as concealment as envisaged in section 271(1)(c).
- (ii) Addition on account of valuation alone cannot be the basis to construe concealment for the purpose of penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 2003-04)
CIT v. JMD Advisors (P.) Ltd. (2010) 124 ITD 223 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Deduction [S. 80-IB]

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not leviable on assessee for wrongly claiming deduction under section 80-IB on export incentive i.e., DEPB and duty drawback. (A.Y. 2004-05)

ITO v. Flora Exports. (2010) 40 DTR 70 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Purchase invoices was fictitious

Transaction of sale was not genuine and the assessee had claimed depreciation on non-existent assets. It was further noticed that the assessee was a habitual concealer of income as it had been surrendering bogus depreciation year after year when it confronted with evidence of non existence of assets. On facts it was held that Assessing Officer was justified in imposing penalty upon assessee. (A.Y. 1998-99)

ACIT v. TVS Finance & Services Ltd. (2010) 125 ITD 341 / (2009) 126 TTJ 302 / 30 DTR 81 (TM)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance – Deeming provisions

In a matter of interpretation of provisions of the Act, merely because certain claim has been disallowed, and allowed in subsequent year, penalty under section 271(1)(c), cannot be levied. (A.Y. 2001-02)

AT&T Communication Services India (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2010) 42 DTR 22 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Addition – Cash credits [S. 68]

Assessee having produced confirmations for both the alleged loans, it cannot be said that the explanation of the assessee was not bonafied or that material facts were not disclosed merely because additions under section 68 have been confirmed for the reason that the first creditor denied that the amount was given to assessee as a loan and there was serious doubt about the genuineness of the source of source of second loan and, therefore, Expln. 1 to 271(1)(c) is not applicable and penalty is not leviable. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Bhartesh Jain v. ITO (2010) 43 DTR 320 / 137 TTJ 200 / 4 ITR 370 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Provision for bad debts and diminution in value

Assessee claimed deductions on account of provision for bad debts and provision for diminution in value of investments in express violation of provisions of law hence the revenue authorities were justified in imposing penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 2001-02)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Bogus purchases

Assessee failed to produce the parties at the time assessment, hence, the Assessing Officer treated the purchases as bogus. Penalty imposed was confirmed by the CIT(A), in appeal before the Tribunal, the tribunal held that when the assessee failed to produce the parties, the revenue authorities could have exercised the power under section 131, and as they have not exercised the power the penalty levied under section 271(1)(c) was required to be deleted. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1998-99)

Chempure v. ITO (2010) 40 SOT 164 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure after notice – AIR Information

Where the assessee had not shown in the return, the investment in mutual funds but accepted the amount of investment only on the basis of the AIR information on the investment of the assessee in the mutual funds, it cannot be said that he had voluntarily offered the amount. A request made not to initiate the penalty proceedings, cannot be equated with a conditional offer. Levy of penalty in relation to the addition was justified. (A.Y. 2005-06)

Charudutt H. Dangat v. ITO (2010) 132 TTJ 687 / 126 ITD 483 / 43 DTR 443 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Search and seizure – Revised return – Explanation 5 [S. 132, 153A]

As the assessee has filed the revised return subsequent to search and had not disclosed the speculative profit in original return, assessee is not eligible for immunity as per explanation 5 to section 271(1)(c) of the Income tax Act. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Ajit B. Zota v. ACIT (2010) 40 SOT 543 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Unsustainable claims – Inaccurate particulars

A mere making of a claim, which is not sustainable in law, by itself, will not amount to furnishing of inaccurate particulars regarding income of assessee. When assessee had furnished full details and particulars of its income and it was under bonafide belief regarding allowability of claim penalty could not be levied.

Hindalco Industries Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 41 SOT 254 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Survey – Disclosure [S. 133A]

In the course of survey, assessee declared unaccounted income of ` 32.84 lakhs, thereupon assessee filed his return of income wherein amount declared in survey was included. Assessing Officer completed assessment on basis of return of income. He also levied the penalty under section 271(1)(c). The Tribunal held that since the Assessing Officer had accepted income declared in return of income, in view of aforesaid legal position, assessee could not be charged for any contumacious conduct, therefore, the impugned penalty order was set aside. (A.Y. 2006-07)

Dy. CIT v. Satish B. Gupta (Dr.) (2010) 42 SOT 48 / 135 TTJ 611 / 49 DTR 262 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Search and seizure – Included in Return [S. 132(4), 153A]

Assessee had made disclosure with reference to all the items of jewellery in a statement under section 132(4) of the Act. Subsequently in the return filed under section 153A of the Act, the assessee had offered the said Income to tax the Assessing Officer levied penalty on the said amount. The tribunal held that as two views are possible in the issue and, therefore, penalty levied by the Assessing Officer was cancelled. (A.Ys. 2005-06, 2006-07)

Dy. CIT v. Avinash CH. Gupta (2010) 6 ITR 173 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Depreciation – Finance transaction – Not a genuine leasing transaction

When a legal claim is made by an assessee it is obviously open to Assessing Officer to accept or reject, the interpretation canvassed by assessee, but then it does not follow that when claim is rejected, it would imply that there has been a concealment of income by the assessee so as to levy penalty under section 271(1)(c). Penalty levied on disallowance of claim of depreciation on leasing of assets was deleted by the Tribunal. (A.Ys. 1998-99, 2000-01)

Industrial Development Bank of India Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2010) 42 SOT 325 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction – Wrong Depreciation

Due to bona fide mistake depreciation was claimed in reverse manner i.e., 50% on ` 6,35,492 and 100% on ` 4,25,79,639. Levy of penalty cannot be justified as there was no mala fide intention. Further, as the Assessing Officer did not record his satisfaction and did not initiate penalty at the time of assessment, levy of penalty was not justified for this reason as well.

ACIT v. Chambal Fertilizer & Chemicals Kota (2010) Tax World (November, 10) Vol. XLIV, Part-5. Page 188 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance [S. 40A(2)]

Payments made to sister concern was disallowed as excessive and unreasonable payments under section 40A(2). It was held that disallowance under section 40A(2) could not be considered as concealment of income or furnishing inaccurate particulars and, hence, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not warranted.

Jhavar Properties P. Ltd. v. ACIT (2009) 317 ITR (AT) 278 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalties – Concealment – Return not filed

If the assessee has not filed any return then there is no concealment and the penalty can not be levied under section 271(1)(c) for concealment of income. (A.Y. 1986-87)
T. Kodeeswaran v. ITO (2009) 123 TTJ 230 / 23 DTR 117 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Addition deleted

Where the addition was deleted by the Tribunal in quantum appeal, the very foundation for levy of the penalty ceased to exist. Further, the explanation offered by the assessee was not found to be false, assessee's explanation was bonafide and all the facts relating to the claim was disclosed, penalty under section 271(1)(c) cannot be levied. (A.Y. 2000-01)

ACIT v. VIP Industries (2009) 122 TTJ 289 / 21 DTR 153 / 30 SOT 254 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Estimation of yield

The Tribunal held that penalty cannot be levied on additions made by estimating the yield, based on percentage of yield of preceding year, when there is no evidence on record to prove that there were sales outside the books. (A. Y. 1992-93 & 1993 -94)
Sangrur Vanaspati Mills Ltd. v. ACIT (2009) 179 Taxman 27 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Finding in assessment

In penalty proceedings there has to be re-appraisal of material available at time of Assessment, as well as any additional material produced by assessee should be examined, to ascertain the concealment or furnishing of inaccurate particulars. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Vijay Power Generators Ltd. v. ITO (2009) 180 Taxman 102 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – Claim withdrawn – Simple mistake

If the assessee had made a simple mistake while claiming deduction under Section 80-IA and thereafter filed a revised return, the same could not be a case of furnishing inaccurate particulars of income or concealment of income attracting the levy of penalty under S. 271(1)(c) of the Act. (A. Y. 1998-99)

Niton Valve Industries (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2009) 30 SOT 236 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Depreciation on fabricated evidence

Assessee having claimed depreciation which was found to be based on fabricated invoice and assets having never been installed and used by the lessee and which claim was withdrawn after finding of false claim, it could not be said that assessee disclosed primary facts in a return originally filed and, therefore, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was validly levied. (A.Y. 1998-99)

ACIT v. TVS Finance & Services Ltd. (2009) 126 TTJ 302 / 30 DTR 81 / 125 ITD 341 (TM)(Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure – By a letter – Explanation 5

Authorised officer having not recorded assessee's statement under section 132(4), during the course of search, the disclosure of additional income made by the assessee through a letter addressed to the Asstt. Director of IT (Inv.) immediately after conclusion of the search which has shown in the return of income, which has been accepted without any variation, has to be construed as a bona fide voluntary disclosure and therefore, penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not leviable in view of Expln. 5. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Hissaria Brothers v. Dy. CIT (2009) 31 DTR 223 / 126 TTJ 391 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – ALV of property – Estimation

Penalty levied on Addition to Income by estimating ALV of the property, which was reduced substantially by Tribunal, and which was based on satisfaction recorded in Penalty Order and not in Assessment Order was held as not justified and penalty was deleted.

Further held that, for imposition of penalty a definite finding about concealment is necessary, and penalty cannot be imposed if there is no conscious breach of law.

Rishwa Rani (Smt) v. ACIT (2009) 184 Taxman 140 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Head of income – Set off of loss

Non bifurcation of short-term capital loss from the overall business loss amounted to concealment of income and furnishing of inaccurate particulars of income. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Nera (India) Limited v. Dy. CIT, ITA No. 107/Del/2009, Bench 'F', dt. 4-8-2009 – BCAJ P. 20, Vol. 41-B, Part 2, November 2009.(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation furnished

Payer having acknowledged payment, appeared before the Assessing Officer and led evidence, in support of services rendered to the assessee, there was no justification to term the assessee's explanation as false and therefore no penalty was leviable notwithstanding that the disallowance was confirmed in appeal by the Tribunal. (A.Ys. 2001-02)

Dhirajlal Maganlal Shah v. ITO (2009) 32 DTR 69 / 126 TTJ 644 / 125 ITD 313 (TM)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

Editorial Note:- UOI v. Dharmendra Textile Processors & Ors. (2008) 306 ITR 277 (SC), considered.

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Transfer pricing adjustment [S. 92C]

The fact that the assessee had accepted the addition and not challenged the same would not mean that assessee cannot argue that the issue is debatable. When there is full disclosure by the assessee the assessee and conduct being not mala fide or contumacious, penalty under section 271(1)(c), was held to be not justified. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Dy. CIT v. Vertx Customer Services India (P) Ltd. (2009) 34 SOT 532 / 31 DTR 27 / 126 TTJ 184 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Head of income

No penalty can be levied in a case where rental income is assessed under the head 'Income from house property' as against 'Income from Business'. (A.Y. 2001-02)

ACIT v. Vazir Glass Works Ltd., ITA No.332/Mum/2007, Bench – F, dt. 24-11-2008 – BCAJ P. 671, Vol. 40-B, Part 5, February 2009. (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Additions confirmed in appeal

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) can not be imposed only on ground that some additions had been made in the Assessment which were subsequently, confirmed in Appeal. Further, it was held that though findings given in Assessment is a good evidence, same is not conclusive in penalty proceedings. For penalty, it has to be seen that additions made are based on material from which an inference can be drawn that Assessee has concealed particulars of income.

ITO v. Ravi Khurana (2008) 173 Taxman 26 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revision – Denial of deduction

A) The denial of deduction by cancelling the assessment, by Commissioner acting under section 263 pursuant to subsequent judgment of the Supreme Court would not constitute concealment or furnishing of inaccurate particulars.

B) Imposition of penalty under section 271(1) (c) on expenses of foreign travel of Directors disallowed by Assessing Officer and upheld by Tribunal for non-business consideration, without holding that claim for expenses reflected any falsity or lacking in bonafide was held to be not justified as it was merely difference of opinion as regards allowability of claim.

ACIT v. Vijay Kiran Hotels (P) Ltd (2008) 175 Taxman 126 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – TP adjustment – Expl. 7 – Bona fide [S. 92C]

The question whether the provision for bad debt in respect of sum owed by the parent company is a matter falling in the ordinary course of trade or whether it is an extraordinary item warranting exclusion from operational cost is a debatable point on which there can be two opinions. The fact that the assessee accepted the addition and did not challenge the same will not change this aspect;

Penalty also cannot be imposed unless the party obliged either acted deliberately in defiance of law or was guilty of conduct contumacious or dishonest, or acted in conscious disregard of its obligation;

The conduct of the assessee was not mala fide or contumacious. The computation claiming exclusion of the provision for doubtful debts in arriving at comparable profit margins cannot be said to have been done not in good faith or without due diligence. Accordingly, penalty under section 271(1)(c) Explanation 1 could not be levied. (A. Y. 2003-04)

Dy. CIT v. Vertex Customer Services (India) Pvt. Ltd., (M/s) ITA No. 1506/Delhi/2008, Bench – C, dt. 21st Sept. 09. Source: www.itatonline.org (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Deduction – Debatable [S. 80-I and 80-IA]

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) was levied on the ground of claiming excessive deductions under section 80I and 80IA.

Held, as all facts relating to claim under section 80IA was furnished in Return and in accounts submitted with Return, there was no attempt on part of Assessee to conceal its income, and hence no penalty under section 271(1)(c).

As regards claim of deduction under section 80I, since at time of filing of Return legal position was not settled and issue was debatable, it was held that assessee could not be said to have concealed its income and, hence, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not leviable.

ACIT v. Carrier Aircon Ltd. (2008) 172 Taxman 173 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Gift from NRI

Gift received by an Assessee from a non-resident through a cheque from NRE A/c was treated as Income of the Assessee. In Appeal before CIT (A), the addition became final, as assessee did not press his appeal. Penalty levied under section 271 (1)(c) was deleted in absence of evidence or proof that the money belonged to the assessee, and that the compensatory payment had flowed from the assessee to the donor. Further, held that mere surrender of amount as Income do not mean that amount of Gift was income of the Assessee.

ACIT v. Vishan Narayan Khanna (2008) 171 Taxman 136 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Specific charge – Condition

Order levying penalty without specific mention as to whether assessee had concealed particulars of income or furnished inaccurate particulars thereof, was held to be invalid, inspite of fact that Assessing Officer had validly initiated penalty proceedings for furnishing inaccurate particulars of Income.

Poonam Industries v. ITO (2008) 172 Taxman 87 (Mag.)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction

Assessing Officer merely mentioning towards the end of the assessment order that "Penalty notice under section 271(1)(c) is issued" does not amount to recording of valid satisfaction, hence, penalty imposed under section 271(1)(c) was invalid and without jurisdiction. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Vikram Chadha v. ITO (2008) 4 DTR 435 / 115 TTJ 123 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Satisfaction – Condition

The requisite satisfaction if not derived or recorded by Assessing Officer during the course of original assessment proceedings, regarding concealment or furnishing inaccurate particulars, then the initiation of penalty is bad in law and consequently penalty imposed is liable to be cancelled.

British Airways plc v. Dy. DIT (2008) 166 Taxman 126 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Addition based on TDS certificate

Interest on FDR declared on receipt basis was enhanced by Assessing Officer, at figure as disclosed in TDS certificate. Penalty imposed on account of said addition was deleted on ground that nothing was concealed, and full particulars of income were disclosed with Return by way of TDS certificate.

ITO v. Purushottam Das Chopra (2008) 167 Taxman 86 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Conditional surrender – Independent material by Assessing Officer

Assessing Officer brought the income to tax by independently referring to evidence gathered by him, and levied penalty, and did not consider the conditional surrender. Held, assessee's contention that penalty cannot be imposed having accepted the surrender was without force.

Giri Raj Gupta v. I.T.O. (2007) 162 Taxman 81 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Independent proceedings

If part addition has been sustained in quantum proceedings, it is not necessary that penalty would be leviable, as both are all together different. For levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) clear finding as to concealment of particulars of income is necessary.

ITO v. Kuldeep Sood Enterprises (2007) 160 Taxman 171 / 103 TTJ 573 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance [S. 43B]

Penalty initiated against disallowance under section 43 B. Held, that as material facts necessary for disallowance were duly disclosed in audit report filed with Return of Income, assessee's contention that same being genuine, bona fide and innocent mistake was accepted, and that penalty cannot be imposed, as there was no mala fide intentions on part of assessee.

Akshay Enterprises (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2007) 161 Taxman 168 (Mag.)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Addition on Estimate – Debatable issue

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) could not be imposed in respect of additions to income which were either deleted in appeal or were made on estimate basis. (A.Y. 1996-97)

ACIT v. Allied Construction (2007) 106 TTJ 616 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Validity – Recording of satisfaction

Assessing Officer having recorded no satisfaction as contemplated while framing the assessment order or at the time of initiating penalty proceedings under section 271(1)(c), penalty is not valid. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Verma Tractors v. ACIT (2007) 106 TTJ 591 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction

Assessing Officer having not recorded the satisfaction in the assessment order as required for initiation of penalty proceedings under section 271(1)(c) penalty imposed by him could not be sustained. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Balka Services (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2006) 102 TTJ 115 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Unaccounted sales – Revised return

Assessee having not disclosed certain sales in the original return, explanation of assessee while filing revised return disclosing that income of cash sales of copper scrap escaped to be entered in the books was not bona fide and penalty was rightly imposed by Assessing Officer under section 271(1)(c), Expl. 1. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Dy. CIT v. Grey Cast Foundry Works (2006) 101 TTJ 42 / 99 ITD 515 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Unexplained deposits – Loss

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) could not be levied in respect of additions made on account of unexplained deposits as the assessee had filed a loss return and the assessment was also made at loss despite such additions.

Azad Talkies v. ITO (2006) 100 TTJ 350 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Book profit [S. 115JB]

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) cannot be levied on the income determined on the basis of provision of section 115JB, which was accepted and assessment was completed even though on a finding that interest income on FD and employee loans are not income derived from Industrial Undertaking and same being excluded while computing deduction under section 80-IB.

Jayco India (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2006) 152 Taxman 14 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Interest – Accrual basis

When assessee had offered an explanation, for not accounting interest income on accrual basis, and had declared that fact in audited accounts, keeping in view the accounting standard laid by ICAI, it could not be said that assessee had deliberately and consciously concealed the particulars, and no penalty under section 271(1)(c) can be levied.

ITO v. SRF International Finance (P) Ltd. (2006) 152 Taxman 55 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Statement under section 132(4) – Offer for taxation

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) cannot be sustained on income declared in a statement under section 132(4), by denying benefit of immunity under clause 2 of

Explanation 5 to section 271(1)(c), for not specifying the manner in which income had been earned, and more so when no specific question with that regards was asked, and also for not filing the return within the time limit prescribed under section 139(1).

ACIT v. Lad Devi Kothari (Smt.) (2006) 153 Taxman 16 (Mag.)(Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Depreciation

Assessing Officer restricted depreciation to 25% by treating it as P & M, as against claim of assessee @60%, treating same as part of computer. As assessee had furnished all the details regarding assets, block and rate of depreciation, it could not be said that assessee intentionally furnished inaccurate particulars of income or concealed the particular of his income, and, therefore, penalty under section 271(1)(c) can not be levied.

Dy. CIT v. N. Y. Dox Services Ltd. (2006) 153 Taxman 67 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender of Income

Conditional surrender of income during survey with a request not to impose penalty having been accepted by Revenue, no penalty for concealment could be levied. (A.Ys. 1998-99, 2000-01)

Bhagat & Co. v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 553 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Claim for exemption under section 54

Assessee having wrongly claimed exemption under section 54 in the relevant assessment year after withdrawing such claim made in an earlier year under bona fide misconception and belief, penalty under section 271(1)(c) could not be levied.

Devi Dass Sukhani v. ITO (2006) 101 TTJ 551 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Proof of sale at higher price

In the absence of positive proof of concealment and findings of any authority that assessee had sold liquor for higher price than shown in the books, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not leviable. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Sonu Liquor Traders v. Dy. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 648 / 100 ITD 455 (Nagpur)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Search – Fresh return – Acceptance

Assessing Officer having accepted the fresh returns filed by assessee offering additional income at a percentage of gross receipt following detection of unexplained discrepancies in the search and seizure operation, without pointing out any specific discrepancy either in the assessment orders or in the penalty orders, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not leviable. The Tribunal held that the explanation of the assessee that higher income was declared to avoid pro and to buy peace was not found to be false. (A.Ys. 1987-88, 1989-90)

Illumination India v. ACIT (2006) 100 TTJ 426 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Claim against advise

By a conscious act assessee having made the Revenue to believe that purchase of running business of publishing two titles was for a limited period and not in perpetuity and claimed deduction against the advice of auditors by filing inaccurate particulars, he was liable for penalty under section 271(1)(c).

ACIT v. Jasubhai Business Service (P) Ltd. (2006) 100 TTJ 951 / 5 SOT 36 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Bogus purchase – Explanation 1

Assessee having admitted bogus purchase on being confronted with material collected by Assessing Officer and having also agreed to penalty under section 271(1)(C), Explan. 1 was rightly levied. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Hoshiarpur Roller Flour Mills v. ITO (2006) 100 TTJ 152 / 97 ITD 595 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Statement of creditors – Surrender

Assessee having surrendered the amounts shown as payable to two concerns and made no attempt to rebut or challenge the statements of the creditors to the effect that the amounts shown by the assessee were not correct, penalty was justified. (A.Y. 1990-91)

ACIT v. J. L. Kumar (2006) 100 TTJ 288 / 99 ITD 79 / 5 SOT 694 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1 – Purchase of drafts

The explanation of the assessee that High Court purchase of drafts by assessee was on behalf of weavers not being bona fide and without supported by any evidence was -- to be -- and there being no evidence that department had agreed not to impose penalty, penalty under section 271(1)(c), Explan. Was justified. (A.Y. 1987-88)

Shivratan R. Tapadia v. ACIT (2006) 102 TTJ 483 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Sale of car – Capital receipt

Compensation received in respect of the car was rightly treated by the assessee as capital receipt and therefore, neither any addition nor consequential penalty under section 271(1)(c) was attracted. (A.Y. 2000-02)

Prem Nath Vishwa Nath Nanda v. ACIT (2006) 102 TTJ 598 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Secret Commission – For the purpose of business – Not leviable

Disallowance of expenses on secret commission paid on ad hoc basis as per prevailing practice in the business fully and exclusively for boosting sales will not amount to furnishing of inaccurate particulars of income or concealment of particulars of income justifying levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c).

ITO v. Mugatlal B. & Sons (2006) 152 Taxman 29 (Mag.)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Validity

Assessing Officer having nowhere recorded his satisfaction with regard to concealment of income or furnishing of inaccurate particulars of income in the assessment order, initiation of penalty proceedings under s. 271(1) (c) was not in accordance with law and penalty was liable to be cancelled. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Everplus Securities & Finance Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 120 / 99 ITD 79 / 5 SOT 694 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Voluntary surrender of income

Assessee having voluntarily surrendered an income of ₹ 3 lakhs in view of his inability to produce month-wise tally and other quantitative details to the satisfaction of the Assessing Officer, levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not justified.

ACIT v. J. L. Kumar (2006) 100 TTJ 288 / 99 ITD 79 / 5 SOT 694 (TM)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Agricultural income

Agricultural income shown in Return was surrendered for reason that supporting evidence was misplaced and tax was paid thereon. Held mere surrender could not be considered as concealed income, and same being done before any inquiry, penalty under section 271(1)(c) could not be levied.

Dy. CIT v. Rakesh Kumar (2006) 157 Taxman 71 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – No concealment of facts – Penalty cannot be levied

There being no concealment of facts, penalty under section 271(1)(c) cannot be levied.

(A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1997-98)

Thomas Cook (India) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 105 TTJ 317 / 103 ITD 119 / 15 SOT 392 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance of expenses – Particulars furnished

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) is not leviable on account of disallowance of certain expenses particulars whereof were correctly furnished along with the return. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Dy. CIT v. Indiahit Com (P) Ltd. (2006) 105 TTJ 501 / 15 SOT 440 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Mala Fide Intent

In the absence of any finding indicating the mala fide intent on the part of the assessee or that the explanation offered by the assessee was not bona fide, penalty in respect of additions was not called for only on the ground that the explanation of assessee was not found satisfactory while making assessment. (A.Y. 1986-87)

ACIT v. Modern Coal Company (2006) 103 TTJ 726 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Excessive claim

Tribunal having agreed with the Assessing Officer that the assessee has made excessive claim and the assessee having failed to prove the genuineness of the of

'security charges' said to be paid by it, levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) was justified. (A.Ys. 1995-96, 1996-97)

ACIT v. McLeod Russel (I) Ltd. (2006) 102 TTJ 871 / 101 ITD 39 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance – Recording satisfaction – Mechanical

Assessee having claimed depreciation for passive use of machinery which was ultimately allowed and other expense which were disallowed, it could not be per se said that assessee was guilty of concealment/furnishing of inaccurate particulars of income so as to attract penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 1998-99)

Mere statement by the Assessing Officer in the assessment order that 'penalty under section 271(1)(c) is initiated for furnishing inaccurate particulars' does not constitute valid satisfaction for purposes of levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c).

ITO v. Budge Budge Co. Ltd. (2006) 103 TTJ 139 / 100 ITD 387 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Quantum Appeal

Quantum proceedings and penalty proceedings being altogether different, penalty under section 271(1)(c) cannot be levied simply on account of the fact that an addition has been sustained in quantum appeal. (A.Y. 2002-03)

ITO v. Kuldeep Sood Enterprises (2006) 103 TTJ 573 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Appeal not filed

Mere non filing of appeal against addition made by Assessing Officer after rejecting the explanation does not ipso facto lead to levy of penalty under section 271(1) (c). For the levy of penalty which are penal in nature something more is required to be proved by the department and mere non filing of appeal would not lead to any conclusion that assessee has committed or omitted either of the ingredients of section 271(1)(c).

Rajendra Kumar v. ITO (2006) 155 Taxman 88 (Mag.)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Inaccurate Particulars

Penalty to be levied only in respect of income for which wrong claim for deduction under section 80P(2)(a)(vi) had been made in the return, i.e. in respect of which assessee made inaccurate particulars, and not on the entire income enhanced by applying 8% net profit rate under section 44AD.

Universal Co-op. L/C Society Ltd. v. ITO 154 Taxman 35 (Mag.)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Book profit [143(1)(a), 115JB]

Return of income was filed declaring net Loss was accepted under section 143(1)(a). Subsequently during scrutiny it was noticed that section 115JB is attracted, and demand was raised determining Book Profit. Notice under section 274 r.w. 271(1)(c) for concealment was issued. It was held that as P & L A/c and Balance Sheet were filed along with Return, from which the figure of book profit could be ascertained, it cannot be said that assessee has attempted to conceal its income or furnish inaccurate particulars, and so penalty cannot be levied.

Travel Club India (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2006) 154 Taxman 195 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Withdrawal of NSS

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) levied on assessee, an Air Force Officer, for not including income from NSS withdrawal, under bonafide belief that as tax had already been deducted on NSS withdrawal and there was no necessity to include same in total income, was cancelled.

Wg. Cdr. Gurmukh Sing v. ITO 154 Taxman 153 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Legal heir [S. 159]

Penalty proceedings cannot be initiated against the legal heir for default committed by the deceased assessee taking recourse to section 159(2)(b).

Proceedings under section 159(2)(b) do not include penalty proceedings, as the phrase used is "any sum" and not "any tax".

ITO v. V. P. Sharma (2006) 154 Taxman 34 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Estimation – Debtors

Enhancement of assessee's income by Assessing Officer on estimate basis and sustenance of addition on account of debtors was not sufficient for imposition of penalty under section 271(1)(c) of the Act. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Mansukh Dass Soni v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 894 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised Return

Assessee having voluntarily filed revised return offering additional income before detection by the Department, levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not justified, particularly when such income was assessed in the hands of the assessee on protective basis. (A.Ys. 1990-91, 1991-92)

K. Deedar Ahmed v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 927 / 97 ITD 240 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Differential income

In the absence of any material to prove that the differential income declared by the assessee in the revised returns was detected by the Department and that the explanation of the assessee that revised returns were filed to buy peace and to avoid vexatious litigation was not bona fide, penalty under s. 271(1)(c) could not be levied. (A.Ys. 1994-95 to 1997-98)

A.V.R. Prasad v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 920 / 97 ITD 325 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised Return – Excessive claim (80 P(2)(a)(iii))

Assessee having bona fide belief, claimed deduction under section 80P(2)(a)(iii) on the basis of an appellate order of the CIT (A) for an earlier year allowing such claim and immediately corrected the same by filing a revised return giving up the excessive claim it could not be held that the assessee had made a false claim or deliberately furnished inaccurate particulars of income simply because the claim was not allowable and, therefore, penalty under section 271(1)(c) could not be levied, more so, when no penalty was imposed in other years on similar facts. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Jt. CIT v. Karnal Co-operative Sugar Mills Ltd. (2006) 99 TTJ 330 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Survey

Penalty could not be imposed in respect of income surrendered by the assessee during the course of survey when the Assessing Officer had dropped penalty proceedings for the subsequent assessment year on materially similar set of facts — Penalties could not be sustained also for the reason that the circumstances surrounding the surrenders of income by the assessee do not establish that there was concealment of income. (A.Ys. 1993-94, 1994-95)

Orient Press Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 1091 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Settlement commission

Settlement Commission having settled the matter of three beneficiaries who had approached it and also waived concealment penalties in the case of the trust and said beneficiaries, there is no justification for levying concealment penalty on the remaining two beneficiaries (assesseees) in respect of their similar share of income from the trust. (A.Ys. 1984-85 & 1992-93)

Alin A. Shah & Anr. v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 1257 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Inadmissible claim [S. 80-I]

Assessee having made an inadmissible claim for deduction under s. 80-I which cannot be accepted to be a bona fide mistake, and filed the revised return to withdraw the said claim only after notices were issued twice asking the assessee to justify the claim, levy of penalty was justified. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Hardeep Engineers v. Dy. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 447 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Satisfaction of Assessing Officer – Mechanical

Assessing Officer having merely stated at the end of the assessment order that penalty proceedings under section 271(1)(c) have been initiated separately without mentioning anything about the satisfaction in terms of s. 271(1)(c), penalty proceedings were not validly initiated and therefore, levy of penalty was invalid. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Dy. CIT v. Ascom India (P) Ltd. (2006) 99 TTJ 728 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction

Recording of the satisfaction by Assessing Officer is condition precedent for initiating the penalty proceedings under section 271(1)(c) and mere observation that penalty proceedings are being initiated separately was not suffice. (A.Ys. 1992-93, 1997-98, 1999-2000)

Saroop Lal Adlakha v. Dy. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 724 / 97 ITD 6 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Unexplained deposits – Loss assessment

Penalty could not be levied in respect of additions made on account of unexplained deposits as the assessee had filed a loss return and the assessment was also made at loss despite such additions. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Azad Talkies v. ITO (2006) 100 TTJ 350 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction

Assessing Officer having not recorded any satisfaction in the assessment order to the effect that there was filing of inaccurate particulars of income or concealment of income by the assessee while making additions on account of disallowance of certain foreign tour expenses and disallowance of bona fide claim of deduction under section 80I, levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not sustainable. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Jay Bharat Maruti Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 400 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Estimate

Penalty under section 271(1)(c) cannot be levied in a case where addition has been made on estimate basis.

Brijkishore Mittal v. ITO, (Jaipur) (Tax World – February 2006 – Vol XXXV – P. 35)(Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Conditional offer

The assessment was made relying on conditional offer of the assessee, that if same was not acceptable to Assessor then it would not be an admission and it would be free to contest additions.

For the purpose of penalty Assessing Officer should brought out independent material for concealment on record, and in absence of any material to establish concealment independently, penalty cannot be sustained.

Ruchi Organisation (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2006) 150 Taxman 22 (Mag.)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction

Assessing Officer having not recorded any satisfaction in the assessment order to the effect that there was filing of inaccurate particulars of income or concealment of income by the assessee while making additions on account of disallowance of certain foreign tour expenses and disallowance of bona fide claim of deduction under section 80-I, levy of penalty was not sustainable. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Jay Bharat Maruti Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 400 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Unexplained cash

Unexplained Cash found in locker be added in the year in which locker is sealed. Date of opening of locker has no relevance. Penalty levied accordingly was upheld.

On account of non acceptance of evidence furnished by an assessee, an addition can be made but penalty under section 271(1)(c) should not be levied.

Manilal G. Biyani v. ACIT 158 Taxman 31 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance upheld in appeal – Independent proceeding

Mere fact that disallowance has been made and upheld in appeal, does not justify the imposition of penalty under section 271(1)(c), as both penalty and assessment proceedings are separate and independent. The findings recorded in the assessment order only lays down the foundation for levy of penalty

ACIT v. Baldeep Singh Swani 158 Taxman 143 (Mag.)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Evidence

When no evidence was adduced by revenue to show that there was any wilful default on part of assessee, nor Assessing Officer had recorded any satisfaction that assessee had concealed or furnished inaccurate particulars, penalty cannot be levied.

Wg. Cdr. Ashok Amir Chand Dhawan v. ITO 161 Taxman 201 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Declaration in original return – Detection

There cannot be any concealment where entire income had been declared by assessee in original return filed before the issue of notice under section 148 and assessment was completed on lesser income after allowing certain exemptions and in such a case, penalty could not be imposed on ground that return was filed belatedly. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Tidewater Marine International Inc. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 97 TTJ 139 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Notice beyond statutory period

Where notice under section 148 had been issued beyond statutory period prescribed under section 149(3), assessment made on basis of such notice would be null and void and in such a case, since very basis of imposition of penalty ceased to exist by virtue of void assessment order, penalty imposed under section 271(1)(c) was liable to be cancelled. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1997-98)

Tidewater Marine International Inc. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 96 ITD 406 / 97 TTJ 137 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Satisfaction

Recording of satisfaction is a condition precedent for initiating penalty proceedings; mere observation of Assessing Officer that penalty proceedings were being initiated separately does not amount to satisfaction in terms of provisions of section 271(1)(c). (A.Ys. 1992-93, 1997-98, 1999-2000)

Saroop Lai Adlakha v. Dy. CIT (2005) 97 ITD 6 / 99 TTJ 724 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Satisfaction

Mere initiation of penalty proceedings during assessment proceedings does not tantamount to recording of satisfaction regarding concealment.

J. K. Traders v. ITO (2005) 148 Taxman 15 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Satisfaction

Where assessee-company filed its return claiming depreciation on building and, subsequently, as the assessee withdrew the said claim, Assessing Officer imposed penalty under section 271(1)(c) for making false claim of depreciation in its return. Since Assessing Officer had not recorded any satisfaction for initiation of proceedings under section 271(1)(c), penalty imposed under section 271(1)(c) could not be sustained.

Jt. CIT v. Ashoka Merchantile Ltd. (2005) 147 Taxman 96 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Satisfaction of ITO

Assessee filed its return of income declaring loss, and the Assessing Officer completed assessment on loss after disallowing certain amount of depreciation and imposed penalty under section 271(1)(c), since reasons for satisfaction of Assessing Officer that assessee had concealed its income or filed inaccurate particulars thereof had not been spelt out in assessment order, penalty proceedings were bad and were therefore quashed.

Jt. CIT v. Rakesh Fuel (P.) Ltd. (2005) 147 Taxman 109 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment of income – Satisfaction

Where it was found from the assessment order that at end of order Assessing Officer had mentioned that notice under section 271(1)(c) for furnishing inaccurate particulars of income had been issued, that was sufficient compliance with requirements under provisions of section 271(1)(c) for recording satisfaction before initiating penalty proceedings against assessee.

Dy. CIT v. Roadmaster Industries of India Ltd. (2005) 148 Taxman 18 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Where Income assessed was nil

Where there was a bona fide mistake on part of assessee in not declaring capital gains in original returns and even after inclusion of capital gains, income assessed was nil, it was not a fit case for levy of penalty.

Padra Taluka Co-op. Cotton Sales Ginning & Pressing Society Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 142 Taxman 22 (Mag.)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender of income

Concealment cannot be presumed merely because assessee has offered additional income.

(A.Y. 2001-02)

Dy. CIT v. Rajan H. Shinde (2005) 93 ITD 1 / 92 TTJ 1185 (TM)(Pune)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender of income

Where to avoid litigation assessee offered for taxation certain deposits found during search with stipulation that if conditions of offer were not accepted it should not be treated as admission, in absence of independent material to establish concealment independently, imposition of penalty relying totally on conditional offer of assessee was not justified.

(A.Ys. 1993-94, 1994-95)

Ruchi Organisers (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 93 TTJ 242 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender of income

Where substratum of truth was that surrender of income made by assessee was only to avoid harassment and to purchase peace with department, it was also true that Department could not find out any adverse material on survey or otherwise and even from books of account of assessee no concealment was detected, penalty for concealment of income was not imposable merely on basis of surrendered income. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Ishwar Enterprises v. Jt. CIT (2005) 96 TTJ 508 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Surrender of income

Where during assessment proceedings, Assessing Officer made enquiries and found that purchases shown by assessee were bogus and assessee, admitting fact of bogus purchases, agreed to quantum addition and did not challenge assessment order before Commissioner (Appeals) and even at penalty stage assessee did not ask for cross examination of any party. Assessing Officer was justified in drawing adverse inference against assessee and levying penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 1997-98)

Hoshiarpur Roller Flour Mills v. ITO (2005) 97 ITD 595 / 100 TTJ 152 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Estimated additions

Where penalty was levied on assessee on account of stock discrepancy discovered during survey and low gross profit rate, imposition of penalty on assessee was not justified as addition on account of low gross profit was based on estimation only and figure of stock discrepancy as discovered during survey went on changing from time to time. (A.Y. 1993-94)

ITO v. C. Chhotalal Textiles (P.) Ltd. (2005) 95 TTJ 436 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Estimated additions

Where addition on account of sale of copper wire and excess wastage had been made on estimate basis by merely rejecting assessee's explanation and not a single defect had been pointed out by Assessing Officer in books of account, levy of penalty for concealment of particulars of income was not justified. (A.Y. 1983-84)

Jt. CIT v. VXL (India) Ltd. (2005) 94 TTJ 513 / 146 Taxman 77 (Mag.)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Effect of rejection of assessee's explanation

In case addition was made after rejecting explanation of assessee, that fact simpliciter would not lead to conclusion that penalty under section 271(1)(c) is attracted; mere non-filing of appeal against findings of Assessing Officer would not ipso facto lead to levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 1997-98)

Rajendra Kumar v. ITO (2005) 94 TTJ 280 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised Return

Mere filing of revised return will not automatically protect an assessee from levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) but in a given case, where an assessee comes forward with clean hands, though after detection, and files return of income offering additional income and expresses remorse for his past conduct unhesitatingly, Assessing Officer may exonerate him from levy of penalty. (A.Ys. 1990-91, 1991-92)

K. Deedar Ahmed v. ITO (2005) 97 ITD 240 / 99 TTJ 927 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – Inquiry by AO

Where department had accepted revised return filed by assessee declaring additional income without making any addition to returned income, penalty under section 271(1)(c) could not be levied.

ACIT v. Shailesh Kumar (Contractor) (2005) 148 Taxman 17 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return

Concealment of income in original return would attract penalty even if assessee submits a revised return before assessment is completed or penalty proceedings are started, where disclosure was made in revised return only after search and after a query was raised by Assessing Officer. (A.Y. 1998-99)

ACIT v. Lad Devi Kothari (Smt.) (2005) 97 TTJ 421 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return

Unless there is anything on record to conclusively establish that because of pressure or enquiries from Department assessee was compelled to file revised return, penalty cannot be levied on assessee, particularly, when assessee rectified its mistake by filing a revised return within available time as per rules. (A.Y. 1984-85)

Johree Saree House v. ITO (2004) 4 SOT 938 / 92 TTJ 287 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return

Explanation of assessee that he has filed revised returns to buy peace and to avoid vexatious litigation can be considered as a bona fide explanation depending on circumstances of case; in penalty proceedings where assessee has given such an explanation, duty is cast upon revenue to highlight that revised returns were filed not merely to buy peace with department but on account of detection by revenue authorities. (A.Ys. 1994-95 to 1997-98)

A. V. R. Prasad v. ITO (2005) 97 ITD 325 / 99 TTJ 920 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disallowance – Depreciation

Mere disallowance of claim of depreciation cannot be considered as concealment of income by assessee.

ITO v. Tolaram Phusa Ram (2005) 147 Taxman 94 (Mag.)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Depreciation – Revised return

Where assessee had claimed depreciation on a machine purchased during relevant previous year in original return and later it withdrew claim for depreciation following survey operation by filing revised return, simply because assessee had so withdrawn its claim, penalty could not be levied for furnishing inaccurate particulars of income. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Dy. CIT v. Royal Metal Printers (P.) Ltd. (2005) 93 TTJ 119 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Depreciation

Assessee's claim for depreciation under section 32 and investment allowance under section 32A on 1150 KVA DG set for assessment year 1990-91 was disallowed on ground that it was not ready for use during relevant financial year penalty under section 271(1)(c) was imposed but when the facts showed that there was trial run of DG set, trial run of DG set during the relevant year which is sufficient to substantiate bona fides of assessee's claim, imposition of penalty was not justified; on basis of materials on record neither Explanation 1(A) nor 1(B) section 271(1) was attracted. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Dy. CIT v. Tata Refractories Ltd. (2005) 92 TTJ 1199 (Cuttack)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revised return – Withdrawal of claim

Where claim for deduction under section 80-IB was withdrawn by assessee in revised return on the basis of statement given at the time of survey that the claim under section 80-IB was not well founded; withdrawal of claim as such could not be treated as a case of furnishing of inaccurate particulars or concealment of income. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Atul J. Doshi v. ITO (2005) 4 SOT 515 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Valuation of stock

Even where appellate authorities confirmed additions on account of change in method of valuation of stock and wrong deduction allowed on account of surtax liability and excise duty paid on closing stock, as all claims of assessee were bona fide on factual and legal position, penalty imposed on assessee on account of aforesaid additions was not justified. (A.Ys. 1983-84, 1985-86)

Dy. CIT v. Hindustan Milk Food Mfrs. Ltd. (2005) 94 TTJ 436 / 148 Taxman 57 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Material facts

Where assessee had disclosed all material facts relating to matter of its assessment for relevant assessment year and no case for concealment of income or filing of inaccurate particulars of income had been made out by revenue and it was a case of honest difference of opinion between assessee and revenue authorities which had resulted in disallowance of loss claimed by assessee, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not leviable. (A.Y. 1995-96)

General Fibre Dealers (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 95 TTJ 1030 (Cal.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

On the basis of the report of the employees of the concern division the stock of timber was valued at below the cost price. The assessee has also disclosed all the facts about the valuation before the revenue authorities. It cannot be said that the explanation of the assessee was false simply because the assessment of stock was made on estimate book. Hence, levy of penalty was not justified. (A.Y. 1987-88)

H. P. State Forest Corpn. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 93 ITD 442 / 94 TTJ 792 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

Where during accounting period relevant to assessment year 1989-90 assessee had changed his method of mixed accounting to mercantile system of accounting but export incentive, interest on exports and interest received from IDBI were declared on receipt basis, assessee was regarded as deemed to have concealed particulars of income and, hence, invoking Explanation 1, Assessing Officer rightly imposed penalty on assessee. (A.Y. 1989-90)

Dy. CIT v. Roadmaster Industries of India Ltd. (2005) 94 TTJ 859 / 148 Taxman 18 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Inaccurate particulars

Where assessee had consciously withheld from department, revised computation as per revised audit report, which pointed out incorrect claim of liability in original return, assessee should be treated as having filed inaccurate particulars of income and, hence, its case is covered under Explanation 1 to section 271(1)(c) and penalty was leviable. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Cadbury Schweppes Beverages India (P.) Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2005) 3 SOT 647 / 96 TTJ 773 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1

Where assessee explained discrepancy between stock as per books of account and stock as declared in stock statement sent to bank and assessee took a position before Assessing Officer that stock figures given to bank were inflated with view to obtain maximum credit facilities and that book figure was correct stock figure, as assessee's explanation was plausible and reflected trade practice, penalty imposed on account of said discrepancy was deleted. (A.Y. 1997-98)

ITO v. Shanur J. Farooqui (Smt.) (2005) 98 TTJ 65 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure – Search and seizure – Statement u/s. 132 (4) – Late filing of return – Explanation 5

Where assessee surrendered income during search and claimed immunity from penalty under Explanation 5, assessee having fulfilled all conditions under Explanation 5, could not be held as not eligible for immunity because of late furnishing of return as clause (2) under Explanation 5 to section 271(1)(c) does not contemplate such view. (A.Y. 1988-89)

ACIT v. Lad Devi Kothari (Smt.) (2005) 97 TTJ 421 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Cash credit

Where though identity of creditor was proved but on basis of false statement creditor tried to explain source of deposit, cash credit was rightly treated as not genuine justifying levy of penalty. (A.Y. 1979-80)

Indira Motors (P.) Ltd. v Dy. CIT (2005) 93 TTJ 783 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalties – Concealment – Cash credits

In case of penalty proceedings, one has to consider, on basis of evidence on record, as to whether explanation of assessee is plausible; where assessee furnished prima facie evidence in support of genuineness of credits, creditworthiness of creditors as well as genuineness of credits, such explanation of assessee was plausible and very fact that part of credit was accepted as genuine, supported view that remaining part of credit might also have genuinely come from creditor, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was not justified. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Ronaq Ram Nand Lai v. ITO (2005) 92 ITD 514 / 92 TTJ 770 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Jewellery

Merely because addition in assessee's hands on account of garments and jewellery shown by his daughter in her wealth-tax return was sustained since admittedly she was dependent on assessee till her marriage, penalty on assessee could not be levied as her claim that such ornaments had been received from her in-laws and other relatives had not been controverted by revenue.

Atmaram Mahipal v. ITO (2005) 93 TTJ 553 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Commission paid

Where neither proprietor of firm 'R' was produced nor any further evidence was filed to prove genuineness of claim on account of commission paid to that firm, levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) was justified.

Soni Associates (P.) Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 148 Taxman 29 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Advance from Government

Where assessee had received an advance from Government for supply of bricks but claimed that it was not taxable as its income as bricks were supplied in following year, merely because addition on account of such advance was sustained in appeal, penalty could not be imposed; matter was to be restored to Assessing Officer to make enquiry to see if assessee's claim was correct in light of evidence produced by assessee. (A.Y. 1982-83)

R. P. K. Brick Manufacturers v. ITO (2005) 97 TTJ 258 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – GP

Where additions had been confirmed by Tribunal on account of fall in GP, it could not be said that assessee had concealed particulars of income or furnished inaccurate particulars of income; under those circumstances, assessee was not required to be saddled with penalty under section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 1992-93)

Sudesh Khanna v. ACIT (2005) 98 TTJ 106 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Agricultural land – Capital asset

Where Assessing Officer holding that agricultural land sold by assessee was a capital asset and was liable to capital gains tax, and also imposed penalty under section 271(1)(c), the Tribunal held that the Commissioner (Appeals), was justified in cancelling penalty stating that assessee had made claim of exemption under sections 54B and 54F and he was under a bona fide belief that no capital gain was chargeable on same.

ITO v. Ram Kishan (2005) 148 Taxman 70 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Disclosure – Search and seizure – Statement

u/s.

132(4) – Explanation 5

Where assessee disclosed a certain sum in a statement under section 132(4) and declared same in his return, he was entitled to immunity claimed by him under Explanation 5 to section 271(1)(c). (A.Y. 1995-96)

Dy. CIT v. Sunil Tolaram (2004) 4 SOT 891 / 90 TTJ 48 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Recording of satisfaction

Proceedings under section 271(1)(c) can be initiated only if assessing officer has recorded his expressed satisfaction in explicit words that there is concealment of income.

Pramod Plastic Industries (P) Ltd v. ACIT (2003) SOT 1 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Not inclusion – Bona fide

If on the basis of bonafide belief, the Income is not included in the taxable Income, than said return shall not be false return inviting imposition of penalty.

Velayudhan Nair (Dr.) v. ITO (2003) 84 ITD 227 / 86 TTJ 737 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Revision [S. 263]

Commissioner under section 263 cannot direct the Assessing Officer to initiate Penalty proceedings.

Ambica Chemical Products (Regd.) v. ACIT (2003) 86 ITD 1 / 82 TTJ 93 (Vishaka)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Satisfaction

It is not necessary that the assessing officer has to record the express satisfaction in the Order itself, if the satisfaction is recorded by way of noting in Order sheet, ITNS 140 etc. it would satisfy the conditions under section 275. (A.Y. 1987-88)

Mrudulaben B Patel (Smt.) v. ACIT (2003) 85 ITD 463 / 80 TTJ 390 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Mere surrender of income

Mere surrendering of additional Income, would not mean assessee has admitted concealment of income, or has furnished inaccurate particulars of Income.

ITO v. Impex Plastic Enterprises (2003) SOT 399 (SMC)(Delhi)(Trib.)

Vinod Khurana v. ACIT (2003) 131 Taxman 87 (Mag.)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

Brij Bala Chaudhary (Smt) v. ITO (2003) 87 ITD 173 / 82 TTJ 355 (Luck.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Agreed addition – Peace of mind

Addition agreed to buy peace and avoid litigation, when assessing officer had not recorded any finding against the explanation offered, Penalty levied was liable to be deleted. (A.Ys. 1980-81 to 1982-83, 1990-91)

Kumar Agencies (India) v. ACIT (2003) 87 ITD 69 / 80 TTJ 868 (TM)(Mum.)(Trib.)

Sampathraj Ranka v. ACIT (2003) 78 TTJ 290 / 129 Taxman 30 (Mag.)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Estimated additions

Additions made on estimate basis, does not represent concealed Income. Hence, penalty cannot be sustained on such addition. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Brij Bala Chaudhary (Smt) v. ITO (2003) 87 ITD 173 / 82 TTJ 355 (Luck.)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 5

Provisions of Explanation 5 to Sec 271(1) (c) are deeming provisions and scope thereof cannot be extended to assessment proceedings. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1996-97)

Kay Cee Electrical v. Dy. CIT (2003) 128 Taxman 150 (Mag.) / 87 ITD 35 / 81 TTJ 734 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Explanation 1 – Recording of reasons

As per the Explanation 1 to Sec. 271(1)(c) a duty is cast up on the Assessing Officer to record reasons about concealment of income and explanation from the assessee. Concealment penalty can be levied only if the explanation offered is found to be false. And the Assessing Officer is required to record finding that the explanation offered was false and that the bona fide was not proved by the assessee. (A.Y. 1988-89)

ITO v. Devibai H. Pammani (Smt.) (2003) 84 ITD 342 / 79 TTJ 493 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Section 271AA : Penalty for failure to keep and maintain information and document in respect of international transaction

S. 271AA : Penalty – Failure to keep and maintain – Documents – Transfer pricing – International Transaction [S. 92D, Rule 1D]

Assessee was engaged in business of manufacturing and distributing non-pharmaceutical health care products. It had entered in to an International transactions with its associated enterprises (AE). During the course of assessment proceedings the Assessing Officer observed that as the assessee failed to maintain books of accounts for international transaction levied the penalty of ₹ 13,57,720. The Tribunal held that the Assessing Officer did not specify what was the failure on part of assessee under section 92D read with Rule 10D, secondly in the course of assessment proceedings assessee had furnished all details required by Assessing Officer and International transaction with Associated Enterprise which had been accepted to be one confirming to arm's length price by the Assessing Officer. The Tribunal held that the penalty levied by the Assessing Officer was without any basis hence, cancelled the penalty order. (A. Y. 2003-04).

ACIT v. Smith & Newpew Healthcare (P) Ltd. (2011) 48 SOT 607 / (2012) 16 ITR 253 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Section 271B : Failure to get accounts audited

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Delay – Filing Audit Report [S. 44AB]

When audit reports as required under section 44AB for Asst. Years 1990-91 to 1993-94 had been obtained before the due date of filing the return of income and the same were furnished along with the return of income, penalty under section 271B was not leviable, since the amendment in section 44AB requiring to furnish the audit report by the due date was incorporated by the Finance Act, 1995, w.e.f. 1st July 1995 only. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1993-94)

S. V. Pathak & Company v. CIT (2011) 330 ITR 410 / (2010) 42 DTR 227 / 192 Taxman 431 / 235 CTR 319 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Books not maintained

The requirement of getting the books of account audited could arise only where the books of account are maintained.

Assessee not maintaining books of account, penalty cannot be levied under section 271B. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. S. K. Gupta & Co. (2010) 322 ITR 86 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Audit Report – Prior to 1995 [S. 44AB]

Prior to 1995, no penalty could be initiated / levied under section 271B of the Act for failure on the part of the assessee to file audit report under section 44AB of the Act along with the return, if the assessee had filed the same in response to the reassessment notice issued under section 148 of the Act. (A.Y. 1991-92)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Filing audit report – Reasonable cause

Where the assessee a co-operative society whose income was exempt under section 80P of the Act under a bonafide belief that as its income is exempt it was not required to get its accounts audited did not get its accounts audited within the time prescribed under the Act. On appeal the High Court held that as there was no intention on the part of the assessee to conceal its income or deprive the Government of revenue as the entire income was exempt under section 80P of the Act, as such the penalty under section 271B of the Act was not leviable in the assessee's case. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

CIT v. Iqbalpur Co-operative Cane Development Union Ltd. (2009) 23 DTR 60 / 179 Taxman 27 (Uttarakhand)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Report obtained in time

For the A.Y. 1990-91 though the audit report was obtained in time the same was filed late along with the return of income which, was delayed due to missing T.D.S. certificate. The High Court held that during the relevant period the requirement of law was only for obtaining the audit report within time specified.

CIT v. Puran Lal Ramesh Chand (2007) 197 Taxation 543 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Delay in filing Audit Report

Provisions of section 271B do not provide for initiation of the penalty proceeding during the pendency of the assessment proceeding and such a proceeding could be initiated even after the completion of the assessment.

The Hon'ble High Court upheld the view of the ITAT since the proceedings were initiated within two years from the date of assessment. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Assam Stock Warehousing Corporation v. CIT (2007) 288 ITR 25 (Gau.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Delay in Filing Audit Report

The appellant company had reasonable cause for not filing the complete Audit Report in time since it did not get the details from its branches which were in USA and, hence, penalty under section 271B of the Act was not leviable. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1998-99)

CIT v. Data Software Research Co. P. Ltd. (2007) 288 ITR 289 / 212 CTR 323 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Belated filing of Audit Report

Where the assessee had obtained audit report prior to the specified date for filing return under section 139(1), penalty under section 271B could not be levied if the report is filed belated along with the return filed under section 139(4).

CIT v. Vanti Rani Kalia (2006) 190 Taxation 394 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Audit – Reasonable cause

Imposition of penalty under section 271B is not compulsory and mandatory and discretion vests with Assessing Officer not to impose any penalty if he finds that assessee has proved that there was a 'reasonable cause' for failure; where assessee-federation's accounts were to be audited by Chief Audit Officer, U.P. Co-operative Audit and Panchayati Raj Department, and action of Chief Audit Officer, U.P. was not under control of assessee and it was not possible for assessee to obtain statutory audit report within prescribed time, it was rightly held that assessee had reasonable cause because of which provisions of section 44AB could not be complied with and, hence, penalty was not imposable on assessee. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. UP Co-operative Cane Union Federation Ltd. (2005) 147 Taxman 477 / 199 CTR 175 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Report with belated return [S. 139(4)]

Assessee filed audit report along with return under section 139(4) after delay but its contention was that report was obtained in time, in absence of evidence to contrary, Tribunal was justified in deleting penalty. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. S.S. Banga (2005) 279 ITR 107 / 202 CTR 90 / 153 Taxman 313 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Reasonable cause

Where assessee explained delay in filing audit report by stating that its partners were not well educated, that its accountant had left service and that chartered accountant had delayed preparation of audit report, Tribunal was justified in deleting penalty. (A.Y. 1985-86)

CIT v. Ashoka Dairy (2005) 279 ITR 32 / 149 Taxman 732 / 200 CTR 211 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Impounded Book

Where though assessee's books were impounded, photocopies of relevant documents were made available to assessee on its request, plea of assessee that it could not obtain and submit audit report as books were impounded could not be a ground for cancellation of penalty levied under section 271B. (A.Ys. 1991-92, 1992-93)

CIT v. Khubi Ram Om Prakash (2004) 141 Taxman 608 / 190 CTR 126 / 275 ITR 131 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Notice not signed by any person

Where notice had not been signed by any person, penalty imposed on basis of such notice was not valid. (A.Y. 1985-86)

CIT v. Aparna Agency P. Ltd. (2004) 267 ITR 50 / 139 Taxman 132 / 189 CTR 355 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – No absolute failure

Penalty is discretionary under section 271B but that discretion is limited within confines of section 273B. When the Tribunal gave a finding that there was no absolute default of the assessee in filing tax audit report penalty under section 271B cannot be levied.

CIT v. Capital Electronics (Gariahat) (2003) 261 ITR 4 / 129 Taxman 731 / 181 CTR 402 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Discretion

Mere failure to file audit report in time will not justify levy of penalty as power under section 271B is discretionary. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Thanjavur Silk Handloom Weavers Co-operative Production & Sales Society Ltd. v. UOI (2003) 263 ITR 334 / 132 Taxman 846 / 185 CTR 210 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Discretion

Where audit report was submitted within extended date of filing of return fixed by CBDT and assessee had also given adequate explanation, no penalty could be levied. (A.Y. 1986-87)

CIT v. Sardar Industries (2003) 260 ITR 384 / 130 Taxman 589 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Order passed before hearing

The assessee took successive adjournment in the matter, when the order was passed by the Assessing Officer refusing the adjournment for two days. The High Court held that the order passed by the Assessing Officer was not void ab initio. (A.Ys. 1992-93, 1993-94)

Shri Swastik Steels (P.) Ltd. v. ACIT (2003) 264 ITR 447 / 183 CTR 409 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Delay – Accounts ready

Where accounts were submitted to Accountant Generals Office for auditing before due date but were not audited by Accountant Generals Office before due date, assessee was to be held to have a reasonable cause for not submitting accounts before due date and, hence, penalty cannot be levied under section 271B of the Act. (A.Ys. 1990-91, 1991-92)

Rajasthan Rajya Vidyut Prasaran Nigam v. ITAT (2003) 262 ITR 262 / 130 Taxman 840 / 183 CTR 361 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Reasonable cause

Where Tribunal did not come to a definite finding that there was no reasonable cause, no penalty was imposable.

CIT v. Capital Electronics (Gariahat) (2003) 261 ITR 4 / 129 Taxman 731 / 181 CTR 402 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Project Completion Method – Advance received cannot be treated as sale

When the assessee was following the project completion method of accounting, the advances received against booking of flats could not be treated as sale proceeds/turnover/gross receipts. Thus penalty under section 271B is deleted.

Siroya Developers v. Dy. CIT, ITA No. 600/Mum/2010, dt.12-1-2011, ITAT Mumbai 'I' Bench, BCAJ P. 38, Vol. 42-B, Part 6, March 2011 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Limitation

Since the penalty order has been passed after the expiry of six months from the end of June, 2005, it was barred by the period of limitation. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Motilal Vishwakarma HUF v. ITO, ITA No.7055/Mum/2007, Bench – B, dt. 27-08-2007 – BCAJ P. 520, Vol. 40-B, Part 4, January 2009. (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Reasonable cause

Assessee entertaining a bona fide belief that the accounts are to be audited only if the turnover of the assessee exceeds ` 40 lakhs, there was sufficient cause for default and therefore, levy of penalty under section 271B was not justified. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Patel Ambalal Somnath Sarkar v. ITO (2008) 100 TTJ 735 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Partner

Share of profit cannot be equated with income from profession. The Tribunal held that the assessee had reasonable cause for failure to get his accounts audited as required under section 44AB of the Act, hence penalty was deleted. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Hitesh D. Gajaria v. ACIT, ITA Nos. 992/Mum/2007, Bench – K, dt. 22-2-2008 - BCAJ P. 16, Vol. 40-A, Part 1, April 2008. (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Total turnover

Assessee having filed no agreement or document to show that the transportation receipts did not belong to him, same cannot be excluded from total turnover and therefore, penalty under section 271B was valid. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Sardari Lal Oberai v. ITO (2007) 106 TTJ 1033 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Reasonable cause

No penalty is leviable where there is a reasonable cause for delay. It was not a case of the Revenue that there was a deliberate defiance of law or the assessee was guilty of conduct which is contumacious or dishonest or the assessee had acted in conscious disregard of his obligation. Penalty under section 271B should normally not be imposed unless the explanation or cause for such commission or omission was not reasonable. (A.Y. 2000-01)

S.D. Pharmacy v. ACIT, Bench, ITA No. 862/Coch/2005, dt. 29-5-2006 – BCAJ P. 402, Vol. 39-C, Part 4, January 2007 (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Nursing home – Business or profession

Activities of nursing home constituted business and not profession. Therefore, receipts from such business being below 40 lakh section 44AB was not attracted consequently penalty under section 271B was not leviable. (A.Ys. 1998-99, 1999-2000)

Shalini Hospital v. ACIT (2007) 110 TTJ 690 / 108 ITD 534 / 10 SOT 662 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Unsigned Audit report – Mistake

Furnishing of unsigned tax audit report along with the return can be accepted as an unintentional mistake on the part of the assessee if it has filed a copy of the same report during the course of the assessment proceedings, and levy of penalty under s. 271B would not be justified. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Nulon Electronics Ltd. v. ITO (2006) 100 TTJ 698 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Freight – Turnover

A bona fide belief that freight charged by assessee from different parties and re-paid to individual truck owner is not an assessee's own sales and thus gross freight receipts are not relevant for getting accounts audited, constitutes a reasonable cause and no penalty can be levied. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Anoop Kumar Beri v. ACIT (2006) 152 Taxman 66 (Mag.) / 97 TTJ 275 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Presumptive taxation

Having failed to furnish the audit report before the due date though the accounts were audited in time under bona fide impression that since the income is being disclosed under section 44AD, the same is not required to be furnished, there was reasonable cause for the default and, therefore, levy of penalty under section 271B was not justified. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Parjanya Associates v. ACIT (2006) 100 TTJ 736 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Delay in Audit of earlier year

Delay in completion of audit of the earlier year constituted reasonable cause for the delay in audit of the relevant year and the assessee having got its accounts audited within 4-5 months after the completion of audit of accounts of the earlier year levy of penalty under s. 271B was not justified. (A.Y. 1994-95)

ACIT v. Kamlesh R. Agarwal (HUF) (2006) 100 TTJ 194 / 99 ITD 27 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Turnover – Commission agent

Assessee, a del credere agent. Commission received during each year was less than ` 40 lakhs – Items in balance sheet contained debtors and creditors. Assessing Officer not justified in holding that the assessee was a trader in goods and its turnover being more than ` 40 lakhs liable to get his accounts audited.

Narayan Nivruty Shinde v. ITO, Bench "G", ITA Nos. 899 & 900/Mum/2004 dated 27-9-2005. (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Audit – Excess interest by Money-lender

Sec. 271B r.w.s. sec. 44AB – Penalty for failure to get accounts audited – Assessee engaged in money-lending business. Interest charged in excess of prescribed rate under the law which was offered and taxed under the head "Income from other sources". Such interest is not to be considered while applying the provisions of section 44AB.

Muthoot Bankers v. ACIT Bench, ITA No.843 & 844/Coch/2004 dated 22-12-2005. (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Without P&L Account and balance sheet

The assessee furnishing the Audit Report in Form 3CD along with Return in time, but without audited Trading Account, Profit & Loss A/c and Balance Sheet. It was held that Audit Report was not incomplete and illegal and penalty under section 271B cannot be levied.

Pradeep Agarwal v. I. Tax Officer (2006) 150 Taxman 23 (Mag.)(Agra)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Audit – Lower turnover – Bona fide belief

Having failed to get the accounts audited entertaining a bona fide belief that the accounts are to be audited only if the turnover of the assessee exceeds ` 40 lakhs, there was sufficient cause for default and, therefore, levy of penalty under section 271B was not justified. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Patel Ambalal Somnath Sarkar v. ITO (2006) 100 TTJ 735 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Income below taxation limit

Bona fide belief of the assessee that his income was below taxable limit constituted a reasonable cause for not getting accounts audited under s.44AB and hence, penalty under as s.271B was not exigible. (A.Ys. 1988-89 to 1995-96)

ITO v. Narendra Kumar (2006) 103 TTJ 591 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Advocate's advice

Assessee having failed to get his accounts audited under section 44AB acting on wrong advice of the advocate, there was reasonable cause for default and, therefore, penalty under section 271B is not leviable. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Dr. Sunderlal Surana v. ITO (2006) 105 TTJ 907 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – No assessment order

In case assessee fails to obtain requisite audit report, it has committed a default and penalty is exigible, even if no assessment order is passed. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Pawan Cotton Mills v. ITO (2005) 1 SOT 388 / 90 TTJ 1057 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Contradictory stands

Where as regards reasonable cause for not filing audit report in time, assessee took contradictory stands before Assessing Officer and Commissioner (Appeals) and also tried to mislead Bench by claiming that audit report was handed over to clerk of advocate who failed to furnish same to Income-tax Department, imposition of penalty on assessee was justified. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Sukhwinder Singh v. ITO (2005) 94 TTJ 431 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Audit under Companies Act

Where assessee being a chit fund company, had filed its return of income along with audit report audited under the Companies Act wherein it had disclosed its turnover from the business of chit funds as consisting of foreman's commission, interest, dividend, etc., but had not included chit subscription in turnover, its failure, if any, to get account audited under section 44AB could be said to be due to reasonable cause.

Dy. CIT v. Mangal Dayak Chit Fund (P.) Ltd. (2005) 92 ITD 258 / 92 TTJ 889 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Delay – Filing report

Where assessee could not get accounts audited within time, due to non-availability of books of account which were in custody of department and, thus, beyond control of assessee-firm, there was a reasonable cause for delay in filing audit report.

Chempho Chem Industries v. ACIT (2005) 148 Taxman 42 (Mag.)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Delay – Reasonable cause

Where there was delay on part of assessee carriage operator in getting accounts audited under section 44AB and in reply to show-cause notice, assessee explained that it had to deal with Army authorities, which were located at far-flung areas at Srinagar, Kargil, Leh and there was thus delay in collecting TDS certificate which was necessary before filing return, explanation for delay given by assessee being reasonable no penalty was leviable on it.

ITO v. Road King Transport Service (2005) 97 ITD 227 / 97 TTJ 251 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Delay in furnishing Audit report

Where though assessee obtained audit report in time but did not file it by specified date and reason given by assessee was that it had made a declaration under VDIS and that it was under a bona fide belief that no return was required to be filed, once declaration under VDIS was filed, imposition of penalty on assessee was not justified.

Naveen Oil & Ginning Mills v. ITO (2005) 96 TTJ 658 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Limitation [S. 275]

Penalty under section 271B cannot be initiated at any time even after 5 yrs or 10 yrs. Bar of limitation prescribed under section 275 will be applicable to section 271B.

S H Sopariwala v. ACIT (2003) 128 Taxman 23 (Mag.)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271B : Penalty – Failure to get accounts audited – Delay in furnishing Audit report

Penalty under section 271B cannot be levied when when the Audit Report under section 44AB has been obtained before the due date, but was furnished with the belated Return under section 139(4). (A.Y. 1993-94)

Kanmal Birla Textiles v. ITO (2003) 77 TTJ 742 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

Section 271BA : Penalty for failure to furnish report under section 92E

S. 271BA : Penalty – Failure to furnish reports – International transaction – Transfer pricing – Reasonable cause [S. 273B]

Assessee has not obtained the audit report as required under section 92E due to failure of auditor to advice who has audited the accounts under section 44AB of the Act, however, filed the same immediately when he came to know that he was required to file such report in Form No. 3 CEB before completion of assessments for the relevant years, as there was bonafide reason for not obtaining the report in Form No. 3CEB in time and it was venial and technical default, penalty cannot be attracted. (A. Ys. 2003-04 & 2004-05)

Ravi Kumar Rawat v. ITO (2011) 138 TTJ 254 / 48 DTR 230 (Jp.)(Trib.)

Section 271C : Penalty for failure to deduct tax at source

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Imprisonment [S. 192, 200, 206, 271C, 276B and 276BB, S. 482 of Cr. PC]

Where the materials show that the proceeding is of a civil nature and cannot be adjudicated by the criminal court or, if it is an abuse of the process of the court, the High Court would be well within its power to exercise its inherent jurisdiction and quash the same. In view of the provisions of the Income-tax Act and the assertion of the appellants that deductions were being made for all the persons liable to pay tax in terms of the Income-tax Act, the proper remedy for the respondents was to approach the authority/officer concerned and not by filing a complaint.

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Revision – Dropping of penalty [S. 263]

The Assessing Officer having initiated penalty proceedings under section 271C against the assessee, disposed the proceedings stating that the penalty proceedings, in this case under section 271C read with section 274 "are hereby dropped". The Commissioner initiated revision proceedings under section 263 and directed the Assessing Officer to revise the order passed by him. The Appellate Tribunal came to the conclusion that the Assessing Officer had carried out due verification of the relevant facts and penalty proceedings were not casually dropped. On appeal the High Court of the view that the Appellate Tribunal could not have substituted its own reasons which were required to be recorded by the Assessing Officer to decide the issue in terms of the order of the Commissioner under section 263. The assessee has preferred an appeal to the Supreme Court, held dismissing the appeal, that it was not necessary to interfere at this stage, when the matter would be taken by the Assessing Officer. On remand it was his duty to take in to account all the relevant facts, including the materials, if any placed by the assessee and pass a reasoned order.

Toyota Motor Corporation v. CIT (2008) 306 ITR 52 / 218 CTR 539 / 173 Taxman 458 / 12 DTR 106 (SC)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Circular on TPA – Application of mind

[S. 194J, 273B]

Following the ratio of Judgment of Bombay High Court in Dedicated Health Care Services TPA (India) (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 324 ITR 345, part of Circular No. 8 of 2009 dated 24-11-2009 which mandated levy of penalty that was set aside, the Assessing Officer and the appellate authorities were directed to apply the mind independently in exercise of their quasi judicial powers, without being tied down by the circular.

Vipul Medcorp TPA (P) Ltd. v. CBDT (2011) 202 Taxman 463 / 63 DTR 65 / 245 CTR 125 (Delhi) (High Court)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – No penalty if no "mala fide intention" or "deliberate defiance" of law [S. 194C, 194I, 194J, 201]

It was held that the fact that the assessee has not disputed the quantum is not a good ground for imposition of penalty unless and until material is brought on record to the effect that assessee deliberately defied the provisions (Anwar Ali 76 ITR 696 (SC) referred). Further, it was also observed that levy of penalty under section 271C is not automatic. (Woodward Governor India 253 ITR 745 (Delhi) followed). If no mala fide intentions of any kind are attributed to the assessee for deducting tax under one provision of law than other, thus no penalty could be levied.

CIT v. Cadbury India Ltd. (2011) 55 DTR 318 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Expatriate – LTA – Paid by employees

Penalty under section 271C was held not leviable where the recorded finding of fact was that the assessee acted bonafidely, as it constitute reasonable cause in accordance with the provisions of section 273B. In the present case, the expatriate employees of the assessee to whom salary was paid, had filed their return and paid taxes accordingly. Besides this the assessee had not deducted tax at source on the benefit it granted to the employees on account of L.T.A. as he acted upon the declaration given by the employees.

CIT v. Owens Brockkwy India Ltd. (2006) 194 Taxation 342 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Lower deduction of tax – Bona fide belief

Assessee-State-Electricity-Board had deducted less tax at source from a particular class of consumers as there was some confusion as regards the extent of percentage to be deducted from different class of customers and no sooner than it was clarified, Board made compliance from its own funds, as it was not a deliberate attempt to avoid payment by way of TDS, penalty imposed on assessee under section 271C was rightly deleted by Tribunal.

CIT v. Senior Accounts Officer, Madhya Pradesh Electricity Board (2005) 276 ITR 84 / 197 CTR 276 / 154 Taxman 335 (MP)(High Court)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Legal opinion – Retention pay – Expatriate

Where based on legal opinion assessee did not deduct tax at source from retention/continuation pay given to expatriate employees in Japan, which was paid to them in addition to salary and perquisite paid in India, assessee had a reasonable cause for not deducting tax at source. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1995-96)

CIT v. Mitsui & Co. Ltd. (2004) 140 Taxman 430 / 190 CTR 38 / 272 ITR 545 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Limitation – Six year [S. 201(1)]

The Tribunal has quashed the order passed by the Dy. CIT (TDS) under section 201(1) and 201(IA), on the ground that initiation of proceedings was beyond a period of six years and hence was barred by limitation. The Tribunal in penalty appeal held that penalty under section 271C cannot be levied if the order under section 201(1) is barred by limitation. (A. Y. 2000-01 to 2002-03).

ACIT v. American School of Bombay Education Trust (2011) TIOL 209 ITAT–Mum. (172) / (2011) 43A BCAJ, May P. 32 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Accrual or payment

When the assessee deducted the TDS at the time of payment and not at the time of accrual on the bonafide belief that it is not required to deduct at the time of accrual it was held that the penalty is not so leviable. (A. Ys. 1996-97 to 1999-2000)

Sahara India Financial Corporation Ltd v. Addl. CIT (2009) 30 SOT 149 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Lower deduction of tax – Bona fide belief

Assessee having short deducted tax at source under bona fide belief that payee sister concerns would have no tax liability and in most of the cases payee sister concerns were entitled to refund, penalty under section 271C was not attracted. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

ITO v. Muthoot Financiers (2007) 107 TTJ 141 / 103 ITD 108 (Cochin)(Trib.)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Travel agent – Expert's opinion

Assessee travel agent having acted on expert opinion, CIT (A) was justified in holding that the assessee bona fide believed that no tax was deductible on discount/rebate allowed to the passengers from printed price as the same was not commission to which statutory provision was applicable and hence penalty cannot be levied under section 271C of the Act. (A.Y. 2001-02)

ITO v. G. B. Morrisson Travels (P) Ltd. (2006) 99 TTJ 117 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Foreign company – Legal advice

No penalty can be levied on a foreign company for not deducting tax under bona fide belief based on legal advice and guidance from respective Chamber of Commerce, that payment made is not taxable.

ACIT (TDS), v. Samsung Corp. (2006) 152 Taxman 22 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – ESOP – Transfer – Amendment [S. 17(2)]

No taxable benefit had accrued to the employees of the assessee-company on account of transfer of shares under ESOP in the financial years 1998-99 and 1999-2000 as shares given under ESOP are taxable as perquisite under s. 17(2)(iiia) only from A. Y. 2001-02 and therefore, no tax was deductible at source in respect of such transfer of shares and penalty under s. 271C could not be levied for short deduction of TDS. (A.Ys. 1998-99, 1999-2000)

ITO v. Television Eighteen India Ltd. (2006) 101 TTJ 669 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Form 15H – Reasonable cause

Form No. 15H having been received by assessee on 1st April, 1999, one day after the close of the financial year, there was reasonable cause with the assessee for non deduction of tax and penalty under section 271 C could not be imposed. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Kamal Industries v. Jt. CIT (2006) 100 TTJ 451 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Salary

Liability to deduct tax on employer is on the amount of salary, which employer pays to employee, but if another employer also pays salary to that employee simultaneously or otherwise, then no liability can be fastened on first mentioned employer to deduct tax on that amount at source, particularly, where assessee is not informed by employee about receipt of salary from another employer; failure by assessee to deduct tax at source considering the salary received from other employer would not attract section 271C. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Kinetics Technology (India) Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2005) 94 ITD 63 / 94 TTJ 01 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Salary – Expatriate

Where assessee's plea was that in various agreements executed between assessee and Government of India, it was clearly stipulated that tax and levy, etc., shall not be payable by assessee-company and that on basis of assurances given to assessee, it had entertained a bona fide belief that it was not liable to deduct tax at source while making payment to expatriate employees, penalty could not be imposed on assessee for non-deduction of tax at source.

(A.Ys. 1991-92 to 1999-99)

Pacific Consultants International v. Jt. CIT (2005) 92 TTJ 818 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Tax paid by payee – Not leviable

Where tax had already been paid by payee, no penalty could be levied on assessee-payer for failure to deduct tax at source. (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 2000-01)

Wipro GE Medical Systems Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 3 SOT 627 (Bang.)(Trib.)

S. 271C : Penalty – Failure to deduct tax – Credit of interest – Reversal of

Plea that Interest was reversed in later year can not be accepted as a valid explanation for non deduction of TDS at the time of credit of Interest. (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 2000-01)

Marg Constructions Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2003) 81 TTJ 440 / 2 SOT 851 (Chennai)(Trib.)

Section 271D : Penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 269SS.

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Income of Director – Journal Entry [S. 269SS]

The premises of K, a director of the assessee company were searched by the Income Tax Authorities. During the course of search, incriminating documents regarding unaccounted expenditure incurred by K were seized. In the proceedings initiated under section 153C, K offered for tax the undisclosed expenditure incurred by him for and on behalf of the company for construction activities. Accordingly journal entries were passed in the books of the company. Assessing Officer was of the opinion that the assessee has violated section 269SS and accordingly levied the penalty but the Tribunal deleted. High Court confirmed the order of Tribunal.

CIT v. Motta Construction P. Ltd. (2011) 338 ITR 66 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Transaction bonafide – Technical default [S. 269SS]

The assessee accepted the share application money of ` 20,000/-, in cash. As the transaction was bonafide, the default being technical, cancellation of penalty by the Tribunal was held to be justified. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Speedways Rubber Pvt. Limited (2010) 326 ITR 31 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Advances from customers [S. 269SS]

Provisions of section 269SS are applicable only in case of loans and deposits received by the assessee in contravention of the provision. Thus, when the assessee receives advance from his customers for supply of goods in cash exceeding the limits prescribed in section 269SS, penalty under section 271D was held to be not leviable. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT & Anr. v. Kailash Chandra Deepak Kumar (2009) 32 DTR 336 / 317 ITR 351 (All.)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Loan from each person

No penalty under section 271D r.w.s. 269SS if the Assessee has accepted cash loans of ` 20,000/- from each person as the loans are not in excess of ` 20,000.

CIT v. Madhukar B. Pawar (2008) 218 CTR 59 / 319 ITR 255 / 10 DTR 129 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Prospective application [S. 269SS]

No retrospective application of penal provisions for default under sections. 269SS and 269T – Transactions made before 1-4-1989 wherein sections 271D and 271E were not in the statute book prior to 1-4-1989. (A.Y. 1989-90)

Kothari & Co. v. CIT (2007) 204 CTR 298 / 294 ITR 644 / (2006) 157 Taxman 433 (MP)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Unexplained income

Penalty is not leviable when in a case the Revenue takes the stand that the alleged deposit was undisclosed income of the assessee.

CIT v. Standard Brands Ltd. (2006) 204 CTR 48 / 285 ITR 295 / 155 Taxman 383 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Share Application Money [S. 269SS]

Assessee-company received share application money in excess of prescribed limit in cash, though it could not be termed as a loan, it was a 'deposit' and, hence, penalty was imposable under section 271D. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Bhalotia Engineering Works (P.) Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 275 ITR 399 / 196 CTR 619 (Jharkhand)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Advance [S. 269SS]

Amount found to have been received as advance and not as loan or deposit would not attract section 271D

CIT v. Kharaiti Lal & Co. (2004) 270 ITR 445 / 144 Taxman 178 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Cash transaction [S. 269SS]

Where cash transactions exceeding specified limit between assessee – advocate and its clients were clear from documents on record, imposition of penalty was justified. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1995-96)

Dhanji R. Zalte v. ACIT (2004) 265 ITR 204 / 136 Taxman 644 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Genuine need [S. 269SS]

If transaction is genuine and to satisfy immediate requirement of money a person borrows money from money lender, such person could be said to have a reasonable cause for not accepting money by account-payee cheque or draft. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Bhagwati Prasad Bajoria (HUF) (2003) 263 ITR 487 / 133 Taxman 426 / 183 CTR 484 (Gau.)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Reasonable cause [S. 269SS]

On a reasonable cause being shown, the assessing authority has jurisdiction not to impose the penalty. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Manoj Lalwani (2003) 128 Taxman 635 / 260 ITR 590 / 180 CTR 394 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalties – Accept loans or deposits – Adjustment of ` 20,000 [S. 269SS]

If any loan is there exceeding ` 20,000 and any penalty is to be imposed, permissible amount of ` 20,000 has to be adjusted.

CIT v. Ajanta Dyeing & Printing Mills (2003) 130 Taxman 442 / 164 ITR 505 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalties – Accept loans or deposits – Journal entry [S. 269SS]

Tribunal's finding that no payment was made in cash but the accounts were adjusted by journal entry in books of account of assessee and, hence, there was no violation of section 269SS. The High Court upheld the view of the Tribunal. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CIT v. Noida Toll Bridge Co. Ltd. (2003) 262 ITR 260 / 184 CTR 266 / 139 Taxman 115 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalties – Accept loans or deposits – Insufficient Bank balance [S. 269SS]

Where loans were taken to clear cheques issued by assessee as assessee did not have sufficient bank balance, held to be reasonable cause and penalty was rightly deleted. (A.Y. 1990-91)

CIT v. Parma Nand (2003) 180 CTR 489 / (2004) 266 ITR 255 / (2004) 135 Taxman 100 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271D : Penalties – Accept loans or deposits – Urgency [S. 269SS]

Loan was taken in cash because it wanted to purchase a piece of agricultural land for developing the same as business proposition. It was further stated that there was an advantage of negotiating for purchase of agricultural land with ready cash backing. Besides when deal fell through, assessee deposited cash in bank and issued a cheque for discharging liability of loan. As the explanation offered by the assessee could not be regarded as improbable or impossible the penalty levied was deleted. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Jitu Builders (P) Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2010) 124 ITD 134 / 125 TTJ 721 / 29 DTR 458 (TM)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Common deposit – Parents [S. 269SS]

When the Assessee takes money in cash from his parents out of business expediency, penalty under section 271D, cannot be levied.

Swapan Dutta v. Jt. CIT (2010) Tax L.R. 166 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Money lender – Reasonable cause [S. 269SS]

Assessee money lender accepting cash deposits in violation of provision of section 269SS, penalty deleted considering the nature of business, status of the depositors and necessity from the point of view of the assessee. (A.Ys. 2002-03, 2003-04)

P. Mallikharjuna Rao v. Addl. CIT (2010) 45 DTR 8 (Visakha)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Leviability – Block assessment [S. 269SS]

Penalty levied under section 271D in respect of amount added as undisclosed income in block assessment was invalid.

Dy. CIT v. G. S. Entertainment (2007) 109 TTJ 54 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – No mala fide Intention

In the absence of anything on record to suggest any mala fide on the part of the assessee to evade tax, levy of penalty under section 271D was not sustainable. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Skyline Silk Mills v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 798 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – S. 138 of Negotiable Instrument Act

[S. 269SS]

Cash deposits made by depositor to avoid consequences of section 138 of negotiable instruments Act, 1880, is a reasonable cause for deleting penalty under section 271D. ITO v. Akik Tiles (P) Ltd. (2006) 152 Taxman 65 (Mag.)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Contravention – Reasonable cause [S. 269SS]

Existence of reasonable cause for accepting loans/deposits otherwise than by crossed cheque/draft is not established and, therefore, penalty under section 271D was sustainable.

(A.Y. 1992-93)

ACIT v. Jabalpur Hospital & Research Centre (P) Ltd. (2006) 103 TTJ 536 (Jab.)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Reasonable cause [S. 269SS]

No penalty is imposable if the failure to comply with provisions of section 269SS is proved to be on account of reasonable cause.

Caravan Impex (P) Ltd. v. ITO 154 Taxman 150 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Genuine transaction [S. 269SS]

Relying on Supreme Court's Decision in case of Asst. Director of Inspection v. Kum. A.B. Shanthi (255 ITR 258) the Tribunal held that genuine transactions are kept outside the scope of sec. 271D. (A.Y. 1998-99)

ACIT v. Maha Developers, Bench – C, ITA No. 1113/Ahd/2002 dt. 7th July, 2006 – BCAJ Volume 30 Part 6, September 2006. (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Guidance of receipt

In the absence of any definite material to establish that the assessee had received loan/deposit in contravention of the provisions of s. 269SS, except for the photocopies of statement of loan submitted by the alleged creditor which was contradicted by the assessee and which has been shown to be incomplete and had been rejected by the CIT(A). Penalty under section 271D could not be levied. (A.Ys. 1995-96, 1996-97)

Nvain Kumar v. Jt. CIT (2006) 99 TTJ 267 / 98 ITD 242 (TM)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Urgency [S. 269SS]

Urgent business requirement viz., demand by supplier for immediate payment of ₹ 50,000 constituted a reasonable cause for accepting two cash loans of ₹ 20,000 each on the facts of the case and, therefore, penalty under section 271D was not leviable — Also, penalty was not leviable as the provisions of s. 269SS are attracted only in cases where the loans amount exceeded ₹ 20,000. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Rajiana Kheti Store v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 576 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Initiation after 7 years [S. 269SS]

Penalty under section 271D was invalid as, it was not initiated during any proceedings under the Act and was also initiated after a lapse of 7 years. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Sharda Educational Trust v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 212 (Agra)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Acceptance and repayment in cash [S. 269SS]

Assessee having accepted loans and made repayment also in cash on account of ignorance of relevant provisions and lack of advice by his counsel, there was reasonable cause for the defaults and, therefore, levy of penalty under sections 271D and 271E was not justified. (A.Y. 1991-92)

ITO v. Prabhulal Sahu (2006) 99 TTJ 177 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Wife & HUF – Not Mechanical [S. 269SS]

Every breach of section 269SS does not automatically result in the imposition of penalty under section 271D; if surrounding circumstances not only indicate but lead to inevitable conclusion that accused could not have knowledge of law, he cannot be penalized for his default; further penalty under section 271D was not exigible in respect of loans accepted by the assessee from his wife and his HUF in violation of provisions of section 269SS. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Narayan Ram Chhaba v. ITO (2005) 96 ITD 163 / 97 TTJ 297 (TM)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Onus on assessee to explain cause [S. 269SS]

Under section 269SS, even for genuine loans or deposits, assessee has to explain why it had obtained the same in cash and if he is able to explain a reasonable cause, then there will be no penalty leviable under section 271D. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Thenamal Chhajjer v. Jt. CIT (2005) 96 ITD 210 / 98 TTJ 449 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Genuineness irrelevant [S. 269SS]

Consideration as to whether deposits are genuine or not is not relevant, in so far as provisions of section 269SS are concerned. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Kans Raj & Sons v. ITO (2005) 92 TTJ 931 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Genuineness insufficient [S. 269SS]

It is not sufficient to say simply that transaction was genuine, so section 269SS is not applicable; circumstances under which cash was accepted are to be explained; where assessee took cash loan from two ladies for purchasing machinery, since urgent requirement of machine was not known and machine was not purchased soon after taking loan from 'ladies', it indicated that the assessee could have complied with requirement of section 269SS without much difficulty and, as such, penalty in respect of loan was justified. (A.Y. 1990-91)

ITO v. Sunil M. Kasliwal (2005) 94 ITD 281 / 80 TTJ 01 / (2004) 2 SOT 596 (TM)(Pune)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Genuineness not a defence [S. 269SS]

Deletion of addition under section 68, leading to the upholding genuineness of the transaction of loan, would not justify the obliteration of penalty under section 271D as well, where loans accepted by assessee in cash were more than specified limit. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Narayan Ram Chhaba v. ITO (2005) 96 ITD 163 / 97 TTJ 297 (TM)(Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Search material [S. 269SS]

Where during search a rukka was found which showed that assessee had received a sum of

₹ 2 lakhs in cash but assessee explained that it was an advance rukka and no cash had passed, levy of penalty was not justified. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Anand Prakash Gupta v. ACIT (2005) 92 TTJ 766 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Family members [S. 269SS]

Where assessee took cash loan, inter alia, from his minor children, and wife, since assessee himself acted as guardian of minors and in said capacity had given loan and accepted in capacity of individual, even assuming that there was breach of section 269SS, it was only a technical and venial breach; and since loan taken from wife was of very small amount, it could not be construed to be transaction between borrower and lender; in those circumstances imposition of penalty on assessee under section 271D for violation of section 269SS was not justified. (A.Y. 1990-91)

ITO v. Sunil M. Kasliwal (2005) 94 ITD 281 / (2003) 80 TTJ 01 (2004) 2 SOT 596 (Pune)(TM)(Trib.) / ITO v. Tarlochan Singh (2003) 128 Taxman 20 (Mag.)(Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Commission agent [S. 269SS]

Where assessee, claiming to have acted as commission agent/kacha arhatiya, accepted certain loans/deposits from two agriculturists in cash and repaid those deposits but produced no evidence to prove same, penalty was rightly imposed on assessee.

ACIT v. Jai Bharat Fruit Co. Ltd. (2005) 4 SOT 445 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Ignorance of law

Ignorance of law is no excuse for violation of provisions of S. 269SS and 269TT. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Udaichand Santoshkumar Jain v. ITO (2003) 79 TTJ 88 / 131 Taxman 184 / (2004) 1 SOT 831 (Mag.)(Indore)(Trib.)

S. 271D : Penalty – Accept loans or deposits – Payment by father [Ss. 269SS & 269T]

Penalty cannot be levied when the purchase consideration of a property was paid by father partly in cheque and partly in cash, and same was shown as loan from father, as there being no violation of Sec 269SS.

Mahesh Prasad Soni v. Addl. CIT (2003) 128 Taxman 91 (Mag.)(Jab.)(Trib.)

Section 271E : Penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 269T

S. 271E : Penalty – Repayment of loan or deposit – Meaning of ‘loan’ and ‘deposit’ [S. 269T]

A. Y. 2001-02, sections 269T and 271E of the Act as it existed during the relevant year dealt with repayment of ‘deposit’ made otherwise than by way of an account payee cheque or draft drawn in the name of the lender and not with repayment of ‘loans’ made otherwise than by account payee cheque. Therefore, penalty in the present case under section 271E was held not leviable.

CIT v. Vikramjit Singh (2006) 194 Taxation 331 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 271E : Penalty – Repayment of loan or deposit – Reasonable cause – Condition [S. 269T]

Where the assessee fails to show reasonable cause for making payment in contravention of section 269 T penalty under section 271E was rightly levied.

Madan Lal Mahaveer Prasad v. ITAT (2006) Tax L. R. 46 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 271E : Penalty – Repayment of Loan or deposit – Amendment – Prospective [S. 269T]

Amendment of s. 269T made by Finance Act, 2002, being effective from 1st June, 2002 repayment of loan in cash was not an offence in the relevant asst. yr. 1999-2002, and, therefore, penalty under section 271E was not leviable. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Star Electroplaters v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 640 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 271E : Penalty – Repayment of loan or deposit – ‘loan’ not covered [S. 269T]

Assessee having repaid loans in cash and not deposits, penalty under s. 271E was not leviable as the provisions of s. 269T as applicable to the relevant assessment year, did not apply to repayment of loans — Further, absence of any bank account of the lenders constituted a reasonable cause for repayment of amounts in cash. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Rajiana Kheti Store v. ITO (2006) 99 TTJ 576 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271E : Penalty – Repayment of loan or deposit – Genuine [S. 269T]

Revenue having failed to establish that repayments made by the assessee were of loans and deposits. Further the sources of amounts not being in doubt and transactions being bona fide and in normal course of business, penalty under section 271E was not attracted. (A.Y. 1994-95)

ACIT v. Alfa Hydromec (P) Ltd. (2006) 99 TTJ 405 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

S. 271E : Penalty – Repayment of loan or deposit – Source of payment [S. 269T]

Payments made in cash by the assessee-firm and the source of such payments not being in doubt. Penalty under section 271E was not leviable. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Skyline Silk Mills v. ACIT (2006) 101 TTJ 798 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 271E : Penalty – Repayment of loan or deposit – Society to members [S. 269T]

Where Assessing Officer levied penalty on assessee-society under section 271E on ground that assessee had repaid deposits in cash to various persons in contravention of provisions of section 269T, but facts showed that repayments of deposits were made to members of assessee-society, such transactions were not impeached by department as non-genuine and were not noticed outside books of account and assessee-society entertained a bona fide belief that no contravention of any provisions of Act was being made while making repayment of loans/deposits in cash, there was a reasonable cause within meaning of section 273B and no penalty under section 271E could be imposed. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Muslim Urban Co-op. Credit Society Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2005) 96 ITD 83 / 97 TTJ 928 (Pune)(Trib.)

S. 271E : Penalty – Repayment of loan or deposit – Agriculturist – No Bank Account [S. 269T]

Default in accepting of deposits in cash from agriculturists who had no bank account, would be merely a technical and venial, not resulting into any loss of revenue.

ITO v. Ganesh Wooden Industries (2003) SOT 583 (SMC)(Ahd.)(Trib.)

Section 271F : Penalty for failure to furnish return of income

S. 271F : Penalty – Failure to furnish return of Income – Reasonable cause – Not a continuing default – Law applicable date of default [S. 273B]

On conjoint reading of section 271F and section 273B there remains no scope of any doubt that it is not mandatory under section 271F that a penalty must be imposed in every case if conditions laid down in said section are established; penalty under section 271F is imposable only in event assessee fails to prove that there was reasonable cause for said failure; however burden to prove that there was reasonable cause for failure specified in section 271F lies on assessee as would be clear from language used in sections 271F and 273B. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Default as contemplated under section 271F is not a continuing default; therefore, levy of penalty under present section 271F is to be imposed as per law prevailing on date of default.

Case of assessee who has failed to file a return within required time on bona fide belief that he is not required to file such a return within required time because of there being no tax payable as a result of tax rebates admissible under Act or there being no further tax payable after adjustment of advance tax and tax deducted or collected at source, may be treated as for a reasonable cause unless otherwise something to contrary is brought on record. (A.Y. 2000-01)

Manju Kataruka (Mrs) v. ITO (2005) 3 SOT 414 / 94 TTJ 873 (Kol.)(Trib.)

Section 271G : Penalty for failure to furnish information or document under section 92D

S. 271G : Penalty – Documents – International transaction – Transfer pricing – No penalty for failure to respond to “omnibus” notice

Section 271G authorizes the levy of penalty if the information/ documents prescribed by section 92D(3) are not furnished. Rule 10D prescribes a voluminous list of information and documents required to be maintained and it is only in rare cases that all clauses would be attracted. Some of the documents may not be necessary in case of some assessees. Before issuing a notice under section 92D(3), the Assessing Officer has to apply his mind to what information and documents are relevant and necessary for determining ALP. A notice under section 92D(3) is not routine and cannot be casually issued but requires application of mind to consider the material on record and what further information on specific points is required. The notice cannot be vague or call for un-prescribed information.

Dy. CIT v. Leroy Somer & Controls (India) (P) Ltd. (2012) 65 DTR 205 / 143 TTJ 285 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 271G : Penalty – Documents – International transaction – Transfer pricing – Failure to furnish Information or documents – Satisfaction [S. 92A]

Satisfaction need not be recorded before initiating proceedings under section 271G as provisions of said section are quite different from provisions of sec. 271(1).

Cargill India (P) Ltd. ITO v. Dy. CIT (2008) 167 Taxman 114 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 272A : Penalty for failure to answer questions, sign statements, furnish information, returns or statements, allow inspections, etc.

S. 272A(2) : Penalty – Failure to answer questions – Proviso w.e.f. 1-10-1991 – Prospective

Proviso (inserted with effect from 1-10-1991) to section 272A(2) is not retrospective and hence would not have any impact on default relating to the assessment year 1989-90.

CIT v. New Rajasthan Trading Co. (2003) 133 Taxman 388 / (2004) 186 CTR 268 / 271 ITR 511 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 272A(2)(c) : Penalty – Failure to furnish information, return, etc. – Section 285B statement – Reasonable cause [S. 285B]

Assessee, who had taken up production of film, failed to submit statements under section 285B because he was not aware of said provision and as soon as notice was issued to him, he submitted statements, penalty imposed upon assessee for non-compliance of section 285B was to be deleted.

CIT v. Schell International (2005) 278 ITR 630 / 148 Taxman 446 / 200 CTR 243 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 272A(1)(c) : Penalty – Reasonable cause – Not appearing before Assessing Officer

Where it was held that looking to nature of business of assessee, assessee had a valid ground for not appearing before Assessing Officer and seeking adjournment and, hence, penalty had to be quashed

O.P. Khaitan (Investigation) v. Dy. CIT (2005) 273 ITR 429 / (2004) 139 Taxman 266 / 191 CTR 231 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 272A(2)(c) : Penalty – Failure to furnish TDS return – State Government

Where default is made by officer of State Government in filing TDS return, there is no justification in the approach of the Income-tax Department to give notice straightaway treating the State as an ordinary assessee. Rather than to impose penalty for default made by the Officers of State in filing of the TDS return, the State Government would have been advised to approach the Chief commissioner for the waiver thereof after the order of levy of penalty. Instead of taking steps to recover the amount of penalty imposed, the attention of the appellant would have been drawn to the provisions of section 273A. Section 273A, section 273B of the Act. The Court is also directed the State Government to issue appropriate circular, order or direction to deduct and pay the taxes. (A.Y. 1990-91)

State of Rajasthan v. ITAT (2003) 127 Taxman 648 / 259 ITR 686 / 176 CTR 196 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 272A(2)(c) : Penalty – Failure to file TDS return – Quarterly return

Failure to file quarterly return penalty is not leviable. Clause (c) of section 272A(2) relates to return / statement under section 133, 206 and 206C, which are unrelated to TDS, therefore, penalty under section 272A(2)(c) is not leviable for non submission of quarterly returns for TDS. (A. Ys. 2006-07 & 2007-08)

Porwal Creative Vision (P) Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2011) 139 TTJ 1 / 55 DTR 241 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 272A(1)(c) : Penalty – Failure to furnish information – Compliance

Assessee, a State Government Officer (Sub Registrar), having supplied attested copies instead of photo copies of a conveyance deed as required by the Assessing Officer, did not commit any default so as to attract penalty under section 272A(1)(c). (A.Y. 2002-03)

Sub-Registrar Rewari v. ITO (2006) 101 TTJ 671 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 272A(2)(c) : Penalty – Delay in furnishing TDS return – Form 26C

When despite opportunities given none appeared before Assessing Officer to explain delay in filing return in Form 26C, belated plea taken by assessee before appellate authority that an employee was responsible for delay, would not help assessee and, hence, penalty was leviable. (A.Y. 1999-2000)

Administrator, Municipal Council, Pinjore v. ACIT (2005) 96 TTJ 646 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 272A(2)(c) : Penalty – Failure to furnish information – Belated statement [S. 285B]

Since reason for submitting information under section 285B is to check inflation of expenditure by film producers and to enable department to get information about recipient of payment for necessary action in their case, belated information submitted in this regard may tantamount to non-furnishing as department may not be able to take immediate benefit of information given by assessee and in such a case of belated submission of statement, if assessee has no reasonable cause, penalty under section 272A(2)(c) would be justified. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Satish Y. Kulkarni v. Jt. CIT (2005) 3 SOT 46 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 272A(2)(e) : Penalty – Not liable file return – Educational Institution

When assessee educational institution was not liable to file return under section 139(4A), no penalty was exigible under section 272A(2)(e).

ADIT v. Rao Tula ram College (2003) SOT 570 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 272A(2)(f) : Penalty – Failure to furnish information, return, etc. – No liability to TDS – Form 15H

Where assessee was neither required to deduct tax at source nor any loss of revenue had occurred on that account, default committed by the assessee in not filing Form No. 15H received by it from various depositors, within the stipulated period was only of technical nature for which no penalty under section 272A(2)(f) was leviable

CIT v. State Bank of Patiala (2005) 277 ITR 315 / 191 CTR 256 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 272A(2)(f) : Penalty – Delay in submitting declaration in Form No. 15H – Voluntary compliance

Reasonable cause Penalty under section 272A(2)(f) is not leviable for the delay in filing of declarations, especially when the assessee had filed all the declarations without any notice from the Department. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Manager, Canara Bank v. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 342 (Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 272A(2)(g) : Penalty – Failure to Issue certificate, etc. – Delivered next day – Speed post

The tax had been deducted and deposited with the Government treasury. The TDS certificates were sent to the concerned persons by speed post on next day in compliance of section 203. Penalty cannot be imposed.

CIT v. Ashapura Garments P. Ltd. (2010) 322 ITR 83 / (2008) 219 CTR 195 / 9 DTR 300 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 272A(2)(g) : Penalty – Failure to issue TDS certificate – Reasonable cause

Where the business activities of the assessee were hampered due to losses incurred year after year, labour unrests and there was no experienced staff left with the assessee company to look after the affairs of the company, the High Court held that in such circumstances the assessee was prevented by reasonable and sufficient cause from issuing T.D.S. certificate within stipulated time and the penalty was not leviable in such case.

General Engineering Works v. CIT (TDS) (2008) 202 Taxation 488 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 272A(2)(g) : Penalties – Failure to issue TDS certificate – Delay in payment of tax

When there is compliance of section 203 of the act read with the relevant rules, penalty under section 272A(2)(g) of the Act cannot be imposed even though there is delay in payment of TDS amount by the assessee.

CIT v. Ashapura Garments P. Ltd. (2008) 322 ITR 83 / 219 CTR 195 / 9 DTR 300 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 272A(2)(g) : Penalty – Failure to issue TDS certificate – Venial and technical default

Where assessee had to issue over 5000 TDS certificates, and TDS was duly deposited in time, delay in issuing just 8 TDS certificate to 8 contractors could only be treated as venial and technical default not justifying levy of penalty under section 272A. (A.Y. 1995-96)

H.M.T. Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 140 Taxman 606 / 274 ITR 544 / 191 CTR 62 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 272A(2)(g) : Penalty – Failure to deposit – TDS – Reasonable Cause

Failure to deposit TDS into the Government account cannot be accepted as a reasonable cause for non-issue of certificate in Form No. 16A, and penalty under s. 272A(2)(g) is leviable for default in issuing TDS certificate even if tax is not deposited. (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 1999-2000)

ITO v. Labh Construction & Industries Ltd. (2006) 103 TTJ 269 / 8 SOT 475 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 272A(2)(g) : Penalty – Failure to put dates – Sign – TDS – Certificates

Merely because TDS certificates were undated, that would not make assessee liable to penalty for default under section 272A(2)(g) for late issue of TDS certificate. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Salwan Furnishing Co. v. Jt. CIT (2005) 1 SOT 485 / 91 TTJ 103 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 272A(2)(g) : Penalty – Failure to furnish Information – Quantum of penalty

Penalty under section 272A(2)(g) cannot exceed the amount of TDS.

Bhawani Dass Ashok Kumar v. Dy. CIT (2003) SOT 247 (Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 273 : False estimate of, or failure to pay, advance tax

S. 273 : Penalty – Advance tax – False estimate – Failure to pay – Reassessment

Question whether penalty proceedings under section 273(2)(aa) can be initiated in reassessment proceedings is a question of law. The judgment of High Court refusing to admit the appeal was set aside. (A.Ys. 1985-86 to 1987-88)

CIT v. L. M. P. Precision Engr. Co. (2005) 142 Taxman 547 / 193 CTR 592 / 186 Taxation 632 (SC)

S. 273 : Penalty – Advance tax – False estimate – Failure to pay – Deemed income [S. 41(1)]

Additions made by the Assessing Officer under section 41(1) to the assessee's returned income, after the assessee had filed estimate of income, could not be made basis for holding that estimate of advance tax earlier filed by the assessee was one which the assessee knew to be untrue so as to justify penalty under section 273(1)(a). (A.Ys. 1977-78, 1978-79)

CIT v. Chaudhry Cotton Ginning & Pressing Factory (2005) 278 ITR 387 / 146 Taxman 696 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 273 : Penalty – Advance tax – False estimate – Failure to pay – Delayed payment

Any amount of advance tax, which is deposited subsequent to the date prescribed for depositing the tax in the relevant financial year is to be treated as advanced tax. (A.Y. 1980-81)

Standard Chemical Co. Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 278 ITR 77 (All.)(High Court)

S. 273 : Penalty – Advance tax – False estimate – Failure to pay – Recording of satisfaction

Although the Assessing Officer must have satisfaction as required under section 273, it is not necessary for him to record that satisfaction in writing before initiating penalty proceedings.

Shyam Biri Works Pvt. Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 131 Taxman 253 / 259 ITR 625 / 185 CTR 510 (All.)(High Court)

S. 273 : Penalty – Advance tax – False estimate – Failure to pay – Ex parte

Deletion of penalty imposed ex parte before assessee could appear before Assessing Officer was justified. (A.Y. 1988-89)

CIT v. Minora Magnesite Ltd. (2003) 264 ITR 502 / 184 CTR 585 / (2004) 137 Taxman 385 (Uttaranchal)(High Court)

S. 273 : Penalty – Advance tax – False estimate – Failure to pay – Deletion of addition

Penalty cannot be sustained where addition on the merits had been deleted. (A.Y. 1987-88)

CIT v. Cosmopolitan Trading Corpn. (2003) 133 Taxman 52 / (2005) 274 ITR 640 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 273 : Penalty – Advance tax – False estimate – Failure to pay – Higher Assessment

Merely because an assessee is assessed at a higher figure, that by itself is not sufficient to hold that estimate filed by the assessee was untrue resulting in assessee being penalized for filing incorrect estimate. (A.Y. 1980-81)

CIT v. Kismet (P.) Ltd. (2003) 264 ITR 496 / 184 CTR 613 / (2004) 136 Taxman 198 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 273 : Penalty – Advance tax – False estimate – Bona fide belief – Below taxable income

Assessee having not filed statement of advance tax under the bona fide belief that his income is below the taxable limit and the additions made by estimating income having been reduced in appeal, imposition of penalty under section 273(1)(b) was not justified. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Mansukh Dass Soni v. ACIT (2006) 99 TTJ 894 (Jodh.)(Trib.)

Section 273A : Power to reduce or waive penalty, etc. in certain cases.

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Disclosure – Search and seizure – Voluntary – Block Assessment – Genuine hardship

Any disclosure made subsequent to seizure of incriminating material would not be treated as voluntary. Assessee applying for waiver must make out a case of genuine hardship.

Where the petitioners had made disclosure of additional income consequent to search and seizure of a diary containing discriminating material, such disclosure cannot be treated to be voluntary within the meaning of section 273A. Where the petitioners had not produced the balance sheet or any material to show that the petitioners were not in a position to pay the penalty and if they had not paid the penalty, there would be adverse consequences to the petitioners, there was no case for the petitioners to plead genuine hardship as envisaged in section 273A(4). (A.Ys. 1970-71 to 1987-88)

Shardadevi P. Jhunjhunwala v. CIT (2010) 327 ITR 211 / 190 Taxman 194 / 236 CTR 142 / 41 DTR 252 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Interest

Assessee voluntary filing of return, waiver application for interest was rejected. The court held that rejection of application solely for failure to pay interest was not justified when no notice was issued by the department under section 139 or 148. (A.Ys. 1983-84 to 1985-86)

Prakash Kumari (Smt) v. CIT (2010) 326 ITR 82 / (2008) 219 CTR 569 / 177 Taxman 350 / 13 DTR 245 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Speaking order

Under section 273A Commissioner, essentially needs to pass speaking and reasoned order after taking into consideration scheme and object of section 273A including elements like voluntary act of filing return in good faith; full and true disclosure of income; payment of tax; and co-operation and once case is made out for waiver/reduction, Commissioner needs to exercise powers in favour of assessee. Section 273A(1)(a) requires a disclosure of full and true income and not filing of valid returns in time before issue of notice under section 139(2) or under section 148(1). (A.Ys. 1984-85 to 1988-89)

Vasantbhai Jethalal Lathiwal v. CIT (2008) 174 Taxman 280 / 325 ITR 41 / 219 CTR 564 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Finding of compliance

Where Commissioner (Appeals) recorded a categorical finding that assessee had not concealed particulars of her income and did not furnish inaccurate particulars of such income, Explanation to section 273A would get squarely attracted with full force and deeming fiction contemplated therein would come in play. (A.Ys. 1982-83, 1983-84)

Usha A. Kalwani (Mrs) v. S.N. Soni (2005) 272 ITR 167 / (2004) 136 Taxman 708 / 188 CTR 409 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Amnesty scheme – Reduction – Waiver of penalty

Where in preceding year, assessee's case was held to be governed by Amnesty Scheme and facts for Assessment Year under consideration were similar, assessee's request for waiver under section 273A for year under consideration should be considered. (A.Y. 1987-88)

Shantaben R. Choksi v. CIT (2005) 272 ITR 295 / (2004) 190 CTR 491 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Quasi judicial – Reasons

Powers conferred on Commissioner under section 273A is a quasi-judicial power and whatever decision is taken is to be supported with reasons. (A.Ys. 1980-81 to 1982-83)

Ganesh Trading Co. v. CIT (2004) 265 ITR 495 / 134 Taxman 441 / 187 CTR 382 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Belated return – Full & true disclosure – Waiver of penalty

For waiver of penalty and interest what is relevant is full and true disclosure made voluntarily and in good faith, whether by way of belated returns or otherwise. (A.Ys. 1981-82 to 1988-89)

Anand B. Apte v. CIT (2004) 270 ITR 581 / 136 Taxman 656 / 188 CTR 416 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Disclosure by assessee

Merely because Assessing Officer has initiated enquiry regarding assessee's source of income, it cannot be said that disclosure is to avoid or pre-empt exposure or penal action. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Sudha Kankariya (Dr.) (Mrs.) v. CIT (2004) 270 ITR 296 / 136 Taxman 686 / 188 CTR 404 (Bom.) (High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Subsequent jurisdiction – Suo moto – Waiver of penalty

CIT ought not to have rejected the application under section 273A on the ground that When the application was made. CIT did not have jurisdiction, if subsequently jurisdiction has been conferred to him by CBDT.

Ply King v. CBDT (2004) 270 ITR 364 / 138 Taxman 206 / 191 CTR 484 (Patna)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Disclosure after search – Voluntary – Reduction

Disclosure made after search cannot be treated as a voluntary disclosure. (A.Ys. 1984-85 to 1988-89)

C. Christopher v. CIT (2004) 268 ITR 511 / 140 Taxman 485 / 190 CTR 527 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Non payment of advance tax – Delayed return

While considering application under section 273A, non payment of advance tax is an irrelevant consideration; similarly, absence of explanation for delayed filing of return is also extraneous consideration. (A.Ys. 1981-82 to 1987-88)

Shrikrishna S. Bhagwat v. S.N. Soni, CIT (2004) 270 ITR 186 / 137 Taxman 222 / 188 CTR 396 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Writ – Effect of sub-section (4)

Writ petition can be entertained against order under section 273A as such order is not appealable under section 246 or 253. Sub-section (4) is not a provision overriding the provisions of sub-section (1). (A.Ys. 1984-85 to 1990-91)

Satish Kapur v. CIT (2004) 265 ITR 673 / 136 Taxman 288 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Reduction – Fresh application

Where on dismissal of application by Commissioner, another application is filed, such application should be treated as fresh application and decided expeditiously.

Ashwani Dhingra v. CCIT (2004) 140 Taxman 84 (All.)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Condition fulfilled – Rejection

If conditions in section 273A(1)(c) are fulfilled, Commissioner has to give some relief and cannot reject application in toto.

Kailash Mills v. CIT (2003) 260 ITR 322 / 130 Taxman 608 (All.)(High Court)

S. 273A : Penalty – Commissioner – Power to reduce or waive – Subsequent payment of tax

Where because no tax had been paid waiver of interest was not granted but subsequently tax had been paid, there cannot be any embargo in considering the matter on merits as regards waiver of interest and penalty under section 273A.

Analab (India) Pvt. Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 262 ITR 596 / 133 Taxman 393 (Cal.)(High Court)

Section 274 : Procedure

S. 274 : Penalty – Procedure – Law Applicable – Concealment

Where assessee had filed original return on 3-9-1975, even though subsequently notice under section 148 was issued, penalty under section 271(1)(c) was leviable as per provisions of the Act as those stood in statute on 3-9-1975, and not on date when return was filed on 3-11-1984 in response to notice under section 148 and as such only authority competent to levy penalty as on 3-9-1975 (IAC) could impose penalty. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Aan Aam Prop. Narindra Palace v. ACIT (2005) 94 TTJ 850 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

Section 275 : Bar of limitation for imposing penalties

S. 275 : Penalty – Bar of limitation – Concealment – Not curbed by proviso – Penalty levied within six months of receipt of order from Tribunal – Not barred by limitation [S. 271(1)(c)]

The period of six months provided for imposition of penalty under section 275(1)(a) starts running after the successive appeals from an assessment order have been finally decided by the CIT(A) or the ITAT. The proviso to section 275(1)(a) extends the period for imposing penalty from six months to one year of the receipt of the CIT(A)'s order after 1.6.2003. The proviso carves out an exception from the main section inasmuch as in cases where no appeal is filed before the ITAT the Assessing Officer must impose penalty within a period of one year of the date of receipt of the CIT(A)'s order. A proviso is merely a subsidiary to the main section and must be construed harmoniously with the main provision. The proviso to section 275(1)(a) does not nullify the availability to the Assessing Officer of the period of limitation of six months from the end of the month when the order of the ITAT is received. (A. Y. 2001-02).

CIT v. Mohair Investment & Trading Co. (2011) 63 DTR 226 / 245 CTR 313 / (2012) 345 ITR 51 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 275 : Penalty – Bar of limitation – Initiation and posting order [S. 271D]

Penalty proceeding initiated on 7-4-1993. An order for penalty passed on 31-10-1997 was held to be barred by limitation since it could not be passed by 31-3-1994 and therefore, bad-in-law. Hence, penalty under section 271D was deleted. (A.Y. 1990-91)

ITO v. Ramkishore Rewaram Tada (2006) 202 CTR 404 / 287 ITR 239 / 155 Taxman 265 (MP) (High Court)

S. 275 : Penalty – Bar of limitation – Revision [S. 263]

Limitation prescribed by section 275 cannot be by-passed or indirectly extended by invoking powers under section 263. (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. Parmanand M. Patel (2005) 278 ITR 3 / 149 Taxman 403 / 198 CTR 641 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 275 : Penalty – Bar of limitation – Law w.ef. 1-4-1989

Penalty proceedings were initiated on 28-3-1980, and were dropped on 28-9-1984, the limitation having already expired much before substituted clause (b) of section 275(1) came on the statute book which was with effect from 1-4-1989, one could not give any retrospective operation to clause (b) as penalty proceeding had become barred by that time and as such penalty order passed as a result of order passed under section 263 would be barred by limitation in such a case. (A.Y. 1977-78)

CIT v. Braj Bhushan Cold Storage (2005) 275 ITR 360 / 145 Taxman 585 / 197 CTR 490 (All.)(High Court)

S. 275 : Penalty – Bar of limitation – Financial year

'Financial year' in the first part of section 275(1) (c) must be understood as financial year wherein assessment order is made in course of which proceedings for penalty could be initiated.

Shanbhag Restaurant v Dy. CIT (2004) 266 ITR 393 / 134 Taxman 495 / 186 CTR 318 (Karn.) (High Court)

S. 275 : Penalty – Bar of limitation – Unilateral recomputation

In absence of any request for rehearing by an assessee, Department cannot invoke Explanation (i) to section 275 unilaterally to compute period of limitation. (A.Y. 1995-96)

B. N. Amarnath v. CIT (2003) 126 Taxman 207 / 259 ITR 590 / 179 CTR 163 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 275 : Penalty – Bar of limitation – Concealment [S. 271(1)(c)]

Assessee, a public Limited Company, filed a loss return. Assessing Officer completed assessment at positive income by making various additions and disallowances. The additions were confirmed by Commissioner (Appeals) and Tribunal on 30-8-2004 and 9-5-2008, respectively. Assessing Officer imposed penalty order under section 271(1)(c) on 30-1-2009. Assessee claimed that said order of penalty order of 30-1-2009 was barred by limitation in terms of section 275. The Tribunal held that where assessee had filed an appeal before Tribunal against quantum, section 275(1)(a) fixes time limit of six months from date of receipt of order of Tribunal by Commissioner / Chief Commissioner or passing an order of penalty, therefore, penalty levied was proper. (A. Y. 2000-01).

Mahindra Intertrade Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 133 ITD 597 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 275 : Penalty – Bar of limitation – Date of initiation

As regards to provisions of sections 271D and 271E, period of limitation for purpose of section 275 is to be reckoned from date when penalty proceedings are initiated by Dy. Commissioner (Joint Commissioner) and not from date on which assessment proceedings are completed. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Dewan Chand Amrit Lal v. Dy. CIT (2006) 98 ITD 200 / (2005) 98 TTJ 947 (SB)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 275 : Penalty – Bar of limitation – Date of initiation

Limitation under section 275(1)(c) for imposition of penalty would apply, reckoning it from date when Additional Commissioner issued show-cause notice for levy of penalty.

ACIT v. Jai Bharat Fruit Co. Ltd. (2005) 4 SOT 445 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 275 : Penalty – Bar of limitation – Time barred order

Where action for imposition of penalty was initiated in February, 1992 and penalty was imposed in 2001, in view of section 275(1)(c) imposition of penalty was beyond period of limitation. (A.Ys. 1987-88 and 1989-90)

ACIT v. Vaish Bros. & Co. Ltd. (2005) 93 TTJ 476 (Luck.) (Trib.)

S. 275 : Penalty – Bar of limitation – Loans – Deposits

Where Assessing Officer observing that assessee had accepted loans/ deposits otherwise than by account-payee cheques/demand drafts contravening provisions of section 269SS, referred matter to the Additional Commissioner proposing levy of penalty under section 271D and Additional Commissioner initiated penalty proceedings on 6-4-1999, in view of provisions of section 275(1)(c), penalty order passed on 13-3-2000 was barred by limitation. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Chhajer Packaging & Plastics (P.) Ltd. v. Addl. CIT (2005) 95 ITD 319 / 97 TTJ 153 (Pune) (Trib.)

CHAPTER XXII

Offences and Prosecutions

Section 275A : Contravention of order made under sub-section (3) of section 132.

S. 275A : Offences and prosecutions – Prohibitory order – Contravention of order made u/s. 132(3)

Income-tax department had issued prohibitory order under section 132(3) with regard to specified bank accounts but no transaction had admittedly taken place with regard to accounts in respect of which prohibitory order was subsisting, and Income-tax department had not passed any prohibitory orders with regard to account in question where transactions appeared to have taken place, no offence could be said to have been made out

Sanjay Sinha v. UOI (2005) 145 Taxman 103 / 271 ITR 465 (Patna) (High Court)

Section 276AB : Failure to comply with the provisions of section 269UC, 269UE and 269UL.

S. 276AB : Offences and prosecutions – Transfer of immoveable property – Chapter XX-C – Failure to file form – Form 37I [S. 269UA(f)(i)]

Petitioners having let out its property under a lease for a period of nine years which, Explanation to section 269UA(f)(i), is clearly attracted and, therefore, provisions of Chapter XX-C are applicable. Petitioners having failed to submit Form No. 37-I criminal proceedings under section 276AB r/w 278B cannot be quashed.

Govind Impex (P) Ltd. & Ors v. Appropriate Authority (2010) 236 CTR 449 / 48 DTR 169 / (2011) 330 ITR 10 / 196 Taxman 424 (SC)

Section 276B : Failure to pay tax to the credit of Central Government under Chapter XX-D or XVII-B

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay tax – TDS – Directors

The Supreme Court held that it cannot be said that the prosecution against a company or its directors for default of deduction or payment of tax is not envisaged in the Act. The Supreme Court held that even if the tax deducted has been deposited with the Central Government, but if there is a delay then the assessee would be liable under section 276B for penalty for non payment of the tax within the stipulated time. (A.Y. 1989-90)

Madhumilan Syntex Ltd. v. UOI (2007) 290 ITR 199 / 160 Taxman 71 / 208 CTR 417 / 199 Taxation 259 (SC) / 11 SCC 297

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Compounding of offences – Guidelines – Technical

Under the guidelines of September 30, 1994, technical offences could be compounded by the Chief Commissioner or Director General on certain conditions. The Court held that compounding is not possible after filing of complaint. (A. Y. 1982-83).

Anil Batra v. CCIT (2011) 337 ITR 251 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay tax – Director [S. 2(35)]

Director of a company is not "principal officer" within meaning of section 2(35) and in case Income Tax Officer seeks to prosecute a director along with company for an offence punishable under section 276B, then he has to issue a notice under sub-clause (b) of section 2(35), expressing his intention to treat such director as "principal officer" of company and in absence of such a notice prosecution against director would fail.

ITO v. Delhi Iron Works (P) Ltd. (2010) 195 Taxman 372 (2011) 331 ITR 5 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay tax – Notice – Time limit – S. 278B, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973

There is no provision in law which requires notice to be given to the accused before launching prosecution under the I.T. Act. Where the punishment prescribed under the Act is beyond three years, the provisions of sec. 468 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, would not apply. Where prosecution is launched under section 276B of the I.T. Act, 1961, the punishment prescribed is imprisonment up to seven years and hence s. 468 of CCP would not apply. Further there is no time limit for launching prosecution.

UOI v. Gupta Builders P. Ltd. & Anr (2008) 297 ITR 310 / 215 CTR 74 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay tax – Personal attendance

Complaint was that directors and senior manager (petitioner) of company did not deduct tax from payments to employees and did not deposit amount with revenue, in view of fact that there was no allegation that petitioners misappropriated/defaulted any amount and fact that they were holding responsible position and it would be inconvenient for them to appear in person in Court on every date, Magistrate should allow their application under section 205 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, dispensing with their personal attendance in Court

G.P. Pandey v. UOI (2005) 275 ITR 212 / 151 Taxman 79 (Jharkhand)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay tax – Circular dt. 28-5-1980

Conditions for exempting assessee from prosecution are available as per circular dated

28-5-1980 of Finance Department, it will not be open for authorities then also to have discretion in matter of launching prosecution. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Vijaysingh v. UOI (2005) 278 ITR 467 / (2006) 150 Taxman 117 / 199 CTR 653 (MP)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to comply with section 269U [S. 276AB]

Fact that process has already been issued is no bar to drop proceedings if complaint on very face of it does not disclose any offence against accused.

Aerens Entertainment Zone Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2005) 275 ITR 483 / (2004) 139 Taxman 305 (Delhi) (High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Not previously assessed to tax – Wilful evasion – Presumption (S. 276C/277) S. 132(4)

A person who has not been previously assessed and has yet time to file return for relevant assessment year, cannot be prosecuted under section 276C. (A.Y. 1981-82)

N. Srinivasan v. Uma Rani (Smt.) (2004) 270 ITR 77 / 141 Taxman 564 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful evasion of tax – Deletion of penalty

[S. 276 C, 277]

Once penalties are cancelled on ground that there is no concealment, quashing of prosecution under section 276 C is automatic. (A.Y. 1981-82)

Arvind Jain v. ACIT (Investigation) (2004) 271 ITR 31 / 154 Taxman 348 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful evasion of tax – Deletion of penalty

[S. 276C, 277]

Criminal prosecution will not be maintainable where penalty for concealment has been deleted. (A.Y. 1988-89)

ITO v. Gagneja Traders (2004) 268 ITR 97 / 142 Taxman 303 / 191 CTR 111 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay tax willful evasion of tax – Effect of deletion of penalty [S. 276C, 277]

Adjudication on penalty cannot bind criminal court

Atma Ram Properties P. Ltd. v. State thru ACIT (2004) 188 CTR 607 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay tax – Opportunity to examine witness

Further opportunity to examine witnesses cannot be granted to petitioner accused if he failed to avail such opportunity earlier. (A.Y. 1996-97)

G. Gopi v. G. Thiagarajan (2004) 266 ITR 378 / 138 Taxman 138 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay tax – Sleeping partner

Where accused - partner was, admittedly, a sleeping partner, prosecution would not lie against her. (A.Y. 1986-87)

ITO v. Karma Trading Co. (2004) 267 ITR 170 / 136 Taxman 568 / 197 CTR 536 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Extension to file return [S. 276CC]

Where accused was granted extension of time to file returns and in three out of six cases against accused there was acquittal by trial court, conviction had to be set aside in other cases too. (A.Ys. 1983-84 to 1988-89)

K. Palvannan (Dr) v. ACIT (2004) 271 ITR 38 / 144 Taxman 374 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Material while framing charge – Failure to produce accounts and documents [S. 276D]

In case of challenge to order framing notice under section 251 of the code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 on ground that relevant material had not been considered by trial court at the time of framing of notice, petitioners must approach trial court and place before it any material which needed any attention while framing of such notice.

Mohan Anand v. UOI (2004) 139 Taxman 351 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay tax – Sanction for prosecution –Compounding of an offence [S. 279]

Court cannot issue a direction to commissioner under section 482 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, to compound an offence.

V.G. Paneerdas & Co. P. Ltd. v. Nagarathna, ACIT (2004) 267 ITR 383 / 144 Taxman 467 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay tax – Sanction for prosecution – Permission to inspection [S. 279]

The court has directed ITO to permit assessee or his representative to have inspection of declaration issued in Form No. 10-I in respect of those declaration where action was being contemplated.

S. Karunakaran (Dr). v. ITO (2004) 141 Taxman 295 / 190 CTR 183 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay Tax – Position prior to 1-4-1997 – Omission of provision of section 276B

Section 6 of the General Clauses Act, will not apply to omission of any provision in the Act but will apply only to repeal. Where penal provision of section 276C was completely omitted from 1-4-1989, it could be considered as if it had never been in the statute book and for the same no prosecution could be launched or continued. (A.Y. 1986-87)

Narendrakumar Khandelwal v. UOI (2003) 259 ITR 593 / 128 Taxman 60 / 180 CTR 553 (MP)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to file – Form 15A and 20A

Where assessee had shown in its return for relevant assessment year interest paid to concerned depositors but due to inadvertence it had not annexed Form No. 15A along with return and had also not filed return in Form No. 20A, as required under rule 37(2)(&), acquittal of accused was justified. (A.Ys. 1978-79 to 1984-85)

UOI v. Pyarelal Tarachand (2003) 180 CTR 551 / 264 ITR 525 / (2004) 135 Taxman 97 (MP)(High Court)

S. 276B : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to pay tax – Writ

Writ application at the stage of decision to initiate prosecution under section 276B was not maintainable.

Shaw Wallace & Co. Ltd. v. CIT (TDS) (No. 1) (2003) 264 ITR 241 / 185 CTR 444 / (2004) 136 Taxman 155 (Cal.)(High Court)

Section 276C : Wilful attempt to evade tax, etc.

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Return of firm – Proof of signing of return by accused [S. 277, 278]

Accused partner of the assessee firm not having raised any objection at any point of time that the return did not bear his signature or that it was not filed by him and paid the penalty levied in the assessment, the accused could not be acquitted of the offences under sections 276C, 277 and 278 on the ground that the prosecution has not been able to prove that the return was signed by the accused partner : the impugned orders are set aside and the judgment of conviction passed by the Chief Magistrate is restored. (A. Y. 1988-89)

ITO v. Mangat Ram Norata Ram Narwana and another (2011) 336 ITR 624 / 57 DTR 257 / 242 CTR 113 / 200 Taxman 432 (SC)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Purchase of property

Assessee shown consideration far less than amount actually paid in application under section 230A, accused was charged on two counts under IPC and one count under Income Tax Act. Accused was sentenced for seven days. High Court confirmed the charge under IPC and set aside the conviction under Income Tax Act since the excess amount was paid by the accused's sister. On appeal the Supreme Court held that because of peculiar facts of the case and lapse of long time, sentence restricted to that undergone. Matter not to be taken as precedent. (A.Y. 1983-84)

P. Soundarya v. ITO (2008) 301 ITR 50 / 171 Taxman 110 / 216 CTR 20 (SC)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Penalty order set aside

When the penalty order was set aside, the magistrate should decide the case of prosecution in accordance with law including the issue of whether prosecution should be quashed as penalty order has been set aside. (A.Ys. 1980-81 to 1982-83)

V. Gopal v. ACIT (2005) 279 ITR 510 / 142 Taxman 549 / 193 CTR 392 / 185 Taxation 439 (SC)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Benefit of Pardon – Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 [S. 277]

If accused makes a full and complete disclosure to get benefit of pardon under section 306 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, the prosecution under section 276C / 277 should not be allowed to proceed. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1996-97)

Dipesh Chandak v. UOI (2004) 270 ITR 85 / 140 Taxman 166 / 191 CTR 145 / (2005) 184 Taxation 17 (SC)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Penalty Cancelled – Prosecution quashed

Levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) and prosecution under section 276C are simultaneous, hence once penalties under section 271(1)(c) are cancelled, quashing of prosecution under section 276C is automatic. (A.Ys. 1983-84 to 1986-87)

Levy of penalty under section 271(1)(c) and prosecution under section 276C are simultaneous. Once the penalty under section 271(1)(c) has been cancelled on the ground that there is no concealment, the quashing of prosecution is automatic. (A.Ys. 1983-84 to 1986-87)

K. C. Builders & Anr. v. ACIT (2004) 265 ITR 562 / 135 Taxman 461 / 186 CTR 721 / 179 Taxation 418 (SC)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Penalty set aside – No Prosecution

Where penalty is set aside in appeal by the Tribunal which was confirmed by the High Court, holding that the non disclosure of the items of income was purely due to mistake on the part of the assessee. In the light of the decision of the Court it cannot be said that the assessee has made a wilful attempt to evade taxes, therefore, assessee cannot be prosecuted for alleged offence under section 276C of the Act. (A. Y. 1989-90)

N. S. Babu v. CIT (2011) 50 DTR 27 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Two different agreements for same construction – Charge – IPC [S. 193]

Since two agreements for the same purpose with different values were found during search, as per explanation under section 276C, prima facie material is available against the petitioner to frame charge under section 276C. (A.Ys. 1985-86 to 1987-88)

Vijayalalitha v. ITO (2010) 327 ITR 261 / 48 DTR 324 / 237 CTR 500 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Penalty deleted

Where the penalty levied under section 271(1)(c) of the Act have been cancelled by the High Court, criminal complaint launched on the basis of the penalty order is also liable to be quashed.

Harkawat & Co. & Ors. v. UOI (2009) 29 DTR 324 / 328 ITR 624 / 187 Taxman 33 (MP)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – 277 and 278 – Penalty deleted

On deletion of penalty under section 271(1)(c). Prosecution to under sections 276C, 277 and 278 has to be quashed. (A.Y. 1980-81)

SSR Pirodia & Ors. v. ACIT (2008) 219 CTR 295 / 302 CTR 1 / 171 Taxman 221 (MP)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Penalty deleted

Tribunal on its merits given the finding that there was no case for penalty under section 271(1)(c) – Prosecution under section 276C has to be quashed. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Rakesh Kalia v. ITO (2007) 210 CTR 342 / 295 ITR 486 / 161 Taxman 111 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Partner – S. 278 Prospective

Sec. 278B was inserted w.e.f. 1-10-1975, being prospective in operation, the partner of firm cannot be prosecuted for offence under section 276 & 277 with the aid of s. 278B, which were committed before s. 278B was inserted. (A.Y. 1975-76)

Kusumchand Sharadchand & Anr. v. UOI & Anr. (2006) 201 CTR 385 / 286 ITR 370 / 153 Taxman 458 (MP)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Pendency of appeal

If appeal is pending against assessment order, prosecution proceedings should not be launched

Naresh Prasad v. UOI (2005) 276 ITR 633 / 143 Taxman 291 (Patna)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax- Concealment of income

Concealment of income would not ipso facto entail criminal prosecution where assessee's case is covered by Amnesty Scheme as per Circular No. 441, dated 15-11-1985. (A.Y. 1985-86)

Bawa Mahesh Singh v. ITO (2005) 273 ITR 405 / 196 CTR 282 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Appeal partly allowed

Where an appeal against assessment order, Tribunal partly allowed assessee's claim for deduction and remanded case on other claim of assessee, penalty imposed on assessee under section 271(1)(c) could not survive and, therefore, original assessment having been modified, prosecution proceedings too were to be quashed. (A.Y. 1983-84)

Tata Robins Fraser Ltd. v. State of Jharkhand (2005) 275 ITR 268 / 197 CTR 156 (Jharkhand)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Successor can continue the proceedings

Where initially the authorization was given to one officer who filed a complaint and, subsequently, he relinquished the office or was transferred, his successor could proceed with the same complaint as a complainant.

ITO v. Balaji Chit Fund (No. 1) (2003) 264 ITR 428 / (2004) 186 CTR 293 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Assessment set a side

There is no merit in contention that once order of assessment has been set aside, offence of tax evasion under section 276C cannot be tried. (A.Y. 1977-78)

Gheru Lai Bal Chand v. ITO (2003) 264 ITR 355 / (2004) 137 Taxman 397 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Finding in assessment is not sufficient or conclusive

Only assessment order based on estimate or opinion of the ITO that assessee had filed incorrect and false return to evade tax, is not sufficient to launch criminal proceedings.

(A.Y. 1982-83)

Raghunath Prasad Mohanlal v. UOI (2003) 259 ITR 663 / 179 CTR 48 / 126 Taxman 487 (MP)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Penalty deleted

If penalty is quashed, prosecution need not continue. (A.Ys. 1985-86, 1986-87)

Laxmi Stores v. UOI (2003) 131 Taxman 258 / (2004) 188 CTR 592 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Penalty deleted

If penalty for concealment is deleted, criminal proceedings cannot continue. (A.Y. 1986-87)

Ajay Tent House v. ITO (2003) 133 Taxman 807 / 264 ITR 266 / (2004) 189 CTR 93 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Penalty deleted

If the penalty proceedings have been set aside in the departmental proceedings, then the very basis of launching of the prosecution against the assessee stands knocked down.

Gupta Construction Co. v. ITO (2003) 260 ITR 415 / (2004) 135 Taxman 88 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Penalty deleted

Prosecution is not maintainable where Tribunal had set aside the order levying penalty levied under section 271(1)(c). (A.Ys. 1985-86, 1986-87)

UOI v. Smt. Birdibai Garg (2003) 127 Taxman 182 / 260 ITR 389 / 179 CTR 345 (MP)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Effect of delay in Prosecution

Though the cause of action for initiating prosecution is furnished on the date when income is concealed or on date when concealment becomes known to the Department, once proceedings are finalised, the prosecution has to be commenced within a reasonable period. (A.Y. 1975-76)

Narain Dev Dhablania v. ITO (2003) 262 ITR 206 / 184 CTR 54 / (2004) 134 Taxman 70 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Effect of Pendency of Reassessment

Because of the pendency of reassessment, the prosecution cannot be whittled down and original assessment alone is to be considered for prosecution. (A.Y. 1982-83)
V. Sadasiva Chetty (HUF) v. ITO (2003) 264 ITR 527 / (2004) 136 Taxman 138 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Effect of Pendency of Appeal

During pendency of appeal before Commissioner (Appeals), interim stay of criminal proceedings is to be granted. (A.Y. 1992-93)
Gauri Shankar Prasad v. UOI (2003) 261 ITR 522 / 133 Taxman 463 / 185 CTR 530 (Patna)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Wilful attempt to evade tax – Prima facie case

Where no prima facie case was made out that assessee willfully concealed sale of bags of cement, prosecution of assessee under section 276C / 277 was unsustainable.
ITO v. Janta Trading Co. (2003) 263 ITR 24 / 132 Taxman 869 / 184 CTR 174 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Willful attempt to evade tax – Cancellation of bail

Where bail was granted to accused partner in 2001 because he had been in jail custody for over 4 months, prayer for cancellation of bail was to be rejected. (A.Ys. 1987-88, 1997-98)
UOI v. Sharad Kumar (2003) 261 ITR 304 / 186 CTR 555 / 133 Taxman 870 (Patna)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Willful attempt to evade tax – Order of acquittal

Order of acquittal of accused cannot be reversed merely because a different view can be taken. (A.Y. 1980-81)
ITO v. Jagdish Ram Manak Chand Jain (2003) 133 Taxman 536 / 184 CTR 570 / 266 ITR 220 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 276C : Offences and prosecutions – Willful attempt to evade tax – Discharge application

Where the petitioner had filed a petition for discharge even before the charges had been framed, petitioner's petition was rightly rejected. (A.Y. 1982-83)
V. Sadasiva Chetty (HUF) v. ITO (2003) 264 ITR 527 / 136 Taxman 138 (Mad.)(High Court)

Section 276CC : Failure to furnish returns of income

S. 276CC : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to furnish return of Income – Insignificant tax effect

Where appellant had disclosed a tax liability of ₹ 644/- which on final assessment after appeal was determined at ₹ 1,360/- even though on basis of assessment completed Assessing Officer had determined tax liability at ₹ 4,450/- Prosecution was not maintainable in view of proviso (ii)(b) to section 276CC, as final tax assessed is below Rs 3000. (A.Y. 1982-83)

Guru Nanak Enterprises & Others v. ITO (2005) 279 ITR 30 / 149 Taxman 565 / 199 CTR 710 / (2006) 192 Taxation 855 (SC)

S. 276CC : Offence and prosecutions – Failure to furnish return of Income – Belated return S. 139(4) [S. 278E]

Inaction to file return under sub-section (1) of section 139 will not be condoned even if a return is filed under sub-section (4) of section 139.

Whether there is willful failure to furnish return is matter which is to be adjudicated factually by the court which deals with the prosecution. There is a statutory presumption prescribed in section 278E. The Court has to presume the existence of culpable mental state and absence of such mental state can be pleaded by any accused as a defence in respect to the act charged as an offence in the prosecution. (A.Y. 1988-89)

Prakash Nath Khanna & Another v. CIT (2004) 266 ITR 1 / 135 Taxman 327 / 187 CTR 97 / 180 Taxation 18 (SC)

S. 276CC : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to furnish return of income – Karta liable for tax offence of the HUF

Member of HUF cannot be held liable for delay in filing of the return of HUF, though he has participated in the assessment proceedings. (A.Y. 1980-81, 1981-82)

Roshan Lal v. Special Chief Magistrate (2010) 322 ITR 353 / (2009) 177 Taxman 341 / 20 DTR 206 (All.)(High Court)

S. 276CC : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to furnish return of Income – Filing of return in response to notice under section 148 – (S. 148) Mens rea

Assessee is not exonerated from prosecution under section 276CC for not filing the returns within statutory due date as per section 139(1) though the returns are filed in response to notice under section 148, further, as there is a statutory presumption prescribed under section 278E, the burden is on the assessee to show that there was no willful default.

R. Inbavalli v. ITO (2010) 48 DTR 276 / 327 ITR 226 / 236 CTR 613 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 276CC : Offence and prosecutions – Failure to furnish return of income – Reasonable cause [S. 278B]

Where the delay in filing the return was explained by the accused firm due to the illness of the old part – time accountant of the accused firm, the cause shown by the accused firm was held to be a reasonable cause for delay in filing the return of its income. (A.Y. 1981-82)

UOI v. Bhavecha Machinery & Ors. (2009) 17 DTR 387 / 320 ITR 263 (MP)(High Court)

S. 276CC : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to furnish return of income – Personal appearance

Where department had filed petitions before Trial Court, under section 313 of Criminal Procedure Code, praying to fix a date for personal appearance of respondents for questioning under section 313(a) of Criminal Procedure Code and those petitions were pending before Trial Court, Income-tax Department could not approach High Court to direct Trial Court to fix date for personal appearance of respondents for questioning under section 313(a) of Criminal Procedure Code.

ACIT v. J. Jayalalitha (Ms.) (2005) 273 ITR 38 / 146 Taxman 235 (Mad.)(High Court)

Section 276CCC : Failure to furnish return of income in search cases

S. 276CCC : : Offences and prosecutions – Search cases – Failure to furnish return – Failure to furnish return of income in search cases – Serving the notice on CA

Where notice under section 158BC was served on assessee's CA and assessee admittedly had its knowledge but did not file return in response thereto and, hence, criminal proceedings were started against it, Trial Court was not justified in discharging assessee accused on ground that notice under section 158BC was not served on it.

Y. Rajendra, Dy. CIT v. Khoday Eshwarsa & Sons (2005) 272 ITR 448 / 144 Taxman 629 / 195 CTR 0057 (Karn.)(High court)

Section 276DD : Failure to comply with the provision of section 269SS [Omitted by the Direct Tax Laws (Amendment) Act, 1987, w.e.f. 1-4-1989]

S. 276DD : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to comply with section 269SS – Effect of amendment

Prosecution for alleged offence committed prior to coming into force of Direct Tax Laws (Amendment) Act, 1987, which deleted section 276DD, after coming into force of above amendment, would not be maintainable.

UOI v. Abdul Zarkhan (2003) 127 Taxman 179 / 260 ITR 358 / 179 CTR 547 (MP)(High Court)

S. 276DD : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to comply with section 269SS – Sleeping partner

Complaints against partners which were not in any manner involved in running of partnership firm, had to be quashed.

Mohan Singh v. ITO (2003) 262 ITR 547 / 138 Taxman 146 (P&H)(High Court)

Section 276E : Failure to comply with the provision of section 269T [Omitted by the Direct Tax Laws (Amendment) Act, 1987, w.e.f. 1-4-1989]

S. 276E : Offences and prosecutions – Failure to comply with section 269T – Effect of omission of s. 276E

After omission of section 276E, prosecution there under for offences committed prior to omission was not permissible. (A.Y. 1984-85)

Shewaram & Sons v. UOI (2003) 263 ITR 656 / 181 CTR 316 / 141 Taxman 16 (MP)(High Court)

Section 277 : False statement in verification, etc.

S. 277 : Offences and prosecutions – False Statement in Verification – Firm – Forgery of signature of partner

Where in appeal against assessment of firm, firm had been found to be in existence, complaint on alleged ground of forgery of signature of one partner on declaration in section 184(7) would not lie. (A.Y. 1981-82)

ITO v. Balaji Chit Fund (No. 2) (2003) 264 ITR 445 / 186 CTR 291 (Mad.)(High Court)

Section 278 : Abetment of false return, etc.

S. 278 : Offences and prosecutions – Abatement of false return – Company

A company cannot be prosecuted for offence under section 276C, 277 and 278 read with section 278, since each one of these sections require imposition of mandatory terms of imprisonment coupled with a fine and leaves no choice to Court to impose only fine. (A.Y. 1985-86)

ACIT v. Velliappa Textiles Ltd. (2003) 263 ITR 550 / 132 Taxman 165 / 184 CTR 193 (SC)

Section 278AA : Punishment not to be imposed in certain cases

S. 278AA : Offences and prosecutions – Reasonable cause – No punishment – Punishment not to be imposed in certain cases

It is for appellant to produce sufficient evidence for non-deposit of tax deducted at source during criminal trial to avail of benefit of section 278AA. (A.Y. 1995-96 to 1999-2000)

Shaw Wallace & Co. Ltd. v. CIT (TDS) (No. 2) (2003) 264 ITR 243 / 185 CTR 447 / 136 Taxman 346 (Cal.)(High Court)

Section 278B : Offences by companies

S. 278B : Offences and prosecutions – Companies – Partners of firm

Complaints for offences under sections 276C, 277 and 278B was filed against the firm and all the partners. In absence of any specific allegation against the partners of the firm other than those who had verified the return of the firm that they were responsible for the conduct of the business of the firm, prosecution against these partners was held to be not sustainable.

Onkar Chand & Co. & Ors. v. Income-tax Department (2009) 22 DTR 57 / 237 CTR 530 (HP) (High Court)

S. 278B : Offences and prosecutions – Companies – Prima facie case – Directors

Unless complaint disclosed a prima facie case against applicant-directors of their liability and obligation as principal officers in the day-to-day affairs of company as directors of the company under section 278B, the applicants could not be prosecuted for offences committed by the company.

Homi Phiroze Ranina v. State of Maharashtra (2003) 131 Taxman 100 / 263 ITR 636 (Bom.)(High Court)

Section 279 : Prosecution to be at instance of Chief Commissioner or Commissioner

S. 279 : Offences and prosecutions – Sanction – Chief Commissioner – Opportunity of Hearing – Commissioner

No opportunity of hearing is required to be given to accused before the sanction is given under section 279 by Commissioner. (A.Y. 1985-86)

ACIT v. Velliappa Textiles Ltd. (2003) 263 ITR 550 / 132 Taxman 165 / 184 CTR 193 (SC)

CHAPTER XXIII MISCELLANEOUS

Section 281 : Certain transfers to be void

S. 281 : Certain transfers to be void – Recovery of tax – Sale and attachment of property

Property transferred by assessee during pendency of recovery proceedings, can be attached and sold without filing suit, as section 281 statutorily declaring such transfer as void provides for such mode. Notice to transferee is invariably not necessary before taking such action.

Karnail Singh v. UOI (2011) Tax. L. R. 648 / 63 DTR 336 / 245 CTR 437 / 200 Taxman 31 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 281 : Certain transfers to be void – Recovery – Civil suit of a creditor

Where the Department desires to declare the transaction entered into by the assessee in default as void under the provisions of section 281 (1) of the Act, the department being in the position of a creditor has to file a civil suit for a declaration that the transfer is void.

Ryan Plast v. ITO & Ors. (2009) 19 DTR 285 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 281 : Certain transfers to be void – ITO cannot declare a transfer as void – Civil Court

The assessee's property, which was acquired after a proper verifications, was attached by the TRO and declared the purchase as a void transfer. The Hon'ble High Court, on a Writ Petition by the assessee held that ITO could not have declared sale/transfer of land to assessee as void and such rights of department qua assessee could only be decided by a competent court of Civil Jurisdiction. Thus, initiation of proceedings under section 281(1) and attachment of the property by the Department is bad-in-law.

Suchila (Smt.) v. UOI (2008) 175 Taxman 222 / 302 ITR 182 / 219 CTR 278 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 281 : Certain transfers to be void – Recovery – Powers of IT Authorities

Under Sec. 281, IT authorities having no power to declare a transfer null and void – Appropriate remedy is to file suit under section 11(6) of Schedule II to have the transfer declared Void.

Shamim Bano G. Rathi & Anr. v. OBC Ltd. 214 CTR 110 / 306 ITR 34 / 1 DTR 29 (Bom.)(High Court)

Section 281B : Provisional attachment to protect revenue in certain cases

S. 281B : Provisional attachment – Recovery – Attachment – Garnishee Proceedings – Fixed Deposits – Fixed deposit is not the property of the assessee [S. 222, 226(3)]

Order of attachment passed under section 281B of the fixed deposits of the petitioners and encashment of the fixed deposits after the expiry of the period of bank guarantee, was illegal and unjustified.

Gopal Das Khandelwal & Ors. v. UOI & Ors. (2010) 45 DTR 47 / 235 CTR 253 / 192 Taxman 54 (All.)(High Court)

S. 281B : Provisional attachment – Recovery – Basis of opinion – No past defaults

In the absence of any material or circumstances on the basis of which requisite opinion could be formed under section 281B and in the absence of any history of Past defaults of the petitioner, the impugned order passed under section 281B provisionally attaching the bank accounts of the petitioner and extension thereof by the CIT was wholly illegal and unwarranted.

Raghu Ram Grah P. Ltd. v. ITO & Ors. (2006) 194 Taxation 76 / 201 CTR 268 / 281 ITR 147 / 152 Taxman 448 (All.)(High Court)

S. 281B : Provisional attachment – Ownership of property to be attached – Transfer – Ordinary meanings

Ordinary meaning of 'transfer' under Transfer of Property Act, 1882, read with Registration Act, 1908, is to be understood in a liberal sense for purpose of Income-tax Act; where everything for transfer of property excepting execution and registration of conveyance was completed, transferor-assessee could not be treated as owner of property for purpose of attachment of such property for recovery of his arrears.

Electro Zavod (India) (P.) Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 278 ITR 187 / 149 Taxman 658 / 199 CTR 612 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 281B : Provisional attachment – Jointly owned property – Attachment of undivided share

In case of jointly owned property, only undivided share of assessee can be attached provisionally under section 281B and not entire property. (A.Y. 1987-88, 1988-89)

S. Subramanian v. CIT (2004) 136 Taxman 635 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 281B : Provisional attachment – Recording of reasons – Scope of Provision

Extension of period of attachment without recording reasons would be invalid. (A.Ys. 1995-96, 1996-97)

Seshasayee Paper & Boards Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 261 ITR 63 / 129 Taxman 979 / 186 CTR 567 (Mad.)(High Court)

Section 282 : Service of notice generally

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Received by assessee – Service on counsel authorized to receive all documents (S. 288, Income Tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules, 1963. R. 35, Code of Civil Procedure Code, O. 3. R. 3)

The assessee's counsel who duly authorized to receive all documents on behalf of the assessee, received the certified copy of the order of the Tribunal, which was passed it on to another counsel of the assessee from whom the assessee collected the certified copy of order. On appeal to the High Court with an application for condonation of delay, in filing the appeal, contending that certified copy of the order of Tribunal was not served on the assessee by the office of the Tribunal in accordance with Rule 35 of the Income Tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules, 1963. The Court held that the phrase "received by the assessee" means received by assessee either him self or through his authorized agent. The counsel was empowered to accept the copy of the order of the Tribunal and hence, the service on him was valid service for purposes of calculation of limitation for filing an appeal. Thus the appeal filed by the assessee was barred by limitation. (A. Y. 1997-98).

Sultanpur Kshetriya Gramin Bank v. Jt. CIT (2011) 336 ITR 156 / 245 CTR 64 (All.)(High Court)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Process fee – Copies of Transfer Petition

Petitioners were required to file process fee, copies of transfer petition and amendment petition with correct address of all respondents for effecting service of notice on respondents, however, petitioners filed an application before instant Court seeking an exemption from filing spare copies of annexures attached to transfer petition. Said application was dismissed. Accordingly, petitioners were directed to file process fee and to furnish correct and latest addresses of respondents. Since petitioners had not complied with said order transfer petition stood dismissed for want of correct address of respondents. Petitioners filed instant application for restoration of transfer petition, praying for restoration as against respondents on whom notices were served. Transfer petition was allowed to the extent the address were furnished and order of dismissal would operate only against those respondents whose addresses were not furnished.

UOI v. Jayant Oils & Derivates Ltd. (2010) 187 Taxman 143 (SC)

S. 282 : Services of notice generally – Minor Son – Validity [S. 148](R. 17, Order 5 of CPC]

There being nothing on record to show that the erstwhile accountant of the assessee to whom notice under section 148 was served was an agent empowered to accept the service and service of fresh notice upon minor son of the assessee was not valid service. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Bhagirath Rajput v. CIT (2010) 36 DTR 372 (MP)(High Court)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – ITAT President requested to require assessee to file form no 36 on change of address instead of vide letter

In case of change of address of assessee, Tribunal to make it mandatory to amend their appeal memo or cross objections and form no 36 to facilitate proper service of notice and avoid passing of ex-parte order. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Jagjivandas Nandlal & Co. v. ITAT (2010) 195 Taxman 157 / 47 DTR 145 / 236 CTR 274 / (2011) 333 ITR 374 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – No proof of service – Not curable

Notice was not served within stipulated time. Mere giving of dispatch number will not render the said finding to be perverse. In the absence of notice being served, the Assessing Officer had no jurisdiction to make assessment. Absence of notice can not be held to be curable under section 292BB of the Income tax Act. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Cebon India Ltd. (2009)184 Taxman 290 / 229 CTR 188 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Presumption – Speed post – Proof of service within time

There is no presumption in law that any notice sent by speed post must have been served upon the assessee within 24 hours. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Nulon India (2009) 183 Taxman 229 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Return of notice – Registered Post – Assessment

Notice under section 143(2) was sent by registered post, which was received back undelivered. The notice ought to have been sent along with acknowledgment due. Hence, no notice under section 143(2) of the Act had been served upon the assessee within prescribed period, and therefore the assessment was invalid. (A.Y. 2001-02)

CIT v. Eqbal Singh Sindhana (2008) 304 ITR 177 / 212 CTR 341 / 162 Taxman 107 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Postal receipt – Proof of service

In absence of any evidence in the form of postal receipt to demonstrate that the notice under section 148 of the Act was actually sent by registered post and was actually served upon the assessee, the notice is deemed not to be served upon the assessee. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CIT v. Avtar Singh (2008) 5 DTR 55 / 304 ITR 333 / 219 CTR 588 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Notice sent by registered post – Not returned – Assumption of service

Where notice is sent by registered post to the address given by the assessee and the notice is not received back unserved. The High Court held that notice was duly served as per section 282 read with Order V of the Civil Procedure Code.

CIT v. Yamu Industries Ltd. (2007) 201 Taxation 220 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Participated in the proceedings – Objection not sustainable

In a case where assessee participates in proceedings, contests issue on merits and does not raise any objection, authorities have no jurisdiction to set aside orders on ground of irregularity in service of notice

CIT v. Premium Capital Market & Investment Ltd. (2005) 275 ITR 260 / 198 CTR 680 / 151 Taxman 194 (MP)(High Court)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Burden of proof – Affidavit

Assessee had filed an affidavit stating that it had not received notice under section 143(2), no substantial question of law arose from Tribunal's order holding that in face of affidavit filed on behalf of assessee, initial burden on assessee to prove non-receipt of notice had been discharged and that onus now lay upon revenue to prove that notice under section 143(2) had in fact been served upon assessee by registered post. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CIT v. Lunar Diamonds Ltd. (2005) 146 Taxman 691 / 281 ITR 1 / 197 CTR 312 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Validity of service – Service of notice on father of assessee

Where notice was served on managing partner (father of assessee) of firm in which assessee was partner, there was sufficient compliance with section 282. (A.Y. 1975-76)

Latha Chandy v. CIT (2003) 127 Taxman 226 / 260 ITR 385 / 179 CTR 463 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Reassessment – Service of notice on Chartered Accountant [S. 148]

Service of notice under section 148 on a chartered accountant who was not empowered to receive such notice on behalf of the assessee company or any other person who was not authorised to receive was not a valid service of notice on the assessee, more so when it was not shown that the assessee was keeping out of way for the purpose of avoiding service of notice or that there was any other reason that the notice could not be served on the assessee in the ordinary way and therefore, assessment completed pursuant to said notice was bad in law. (A. Y. 1999-2000).

Harsingar Gutkha (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2011) 138 TTJ 318 / 129 ITD 315 / 54 DTR 122 (Luck.)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Member of Family – (Order V, Rule 15, of The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908)

Where assessee is absent from his residence at time when service of notice is sought to be effected on him and there is no likelihood of his being found at his residence within reasonable time and he has no agent empowered to accept service of notice on his behalf, service of a notice can be made on any member of assessee's family residing with him, whether male or female.

ITO v. Gurbax Singh Gill (2010) 123 ITD 226 / 6 ITR 129 / (2009) 123 TTJ 846 / 25 DTR 198 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Reassessment – Registered Post [S. 148]

Notice sent by registered post to correct address, notice not returned. Fact that notice not sent with "acknowledgement due" not conclusive. Power of attorney issued to Chartered Accountant after date of notice and subsequent notices issued, notice valid. (A.Y. 2001-02)

Avneesh Kumar Singh v. ITO (2010) 2 ITR 663 / 126 ITD 1 / 127 TTJ 250 / 32 DTR 385 (TM)(Agra)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Notice by Affixture – Orders of Rule 12 of 20 of CPE

Service of notice by affixture without following the procedures laid down under order V of Rule 12 to 20 of CPC is invalid. The Assessing Officer has to record a reasoning that despite best and reasonable efforts, the notice could not be served in the ordinary course before directing to invoke the substituted mode of service through affixture. Further the assessment completed on the basis of an invalid service of notice shall also be invalid.

Dwarka Construction pvt. Ltd. v. ITO, ITA No. 1688/JP/2008, Bench – B, dt. 25th February, 2010 / Tax World, Volume – XLIII – Part 3 – March, 2010 – Page 98 (Jp.)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Courier – Reassessment [S. 148]

Where department reopened assessment of assessee by sending notices through courier, since the department failed to produce the copy of acknowledgement in token of service of notices, it could be said that notices were not actually served and therefore, reassessment proceedings were to be quashed. (A.Ys. 2003-04, 2004-05) ACIT v. Ashiana Automobiles (P) Ltd. (2010) 124 ITD 425 / 128 TTJ 589 / 35 DTR 308 (Patna)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Service or wife – Validity

Service of notice on the wife of assessee in his absence is proper service. (A.Y. 1997-98)

ITO v. Gurbux Singh Gill (2009) 123 TTJ 846 / 123 ITD 226 / 25 DTR 198 / 6 ITR 129 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Validity Chartered accountant – No power of attorney

Where notice was served on assessee's CA but there was no power of attorney on record in favour of such CA, such service of notice could not be treated as valid and ex parte assessment framed in pursuant to such notice was invalid. (A.Y. 1988-89) Rajeev Kumar Doneria v. ACIT (2005) 94 ITD 345 / 95 TTJ 732 (Agra)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Principal Officer – Validity

Where notice was not served on principal officer of assessee-company but on security guard as factory was not working and only security guards were present, since security guard had not been authorized to receive notice on behalf of company, it could not be held that notice had been properly served upon assessee. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Sudev Industries Ltd. v. ITO (2005) 98 TTJ 97 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Burden of proof on revenue – Validity

Where burden of proof is not discharged by revenue by placing relevant material to substantiate plea that assessee was served with proper notice, substituted service cannot be said to be one which was validly effected. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1997-98)

P. Mahender Reddy v. ACIT (2005) 2 SOT 696 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Not identified by the server – Validity

Where notice under section 143(2) was served through process server on one 'A' who was neither a partner of assessee-firm nor an agent duly authorised to receive notice, nor even its employee, and person having received said notice was neither identified by server, nor service was witnessed as required by rule 18, Order V of Code of Civil Procedure there was no valid service of notice on assessee under section 143(2). (A.Y. 1996-97)

Hind Book House v. ITO (2005) 92 ITD 415 / 93 TTJ 224 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Service by Affixture – No evidence of independence person – Validity

Where various notices were served upon assessee-firm under section 143(2) which were returned either on refusal of assessee to receive same or with postal remark 'left without address' and, therefore, Assessing Officer issued notice to assessee through affixation by notice server and witnessed by Income-tax Inspector, since there was no evidence of any independent person having been associated with identification of place of business of assessee nor that process server or Income-tax Inspector had personal knowledge of place of business of assessee and were, thus, in a position to identify same, it could not be said that service of notice was effected in accordance with statutory provisions. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Ess Aar Exports v. ITO (2005) 94 ITD 484 / 95 TTJ 1083 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Registered Post – Service offer last date

Notice under section 143(2) sent by RPAD on the last date of period of limitation, and served few days later, would not amount to valid service of notice.

Adarsh Traders v. ACIT (2003) SOT 12 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 282 : Service of notice generally – Affixture – Civil Procedure Code

Service by affixture in utter disregard of the provisions of Order V, rules 17, 19 & 20 would not be valid.

Before Affixture, serving officer has to use his due and reasonable diligence, and affixture has to be in the presence of witness by whom the house is identified. (A.Ys. 1992-93 to 1995-96)

K. C. Verma (Dr.) v. ACIT (2003) 84 ITD 33 / 89 TTJ 129 (Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 288 : Appearance by authorised representative

S. 288 : Appearance by authorized representative – Stamp Duty – Power of attorney

Stamp duty is leviable on authorization to be produced before Assessing Officer to represent an assessee. It shall have all the trappings of a power of attorney as defined in section 2(p) of the Kerala Stamp Act. Stamp duty in terms of section 44 is leviable.

Saju K. Abraham v. ITO (2005) 142 Taxman 345 / 195 CTR 95 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 288 : Appearance by authorised representative – Need not be a registered Income-tax practitioner – Income tax Rule – Qualification

Under Rule 49(a), of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, an authorized Income-tax practitioner means any authorized representative as defined in clause (v) or clause (vi) or clause (vii) of section (2) of section 288 of the Income-tax Act, 1961, for appearing before the Tribunal. It cannot be read to mean that an authorized representative as defined in sub-section (2) has to get him self registered as an authorized Income-tax practitioner. Section 288(2) does not say that the authorized representative shall also be an authorized income tax practitioner registered under rule 54 and 55 of the Rules. The right given in this respect by the Act can not be diluted by the Rules nor can it be restricted, by specifying a procedure for registration. The right given to an assessee to appoint a qualified authorized representative cannot be denied. (A. Y. 2009-10)

Vidya Sikshaa Educational and Charitable Trust v. CIT (2011) 11 ITR 236 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 288 : Appearance by authorized representative – Ex-Members – Practice before the ITAT

The Tribunal has inherent jurisdiction to consider whether the parties who are appearing before it are properly entitled under the law to make appearance; Such Members who had resigned and terminated their contract of employment with the Government before confirmation cannot be said to hold any post and there is no question of any conditions of services being applicable to them after resignation. They cannot be treated as having been "retired" from service for purposes of Rule 13E and were not disqualified from appearing before the ITAT; On a plain reading of Rule 13E, it is prospective and applies only to Members who were in service as of 3.6.2009 or who join service thereafter. It has no application to Members who retired prior to that date.

Concept Creations v. ACIT, (2009) 125 TTJ 433 / 120 ITD 19 / 29 DTR 25 (SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 292B : Return of income, etc., not to be invalid on certain grounds

S. 292B : Return of income, etc. not to be invalid on certain grounds – Notice under section 148 – Jurisdiction issue [S. 148]

A notice contemplated under section 148 is a jurisdictional notice and is not curable under section 292B if it is not served in accordance with provisions of Act. (A.Y. 1964-65)

CIT v. Shital Prasad Kharag Prasad (2006) 280 ITR 541 / (2005) 147 Taxman 441 / 196 CTR 162 (All.)(High Court)

S. 292B : Return of income, etc. not to be invalid on certain grounds – Jurisdiction – Not curable

If notice, summons or other proceeding taken by an authority suffer from an inherent lacuna affecting his/its jurisdiction, same cannot be cured by having resort to section 292B. (A.Y. 1978-79)

CIT v. Norton Motors (2005) 275 ITR 595 / 146 Taxman 701 / 200 CTR 604 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 292B : Return of income not to be invalid on certain grounds – Scope – Penalty notice not signed

If a penalty notice is not signed, it is invalid and such deficiency cannot be cured under section 292B. (A.Y. 1985-86)

CIT v. Aparna Agency (P.) Ltd. (2004) 267 ITR 50 / 139 Taxman 132 / 189 CTR 355 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 292B : Return of income not to be invalid on certain grounds – Non issue of mandatory notice – Not curable

Provisions of section 292B cannot be pressed into service for holding an assessment valid even in a case of non-issuance of a mandatory notice. (A.Y. 1993-94)

S. Kumar Enterprises (Synfabs) Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2005) 4 SOT 412 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 292B : Return of income not to be invalid on certain grounds – Notice issued in name of partners – Valid on other facts

Where notice issued under section 148 clearly mentioned GIR No. allotted to firm and reflected intention of Assessing Officer to reopen assessment of firm, mere fact that said notice was issued in names of partners, would not make notice invalid, in view of section 292B.

(A.Y. 1998-99)

Rama Boiled Modern Rice Mill v. ITO (2005) 97 ITD 379 / 99 TTJ 607 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

Section 292BB : Notice deemed to be valid in certain circumstances

S. 292BB : Notice deemed for valid in certain circumstances – Prospective – W.e.f. 1-4-2008

Provisions of section 292BB have been inserted w.e.f. 1-4-2008 and therefore, it is applicable from A.Y. 2008-09 and it is not retrospective.

Kuber Tobacco Products P. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2009) 117 ITD 273 / 120 TTJ 577 / 28 SOT 292 / 18 DTR 1 (2009) 310 ITR 300 (AT)(SB)(Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 292BB : Notice deemed for valid in certain circumstances – Notice by affixture – Reassessment [S. 148]

In the absence of anything to show that there was any urgency to serve the notice under section 148 on the very next day after it was issued or any material on record to show or suggest that any effort was made by the Assessing Officer to serve the notice in the normal course before issuing the directions to serve the same by affixture was not valid service. Section 292BB inserted w.e.f 1st April 2008, has not retrospective operation and therefore, it was no application for Asst. Year 2001-02.

Arun Lal v. ACIT (2009) 30 DTR 178 / 126 TTJ 346 / 124 ITD 85 / 1 ITR 1 (TM)(Agra)(Trib.)

S. 292BB : Notice deemed for valid in certain circumstances – Assessment – Notice – Block assessment

Assessing Officer having, not issued any notice under section 143(2) before completing the assessment under section 158BC(c), assessment was bad in law and liable to be quashed. Section 292BB does not save the same.

ACIT v. Supreme Appar & Associates (2009) 30 DTR 229 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Section 292C : Presumption as to assets, books of account, etc.

S. 292C : Presumption as to assets, book of account, etc. – Unexplained investments – Failure rebut

Presumption under section 292C is a rebuttable presumption wherein Assessee could rebut the claim of the Department on the strength of documents seized from his premises. Assessee having failed to rebut the presumption and thus failed to discharge the burden cast on him, the addition made by the revenue is justified.

Surendra M. Khandhar v. ACIT & Ors. (2009) 224 CTR 409 / 321 ITR 254 / 22 DTR 18 (Bom.) (High Court)

Section 293 : Bar of suits in civil courts

S. 293 : Bar of suits in Civil Courts – Assets seized – Claim of interest under section 132B(4)

Assessee can effectively invoke provisions of section 132B(4) for claiming interest on assets seized during search and seizure and can ask for payment of interest on amount of loss, if any, that was caused to it; however, such a relief cannot be claimed by filing a civil suit as section 293 creates a bar in bringing a civil suit against an order made under Act.

Prem Kumar & Sons (HUF) v. UOI (2006) 280 ITR 152 / (2005) 148 Taxman 103 / 198 CTR 512 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 293 : Bar of suits in Civil Courts – Validity of sale – Application of provisions

Suit filed by the plaintiff Trust challenging the validity of sale held by the ITO was not barred by provision of section 293. Merely because the plaintiff trust did not object to or assert its right at time of sale by public auction despite being aware of sale, it was not stopped from claiming any right and title over suit properties. Thus auction sale was held null and void.

Institute of Education v. Sri Sowcar A. Siddanna Endowment & Sri K.H. Ramaiah Memorial Endowment Trust (2003) 126 Taxman 181 / 181 CTR 264 (Karn.)(High Court)

Section 295 : Power to make rules

S. 295 : Power to make rules – Power of CBDT – Fringe benefit on amenity

CBDT has power to determine what is meant by 'fringe benefit' or amenity.

Federal Bank Officers' Association v. UOI (2004) 140 Taxman 173 / 192 CTR 1 (Ker.)(High Court)

Wealth-tax Act, 1957

CHAPTER I Preliminary

Section 2 : Definitions

S. 2(e) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Land taken on lease

Assessee was in possession of land after expiry of lease. As the assessee does not have vested interest in land for a period exceeding six years, following the earlier year, the property was not liable to wealth tax. (A. Y. 1992-93).

George Oakes Ltd. v. Dy. CWT (2011) 339 ITR 630 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Urban land – Building constructed – Exemption

The building in the process of construction could not be understood as a building which had been constructed. The wording being that urban land would mean land on which building stands, such lands alone would qualify for exemption. (A.Y. 2000-01)

CWT v. Giridhar G. Yadam (2010) 325 ITR 223 / (2009) 211 CTR 43 / 163 Taxman 372 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Industrial plots – Exemption

Two years tax exemption period qua industrial plots held by assessee would be reckoned from date of acquisition of plots by it and not from date when permission to change land in use for industrial purpose was granted. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1998-99)

Rockman Cycle Industries Ltd. v. CWT (2010) 191 Taxman 399 / (2010) 35 DTR 35 / (2010) 229 CTR 398 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Urban land – Exemption

Land on which construction not permitted not to be considered urban land hence, the value of land not includible in net wealth. (A.Y. 1993-94 to 1995-96)

Amrit Lal Jindal and Sons (HUF) v. WTO (2010) 327 ITR 161 / 228 CTR 189 / (2009) 184 Taxman 143 / 29 DTR 33 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Urban land – Land on which construction not permissible

Land on which construction of a building is not permissible under any law for the time being in force is not an urban land and as such, is not an asset within the meaning of section 2(ea).

Prabhakar Keshav Kunde v. CIT (2010) 194 Taxman 306 / 235 CTR 119 / 45 DTR 267 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Commercial assets – Business of letting

Commercial asset used by an assessee in business of letting out properties cannot be treated as an "asset" for purpose of Wealth Tax. (A.Ys. 1997-98 and 1998-99)

CWT v. Shankaranarayana Industries & Plantations (P) Ltd. (2010) 194 Taxman 189 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Annuity – Compulsory deposit scheme

Deposits made by assessee under Compulsory Deposit Scheme (Income-tax Payers) Act, 1974, being 'purchased' by assessee themselves could not be treated as 'annuity' within meaning of section 2(e)(2)(ii) and, hence, could not be excluded from definition of word 'asset'. (A.Ys. 1978-79 to 1984-85)

S.N. Agrawal v. CWT (2006) 280 ITR 263 / (2005) 144 Taxman 733 / (2004) 198 CTR 396 (All.) (High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Motor car

Assessee had purchased a car, merely because in view of some dispute with seller it had not been registered in assessee's name, assessee could not take plea that car was not includible in its taxable wealth. (A.Y. 1993-94 to 1999-2000)

Oswal Chemicals & Fertilisers Ltd. v. CWT (2006) 282 ITR 451 / 153 Taxman 169 / (2005) 196 CTR 545 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Agricultural land

Land, as per findings of Tribunal, had history of agricultural use, and was shown as agricultural land in revenue records, its potentiality for non-agricultural use and fact that it was surrounded by building sites, would not change its character into non-agricultural land. (A.Ys. 1976-77 to 1979-80)

CWT v. Shashiben (2005) 193 CTR 140 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Route permit

Minimum period for which a route permit could be granted was three years and maximum period was five years under Motor Vehicles Act, 1939, it could not be said that assessee had interest of 6 years or more in route permit; as such, such interest was to be excluded from assessee's wealth. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CWT v. Kiran Devi (Smt) (2005) 277 ITR 344 / 147 Taxman 40 (All.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Lease premises after expiry of lease

In case where lessee continued in possession even after expiry of lease but lessor had filed suit for eviction, property was not eligible to wealth tax. (A.Ys. 1984-85 to 1991-92)

George Oakes Ltd. v. CWT (2004) 267 ITR 677 / 140 Taxman 51 / 190 CTR 536 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Building let out to tenant

Building let out to a tenant for commercial purposes could not be treated to be as asset taxable under section 3. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Maynak Poddar (HUF) v. WTO (2003) 130 Taxman 500 / 262 ITR 633 / 181 CTR 362 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Right to receive compensation

Right to receive compensation on acquisition of property by Government and interest accrued thereon, is an "asset" with in the meaning of section 2(ea). (A.Y. 1986-87)

P.V. Jacob v. CWT (2003) 131 Taxman 313 / 183 CTR 303 / (2004) 265 ITR 238 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Value of annuities

Value of annuities purchased by producers at instance of assessee – film director from the LIC in respect of remuneration receivable by him from different producers, by paying single premium, insurance, is includible in the net wealth of the assessee. The assessee however was entitled to avail of the benefit of section 5(1)(vii), to the extent provided therein.

A. Varaprasada Rao v. CIT (2003) 260 ITR 489 / 135 Taxman 137 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Urban asset – Schedule 1 – Business premises

Business premises in which business is carried on by firm in which assessee is partner, is to be excluded while computing net wealth of assessee. (A.Ys. 1974-75 and 1975-76)

CWT v. L. Dorairaj (2003) 130 Taxman 490 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Ware house – Purpose of business

In a case where the assessee owns a warehouse which is let out on rental basis and the same is not used by the assessee for the purposes of its business but is used by the tenant for its business, the warehouse is to be excluded as an asset in view of Section 2(ea)(i)(5) of the Act.

Dy. CWT v. Hind Ceramics Pvt. Ltd., WTA No. 42 & 43/Kol.2010, dt.07-01-2011, 'B' Bench, BC AJ P. 27, Vol. 42-B, Part 5, February 2011 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Compensation

After notification for acquisition of assessee's land, there remains only a right to receive compensation, and same is not an asset as contemplated in section 2(ea) of the Wealth Tax Act.

WTO v. Jarnail Singh (2010) 186 Taxman 14 (Mag.)(Chd.)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Stock-in-trade

Building was held as stock in trade it could not be included in definition of "asset" as per section 2(ea) even though pending completion of sale transaction and it was given on rent to purchasing party. (A.Ys. 1997-98 and 1998-99)

Dy. CWT v. Brilliant Estate Ltd. (2010) 124 ITD 8 / (2009) 17 DTR 406 / 120 TTJ 716 (Indore)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Factory building – Lease to holding company

Commercial property (factory building) which was leased to holding company, is subjected to Wealth Tax, and will not be covered by exception under section 2(ea)(v).

Dy. CWT v. MIPCO Seamless Rings (Gujarat) Ltd. (2006) 156 Taxman 80 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Commercial building – Business asset

Commercial buildings let out by the assessee in pursuance of his business would not fall in the definition of asset in Section 2(ea).

TGV Projects and Investments (P) Ltd. v. ACWT (2006) 153 Taxman 15 (Mag.)(Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset Property – Business asset

Once item (3) of section 2(ea)(i) prescribes that property is required to be used for purpose of business or profession carried on, then in view of this specific provision and otherwise also, a property which was let out could not be held as a 'business asset' where assessee had not established that letting out of such property was business of assessee. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Mafatlal Industries Ltd. v. WTO (2005) 95 ITD 66 / 95 TTJ 723 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Agricultural land

Where though it was established that land was assessed to revenue as agricultural land and also subjected to payment of land revenue but assessee had not discharged its burden that it was actually put to use for agricultural purposes or any cultivation was done on that land, land in question could not be treated as agricultural land. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1993-94)

Sapthagiri Traders Ltd. v. ACIT (2005) 97 TTJ 239 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Agricultural land – 8 Kms of Municipal limits

Agricultural land, if falls within distance of 8 kms from limits of Municipal Corporation and is located in a town with population of more than ten thousand, would fall in definition of urban land and would be included in value of assets for purpose of levy of wealth-tax and would be chargeable to wealth-tax; classification of assets in section 2(ea) has not been on basis whether it is productive or unproductive asset; mere fact that assessee has to follow procedure for getting permission to convert urban land into colony does not support claim that there is prohibition under any law for construction of buildings on land in question so as to exclude it from category of 'asset'. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 1999-2000)

Tara Singh v. Dy. CWT (2005) 97 ITD 482 / 97 TTJ 941 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – House – Continuous occupation

A perusal of section 2(ea)(i)(3) makes it clear that continuous occupation and usage of house for business purpose is not necessary to get exemption; even if house is kept ready for business purpose, house is entitled for exemption. (A.Ys. 1998-99 to 2000-01)

Tracstar Investment (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CWT (2005) 1 SOT 115 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – House – Continuous occupation

It was not permissible for assessee to take stand in income-tax proceedings to declare income from property as 'house property income' for availing deduction under section 24 of Income-tax Act, 1961 and treat same property as 'business asset' to claim exemption under section 2(ea); as such where properties in question were subject to letting year after year and income arising therefrom had been taxed as 'house property income', properties were rightly taxed for wealth-tax purposes. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Mafatlal Industries Ltd. v. WTO (2005) 95 ITD 66 / 95 TTJ 723 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Building

Where more than one floor is covered with walls and roof, it can be classified as 'building' under section 2(ea)(i). (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 2000-01)

Pushpalata Kanodia (Smt.) v. WTO (2005) 92 ITD 500 / 93 TTJ 1095 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Business – Rented property

Property rented out to joint-venture companies could not be said to have been used by assessee for business purpose within meaning of section 2(ea)(i)(3). (A.Y. 1997-98)

Triveni Engineering & Industries Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 93 ITD 561 / 93 TTJ 806 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Urban – Land – Covered under Tamil Nadu Town Planning Act

Where assessee-company's land was covered under Tamil Nadu Town Country Planning Act and development of such land was possible with permission of planning authority, merely because no such permission had been sought/granted by Planning Authority, it could not be contended that assessee's land was such on which construction was not permissible so as to exclude it from assessee's wealth. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 2000-01)

Binny Ltd. v. ACWT (2005) 96 ITD 500 / 98 TTJ 726 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Stock exchange membership Card

A stock exchange membership card is an 'asset' within meaning of section 2(e). (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1992-93)

V.G. Gajjar v. Dy. CWT (2005) 93 ITD 624 / 93 TTJ 70 / 1 SOT (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Madras Stock exchange membership

Membership of Madras Stock Exchange is not an asset. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1992-93)

Dy. CIT v. Govindlal M. Parikh (2005) 94 TTJ 690 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 2(ea)(i) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Building – Under construction

An incomplete building under construction is not an asset and is not liable to wealth tax as it does not fall within the definition of a building nor within the purview of "urban land". (A.Y. 2003-04)

CWT v. Neena Jain (Smt.) (2011) 330 ITR 157 / 220 Taxation 227 / (2010) 36 DTR 49 / 230 CTR 554 / 189 Taxman 308 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 2(ea)(i) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Building – Letting out factory shed – Commercial

Assessee having declared the income from the letting of the factory shed as "rental income" in its return which has been assessed accordingly and the occupant of the premises is purely that of the landlord and tenant, the factory shed is to be treated as an asset exigible to tax.

Supreme Nonwovens Ltd. v. ACWT (2010) 43 DTR 326 / 189 Taxman 388 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea)(v) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Urban land

Land belonging to the assessee on which he has unauthorisedly constructed a farm house stands excluded from the definition of 'urban land' as per Explan. 1(b) to section 2(ea) as no construction was permissible on said land and therefore, it cannot be treated as an asset under the WT Act. (A.Y. 1995-96)

CWT v. Lt. Gen. (Retd.) R. K. Mehra (2010) 228 CTR 205 / 325 ITR 601 / 184 Taxman 286 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 2(ea)(v) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Urban land – Under Construction – Commercial Use

Urban land allotted for commercial purposes viz. industrial use. During period of construction urban land can not be assessed to Wealth Tax. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Apollo Tyres Ltd. v. ACWT (2010) 231 CTR 498 / 38 DTR 213 / 325 ITR 528 / 189 Taxman 353 / Tax L. R. 364 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea)(vi) : Wealth-tax – Asset – Cash in Hand

Cash in hand in excess of ₹ 50000 held by individual assessee forms part of assets under section 2(ea)(vi).

CWT v. K. R. Ushasree & Ors. (2010) 33 DTR 112 / 229 CTR 52 / (2011) 332 ITR 75 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 2(ea)(3) : Wealth-tax – Asset – House – Business centre (S. 7 Schedule III, R. 3, 5 & 8)

Premises in a business centre cannot be said to be a house within the meaning of cl. (3) of section 2(ea). The assessee had given the premises on lease under an agreement which had all the covenants that are usually found to be included in a lease and it cannot be said that the agreement was for a licence and therefore, it cannot be said that he was in occupation of the property for the purpose of a business or profession carried on by him so as to exclude it from the definition of the term "asset". (A. Ys. 1997-98 and 1998-99).

Cravatex Ltd. v. Addl. CWT (2011) 52 DTR 123 / 138 TTJ 58 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 2(m) : Wealth-tax – Net wealth – Debt owed – Security deposit

Security deposit received against the lease of chargeable property, is debt owed, that deposit invested in securities exempt from wealth tax is not relevant. Debt deductible net wealth. (A.Y. 1986-87 and 1988-89).

Denna J. Jeejeebhoy (Miss) v. WTO (2011) 330 ITR 149 / (2009) 222 CTR 202 / 180 Taxation 586 / 18 DTR 273 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 2(m) : Wealth-tax – Net wealth – Belonging to assessee – Asset – Contraband article

Gold given on trust by the assessee to some persons which was neither returned by them nor recovered by the police is to be treated as lost once civil remedy has become time barred and it is not to be included in the net wealth of the assessee. Gold alleged to be given by assessee to third parties which was recovered from third parties and has been delivered to Gold control authority by an order of the Court, same being a contraband article, cannot be said to be assets belonging to the assessee on the relevant valuation dates and therefore, it is not includible in its net wealth. (A. Ys. 1966-67 to 1975-76, 1978-79 to 1981-82)

Meghji Girdhar (HUF) v. CWT (2011) 52 DTR 397 / 239 CTR 411 (MP)(High Court)

S. 2(m) : Wealth-tax – Net wealth – Debt owed

Tax liability with respect to earlier year which is determined upon a settlement arrived at between the assessee and the revenue during the year under consideration was held to be an allowable deduction under section 2(m) (iii) of the Wealth – tax Act, 1957 for the purpose of computing net wealth. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CWT v. Manna Lal Surana (2009) 24 DTR 105 / 184 Taxman 448 / (2010) 321 ITR 335 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 2(m) : Wealth-tax – Net wealth – Settlement in trust

The assets of the trust created through the income of the assessee, in respect of which the assessee had no power of disposition or transfer cannot be included in the net wealth of the assessee.

CWT v. Mahendrabhai D. Parmar (2007) 196 Taxation 213 / 292 ITR 622 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 2(m) : Wealth-tax – Net wealth – Asset – Agricultural land

If the land is recorded as agricultural, it would continue to be agricultural land. If somebody, buys the land for a higher price and thereafter, changes the use for the first holder the property would not change its character so long as he himself does not change the use or put the land to some other use after getting the conversion of use from the competent authority/officer. The agricultural land's price would not be deciding factor for concluding that the land in dispute is agricultural or non-agricultural and even if it remains barrier or uncultivated for some time and even grass only is raised on the land, it would continue to be an agricultural land. (A.Ys. 1976-77 to 1978-79)

CWT v. Shashiben (2007) 288 ITR 319 / (2006) 205 CTR 298 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 2(m) : Wealth-tax – Net wealth – Assets belonging to assessee

Where in December 1965, assessee had given primary gold in safe custody of Collector for a particular purpose under Defence of India Rules, 1962, and then thereafter under Gold Control Act, 1968, ownership of gold in question ceased to vest in assessee on 30-4-1966 and it did not belong to assessee so as to be valued on each successive valuation dates but he had only a right to get money realised or money's worth. (A.Ys. 1970-71 to 1977-78, 1984-84 to 1999-2000)

CWT v. Ganpat Lal (2005) 197 CTR 401 (2006) 280 ITR 168 / 150 Taxman 322 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 2(m) : Wealth-tax – Net wealth – Assets belonging to assessee – Full consideration paid – Pending Registration

Where the assessee had paid full consideration of the value of the property but she did not get it transferred in her name, such property could not be assessed in hands of assessee.

CIT v. Badhurani Deepinder Kaur (2003) 262 ITR 403 / 133 Taxman 591 / (2004) 184 CTR 359 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 2(m) : Wealth-tax – Net wealth – Debt Owned – Loans for Working Capital

Loans obtained for working capital against security of lands, is not debt incurred in relation to lands, hence can not be deducted while computing net wealth. There is marked difference between the two expressions "debt secured on property" and "debt incurred in relation to such property" used in the pre amended provisions of section

2(m)(ii) of the Wealth Tax Act, 1957. It is not necessary that every debt secured on a property is a debt incurred in relation to such property. (A.Y. 2002-03, 2003-04)
Phoenix International Ltd. v. Dy. CWT (2010) 5 ITR 787 / 122 ITD 279 / 129 TTJ 734 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 2(m) : Wealth-tax – Net wealth – Right to receive compensation

Right to receive compensation for acquisition of land is chargeable to wealth-tax notwithstanding fact that quantification of same was in dispute on relevant valuation date. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1992-93)

Beg Raj Saini v. WTO (2005) 96 ITD 96 / 97 TTJ 934 (Delhi)(Trib.)

CHAPTER II

Charge of wealth-tax and assets subject to such charges

Section 3 : Charge of wealth Tax

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Company – Exemption – Asset used for Business – Finance Act, 1983

Land used for internal roads and play ground, is not entitled to exemption. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Motwane Manufacturing Co. (P) Ltd. v. CWT (2010) 329 ITR 413 / (2009) 20 DTR 104 / 222 CTR 462 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Interest free deposit

For the purposes of determining net wealth for the purposes of calculation of wealth tax, the amount received as interest free deposit for permitting the use of premises on licensed basis was allowable to be deducted from the net wealth as liability. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CWT v. Kalani Industries P. Ltd. (2006) 192 Taxation 409 / 286 ITR 425 / 155 Taxman 524 (MP)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth tax – Charge of tax – Association of persons – Interest in AOP

The assessee is liable to wealth tax on value of his interest in AOP. (A.Ys. 1978-79 to 1980-81)

CWT v. J.K. Srivastava (2006) 280 ITR 470 / (2005) 145 Taxman 208 / 202 CTR 520 (All.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Cinema house – Exemption – No retrospective

Exemption for cinema house and value of stock-in-trade granted from 1-4-1989 is not retrospective. (A.Ys. 1984-85 to 1988-89)

CWT v. B.R. Theatres & Industrial Concerns P. Ltd. (2005) 272 ITR 177 / (2004) 135 Taxman 371 / 188 CTR 63 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth tax – Charge of tax – Firms – Partner

No additional wealth - tax was chargeable on value of interest of assessee - partner in firm's assets which includes urban assets

CWT v. Ram Saran Kejriwala (2005) 145 Taxman 528 (All.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Companies – Land and Building [Finance Act, 1983. S. 40(3)]

Land and building which was let out and income from which was assessed as 'property income' could not be treated as assets of assessee's business of dealing in real estate for purposes of treating same as exempt from wealth-tax under section 40(3) of the Finance Act, 1983.

CWT v. Fagun Estates Pvt. Ltd. (2005) 272 ITR 472 / 195 CTR 280 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Companies – Letting of godown (Finance Act 1983. 40(3) (vi)).

Building leased out and lessee using building as ware house. Assessee not using building as ware house not entitled exemption. Nature of use is important. (A.Ys. 1984-85, 1986-87, 1988-89)

CWT v. Indian Warehousing Industries Ltd. (2004) 269 ITR 203 / 139 Taxman 66 / 188 CTR 283 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Closely held company – Hospital – Productive assets-Office for the purpose of business – Finance Act, 1983 [S. 40]

The buildings used by the assessee company for running the hospital as its business would not qualify as a building as "office for the purpose of its business" envisaged under section 40(3) (Vi) so as to be exempted from wealth tax. All the buildings which are used as productive assets for the business of a closely held company are not intended to be excluded under clause (vi). It is only buildings used for "industrial purposes" which are to be exempted from wealth tax. (A.Ys. 1987-88, 1989-90, 1990-91)

CWT v. Cosmopolitan Hospitals (P) Ltd. (2003) 185 CTR 111 / 133 Taxman 505 / (2004) 265 ITR 312 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Companies – Club – Finance Act, 1983 [S. 40]

The assessee – club which got itself declared as a company under section 2(h)(iii) but was not registered under the Companies Act, 1956, would not be covered by section 40 (1) of the Finance Act, 1983. Thus section 40 of the Finance Act, 1983 did not apply to assessee – club, which was deemed company under section 2 (h) (iii) by virtue of a declaration so made by the Central Board of Direct Taxes. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CWT v. Kodaikanal Club (2003) 260 ITR 617 / 129 Taxman 356 / 181 CTR 534 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Closing Stock – Finance Act 1983 – S. 40 – Amendment Finance Act, 1988

The amendment made by the Finance Act, 1988 inserting proviso to section 40(3) of the Finance Act, 1983 and excluding stock in trade from net wealth of closely held by company is remedial and curative in nature and as such retrospective in operation. (A.Ys. 1984-85 to 1988-89)

CWT v. Jodhan Real Estate Development Co. (P) Ltd. (2003) 259 ITR 79 / 132 Taxman 567 / (2002) 178 CTR 305 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Closing Stock – Motor cars – Finance Act, 1983 S. 40 - Finance Act 1988

The words used in section 40(3) of the Finance Act, 1983, as they stood in the assessment year 1984-85 do not permit the exclusion of stock in trade from the list of assets to be valued for the purpose of wealth tax. Thus the assessee was a dealer in motor cars, the value of motor cars which were its stock in trade was includible in wealth for the assessment year 1984-85. Though the section was amended subsequently late in the year 1989, to exclude the value of stock in trade. That amendment was not given retrospective effect so as to benefit the assessee in the assessment year 1984-85. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CWT v. Reliance Motor Co Ltd. (2003) 260 ITR 571 / 181 CTR 86 / 135 Taxman 136 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Closely held company – Income from property assessed as business income – Business asset

The Court held that just because the income from property was treated as business income under the Act, and therefore, the asset of the assessee should be taken as business asset could not be accepted. The fact that the income from the property was assessed as business income under the Act was not conclusive. Therefore the Tribunal should decide the question by taking in to consideration the terms of the lease, the period of lease and other relevant circumstances and then decide the question in the light of the law laid down by the supreme Court in Universal Plast Ltd. v. CIT (1999) 237 ITR 454 / 153 CTR 95 / 103 TAX 493 (SC). (A.Y. 1980-81)

CWT v. Tirupur sri Meenakshi Sunderswar Finance Ltd. (2003) 127 Taxman 392 / 262 ITR 129 / 180 CTR 174 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Closely held company – Commercial complex

Commercial complex does not fall with in exclusionary clause mentioned in section 40 (3) (vi) of Finance Act, 1983. (A.Ys. 1986-87 and 1988-89)

CWT v. Ashoka Betelnut Co (I) (P) Ltd. (2003) 127 Taxman 331 / 180 CTR 178 / 260 ITR 573 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth-tax – Charge of tax – Club – Prior to 1-4-1981 – AOP [S. 21AA]

Section 21AA was introduced in the wealth tax Act w.e.f. 1-4-1981, providing for assessment of AOP in certain special cases. For the earlier years prior to 1-4-1981 there was clearly no provision subjecting the assessee's assets owned by AOP to wealth tax. Thus, the assessee club being an AOP was not assessable to tax under the Act prior to 1-4-1981. (A.Ys. 1979-80 and 1980-81)

Coonoor Club v. CWT (2003) 179 CTR 333 / 135 Taxman 61 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 3 : Wealth tax – Charge of tax – Company – Co-op. Society – Section 40 of Finance Act, 1983

- (i) A property cannot be said to be belonging to assessee unless its legal title absolutely vests in assessee despite the fact that such assessee may be owner of property in terms of section 22 and section 27 of Income-tax Act, 1961.
- (ii) Provisions of Wealth-tax Act would apply to the assessment of companies to the extent they are in conformity with provisions of section 40 of Finance Act, 1983.
- (iii) Provisions of section 4 of Wealth-tax Act, are not in conformity of section 40(2) of Finance Act, 1983. Therefore, assets covered under section 4 of Wealth-tax Act cannot be included in net wealth of a company even though such assets are includible in net wealth of non-company assessee.
- (iv) A right to occupy a flat in a co-operative society is not taxable asset under section 40 in case of a private limited company. (A.Y. 1990-91)

Pallonji Shapoorji & Co. (P) Ltd. v. Dy. Com. of Wealth-tax, (2006) 102 ITD 101 / 103 TTJ 155 (SB)(Mum.)(Trib.)

Section 4 : Net Wealth to include certain Assets

S. 4 : Wealth-tax – Deemed wealth – Flat in Society – Registration

Assessee purchasing the flat before 1-4-1993, and admitted as member of society. Transfer not registered in books of society, not relevant, value of flat includible in net wealth of assessee. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Bennett Coleman and Co. Ltd. v. ACIT (2010) 326 ITR 447 / (2008) 215 CTR 405 / 170 Taxman 491 / 2 DTR 361 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 4 : Wealth-tax – Deemed wealth – AOP – Investment form gifted property

Money was gifted by father of assessee to assessee jointly with his son and income from investment of such money was assessed as AOP's income under Income-tax Act, as donees had equal share in gifted property, value of assessee's interest was determinable under rule 2 and as such Assessing Officer was justified in including value of assessee's interest in AOP in assessee's wealth under section 4(1)(b); the fact that AOP is not a taxable entity under Wealth-tax Act was of little consequence in respect of provisions of section 4(1)(b). (A.Ys. 1967-68 to 1976-77)

CWT v. J.K. Srivastava (2006) 280 ITR 470 / 2005 Tax LR 174 / 202 CTR 520 (All.)(High Court)

S. 4 : Wealth tax – Lease of immovable property – Belonging to assessee [R.W.S. 269 UA(f)(1)]

Lease of immovable property for less than twelve years, shall not affect the legal ownership, hence, shall be liable to Wealth Tax. (A.Y. 1997-98 and 1998-99)

Voltas Ltd. v. ACWT (2008) 1 DTR 1 / (2008) 113 ITD 19 / 19 SOT 542 / 113 TTJ 45 (SB)(Mum.) (Trib.)

S. 4 : Wealth-tax – Deemed wealth – Chargeability

Crucial date under the Act is the valuation date and since the assessee had expired on 16th Jan., 1998, there was no question of any net wealth to be assessed in the hands of the assessee as on the valuation date i.e. 31st March, 1998. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Manilal N. Tanna v. WTO (2006) 103 TTJ 205 / 100 ITD 232 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 4 : Wealth-tax – Deemed wealth – Licensee of property

When licensee of property can be considered as a deemed owner. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Reliance Consolidated Enterprises (P.) Ltd. v. ACWT (2005) 92 ITD 394 / 93 TTJ 726 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Section 5 : Exemption in respect of certain assets

S. 5 : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Ex-ruler's residence – Let out (clause iii)

Where a part of official residence of ex-ruler stood let out assessee was not entitled to exemption of value of said property in its entirety under section 5(1)(iii).

CWT v. Late Lokendra Singh (2005) 142 Taxman 412 / (2004) 191 CTR 489 (MP)(High Court)

S. 5 : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – House – Cinema Building

Under section 5(1)(iv) exemption has been granted to one house or part of the house belonging to the assessee. House is a building where people live and reside. It is mainly for residential purposes. Cinema building cannot by any stretch of imagination be treated as a house. (A.Ys. 1975-76 and 1976-77)

CWT v. Angoori Devi (Smt.) (2005) 273 ITR 500 / 144 Taxman 643 / CIT v. Urmila Devi (Smt.) (2005) 273 ITR 503 (All.)(High Court)

S. 5 : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Charitable Trust – Education

Carrying on a business and deriving income there from by a trust in course of actually carrying out its primary object of promoting education and charities, would not disqualify it from being regarded as charitable trust.

Sri Aurobindo Ashram Harpegon Workshop Trust v. ACIT (2004) 271 ITR 553 / 140 Taxman

579 / 192 CTR 459 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 5 : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Charitable Trust – Trust by will

Where author of trust, by a will, settled upon trust all his immovable and movable properties for benefit of three charitable institutions, on death of author a trust came into being and even in absence of execution trust deed, trustees were entitled to exemption in respect of such properties. (A.Y. 1981-82)

CWT v. Devar Kavasji T. Modi Executors & Trustee of Late Dr. T.D. Edel Behram (2004) 268 ITR 175 / 136 Taxman 541 / 187 CTR 148 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 5 : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Part of house – Complete house

Exemption under section 5(l)(iv) is available not only for a complete house but also for a 'part of a house'. (A.Y. 1996-97 to 2000-01)

Pushpalata Kanodia (Smt.) v. WTO (2005) 92 ITD 500 / 93 TTJ 1045 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 5(1) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – House v. Building [S. 5(1)(iv)]

Exemption under section 5(1) (iv) is available only in respect of house or part of a house or share in house belonging to assessee. A building is much wider term than a house which is a dwelling place, where people reside. As such a building not eligible for exemption under section 5(1) (iv).

CIT v. Chauhan Bros. (2006) 194 Taxation 99 (All.)(High Court)

S. 5(1)(iii) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Lands Appurtenant Thereto

Building of erstwhile Ruler and lands in the same compound as palace and in its use. Land is considered as appurtenant to palace and exempt. (A.Ys. 1972-73 to 1979-80)

Shrimant F. P. Gaekwad (Decd) v. ACWT (2010) 3 ITR 476 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 5(1)(iv) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Cinema building

Exemption under section 5(1)(iv) of the Wealth Tax Act, 1957 for the Assessment Year 1980-81 is admissible to the assessee for a house or a part of house belonging to assessee. A cinema building for which the assessee had claimed exemption cannot by any stretch of imagination be called a house for the purpose of section 5(a)(iv).

CWT v. Rajiv Kumar Agarwal (2006) 190 Taxation 223 (All.)(High Court)

S. 5(1)(iv) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Charitable Trusts [S. 5(1)(i)]

Various clauses of trust deed showed that predominant object of assessee-trust was to apply income of trust for benefit of executant during her lifetime and, after her death, for benefit of descendants, it was not entitled to exemption under section 5(1)(i). (A.Y. 1968-69)

CWT v. Ma Shree Kishoriji Bishwa Hitakari Trust (2005) 142 Taxman 668 (All.)(High Court)

S. 5(1)(iv) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – House property – Firm – Partner – Immovable property of partner

Partner was not entitled to exemption in terms of section 5(1)(iv) in respect of immovable property of firm. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CWT v. Pramod Kumar (2004) 141 Taxman 305 / (2005) 193 CTR 159 (All.)(High Court)

S. 5(1)(iv) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Cinema building

In common parlance a house means a place where people live. A residential building can also be given for commercial purpose and yet it will remain a house however a Cinema building can not be treated to be a house for the purpose of section 5(1)(iv).

(A.Ys. 1974-75, 1976-77, 1977-78)

CIT v. Jai Kishan Gupta (2003) 264 ITR 482 / 185 CTR 340 / 137 Taxman 388 (All.)(High Court)

S. 5(1)(v) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Money brought to India by person of Indian Origin – Value of Benz Car

Assessee was entitled to claim exemption of value of Benz Car brought by him from outside India or price received by him on sale of car. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CWT v. K.O. Mathews (2003) 261 ITR 702 / 133 Taxman 418 / 183 CTR 406 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 5(1)(vi) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Annuities

After the amendment of section 2 (e)(ii) and clause (vi) of section 5(1), with effect from

1-4-1975, exemption in respect of annuities will be available only to the extent explained in the proviso to section 5 (1) (vi), irrespective of the date on which the policies are taken or the annuity contracts are entered in to. (A.Ys. 1982-83, 1984-85)

CWT v. N.T. Rama Rao (2003) 129 Taxman 430 / 261 ITR 611 / 182 CTR 625 (AP)(High Court)

S. 5(1)(vi) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – House property – Firm – Partners

Since the House, which is said to belong to the firm, in reality belongs to the partners, the assessee – partner being one of the co-owners of the property, would be entitled to deduction of the value of his share in the house property from the net wealth for the purpose of wealth tax. (A.Ys. 1974-75 and 1975-76)

CWT v. Laxmi Dutt (2003) 263 ITR 225 / 132 Taxman 37 (All.)(High Court)

S. 5(1)(vi) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – House property – Firm – Rule 2

In computing net wealth of a firm under rule 2 of the Wealth Tax Rules, 1957, the assets exempted under section 5 should be included and then apportioned among partners for granting exemption in their individual assessments in computing their own individual net wealth. (A.Ys. 1977-78 and 1979-80)

CWT v. Mukund Das Vishnu Kumar Rathi (2003) 129 Taxman 976 / 182 CTR 438 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 5(1)(xii) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Jewellery – Art treasures – Work of art [S. 5(1)(xii)]

Items of jewellery declared as “art treasures” by the Director – General, Archaeological Survey of India were to be treated as “work of art” so as to be exempt under section 5(1)(xii).

CWT v. Sb Zainab Noorumal Sayeeda (2002) 262 ITR 306 / 131 Taxman 166 / 184 CTR 596 (AP)(High Court)

S. 5(1)(xxxii) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Firm – Jewellery business [S. 5(1)(xxxii)]

Manufacturing of jewellery and ornaments, whether firm was on Industrial undertaking for the purpose of wealth tax. The assessee was a partner in a firm which carried on business in gold jewellery and precious and semi-precious stones, and consequently the assessee's interest in the firm is exempted under section 5(1)(xxxii) of the Wealth Tax.

According to the Wealth Tax Officer, firm was not an industrial undertaking. On appeal to CIT(A) it was considered as an Industrial undertaking and he granted exemption under section 5(1)(xxxii) of the Act. The ITAT also upheld the order of CIT(A).

On a reference by the Department to High Court, it was held that the firm fell in the same category of firms being part of the gem industry and the activity of processing of gems beginning with the raw material and ending in marketable product was no different and hence, the value of the assessee's interest in the firm was exempt under section 5(1)(xxxii) of the Act.

CWT v. Shyam Mohan (2009) 313 ITR 416 / (2007) 162 Taxman 400 / 210 CTR 219 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 5(1)(xxxiii) : Wealth-tax – Exemptions – Hindu Undivided family – Share in Industrial undertaking

A Hindu undivided family is not entitled to benefit of exemption under section 5(1)(xxxiii) (Now section 5(v)). (A.Y. 1990-91)

K.M. Periakaruppan v. CWT (2003) 130 Taxman 57 (Mad.) / V.E. Lakshmanan Chettiar v. CWT (2003) 130 Taxman 59 (Mad.) / P.R. Kumarappan v. CWT (2003) 130 Taxman 62 / K.M.N. Nagappa Chettiar v. CWT (2003) 130 Taxman 63 (Mad.)(High Court)

Section 7 : Value of Assets, how to be determined

S. 7 : Wealth tax – Valuation of cold storage – Method of valuation

The question as to whether the Tribunal was legally correct in upholding the valuation of cold storage by average of land and building and yield method as against the valuation of the above property on land and building method adopted in view of the DVO's report obtained by the Assessing Officer on a legally valid reference, is not a referable question of law.

CWT v. A. R. Sood (2004) 187 CTR 310 / 180 Taxation 650 (SC)

S. 7 : Wealth-tax – Valuation of asset – Interest of Remainder men

Estate duty liability arising on assumed death of life interest holder on notional basis is liable to be deducted from valuation of asset in context of valuation of interest of remainder interest holder.

CWT v. Trustees of HEH Nizam of Hyderabad (2003) 261 ITR 690 / 129 Taxman 485 / 181 CTR 385 / 174 Taxation 770 (SC)

S. 7 : Wealth tax – Valuation of assets – Applicable to Subsequent Years

The valuation of the property having determined for A.Y. 1971-72 and such assessments having been finalized and attained finality as it was not challenged the same would be applicable to the subsequent years. (A.Ys. 1975-76 to 1980-81)

CIT v. Rawal Rajeshwari Singh of Samod (2010) 322 ITR 39 / (2009) 23 DTR 353 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 7 : Wealth tax – Valuation of House – Lands Appurtenant – Roads – Gardens

Roads, gardens, etc., would be land appurtenant to house and would qualify exemption under section 7(4). (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 2001-02)

Binny Ltd. v. ACWT (2010) 324 ITR 34 / 45 DTR 239 / 235 CTR 185 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 7 : Wealth tax – Valuation of Asset – House – Building construction

If two contiguous buildings in the same compound used for residential purposes then exemption under section 7(4) is allowable. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 2000-01)

CWT v. S. D. Jadeja (2006) 283 ITR 45 / (2005) 152 Taxman 202 / 199 CTR 503 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 7 : Wealth-tax – Valuation of Immovable Property – Deduction for Non-residential [Rule 1BB]

The High Court held that for valuation of house let out for residential purpose rule 1BB provides for deduction of one – sixth (1/6) for the repairs and six per cent (6%) as collection charges for the purposes of gross maintainable rent. Similar deductions should be allowed for valuation of house which is let out for non-residential purposes also.

CWT v. Abdul Saeed Abdul Hamid Patel (2006) 192 Taxation 206 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 7 : Wealth-tax – Valuation of assets – Section 7 r.w. Schedule III

It was held that residential flat acquired for employees has to be valued as per rule 3 of Part B of Schedule III, and not on the basis of Rule 14 of Part D of Schedule III as valued by assessee, since Rule 14 provides for global valuation of assets of business and the net assets of the business as a whole have to be computed under the provisions of said rule i.e., all the assets of the business have to be taken together.

National Stock Exchange of India Ltd. v. Dy. CWT (2006) 155 Taxman 231 (Mag.)(Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 7 : Wealth-tax – Valuation of assets – Interest on deposits

Interest on deposits received by licensor from licensee for granting pre-emptive rights to purchase said property, cannot be considered for determining annual rent and consequential valuation of property in terms of proviso (iii) to Explanation 1 to rule 5 of Schedule III. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Reliance Consolidated Enterprises (P.) Ltd. v. ACWT (2005) 92 ITD 394 / 93 TTJ 726 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 7 : Wealth-tax – Valuation of assets – Disputed property

Where title to property held by assessee was disputed and assessee could neither sell that property nor construct any superstructure since building plan had to be sanctioned by municipal authorities, who were litigants, Assessing Officer was not justified in valuing property as per reports of Valuation Officer ignoring above factors. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1988-89)

Ramaiya Reddy v. Dy. CWT (Invs.) (2005) 2 SOT 59 (Bang.)(Trib.)

CHAPTER IV Assessment

Section 15B : Self assessment

S. 15B : Wealth-tax – Penalty – Legal Representative [S. 18(1)(a) & 18(1)(c)]

Where penalty proceeding initiated under the Wealth Tax Act, 1957, but not levied during his lifetime, the same could not be levied on the legal representative after his death. (A.Ys. 1968-69, 1970-71, 1971-72, 1983-84 and 1984-85)

ACWT v. Late Shrimant F.P. Gaekwad Through L/H Smt. Mrinalini Puar (2008) 13 DTR 274 / 174 Taxman 551 / (2009) 313 ITR 192 / 221 CTR 423 (Guj.)(High Court)

Section 16 : Assessment

S. 16 : Wealth-tax – Assessment – Wealth tax – Service of notice – Failure to serve notice within the time provided in proviso vitiates the assessment

When Assessing Officer invokes Section 17, Provisions of Section 14 and 16 to the extent they are applicable for the purpose of making an order of reassessment, will have to be followed which will include time limit for notice under section 16(2). Thus, the Assessing Officer is bound, by mandates of proviso to section 16(2) and on failure to comply with it, order of reassessment will be without jurisdiction. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CWT v. HUF of H H Late J. M. Schindia (2008) 174 Taxman 1 / 300 ITR 193 / 5 DTR 19 / 217 CTR 531 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 16 : Wealth-tax – Assessment – There is no estoppels against statute

A Property, which is not otherwise taxable, can not become taxable because of misunderstanding or wrong understanding of law by the assessee or because of his admission or his misapprehension. If in law an item is not taxable no amount of admission or misapprehension can make it taxable. The taxability or the authority to impose tax is independent of admission. Neither there can be any waiver of the right by the assessee. The department can not rely upon any such admission or misapprehension if it is not otherwise taxable. (A.Ys. 1993-94)

Maynak Poddar (HUF) v. WTO (2003) 130 Taxman 500 / 262 ITR 633 / 181 CTR 362 (Cal.)(High Court)

Section 16A : Reference to Valuation Officer

S. 16A : Wealth-tax – Valuation – Reference to Valuation Officer mandatory

The assessee filed his return of wealth which was supported by valuation report of registered valuer. The Wealth Tax Officer during the assessment proceedings made addition to the wealth of the assessee without making reference to valuation cell under section 16A of the Wealth Tax Act. The High Court held that when the assessee's valuation of the property was supported by a report of the registered valuer, the WTO cannot evaluate property of the assessee by adopting his own formula without making a reference to the valuation cell. (A.Ys. 1987-88, 1988-89, 1989-90 and 1990-91)

CWT v. Raghunath Singh Thakur (2008) 6 DTR 56 / 304 ITR 268 / 216 CTR 268 (HP)(High Court)

S. 16A : Wealth tax – Reference to valuation officer – No return filed

WTO can make reference to DVO even where no return has been filed. (A.Ys. 1979-80, 1980-81)

CWT v. Anil Tayal (HUF) (2005) 146 Taxman 239 / (2006) 285 ITR 243 / 195 CTR 420 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 16A : Wealth tax – Reference to valuation officer – Legal disputes

Where Assessing Officer valued property at rate of ` 200 per square feet based on rates obtained from office of District Registrar and case of assessee was that legal disputes with regard to title of property, were not taken into consideration while arriving at market value, Assessing Officer was to be directed to refer matter to Valuation Officer. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 2000-01)

Pushpalata Kanodia (Smt) v. WTO (2005) 92 ITD 500 / 93 TTJ 1045 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

Section 17 : Wealth escaping assessment

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Notice to a person who is not in existence – Amalgamated company – Reasons [S. 42C]

Notice under section 17 issued to a person who is not in existence at the time of issuing such notice is not valid. Fact that the assessee (Amalgamated company) subsequently filed its return with the objection that notice in the name of amalgamating company is invalid cannot cure the defects which go to the root of the jurisdiction to reopen the proceedings. Reason for initiation of reopening proceedings need not be known to the assessee by reflecting the same in the notice.

L. K. Agencies (P) Ltd. v. CWT (2011) 55 DTR 138 / 241 CTR 185 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Report of Valuation Officer

Report called for after completion of assessment. Not a ground for reassessment. Report called for during pendency of assessment but received after completion of assessment. Valid ground for reassessment. (A.Ys. 1988-89 to 1992-93)

CWT v. Sona Properties P. Ltd. (2010) 327 ITR 592 / (2008) 216 CTR 217 / 5 DTR 269 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Wealth Escaping Assessment – Entire assessment to be made fresh – Rectification [S. 35]

It is well settled that the circumstances under which an order under section 147 and an order under section 154, analogous to section 17 and 35 can be passed, are not mutually exclusive and may overlap. (A.Y. 1970-71)

If an assessment has been reopened, entire assessment is to be made afresh and, therefore, assets can be revalued also.

Rama Shankar Gupta v. CWT (2005) 275 ITR 628 / (2004) 141 Taxman 596 / 191 CTR 460 (All.)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Valuation – Different method

For valuing a building let out for commercial purpose, Assessing Officer had adopted land and building method which was a well recognized mode of valuation, merely because by applying another mode of valuation, value would be a little higher. Reassessment was not valid. (A.Ys. 1982-83 to 1985-86)

CWT v. Mohan Das (2005) 149 Taxman 545 / 295 ITR 580 / 196 CTR 204 (All.)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Wealth Escaping Assessment – Limitation

Reliance on sub-section (1A) of section 17 is misplaced to connect period of limitation with quantum of estimated escapement even in cases falling under proviso to section 17(1). (A.Y. 1983-84)

CWT v. Kamal Kumar Mansinghka (2005) 275 ITR 485 / (2004) 191 CTR 339 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – No failure to disclose primary facts – Trust deed

The trust deed was on record and allocation of income as per trust deed had also been disclosed by assessee, so far as the assessee was concerned, all primary materials were disclosed; it was not duty of assessee to suggest as to how inference should be drawn on said material; there was no failure on part of assessee in disclosing primary facts and, therefore, initiation of proceeding under section 17(1)(a) was not justified. (A.Ys. 1970-71 to 1976-77)

CWT v. C.M. Ghosh Trust (2005) 279 ITR 346 / 153 Taxman 413 / 199 CTR 47 (All.)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Wealth Escaping Assessment – Recording of reasons

Before issuing notice only requirement is that the reasons have to be recorded. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Daya Nand v. CWT (2004) 270 ITR 245 / 141 Taxman 480 / 192 CTR 602 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Wealth Escaping Assessment – Notice bad ab-initio

If earlier notice is ab-initio void, it cannot be said that any earlier reassessment proceedings are pending so as to bar issue of fresh notice. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Daya Nand v. CWT (2004) 270 ITR 245 / 141 Taxman 480 / 192 CTR 602 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Wealth Escaping Assessment – Furnishing of reasons

Proper course of action is for Assessing Officer to furnish reasons within a reasonable time and on receipt of the reasons, the noticee is entitled to file objections to the issuance of notice and Assessing officer is bound to dispose of the same by passing a speaking order. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 2000-01)

Rayala Corpn. (P.) Ltd. v. CWT (2004) 190 CTR 181 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Wealth Escaping Assessment – Valuation report

Valuation report may constitute information to reopen assessment, but there must be positive materials at the time of making assessment to show that wealth had escaped assessment. (A.Ys. 1979-80 to 1982-83)

CWT v. Chidambaram (Ct) (2004) 270 ITR 341 / (2005) 144 Taxman 802 / 192 CTR 444 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Wealth Escaping Assessment – Failure to disclose facts

Where gross maintainable rent had not been correctly shown for computing value of movable property, there was failure to disclose true and material facts. (A.Y. 1991-92)

Daya Nand v. CWT (2004) 270 ITR 245 / 141 Taxman 480 / 192 CTR 602 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Wealth Escaping Assessment – Objections to be disposed – Premature

Where without dealing with and disposing of (preliminary) objections of assessee to notice Assessing Officer passed reassessment order on merits of controversy, his order was to be set-aside. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Writ against reassessment notice was to be dismissed as premature where assessee had filed a return in response thereto, reasons for reopening had been communicated and assessee had filed objections and Assessing Officer was to pass a speaking order thereon. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Arvind Mills Ltd. v. ACWT (No. 2) (2004) 270 ITR 469 / 141 Taxman 210 / 191 CTR 235 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Precedent – Order of Tribunal – Pendency of reference

Assessing Officer is bound by decision of Tribunal unless and until same is reversed by High Court or Supreme Court and mere pendency of reference application against such order cannot be a reason to reopen assessment in respect of an issue which has already been decided by Commissioner (Appeals) and subsequently confirmed by Tribunal. (A.Y. 1985-86)

T.T. Narasimhan v. ACWT (2005) 97 ITD 197 / 98 TTJ 1089 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 17 : Wealth tax – Reassessment – Amalgamated company – Factual error – Jurisdiction – Not filing the return

Assessing Officer can proceed against amalgamated company and can also pass order in respect of matters of erstwhile amalgamating company. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Reopening of assessment is valid if factual error is pointed out by interest audit party to Assessing Officer.

If assessee does not file return in response to notice under section 17 and does not challenge jurisdiction of Assessing Officer at any stage of assessment proceedings, assessee cannot raise question of jurisdiction at appeal stage. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Triveni Engg. & Industries Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 93 ITD 561 / 93 TTJ 806 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Cryptic order

Where though assessment under section 16(3) was made but order was brief and cryptic and immovable properties as disclosed by assessee were treated as 'business asset' and so exempt under section 2(ea), it could not be said that notice of reassessment issued to assessee was based on change of opinion; therefore reopening of assessment was valid. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Mafatlal Industries Ltd. v. WTO (2005) 95 ITD 66 / 95 TTJ 723 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 17 : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Agricultural land

Where assessee filed wealth-tax returns declaring value of house only, claiming that open land surrounding residential house was not liable to be included in net wealth as it was a agricultural land and assessee also submitted a valuation report dated 11-6-1988 of registered valuer showing value of land and house and WTO completed assessment accepting assessee's claims, subsequently Assessing Officer was not justified in reopening assessment holding that assessee had failed to disclose truly and fully all material facts.

Archana Singhania (Smt) v. WTO (2005) 146 Taxman 87 (Mag.)(Delhi)(Trib.)

Section 17A : Time limit for completion of assessment and reassessment

S. 17A : Wealth-tax – Reassessment – Time limit

For assessment year 1979-80 where return was due to be filed on 31-7-1979 but it was filed on 7-3-1986 and assessment was framed on 21-3-1986, assessment made by the WTO was within limitation and by no stretch of imagination, it could be treated as time-barred in view of provision of section 17A(1)(b). (A.Ys. 1979-80, 1980-81))

CWT v. Anil Tayal (HUF) (2006) 285 ITR 243 / (2005) 146 Taxman 239 / 195 CTR 420 (P&H)(High Court)

Section 18 : Penalty for failure to furnish returns, to comply with notices and concealment of assets, etc.

S. 18(1)(a) : Wealth-tax – Penalty – Late filing of returns

Wealth disclosed in the Voluntary Disclosure Act, 1976 is eligible for exclusion from wealth base for purpose of reckoning penalty under section 18(1)(a) and limits mentioned in that section cannot be applied without considering section 14 of 1976 Act. (A.Ys. 1965-66 to 1972-73)

CWT v. Palanimalai Grounder (2004) 136 Taxman 344 / 186 CTR 401 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 18(1)(c) : Penalty – Concealment – Amnesty scheme – Revised returns – Question of Law

Whether penalty under section 18(1)(c) could be cancelled on the ground that the assessee was entitled to the benefit under the amnesty scheme, particularly when the assessee had revised its return several times subsequent to the search operation is a substantial question of law.

CIT v. C. A. Taktawala (2008) 215 CTR 399 / 4 DTR 187 / (2009) 309 ITR 340 (SC)

S. 18(1)(c) : Wealth-tax – Penalty – Concealment of wealth

Assessee had declared value of certain property contributed by him as capital in a firm at ` 2.36 lakhs as per rule 1BB whereas, on dispute between partners, arbitrators awarded ` 75 lakhs to assessee in lieu of surrendering all its rights and title in favour of firm which included aforesaid property also, since assessee had declared value of the property in the return of wealth at ` 2.36 lakhs under a belief that it continued to be its legal owner, it could not be charged with having concealed particulars of its wealth. (A.Y. 1984-85)

CWT v. Prince Raninder Singh Trust (2008) 296 ITR 668 / (2005) 146 Taxman 609 / 197 CTR 271 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 18(1)(c) : Wealth-tax – Penalty – For concealment of wealth

Where assessee before completion of relevant assessment filed revised wealth tax return and showed value of building on basis of valuation arrived at by approved valuer, which differed from value shown in original return, it was duty of WTO to assess building as per value of building shown in revised return and in absence of mala fide intention of assessee to furnish inaccurate particulars of building in original return, no penalty under section 18(1)(c) could be levied upon him.

CWT v. Chandrakant Gandadal (2004) 141 Taxman 19 / 184 CTR 517 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 18(1)(c) : Wealth-tax – Penalty – Concealment of wealth – Revised return

If revised return is filed declaring correct value of asset with in time limit before assessment is completed, it can not be said that assessee has furnished inaccurate particulars of wealth.

CWT v. Hasmukhlal Gandadal (2003) 264 ITR 42 / 184 CTR 23 / 134 Taxman 507 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 18(l)(c) : Wealth-tax – Penalty – Concealment of wealth – Explanation 3 – Old assessee

Explanation 3 to section 18(l)(c) could not be invoked in case of an old assessee particularly in a case where though assessee had defaulted in filing wealth-tax return, but wealth was assessed as per wealth declared in return filed in compliance of notice. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1998-99)

S.P. Hinduja Bigger (HUF) v. ITO (2005) 97 ITD 235 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Section 18B : Power to reduce or waive penalty in certain cases.

S. 18B : Wealth-tax – Penalty – Waiver – Reduction of penalty

Only reason advanced by revenue for rejecting application for waiver of penalty moved by assessee was that assessee had not led any evidence to prove that petitioner had paid interest charged and penalty levied/leviable or had made satisfactory arrangements for its payment, on a plain reading of section 18B requirement of payment of penalty leviable does not appear and hence said reason was not germane to exercise of discretion, and therefore rejection of application for waiver was unjustified.

Kiritkumar K. Shroff v. CWT (2005) 278 ITR 79 / 148 Taxman 540 / 199 CTR 19 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 18B : Wealth-tax – Penalty – Waiver – Reduction of penalty

Relief under section 18B being discretionary, dismissal of writ petition for waiver of penalty under section 18(1)(a) could not be interfered with.

Subhash Kapoor v. CWT (2004) 136 Taxman 486 / 186 CTR 537 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 18B : Wealth-tax – Penalty – Waiver – Reasoned order

There was no reasons were found in the order as why penalty for some years was sustained totally and for some years reduced to 18 percent, while exercising power under the Act, the Court quashed the order under section 18B. A right to reason is, therefore, an indispensable part of sound system of judicial review. Where no reasons were to be found in the order as to why penalty for some years, was sustained totally and for some years reduced to 18 per cent, while exercising power under the Act, order under section 18B was to be quashed. (A.Ys. 1972-73 to 1979-80)

Maneklal D. Shah v. P.K. Gupta (2003) 130 Taxman 469 / 184 CTR 523 / 267 ITR 340 (Bom.) (High Court)

CHAPTER V

Liability to assessment in special cases

Section 20A : Assessment after partial partition of a Hindu undivided family

S. 20A : Wealth-tax – HUF – Partition – Assessment after partition of HUF

Section 20A is introduced with effect from 1-4-1980 would not make any difference to its applicability to partial partition taking place after 31-12-1978. (A.Y. 1979-80)

CWT v. Parmatma Saran (HUF) (2005) 142 Taxman 194 / 270 ITR 389 / 191 CTR 282 / 144 Taxman 535 (All.)(High Court)

S. 20A : Wealth-tax – HUF – Assessment – Partition – Individual members

Assessee was HUF consisting of three brothers and as a result of partition of HUF, only immovable properties were left with assessee family and other assets were divided and such divided assets were assessed in hands of smaller HUFs, in respect of partitioned assets, for purpose of deciding whether it was specified HUF or unspecified HUF for purposes of taxation, it was not income of a smaller Hindu undivided family but income of individual member of bigger Hindu undivided family which had to be taken into consideration. (A.Y. 1980-81)

CWT v. Beni Ram Bansidhar Jain (HUF) (2005) 145 Taxman 342 (All.)(High Court)

Section 21 : Assessment when assets are held by Courts of Wards, administrators-general, etc.

S. 21 : Wealth-tax – Trust – Beneficiaries – Unborn children

In case beneficiaries of a trust are a future wife and some unborn children, beneficiaries being unknown, assessment will have to be made only under provision of section 21(4) and not under section 21(1). (A.Ys. 1973-74 to 1977-78)

Wife of Rakesh Mohan (P.) Trust v. CWT (2005) 276 ITR 443 / 142 Taxman 267 / 194 CTR 465 (All.)(High Court)

S. 21(4) : Wealth-tax – Trust – Assessment – Assets held by Court of Wards, etc.

Section 21(4), can not be construed to mean that it will attract only such sections which provide for levy of tax and exclude section which grant exemption. The words 'to the same extent' show that the assessee is entitled to all the exemptions that are granted to an individual and there would not be any pick and choose in the application of statutory provision in the matter of levy of the tax. (A.Ys. 1982-83 to 1987-88)

CWT v. K. Santhanam Trust (2003) 126 Taxman 484 / 263 ITR 428 / 182 CTR 582 (Mad.)(High Court)

Section 21AA : Assessment when assets are held by certain associations of persons

S. 21AA : Wealth-tax – AOP – Assessment

An AOP was not an assessable entity up to assessment year 1980-81, but after insertion of section 21AA by Finance Act, 1981 with effect from 1-4-1981 i.e. from assessment year 1981-82 onwards, it became an assessable entity. (A.Ys. 1979-80 to 1982-83)

CWT v. Meerut Race Club (2005) 148 Taxman 493 (All.)(High Court)

S. 21AA : Wealth-tax – AOP – Assessment

Assessee-club claiming status of AOP in which shares of members were indeterminate, was assessable to wealth tax from assessment year 1981-82 onwards in view of insertion of section 21AA with effect from 1-4-1981. (A.Ys. 1980-81 to 1983-84)

CWT v. Chikmanglur Club (2005) 149 Taxman 43 / 197 CTR 609 / 290 ITR 522 (Karn.)(High Court)

CHAPTER VI

Appeals, Revisions and references

Section 23 : Appeal to the Deputy Commissioner (Appeals) from orders of assessing officer

S. 23 : Wealth-tax – Appeal – Commissioner (Appeals) – Rejection of waiver application – Merger of penalty order with order under section 18B

Appeal lies against penalty order even where assessee has filed application under section 18B for waiver of penalty which has been rejected. (A.Ys. 1974-75 to 1976-77)

CWT v. Shyam Lal Bhatia (2005) 277 ITR 399 / 148 Taxman 210 / 193 CTR 459 (All.)(High Court)

Section 24 : Appeal to the Appellate Tribunal from orders of the Deputy Commissioner (Appeal)

S. 24 : Wealth-tax – Appellate Tribunal – Power – Constitutional validity

Tribunal has no jurisdiction to go into constitutional validity of provisions of Act. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 1999-2000)

Tara Singh v. Dy. CWT (2005) 97 ITD 482 / 97 TTJ 941 (Amritsar)(Trib.)

S. 24 : Wealth-tax – Appellate Tribunal – Binding nature – Order of Tribunal

Assessing Officer is bound by decision of Tribunal unless and until same is reversed by High Court or Supreme Court. (A.Y. 1985-86)

T.T. Narasimhan v. ACWT (2005) 97 ITD 197 / 98 TTJ 1089 (Chennai)(Trib.)

S. 24 : Wealth-tax – Appellate Tribunal – Tax effect

Appeal is not maintainable before Tribunal in cases where tax effect is less than ` 1 lakh. (A.Ys. 1993-94 and 1994-95)

Dy. CWT v. Nb. Syed Jaffar Ali Khan (2005) 94 ITD 21 / 95 TTJ 376 / 1 SOT 691 (Hyd.)(Trib.)

S. 24 : Wealth-tax – Appellate Tribunal – Circular of CBDT

Appeal filed by revenue contrary to CBDT Circular laying down minimum tax effect for filing appeals was not maintainable. (A.Ys. 1987-88 to 1993-94)

WTO v. Chetnaben J. Shah (Smt) (2005) 95 TTJ 939 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

Section 25 : Power of Commissioner to revise orders of subordinate authorities.

S. 25 : Wealth-tax – Revision by Commissioner – Valuation report after completion of assessment

Commissioner can take into consideration valuation report which was brought on record after completion of assessment. (A.Y. 1975-76)

CWT v. Phoolwati Agarwal (Smt) (2005) 145 Taxman 436 / 276 ITR 623 (All.)(High Court)

S. 25 : Wealth-tax – Revision by Commissioner – Valuation report after completion of assessment

Report of Valuation Officer even if received after framing of assessment, can very well be taken into consideration by Commissioner while initiating proceedings under section 25(2). (A.Y. 1975-76)

CWT v. Shanti Meattle (Smt.) (2005) 276 ITR 201 / 145 Taxman 344 (All.)(High Court)

S. 25 : Wealth tax – Revision by Commissioner – Subject matter of appeal

With effect from 1-6-1988, Commissioner has power to revise an order which has been subject-matter of any appeal in respect to such matters as have not been considered and decided in such appeal. (A.Y. 1977-78)

CWT v. Saroj Madhava Prasad (Smt) (2005) 273 ITR 427 / 145 Taxman 361 (All.)(High Court)

S. 25 : Wealth-tax – Revision by Commissioner – Revised return – Original order

Once after assessment revised return was filed and assessment was made thereon, revision of assessment order made on revised return on a point dealt with not in such order but in original assessment order, was not permissible. (A.Y. 1977-78)

CWT v. Darshan Singh (2005) 277 ITR 53 / 150 Taxman 417 / 200 CTR 614 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 25 : Wealth-tax – Revision by Commissioner – Valuation report

Commissioner can revise assessment order taking into account subsequent valuation report obtained after assessment was completed on basis of original valuation report. (A.Ys. 1970-71 and 1971-72)

CWT v. Phool Chand (2005) 272 ITR 239 / (2004) 191 CTR 528 (All.)(High Court)

S. 25 : Wealth-tax – Revision by Commissioner – Condonation of delay – Amendments in law

Where in view of confusion due to various amendments petitioner - assessee did not claim exemption in respect of office premises under section 5(iv), delay in filing revision petition claiming such exemption was to be condoned. (A.Ys. 1997-98 to 2001-02)

Dinesh Nagindas Shah v. CIT (2005) 273 ITR 229 / 142 Taxman 263 / 190 CTR 106 (Guj.)(High Court)

Section 27 : Reference to High Court

S. 27 : Wealth-tax – Reference – High Court – Beneficiaries under Trust – Body of Individuals

Assessee was beneficiary under a trust. The share income of the assessee from the partnership firm was assigned to the trust. That along with the other income of the trust was distributed amongst the beneficiaries. The beneficiaries in turn assigned their respective interests in favour of a body of individuals. The Tribunal held that assignment of assets was not sham or bogus. The Court held that rejection of reference was proper.

CWT v. Lov S. Kinariwala (2003) 259 ITR 440 / 172 Taxation 470 / 179 CTR 9 / 126 Taxman 198 (SC)

S. 27 : Wealth-tax – Reference – High Court – Power of review – Inherent power to rectify mistake

Though High Court does not have power of review, it has inherent power to rectify mistake in its order; while applying rule 1D; omission by High Court to note that assessee was an investment company, was a mistake apparent on face of record which it could rectify.

Lalit Mohan Thapar v. CWT (2005) 272 ITR 563 / 145 Taxman 285 / 195 CTR 311 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 27 : Wealth-tax – Reference – High Court – Small tax effect

Where amount of tax involved in reference application before High Court was very meagre, reference was liable to be returned unanswered.

CWT v. Surendra Nath Gupta (2004) 136 Taxman 329 / 189 CTR 50 (All.)(High Court)

S. 27 : Wealth-tax – Reference – High Court – Tax effect – CBDT Circular

In view of CBDT's instruction, appeal having tax effect of less than 2 lakhs is not maintainable.

CWT v. Mohan Murari Sawant (2004) 191 CTR 497 (Bom.)(High Court)

Section 27A : Appeal to High Court

S. 27A : Wealth-tax – Appeal – High Court – Stay of penalty proceedings

Stay of penalty proceedings is not permissible in appeal against assessment order. (A.Ys. 1990-91 to 1992-93)

Bhabi Properties (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CWT (2004) 267 ITR 583 / 141 Taxman 64 (Cal.)(High Court)

Section 31 : When tax, etc., payable and when assessee deemed in default.

S. 31 : Wealth-tax – Waiver of Interest – Adjudication of claim

Where delay in payment of tax by Official Liquidator was because of adjudication of claims as per section 529A of Companies Act, interest demanded under section 31(2) was to be waived

S. Dorai Raj v. Official Liquidator (2004) 271 ITR 497 / 142 Taxman 542 / 193 CTR 318 (Mad.)(High Court)

CHAPTER VIIA

Refunds

Section 34A : Refunds

S. 34A : Wealth-tax – Refund – Interest

As per provisions of section 34A(3) simple interest is to be paid by Government from date on which refund was granted on amount which had been paid by assessee after 31st day of March, 1975 in pursuance of any order of assessment or penalty. (A.Ys. 1970-71 to 1977-78)

CWT v. Shashi Agrawal (Smt.) (2005) 276 ITR 64 / 145 Taxman 560 / 198 CTR 305 (All.)(High Court)

CHAPTER VIII

Miscellaneous

Section 35 : Rectification of mistakes

S. 35 : Wealth-tax – Rectification of mistake – Recalling of order

Words 'amend original order to rectify any mistake apparent from record' do not mean to recall original order, rehear the matter and replace original order by a fresh order.

CWT v. McDowell & Co. (2004) 269 ITR 451 / 136 Taxman 716 / 188 CTR 518 (Karn.)(High Court)

Section 35B : Failure to furnish returns of net wealth

S. 35B : Wealth-tax – Offences and prosecutions – Wilful failure to file return – Sanction – Criminal Procedure Code – S. 245(1) [S. 350]

Sanction authority has sanctioned the prosecution, without application of mind, there was no evidence that default was wilful. The Court held that prosecution was not valid. (A. Y. 1993-94).

J. Jayalalitha v. ACWT (2011) 337 ITR 1 / 60 DTR 169 / 243 CTR 466 (Mad.)(High Court)

Sch. III, Rule 3, 4, 5 : Wealth-tax – Valuation – Immovable Property – Gross Maintainable Rent – Market Rent – Actual Rent

Property in question being subject to Rent Control Act, and the "standard rent" thereof not being higher than the actual rent received which has been assessed by the IT authorities, valuation of property for wealth tax purpose is to be determined only on the basis of the actual rent received. (A.Ys. 1985-86 to 1988-89)

Jt. CWT v. Prayasvin B. Patel (2010) 46 DTR 52 / 41 SOT 357 / 133 TTJ 754 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

Finance Act, 1983 – Wealth-tax – Valuation – Land – Urban Land Ceiling Act – Schedule III

Assessee's land was declared as surplus under ULCRA but possession was not taken over by authorities and in view of sections 3 and 4 of repealed Act, 1999, the assessee continued to be owner of the land and its value was includible in net wealth. Land being subject to ULCRA, the same has to be valued taking into consideration restriction under ULCRA. (A. Ys. 1984-85 to 1989-90, 1991-92 & 1992-93).

CWT v. Chelmsford Club Ltd. (2011) 243 CTR 89 / 56 DTR 145 (Delhi)(High Court)

Gift-tax Act, 1958

CHAPTER I

Preliminary

Section 2 : Definitions

S. 2(xii) : Gift-tax – Shares – Deemed gift [S. 4(1)(a)]

The Supreme Court held that the shares come into existence at the time of allotment of shares; i.e., the shares are created at that time, and therefore, the allotment of shares are not transfer and therefore, section 4(1)(a) of the Gift Tax Act would not apply. (A.Y. 1987-88)

Khoday Distilleries Ltd. v. CGT (2008) 307 ITR 312 / 220 CTR 228 / 15 DTR 126 / (2009) 176 Taxman 142 / 209 Taxation 416 (SC)

S. 2(xii) : Gift-tax – Retirement – Dues

There is no gift if a retiring partner takes less than what is his due from firm. (A.Y. 1989-90)

CIT v. Asha Gulati (Smt) (2005) 142 Taxman 234 / 282 ITR 584 / 192 CTR 192 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 2(xii) : Gift-tax – Immovable property – Date of gift – Registration

Date of gift of an immovable property is date of registration of document and not date of execution of document. (A.Ys. 1985-86, 1988-89)

CGT v. Shree Shyam Sayee Corpn. (2005) 272 ITR 327 / 148 Taxman 216 / 194 CTR 343 (Mad.) (High Court)

S. 2(xii) : Gift-tax – Transfer of agricultural land – Impartible estate – Family arrangement

Transfer of agricultural land belonging to his impartible estate and creation of trusts out of his privy purse by erstwhile Maharaja would amount to gift and could not be treated as family arrangement of joint family property. (A.Y. 1972-73)

CGT v. Maharaja Amarinder Singh (2005) 274 ITR 381 / (2004) 141 Taxman 228 / 191 CTR 358 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 2(xii) : Gift-tax – Mohammedan law – Validity of gift

If a transaction satisfies the ingredients of 'gift' under the Gift Tax Act, 1958, question as to whether gift is valid under Mohammedan Law or not, is of no consequence.

Azad Rahim v. GTO (2004) 271 ITR 468 / 137 Taxman 508 / 190 CTR 410 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 2(xii) : Gift-tax – Gold sovereigns – Marriage of daughter

Giving of gold sovereigns by assessee to his daughter at the time of marriage is a reasonable expense of assessee contemplated under section 3(b)(ii) of Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act and would not constitute a taxable gift.

CGT v. V. Sundaram Achari (2004) 266 ITR 681 / 137 Taxman 445 / 190 CTR 203 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 2(xii) : Gift-tax – Retirement of partner – No liability

No element of gift is involved when assessee retires from the firm in which he is a partner. (A.Y. 1987-88)

CGT v. E.X. Jolly (2004) 265 ITR 399 / 136 Taxman 454 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 2(xii) : Gift-tax – Reallocation of profits in partnership deed – No gift

Reallocation of profits by an amendment of partnership deed does not amount to gift.

K. Govindan v. CGT (2004) 140 Taxman 101 / 272 ITR 220 / 191 CTR 516 (Ker.)(High Court)

CHAPTER II

Charge of Gift-tax and assets subject to such charges

Section 3 : Charge of gift-tax

S. 3 : Gift-tax – Hindu Undivided Family – Ancestral property – Privy purse

Privy purse of ex-ruler is not HUF property; however his agricultural land being part of ancestral impartible estate is to be treated as HUF property.

CGT v. Maharaja Amarinder Singh (2005) 274 ITR 381 / (2004) 141 Taxman 228 / 191 CTR 358 (P&H)(High Court)

Section 4 : Gift to include certain transfers

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Contract Act, 1872 – Transfer of Property Act, 1982 – Minor – Disability – Contract

A minor suffers disability from entering into contract but he is thereby not incapable of receiving property as gift. Where a gift is made in favour of the donee, who is the guardian of the child, the acceptance of gift can be presumed to have been made by him or on his behalf without any overt act signifying acceptance by the minor.

K. Balakrishnan v. K. Kamalan (2004) 135 Taxman 48 / 181 Taxation 574 / 186 CTR 209 (SC)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Induction of New Partner – Consideration

Where on induction of new partner share of assessee, an existing partner was reduced, contribution of ₹ 25,000/- by incoming partner towards the capital together with the obligations of sincerely and faithfully carrying on the business was adequate consideration and it could not be said that there was a deemed gift. (A.Y. 1983-84)

Sree Narayana Chandrika Trust v. CGT (2003) 261 ITR 279 / 129 Taxman 477 / 181 CTR 395 / 175 Taxation 639 / 11 SCC 350 (SC)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Transfer of assets without consideration – Transfer of shares of company from one group to another [S. 5(1)(xiv)]

The assessee company was managed by two groups of share holders, K and P. Disputes cropped up regarding the entitlement to the sum of ` 80 Lakhs receivable from S for the sale of surplus FSI. According to the decree of Court, the K group transferred all its shares in the assessee to the P group. In the annual accounts, the value of the properties alienated to the K group was shown at ` 35 Lakhs. The Assessing Officer held that the assessee had gifted ` 35 lakhs without any consideration and such amount was exigible to gift tax. The order was confirmed by CIT(A) and Tribunal. On reference the Court held that the K group had relinquished and waived its right, title and interest in the property and also the consideration which the assessee was to receive out of the land transaction and in lieu thereof it got properties free from all liabilities on ownership basis. The consideration was the transfer of property in favour of K group. The consideration for the transaction could be spelt out from the award of the arbitrator. There was no gift exigible to tax. (A. Y. 1983-84)

Pannalal Silk Mills P. Ltd. v. CGT (2011) 338 ITR 1 (Bom.)(High Court)

Editorial: Judgment of Mumbai Tribunal Pannalal Silk Mills Pvt. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (1993) 44 ITD 458 reversed.

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Inadequate consideration – Retirement from firm [S. 2(xii), 2 (xxiv)]

When a partner brings in his assets into the partnership firm by way of contribution he continues to have interest in the said asset, and the value thereof mentioned in the books of the partnership firm representing his interest does not truly reflect the market value of such property and therefore, such transfer cannot be treated as a deemed gift under section 4(1)(a) by taking into account the amount received by the partner on retirement from the firm. (A.Y. 1994-95)

CGT & Anr. v. Jayalakshamma (Smt.) (2010) 45 DTR 61 / 235 CTR 146 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Power of revocation – Death of donor

Though donor cannot be said to have transferred property if while ostensibly handing it over, he holds on to it by keeping unrestricted power to take it back next minute, but a transaction with an unlimited power of revocation, however, becomes a gift under Act when donor dies without exercising his power of revocation or during his lifetime gives up power of revocation as thereafter there would be complete divesting of property which would be incapable of being recalled at any subsequent point of time. (A.Y. 1979-80)

Ram Dulari Agrawal (Smt) v. CGT (2005) 146 Taxman 297 / 197 CTR 232 (All.)(High Court)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – New partners

Merely because new partners had invested capital in business or they were being paid salaries would not be determinative of question whether that consideration was adequate or sufficient for relinquishment of share in goodwill in their favour by old partners so as not to constitute gift. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CGT v. Shyam Lal (2005) 272 ITR 592 / (2004) 192 CTR 181 / 142 Taxman 509 (All.)(High Court)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Sale consideration – Stamp duty valuation

Difference between sale consideration in sale deed and value of property taken for stamp duty purposes, cannot be taken as deemed gift. (A.Y. 1981-82)

CGT v. Raj Kumari Vimla Devi (Smt) (2005) 279 ITR 360 (All.)(High Court)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Immovable property

Unless document transferring immovable property is validly registered, there is no gift under the Act. (A.Y. 1990-91)

V. Srinivasan (Dr.) v. CGT (2004) 270 ITR 97 / 141 Taxman 456 / 192 CTR 371 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Dissolution of firm

In case of dissolution of a firm, when the assets and liabilities are valued and entitlement of each partners determined in proportion to his share in firm and any of those partners relinquishes a part of his entitlement under partnership deed, and agrees to receive less, it can be said that there is a gift to the extent of that difference, but for coming to such a conclusion, it is first necessary that all assets and liabilities of firm should have been determined and entitlement of each partner ascertained.

CGT v. S. Ashok (2004) 270 ITR 240 / 192 CTR 513 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Reconstitution of partnership firm

On reconstitution of partnership firm, where existing partner surrenders portion of his share and incoming partner brings in capital, transaction does not amount to deemed gift. (A.Ys. 1979-80, 1980-81)

CGT v. Rameshchandra Ravjibhai (2004) 269 ITR 146 / 188 CTR 543 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Difference in valuation

Merely because according to Assessing Officer there is some difference between valuation of property transferred and consideration received, transaction cannot be held to be deemed gift. (A.Y. 1975-76)

CGT v. Sree Visalam Chit Fund Ltd. (2004) 140 Taxman 660 / 188 CTR 183 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Relinquishment of share in partnership

Relinquishment of share in partnership in favour of new partner does not amount to deemed gift. (A.Y. 1981-82)

CGT v. Ramniklal M. Bambhanja (2004) 269 ITR 438 / 136 Taxman 181 / 188 CTR 539 (Guj.) (High Court)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Sale of shares at lower price

Where assessee sold certain shares of a private limited company held by him to his relatives at a price lower than the market value, it was a case of deemed gift.

Wg. Cmdr. A.G. Mathews v. CGT (2004) 269 ITR 149 / 134 Taxman 236 / 186 CTR 331 (Ker.) (High Court)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Capital Gains – Addition

Addition on account of deemed gift under section 4(1)(a) could not be made on the basis of fair market value of plot determined by DVO for the purpose of computing capital gains. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Yash Pal Bajaj v. GTO (2007) 107 TTJ 294 (Delhi) (Trib.)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Family arrangement – Bonafide

On mere doubting the bonafides of family arrangement, Assessing Officer cannot hold that assessee must have received more money, or otherwise, and the so called difference cannot be held as amount chargeable to Gift Tax.

Susmita U. Desai (Smt.) v. ACGT (2006) 153 Taxman 33 (Mag.) (Ahd.) (Trib.)

S. 4 : Gift-tax – Deemed gift – Relinquishment – Resolution of family dispute

Relinquishment of share in plot of land by Memorandum of mutual understanding amongst members of the family, to resolve the existing and future dispute, cannot amount to Gift.

Navalchand Bavchand Danapith v. Gift Tax Officer (2006) 152 Taxman 63 (Mag.) (Rajkot) (Trib.)

Section 5 : Exemption in respect of certain gift

S. 5 : Gift-tax – Exemptions – Conversion of proprietary business into partnership

Conversion of proprietary business by assessee – doctor into a partnership firm is not exempt under section 5(1)(xiv) (A.Y. 1985-86)

V. Mohandas (Dr.) v. CGT (2004) 271 ITR 558 / 141 Taxman 201 / 191 CTR 445 (Ker.) (High Court)

S. 5 : Gift-tax – Exemptions – Karta – Wife – HUF

Gift made by Karta of HUF to his wife out of HUF's assets is entitled to exemption under section 5(1)(viii)

CGT v. Banshilal Narsidas (2004) 270 ITR 231 / 137 Taxman 358 / 190 CTR 145 (MP) (High Court)

Section 6 : Gift escaping assessment

S. 6 : Gift-tax – Valuation of gifts – Yield method

Yield method proper method for valuation of unquoted shares.

Wg. Cmdr. A.G. Mathews v. CGT (2004) 269 ITR 149 / 134 Taxman 236 / 186 CTR 331 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 6 : Gift-tax – Valuation of Gifts – Schedule 11

From assessment year 1992-93 onwards only, value of property as on date of transfer under section 4(1)(a) can be determined in the manner provided in Schedule II to the Act which in turn refers to Schedule III to the WT Act; for assessment year 1991-92, proper method of valuation of equity shares of private company was yield method. (A.Y. 1991-92)

K.C. Mammen (Dr). v. CGT (2004) 269 ITR 167 / 139 Taxman 156 / 190 CTR 153 (Ker.)(High Court)

CHAPTER IV Assessment

Section 16 : Gift-tax reassessment report of internal audit party

S. 16 : Gift tax – Reassessment – Report of internal audit party

Report of internal audit party does not constitute 'information'. (A.Y. 1976-77)

CGT v. Nabe Shah (2005) 279 ITR 383/ 146 Taxman 75 (All.)(High Court)

Interest-tax Act, 1974

Section 2 : Definitions

S. 2(5) : Interest-tax – Interest on Bonds and debentures – Investment

Interest earned on bonds and debentures by way of investment cannot be taxed under Interest Tax Act, 1974. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Sahara India Savings & Investment Corpn. Ltd. (2009) 32 DTR 57 / 227 CTR 425 / (2010) 186 Taxman 19 / 321 ITR 371 (SC)

S. 2(5) : Interest-tax – Chargeable interest – Interest on loans and advances – Bills discounting [S. 2(7), 5, 6]

Sections 5 and 6 of the Interest Act, specifically exclude the interest accruing or arising to a credit institution on loans and advances made to other credit institutions from the purview of chargeable interest and, therefore, interest received by the assessee on loans and advances made under the bills rediscounting scheme from different banking companies to which Banking Regulation Act 1949, applies, does not form part of chargeable interest. (A.Y. 1992-93).

National Insurance Co. Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 58 DTR 137 / 339 ITR 573 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 2(5) : Interest-tax – Chargeability – Refinancing Operations

Interest earned on refinancing operations to be excluded from chargeable interest. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Punjab State Industrial Development Corporation (2010) 326 ITR 390 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 2(5) : Interest-tax – Bank – Advance of loan – Compensation – Subsidy

Where a bank extended credit facilities to exporters at lower rate of interest amount paid by RBI to compensate said bank to extent of loss suffered by bank for extending said credit, was in nature of interest and, not export subsidy and was, thus taxable. (A.Ys. 1985-86 to 1986-87)

State Bank of Indore v. CIT (2004) 270 ITR 336 / 140 Taxman 500 / 191 CTR 522 (MP)(High Court)

S. 2(5A) : Interest-tax – Chargeable interest – Financial company – Business of hire purchase and leasing – Appeal – Supreme Court – Interest Tax

High Court has not examined whether the transactions entered into by the assessee constituted financial transactions so as to attract the provisions of the 1974 Act, apart from the fact that the issues covered a wide spectrum, the impugned order is set aside and matter restored back for fresh adjudication. (A. Y. 1995-96)

Motor and General Finance Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 334 ITR 33 / 242 CTR 472 / 58 DTR 312 / 200 Taxman 10 (SC)

Editorial:- CIT v. Motor and General Finance Ltd. (2010) 236 CTR 487 / 48 DTR 118 / 327 ITR 530 (Delhi)(High Court) set aside.

S. 2(5A) : Interest-tax – Chargeability – Financial company – Financial lease – Operating lease [S. 2(5B) & 4]

For the purpose of applicability of sub. Cl. (iv) of section 2(5B), i.e. to determine whether the company carrying on lease business would be covered as loan company or not distinction will have to be drawn between a financial lease and an operating lease and financial lease would be relevant for applicability of sub. cl. (iv) as that would fall in the category of a loan company. (A.Ys. 1995-96 to 1999-2000)

CIT v. Motor and General Finance Ltd. (2010) 327 ITR 530 / 48 DTR 118 (Delhi)(High Court)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Loans and Advances – Bonds and debentures

The Supreme Court held that for the purpose of Interest-tax Act, 1974, interest on loans and advances will not cover under section 2(7) interest on bonds and debentures bought by the assessee as and by way of investment. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Sahara India Savings and Investment Corporation Ltd. (2010) 321 ITR 371 / 186 Taxman 19 / (2009) 32 DTR 57 / 218 Taxation 537 (SC)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Interest on Government securities – Not chargeable [S. 4]

Interest on Government securities is not liable to Interest Tax. (A.Ys. 1992-93 to 1995-96)

CIT v. City Union Bank Ltd. (2009) 209 Taxation 135 (SC)

CIT v. Industrial Development Bank of India (2009) 209 Taxation 408 (SC)

CIT v. Ratnakar Bank Ltd. (2009) 210 Taxation 70 (SC) / 306 ITR 257 (SC) / 174 Taxman 592 (SC) / 14 DTR 241 (SC)

CIT v. The Bank of Rajasthan Ltd. (2008) / 5 DTR 245 (Raj.)(High Court)

CIT v. Nedungadi Bank Ltd. (2008) / 13 DTR 261 / 312 ITR 96 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Government securities – Not chargeable [S. 4]

There is a basic difference between loans and advances on the one hand and investments/securities on the other. This difference is indicated in the Income-tax Act, the Companies Act, as well as the Banking Regulation Act, 1949. Interest earned by banks on dated Government Securities is not liable to interest tax under section 2(7) read with section 4 of the Interest-tax Act.

CIT v. Corporation Bank (2007) 295 ITR 193 / 166 Taxman 388 / (2008) 214 CTR 302 (SC)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Rediscount Interest – Development Scheme – Agency

Scheme of IDBI to increase sales of indigenous machinery or capital equipment. Rediscount interest collected by Bank to pay IDBI under scheme. Bank only medium for disbursement of development fund for implementation of scheme. Rediscount interest is not "Chargeable interest" liable to interest tax in hands of Bank. (A.Ys. 1979-80 to 1985-86)

CIT v. Canara Bank (2007) 293 ITR 115 / 211 CTR 437 / 165 Taxman 61 (SC)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Hire purchase a loan – Motor financing

Transaction of financing of motor vehicles by credit institution though termed as hire–purchase agreement, is a loan transaction and the finance charges recovered by the institution is held to be chargeable interest under section 2(7) of the Interest Tax Act, 1974.

CIT v. Kallur Chit Funds & Finance (P) Ltd. (2009) 25 DTR 44 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Additional amounts – Payment of interest

Amount received by a financial institution, as additional amount from borrowers towards payment of its Interest tax liability was not 'interest' within the meaning of section 2(7) of the Interest tax Act, 1974 and could not be treated a chargeable interest. (A.Ys. 1996-97, 1997-98)

CIT & Anr. v. Canfin Homes Ltd. (2008) 11 DTR 211 / 218 CTR 473 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Interest on securities – Not chargeable

Interest on securities does not form part of chargeable interest. (A.Ys. 1992-93 to 1995-96)

CIT v. Vijaya Bank (2006) 285 ITR 97 / (2005) 149 Taxman 674 / 199 CTR 329 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Interest – Hire purchase

Hire-purchase charges in genuine hire-purchase arrangements do not fall within definition of 'interest' under section 2(7). (A.Ys. 1992-93, 1993-94)

Deep Hire Purchase (P.) Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 274 ITR 69 / 144 Taxman 417 / 195 CTR 174 (P&H)(High Court)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Constitutional validity – Charge

Interest tax Act is constitutionally Valid.

Karnataka Bank Ltd. v. UOI (2003) 132 Taxman 607 / 185 CTR 18 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Security – Debenture

Interest tax Act will not apply to interest received by assessee bank on securities / debentures held by the assessee under the category 'permanent'. (A.Y. 1993-94)

CIT v. United Western Bank Ltd. (2003) 259 ITR 312 / 127 Taxman 238 / 181 CTR 285 (Bom.) (High Court)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Miscellaneous Finance company – Interest on securities

Where the principal business of the respondent company was to accept deposits under various schemes, it was not a miscellaneous finance company within the meaning of section 2(5). Interest on securities cannot be treated as 'interest' under section 2 (7).

CIT v. Sahara India Savings & Investment Corporation Ltd. (2003) 185 CTR 136 / 134 Taxman 14 / 264 ITR 646 (All.)(High Court)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Finance lease – Interest component

Interest component of finance lease is not a chargeable interest under section 2(7) of the Interest-tax Act, 1974. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1998-99)

Union Bank of India v. Addl. CIT (2007) 108 TTJ 720 / 14 SOT 75 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Lease rent – Delayed payment – Compensation

Interest on delayed payment of lease rent, hire-purchase instalment, etc. is not exigible to interest tax. (A.Ys. 1996-97, 1997-98)

GE Capital Transportation Financial Services Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 101 TTJ 298 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Short term deposit – Securities – Bonds

Investments by way of short-term deposits, securities and bonds not being loans and advances, interest thereon is not exigible to interest tax. (A.Ys. 1992-93 to 1996-97)
Housing & Urban Development Corporation Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 936 / 5 SOT 918 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Bill discounting charges – Rediscounting

Assessee, after discounting the bills, having rediscounted the same to other institutions, only the discounting charges, net of rediscounting charges, is chargeable to interest-tax. (A.Ys. 1996-97, 1997-98)

GE Capital Transportation Financial Services Ltd. v. CIT (2006) 101 TTJ 298 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Chargeability – Credit institution

Assessee company's principal business was not of granting loans and advances and it having much larger income from other businesses than from loaning, it cannot be said to be a "credit institution" hence not chargeable to interest-tax. (A.Ys. 1993-94 to 1995-96)

Kanoi Industries (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 285 / 100 ITD 462 (Kol.)(Trib.)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Credit card – Service charges

Service charges received by the assessee bank from credit card holders on overdue payments could not be considered as interest on loans and advances and consequently are not exigible under the Interest-tax Act, 1974. (A.Y. 1997-98)

Central Bank of India v. Jt. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 280 / 99 ITD 34 (Mum.)(Trib.)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Hire purchase – Not chargeable

Assessee having been found to be owner of the vehicles, the transactions in question were hire-purchase transactions for purposes of interest-tax and income was not chargeable to interest tax. (A.Ys. 1996-97 to 1998-99)

Addl. CIT v. GE Capital Transportation Financial Services Ltd. (2006) 101 TTJ 304 (Delhi)(Trib.)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Corporate deposit – Interest

Inter-corporate deposit is neither a loan nor an advance and therefore, interest on inter-corporate deposit is not taxable under the Interest Tax Act. (A.Ys. 1998-99, 2000-01)

Utkarsh Fincap (P) Ltd. v. ITO (2006) 99 ITD 259 / 101 TTJ 210 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

S. 2(7) : Interest-tax – Deposit – Interest

Object and purpose of Interest Tax Act, 1974 is to levy tax on interest income earned on loans and advances. There is no provision in the Act which refers to deposit in contradistinction to loan or advances. Interest on deposit is not specifically excluded from definition under section 2(7).

Bajaj Auto Holdings Ltd v. Dy. CIT (2006) 281 ITR (AT) 154 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Section 4 : Charges of tax

S. 4 : Interest-tax – Charge of tax – Refinancing operations

Interest earned on refinancing operations is not taxable interest under the Interest-tax Act, 1974. (A.Ys. 1992-93, 1993-94)

HP State Industrial Development Corporation Ltd. v. CIT (2009) 17 DTR 26 / 226 CTR 590 (HP)(High Court)

Section 5 : Scope of chargeable interest

S. 5 : Interest-tax – Method of accounting – Charge [S. 21]

Assessee following cash system of account in respect of interest income. Computation of chargeable interest is to be on basis of total income received.

Kerala State Industrial Development Corp. Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 259 ITR 51 / 174 Taxation 766 / 180 CTR 192 / 128 Taxman 29 (SC)

S. 5 : Interest-tax – Hire purchase – Not chargeable

Where the assessee purchased the vehicles from manufacturer and then gave them to its customers on hire purchase agreement. In the event of default by the customer the assessee was entitled to repossess the vehicle. On these set of facts the Assessing Officer treated the transaction as finance transaction and levied interest tax. The High Court confirming the order of the Tribunal held that the transactions were in the nature of purchase agreement and not financing agreement so as to attract interest tax liability.

CIT v. G.E. Capital Transportation (2007) 197 Taxation 451 (Delhi)(High Court)

Section 10(B) : Reassessment

S. 10(B) : Interest-tax – Reassessment – Information – Audit objection

Reassessment on the basis of audit opinion on legal issue without application of mind is invalid.

Kanoi Industries (P) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2006) 102 TTJ 285 / 100 ITD 402 (Kol.)(Trib.)

Section 26C : Power to credit institutions to vary certain agreements

S. 26C : Interest-tax – Interest – Rounding up – Illegal

Higher amount of interest tax under Interest Tax Act and consequently, a higher amount of interest by way of rounding up collected by Banks from borrowers was illegal.

Indian Banks' Association v. Devkala Consultancy Service (2004) 267 ITR 179 / 137 Taxman
69 / 189 CTR 157 / 181 Taxation 43 (SC) / 11 SCC 1

Business Profits-tax Act, 1947

Section 12 : Definitions

S. 12 : Business Profits-tax Act – Rule 4A – Business Profit Tax Rules – Refund – Assessment Time barred – Not entitled to refund of tax

Where claim for refund on cancellation of regular assessment was held to be time barred. Assuming that there was a right in the respondent to claim the money, such right ought to have been exercised within a period of three years under the residuary article of the limitation Act. There was no doubt that by the time the assessee asserted his so called right, even this period had expired in respect of the assessment years in question. The contention based on Article 265 of the Constitution must also fail. Thus the assessee was not entitled to claim refund of tax.

UOI v. British India Corporation Ltd. (2004) 268 ITR 481 / 140 Taxman 357 / 190 CTR 385 / 183 Taxation 1 (SC)

The Estate Duty Act, 1953

Section 2 : Definitions

S. 2(15) : Estate Duty – Refunds – Property

Refunds which became due after the death of Mr. V. G. Saraf cannot be considered to be a property available at the time of the death. [Bombay High Court in the case of Estate of Late General Sir Shankar S. S. J. B. Rana v. CED (1990) 186 ITR 578 approved]. Thus claim of refund of income tax which was pending adjudication and stood determined only after death of deceased not to be considered as property passing on death.

CED v. Nalini V. Saraf (2009) 227 CTR 437 / 319 ITR 303 / 32 DTR 25 (SC) / (2010) 1 SCC 510

The Expenditure-tax Act, 1987

Section 3 : Application of the Act

S. 3 : Expenditure-tax – Residential unit – Word “any”.

The word ‘any’ occurring in section 3 cannot be restricted to one unit of residential accommodation. If it is restricted to one, it will mean that all the persons, who are accommodated in a hotel of which one room is rented out for ` 400 per day, are liable to pay expenditure tax. It is not the intention of the statute. The words ‘any unit’ of residential accommodation mean all the units of accommodation. (A.Ys. 1989-90, 1990-91)

CIT v. Abad Hotels India (P.) Ltd. (2005) 272 ITR 331 / 142 Taxman 29 / 193 CTR 408 (Ker.) (High Court)

S. 3 : Expenditure-tax – Rent – Purview

Tariff charged by assessee for some type of rooms being less than ` 1200, the assessee is out of the purview of the Expenditure-tax Act. (A.Ys. 1997-98, 1998-99)

Breeze Hotels (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2006) 103 TTJ 129 (Chennai)(Trib.)

The National Tax Tribunal Act, 2005

National Tax Tribunal Act, 2005 – Constitutional Validity – S. 5(5) & 7 – Article 323B

On petitions challenging the constitutional validity of the National Tax Tribunal Act, 2005, the Supreme Court held :

- (i) The UOI had agreed that appropriate would be made in the Act to ensure that only lawyers, Chartered Accountants and the parties in person would be permitted to appear before the National Tax Tribunal.
- (ii) In regard to section 5(5) dealing with the transfer of Members of the Tribunal from one State to another, the UOI agreed that the expression “consultation with the Chairperson” should be read and construed as “concurrence of the Chairperson”.
- (iii) In regard to section 7 providing for a selection committee comprising the Chief Justice or a judge of the Supreme Court and the Secretaries of the Ministry of Law and the Ministry of Finance, it was held that there was no question of the two Secretaries overriding the opinion of the Chief Justice or Judge, since primacy of the Chairperson was inbuilt and this aspect would be clarified.
- (iv) Matters relating to the National Tax Tribunal and challenge to article 323B of the Constitution of India raising other issues had to be heard separately.

Madras Bar Association v. CIT (2010) 324 ITR 166 / 190 Taxman 432 (SC)

Editorial:- Refer Y. R. Gandhi (2010) 156 Company Cases 392 (SC)

National Tax Tribunal Act, 2005 – Proposal – Amendments – Direction to legislate [S. 13]

The Hon'ble Court directed the Government to make necessary amendments that were proposed to be made. The Supreme Court agreed to examine the matters after such amendments as the Government might think appropriate were made giving liberty to the Government to mention the matter for listing after the amendments in the provisions of the Act were made.

Sandeep Goyal v. UOI (2007) 160 Taxman 171 / (2008) 298 ITR 10 / 204 Taxation 388 (SC)

National Tax Tribunal Ordinance, 2003 – Constitutional validity – Prima facie

National Tax Tribunal Ordinance, 2003 is constitutionally valid There is legislative competency and prima facie no violation of any provisions of the Constitution.

Amar Nath Sen v. UOI (2004) 265 ITR 362 / 135 Taxman 546 / 186 CTR 686 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 3 : National Tax Tribunal Ordinance, 2003 – Stay on – S. 3 at ordinance

Where the Constitutional validity of the National Tax Tribunal Ordinance, 2003 was challenged the respondents were restrained till the next date of hearing from issuing any notification as contemplated by or under section 3 of the Ordinance.

ITAT Bar Association v. UOI (2003) 264 ITR 726 / 136 Taxman 484 (Guj.)(High Court)

National Tax Tribunal Ordinance, 2003 – Pending cases – Transfer – High Court

Stay of Ordinance –Vires of the National Tax Tribunal ordinance, 2003, was under challenge and pending the petition an interim application was filed praying for stay of operation of ordinance, inter alia contending that once a notification is issued under section 3 all pending appeals and reference in High Court will stand transferred to the National Tax Tribunal and in that case various parties in appeals and references that are pending in the High Courts will be seriously prejudiced in as much as it will not be possible for such Benches to take up urgent matters so long as sufficient infrastructure is not set up for the Benches. In view of the aforesaid, the opposite parties were to be directed not to issue any notification as contemplated by or under section 3 of the said Ordinance till the next date.

All India Federation of Tax Practitioners v. UOI (2003) 133 Taxman 491 / 264 ITR 466 (Orissa)(High Court)

Voluntary Disclosure Scheme, 1997

Voluntary Disclosure Scheme 1997 – Finance Act (26) of 1997 – Criminal Procedure Code – Prosecution – Benefit of scheme

Person against whom only F.I.R. filed is not a person against whom prosecution is pending. Prosecution gets initiated when summons is issued by court on report of investigating officer, therefore, the benefit of scheme cannot be denied to a person against whom only F.I.R. is filed, therefore the order of Tribunal was confirmed.

CIT v. Meena Goyal (Smt) (2011) Tax. L. R. 936 / 334 ITR 428 / 243 CTR 178 / 59 DTR 337 (Uttarakhand)(High Court)

Voluntary Disclosure Scheme 1997 – Purposive Construction – Revoking of Certificate

When the certificate issued to the firm for disclosure under VDIS was declared null and void as the search was conducted on the partners of the firm before the disclosure was made in the hands of firm and this fact was not brought to the notice of the officer. The Supreme Court declined to interfere even though the firm and partners are different persons for the purposes of the Act, holding that keeping in view the purport and object which the scheme seeks to achieve; we are of the opinion that in place of literal interpretation, rule of purposive construction should be applied. (A.Ys. 1994-95, 1995-96)

Tanna & Modi v. CIT (2007) 292 ITR 209 / 210 CTR 273 / 161 Taxman 329 / 201 Taxation 194 (SC)

Voluntary Disclosure Scheme, 1997 – Time for Payment – Mandatory – No extension [S. 67]

Time for payment fixed under section 67 of Voluntary Disclosure of Income Scheme, 1997 is mandatory and not extendable.

Hemlatha Gargya v. CIT (2003) 259 ITR 1 / 128 Taxman 190 / 182 CTR 107 / 174 Taxation 758 (SC)

Voluntary Disclosure Scheme, 1997 – Tax liability – Payment – Detail of payment

Where entire tax liability was not paid within a period of three months as contemplated under VDIS, declarant was not entitled to get benefit of scheme and in such a case, amount paid by assessee beyond period of 90 days under scheme was to be refunded to petitioner subject to petitioner producing necessary proof of such payments

Sajan Enterprises v. CIT (2006) 282 ITR 636/ 151 Taxman 164 / 200 CTR 548 (Bom.)(High Court)

Voluntary Disclosure Scheme, 1997 – Payment after due date – Refund of tax paid

Where payment of last instalment of tax due was made beyond prescribed period of ninety days, assessee became entitled to either refund or adjustment of such instalment which was paid after due date

R. Ranganatha Reddiar v. ITO (2005) 194 CTR 479 (Ker.)(High Court)

Voluntary Disclosure Scheme, 1997 – Limitation Act – Condonation of delay – Pendency before tribunal

Where appeal was filed along with application under section 5 of Limitation Act for condonation of delay before Tribunal, once delay was condoned by Tribunal, appeal would be said to be pending before Tribunal on date when a declaration was filed. (A.Y. 1993-94)

Janki Das Lachchmi Narain v. CIT (2005) 274 ITR 155 / 146 Taxman 641 / 196 CTR 53 (All.)

Voluntary Disclosure Scheme, 1997 and Wealth Tax, Act, 1976 – Form of declaration – Production in evidence [S. 12]

A covering letter in respect of disclosure made under Voluntary Disclosure Scheme which only referred to fact of disclosure and did not contain disclosure itself, would not constitute a 'declaration' and cannot be barred u/s 12 from being required to be produced.

Boman P. Irani v. Manilal P. Gala (2004) 267 ITR 555/ 134 Taxman 783 / 187 CTR 331 (Bom.)(High Court)

Voluntary Disclosure of Income Scheme, 1997 – Finance Act, 1997 – Condonation of delay – Payment of tax

Condonation of delay in making payment of tax is not permissible. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Elango Industries Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 141 Taxman 259 / 188 CTR 62 (Mad.)(High Court)

Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme, 1998

Section 87 : Definitions

S. 87 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Condition Precedent – Tax Arrears – Rectification of Order – Not communicated to the Assessee – Vitiates order of Rectification [S. 87, 90, 154]

When the declaration was filed there was tax arrears, however, subsequently due to rectification order there was no tax arrears. Benefit of scheme cannot be denied. Relevant date is date of declaration. Order passed suffered from malice in law. (A.Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Shaily Engineering Plastic Ltd. (2002) 258 ITR 437 / 179 CTR 14 / (2003) 126 Taxman 177 / 179 CTR 14 (SC)

S. 87 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Excise Duty – Penalty [S. 88, 91, 93]

Declarations were filed by the company and also by the officers but tax already paid independently by directors against due from them. The Court held that settlement of company meant settlement of officers. Since directors having paid tax independently and nothing due from them, they have not to be allowed refund of tax paid.

UOI v. Onkar S. Kunwar & Others (2003) 174 Taxation 213 / (2002) 258 ITR 761 / 125 Taxman 121 / 177 CTR 281 (SC)

S. 87 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Declaration – Reassessment – Immunity [S. 88, 90, 91, 92, 94 – Income Tax Act - S. 142, 143, 156]

Upon declaration being made tax arrears being determined, paid and certificate issued under KVSS, there is no jurisdiction for the Assessing Officer to reopen the assessment by a notice under section 148 except where case falls under the proviso (2) of sub-section (1) of section 90 of the scheme and it is found that any particular material furnished in the declaration is found to be false. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Killick Nixon Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2002) 258 ITR 627 / 125 Taxman 1055 / (2003) 172 Taxation 373 / 178 CTR 387 (SC)

S. 87 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Tax Arrears – Pendency of Appeal [S. 88, 89, 95]

The determination of the “tax arrears” under section 87(m) of the Finance Act (No. 2) Act, 1998 for Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme is that which was modified and not the modification itself. There is no requirement under section 87(m)(i) for the modification to have been completed on or before March 31, 1998. Designated Authority had no power to question the possible outcome of appeal. No power to hold that appeal etc. is sham, ineffective or infructuous. Supreme Court directed the designated authority to consider the application. (A.Y. 1992-93)

Renuka Datla (Dr.) (Mrs.) and Others v. CIT (2003) 259 ITR 258 / 173 Taxation 51 / 179 CTR 218 / 126 Taxman 427 (SC) / AIR 2003 SC 839

Section 88 : Settlements of tax payable

S. 88 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Time limit for payment – Relaxation

Time limit for payment of amount payable under KVSS under section 88 of the Finance (No.2) Act, 1998 cannot be relaxed.

Mangilal S. Jain v. CIT (2004) 267 ITR 693 / 136 Taxman 267 / 187 CTR 315 (Karn.)(High Court)

S. 89 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Arrears – Excise Duty – Appeal Pending

Assessee made application under Samadhan Scheme, when the appeal was pending before the Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals). The Commissioner of (Appeals) holding that appeal to be barred by time. Designated authority dismissing application as out of time. Appellate Tribunal holding that appeal before the Commissioner of (Appeals) within time. Application under Samadhan Scheme, filed pending appeal, not barred.

Swan Mills Ltd. v. UOI (2008) 296 ITR 1 / (2007) 211 CTR 78 / 165 Taxman 621 (SC) / 7 SCC 29

Section 90 : Time and manner payment of tax arrears

S. 90 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Immunity – Sales Tax laws [S. 91]

The provisions of Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme, 1998, such as finality of order under section 90(3) and immunity under section 91 thereof cannot be availed in proceedings under the Sales-tax laws of the State.

Master Cables Pvt. Ltd. v. State of Kerala (2007) 296 ITR 8 / 210 CTR 86 / 162 Taxman 479 / 200 Taxation 246 (SC) / 5 SCC 416

S. 90 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Appeal – Revision – Tax arrears – Interest [S. 90(1)]

If appeal or revision is pending on date of filing of declaration under section 88, it is not for department to hold that appeal / revision was sham, ineffective or infructuous. Where assessee's declarations filed under scheme were rejected by department and, on writ, High Court directed department to entertain declarations, and to determine payment of tax arrear under section 90(1) with an additional direction to make assessee liable to pay interest on amount so determined, High Court's direction was not justified as assessee was not liable to pay interest as his liability would accrue only after ascertainment of disputed tax under section 90. (A.Ys. 1984-85 to 1991-92)

CIT v. Shatrusailya Digvijaysingh Jadeja (2006) 190 Taxation 3 / (2005) 277 ITR 435 / 147 Taxman 566 / 197 CTR 590 (SC) / 7 SCC 294

S. 90 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Reference application – Application for condonation of delay – Maintainability [S. 264]

Pendency of application for condoning delay in filing petition under section 264 of the Income Tax Act, 1961, at the time of filing of petition under Scheme, would not make declaration under the scheme maintainable.

Computwel Systems (P.) Ltd. v. W. Hasan (2003) 260 ITR 86 / 129 Taxman 67 / 184 CTR 92 / (2000) 10 SCC 403 (SC)

S. 90 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Indirect Taxes – Custom Duty – Prosecution – Criminal Law – Cheating [S. 87(j), 89, 95(iia), (iii)]

If an assessee takes the option under the Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme, 1998, he obtains immediate immunity under any proceedings under any law and all laws in force. The true fact and import of the Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme, 1998, is that the Scheme is availed of and the formalities complied with including the payment of duty, the immunity granted under the provisions of the Customs Act 1962, also extends to such offences that may prima facie be made out on identical obligations, i.e., of evasion of customs duty and violation of any notification under the Act. If the disputed demand is settled by the Authority and the pending proceedings are withdrawn by the importer, the balance demand against the importer shall be dropped and the importer shall be immune from penal proceedings under any law on force.

Hira Lal Hari Lal Bhagwati v. CBI (2003) 262 ITR 466 / 176 Taxation 231 / 182 CTR 1 / 129 Taxman 989 / 5 SCC 257 / (2003) 182 CTR 1 (SC)

S. 90 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Revision petition [S. 90, 264]

Mere fact that assessee had filed revision petition under section 264 and declaration under scheme simultaneously on eve of closure of scheme, would not disentitle him from getting benefit of scheme.

E.J. Thomas v. ACIT (2006) 281 ITR 40 / (2005) 149 Taxman 37 / 199 CTR 83 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 90 : Kar Vivad Samadhan scheme – Pendency of application before settlement commission – Validity of samadhan [S. 80, 245D]

Where no order had been passed by Settlement Commission under section 254D(4) on assessee's application till the time designated authority granted certificate to assessee under section 90(2) of Finance (No. 2) Act, 1998 under Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme, pendency of application before Settlement Commission would not make KVSS inapplicable and assessee was entitled to withdraw cases pending before Settlement Commission. (A.Ys. 1988-89 to 1993-94)

D'souza Motors v. ITSC (2005) 277 ITR 517 / 200 CTR 163 / 154 Taxman 25 (Bom.)(High Court)

Section 91 : Immunity from prosecution and imposition of penalty in certain cases

S. 91 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Immunity – Offences under Prevention of Corruption Act [S. 95]

Immunity under Kar Vivad Scheme is not available in respect of offences under Prevention of Corruption Act. Public servants who can never file declaration would not come within the purview thereof. Section 95 Clause (iii) would be attracted, if inter alia, any prosecution for any offence enumerated there under has been initiated on or before filing of declaration.

State, CBI v. Shashi Balasubramanian (2006) 157 Taxman 261 / 206 CTR 587 / 289 ITR 8 (SC)

Section 95 : Scheme not to apply in certain cases

S. 95 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – No appeal – Reference – Writ

No appeal, reference, writ petition or application was pending hence, the rejection of declaration was proper.

Lajya Dyeing & Bleaching Works v. UOI (2003) 263 ITR 763 / 185 CTR 329 / (2004) 178 Taxation 120 / 134 Taxman 345 (SC)

S. 95 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Finance Act, 1998 – Pending appeal

For the purpose of admissibility of a declaration under the KVSS, it is enough that an appeal is pending, even if it is irregular or incomplete.

Better Label Manufacturing Co. Ltd. v. Commissioner of Customs (2008) 11 DTR 338 / 219 CTR 205 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 95 : Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Appeal Pendency – Admission

Where appeal filed by assessee before Tribunal was not an admitted appeal on date of submission of declaration but it was only pending appeal, declaration was hit by section 95(1)(c) of the Finance Act, 1988 warranting its rejection.

Shree Amarlal Kirana Stores v. CIT (2004) 267 ITR 48 / 138 Taxman 263 (MP)(High Court)

Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme 1998 – Finance (No. 2) Act, 1998 – Discrimination – Article 14 of Constitution of India

Discrimination resulting from fortuitous circumstances arising out of particular situations, in which some of tax payers find them selves is not hit by Article 14 if Legislation as such is of general application and does not single them out for harsh treatment. Test adopted to determine whether a classification is reasonable or not are that classification must be founded on an intelligible differentia which distinguishes person or things that are grouped together from others left out of groups and that differentia must have rational relation to object sought to be achieved by statute in question. Section 87(m), (ii)(b), which denies benefit of Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme to those who were in arrears of tax as on 31-3-1998 but to whom demand notices /show cause notices were issued after 31-3-1998 is based on a reasonable basis which is firstly amount to duties, cess, interest, fine or penalty must have been determined as on 31-3-1998 but not paid as on that date of declaration and secondly date of issuance of demand or show cause notice on or before 31-3-1998, which is not disputed but duties remain unpaid on date of filing of declaration. Therefore scheme 1998 does not violate equal protection clause where there is an essential difference and real basis for classification which is made.

UOI v. Nitdip Textile Processors (P) Ltd. (2011) 203 Taxman 1 / 245 CTR 241 / 63 DTR 145 (SC)

Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Writ – Pendency – Admission

Mere pendency of the writ petition is not enough for maintaining a declaration, under KVSS; it should be admitted and pending. (A.Ys. 1961-62 to 1990-91)

Yuvraj Tukoji Rao Puar v. UOI (2004) 271 ITR 153 / 193 CTR 142 / 143 Taxman 167 (MP)(High Court)

Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Excess tax paid – Refund

Excess amount paid by petitioner under protest under KVSS because of mistake by commissioner in computing amount payable by petitioner, had to be refunded. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Marigold Engineers P. Ltd. v. UOI (2004) 141 Taxman 4 / 191 CTR 103 / 274 CTR 17 (P&H) (High Court)

Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Certificate – Delayed challenge

Highly belated challenge to certificate if intimation determining amount of tax payable by petitioner, would have to be dismissed on ground of laches.

Raj Kumar Jain (HUF) v. Designated Authority (as CIT) (2004) 265 ITR 175 / 136 Taxman 514 (P&H)(High Court)

Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme – Arrears – Protective assessment

For purpose of settlement under KVSS, there should be factual arrears that could be demanded legally; where there was only protective assessment and protective demand assessee's declaration/application was rightly rejected. (A.Y. 1995-96)

S. Jaganathan v. ACIT (2004) 266 ITR 305 / 135 Taxman 356 / 187 CTR 410 (Karn.)(High Court)

ALLIED LAWS

Andhra Pradesh Land Grabbing (Prohibition) Act, 1982

Andhra Pradesh Land Grabbing (Prohibition) Act, 1982 : Tenancy and Land laws – Agricultural Land – User of land – Urban area

Fact that agricultural land in question is included in urban area is not enough to conclude that user of the same had been altered with passage of time.

N. Srinivasa Rao v. Special Court under the AP Land Grabbing Act & Ors. (2006) (4) SCC 214

Bengal Agricultural Income-tax Act, 1944

Bengal Agricultural Income-tax Act, 1944 – Tea Estate – Green Tea Leaves

Assessee having tea estate, assessee selling tea manufactured in its factory as well as Green tea leaves. Assessee is liable to pay agricultural Income Tax on 60% of agricultural income determined by Officer in the Centre for purposes of Income Tax Act, 1961. Assessee is also liable under Bengal Agricultural Income Tax Act, 1944, in regard to income from sale of green tea leaves.

UOI v. Belgachi Tea Co. Ltd. & Others (2008) 304 ITR 1 / 206 Taxation 547 / 216 CTR 337 / 7 DTR 100 / 170 Taxman 209 (SC)

Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1973

Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1973 – Prosecution – Ss. 8, 9, 50, 51 and 56

Adjudication proceedings and criminal proceedings can be initiated simultaneously and independent of each other – finding in the adjudication proceeding is not binding in the criminal proceeding – adjudication proceedings does not attract the provisions of Art. 20(2) of the Constitution or section 300 of the Cr. PC. If the exoneration in the adjudication proceeding is on the merit, a criminal prosecution on the same facts cannot be allowed to continue.

Standard Chartered Bank v. Directorate of Enforcement (2006) 130 Comp Cas 341 (SC) distinguished.

Radheshyam Kejriwal v. State of West Bengal and Anr. (2011) 333 ITR 58 / (266) ELT 294 (SC)

Foreign Exchange Regulation Act – Offence – Company – Punishment with fine alone permissible – Interpretation – Penal Law

Though a company cannot be sentenced to imprisonment, for that reason only company cannot be given complete immunity from prosecution for graver offences where mandatory punishment of imposition of fine which is also a prescribed punishment. Penal law strict interpretation.

Standard Chartered Bank & Ors. v. Directorate of Enforcement (2005) 275 ITR 81 / 145 Taxman 154 / 195 CTR 465 / 188 Taxation 329 (SC) / (2006) 4 SCC 278

Income-tax Appellate Tribunal

Income-tax Appellate Tribunal – Appointment of Members – Government's decision not to appoint ITAT Members till amendment providing for 2 years' appointment upheld – Income- tax Appellate Tribunal (Recruitment and Conditions of Service) Rules, 1963 - Rule 4

Out of 23 vacancies in the post of Judicial Member (JM) & Accountant Member (AM), the Selection Board recommended 18 candidates in the main select list and 4 candidates in the wait list. Out of the 18 selected candidates, 2 were not cleared by Vigilance. On 26.04.2006, the 16 were approved by the Appointments Committee of the Union Cabinet for a period of 2 years. The Law Ministry was directed to first amend the ITAT (Recruitment and Conditions of Service) Rules, 1963, so as to provide for appointment of the members of the ITAT for a period of two years. As the selection list was not given effect to pending the amendment in the Rules, the Revenue Bar Association filed a Writ Petition in the Madras High Court for a mandamus to give effect to the selection list which was allowed. This was challenged by the UOI in the Supreme Court but the SLP was dismissed with the direction that all formalities to give effect to the Selection List should be completed. The Appointments Committee thereafter approved the names of all the 16 selected candidates and appointed them till the date of retirement on attaining the age of 62 years. On 31.08.2007, the Appointments Committee also decided that the appointment of members of the ITAT in future will be taken up only after the recruitment rules of ITAT are amended. In 2008, the candidates who were in the "wait list" filed applications in the Central Administrative Tribunal for directions for their appointment which was opposed by the UOI on the ground that the Appointments Committee had decided that no further appointment of members in the ITAT would be made until the ITAT Recruitment Rules were amended. The CAT allowed the applications and directed that the wait-listed candidates be considered for filling up the advertised vacancies existing in the posts of JM & AM. The UOI challenged the order of CAT in the Delhi High Court contending that the vacancies in the post of JM & AM can be filled up only after the recruitment rules were amended as decided by the Appointments Committee. The High Court dismissed the challenge on the ground that the recruitment rules had already been amended by insertion of Rule 4(a) and there was nothing in the amendment which disqualified the wait-listed candidates from being appointed as members of the ITAT. It was also held that the selection having been conducted by a high-power Selection Board presided over by a sitting Judge of the Supreme Court deserved to be given due weightage and consideration. It was also held that the only way of reducing the backlog was to fill up the vacancies at the earliest and by not doing so, the UOI was prolonging the agony of a large number of assesses apart from depriving itself of its legitimate dues which depends upon the verdict of the ITAT. On appeal by the UOI, Supreme Court HELD reversing the CAT & High Court:

Under Rule 4, a person on the select panel has no vested right to be appointed to the post for which he has been selected, but he has a right to be considered for appointment. The candidates in the wait-list, not having been approved by the Appointments Committee, were not persons selected for appointment pursuant to the decision that further appointments would be made only after the amendment of the Rules. As the Central Government is both the rule making authority as well as the appointing authority of any member of the ITAT, if it has taken a decision to undertake appointments in future after amendment of the rules, it is difficult for the Court to hold that the reason given by the Government for not making any further appointments because of the proposed amendments to the rules is not a justifiable or proper reason and that the decision of the Government in not approving the wait list of candidates recommended by the Selection Board is not proper. The High Court's reliance of Rule 4(a) was wrong because this had been inserted on 26.04.2004 and was not in the mind of the Appointments Committee when it took the decision on 26.04.2006 and 31.08.2007 to make further appointments only after the Rules were amended. As the immediate need for filling up the vacancies has been met by the appointment of the 16 Members, the Court cannot compel the Government to make the appointments from the wait-listed candidates by a writ of mandamus.

UOI v. Pradip Kumar Kedia (2012) 204 Taxman 71 (SC)

Income-tax Appellate Tribunal – President – Power – The President of the Tribunal has no power to write the Members' ACR

The Petitioner, a Judicial Member of the Tribunal, was superseded to the post of Vice President by his junior Mr. P. Mohanarajan. The Petitioner claimed that the supersession was on account of adverse Annual Confidential Reports ("ACRs") written by the President of the Tribunal which had misguided the high level Selection Committee without the Petitioner being given an opportunity to represent against the ACR. The Petitioner's challenge before the Central Administrative Tribunal was rejected on the ground that the Selection Committee had decided on the basis of merit. The Petitioner challenged the decision before the High Court and raised two issues: (i) whether the post of Vice President is a promotional post to that of the Member of the ITAT or not? & (ii) whether the President of the ITAT has the authority to record the ACRs of the Members & if so, whether the Government has the right to review the ACRs of the Members? HELD by the High Court:

- (i) The Vice Presidents of the Tribunal are appointed from amongst the Members in terms of Rule 7A of the Tribunal Members (Recruitment and Conditions of Service) Rules, 1963. Under Rule 7C, the criteria for selection is merit. The argument that because there is a merger of the pay scales of the posts of Members and Vice Presidents, there is also a merger of the posts and hence the Members cannot be subjected to selection process is not acceptable. There is only a unification of the pay and not a merger of the posts. Under the scheme of the Act, the post of Vice President is over and above the level of Member & carries higher responsibilities, higher pay band and is definitely a promotional post from that of the Member;
- (ii) The Tribunal is a judicial body and while the President exercises administrative control over the Benches, he has no power to write the ACRs of the Members. Further, being a judicial body, the Tribunal should have judicial autonomy and therefore, the Government cannot act like a reviewing authority;
- (iii) On merits, the Petitioner's ACR showed that while he was a hard working and knowledgeable person, he behaved in a rude manner with the colleagues and his rigid tendency and non-adjustable nature had invited many problems, resulting in his frequent transfers. These must have weighed with the Selection Committee. As the ACRs were illegally recorded by the President and reviewed by the Government, the Selection Committee must reconsider the claim of the Petitioner on merits de hors the ACRs;
- (iv) On the conduct of the Petitioner, the Court observed that it was "pained" & "disturbed" by the material on record that showed the he was "arrogant" and "would always throw to winds the well established judicial conventions" including "instances of keeping the matters for writing dissenting orders for months together and fighting with the other Members on silly aspects". It was noted that the Petitioner was "transferring his personal feelings against his colleagues into the orders circulated by them and nurturing unnecessary hatred and ill-feelings" and advice was given that the Petitioner should "mend his ways and conduct himself in a dignified manner and follow the established judicial conventions, so as to maintain the decorum on and off the dais".

Uttam Bir Singh Bedi v. UOI (2012) 204 Taxman 284 (Mad.)(High Court)

Indian Registration Act, 1908

Indian Registration Act – Firm – Dissolution – Partners

Firm is not an independent entity. Only a compendious name given to partnership for convenience, partners are real owners of assets of firm. So long as the partnership continues each partner is interested in all assets of the firm as each partner is owner of the assets to the extent of his share in the partnership. The assets which heretofore belonged to the partners will after dissolution of the firm stand allotted to the partners individually. There is no transfer or assignment of ownership in the assets. Award distributing residue of assets of firm, after settlement of accounts, between partners in accordance with their shares does not transfer or assign interest in any asset, hence, does not require registration under section 17 of the Indian Registration Act 1908.

N. Khadervali Saheb & Another v. N. Gudu Sahib (Decd.) & Other (2003) 261 ITR 1 / 175 Taxation 431 / 129 Taxman 597 (SC)

Orissa Sales Tax Act, 1947

Orissa Sales Tax Act, 1947 – Refund – Interest – Stay Order – Order of High Court

Refund should be made of amount deposited with interest from date of deposit of amount pursuant to order of High Court.

Tata Refractories Ltd. & Anr. v. Sales Tax Officer & Ors. (2003) 260 ITR 312 / 129 Taxman 544 (SC)

Plantations Tax (Kerala)

Plantations Tax (Kerala) – Finance Act – Revision of rates of tax

The State can always revise the rates in the middle of the financial year provided the assessable extent of the land comprised in the plantation as on the first day of the financial year is not altered.

State of Kerala v. Alex George and Another (2005) 185 Taxation 443 / 1 SCC 299 / (2004) 271 ITR 290 / 192 CTR 581 (SC)

Right to Information Act, 2005

Right to Information Act – Exemption - Income Tax Assessment – Informer

If an informer is using RTI to get information which can help him to claim a reward by showing that tax has been evaded, it cannot be considered to be misuse of information in any way, nor it can be considered to be unwarranted invasion of privacy of assessee.

Rakesh Kumar Gupta v. Public Information Officer, New Delhi (2010) 190 Taxman 46 (CIC-New Delhi)

Sales Tax

Sales Tax – Board of Revenue – Circulars – Binding Nature – Reassessment – High Court Judgments Contrary to Circulars

Assessing Officer passing assessment order treating field latex and centrifuged latex as the same commodity and granting reliefs. High Court judgment holding that they were different commercial commodities. The Court held that reassessment is not permissible so long as Circular of Board of Revenue was there treating them as same commercial commodity. Circular is binding on the assessing Officer. (A.Ys. 1997-98, 1998-99)

Sales Tax – Goods in Transport – Loss of Revenue – Penalty – Strict liability – Exclusion of Mens Rea – Civil Liability

Declaration in Form No. 18A / 18C has to be given in respect of goods in the movement of inter state Sales. It is for contravention of section 78(2) that penalty is attracted under section 78(5). Whether the goods are put in movement under local sales, imports exports or inter State transactions they are goods in movement and therefore they have to be supported by the requisite declaration. It is not open to the assessee to contravene and say that the goods were exempt. Without disclosing the nature of transaction it cannot be said that the transaction was exempt.

Guljag Industries v. Commercial Taxes Officer (2007) 293 ITR 584 (SC) / 7 SCC 269

Sales Tax – Goods – Transfer of Right to use Intellectual Property – Test – Corporeal or Tangible Property – Software Programme

A transaction of sale of computer package off the self is clearly a sale of "Goods" with in the meaning of that in section 2(n) of the Andhra Pradesh General Sales Tax Act, 1957. The term "all materials, articles and commodities" in section 2(h) of the Act includes both tangible and intangible / incorporeal property which is capable of abstraction, consumption and use and which can be transmitted, transferred, delivered, stored, possessed, etc. The software programmes have all these attributes.

Tata Consultancy Services v. State of Andhra Pradesh (2004) 271 ITR 401 / 192 CTR 257 / 141 Taxman 132 (SC)

Editorial:- The Supreme Court did not decide the question whether customs made software would be goods.

Service Tax

Service Tax – Activation of SIM – Sale or service – Liable to tax

The amount received by the cellular company from its subscribers towards SIM cards forms part of the taxable value for levy of service tax, as SIM cards are never sold as goods independent of the services provided and therefore, the value of the taxable service is calculated on the gross total amount received by the operator from the subscribers. (A.Ys. 1997-98 & 1998-99)

Idea Mobile Communications Ltd. v. CCEC (2011) 59 DTR 209 / 243 CTR 1 (SC)

Service Tax – Chartered Accountants – Legislative competence

The Supreme Court held that the Parliament has legislative competence to levy service tax by way of provisions in the Finance Act, 1994 and Finance Act, 1998, under entry 97 of List I of Schedule VII of the Constitution of India. The taxes on service is a different subject as compared to taxes on profession, trade, calling, etc. therefore entry 60 of the List II and entry 97/92C of the List I operate in different spheres.

Therefore, the Supreme Court upheld the levy of service tax on chartered accountants, cost accountants and architects.

All India Federation of Tax Practitioners v. UOI (2008) 202 Taxation 168 / (2007) 293 ITR 406 / 211 CTR 449 / 170 Taxman 274 / 7 SCC 527 / 9 VST 126 (SC)

Service Tax – Legislative Powers – Principle of Discrimination

Service tax imposed on provider of services singling out only customers of goods transport operators and clearing and forwarding agents for imposing liability to pay the tax not discriminatory. Power to remove infirmities in earlier legislation and make retrospective amendment is valid. Provision making customers receiving services liable in the case of services by goods transport operators and clearing agents held to be valid.

Gujarat Gammon India Ltd. v. Spl. Chief Secretary & Ors. (2006) 6 RC 239 (SC) / 3 SCC 354 Gujrat Ambuja Cement Ltd. & Ann. v. UOI & Anr. (2005) 274 ITR 194 / 188 Taxation 360 / 194 CTR 428 / 144 Taxman 145 (SC)

Service Tax – Photography Service – Letter of Minister

A Mere challenge to the validity of a letter of the Ministry of Finance clarifying the provisions of the Finance Act, is not enough. The Challenge has to be the provisions of the Finance Act. Levy of service tax on gross amount charged by the service provider for service rendered by him is valid.

C. K. Jidheesh v. UOI & Others (2005) 279 ITR 118 / 199 CTR 212 / 149 Taxman 446 / (2006) 192 Taxation 22 (SC)

Service Tax – Broad Casting Agency – Interest - Retrospective Legislation – Interest

Merely selling time slots for advertising, obtaining sponsors for serials, etc. on telecast channels, liability to pay service tax arises after amendment and validation section introduced in 2002. Liability to pay interest arises only thereafter. It is permissible for the legislature to retrospectively legislate, such retrospectivity not to create an offence retrospectively. Liability to pay interest would arise on default and is really in the nature of a quasi-punishment. Such liability although created retrospectively could not entail the punishment of payment of interest with retrospective effect.

Star India (P.) Ltd. v. CCE (2006) 280 ITR 321 / 201 CTR 63 / 150 Taxman 128 (SC) / 4 SCC 130

Service Tax – Arts. 246, 248, 366(29A) & Sch. VII, List I, Entry 97 & List II, Entry 54; Constitution of India – Ss. 65(10), 65(12), 65(72)(zm), 65(105)(zm) & 66 – Finance Act, 1994: Service tax on Lease and Hire Purchase Transactions – Constitutional Validity

Service-tax imposed by the amended section 66 of the Finance Act, 1994 on the value of taxable services referred to in section 65(105)(zm) r/w 65(12) insofar as it relate to financial leasing services including equipment leasing and hire-purchase is within the legislative competence of the Parliament under Entry 97 of List I of Sch. VII of the Constitution.

Association of Leasing & Financial Service Companies v. UoI & Ors. (2010) 46 DTR 209 / 235 CTR 521 (SC)

Service Tax – Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, 1960 – Chartered Accountant

Service charges on Chartered Accountants.

Circular dated 4/6/1992 issued by commissioner of cooperative societies levying of service charge on CA/ auditors, has no legal sanction.

Maharashtra Certified Auditors Association (Regd.) v. State of Maharashtra (2004) 141 Taxman 112 (Bom.)(High Court)

Service Tax – Levy on Mandap keepers for services including Catering – Legislative Powers – Incidental encroachment

The provisions of sections 65, 66, and 67(o) [Now 67(1)] of the Finance Act, 1994, and rule 2(1)(d)(ix) of the Service Tax Rules 1994, imposing Service Tax on the services, rendered by mandap keepers are within the legislative competence of Parliament and are valid. The service tax legislation is made by Parliament under the residuary provisions of Article 246(3) of the Constitution of India. The power to levy service tax can be traced to entry 97 of list I of schedule VII to the Constitution and Parliament does not lack legislative competence so far as the levy of service tax is concerned.

Tamil Nadu Kalyana Mandapam Assn. v. UOI (2004) 267 ITR 9 / 181 Taxation 15 / 188 CTR 297 / 136 Taxman 596 (SC)

Service Tax – Software – Goods

Though software is "goods", its supply may be a "service" and not a "sale".

Infotech Software Dealers Association v. UOI / (2010) 236 CTR 58 / 46 DTR 297 (Mad.)(High Court)

Sur Tax Act

Companies (Profits) Sur Tax Act, 1984 – Computation of Capital – Consideration less than book value – Schedule II

Where assessee company was formed for purpose of taking over Indian undertakings of several sterling tea companies which were registered in UK and operating in India and RBI granted approval for such arrangement against payment of lump sum consideration which was lower than book value of assets shown by assessee as per RBI requirement, difference between book value of assets and consideration paid shown as 'other reserve' by assessee in its balance sheet was to be treated as capital for purposes of surtax assessment. (A.Ys. 1980-81 to 1982-83)

George Williamson (Assam) Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 278 ITR 102 / 148 Taxman 252 / 198 CTR 106 (SC) / 7 SCC 541

Special Courts (Trial of offences relating to transactions in Securities) Act, 1992

Special Courts (Trial of offences relating to transactions in Securities) Act, 1992 – Recovery of Taxes – Special Court – Provisions of Special Court Act prevailing over the provisions of the Income Tax Act – Intervention Application by TRO

M/S. Dhanraj Mills (Pvt.) Ltd., owning money from M/S. Killicks Nixon Pvt. Ltd. and its subsidiaries notified as a party under section 3(2) of the Special Court. Property of Killick Nixon Pvt. Ltd. & its subsidiaries put to auction in execution of decrees passed in favour of Dhanraj Mills Pvt. Ltd. The attached properties of Killick Nixon group became properties of the notified person under section 3(2) viz Dhanraj Mills Pvt. Ltd. The Court up held the dismissal of the intervention application of the Tax Recovery Officer and rejected the revenue's appeal.

Tax Recovery Officer v. Custodian appointed under the special Court (2008) 202 Taxation 213 / (2007) 293 ITR 69 / 163 Taxman 441 / 211 CTR 369 (SC)

The Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988

S. 3 : The Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act – Proof of source – Purchase money

Mere Proof of source of purchase money could not definitely establish benami nature of defendant's title.

V. Suseelan v. T.P. Leela (2004) 139 Taxman 386 (Ker.)(High Court)

S. 3 : The Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act – Married female – Sale deed

There is no presumption in the law that merely because female has her husband at the time of purchase, sale deed must be presumed to be benami for the husband.

Usha Bhar (Smt) v. Sanat Kumar Bhar (2004) 135 Taxman 526 (Cal.)(High Court)

S. 3 : The Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act – Wife and unmarried daughter – Beneficiary

Once property is purchased in name of wife and unmarried daughter, it shall be presumed that it is for their benefit unless contrary is proved.

Idam Swarajya Laxmi v. Idam vani (2004) 140 Taxman 333 (AP)(High Court)

S. 3 : The Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act – Transfer in favour of nominee – Beneficiary

Where purchaser to a contract sought transfer of property in favour of his nominees and consideration for said transfer was to be paid by said nominees seller could not claim that transaction in favour of nominees being benami was barred by section 3

Chandra Kant Gupta v. Krishna Manohar Bhatwara (2004) 140 Taxman 465 (Raj.)(High Court)

S. 3 : The Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act – Bank deposit – Wife – Beneficiary

In case of amount deposited by plaintiff in bank account in name of his wife, presumption would be that amount was deposited for benefit of wife.

U. Bhaskaran v. Bank of India (2004) 136 Taxman 228 / 189 CTR 277 (Mad.)(High Court)

S. 3(2) : The Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act – Unmarried daughter – Presumption

Section 3(2), makes it abundantly clear that a property purchased in name of an unmarried daughter is for her benefit, that would only be a presumption, but presumption can be rebutted by a person who is alleging to be the real owner of property by production of evidence or other materials before the Court.

Mahalingappa (G.) v. G. M. Savitha (2005) 147 Taxman 583 / 147 Taxman 583 (SC)

S. 4 : The Benami Transaction (Prohibition) Act – Prospective application – Suit – Maintainability

Where benami transaction had taken place in 1956 and claim was not pending on date on which 1988 Act came into force, bar under section 4 was not Benami Transaction Act, 1998 applicable and suit was not maintainable.

Baburao Sonu Sakharkar v. Abhiman Sonu Sakharkar (2004) 136 Taxman 545 (Bom.)(High Court)

S. 4 : The Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act – Suit – Limitation

Where it was held that the suit in respect of property in question was barred by virtue of provisions contained in section 4(1) & (2).

Patel Rajnikant Dhulabhai v. Patel Chandrakant Dhulabhai (2004) 137 Taxman 152 (Guj.)(High Court)

S. 4 : The Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act – Real owner – Suit against benamidar

In suit filed by real owner of property against his benamidar prior to coming into force of section 4, then alienations made by benamidar in favour of transferee before said section came into force would be bad in law.

Gopal Jha v. Bhubhneshwar Jha (2004) 141 Taxman 103 (Patna)(High Court)

The Central Excise Act, 1944

S. 11AC : The Central Excise Act, 1944 – Penalty – Evasion of duty – Concealment

Mensrea or conscious act of concealment is not essential in civil matter, yet the Assessing Officer must first ascertain whether conditions prescribed for imposition of penalty exist.

UOI v. Dharmendra Textile Processors (2008) 306 ITR 277 / 208 Taxation 67 (SC) referred to.

UOI v. Rajasthan Spg. & Wvg. Mills / CCE v. Lanco Industries Ltd. (2010) 214 Taxation 474 / (2009) 180 Taxman 609 / 224 CTR 1 / 23 DTR 158 / 13 SCC 448 / 224 CTR 1 (SC)

S. 35G : The Central Excise Act, 1944 – Appeal – Jurisdiction of High Court [S. 260A]

Appellant herein carried on business at Lucknow. It was assessed at the said place. The matter, however, ultimately came up before the Central Excise and Service Tax Appellate Tribunal (CESTAT), New Delhi. The said Tribunal exercises jurisdiction in respect of cases arising within the territorial limits of the State of Uttar Pradesh, National Capital Territory of Delhi and the State of Maharashtra. Having regard to the situs of the Tribunal, an appeal in terms of section 35G of the Central Excise Act, 1944 was filed before the Delhi High Court. A Division Bench of the said Court relying on an earlier Division Bench judgment in Bombay Snuff Pvt. Ltd. vs. Union of India had opined that it had no territorial jurisdiction in the matter. The Court held that jurisdiction not to be decided on the basis of location of Appellate Tribunal but on the basis of the place of assessment. High Court was correct in its view. Appeals dismissed.

Ambica Industries v. Commissioner of Central Excise (2007) 9 RC 181 / 6 SCC 769 / 213 ELT 323 (SC) / (2009) 20 VST 1 (SC)

S. 65 : The Central Excise Act, 1944 – Finance Act, 1994 – Computer Training Institute [S. 93]

Notification dated 10th September, 2004 issued under section 93 of the Finance Act, 1994 did not include "computer training institute" within its ambit, viz. vocational and recreational training institute.

CCE v. Sunwin Technosolution (P) Ltd. (2010) 47 DTR 113 / 236 CTR 117 (SC)

The Central Excise Act, 1944 – High Court – Reference – Condonation of Delay – Powers

The High Court has no power to condone the delay in filing a reference application beyond the period of 180 days under section 35H(1) of the Central Excise Act, 1944, prior to its omission by Act No. 49 of 2005 with effect from December, 2005.

CIT v. Hongo India (P) Ltd. & Anr. (2009) 315 ITR 449 / 223 CTR 225 / 22 DTR 9 (SC)

The Central Excise Act, 1944 – Assessment – Relief – Rights of an assessee – Wrong section applied

It is now a well-settled principle of law that wrong mentioning of a section would not be a ground to refuse relief to an assessee if he is otherwise entitled thereto. If for reasons recorded by the departmental authorities in rejecting a contention raised by the assessee, grant of relief to him on another ground is justified, it would be open to the departmental authorities and the Tribunal, and indeed they would be under a duty to grant that relief. The right of the assessee to relief is not restricted to the plea raised by him.

Shree Hari Chemicals Export Ltd. v. UOI & Anr. (2006) 1 SCC 396 / AIR 2006 SC 693 / (2005) 193 ELT 257 (SC)

The Central Excise Act, 1944 – Central Board Circulars – Administrative Directions

Circular giving administrative directions allocating work between Officers of department cannot oust jurisdiction conferred by Act.

Pahwa Chemicals P. Ltd. v. Commissioner of Central Excise (2005) 274 ITR 87 (SC)

The Central Excise Act, 1944 – Circular – Binding Nature – Supreme Court Judgment – Larger Bench

Question whether the law declared by Supreme Court prevails over, the contrary view expressed in a circular issued by the Revenue Department is referred to larger Bench for clarification.

Commissioner of Central Excise v. Ratan Melting & Wire Industries (2005) 195 CTR 12 (SC)

The Chartered Accountants Act, 1949

Chartered Accountants Act – Professional misconduct – Number of audits

Accepting larger number of audits and charging higher or lower fee cannot be regarded as professional misconduct; as such Government's notifications stating that member of ICAI in practice shall be deemed guilty of professional misconduct if he accepts, in a financial year, more than specified number of tax audit assignments under section 44AB of the Income-tax Act and if he accepts audit fee below what is specified in notification, are arbitrary and violative of articles 14 and 19(1)(g)

ICAI v. K. Bhagvatheeswaran (2005) 145 Taxman 405 (Mad.) (High Court)

The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973

S. 482 : The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 – Quashing of proceedings relating to TDS – Dispute as to TDS – Appropriate remedy – Income tax – Criminal proceedings

Where proceeding is of civil nature which cannot be adjudicated by a criminal court, the High Court would be justified in exercising its inherent jurisdiction and quashing the same. The High Court erred in refusing to exercise its jurisdiction under section 482 and passing a cryptic order without assigning any reasons therefore when complaint did not disclose any offence of criminal nature. In face of assertion made by appellants that deduction towards income tax were made from salaries of all employees liable to pay the same in view of the statutory provisions of the IT Act, appropriate remedy for respondent was to approach authority/officer concerned. Moreover, report of SI had indicated that the matter in issue was civil in nature. Proceedings against appellants were quashed.

Rajeswar Tiwari and Others v. Nanda Kishore Roy (2010) 8 SCC 442 / 331 ITR 534 / (2011) 242 CTR 476 / 200 Taxman 139 / 59 DTR 75 (SC)

The Companies Act, 1956

Company Law Tribunal – Validity of Provision – Independence of Judiciary – Separation of power

Parliament is competent to constitute Tribunals for special Acts. However, the failure to ensure independence of judiciary and separation of judicial and executive power renders the Company Law Tribunal unconstitutional. Suggestions given on how to remedy the defects

Madras Bar Association v. UOI (2010) 324 ITR 166 / 156 Comp. Cases 392 / 190 Taxman 432 / (2011) 221 Taation 144 (SC)

UOI v. R. Gandhi (2010) 324 ITR 166 / 156 Comp. Cases 392 / 190 Taxman 432 (SC)

S. 391 : The Companies Act, 1956 – Merger – Transaction in the nature of “Gift” – Scheme designed to avoid taxes cannot be sanctioned [S. 391-394]

The Court held that section 391 does not contemplate all kinds of schemes, but only schemes that are either a compromise or an arrangement with creditors or members or any class of them. The transaction being in the nature of a “gift” is not an “arrangement”. The transaction is also not a “reconstruction” because the important criterion for “restructuring” is that the same persons carry on the same business. In the present case, the transferee is not carry on the same business of the transferor. The scheme being without consideration may be void under section 25 of the Contract Act. The Court held that avoidance of tax is taking place if the scheme is sanctioned. The Court has not sanctioned the scheme of merger. (A.Y. 2004-05)

Vodafone Essar Gujarat Ltd., In re (2011) 239 CTR 229 / 52 DTR 293 (Guj.)

The Constitution of India

Article 14 – The Constitution of India – Doctrine of Promissory Estoppel

Pursuant to incentives and concessions notified by State, appellant made expansion and diversification of its industries in State. Board of Revenue having found appellant eligible for sales tax exemption, under the notification granted tax exemption of seven years to appellant. Subsequently, State issued notification withdrawing tax exemption from a specific date. Assistant Commissioner of Sales Tax issued notices proposing to impose penalty on appellant for failure to pay purchase tax. Single Judge dismissed writ petition and remanded matter to sales tax authorities. Appeal was also dismissed by Division Bench — Held, doctrine of promissory estoppel has been repeatedly applied by Supreme Court to statutory notifications. Where a right has already accrued, for instance, right to exemption of tax for a fixed period and conditions for that exemption have been fulfilled, then withdrawal of exemption during that fixed period cannot affect already accrued right. Impugned action on part of State Government was highly unfair, unreasonable, arbitrary and therefore, same was violative of Article 14 of Constitution. Appeal allowed.

MRF Ltd., Kottayam v. Asst. Commissioner (Assessment) Sales-tax & Ors. (2006) 8 SCC 702 (SC)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – Maintainability – Foundational facts to be established

Where the foundational facts had to be established, the assessee ought not to have filed a writ petition. (A. Ys. 2002-03 to 2006-07)

Coca Cola India Inc. v. Addl. CIT & Ors. (2011) 336 ITR 1 / 236 CTR 561 / 48 DTR 249 (SC)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – Search and Seizure [S. 132A]

Genesis for the entire episode of search seizure and detention having taken place at Hyderabad airport, cause of action arose at Hyderabad and therefore writ petition was maintainable at Andhra Pradesh High Court.

Rajendran Chingaravelu (Mr.) v. R. K. Mishra, Addl. CIT (2010) 320 ITR 1 / 227 CTR 520 / 186 Taxman 305 / 32 DTR 129 (SC) / (2010) 1 SCC 457 / 216 Taxation 30 (SC)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – Dispute between Delhi Development Authority – Union of India – Accounts – Auditing [S. 142(2A)]

The High Court had dismissed a writ petition filed by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA), challenging an order issued by the Additional Commissioner requiring it to get its accounts audited in accordance with the provisions of section 142(2A) of the Income Tax Act, 1961, see (2008) 296 ITR 693. On appeal, the Supreme Court directed the High Court to consider the writ petition filed by DDA on its merits afresh.

Delhi Development Authority & Anr. v. UOI (2008) 214 CTR 106 / 1 DTR 113 / (2009) 314 ITR 342 (SC)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – Nomenclature given in Writ petition – Appeal

When a writ petition is heard by the High Court ought not merely to go by the nomenclature, i.e. The description given in the writ petition to be one under Article 227 of the Constitution of India. The High Court ought to consider the nature of controversy and the prayer involved in the writ petition. Where the prayer is to quash the order of assessment passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Commercial Tax levying purchase tax as well as entry tax, the writ petition would lie, in effect, one under article 226 and an appeal from the decision of a single judge of the High Court lie to a Division Bench. Jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India is capable of being exercised on a prayer made by or on behalf of the party aggrieved; the supervisory jurisdiction is capable of being exercised suo motu as well.

M.M.T.C. Ltd. v. CCT (2008) 307 ITR 276 / (2009) 209 Taxation 565 / 177 Taxman 251 (SC)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – Alternative Remedy – Jurisdiction – Reassessment [S. 148]

Where the action of the assessing authority in issuing notice under section 148 was bad in law due to want / lack of jurisdiction then the availability of alternative remedy in form of appeal to the Commissioner of Appeals against the action of the assessing officer could not be a bar to invoke writ jurisdiction of the High Court. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Mihir Textile Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2010) 43 DTR 11 / 239 CTR 95 (Guj.)(High Court)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – Clearance from COD – Order of Settlement Commission – Writ Petition by CIT

Clearance from COD is not necessary to maintain the writ petition filed by the Revenue to quash the order passed by the settlement commission as the lis is between the revenue and the first respondent (assessee) and not between the petitioner and the settlement commission. CIT has implied powers to file writ petition questioning the order passed by the settlement commission. (A.Y. 1997-98)

CIT v. The Vysya Bank Ltd. (2010) 42 DTR 97 / 240 CTR 68 / 194 Taxman 533 (Karn.)(High Court)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – Alternative remedy [S. 254(1)]

Where the final order of the Tribunal under section 254 (1) of the Act is recalled and fixed for hearing afresh, Writ petition challenging the action of Tribunal recalling its order under 254 (1) of the Act, on the ground that the order was passed without jurisdiction, cannot be dismissed on the ground that the petitioner has an alternative remedy in form of appeal under section 260 A of the Act.

Apex Metchem (P) Ltd. v. ITAT & Ors. (2009) 26 DTR 1 / 224 CTR 488 / 318 ITR 48 / 184 Taxman 243 / 224 CTR 488 (Raj.)(High Court)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – Maintainability – CoD's approval

A Public Sector undertaking cannot file a writ petition praying for direction to the Revenue authorities to modify the assessment, in absence of clearance from Committee on Disputes (CoD). (A.Ys. 2003-04 to 2005-06)

Kolkata Port Trust v. ACIT (2009) 26 DTR 33 / 315 ITR 243 (Cal.)(High Court)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – High Court – Territorial Jurisdiction

Where cause of action has arisen in Maharashtra State and even charge-sheet, if required, is to be filed in Maharashtra State, Delhi High Court cannot entertain writ petition.

Centre for Public Interest Litigation v. UOI (2003) 130 Taxman 34 / 264 ITR 703 (Delhi)(High Court)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – High Court – Territorial Jurisdiction

Notice issued under section 163 by Dy. Commissioner, Mumbai, on representative assessee in Calcutta would not confer jurisdiction on High Court in Calcutta to entertain writ against such notice. (A.Y. 1998-99)

CESC Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (No. 2) (2003) 131 Taxman 751 / 263 ITR 402 / 183 CTR 124 (Cal.)(High Court)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – High Court – Alternative remedy

Presence of alternate statutory remedy would bar writ against order of Tribunal. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1993-94)

L. Sohanraj v. Dy. CIT (No. 2) (2003) 260 ITR 155 / 179 CTR 106 / 132 Taxman 483 (Karn.)(High Court)

The Constitution of India – Art. 226 : Writ – High Court – Alternative remedy

If a statute provides for the remedy of revision, the writ petition is not maintainable.

State of Uttar Pradesh v. Union of India (2003) 264 ITR 239 / 139 Taxman 413 (All.)(High Court)

The Contempt of Courts Act, 1971

Contempt of Courts Act 1971 – Malicious Imputations against Judicial Officer – Apology tendered not accepted [S. 6]

The contemner has made wild allegations against the judicial officer, when contempt proceedings were initiated he tendered apology. The Hon'ble Court refuse to accept the apology. Before discussing the facts the Hon'ble Court referred the observation of Apex Court in M. R. Parashar v. Dr. Farooq Abdullah AIR 1984 SC 615 which reads as under. "The Judges cannot defend themselves. They need due protection of law from unfounded attacks on their character. Law of Contempt is one such laws. We would like to remind those who criticise the Judiciary that it has no form from which to defend itself. The legislature can act in defence of itself from the floor of the House. It enjoys privileges which are beyond reach of law. The executive is all powerful and ample resources and media at its command to explain its actions and, if need be, to counter attack. Those, who attack the judiciary must remember that they are attacking the institution which is indispensable for the survival of the rule of law but which has no means of defending itself.

The sword of Justice is in the hands of Goddess of Justice, not in the hands of mortal judges. Therefore, Judges must receive the due protection of law from unfounded attacks on their character".

Accordingly the Hon'ble Court held that benefit of section 6 of the Contempt Courts Act 1971 may not be given to the contemner as the allegations imputed against the judicial Officer were not in good faith.

High Court on its own motion v. Dnyandev Tulshiram Jadhav and State of Maharashtra (2011) Vol 113 920 Bom. L.R. 1145 (April)

Hindu Succession Act, 1956

Hindu Succession Act, 1956 – Single Person – Alienation by father before son was born – HUF

When a property remains in hands of a single person, same is to be treated as a separate property and thus, he would be entitled to dispose of coparcenary property as if same were his separate property, and if a son is subsequently born to him, alienation, whether it is by way of sale, mortgage or gift, will nevertheless stand, for a son cannot object to alienations so made by his father before he was born or begotten.

Sheela Devi v. Lalchand (2006) 206 CTR 149 / 157 Taxman 527 (SC)

Hindu Succession Act, 1956 – Hindu Undivided Family – Gift of part of ancestral immoveable property to daughter – Valid

A Hindu father can make a gift of ancestral immoveable property within reasonable limits, keeping in view the total extent of the property held by the Hindu undivided family, in favour of his daughter at the time of her marriage or even long after her marriage.

R. Kuppayee & Another v. Raja Gounder (2004) 265 ITR 551 / 180 Taxation 1 / 186 CTR 106 / 135 Taxman 37 (SC)

The Land Acquisition Act, 1894

Land Acquisition Act, 1894 – Agricultural Activity – Silk tread

Manufacture of silk thread held not to be an agricultural activity.

Special Land Acquisition Officer v. Karigowda & Others (2010) 5 SCC 708

The Limitation Act, 1963

Limitation Act – Appeal – Delay – Limitation

Where delay is only of few days, approach of the Court to be pragmatic. Approach of the Court should be of advancing substantial justice which is of prime importance. Delay was condoned.

Vedabhai alias Vijayantabai Baburao Patil v. Shantaram Baburao Patil (2003) 173 Taxman

108 / AIR 2001 SC 2582 / (2001) 132 ELT 15 (SC)

The Maharashtra Value Added Tax, 2002

S. 61 : The Maharashtra Value added tax, 2002 – Constitutional validity – Audit – Chartered Accountants

Section 61 of Maharashtra Value Added Tax Act which requires accounts of certain dealers to be audited by Chartered Accountants is constitutionally valid and it does not infringe Article 14.

Sales Tax Practitioners' Association of Maharashtra v. State of Maharashtra (2008) 170 Taxman 371 (Bom.)

Editorial Note: SLP is rejected, see AIFTP Journal July '08 issue page No. 39 (High Court)

Transfer of Property Act, 1982

Transfer of Property Act, 1982 – Sale – Immoveable property – General Power of Attorney [S. 54]

The Apex Court held that immoveable property can be legally and law fully transferred / conveyed only by a registered deed of conveyance. Transactions of nature of General Power of Attorney Sales (GPA Sales) or sale Agreement / General Power of Attorney /Will Transfers (SA/GPA/ Will transfers) do not convey title and do not amount to transfer, nor can they be recognized as valid mode of transfer of immoveable property. Such transactions cannot be relied upon or made basis for mutations in Municipal revenue records.

Suraj Lamp & Industries (P) Ltd. v. State of Haryana (2011) 202 Taxman 607 / (2012) 340 ITR 1 (SC)

Foreign Judgments

Transfer Pricing – Australian Tax Office – Restructuring

The Australian Taxation Office has issued a 'Taxation Ruling' dated 9.2.2011 in which it has discussed the application of the transfer pricing provisions to business restructuring by multinational enterprises.

The Ruling considers situations where such transfers occur between MNE members to implement changes in the MNE's existing business arrangements or operations. Common examples are product supply chain restructurings involving conversion of a distributor into a sales agency arrangement or of a manufacturer into a provider of manufacturing services. Business restructurings also commonly involve the transfer of the ownership and management of intangibles such as patents, trademarks and brand names.

The Ruling explains the following process for setting or reviewing transfer pricing

Step 1: Characterize the international dealings between the associated enterprises in the context of the taxpayer's business

Step 2: Select the most appropriate transfer pricing methodology or methodologies

Step 3: Apply the most appropriate method and determine an arm's length outcome

The Ruling refers extensively to the "Transfer Pricing Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and Tax Administrations (OECD Guidelines)".

The Ruling also gives practical examples to explain the transfer pricing law.

Commissioner of Taxation dated 9-2-2011. Source: www.itatonline.org

Transfer Pricing – Holding and Subsidiary Co. – Canada Court Ruling – "Implicit support" by holding company to subsidiary to be considered in determining "arms length" price

In determining the arms length price, all economically relevant factors (including the "implicit support" that the subsidiary enjoys from the holding company) have to be considered. The explicit guarantee by the holding company also has a value to the subsidiary. The "yield method" can be adopted which requires a comparison between the credit rating which an arm's length party, in the same circumstances as the assessee, would have obtained and the credit rating which would have been obtained without the explicit guarantee.

The Queen v. General Electric Capital Canada Inc. Source : www.itatonline.org

General Anti Avoidance Rule (GAAR) Law Explained – Canadian company – Tax benefit

The assessee, a Canadian Co controlled by its sole director Peter Cohen, earned capital gain of $7.7M from the transfer of property. Another company named "Rcongold Systems Inc" which was controlled by the assessee issued 8,000 voting "common shares" for a consideration of $8M to the assessee. Thereafter, Rcongold issued 80,000 Class "E" non-voting preferred shares with a redemption price of $100 each to the shareholders (the assessee) by way of dividend. The redemption price of the Class "E" non-voting preferred shares was identical to the fair market value ("FMV") of the common shares. The said 8,000 "common shares" of Rcongold were sold by the assessee to "the Peter Cohen Trust" for an amount of $65, which resulted in the assessee reporting a capital loss of $7.9 M. The assessee's claim to set-off the said capital loss of $7.9M against the capital gain of $7.9M was denied by the Assessing Officer on the ground that the scheme was one for "tax avoidance" and hit by the "General Anti Avoidance Rule" ("GAAR") in s. 245 of the Canadian Income-tax Act. HELD upholding the stand of the Assessing Officer:

- (i) For the GAAR in section 245 to apply, three aspects have to be satisfied
  - (a) the assessee must obtain a "tax benefit" from a "transaction" or "series of transactions",
  - (b) the transaction(s) must be an "avoidance transaction" in the sense of not having been "arranged primarily for bona fide purposes other than to obtain the tax benefit" and
  - (c) the avoidance transaction(s) must be abusive of the provisions of the Act, the burden being on the Assessing Officer to establish the abuse;
- (ii) On facts, all three requirements were satisfied because
  - (1) there were a "series of transactions" comprising of (a) the incorporation of Rcongold, (b) the subscription for shares of Rcongold by the assessee, (c)

the declaration of a stock dividend by Rcongold, (d) the creation of the trust and (d) the sale by the assessee of shares of Rcongold to the trust and there was a "tax benefit" as a result of the transactions;

- (2) the primary purpose of each transaction in the series was the avoidance of tax. While the incorporation of Rcongold and the issuance by it of common shares were not avoidance transactions in and of themselves, they were necessary steps taken in furtherance of the scheme. The primary purpose of the entire series of transactions was to obtain a tax benefit and so the entire series of transactions is an avoidance transaction;
- (3) The transactions amounted to "abusive tax avoidance" because they sought to defeat the underlying rationale of the capital loss provisions in the Act. The assessee sought to create an "artificial capital loss" without incurring any "real economic loss".

Triad Getsco Ltd. v. H. M. the Queen (Canada Tax Court). Source : www.itatonline.org

Dependent Agent Permanent Establishment – Tests to determine Agent's right to bind – Dependence on principal

The assessee, a company registered in the Netherlands but resident in Ireland for tax purposes appointed Dell AS, a Norwegian company, as its "commissionaire" for sales to customers in Norway. Dell AS entered into agreements in its own name and its acts (under the commission agreement and Commission Act) did not bind the principal. The assessee claimed that it was not taxable in Norway in respect of the products sold through Dell AS on the ground that Dell AS was not its "Dependent Agent Permanent Establishment" (DAPE) under Article 5(5) of the Norway-Ireland DTAA on the ground that (a) the agent had no authority to enter into contracts "in the name of the assessee" and legally bind the assessee and (b) the agent was not a "dependent" agent. However, the income-tax department took the view that Dell AS constituted a PE under Article 5(5) of the DTAA and that 60 percent of Dell Products' net profit on sales in Norway was attributable to the PE. This was confirmed by the Oslo District Court. On appeal by the assessee to the Court of Appeal, HELD dismissing the appeal:

- (i) Under Article 5(5) of the DTAA, an agent is considered a permanent establishment for the principal if two conditions are fulfilled (i) the agent must be "dependent" on the principal and (ii) the agent must have the right to conclude contracts "in the name of" the principal. The question whether the agent has the authority to conclude contracts on behalf of the enterprise has to be considered, not from a literal sense whether the contracts are "in the name of the enterprise", but from a functional sense whether the agent "in reality" binds the principal. The objective of Article 5 (5) is to protect the principle of source taxation, i.e. that the tax shall be due to the country where the revenue was created. This principle would be disregarded if only the commission relationship was considered despite the financial and legal attachment between the agent and the principal being strong. To ask if Dell AS "in reality" binds Dell Products is in accordance with the functional interpretation of Article 5(5). The "substance" must prevail over the form. The fact that a commissionaire under the Commissionaire Act and the commission agreement does not bind the principal through his sales is not enough to rule out that a permanent establishment does not exist (Vienna Convention, OECD Model Convention Commentary, Commentaries by Klaus Vogel & ArvidSkaar considered, decision of the French SAT in Zimmer that as the commissionaire did not bind the principal, it was not a PE despite dependence on the principal not followed);

- (ii) On facts, Dell Products was “in reality” bound by the contracts concluded by Dell AS because (a) all sales were made under the trademark “Dell”; (b) the sales were made on standard / approved conditions laid down by Dell Products; (c) in practice, all of the agent’s agreements were honoured by the principal and (d) there were no instances where the agent’s sales have not been accepted by the principal;
- (iii) The question whether the agent is “dependent” on the principal has to be decided on the application of various tests such as the degree of instruction and control. On facts, Dell AS was “dependent” on Dell Products because (a) Dell AS was only allowed to sell permitted products on conditions of prices and guarantees determined by Dell Products, (b) there was an overlap of board members in the two companies and a board member of Dell Products was the general manager of Dell AS, (c) due to the integrated accounting system of the Dell companies Dell Products had full insight to the finances of Dell AS, (d) under the commission agreement, Dell Products had access to Dell AS’ premises, (e) Dell AS sold goods as a commissionaire only on behalf of Dell Products though it had the theoretical right to sell for others; (f) all business of Dell AS was done under the trademark Dell, its letterheads, agreements and advertisements had the logo “Dell”. Dell AS was thus “branded” identically as the rest of the Dell Group, but without owning the brand. All these facts made Dell AS fully dependent on the principal. Without the commission agreement, Dell AS may as well close down its operations. The fact that the agent acted independently in matters of staff hire, purchase and lease of assets and premises, etc was irrelevant because the “big picture” showed Dell AS to be dependent on Dell Products;
- (iv) The determination of profits “attributable” to the PE has to be done as if the agent was “independent” of the principal. On the methods to be used, Article 7(2) of the DTAA provides for the “direct method” of allocating all costs and revenue between the HO and the PE while Article 7(4) provides for the “indirect method” of allocating only the net profits using keys such as sales, revenues, expenses, number of employees, capital structure or a combination of these factors. In Norway, the “indirect method” is in practice. This is practical because the accounts do not permit individual items of income and expenditure to be identified for allocation purposes and also because it gives a result which is in accordance with the arm’s length principle. While under Article 7(2), a two-step procedure has to be adopted by first determining a commercial remuneration for Dell AS and then a commercial profit for other functions performed by the PE, under Article 7(4) it is sufficient that the result to a reasonable degree corresponds to the arm’s length principle and requires that the PE should be allocated revenues in accordance with its functions, risk and assets used. On facts, the value creation occurred through sales made by Dell AS and it was "the major value driver". Dell Products' functions and contribution to the value creation was limited compared to the activity of Dell AS. Consequently, allocating 60% of Dell Products' profits from sales in Norway to the PE was reasonable (over & above the assessment of commission in the agent's hands).

Dell Products v. Tax East (Norway Court of Appeal) Source : www.itatonline.org

Software License income is assessable as "Royalty" – IBM Programmes – Non-exclusive rights

International Business Machines Corporation & IBM World Trade Corporation (IBM), both US companies, entered into a "Software License Agreement" with IBM Australia, an Australian company, under which they granted the latter "the non-exclusive rights (i) to license and distribute copies of IBM Programs for their ultimate use by customers, (ii) to use such IBM Programs in revenue producing activities, (iii) to use such IBM Programs internally, (iv) to make or have made copies for the purposes described above, for distribution to affiliated companies etc". In consideration, IBM Australia agreed to pay IBM a fee of 40% of the revenue billed for each copy of an IBM program distributed to a third party. IBM Australia initially withheld tax on the payments on the basis that it constituted "royalty" under Article 12(4) of the Australia-USA DTAA though it later sought a refund on the basis that the whole payment was not royalty which was rejected by the Department. IBM filed an application for a declaration that the whole of the amounts received was not assessable as "royalty". HELD dismissing the application:

- (i) Under Article 12(4) of the Treaty, "royalty" is defined to mean "consideration for...the right to use any copyright, patent, design or model, plan, secret formula or process, trademark or other like property or right" (Article 12(4)(a)(i)) or "...the supply of technical ... or commercial knowledge or information" or for "the supply of any assistance of an ancillary and subsidiary nature" to enable the application of the rights referred to in Article 12(4)(a)(i) or the knowledge/information referred to in Article 12(4)(b)(i) (Article 12(4)(b)(ii));
- (ii) On facts, the argument that the SLA is in essence a distributorship agreement for the marketing of IBM computer programs and that the IP licenses granted to IBMA is only to enable it to carry on the function of a distributor is not acceptable. The SLA is not a distribution agreement which confers distribution rights independently of the grant of IP rights. There is no reference in the SLA to the payments being for the exercise of general distributorship rights. Rather, the payments are described as being for the acquisition of the stated IP rights. The detail of the SLA concerns the definition of IP and IP rights. There is no such detail with respect to distribution rights. The rights/content granted by the SLA are, in each case, rights/content of a kind contemplated by Article 12(4) and so the whole of the consideration is assessable as "royalty".

International Business Machines Corp v. Comm. of Taxation (Federal Court of Australia)

Source : www.itatonline.org

Interpretation

Interpretation – Special Leave Petition – Decision of earlier year not challenged

The issue involved in this matter was whether the deduction under section 80HHC would be available to the assessee in respect of processing/fabrication charges received from other exporters. It was held that the Assessee having been allowed deduction under section 80HHC in respect of such processing/fabrication charges on goods which were ultimately exported by the other exporters following decision of the High Court in the earlier years, which decision not challenged by the Revenue, no Special Leave Petition could lie. (A.Y. 1994-95)

Southern Sea Foods Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2009) 28 DTR 108 / 184 Taxman 86 / 225 CTR 256 (SC)

Interpretation – Citizen Tax – Japanese Law – Change on payment to employees

The Supreme Court remitted the matter to the Tribunal to decide whether the citizen tax as per Citizens Individual Inhabitant Tax Act in Japan was an overriding charge on the salary paid by the assessee to its employees. (A.Ys. 1988-89 to 1998-99)

CIT v. NHK Japan Broadcasting Corporation (2009) 28 DTR 106 / 225 CTR 258 / (2010) 322 ITR 628 / 184 Taxman 39 (SC)

Interpretation – Precedent – Binding Precedent

Although the judgments given by a High Court is not binding on another High Court(s), they hold persuasive value. A High Court when not following another High Court should record its dissent along with the reasons therefore. (A.Y. 1982-83)

Pradip J. Mehta v. CIT (2008) 216 CTR 1 / 300 ITR 231 / 169 Taxman 453 / 5 DTR 250 / 206 Taxation 169 (SC) / 14 SCC 283

Interpretation – Precedent – Decision of High Court – Supreme Court – Retrospectively

A judicial decision acts retrospectively. According to Blackstonian theory, it is not the function of the Court to pronounce a “new rule” but to maintain and expound the “old one”. In other words, judges do not make law they only discover or find the correct law. The law has always been the same. If a subsequent decision alters the earlier one, it (the later decision) does not make new law. It only discovers the correct principle of law which has to be applied retrospectively. To put it differently, even where an earlier decision of the court operated for quite some time, the decision rendered later on would have retrospective effect clarifying the legal position which was earlier not correctly understood.

It is no doubt true that the Court has accepted the doctrine of “prospective overruling”. It is based on the philosophy; “the past cannot always be erased by new judicial declaration”. It may, however, be stated that this is an exception to the general rule of doctrine of precedent. (A.Y. 1996-97)

ACIT v. Saurashtra Kutch Stock Exchange Ltd. (2008) 305 ITR 227 / 12 DTR 346 / 173 Taxman 322 / (2009) 208 Taxation 90 (SC) / 14 SCC 171

Interpretation – Penalty – Concealment – Notes to Clauses [S. 271(1)(c)]

The Supreme Court held that the 2002 amendment in Explanation 4 to section 271 is prospective as it was consciously made effective from April 1, 2003. The fact that the notes to clauses mention the amendment to be clarificatory is also of no consequence and that the notes to clauses cannot bind the Court.

The Supreme Court further held that the penal provisions should be interpreted strictly. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Virtual Soft Systems Ltd. v. CIT (2007) 289 ITR 83 / 159 Taxman 155 / 207 CTR 733 / 199 Taxation 423 (SC) / 9 SCC 665

Editorial: - Please see the subsequently decision in the case of CIT v. Gold Coin Health (P) Ltd. (2008) 304 ITR 308 / 218 CTR 359 / 172 Taxman 386 (SC) reversing the above decision.

Interpretation – Creative Interpretation – Redundant

(a) Creative Interpretation – The Act was enacted in the year 1948. Information Technology at that time far from being developed was unknown. Constitution of India is a living organ. Creative interpretation had been resorted to by the Court so as to achieve a balance between the age old and rigid laws on the one hand and the advanced technology, on the other. The Judiciary always responds to the need of the changing scenario in regard to development of technologies. It uses its own interpretative principles to achieve a balance when Parliament has not responded to the need to amend the statute having regard to the developments in the field of science.

(b) An interpretation of a provision which renders certain other provisions redundant or otiose cannot be accepted.

State of Punjab and Others v. Amritsar Beverages Ltd. & Ors. (2006) 7 SCC 607

Sadhu Singh v. Gurudwara Sahib Narike (2006) 8 SCC 75 / AIR 2006 SC 3282

Interpretation – Procedural Law – Retrospective

It is well settled that all procedural laws are retrospective unless the Legislature expressly states to the contrary. It has been held that the procedural laws in force must be applied at the date when the suit or proceeding comes on for trial or disposal. It has been held that a Court is bound to take notice of the change in the law and is bound to administer the law as it was when the suit came up for hearing. It has been held that if a Court has jurisdiction to try the suit, when it comes on for disposal, it then cannot refuse to assume jurisdiction by reason of the fact that it had no jurisdiction to entertain it at the date when it was instituted.

Interpretation – Exemption provisions – Liberal

Principle for interpretation of exemption notification and exception thereto – Held, an exemption notification under an enactment has to be construed strictly – However, an exemption notification issued for implementing an industrial policy of the State, which had promised tax exemption for setting up new industries in backward area, held, should be construed not strictly but liberally keeping in view the objects of such policy.

State of Jharkhand & Ors. v. Tata Cummins Ltd. & Anr. (2006) 4 SCC 57 / 145 STC 340 (SC)

Interpretation – Amendment of a Statute – Retrospective Operation

The question referred to the constitution bench for reconsideration was whether the amendment to a statute to be construed as being retrospective. The amended provision should indicate specifically or by necessary implication that it is to operate retrospectively. The Addl. Solicitor General conceded that the Supreme Court has consistently affirmed it over a period of year. The matter was accordingly remanded to the division Bench for disposal on merits.

CIT v. Varas International Pvt. Ltd. (2006) 195 Taxation 441 / 283 ITR 484 / 204 CTR 119 / 154 Taxman 331 (SC) (Larger Bench five Judges)

Interpretation – Res judicata – Precedents

Principle of res judicata does not apply in matters pertaining to tax of different assessment years. The reason for following the earlier year decision is not because of principle of res judicata but because of theory of precedent. This is subject only to the gateways of distinguishing the earlier decisions and where the earlier decision is per incuriam.

Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. & Anr. v. UOI & Ors. (2006) 282 ITR 273 / 152 Taxman 135 / 201 CTR 346 / 194 Taxation 1 (SC)

Interpretation – Precedent – Overruling – Implication

Overruling a precedent by necessary implication – Constitution Bench of Supreme Court overruling a 1968 decision of a two judge bench of the Supreme Court – 1968 decision was followed by a two judge bench of the Supreme Court in a 1980 case – Held, though the 1980 case was not specifically overruled in its decision by the Constitutional Bench, the same stands overruled by necessary implication.

State of Maharashtra v. Mana Adim Jamat Mandal (2006) 4 SCC 98 (SC)

Interpretation – Doctrine of Reading Down – Ultra vires – Not a tool to save a statute

Where provision of law is explicitly clear and interpretation leaves no room for more than one construction, it is not open to a court to invoke doctrine of reading down with a view to save statute from declaring it ultra vires by carrying it to point of perverting the purpose of the statute

Arun Kumar & Others v. UOI (2006) 286 ITR 89 / 155 Taxman 659 / 205 CTR 193 / 7 RC 407 / (2007) 196 Taxation 353 (SC)

Interpretation – Penalty – General Clauses Act – Repeal of the Act

In view of section 8 of the General Clauses Act action can be taken after repeal of provisions for levy of penalty for contravention of provisions prior to repeal of the Act
Gammon India Ltd. v. Spl. Chief Secretary & Ors. (2006) 6 RC 239 / 145 STC 1 (SC) / 3 SCC 354

Interpretation – Rules – Partial validity – Reading down

Reading down a provision - If a rule is partly valid and partly invalid, the part that is valid and severable is saved. Even the part which is found to be invalid, can be read down to avoid being declared invalid.

State of T.N. v. P. Krishnamurthy & Ors. (2006) 4 SCC 517 (SC)

Interpretation – Commercial & Technical Practice and Usage – Trade practice

It is now well settled that the words and expressions in taxing statutes, unless defined in the statute itself, have to be construed in the sense in which the person dealing with them understands, i.e., in accordance with the trade understanding, commercial and technical practice and usage.

Indcon Structurals P. Ltd. v. Commissioner of Central Excise (2006) 6 RC 450 (SC) / 4 SCC 786

Interpretation – Retrospective or not – Prima facie prospective

Every statute is prima facie prospective unless it is expressly or by necessary implication made to have retrospective operation. (A.Ys. 1984-85, 1987-88, 1989-90)
GEM Granites v. CIT (2005) 185 Taxation 5 / 1 SCC 289 / (2004) 271 ITR 322 / 141 Taxman 528 / 192 CTR 481 (SC)

Interpretation – Fundamental Rights – Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1973

Challenge to the provisions of, on the ground of violation of fundamental rights – Held, FERA being included in Schedule IX to the Constitution, none of its provisions can be challenged as violative of any of the rights conferred by Part III of the Constitution. Thus, provisions of FERA are immune from the said challenge and there is no need to read down those provisions. Provisions to be given natural interpretation and if necessary a purposive interpretation, keeping in view the object sought to be achieved by FERA.

Standard Chartered Bank & Ors. v. Directorate of Enforcement (2005) 275 ITR 81 / 145 Taxman 154 / 195 CTR 465 / 188 Taxation 329 (SC) / (2006) 4 SCC 278

Interpretation – Legislative Intention – Language

What one may believe or think to be the intention of Parliament cannot prevail if the language of the statute does not support that view, thus object of the statute has to be gathered from language and not on what one believes or thinks. (A.Ys. 1984-85, 1987-88, 1989-90)

GEM Granites v. CIT (2005) 185 Taxation 5 / 1 SCC 289 / (2004) 271 ITR 322 / 141 Taxman 528 / 192 CTR 481 (SC)

Interpretation – Explanation – Retrospective

An explanation, if it changes the law, is not presumed to be retrospective irrespective of the fact that phrase used is "it is declared" or "for removal of doubts". (A.Ys. 1992-93, 1993-94)

Sedco Forex International Drill Inc. & Others v. CIT (2005) 279 ITR 310 / 149 Taxman 352 / 199 CTR 320 / (2006) 192 Taxation 27 (SC)

Interpretation – Precedent – Review – Subsequent Judgment of Supreme Court

Where a subsequent judgment of the Supreme Court is by way of review of the first judgment, the subsequent judgment rendered on a review petition is the only judgment rendered effectively and for all purposes the earlier decision is erased by entertaining the review petition. Normally, a decision of the Supreme Court enunciating a principle of law is applicable to all cases irrespective of the stage of pendency, because it is assumed that what is enunciated by the Supreme Court is in fact, law from inception. It is for the Supreme Court to indicate whether the decision in question will operate prospectively. In other words, there shall be no prospective overruling unless it is so indicated in the particular decision.

Murthy M.A. v. State of Karnataka & Others (2004) 178 Taxation 397 / (2003) 264 ITR 1 / 185 CTR 194 (SC) / 7 SCC 517

Interpretation – Rule of Liberal Construction – Language of law

Where the words are unequivocal, there is no scope for importing any rule of liberal interpretation. (A.Y. 1984-85)

Pandian Chemicals Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 179 Taxation 2 / (2003) 262 ITR 278 / 129 Taxman 539 / 183 CTR 99 (SC) / 5 SCC 590

Interpretation – Promissory Estoppel – State Government – Power to Exempt – Tax on purchase of Milk

Speeches by Chief Minister and Finance Minister that such tax would be abolished. Dealers relying upon statements and providing benefit to milk producers. State Government is bound by such promise. Not entitled to demand purchase tax on milk till the date of a contrary decision by the cabinet.

State of Punjab v. Nestle India Ltd. & Anr. (2004) 269 ITR 97 / 189 CTR 501 / (2005) 184 Taxation 1 (SC)

Interpretation – Taxing Statutes – Finance Minister's Speech

Finance Minister's speech before parliament while introducing Bill, can be relied on to throw light on object and purpose of provisions.

Kerala State Industrial Development Corp. Ltd. v. CIT (2003) 259 ITR 51 / 174 Taxation 766 / 180 CTR 192 / 128 Taxman 29 (SC)

Interpretation – Precedent – Doctrine of Merger [Art. 141]

Mere dismissal of appeal as not properly constituted as necessary party was not impleaded. Merger only of final order of High Court and not reasoning. High Court constituted a full bench to consider that decision of High Court. Full bench can consider the correctness. Dismissal of appeal on technical ground that necessary party not impleaded has no binding nature. Where no reasons are given, dismissal simpliciter is not a declaration of law by the Supreme Court.

S. Shanmugaval Nadar v. State of Tamil Nadu & Anr. (2003) 263 ITR 658 / 158 CTR 593 / (2004) 179 Taxation 409 (SC)

Interpretation – Casus omissus – Intention – Power to make laws

It is not open to court to add something or read something in statute on basis of some supposed intendment of statute. The maxim "Judicis est jus dicere, non dare" pithily expounds the duty of the Court. It is to decide what the law is and apply it, not to make. (A.Y. 1985-86)

ACIT v. Velliappa Textiles Ltd. (2003) 263 ITR 550 / 132 Taxman 165 / 184 CTR 193 (SC)

Interpretation – Retrospective Legislation – Validity – Legislative Powers

The test of the length of time covered by the retrospective operation can not by itself necessary be a decisive test. Account must be taken of the surrounding facts and circumstances relating to the taxation and the legislative back ground of the provision. Retrospective legislation is valid. Concession of the Solicitor General for India before the High Court that amendment would apply only to assessments which were yet to be finalised can not be relevant consideration in up holding the amendment if it were found to be constitutionally infirm.

National Agricultural Co-operative Marketing Federation of India Ltd. & Anr. v. UOI & Ors. (2003) 260 ITR 548 / 174 Taxation 409 / 181 CTR 1 / 128 Taxman 361 (SC)

Interpretation – Penal provisions – Criminal Jurisprudence [S. 278]

A penal provision has to be construed strictly. (A.Y. 1985-86)

ACIT v. Velliappa Textiles Ltd. (2003) 263 ITR 550 / 132 Taxman 165 / 184 CTR 193 (SC)

Interpretation – Unjust Enrichment – Applicability to state

Doctrine does not apply to State. Right to refund not an absolute or unconditional right. Manufacturer recovered tax from the customer, hence, the manufacturer cannot claim refund from the State.

Shree Digvijay Cement Co. Ltd. & Anr. v. UOI & Anr. (2003) 259 ITR 705 / 174 Taxation 744 (SC) / 2 SCC 614

Interpretation – Rule of Harmonious Construction – Liberal Construction

Wherever it is possible to do so, the provision must be harmoniously constructed by avoiding a conflict. A construction which reduces the statute to a futility has to be avoided. A statute or any enabling provision therein must be so construed as to make it effective and operative on the principle expressed in maxim “UT RES MAGIS VALEAT QUAM PAREAT” i.e. a liberal construction should be put upon written instruments, so as to uphold them, if possible and carry in to effect the intention of the parties.

CIT v. Hindustan Bulk Carrier (2003) 259 ITR 449 / 126 Taxman 321 / 179 CTR 362 / 173 Taxation 16 (SC)

Interpretation – Binding nature of Supreme Courts’ judgment – Other parties [Art. 141, 226]

In matters arising under public law, when the validity of a particular provision or levy is challenged, the legal position is that when the Supreme Court declares the law and holds either a particular levy to be valid or invalid it is wrong to contend that the law laid down by the Supreme Court in that judgment would bind only those parties who were before the court and not others in respect of whom appeal had not been filed. To do so would be to ignore the binding nature of a judgement of the Supreme Court under article 141 of the Constitution of India. To contend that the conclusion reached by the Supreme Court in a case relating to the validity of a levy would apply only to the parties before the court is to destroy the efficacy and integrity of the judgement and to make the mandate of Article 141 illusory.

U. P. Pollution Control Board & Others v. Kanoria Industries Ltd. & Anr. (2003) 259 ITR 321 / 174 Taxation 629 / 180 CTR 402 (SC)

Interpretation Precedent – Advance rulings – Similar facts – To be followed

Decision of Authority on similar facts in respect of same subject matter can be followed.

DIT v. Dun and Brand Street Information Services India P. Ltd. (2011) 338 ITR 95 (Bom.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Precedent – Contextual interpretation

A judgment cannot be read like a statute. Courts should not place reliance on decision without discussing factual situation involved in the said decision and how it would apply to the facts involved in the subsequent case. A ratio laid down by a higher forum should not be taken out context and construed like a statute. (A. Y. 2001-02)

Iskrareco Regent Ltd. v. CIT (2011) 237 CTR 239 / 49 DTR 185 / 196 Taxman 103 / 313 ITR 317 (Mad.)(High Court)

Interpretation Precedent – Binding – Subsequent decision of smaller Bench of Supreme Court – Article 149 of the Constitution of India

If subsequent decision of smaller Bench of Supreme Court interpreting decision of larger Bench of Supreme Court is placed before a High Court, latter is bound to follow subsequent decision by smaller Bench which interprets decision of Larger Bench because that is interpretation of larger Bench of Supreme Court and High Court cannot make a different interpretation than one made by subsequent decision of Supreme Court which is binding upon it. (A. Y. 1996-97)

CIT v. Oberoi Hotels (P) Ltd. (2011) 334 ITR 293 / 198 Taxman 310 / 59 DTR 272 (Cal.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Precedent – Advance rulings – Binding on others

The Andhra Pradesh High Court held that the Advance Ruling Authorities order under section 67(4)(11) was binding not only on the applicant but also similar situated other dealers.

Tirupati Chemicals, Vijaywada & Anr. v. Dy. Commercial Tax Officer (2011) 52 APSTJ P. 48 (AP)(High Court)

Interpretation – Term not defined under Income-tax Act – Definition in different acts and meaning in common parlance to be taken.

The High Court held that though specific provisions are made in respect of investment in bonds of financial corporation State or Central Government that would not mean that one has to give restrictive meaning to the term debenture more particularly when the term is not defined under the Act. The principle of interpretation is that in the absence of any definition given to a particular term in a statute, the meaning which is to be given to the term is the meaning in which it is understood in common parlance.

DIT v. Shree Visheshwar Nath Memorial Public Charitable Trust (2011) 333 ITR 248 / 46 DTR 49 / 194 Taxman 280 (Delhi)(High Court)

Interpretation – External aid – Speech of Finance Minister [S. 10(26AAB)]

Speech made by the Union Finance Minister while replying the debate to the Finance Bill is not conclusive regarding the intention of legislature whether or not a new provision is inserted by way of a declaration. (A. Ys. 2003-04 to 2008-09).

CIT v. Agricultural Market Committee Tanuku & Ors. (2011) 336 ITR 641 / 244 CTR 417 (AP)(High Court)

Interpretation Precedent – Dismissal of appeal by Supreme Court – One line order – Binding

Though the appeal is dismissed by Supreme Court in one line order, High Court's order stand merged and operates as binding precedent.

Binani Industries Ltd. v. CIT (2010) 329 ITR 323 / (2011) Tax L.R. 343 (Cal.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Explanation – End of Section

Explanation below a particular sub-section or a clause is intended to explain that particular sub-section or a clause only. But when Explanation is at the end of the section it is meant to explain the entire section. (A.Y. 2003-04)

DIT (Exemption) v. Bagri Foundation (2010) 42 DTR 25 / 233 CTR 538 / 192 Taxman 309 (Delhi)(High Court)

Interpretation – Precedent – Supreme Court granting leave to appeal and dismissing – Effect - Decision of High Court affirmed by Supreme Court

Appeal were heard leave has been granted and dismissed. Placing reliance of the Supreme Court in Kunhayammed vs. State of Kerala (2000) 245 ITR 360 (SC), dismissal of appeal by the Supreme Court would amount to confirmation of law laid down by the High Court.

CIT v. Natural Gems Ltd. (2010) 327 ITR 269 (Bom.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Penal provisions – Strict construction

Rule governing construction of provisions imposing penal liability upon subject is that such provisions should be strictly construed. Prior to insertion of Explanation to S. 194A(1) w.e.f. 1st June, 1987, there was no liability for determination of tax at source the amount of interest was credited 15 interest payable amount or surface amount is not credited to the amount of payee, and tractor assessee was not liable to deduct tax while crediting the liability to interest payable amount. (A.Y. 1985-86)

CIT v. Swarup Vegetable Products (2008) 303 ITR 212 / (2005) 148 Taxman 297 / 197 CTR 138 (All.)

Interpretation – “any other person” – Trustee Is not an employee hence amount paid cannot be disallowed – Rule 6D

The true scope of the rule of ‘ejusdem generis’ is that the words of general nature following specific and particular words should be construed as limited to things which are of the same nature as those specified. When the particular words pertaining to a class, category or genus are followed by general words, the general words are construed as limited to the things of the same kind as those specified. The phrase “any other person” in rule 6D(2) of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, would draw its colour from the preceding word, namely, “employee”.

Held accordingly, that a trustee was not an employee or not akin to an employee and the amounts paid to trustees by the trust could not be disallowed under rule 6D(2). (A.Y. 1982-83)

CIT v. Shivalik Drug (Family Trust) (2008) 300 ITR 339 / 214 CTR 450 (All.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Precedent – Role of Building nature of decisions of court – Appellate Tribunal

It is neither permissible nor legal for any Court and Tribunal to comment upon the decision of the Supreme Court/High Court. Similarly, it is also not permissible for the Tribunal to comment upon the manner in which a particular decision was rendered by the Supreme Court/High Court. It is also not permissible for the Tribunal to sidetrack or/and ignore the decision of the High Court on the ground that it did not take into consideration a particular provision of law. If such an approach is resorted to by subordinate Courts/Tribunals, then it is held to be not in conformity with the law laid down by the Supreme Court. It was deprecated by the Supreme Court as being improper. (A.Y. 1989-90)

National Textile Corporation Ltd., v. CIT (2008) 171 Taxman 339 / 216 CTR 153 / 338 ITR 371 / 5 DTR 117 (MP)(High Court)

Interpretation – Precedent – Larger Bench – Division Bench – Binding order

A Division bench of a High Court is fully bound by the view taken by a larger Bench of the Court, regardless of the fact that another High Court prefers a different view. (A.Ys. 2002-03 & 2003-04)

KLM Royal Dutch Airlines v. ADIT (2007) 208 CTR 33 / 292 ITR 49 / 159 Taxman 191 (Delhi)(High Court)

Interpretation – Procedural law – Retroactive – Retrospective

Law relating to procedures is to be construed somewhat liberally so as to make it even effective retrospectively or retroactively. (A.Y. 1978-79)

Remfry & Sons v. CIT (2005) 276 ITR 1 / 145 Taxman 22 / 195 CTR 66 (Delhi)(High Court)

Interpretation – Provisions of limitation – Not retrospective

Provision for limitation is not a mere procedure and unless it is made retrospectively, it cannot be acted upon retrospectively. (A.Ys. 1979-80 to 1984-85)

Varkey Jacob & Co. v. CIT (2005) 275 ITR 146 / 146 Taxman 665 / 196 CTR 391 (Ker.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Definition section – When inclusive

Words used in an inclusive definition denote extension and cannot be treated as restricted in any sense. (A.Y. 2000-01)

DIT (Exemptions) v. Agri-Horticultural Society (2005) 273 ITR 198 (Mad.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Proviso – Effect of main provision – Strict construction

Proviso to a section would normally be controlled by main section; proviso normally should be construed strictly and more so when it relates to fiscal provisions even inviting penalty consequences, whenever there is default in compliance. (A.Y. 2002-03)

Sony India Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 276 ITR 278 / 146 Taxman 98 / 196 CTR 81 (Delhi)(High Court)

Interpretation – DTAA – Language – Beneficial or not

Words in agreement (DTAA) could not be re-written merely because it would be more beneficial to assessee. (A.Y. 1996-97)

Norasia Lines (Malta) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (2005) 279 ITR 268 / 148 Taxman 522 / 199 CTR 377 (Ker.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Statutes – Beneficial view

Rule of Beneficial construction. Any doubt with regard to imposition of burden on taxpayer arising from any equivocal words used in statute will have to be resolved by giving benefit to taxpayer. (A.Y. 1985-86)

CIT v. Nathan Mining Works (2005) 274 ITR 149 / 156 Taxman 239 (Mad.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Rule of liberal construction – Incentive

Ordinarily, provision in a taxing statute granting incentive for promoting growth and development, should be construed liberally. (A.Ys. 1976-77, 1977-78)

CIT v. Sultan & Sons Rice Mill (2005) 272 ITR 181 / 145 Taxman 506 / 193 CTR 444 (All.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Rule of Strict Construction – Function of Court

While interpreting tax statute, function of Court of law is not to give words in statute a strained and unnatural meaning to cover and extend its applicability to areas not intended to be covered under said statute. (A.Y. 1998-99)

Vidarbha Irrigation Development Corporation v. Addl. CIT (2005) 278 ITR 521 / 200 CTR 555 (Bom.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Aid to construction – Letter simpliciter by Finance Minister

Letter simpliciter written by Finance Minister to a Member of Parliament will not have any statutory force

Vinod Rathore v. Union of India (2005) 278 ITR 122 / 146 Taxman 32 / (2005) 195 CTR 210 (MP)(High Court)

Interpretation – Retrospectively of provision – Date of amendment

The amendment, despite a particular date having been fixed as the date from which it will take effect, even when it is not made retrospective, if found to be clarificatory in the sense that even without the aid of that amendment the unamended provision was capable of comprehending what was sought to be made clear by the amendment, the amendment made subsequently does not have the effect of restricting the meaning of the original entry and the width of the entry remains the same. The facet of its content which had either been misconstrued or had not been recognised is only brought out when the clarificatory amendment is effected. (A.Y. 1983-84)

CIT v. Soft Beverages (P.) Ltd. (2005) 272 ITR 270 / 195 CTR 286 (Mad.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Statutes – Construction

Interpretation of Statutes – Construction of statute.

Construction of statute does not imply interpolation therein. The meaning which suits the word in the context in which it has been used in statute, has to be accepted. (A.Ys. 1977-78, 1978-79, 1981-82)

Sandvik Asia Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 267 ITR 78 / 137 Taxman 167 / 189 CTR 226 (Bom.) (High Court)

Interpretation – Statutes – Meaning to expression

One cannot ignore any expression used in statute; it has to be reconciled and given due meaning. (A.Y. 1988-90)

Britannia Industries Ltd. v. Jt. CIT (2004) 271 ITR 123 / 143 Taxman 325 / 193 CTR 26 (Cal.) (High Court)

Interpretation – Statutes – Rule of Literal Construction

A statute should be read in its ordinary, natural and grammatical sense. (A.Y. 2003-04)

Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti v. UOI (2004) 267 ITR 460 / 139 Taxman 258 / 188 CTR 556 (All.) (High Court)

Interpretation – Statutes – Rule of Literal Construction

Pure, simple and grammatical sense of language used by Legislature is best way of understanding as to what Legislature intended.

Coal Mines Officers' Association of India v. UOI (2004) 266 ITR 429 / 137 Taxman 92 / 187 CTR 348 (Cal.) (High Court)

Interpretation – Statutes – Rule of Strict Construction

Provisions of the statute must be interpreted as per the language used therein. (A.Y. 1981-82)

N. Srinivasan v. Uma Rani (Smt.) (2004) 270 ITR 77 / 141 Taxman 564 / 192 CTR 464 (Mad.) (High Court)

Interpretation – Statutes – Proviso

Normally a proviso is to be construed in relation to subject matter covered in section to which proviso is appended. (A.Ys. 1979-80 to 1982-83)

CWT v. Ct. Chidambaram (2004) 270 ITR 341 / 192 CTR 444 / 144 Taxman 802 (Mad.) (High Court)

Interpretation – Statutes – Proviso

A proviso should not be read as if providing something by way of addition main provision. (A.Y. 1992-93)

CIT v. Udaipur Distillery Co. (2004) 137 Taxman 201 / 274 ITR 429 / 187 CTR 369 (Raj.) (High Court)

Interpretation – Statutes – Retrospectively of Statute

A statute, which impairs vested rights or the legality of past transactions should not prima facie be held to be retrospective. (A.Ys. 1942-43 to 1977-78)

Sanjay Khetan v. CIT (2004) 266 ITR 453 / 139 Taxman 190 / 188 CTR 361 (All.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Statutes – Definition Provisions

When a particular expression is clearly defined, the court has no alternative but to give the meaning to expression as defined in the statute.

Shaw Wallace & Co. Ltd. v. UOI (2004) 267 ITR 248 / 189 CTR 1 (Cal.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Statutes – Subsequent amendment

When the language given in a provision of law is clear and unambiguous and interpretation to be placed on such a provision does not lead to any absurdity, it is not permissible for Court to take into account subsequent amendment made to such a provision while interpreting such a provision. (A.Ys. 1984-85, 1989-90)

Mithy Granite P. Ltd. v. ITO (2004) 266 ITR 151 / 135 Taxman 435 / 187 CTR 386 (Karn.)(High Court)

Interpretation – Judicial Institution – Voice of Citizens – Weapon of Contempt

Voice of citizen who believes that judicial institution is not functioning well cannot be muffled by using the weapon of contempt.

Indirect Tax Practitioners Association v. R. K. Jain (Supreme Court) : Source : www.itatonline.org

Interpretation – Precedent – Contempt – Failure to follow High Court Order – Sales Tax Officer

The Sales Tax Officer passed an order refusing to follow the judgment of Bombay High Court in CST v. Pee Textiles 26 VST 281 on the ground that the said judgment “is not accepted by the sales tax department and the department has appealed against the same”. On a writ petition filed by the assessee, the High Court has taken the view that as the said judgment in Pee Vee Textiles is not stayed “the refusal to follow and implement the judgment of this Court by the Sales Tax officer in our considered view prima facie amounts to contempt of this Court”

Garware Polyester v. State of Maharashtra and Ors. Source : www.itatonline.org

Interpretation – Precedent – Binding – Authority for advance ruling – Deserves highest respect – Not binding

Authority for Advance ruling deserves highest respect and consideration, however it can not be open to any one to treat this as a binding judicial precedent. If there is some thing which has not been considered in the process of arriving at their conclusions in the Ruling, the same has to be considered and adjudicated upon. (A. Y. 2005-06).

G. D. Metasteel (P) Ltd. v. ACIT (2011) 47 SOT 62 / 64 DTR 161 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Interpretation – Precedent – Binding nature – Non Jurisdictional High Court – Tribunal

In the absence of any contrary view, decisions of non jurisdictional High Court have to be followed by the Tribunal. It is not permissible for the authorities below to ignore the decision of the higher forum on pretext that an appeal is filed in the Supreme Court, which is pending or that steps are to be taken to file an appeal. (A. Y. 2007-08).

Addl. CIT v. Royal Bank of Scotland N. V. (2011) 130 ITD 305 / 138 TTJ 698 / 55 DTR 307 (Kol.)(Trib.)

Interpretation – Precedent – Decision of jurisdictional High Court – Binding nature

Tribunal has to follow the decision of the jurisdictional High Court without making any comment upon the said decision, it is not permissible for the Tribunal to sidetrack and / or ignore the decision of the jurisdictional High Court on the ground that it did not take into consideration a particular provision of law. (A. Ys. 1999-2000 & 2002-03)

Dy. CIT v. Gujarat Ambuja Cements Ltd. (2011) 57 DTR 179 (Mum.)(Trib.)

Interpretation – Precedent – Ratio – Conclusion – Binding nature – Supreme court – High Court

It is also well settled that the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court or the High Court must be read as a whole and the observations from the judgment have to be considered in the light of the question, context and the facts of that case. It is neither desirable nor permissible to pick out a word or a sentence from the judgment of the Hon'ble apex Court, divorced from the context of the question under consideration and treat it to be the complete law laid down by the Hon'ble Court. It is also equally well settled that a decision is to be followed for what it actually decides and not necessarily for what logically follows from it. (A.Y. 1993-94)

ACIT v. Affection Investments Ltd. (2003) 80 TTJ 278 / (2004) 2 SOT 165 (Ahd.)(Trib.)

Appeal – Condonation of Delay – Substantial Justice – Unless mala fides are writ large, delay should be condoned – Matters should be disposed of on merits and not technicalities

Justice can be done only when the matter is fought on merits and in accordance with law rather than to dispose it of on such technicalities and that too at the threshold. Unless malafides are writ large on the conduct of the party, generally as a normal rule, delay should be condoned.

Improvement Trust v. Ujagar Singh (2010) 6 SSC 786 / (2010) 6 Scale 173 (SC)

Appeal – Inter departmental litigation – Public sector undertakings – Clearance from committee on disputes – Supreme Court recalls law requiring PSUs to obtain COD approval

Larger Bench of Supreme Court recalled its order laid down in ONGC v. CCE 104 CTR (SC) 31 and ONGC v. CIDCO (2007) 7 SCC 39, that no litigation could be proceeded with in the absence of COD approval in case of dispute between Government and PSUs. It was held that the mechanism was set up with a laudatory object. However, the mechanism has led to delay in filing of civil appeals causing loss of revenue. Thus, in view of the said circumstances it was decided by Larger Bench to recall the directions of this Court.

Electronics Corporation of India Ltd. v. UOI / CCE v. Bharat Petroleum Corpn. Ltd. (2011) 51 DTR 193 / 238 CTR 353 / 332 ITR 58 (SC) (5 Member Bench)

Appeal – CBDT directed to formulate uniform policy with strict parameters on appeal filing

It is high time when the Central Board of Direct and Indirect Taxes comes out with a uniform policy, laying down strict parameters for the guidance of the field staff for deciding whether or not an appeal in a particular case is to be filed. We are constrained to observe that the existing guidelines are followed more in breach, resulting in avoidable allegations of malafides etc on the part of the officers concerned.

CCE v. Doaba Steel Rolling Mills Civil Appeal No. 3400 of 2003 dated 6-7-2011 (SC)
Source : www.itatonline.org

Bias – Question of “bias” in judicial function – Must be seen from “reasonable man’s” perspective

To decide whether there is “bias”, the “real likelihood test” has to be adopted. In each case, the Court has to consider whether a fair minded and informed person, having considered all the facts would reasonably apprehend that the Judge would not act impartially. To put it differently, the test would be whether a reasonably intelligent man fully apprised of all the facts would have a serious apprehension of bias. In deciding the question of bias one has to take into consideration human probabilities and ordinary course of human conduct.

P. D. Dinakaran, Justice v. Hon’ble Judges Inquiry Committee (2011) JT (10) 230 / 9 SCALE 437 (SC)

Black Money – DTAA does not protect tax evaders – SIT formed to probe black money –Fundamental rights – Double taxation avoidance – DTAA – India-Germany

We are convinced that the said agreement, by itself, does not proscribe the disclosure of the relevant documents and details of the same, including the names of various bank account holders in Liechtenstein. The “information” that is referred to in Article 26 is that which is “necessary for carrying out the purposes of this agreement”, i.e. the Indo-German DTAA. Therefore, the information sought does not fall within the ambit of this provision. It is disingenuous for the Union of India, under these circumstances, to repeatedly claim that it is unable to reveal the documents and names as sought by the Petitioners on the ground that the same is proscribed by the said agreement. It is for the Union of India, and the courts, in appropriate proceedings, to determine whether such information concerns matters that are covered by the double taxation agreement or not.

Ram Jethmalani and others v. UOI (2011) 339 ITR 107 / 200 Taxman 171 / 8 SCC 1 (SC)

Tax evasion – Black money – Tax evasion & money laundering – Bail cancelled

Respondent 1 having deposits in a Swiss bank were not satisfactorily accounted for. His total income for various assessment years between 2001-02 to 2007-08 was estimated by the department as ₹ 1.104 lakh crores. He was not able to discharge burden of proof on him under section 24 of the PMLA, 2002 that wealth possessed by him was neither proceeds of crime nor untainted property. In these circumstances, order granting bail by High Court Set aside.

UOI v. Hassan Ali Khan and Another (2011) 10 SCC 235

Legislative Powers – Taxation – Tax on Land and Buildings

It is well settled that the power of “regulation and control” is separate and distinct from the power of taxation. A power to regulate, develop or control would not include within its ken a power to levy tax or fee except when it is regulatory. A reasonable tax or fee on mineral bearing land levied by State Legislation cannot be construed as trenching upon the Union’s power and freedom to regulate and control mines and minerals. “Land” cannot be assigned a narrow meaning so as to confine to it to the surface of the earth. It includes all strata above and below.

Royalty is not tax. For levy of taxation charging section necessary, no power to levy by implication.

State of West Bengal v. Kesoram Industries Ltd. & Ors. (2004) 266 ITR 721 / 187 CTR (SC) / 10 SCC 201

Finance Act, 1986, 1987 & 1988 – Trading Company – Tea collection – Auction

Assessee company collecting tea from various tea gardens and auctioning it, could not be treated as trading company. (A.Ys. 1986-87 to 1988-89)

J. Thomas & Co. Ltd. v. CIT (2004) 267 ITR 585 / 140 Taxman 1 / 190 CTR 1 (Cal.)(High Court)

Finance Lease – Special Court – Borrower becomes owner

Finance lease is a transaction current in the commercial world, the primary purpose whereof is the financing of the purchase by the financier. The purchase of assets or equipment of assets or equipments or machinery is by the borrower. For all practical purposes, the borrower becomes the owner of the property in as much as it is the borrower who chooses the property to be purchased, takes delivery, enjoys the use and occupation of the property, bears the wear and tear, maintains and operates the machinery equipment, undertakes indemnity and agrees to bear the risk of loss or damage if any. On the facts the lessee has held to be the owner. The direction of the Custodian to deliver the cars were quashed.

Asea Brown Boveri Ltd. v. Industrial Finance Corporation of India (2006) 154 Taxman 512 (SC) / (2005) AIR SC 17 / 126 Comp Cases 332 (SC) / (2004) 12 SCC 570

Industrial company – Concessional rate of tax – Manufacture or processing

To earn the benefit of concessional rate of tax as an industrial company assessee must engage itself in manufacture or processing of goods either personally or by someone under its supervisory control or direction. (A.Ys. 1984-85 & 1985-86)

Farichem Laboratories (P.) Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 273 ITR 133 / 148 Taxman 70 / 203 CTR 377 (Cal.)(High Court)

Industrial Company – Production of Art Design Work – Base material

Assessee engaged in production of art and design works serving as base material for publicity is an industrial company.

CIT v. Shilpi Advertising Ltd. (2003) 263 ITR 479 / 185 CTR 328 / 133 Taxman 666 / (2004) 178 Taxation 717 (SC)

Trading company – Principal business – Head of income – Not relevant

Question whether assessee-company is a trading company is not dependent on head under which its income is assessed but on principal business of assessee. (A.Ys. 1989-90 to 1991-92)

J. Thomas & Co. (P.) Ltd. v. CIT (2005) 275 ITR 467 / 195 CTR 230 / 151 Taxman 86 (Cal.)(High Court)

Valuation of Shares – Compromise – Going Concern – Control Premium

Valuation done without taking in to consideration the Brands owned by the company cannot be considered as erroneous as while valuing the shares past profits, future earnings also taken in to account.

Renuka Datla (Mrs.) (Dr.) v. Solvay Pharmaceutical (2004) 265 ITR 435 / 181 Taxation 136 / 135 Taxman 200 (SC) / AIR 2004 SC 321

Natural Justice

Natural Justice – Adjudication – Duty of Disclosure – Extent and Scope – Foreign Exchange

The documents which the appellants wanted were documents upon which no reliance was placed by the authority for setting the law in to motion. The demand for supply of all documents in possession of the authority was based on vague, indefinite and irrelevant grounds. The appellants were not sure whether they were asking for copies of documents in the possession of the adjudicating authority or in the possession of the authorized officer who lodged the complaint. The only object in making such demand was to obstruct the proceedings.

Kanwar Natwar Singh v. Director of Enforcement (2011) 330 ITR 374 / (2010) 160 Comp Cas (SC)

Natural Justice – Supply of Documents – Furnishing copies

Non-furnishing of “all documents” does not violate principles of natural justice

Kanwar Natwar Singh v. Directorate of Enforcement (2011) 330 ITR 371 (SC)

Natural Justice – Orders – Speaking Orders – Guidelines

Detailed guidelines laid down as to how judgements should be written. (A.Y. 1995-96)

Jt. CIT v. Saheli Leasing & Industries Ltd (2010) 324 ITR 170 / 39 DTR 1 / 191

Taxman

165

(SC) / 6 SCC 384

Natural Justice – Need to show prejudice – Opportunity

By now it is a well settled principle of law that doctrine of principle of natural justice is not an embodied Rule. It cannot be applied in a straight jacket formula. To sustain the complaint of violation of the principle of natural justice one must establish that he has been prejudiced by non-observance of principle of natural justice. As held by the High Court, the appellant has not been able to show as to how he has been prejudiced by non-furnishing of the copy of the enquiry report. The appellant has filed an appeal before Appellate Authority which was dismissed as noticed above. It is not his case that he has been deprived of making effective appeal for non-furnishing of copy of enquiry report. He has participated in the enquiry proceedings without any demur. It is undisputed that the appellant has been afforded enough opportunity and he has participated throughout the enquiry proceedings, he has been heard and allowed to make submission before the enquiry Committee.

Om Prakash Mann v. Director of Education (Basic) & Ors. (2006) 7 SCC 558 (SC)

Natural Justice – Application of principle – Natural

Natural justice is an inseparable ingredient of fairness and reasonableness. It is even said that the principles of natural justice must be read into unoccupied interstices of the statute, unless there is a clear mandate to the contrary.

Suresh Chandra Nanhorya v. Rajendra Rajak & Ors. (2006) 7 SCC 800 (SC)

Natural Justice – Award – Writ

The principles of natural justice were also not required to be complied with as the same would have been an empty formality. The Court will not insist on compliance of the principles of natural justice in view of the binding nature of the award. Its application would be limited to a situation where the factual position or legal implication arising there under is disputed and not where it is not in dispute or cannot be disputed. If only one conclusion is possible, a writ would not issue only because there was a violation of the principles of natural justice.

Punjab National Bank & Ors. v. Manjeet Singh & Anr. (2006) 8 SCC 647 (SC)

Natural Justice – Judicial Bias – Exclusion by statute

No one shall be judge in his own cause. Principles may be excluded by statute. The question of bias will have to be decided on the facts of each case. If the assessee is able to establish that the Assessing Officer was in fact biased in the sense that he was involved or interested in his personal capacity in the out come of the assessment or procedure for assessment, no doubt, it would be a good ground for setting aside the assessment order.

UOI & Others v. Vipin Kumar Jain & Others (2005) 9 SCC 579 / (2003) 260 ITR 1 / 174 Taxation 781 / 181 CTR 24 / 129 Taxman 59 (SC)

Natural Justice – Fairness – Good conscience

Settled principles of 'statutory interpretation' require that a provision in a legislative enactment is to be interpreted in a manner which conforms to rules of natural justice, i.e., which may not be against sense of 'fairness' and 'good conscience'. (A.Ys. 1998-99 to 2000-01)

Mithlesh Kumar Tripathi v. CIT (2006) 280 ITR 16/ (2005) 149 Taxman 692 / 199 CTR 511 (All.) (High Court)

Words & Phrases

Words & Phrases – Tax Liability – Precedence over other liabilities – Special Court (Trail of offence Offences Relating to Transactions in Securities) Act, 1992 [S. 11(2)(a)]

The Special Court Constituted under Special Court (Trail of Offences Relating to Transactions in Securities) Act, 1992, has no jurisdiction to sit in appeal over the assessment of tax liability of a notified person, made by the authority or Tribunal or Court authorized to perform that function by the Statute under which the tax is levied. A claim in respect of tax assessed can not be reopened by the Special Court; and the extent of the liability, therefore, cannot be examined by the Special Court. The claims relating to tax liabilities of a notified person are along with revenues, cesses and rates for the statutory period, April 1, 1991 to June 6, 1992 to be paid first in the order of priority and in full as far as may be depending upon circumstances. The "tax due" refers to "taxes as finally assessed". (A.Ys. 1992-93, 1993-94)

Dy. CIT v. State Bank of India & Ors. (2009) 308 ITR 1 / 221 CTR 14 / 209 Taxation 1 / 176 Taxman 116 / 16 DTR 163 (SC)

Words and Phrases – Manufacture – Production – Produce

The word "production" or "produce", when used in juxtaposition with the word "manufacture", takes in bringing into existence new goods by a process which may or may not amount to manufacture. It also takes in all by-products, intermediate products and residual products which emerge in the course of manufacture of goods. (A.Y. 1979-80)

CIT v. Tara Agencies (2007) 292 ITR 444 / 210 CTR 454 / 162 Taxman 337 / 201 Taxation 359 (SC) / 6 SCC 429

Words & Phrases – Manufacture – Commercially distinct – Product – Process

Appellant contended that in the process of joining of three pipes by welding of different diameters with one another to obtain the desired length, the pipes did lose their original character, and got converted into something, which was a commercially distinctive product. Respondent contended that the poles manufactured by the appellants were classifiable under Residuary Entry pertaining to Structures. Held, activity of appellant did not amount to manufacture.

Hindustan Poles Corpn. v. Commissioner of Central Excise (2006) 4 SCC 85 / 196 ELT 400 (SC)

Words & Phrases – Ownership of Business – Going concern – Wilful

1. "Ownership of Business" is much wider than mere ownership of discrete or individual business. Above all, transfer of "ownership of business" requires that the business be sold as a going concern so as to render the transferee a successor-in-interest of the transferor.
2. An act is said to be 'wilful' if it is intentional, conscious and deliberate. The expression 'Wilful' excludes casual, accidental, bona fide or unintentional acts or genuine inability. It is to be noted that a wilful act does not encompass accidental, involuntary, or negligence. It must be intentional, deliberate, calculated and conscious with full knowledge of legal consequences flowing therefrom. The expression 'wilful' means an act done with a bad purpose, with an evil motive.

State of Orissa and Ors. v. Respondent: Md. Illiyas (2006) 1 SCC 275

Words & Phrases – Software – Non-hardware items – Programming aids

"Software" – Random House Compact Unabridged Dictionary refers to "software" as anything that is not hardware and is used with hardware. Encyclopedia Britannica refers to "software" to designate non-hardware items, namely internal programmes or routines and programming aids. Thus the programming aids are also known as software and thus the goods in question would fall within the meaning of the word "software".

Commissioner of Customs v. Pentamedia Graphics Ltd. (2006) 6 RC 380 / 198 ELT 164 (SC)

Words & Phrases – Tax – Fees – Compensatory Taxes

Tax is levied as a part of common burden. The basis of the tax is the ability or the capacity of the payer to pay. There is no identification of specific benefit, even if there is identification; there is no direct measurement of such benefits.

A fee is generally a term of a licence. It is based on the "principle of equivalence". The basis of a fee or a compensatory tax is the same. The main basis for both fees and compensatory tax is the quantifiable or measurable benefit from payment of such fees or compensatory tax.

Jindal Stainless Ltd. & Others. v. State of Haryana (2006) 283 ITR 1 / 152 Taxman 561 / 194 Taxation 525 (SC)

Words and Phrases – Effect of word “shall” in a statute – Mandatory – Contextual

The use of the word “shall” in a statute, ordinarily speaking, means the statutory provision is mandatory. It is to be construed as such, unless there is something in the context in which the word is used, which would justify a departure from such meaning.

Hemlatha Gargya v. CIT (2003) 259 ITR 1 / 128 Taxman 190 / 182 CTR 107 / 174 Taxation 758 (SC)

Words and Phrases – “Tax” Meaning of – Central Excise Act, 1944

The word “Tax” in clause (ii) of section 4 (4) (d) of the Central Excise Act, 1944 defining “value” in relation to excisable goods, has been given a wide interpretation to include all monies raised: the levy has still to be by the Central or State Legislature or by some statutory authority. Therefore, the amount collected as per the A joint Plant Committee and a steel priority Committee set up under section 17B of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955, cannot be termed as “Tax”.

Tata Iron and Steel Co. Ltd. v. Collector of Central Excise (2003) 263 ITR 466 / (2004) 178 Taxation 719 (SC)

Words and Phrases – Processing of Goods – Cold Storage

Business of cold storage was not an industry engaged in the “Processing of goods” and the respondent which carried on the business of cold storage was not entitled to the benefit of reduced electricity duty under notification dated November 1, 1965, issued under the Rajasthan Electricity (Duty) Act, 1962.

State of Rajasthan & Others v. Rajasthan Ice & Cold Storage & Ors. (2003) 264 ITR 158 / (2004) 178 Taxation 732 / 134 Taxman 259 (SC)

Disclaimer-The contents of this digests are solely for educational and informal purpose. It does not constitute professional advice or formal documentation. While due care and sincere effort has been made in preparing this digests to avoid errors or omissions in this digests, the existence of mistakes and omissions herein not ruled out. Any mistake, error or discrepancy noted may be brought to the notice which shall be considered in next digest. Neither the authors, publishers, nor itatonline.org and its affiliates accept any liabilities for any loss or damage of any kind arising out of inaccurate or incomplete information in this digest nor action can be taken in reliance thereon. It is requested that to avoid any doubt the reader should cross check all the facts, law and contents of the digest with original reports referred by the authors. No part of this digests should be distributed or copied (Except for non-commercial use), without express written permission of itatonline.org. We also acknowledge that the digest is prepared on referring the following Journals and magazines, we sincerely acknowledge their contribution. (ACCJ, BCAJ, CTC, CTR, DTR, ITD, ITR, ITR (Trib.), TTJ, Taxman, and itatonline.org. Contribution by the authors to bring out this digest is only on honorary basis to help the professionals to find out the case laws reported in various journals or magazines at one stop.

All disputes are subject to Mumbai Jurisdiction.

Contribution by, Research team of AIFTP Journal Contributors , members of the ITAT Bar Association Mumbai and KSA Legal Chambers